Extius jam, SERENISSIMI PRINCIPES, annus vertitur, ex quo Anglorum, Gallorum, Italorum provincias exempto, recentiffimam vel literariæ Hiſtoriam, ſeu Eruditorum Acta utcunque compo-

pere, ac per menſium intervalla publici facere poſſe cæpimus. Neque hunc inſtitutis nos vel ſuccellus pœnitet, vel impoſitorum, Patres Divinum nobis Numen proſequendo operi pares ſuffecerit, pœnitebit nunquam. Equidem non ea fuit me arrogantia, ut exiſtimarem Orbi Eruditi fatisfactionem nobis arbitrem: quam fatemur potius libentes, deſiderari in hoc opere noſtro, neque reprehendi non paucas poſſe. Comperium ſudorum etiam, non deſſe, qui Acta hæc perſtent, ac Theonino velut dente rodant, non nifi obtrectandi libidine, carpentesque quæ vel non capiunt, vel comendare ipſi adiuſtis quocunque ſtudio non poſſint. Neque dubitamus, inter tot, qui decerpam a noſtra fide religionem profiterear, fore quibus non omnia probentur, quæ in recensendis Theologici argumenti libris dicta sunt a nobis, aut dicenda potius fuerunt. Tametsi enim circumspecta adhibita fuit cautio, ne quod temere nobis verbum excideret, quod durius videri aut aculeatum τοῖς ὀνπᾶξ ἐναντίοις posset; non ignoramus tamen, quam teneri multorum præjudiciis præsertim occupatorum sensus sint, ubi professionem fidei, cui a prima ætate assueverunt, quacunque ratione convelli, aut quæ convellendæ illi ab aliis traduntur, vel recenseri viderint. Denique retrolapsis tribus annis qui ediderunt libros, quorum nullam Actæ hac mentionem faciunt, justam de nobis conquerendi causam habere sibi videbuntur; ac si hoc silentio damnare velut eorum labores, aut vilitatis notam inurere ipsidem voluissemus. Quæ tamen universa eo nondum valuerunt, ut a proposito dimovere nos, aut cursui semel cœpto remoram injicere aliquam potuerint. Nam cordatorum quidem doctorumque virorum, qui defectus & παροράματα in hoc opere deprehendent, modeste que indicabunt, (quod ne facere detrectent, summo studio rogantur) minime deprecamur censuram, gnari, homines etiam vigilantissimos nonnunquam dormitare, & qui firmissimis stare talis videbantur, titubare aliquando; ut proinde nec a nobis humani quid-

quam putemus alienum. Momum, cujus vel supercilium Acta nostra contemnenda statuit, aut qui invidia accensus nigris ea salibus proscindere non dubitat, negligendum arbitramur suoque, donec ipse meliora prodat, livori ac superbiæ relinquendum. Eos vero, qui alienam a nostra fide tuentur professionem, ea erga nos usuros speramus æquitate, quam in causa simili a nobis ipsimet essent requisituri: nec postulaturos adeo, ut religioni, quam orthodoxam sacris q; literis conformem conscientia convicti tenemus, ullis unquam simus præjudicio. Etsi iidem non poterunt non agnoscere, suorum etiam scripta, quibus fides & doctrina nostra oppugnatur, minime a nobis supprimi, sed ideam eorum Historice delineatam, quod ipsi censoris partes non sustineamus, aliorum, ad quos illa spectant, examini ac judicio committi. Denique, si qui libros suos contemtu quodam præteriri a nobis arbitrantur, eos quidem, ut suspicionem eam omnem ponant, sincere ac peramanter rogamus. Qui jura Principum & actiones editis libellis sub examen revocare sustinent, altum hic de suis silentium non mirabuntur; neq; dissimulamus, id scriptorum genus consulto a nobis prætermitti. Reliqui etiam succensere nobis desinent, si expendere velint, nec libros omnes ad nostras pervenire manus, & crescente indies eorum, qua tantum non obruimur, multitudine, non posse non libros etiam bonos, atque memorari, quin & laudari dignissimos, sub manibus nonnunquam velut disparere. Quanquam nec illud diffitemur, dum de exoticis, quorum notitia inprimis aperienda nostris videbatur, exactiorem curam suscipimus, multa, quæ in Germania nostra produntur, omitti, nullius sane vilitatis præjudicio, sed quod in cunctis passim officinis prostent venalia, inque Francofurtanum & Lipsiensem librorum indicem relata, nemini facile ignorari ea arbitremur. Quapropter sicuti causa Divino munere adhuc dum nulla est, quæ cœptis nos desistere, & quam exorsi sumus telam abrumpere jubeat: ita fatemur, in suscepto nos labore confirmari maxime, & ad alacrius illum continuandum haud parum excitari, gravissimorum quorundam ac illustrium etiam virorum, qui non in Germania tantum, sed exteris etiam regionibus eruditionis laude florent, honestissimo judicio: quippe qui publice privatimque non dubitarunt utilitatem instituti nostri commendare, cohortari nos ad constantiam, suam & polliceri nobis opem & præstare, sic ut se nihil etiam, quo promoveri hoc negotium queat, omissuros imposterum esse receperint. Nec quidquam tamen est, quod voluptatem nobis adferre potuit majorem, quam

A GENEALOGICAL HISTORY of the Kings of England, and Monarchs of great Britain, from the Conqueſt Anno 1066, to the year 1677, by Francis Sandford, Esq. Lancaſter Herald at arms.

hoc eſt:

Hiſtoria Genealogica Regum Angliæ & Monarcharum Magnæ Britanniæ, ab anno 1066, usque ad annum 1677. Auctore Franciſco Sandfordio, Armigero, Feciali Lancaſtrenſi.

Londini, 1683. in fol. Apud Rich. Chiſvvel.

QUum absque genealogicæ artis cognitione omnis hiſtoria obſcura ſit ac imperfecta, probari utique, ac quovis laudum genere cohoneſtari merentur, qui non tantum animum ad ejus culturam conferunt, ſed & ita in ea verſantur, ut aliis proſint. Quo nomine plurimum literatus orbis debet Franciſco Sandfordio, Anglo, qui Regum Gentis ſuæ ſtemma ac ſurculos tanta cum cura perquiſivit, ut jam in Anglicæ hiſtoriæ ea parte, quæ in Wilhelmo Conqueſtore principium ducit, nihil amplius tenebrarum aut caliginis, quod animum veri cupidum abducere vel morari poſſit, ſupereſſe videatur. Dividit vero opus hoc ſuum, figuris æneis nitidiſſimis, quibus Regum effigies, eorundemque & aliarum illuſtrium perſonarum ſigilla, arma, epitaphia, ac monumenta alia exprimuntur, egregie exornatum, Autor in libros ſeptem; quoniam ipſa Regum ſibi ſuccedentium ſeries totidem periodis commode includitur.

ditur. Cujusque Monarchæ res gestas succincte, ac tribus quasi verbis recenset, ortus autem imprimis ac propagines, a rerum Anglicarum Scriptoribus plerumque negligentius traditas, diligenter ac late persequitur. Itaque non eos tantum, qui regnum tenuere, memorat, sed quoscunque e regia stirpe oriundos vel olim Anglia habuit, vel hodieque habet.

Periodus prima Normannorum Dynastiam complectitur, inque ea sistit Wilhelmum Conquestorem, post res plurimas prospere ac præclare gestas, filii primogeniti Roberti rebellione infelicem; Wilhelmum II, quem historiæ Ruffum nominant, ejusque fratrem Henricum, in cujus morte, mascula Normannorum Principum linea exstincta, ac regia successio primum interrupta fuit. Filiam enim ac heredem Henrici unicam Mechtildem, quæ secundis nuptiis Godofredo Plantagenetæ (sic dicto a planta Genestæ, cujus fasciculum in capite gestare solebat,) Comiti Andegavensium juncta fuerat, Stephanus Moritoniæ Comes, Henrici I ex sorore nepos, occupato per fraudem regio solio, ab hæreditate excluſit. E liberis, quos ex pellice Henricus susceperat, superstites patri fuere Robertus Gloceſtriæ, & Reginaldus Cornubiæ Comites, quorum conjugia ac posteri sub libri primi finem nominantur.

Periodus altera Plantagenetæ progeniem, quamdiu ea in plures ramos divisa non fuit, enumerat Initium fit ab Henrico IV, filio Mechtildis, qui mortuo Stephano, unanimi applausu regnum cepit, ducta in matrimonium Eleonora Aquitaniæ herede, quæ propter Rosamundæ pellicis amorem marito iniquior, funestam inter patrem ac liberos discordiam fovit, ac quibus potuit, modis nutrire satagit. Mortuo hinc ex mœrore Henrico succeſſit filius Richardus ejus nominis primus, qui bello in Palæstina gesto inclaruit. Is quum sine prole decessisset, Johannem, fratrem natu minorem, regni hæredem nuncupavit, excluso a successionis spe Arthuro, Godofredi fratris majoris filio, qui paulo post in prælio a patruo captus interiit. Johannes & domi & foris parum felix intestinis subditorum motibus continuo exercitus, in Gallia vero variarum provinciarum dominatu exutus est. Nec magis auspicatum filii Henrici III regnum fuit, qui Ludovico IX, Galliarum Regi, jus omne in Normanniam, Pictaviam, Andegaviam, accepta pecuniæ summa, cessit, ne is cum Anglis pacificauit, Regi Scotiæ propinquus, anno iuuenis. Adhuc superstes Henricus Comes Northumbriæ Henrici Quinti, Henricus, cui quo tempore Edmundo familia Comitum Dacum decessit; & Edmundus, cui Henricus filius, cuius neptis Henricus duos filios Lancastriæ ducibus Iohanni quatuor haredes reliquit quibus nomen fecit genitrix mater, Hanc autem Iohanna de Gordano magna, omnium quæ patri erant, & quæ matri mox auus, ut cum eo vita Lancastrensium reliquias fuit. Hos patrem eum Willelmum Sir Thomas Comitis Salisburiæ filium, & Iohannæ Beaufortæ matrem, Ioannis magni Regis Castiliæ filiam, Eleonoræ Comitis Herefordiæ neptem, Ioannæ Westmorlandiæ magnæ matris filiam.

Inde cum ea Ioannam Angliæ Monarchiam increbuit, qua cum Dominus Iesus Christus omnium regum & dominus Ecclesiæ suæ matrimonii, per ecclesiam peregrinam omnium redemptæ vitæsponsa, novum tantum fœnus, nullius, quantum fatemur, qui ex Henrici III. filia Edmundum magnificentem, Edwardumque fecundum, fed illum corpore mentem longe magnificentiorem, Iohannæ Lancastrensis filiæ effecerunt. Cognata id a Lancastrensium fedibus, Richardi II. tempore, fallo excidium horum ducum, ac ultimi nobilis quod in Anglia fuit Henrici, primogenitorum, adhuc regno merito pofi patrem proximi. Hic Richardus Henrici portio cum regno, Ioannæ proles, quoque regina illa vocabatur, fuit; fed dum pofiea incidit, ad fedis Romanæ annos proceres & Anglicæ dominationis impatientem exilio perpetuum regnum amisit, nullum, hodie filio Edmundi Comitis relicto. Ab quo patrimonium fummum Iesuque indulgens gaudio, ex nomen commendatum est proceres, quod ex comitis Lancastri, ex conjugis filiabus, quarum edulonio hic fuit labebat, ac spicies & regum & nobilissimorum, Edwardum III. bella adversus Gallos Edwardi gesta celebrare cupiebant. Edwardi complenda sibi fpecimen omnium magnitudo, quam primus in Anglia Dux tenuit, ac reliqua & quæ ejus nomine hactenus exercuit. Sed quia eam quæ Ioannæ Fœnus dixerimus, Richardus II quo filius erat Edwardi III. inclinavit. Eiusque ingressus est, cognatum inter & ipsi viventes, regnum proximo de consanguinitate gradu, quæ tandem ante diem erat, occupatus per vim Iohannes Iohannis Lancastrensis filius. Accidens regni primum Ioannæ, dubium an quale ex morte interiit. Protruſit illuſtre ſtemma trium Edvvardorum ſurculos quamplurimos, ſed eos parum diu, ſi Lancaſtrenſem ac Eboracenſem ramum excipias, virentes habuit. Edvvardus I ex altero conjugio cum Margaretha Franciæ filia, reliquerat Thomam Norfolchiæ & Edmundum Cantii Comites; neutro tamen maſculam prolem ſuſcipiente, ſubito iſtæ familiæ extinctæ ſunt. Edmundi interim filia Johanna, Edvvardo Walliæ principi nupta, Richardi regis mater fuit. Leonellus, quem alii Leonatum dicunt, tertius Edvvardi III filius, & ipſe non niſi filiam Philippam, hæredem ſuam, genuit; quæ Edmundo Mortomaro Marchiæ Comiti nupta, filio Rogero cum hæreditate titulum reliquit, quo cum Johanne de Gandauo, Angliæ regnum petente, diſputaret. Emarcuit Marchiæ Comitum ſtirps in Edmundo, cujus ſororem Annam Richardus, Edmundi Eboracenſis filius, duxit, quo matrimonio fatalia duarum roſarum diſſidia enata ſunt. Thomas Gloceſtriæ Dux Edvvardi III filius natu minimus, uti ipſe intempeſtiva morte occubuit, ita nec poſteritatem longam nactus eſt, filio ejus unico Humfredo in primis pueritiæ annis decedente.

Periodus quarta Lancaſtrenſium res ac imperia deſcribit. Erat Johannes de Gandauo Edvvardi III filius, qui ducta in matrimonium filia ac hærede Henrici Lancaſtriæ Ducis, ab Edmundo Henrici III filio oriundi, non tantum illius Ducatus in ſe poſſeſſionem derivavit, ſed & jus de regno cum Mortomaro contendendi accepiſſe ſibi viſus eſt. Id poſtmodum armis firmavit Henricus Herfordiæ Dux, Johannis filius, quum indigne ferret exilium, quo a rege multatus fuerat; ac ſuperato aliquot præliis Richardo, regnum tredecim annos tenuit. Quibus exactis, cum morti vicinus eſſet, ipſe, referente Sandfordio, agnovit, ſibi parum ad regium diadema capiendum juris fuiſſe; ac ſubjunxit, ſe filium precari, ut juſtitiæ ſedula adminiſtratione firmare titulum aut potius corrigere annitatur. Henricus V Angliæ Regum feliciſſimus, totam pene Galliam armis vicit ac ſubegit; ductaque in matrimonium Catharina Caroli VI filia, a ſocero regni hæres nuncupatus fuit. Sed dum Carolum Delphinum uxoris fratrem perſequeretur, in itinere ex febri obiit. Ei ſucceſſit Henricus VI, humanarum rerum inconſtantiæ ac viciſſitudinis triſte exemplum. Nam quem puerum duorum maximorum regnorum arbitrum omnes venerati erant, hunc ſenem, avito etiam imperio exutum, tandem immiſſi ab Edvvardo Eboracenſi

ſicarii interfecerunt. Henricus IV primus ex Lancaſtrenſibus Anglorum Monarcha, præter Henricum V patris in regno ſucceſſorem, tres filios ex prima conjuge Maria ſuſceperat, Thomam Clarentiæ, Johannem Bedfordiæ, & Humfredum Gloceſtriæ Duces, qui tamen omnes ſine prole fuerunt. Johanni autem de Gandauo Lancaſtrenſium capiti, Catharina, quam tertiis nuptiis ſibi junxerat, ipſa olim ut pellice uſus, peperit Johannem Somerſetiæ Comitem, cui Richardus II a patruo exoratus, legitimationis literas conceſſit. Atque hic Johannes avus eſt Henrici VII, qui poſt immenſas lites utramque roſam felici matrimonio conjunxit. Ad eundem familiæ ſuæ originem hodierni Wigorniæ Comites in Anglia referunt.

Periodus quinta Eboracenſium eſt. Horum caput quondam Edmundus fuit, Edvvardi III filius quintus, cujus pronepos Edvvardus, Marchiæ Comes, ſuperato Henrico VI, regnum diu ſibi debitum cepit, ac inter continuos bellorum cum inteſtinorum, tum externorum motus, duos & viginti annos tenuit. Morti proximus filios minorennes Edvvardum V regni hæredem, & Ricardum, tutelæ ac fidei fratris ſui Ricardi Gloceſtriæ Ducis commiſit, qui regni amore captus, duos illos juventutis principes dormientes injectis culcitris ſuffocari curavit. Aſt male quæſita dignitas parum ipſi diuturna fuit; poſt duos quippe annos ab Henrico Richmondiæ Duce, qui ex Lancaſtrenſibus unicus ſupererat, victus, in prælio, nulla poſt ſe relicta prole, cecidit. Edvvardi IV frater alius Georgius Clarentiæ Dux, parante eodem Ricardo, proditionis falſo accuſatus interiit. Ejus etiam filius unicus Edvvardus, regnante Henrico VII ſibi ab illo, ubi adoleviſſet, metuente, primum carceri incluſus, mox vita privatus fuit.

Periodus ſexta Plantagenetæ poſteros iterum unitos ſiſtit. Uniit autem roſas Henricus VII Edmundi Comitis Richmondiæ filius ex Margaretha, unica hærede Johannis Somerſetiæ Ducis, qui nepos erat Johannis de Gandauo; dum matrimonio ſibi junxit Eliſabetham Edvvardi IV Eboracenſis filiam. Hic ad Henricum VIII regnum transmiſit, quem Edvvardus VI impuber ſecutus eſt. Eum Maria ſoror natu major excepit, cui denique ſucceſſit ſororum altera Eliſabetha, illud illuſtrium fœminarum miraculum.

Periodus ultima Regnorum Conjunctionem tradit. Ea in Jacobo VI Scotiæ Rege contigit, quem Eliſabetha Angliæ heredem nun-nuncupaverat. Is filius erat Henrici Stuart, Dn. de Darley (cui pater Mattheus Comes de Lenox,) & Mariæ Scotorum Reginæ, neptis Jacobi IV ac Margarethæ filiæ Henrici VII A.R. Fatis quum concederet, reliquit ex Anna Daniæ filia Carolum illum, qui adeo imparem animi sui magnitudini ac indignum divinis dotibus exitum sortitus est. Persequitur autem turbas illas stricte Sandfordius, quoniam latius eas & singulari cum cura descripserat Wilhelmus Dugdale, eo nomine lectori curioso videndus, & a nobis anni 1683 mense Junio, pag. 227 memoratus. Inde Jacobi, hodierni Eboracensium Ducis, natales ac matrimonia, liberi etiam, & quæ memorabilia ad annum usque 1677 ipsi contigerunt, enarrantur. Ultimum caput historiam augusti Anglorum Monarchæ Caroli II tradit, cujus cum Catharina Lusitaniæ Principissa conjugium toti operi colophonem imponit.

Attingit autem Sandfordius, dum Principum gentis suæ origines inquirit, non raro Germanicarum rerum memoriam, inprimis ob fœdera conjugalia, quibus subinde Anglia se Germaniæ, hæc illi junxit. Mechtilden memorat Henrici Primi filiam, Secundi matrem, Henrico IV Imperatori (quem alii quintum numerant,) nuptam fuisse, ac in ejus memoriam factum versiculum recensет:

Ortu magna, Viro major, sed maxima Prole, hic jacet Henrici, filia, sponsa, parens.

Mechtildis junior Henrici II filia nupserat Henrico Bavaro*, quem Autor V vocat, alii VIII faciunt. Ejus pater erat Henricus ille Superbus, qui cum Conrado Imperatori se arroganter opponeret, & sibi & familiæ suæ exitio fuit. Johannes Angliæ Rex, Henrici II filius, mortuo Ricardo fratre, regno potitus, in matrimonium petiit filiam Humberti II, ut scribit Sandfordius, vel rectius III Comitis Sabaudiæ, quæ tamen, antequam sponso jungeretur, decessit. Eo loco quod Autor monet, ab isto Humberto Saxonum Principes originem ducere, id ab historica veritate omnino alienum est. Rerum enim Sabaudiæ Scriptores tantum non omnes ipsi agnoscunt, Saxonicam Domum Principibus suis primam originem dedisse, ac in eo gloriantur. Quamvis interim in caliginosa antiquitate non satis discernere liceat, quis illustris stemmatis ramus nobilissimam Gentem progerminaverit. Habuit ille Humbertus, vel, ut alii scribunt, Hugo, ex tertia conjuge filium unicum, qui quidem ex Beatrice uxore plures liberos Hinc Philologi summi magno numero scripta ejus in linguam Latinam transtulerunt. Buxtorfius Moreh Nevochim, Gentius Rosch Amanah, & Hilkorh Deoth, Vossius Ofedim Kokasim & Asodah Sarah, Voisin Jovel, Hilpertus Teschusah, Schmidius Annotat. ad Massecheth Schabbath & Erubhin, alii alia Latine reddita erudito orbi communicarunt. His comparandus, si non aliquibus anteferendus Dn. de Compeigne. Postquam enim, ut alia aliorum, in quibus similis auctoris apparet industria, præteream, tractatus Majemonidis, de pane fermentato & azymo, cui titulum fecit, de solennitate paschatis, de connubiis ante novem annos, de Consecratione Calendarum & ratione intercalandi ante annos quatuordecim, ex Hebræo Latinos factos & notis illustratos vulgaverat: & præcipue non ita pridem ejusdem librum de culto divino, in quo templum Hierosolymitanum, ejus instrumentum, ministrorum ordo, reique divinæ ratio describitur, versum & notationibus necessariis elucidatum ediderat; consequens fere necessarium esse videbatur, ut propter argumentorum affinitatem & frequentissimam unius in altero allegationem, librum de Sacrificiis Latina civitate donatum emitteret.

Quid præter versionem in hoc opere dederit effectum, ipsemet in Proœmio disserit, quando ait: se difficilia explicasse, obscura illustrasse, Iustrasse, latentia aperuisse, & ea denique, quæ nisi cum integra quadam negligentia prætermitti non poterant, protulisse. Porro, quia Majemonidæ tractatus sæpissime hinc inde est impressus, monendum credidit lectorem, quibus editionibus & exemplaribus in contexenda versione fuerit usus. Memorat autem duplicem. Venetam utramque, quarum una A. 1524, altera A. 1574 cum binis commentariis & animadversionibus quibusdam prodierunt. Harum discrepantias sedulo annotavit, ita quidem, ut non obscure conjicimus, antiquiorem multis in locis emendatiorem longe esse recentiori, cum hanc ex illa sæpissime corrigat, non item illam ex hac. Utramque ex fontibus ipsis, Mischna nimirum & Gemara, unde Majemonides pleraque depromsit, vel etiam ex observationibus Rabbinorum aut Philologorum aliis, ficubi fallam deprehendit, fideliter emendat, & ne quid celasse videatur Lectorem suum, Mischnæ quoque editionem a se adhibitam nominat.

Totus liber absolvitur tractatibus sex, quorum primus de sacrificio paschali, secundus de sacris solennibus, tertius de primitiis animantium, quartus de noxiis imprudenter admissis, quintus de indigenibus paveuli, ultimus de bestiarum confectrarum mutatione loquuntur. Circa sacrificium paschale sedecim examinat præcepta, jubentia quatuor, vetantia duodecim, quæ victimam paschalem, primam & secundam, utrinsque tempus definirunt, remotionem fermenti ex ædibus ante cæsionem victimæ, exorcismi ejectionem, panis azymi & olerum amarorum simultaneam appositionem, modum præparandi, locum & societatem comedentem, convivas inhabiles, ossium servandam integritatem, cautelamque, ne quid de victimis in mane crastinum, de sacro solenni in perendinum relinquatur, concernunt. De sacris solennibus disputans, præcepta sex, imperantia quatuor & prohibentia duo, in medium profert. Imperat frequentationem solennium, observationem temporum flatorum, hilaritatem & solennitatem septimo quoque anno celebrandam; prohibet, ne vacui coram Domino compareant & dona Levitis debita negligant. Primitias animantium quinque præceptis absolvit, quorum duo consecrationes partuum & decimarum animantium injungunt, tria reliqua comestionem partus primi sani & integri extra urbem, & redemtiones partus primi nec non bestiæ decumarum nomine ineratæ prohibent. In tractatu quarto præmonet primum, capite præsertim quinto multa occurrere re & nominibus obscœna, quæ tamen ipsi ut rerum & verborum interpreti omittere non licuerit, nec Guillelmum Outramum imitari, in cujus libro de Sacrificiis ea non inveniantur: dein ipsa præcepta, numero quinque, affirmativa omnia, de noxiis imprudenter admissis enarrat, quæ sacrificia, statum piaculare privati per imprudentiam delinquentis, pro delicto dubio, pro delicto certo, inæquale divitis & pauperis, piaculare senatus de re graviore per errorem contra jus fasque respondentis præscribunt. De indigentibus piaculi quatuor præcepta volentia proponit, quorum bina priora fœminam profluvio sanguinis temeratam & puerperam, posteriora virum profluvio genituræ pollutum & lepra contaminatum, sublatis inquinamentis, respiciunt. In bestiarum consecratarum mutatione tria inveniuntur præcepta, quorum duo tum summissionem bestiæ alius in locum consecratæ, tum variationem religionis animantium sacrorum prohibent, unum vero ut summissa etiam bestia sacra sit, injungit.

Ad versionem Auctoris quod attinet, sensum in plerisque sequitur accuratius quam verba, sic tamen ut aliquando ab ipso sensu textus Hebraici quodammodo recedat. Quæ tamen cum non adeo magni sint momenti, nec adeo multa, commendanda adhuc venit modis omnibus industria ejus, excitandusque videtur ulterius, ut quæ subinde in Annotationibus nova pollicetur ingenii documenta, orbi erudito invidere nolit. Notæ licet strictiores sint & pauciores, sua tamen non defraudandæ encomio. Etenim aliqua in illis continentur satis bona ad meliorem intellectum historiæ sacræ & cumprimis quorundam N. T. locorum. Sic iter Sabbati, de quo Act. I. 12; mandatum Christi: tolle grabatum, Joh. V. 8; hymnum paschalem Matth. XXVI. 30; duplex genus eunuchorum Matth. XIX. 12; evulsionem spicarum ab Apostolis factam Matth. XII. 1. sq. explanat, aliaque loca obscuriora, Matth. X. 40, 1. Cor. V. 7, Hebr. XIII. 11. seqq. illustrat, & ex antiquitate Hebraica dilucidat. Præterea ex R. Bechai Commentariis in Leviticum, ex Josephi libb. Antiqq. Judaicarum, ex R. Joseph Karo Notis כסף משנה inscriptis multa affert, quæ vel ad Majemonidem corrigendum, vel ad loca obscuriora explananda conducere videntur. Refutat Philonem Judæum, quod ex animantibus

Inter scriptores veteres alios fuisse fateris elegantiores, alios crassiores Latinos? Ita sane. Sed vera Medici utriusque, qui nunc apud nos dominatur, dignitas ex Medicis, non ex Latinis pendet. Hic tam magnus fuisse Galenus potuisset orbibus, ob eamen fortasse Latinitatem, alia quoque ob causam, quam Rabbinicam pertimescentibus, scriptor elegans, qui ordinem per varios [illegible] intelligi illud, quod ex Galeno ipso desumi debere Galenum ipse, quemadmodum & alios ante eum Clarissimi Medici, [illegible] eum non esse Galenum id, quod ubique se fieri autumat, ex ipsa Galeni ratione [illegible] quam per [illegible] ostendimus: notat quidem de vocibus [illegible] Galeno illud fieri quoque debere, ut Hippocrates, Aristoteles, Nicomedes, Marcus Herophilus, Hieronymus de Solebeo, posteriusque Simeon non fere fiant, aegrotum de quotidiano, quoque desiderat illud quod Galenum ipsum proponit: nec non de Synodico quidem proferrit ea studia.

Sequitur Promium B. Thaci Barbarelli, quod Commentaria quæ in Levaticum præmisit, ubi dubium non erat, quin concinna & perfecte illum argumentum pertractasset, ac potius effe loco literis doctissimis in rerum dubiarum & facilicia. Nec absque ratione. Movemur, inquit, ad hoc scribendum, sed partim, quia Nicomedes ex Hippocrate Abderitæ primo in pariuque, partim quia illum in absolute quo ordinem vehementer desiderat. Tantum quidem Nicomedes reperitur, tantum, quæ nobis apparet ejus Commentarius in Legem, verum etiam quæ ad ejus mentem [illegible] proponendum proponere dum fuerit mendo. Hoc tamen præmonitus fortius fuisse fatim, si quis in Prefatione profiteatur, fe velidem rerum fenebrius, quæ vulgo observantur ex ordine, explenitis, & nonnisi divina [illegible] quæ a Judais aliter expressum, prius per [illegible] & [illegible] integra reflexisse; cum initium, quam longus fuit, [illegible] tale profiteri, non tantum inconstanti, ut non plura [illegible] quæ ad finem mentis hac deprehendere valeat.

Appendix hæc adjecta eft verbo reclame Mysteriosis in rem fortissime calendarum & rerum terrenarum, quem, licet strabo fuerit profecto, [illegible] recognovit, & nota erga vulgarem [illegible] non observatione adiunxit, & quia in eo rerum rerum rationibus percutam erat valde, ad confugium ibi Deiparam Virginem Sanctissimæ tate Regia Londinensi unum, Virum in Astronomia excellentissimum, confuluisse se ingenue fatetur, innumeris hanc Maimonidæ disputationem in tabulas esse digestam a Cluverio, una cum ejus opere magno, quod Pandectas Astronomiæ inscribit, propediem vulgandas. Denique in Corollario ex Talmude observat, visum esse LXX viris Interpretibus, ut aliqua loca Pentateuchi aliter quam in sacris originibus concepta fuerant, ponerent, & simul inde, quod ex aliis libris similia allegata non sint, adhibita autoritate Josephi, concludit, Viros LXX præter Pentateuchum nihil transtulisse.

HISTORIA CALVINISMI & PAPISMI Parallela. Tomus II.

Roterodami 1683. in 4 & 12. Apud Regn. Leers.

PRiorem operis hujus tomum menſe ſuperioris anni Decembri, pag. 520. ſqq. exhibuimus. Reliquum ergo eſt, ut promiſſi memores, quæ altero tomo pertractantur, ſtrictim referamus. Cum vero Maimburgius tria accuſationum capita contra Reformatos jactet, quod nempe occaſionem bellorum dederint; quod ſectam fecerint inſolentiſſimam & crudeliſſimam; quod denique rebellionem adverſus reges & principes ſubditis inſpiraverint: permiſſum ſibi eſſe putavit autor apologiæ, ut eadem Maimburgio, ſive Papiſmo, per modum, ut ait, recriminationis ſeu retorſionis opponeret. Papiſini autem & malorum, quæ ex Papatum dogmatibus, principiis, regulis, actionibus, ſecuta fuerint, originem notabilem in ſeculum octavum collocat, juſtoque Dei judicio factum ſcribit, quod Maimburgius in libris ſuis de Iconoclaſtis, tum de Schiſmate Orientis & Occidentis, & de Declinatione Imperii, iſthæc omnia ipſe propoſuerit, quamvis ſpecioſe incruſtata: ſed veram & genuinam rerum harum faciem, ex hiſtoria hac Papiſmi confidit apparituram eſſe.

Primam igitur ejus partem constituit historia de Iconolatria & Iconoclastia, de qua agitur parte III (quæ est liber hujus tomi primus) cap. I. Statuit autem Autor, testimoniis tum veterum tum recentiorum adductis, quod primis Christianismi seculis nulla fuerint imagines in templis, & difficile probatu sit, an crucis figura super altaribus picta fuerit, quod aliqui asserere voluerunt: cœpisse autem Romæ, aut in vicinis locis, martyrum historias in templis seculo quarto pingi, ex Prudentio, & Paulino Ep. Nolano, colligit; incrementa vero animadverti seculo sexto, cum Serenus, Massiliensium Episcopus, abusus fublaturus, imagines plane tolleret; sed Gregorius I vulgo Magnus, Romanus Episcopus, tolerandas, & populum de vero earum usu instruendum esse statuerit. Hanc opinionem facile, ait, in Italia locum invenisse, ut adeo imaginum cultus Romanæ Ecclesiæ sextus genuinus haberi debeat: difficilius vero receptam in Gallia & Germania, quod patet ex concilio a Carolo Magno Francofurti contra imagines habito. Sed Imperatorem Leonem III, cognomento Isaurum, ejusque successores, cum Iconolatriæ severiora remedia opponerent, Pontifices Romanos (qui se tamen illo tempore Imperatorum subditos esse palam agnoscebant) adeo offendisse, ut hi populos ad rebellandum, & imagines armis defendendas concitarint. Itaque bella inter Imppp. & rebellantes proceres, aut provincias, innumerasque alias calamitates Pontificibus adscribi debere, qui ob quæstionem, ad fidem non pertinentem, tot clades orbi Christiano intulerint, ut levissima sint, si cum illis comparentur, quæ Reformationis occasione Gallia, aut aliæ provinciæ passæ sint. Maimburgii subleslam fidem, & ingenium aulæ accommodatum, ex historia ejus de Iconoclastia ostendit; ficta imaginum miracula, & fraudes ad ea supponenda protrahit, & inter alia ex autoris illius temporis Arabis, Said Ibn Patrik, notabili narratione firmat. Frustra etiam infelicitatem temporum Iconoclastis imputari notat, quæ non minor sub Iconolatris deprehendatur. Cap. II. avulso occasione motuum circa imagines, Pontificum Rom. artibus, occidentis imperio, & ad Francos delato, non potuisse ait Christianæ Ecclesiæ unionem cum Imp. Orientis servari, non magis, quam Israelitæ, post invasum decem tribuum regnum a Jeroboamo. Itaque schisma cum Græcis secundum turbarum fomitem esse tradit, ejusque occasionem seculo

nono natam, cum inter Ignatium & Photium de Patriarchatu Constantinopolitano certaretur, & ille expulsus Romanum Pontificem appellaret. Culpam autem schismatis in Pontifices Romanos recidere statuit, quod eum primatu sessionis imperium affectarent, Bulgariæ diœcesin Græcis controversam facerent, & turbatoribus ac rebellibus se jungerent: factum id, cum Basilii Macedonis, qui Imperatorem legitimum necaverat, partibus accederent. Refert inde concilia sub Nicolao I & Adriano II, item Johanne IIX habita, quorum aliqua a Latinis, alia a Græcis pro Oecumenicis venditantur; & occasione Johannis istius de Johanna Papissa tractat, eamque extitisse, autorum minime suspectorum testimonio probatum videri asserit, elusa Baronii conjectura, & Maimburgii asseveratione, ac si fœminæ nomen Johanni IIX ideo impositum fuerit, quod Græcis in renunciatione jurisdictionis supremæ cessisset. Rejicit etiam imputationem, quod libri Mariani, Sigeberti, Martini Poloni, qui historiam Papissæ tradunt, ab hæreticis corrupti fuerint; quia codices longe ante Lutherum excusi, & plurima MSC. extent, quorum fidem scriptores seculi XIII & XIV confensu secuti sint. Elevat etiam tradita a Nicetæ Paphlagone, quem Maimburgius in historia Græca sequitur, licet ipse fateatur, invectivas eum potius quam historiam scripsisse. Nec Anastasii Bibliothecarii fidem in omnibus admittit, sed præfert Zonaram, & alios. Excusari non posse Pontifices dicit, quod non ob dogmata, sed ob solum primatum, schisma fecerint, nec Græcis, & Orientalibus Patriarchis, ad confervandas duas tertias Ecclesiæ, cesserint. Hac enim superbia & obstinatione factum esse, ut Imperium, Orientis debilitatum desterumque, & Turcorum jugo subjectum fuerit. Horrendum etiam esse, quod totam orientalem Ecclesiam anathemate ob illam primatus quæstionem percusserint, & quamvis in se erat, tot myriades Christianorum orco destinaverint. Cap. III. IV. & V. tertium bellorum fontem aperit, in concitatione Principum ad bellum sacrum, sive recuperandam Palæstinam. Id nullo jure fieri potuisse statuit, sed sub absurdæ superstitionis, a monachis quibusdam (inter quos Bernardus fuit) præpostero zelo sibi affirmatæ, prætextu, nihil aliud quæsitum, quam ut principes, nobiles, populique Christiani, viribus & opibus exhaustis, dominatui Pontificio locum facerent, & Græci imperii reliquiæ penitus contererentur. Narrat per compendium, quam imprudenter per duo fecula passagia illa, sive cruciata, ut vocabantur, susceptæ fuerint, stulto zelo, sine consilio, pecunia, commeatu: quam sugitiose isti exercitus omnes vixerint; quam misere innumeræ hominum myriades perierint, nihil denique tanto sanguine dignum actum, sed Christianorum in Oriente conditio, ante illa bella tolerabilis, longe durior facta fuerit. Refutatur passim Maimburgius, illa excusans aut defendens. Cap. VI quartum bellorum inter Christianos somitem in affectata suprema Paparum potestate temporali & spirituali constituit. In hac enim arcem Papismi ait consistere; nec errores ullos imputari iis, qui hanc agnoscunt; nec orthodoxiam eos juvare, qui hanc rejicunt. Ad exceptionem, quod Gallicanus Clerus Pontifici temporalem potestatem neget, multa respondet, & respici potius Hispanorum & Italorum sententiam debere contendit. Nam ex hypothesi, quod spiritualis potestas universalis Papæ competat, speciose sequi, temporalem ei non esse denegandum, quia sine hac spiritualem valide & utiliter exercere & tueri non possit. Dein si Christi vicarius est, nec ullus princeps Christo obsequium, ne in temporalibus quidem, denegare ausit, rationem nullam esse, cur id Papæ non deferatur. Probare hoc tot seculorum praxi, & exemplis damnatorum a Papis & exautoratorum Regum. Concilii Florentini & Lateranensis decretis invalide objici Constantiensia. Denique esse in Gallia monachos & Jesuitas, quique eorum partes foveant, Episcopos, qui cum curia Romana, Italisque & Hispanis consentiant. Papismum autem sive potestatem Pontificiam a religione separari non posse, licet id tentaverit auctor quidam recens in libro, in Actis anni 1682 mense Octobri pag. 310. a nobis memorato, cui titulus: Media secura & honesta ad convertendos hæreticos. Obiter taxat quosdam ex Protestantibus, qui ministris Ecclesiæ temporalem potestatem in Principes tribuant, eamque sententiam ab Ecclesia Reformata agnosci negat. Cap. VIII demonstrat quæ dixerat, de affectato a Papis summo imperio, ex historia rerum inter illos & Imperatores Romano-Germanicos, præcipue adversus Henricos, patrem & filium, gestarum, & quæ secuta sunt, usque ad Innocentii III tempora, unde jure eligendi Pontifices & Episcopos, & supremo in urbem Romam imperio Imperatores excidunt: quæ omnia quanto sanguine constiterint, quantasque clades

Cabbalæ valde vitiosa interpretatione, quæ ex ea colligunt scriptores, & confidenter Sophicum Christianum, quem nunquam habuerunt, & hoc ipso Cabbalæ a Romano Catholico exercitæ, ne quæ in ea Ecclesiæ Romanæ non sentit. Sed ego, & plures mecum, contra *Pauli*nos hic Allegoria in Apocalypsi, & qui eum tuentur, scriptorum dumtaxat, non Romano-Catholicæ, mentem hic proponimus. Cæli porta Ezech. Cap. 40 indicet continuatum perfectionum locum XIV & XV sequens usque ad cap. 20 exclusive. Claudetur, quia ex Pauli dogmate, absque mutatione Cabbalæ hoc recipitur, finis datur, quia nulla ulterior mutatio Ecclesiæ Evangelicæ, effecta in hortis dogmatum, quæ magnum agnoverint, & ad documenta præcaverit; ex quibus fidelium salus dependet. Dignitas autem Petri, Pauli, quæ Romano-Cabbalici ulterius Petro eadem excludentia ignota, sola præterea supremitatem agnoverit, attentem Sacrificiorum de lege Cæsar, cum duobus ejusdem hostiarum feretris, &c. Ipse tandem est rotarum facies, in quam erat ea crudelissima commissa & natura mentis, qua fidi fundamenta & ingenium in Ecclesiam suam Protestantium destruxit, & executioni mandata fuerunt. Cap. V cum illis, quæ ante, ita, summa brevitate, a nobis Protestantibus Romano-Catholicis proponitur fuerunt, occulta hominum plus quam externa indicia. & quæ ante aliquot annorum in Cabbala publicata sunt, fed hac attingit loco & Legem habitum & illa perfectionem excludentem, & Petri primatum & Supremitatem Catholicorum ex Irenæo nomine & dominatum ad ritumque eorum publicum. Denique cap. VI de Antichristo Romæ residente cum omnibus partibus, a delicto ab Irenæo Primitivæ Ecclesiæ Scholarca, plerisque eum Romano-Catholicis recitantem. Cum non exstet illa levitas in natura mentis, quæ hæresis mente fuit proiecta, ad quid hæc illam enumerantem Cap. VII tendat, & argumenta pro affirmativa fervi proponit. Extenta tamen, quod ab adversariis semper objectatur, exemplum Protestantium, qui quidem hæresim ad mentem evangelicorum erat in Anglia & Germa fuit sed ad Calvinismum & Cranmeri, hic Galeno. At enim rigentibus ex eadem Papistarum Repertoriis, non tantum nil adversi ex eorum sententia Antichristianum Apostolicæ, cum blasphema eorum, & impotens invocatio-

Cap. dein VIII, argumenta pro negativa affert ; & ipsius Maimburgii verba allegat libr. 1 Hist. Calv. dicentis, sufficere ad indicium fuisse & a Clerisse, pacta DEO, non profecta, sed Evangelio contraria religionis, si violentis modis stabilitantur, & huic sententiæ hodie a Pontificiis passim dicit subscribi. Cap. IX ex praxi Ecclesiæ veteris idem firmat, & Cap. X ad argumenta pro affirmativa respondet. Ne tamen dicere videatur, ac si omnino nihil contra hæreticos decerni debeat: mentem suam Cap. XI ita declarat, ut magnum hæresium differimen esse notet ; adeoque audiendos non esse dicit, qui statuant, nullum errorem circa fidem damnabilem esse, inter quos merito taxat autorem Tractatus de fide humana, a nobis in Actis mensis Julii proximi pag. 306 relatum. Damnandas dein esse statuit ab Ecclesia quidem, omnes hæreses ; sed magistratum obligari, ut dissidia autoritate sua, quantum potest, componat, leviora toleret, gravius vero errantes, si sententiam mutare nolint, saltem ad silentium adigat, & a propalatione erroris arceat, prætracte autem obnitentes, non ut errantes in dogmate, sed ut violatores præcepti sui & quietis publicæ puniat. Nam ut error theoreticus tolerari, neque conscientia cujusquam confringi possit, ut credat, quæ non vult ; fas tamen esse, linguam & manum coercere. Sic recte Arium, Dioscorum, & Eutychen relegatos fuisse, qui prohibente Imp. errores suos disseminabant. Utut autem adversus hæresiarcham, pro re nata severius procedi debeat, nec Genevensium factum, Servetum punientium, ratione aut jure careat; non posse tamen nec debere populum seductum, multo minus totas gentes, eo modo tractari : prohiberi posse ab initio cultum publicum, at si semel permissus fuerit, aut pacta cum populo errante inita, servari hæc omnino debere, nec ob mutata tempora aut alio prætextu violari ; & hanc sententiam a Becano, aliisque Theologis Romanensibus, quantum ex scriptis eorum appareat, probari.

Tertium recriminationis caput reliqua hujus quarti libri parte per octo sectiones tractatur. Repellit cap. I ut calumniam Satanicam, quod Calvinismus rebellionem adversus reges doceat, & inter alia exemplum allegat Rupellæ civitatis, quæ extrema potius ab irato Rege suo pati, quam ab eo ad Anglos deficere voluerit. Dein doctrinam hanc adversæ partis autoribus imputari jure posse ait, qui parricidia, Regum defendant, eosque monarchiæ Pontificiæ subjiciant, pro arbitrio bitio depromenda & tuitionis. Speciatim vero Iurisdictionem, quam dicunt Ecclesiasticam vocant, & quam Ecclesiæ Romanæ ex singulari concessione, agnoscitur, qui Imperatorem constituit, vel adversitatem Imperatoris, vel Ecclesiæ, cui tutus Princeps præsidet, quæ, hoc pacto appellata, constituunt quasi fines restrictos, ne prolabatur, ad pugnas retinendas, quæ sunt in dominio & ditione Ecclesiæ subjectæ, remotas in libera Germania, quæ tutius distant. Magnum est hoc restrictionis agendi & subjiciendi genus, quod in Ecclesiasticis, etsi ambitiosa & pervicacia sæpe in Ecclesia homines, tot saltem fecit, quot subjecit. Objiciunt autem Anabaptistæ in medio: & quos defendunt? quos ultimo supplicio affecerunt Romani? Respondeo: Istos Romanos & Papas, tum qui sub nomine Petri dixit, & Ecclesiam de Petro, & per Petrum Romanam Sedem: & Ecclesiam Catholicæ regi Hispaniarum, edidit dominium. Illos pulsavere dein Reformati reformandi, autor sugæ, sæpe populicidæ & principicidæ, ultio carnificis ad Ecclesiæ Romanæ ignominiam, quæ usum longo duratione fini sit, qui tamen ex Romanensium dominio regni fregerint; nec differunt in tuto, an pulli regnis, an regula dantur & populi tuti sint in Regno, locum habet, quod Ecclesiæ Romanæ tuti dominio, & quæ populus habitat pertinaciter rebelles principi Papæ. Defendunt Anabaptistæ quidquid ex principiis dictatur, parendum esse Magistratui, cum inhibebat, de tuenda Ingenua Libertate, quæ in Germania, quod ignorant, tuta est: de abolendo de Dolo magis, quam dominio. Supplicia *Michaëlis Servetti & Caroli Bl. Bonifacii IIX, quæ incipit: Unam sanctam &c, aperte ſtabilita, neque ab ullo Pontifice revocata. Fruſtra hæc excuſari ab Arnaldo, dum obedientiam Pontifici debitam ad normam S. Concilii orum & Patrum reſtringit: quia norma iſta controverſa ſit, & decreta Concilii Florentini & Lateranenſis ſanctiſſima Romæ habeantur, contemtis Conſtantienſi & Baſileenſi, & quia populus diſtinctiones Janſeniſticas non capiat. Hunc articulum de ſumma Pontificis poteſtate & infallibilitate omnibus in Romana Eccleſia, cum baptizantur, confirmantur, & ſacros ordines ſuſcipiunt, inculcari, & juramenti inſtar eſſe contendit: ex eo vero irrefragabiliter ſequi, quod Pontifici jus faſque ſit, reges ob hæreſin deponere, & hanc conſequentiam a Janſeniſtis ipſis vehementiſſime Jeſuitis objici, imo hæreſin ex hoc capite illis imputari, allegatis auctoribus, probat. Negat autem ſententiam illam a Jeſuitis unquam excogitatam, ſed antiquam, & a Gregorii VII temporibus hucusque defenſam eſſe; a Pontifice etiam qui nunc vivit, cujus ſanctitatem Arnaldus celebrat, & ab eo galeram Cardinalitium ſperare putatur, non minus atque a Prædeceſſoribus ejus ſoveri dicit, quod ex reſponſione Papæ ad Clerum Gallicanum pateat. Imo Cap. III contra Apologiſta Catholici aſſertionem ſtatuit, Clerum Gallicanum non tantum tempore Ligæ, vel ut ineptiſſime objiciatur, ex doctrina Buchanani, ſed omnium doctorum Pontificiorum, eandem ſententiam tenuiſſe, atque etiam nunc, ſi libere loqui liceat, profeſſurum eſſe, licet metu regiæ potentiæ nuper anno 1682 contrarium decreverit. Regem certe pervincere huc usque non potuiſſe, ut Sorbona Archi-Epiſcopi Strigonienſis theſes oppoſitas condemnaret; Cleri vero decretum a Lovanienſibus juſſu Pontificis condemnatum fuiſſe, & ab aliis Academiis atque Epiſcopis idem exſpectari. Veriſſimum itaque eſſe, quod Cardinalis Perronius Anno 1615 in oratione notiſſima, & ante paucos annos a Clero Gallico publice probata, aſſeveraverit, ne unicum quidem Doctorem Theologum aut JCtum, nullum etiam decretum ſeu Concilii, ſeu Parlamenti aut Magiſtratus Eccleſiaſtici vel Politici cujuscunque allegari poſſe, quo negetur Pontifici jus eſſe ſubditos juramento liberandi, ſi rex aut princeps in hæreſin incidat, ſed Calvini tempore negativam opinionem demum enatam eſſe eundem fateri. Objicit etiam iterum adverſario, quod ipſe & Janſeniſta alii hoc ipſum dogma adverſus reges, quod Refor-matis per ſummam calumniam tribuunt, Clero imputent, atque adeo falſi & bilingues ſint. Provocat ad tractatum cujusdam, qui ſe Renatum Clericum tonſuratum Archiepiſcopatus Pariſienſis nominat. Id quoque urget, eſſe & manere nihilominus axioma iſtud Papiſmi, etſi vel totus Clerus Gallicus, vel pars ejus, a cæteris regnis in iſto articulo diſſentiat, aut Pontificis poteſtatem concilio ſubjiciat. Neque enim ſatis tutum ipſum Galliarum Regem a periculo dogmatis illius fore, quod tot monachi, etiam in Gallia, & innumeri ex plebe Pontifici devota, ſaltem tacite pro vero habeant, & ad id credendum a Sacerdotibus confeſſionariis facile & tecte inſtrui poſſint; nec Imperatori, aliisque Regibus Catholicis aut Proteſtantibus profuturum eſſe, ſi Clerus Galliæ ſingulariter diſcrepet a ſententia, omnibus aliis Romanenſibus probata, cui innixus nefarius aliquis, jugulum Regis ſui, a Pontifice condemnati, petere audeat, & heroico hoc facto cœlum mereri ſe poſſe credat. Sic firmato theoremate pergit Cap. IV ad praxin, oſtendens, quod rebelliones contra Imperatores Orientis & Occidentis a Pontificibus Romanis excitatæ fuerint, quæ excommunicationes adverſus Reges fulminatæ, quæ exemtiones & immunitates Clericorum prætenſæ & uſurpatæ contra legitimum Regum & Principum imperium; quanquam verum ſit, Galliæ Reges non ſemper damnum ex attentatis illis ſenſiſſe, ſed maſcule reſtitiſſe. Cap. V de rebellionibus in Anglia per Pontifices concitatis multa exempla affert, maxime Thomæ Archiep. Cantuar quem Sanctum celebrant, & quomodo Papa regnum illud Philippo Auguſto Galliæ regi donaverit, nec conciliari Johanni Angliæ regi potuerit, priusquam hic proprietatem regni Pontifici reſignaret, & Feudi nomine ab illo recognoſceret, atque tributarium faceret. unde exactiones ſecutæ ſunt, de quibus ipſi eorum temporum ſcriptores monachi vehementer queruntur. Cap. VI narrantur machinationes contra Eliſabetham Anglorum Reginam, immiſſis plurimis, Pontificis auctoritate, ſicariis. Eidem imputat patratam Guilielmi Auriaci cædem, tentatam etiam Mauritii; neque Ligam, & quæ per eam in Gallia crudeliſſime facta ſunt, ex alio principio, quam ex hac de jure Pontificis ſententia emanaſſe. Cap. VII conjurationis pulverariæ in Anglia exemplum proponit, & ut ejus ſceleris convicti ſumma tamen cum obſtinatione ſupplicium paſſi ſint, ob religionis Catholicæ incrementum, quod per scelus illud eventurum esse sibi persuaserint: neque alio spiritu actum Ravaillacum Henrici IV. parricidam. Refutat quæ pro excusandis pontificiis consiliis afferri solent: nec Constantiensis concilii decretum, quo tyrannicidia improbari videntur, quidquam virium habere, cum palam excipiantur a Jesuitis, aliisque auctoribus Romanensibus, reges a Pontifice condemnati. Cap. IIX iterum ad Britannica redit, & Caroli I supplicium, quod Reformatis Puritanis a Romanensibus imputari solet, ab his ipsis, qui fanaticis sese personati immiscuerint, procuratum esse, allegatis auctoribus, maxime Molinæi Regii Cappellani libro, cui nomen Philanax, demonstratum it. Respondet etiam Arnaldo, qui ista, & conjurationis nuperæ Colmanni culpam a Pontificiis amoliri voluit, & subornationes testium Presbyterianis imputatas in Romano-Catholicos, quos nominat, retorquet. Multa habet pro defensione D. Oates, Bedlowii, Dugdalii & aliorum, de quibus omnibus ad Acta typis vulgata provocat. Denique etiam fraudibus istorum factum esse scribit, ut conjurationis crimen Monmuthio Duci & Comiti Schafsbieriensi anno 1678 impingeretur: detecta tamen postea eorum innocentia a quodam ex complicibus. Maxime vero incendia urbis Londinensis maleferiatis istis attribui debere tradit, quod a Sacerdotibus instituantur, meritorium esse, si quis domum hæretici incendat. Quod vero deprehensi in crimine, & a testibus convicti, nihilominus pertinaciter negantes moriantur, ex vinculo confidentiæ fieri ait, quo ab iisdem Sacerdotibus ad silentium constringuntur, æternæ felicitatis spe proposita. Notabilem denique narrationem adjicit de Thoma Witte, alias Wittebread, Provinciali Jesuitarum, conjurationis causa supplicium passo, quem Wirtebergensem fuisse scribit, qui multoties mutata persona, modo Judæum, modo Reformatum, modo Anabaptistam aut Quackerum, imo fatuum quoque simulaverit, ut tanto securius falleret, & destinata exequeretur. Arnaldum vero admonet librorum suorum vel sociorum ex Jansenistis, in quibus Garneti aliorumque Jesuitarum jactata in Anglia martyria ipsi deriserint: & tandem Maimburgio minatur editionem historiæ Jesuitica, si hac de Papismo non sit contentus.

L'HOMME ARTIFICIEL ANEMOSCOPE, OU prophete physique du changement des temps, par Mr. Comiers d' Ambrun Professeur de la Mathem.

Homo artefactus anemoscopus, sive Propheta physicus de mutatione temporum, auctore Dn. Comiers d' Ambrun Prof. Math.

Insertus Mercurio Gallico mensis Martii 1683. p. 164. seqq.

EX quo eruditorum quorundam virorum industria viam ac rationem invenit, aeris illius, qui nobis circumfusus est, gravitatem ac pondus exigendi, & inde prædicendi temporis vicissitudines; eam rem dignam judicarunt plures alii, ad quam ulterius excolendam atque perficiendam suas cogitationes & studia conferrent. Hinc a viginti circiter annis tot Barometrorum (ita enim vocare machinas isti fini accommodatas placuit,) formæ differentes excogitatæ fuerunt, quas inter locum haud postremum obtinet tubus vitreus Dn. Ottonis de Guericke, qui ligneum quendam virunculum inclusum gerit, utriusque indicem tempestatis. Utut vero alii Auctores suorum inventorum fundamenta scriptis sat dilucide exposuerint, laudatus tamen Vir Clarissimus machinæ suæ construendæ rationem dissimulavit, nec credere visus est, ullum unquam Philosophorum in reconditi artificii cognitionem absque sua opera venturum. Quo ipso permotus Professor quidam Parisiensis Dn. Comiers d' Ambrun, parvo opusculo, quod Mercurio Gallico insertum fuit, erudito orbi ostendere voluit, sibi quoque perspectum, nec adeo abstrusum, ut vulgo habeatur, esse modum parandi illud machinæ genus, in quo imaguncula hominis lignea & pluvias & ventos & sereniora tempora intuentibus digito exerto demonstret. Tetigisse vero eum rem acu, ac in inventum Guerickianum penetrasse, testantur, quos arcani sui participes Dn. Guericke esse voluit. Et sane, cui, quæ conficiendis Baroscopiis doctissimorum Anglorum par, Robertus Hooke Præfam. in Micrographiam, & Henr. Oldenburgius Act. Philos. Anni 66, mens. Jun. numero 2. p. 101.

I. c. 7.* docuit, lecta ac viſa ſunt, illi perquam facile fuerit, Homuncionis anemoſcopi artificium divinare. Quin imo P. Schottus id diſerte explicuit in Technica Curioſa c. 21. p. 46, quando poſt relatam inter Mirabilia Magdeburgenſia ſtatuam illam ligneam aeri innatantem, annotationes quasdam ſubjecit, quas lectori curioſo perlegendas relinquimus.

Ut autem ad Tractatum Dn. Comiers veniamus, occupatur prima ejus pars in oſtendenda falſitate aſſertionis, qua ſtatuit Dn. Guericke, virunculum iſtum, tubo vitreo incluſum, prædicere Cometas poſſe. Inde quædam pauca de gravitate aeris ad aquam & mercurium comparati ſequuntur, ac poſtea ventorum natura & proprietates latius examinantur. Ultimo loco conſtructio homuncionis anemoſcopi proponitur, quam ex Auctore ſubnectere, mutato ſermone, viſum fuit:

Diſci, inquit, haud difficulter poteſt e figura mea 2. conſtructio ejusmodi virunculi, qui aſcendat, quoties aer ingraveſcit, & delabatur, quoties pluit, imo antequam pluvia deſtillat. Nam dum vapores defluunt, gravitas aeris minuitur. Quando ſolus Mercurius adhibetur, differentia altitudinum virunculi non poterit eſſe ultra duos aut tres pollices ad ſummum: qui vero in quavis minima mutatione gravitatis aeriæ obſervare cupiunt, quomodo ſe tollat ac demittat iſta imaguncula, illi adhibebunt ſtructuram, quam monſtrat figura 3. Quoniam enim homuncio ille ad ima fertur per aquipondium ferri ſolidi P, quod Mercurio capſulæ innatans, tantum ſe elevat, quantum, aeris gravitate decreſcente, Mercurius tubi deſcendit, & in capſulam ferream decurrit; certe virunculus talis eodem modo delabetur, quo ille Domini Guericke, ſecundum proportionem, qua aeris gravitas imminuetur, ſeque præcipitabit, ut prorſus diſpareat, quoties aer ſubito notabilem ponderis quantitatem perdet. Poteſt etiam effici, ut iſte virunculus ſemper in aere librari videatur. Artificium facillimum eſt, ſufficiuntque figura 5 & 6 ad illud bene comprehendendum. Conſiſtit in duplici rota, quam abſcondere debet tabulatum calantica ferrea bene cæmentata, cum culmine columna cava vitrea; totum vero opus tegendum eſt corona quadam regia, qualis in figura 1 apparet. Obſervatu autem dignum eſt, quod in his duabus conſtructio- TAB. I.

ſtructionibus virunculus ſentiatur motu contrario illi, qui eſt figura 2 & 3. Nam quando Atmoſphæra levior redditur per ventos, qui aerem ſuſtinent, Mercurius tubi magis deſcendet, & æquipondium ſive maſſa ferrea, quæ ſupra mercurium eſt, pariter delabendo elevabit virunculos in figuris 5 & 6. Apparet quoque ratio, cur in figura 4 virunculus aſcendat eadem proportione, qua aeris pondere imminuto Mercurius tubi interior ſe demittit; & quare viciſſim in figura 3 idem virunculus notabiliter delabatur ad 13 usque pollices, dum Mercurius deſcendens, inque capſulam ferream ſe abdens, æquipondium ad unum pollicem ſolum elevat; id quod ex illa duplici trochlea dependet.

Coloniæ Aggrippinæ, apud Arn. Metternich, 1683. in 4.

ETſi in antiquioribus Eccleſiæ Chriſtianæ monumentis nihil legere eſt de Curia Romana, qualem Pontifices R. poſt ſextum ſeculum a Chriſto nato paulatim inſtituere cœperunt; cum non eccleſiaſticam tantum, ſed civilem etiam, eamque ſummam in orbe Chriſtiano poteſtatem ſibi arrogarent; a ſeculo tamen undecimo, quo Gregorius VII, Hildebrandus antehac dictus, Papam ſe conſtituit, ſatis innotuit Curia Romana, cujus Relationem nominatus ſupra Cardinalis heic exhibere voluit. In qua formam regiminis modumque imperii Pontificii longe lateq; per orbem Chriſtianum diffuſi deſcribit. Ideo enim in primo ſtatim, ut vocat, diſcurſu tradit, Curiam Romanam majora tractare negotia quam aliam quamcunq; orbis Curiam; eamq; eſſe omnium aliarum forenſium curiarum matrem, ac majorem totius Chriſtiani orbis merito dicendam: quia totius catholici orbis cauſas eccleſiaſticas vel ſpirituales univerſaliter agat; ac etiam ejusdem orbis cauſas temporales &c. Addit, totam hanc conſtitui per ſolum Papam, a Deo ſcilicet immediate poteſtatem habentem. Id vero ne mirum forte cuipiam videatur, diſcurſu II oſtendit, Papam plures perſonas gerere, & ſub illis infinitam poteſtatem habere. Sed cum ad ampliſſimam Jurisdictio-risdictionem exercendam, opus ſit multorum miniſterio; inde longo ordine recenſentur officia & jura Legatorum, Nunciorum, Cardinalium, Secretarii Status, Præfecti palatii, Datarii, & ſimilium officialium, cum diverſarum congregationum deſcriptionibus. In diſcurſu XXXII prolixe de Tribunali ſeu Auditorio Rotæ agit, oſtendens ſimul pag. 201, moderno tempore longe majorem eſſe numerum cauſarum profanarum ſeu temporalium urbis & ſtatus eccleſiaſtici, quam antiquiori tempore. In diſc. XLV, de Oratoribus Regum, Principum, Rerumpubl. ac civitatum ad Pontificem miſſis, exponit: quoniam illi, ut ipſe loquitur, magnam figuram in curia dicta faciunt. Sub calcem libri rerum & verborum indices ſubjuncti leguntur ſatis copioſi, qui lectori rerum in hoc libro varietatem indicare poſſunt.

TRAITTE' DES EXCOMMUNICATIONS par M. PHBT. C.

A Dijon, aux depens de l' Autheur, 1683. Avec approbation.

Hoc eſt:

Tractatus de Excommunicatione, auctore M. PHBT. C.

Divioni, ſumtibus Autoris, 1683, in 12. cum approbatione.

Sicut inter controverſias, in ipſo Papatu acerrime agitatas, non exigui momenti eſt, quæ circa jura excommunicationum occupatur: ita poſt alios multos de ea ſpeciatim commentari operæ pretium duxit Autor hujus libri, qui, ſi titulo fides habenda, cum approbatione nunc prodiit. Dubia vero redditur hæc nobis, tum quia nuſpiam approbatio apparet, tum quia idem absque approbatione Lugduni dicitur impreſſus. Negotium omne ita agit, ut nec Pontificum juribus derogare, nec libertati Eccleſiæ Gallicanæ & Regum ſuorum auctoritati præjudicare velle videatur. Interim diffiteri non poterit curatius paulo librum inſpiciens; Auctorem, licet Pontificum excommunicationes rigidiores excuſet ſæpiſſime, magis tamen Principum ſecularium poteſtati abſolutæ favere. Id vel ex eo colligere licet, quod nolit eo extendi debere aut poſſe excommunicationem Papæ vel Epiſcoporum, ut ſocietatem quoque civilem dirimat, & ſubditos ditos ab obſequio & juramento fidelitatis abſolvat. In plerisque Hiſtoricum agit, & propoſitis aliorum judiciis proprium non ſemel ſuſpendit.

Volumen totum triginta abſolvitur capitibus, quibus originem & progreſſum excommunicationis a temporibus Chriſti ad noſtram usque ætatem enarrat, multaque circa eum notabiliora examinat partim, partim recenſet. Ordo quem ſequitur eſt ſeculorum ſeries, ita ut ſingulis ſingula tribuat capita, aliquibus vero plura, illuſtriora nimirum exempla, & quæ alia ad excommunicationis proceſſum & jura pertinent, ſejunctim conſiderans.

Orditur tractationem ab excommunicationis definitione & uſu ante Chriſtianiſmum, convenientiam & differentiam ab exemtione a ſocietate civili monſtrat, & exempla antiquiora tum ſacra tum profana adducit, alia huc falſo trahi ſolita excludens. Circa primum ſeculum, ſecundum cujus doctrinam & praxin de rebus Eccleſiaſticis certiſſime judicari dicit, notat Chriſtum neminem excommunicaſſe, nec poteſtatem civilem exercuiſſe, multo minus Apoſtolis leges ſtatus præſcripſiſſe, vel autoritatem civilem dediſſe. Exponit præceptum Chriſti Matth. XIIX.15.16.17. de excommunicatione vulgo explicatum, ſimul Canoniſtas refutans, tum hoc tum alio loco, 1. Cor. V. 1. ſeqq. abutentes. Deſcribit excommunicationem hujus ætatis perfugam ſocietatis eorum, qui doctrinam & mores corrumpebant, talem, ut cognoſcerent actiones ſuas ab Eccleſia damnari, & ita converterentur, non excluſionem a functionibus civilibus. Seculum II cum reliquis perſecutione funeſtis fidei ac morum regulas eſſe pronunciat, & quam caute illis temporibus in excommunicationibus ſe geſſerint, ex Canonibus Apoſtolicis (quos ideo ſecundo ſeculo inſerit, quia incertum, an ab Apoſtolis ſint conſignati) Conſtitutionibus S. Clementis, & teſtimoniis Papæ Eleutheri atque Victoris I confirmat. Seculo tertio, licet perſecutiones in eo fuerint atrociſſimæ, Eccleſiam tamen excommunicaſſe obſervat ex Origine & Tertulliano. Cyprianum allegat & alios, exemplum Diaconi a Pomponio ob ſtuprum virgini illatum excommunicati recenſentes. De ſchiſmate Novatiani pauca addit, notans ſchiſma cauſam eſſe excommunicationis. Ex ſeculi quarti hiſtoria litem Meletii Epiſcopi Lycopolitani & S. Petri Epiſcopi Alexandrini ſe invicem excommunicantium, & de excommuni-municatione controvertentium memorat, Canonem Concilii Nicæni de non recipiendis alibi excommunicatis adducit, turbas per excommunicationes excitaras profert, Catholicis hæreticos, his illos, utrisque se invicem excommunicantibus, & tum demum cœpisse fieri negotium status accurate observat. Dehinc capite peculiari excommunicationem Theodosii ab Ambrosio factam, examinatam per certas reflexiones & multis rationibus excusatam, inimitabilem tandem esse demonstrat, appendicis loco excommunicationem Eudoxiæ, tanquam priori similem annectens. Seculo quinto multorum Concilium studium in rite disponenda potestate excommunicandi infigne fuisse narrat, eorum decreta recenset, & incrementum potestatis clericorum exemplo Anastasii atque Euphemii comprobat. Colligit etiam, casus reservatos & absolutiones cum reincidentia tum cœpisse, ex Episcopi Synesii negata Lamponiano excommunicato, licet pœnitenti, absolutione, nisi in periculo mortis, eaque adhuc conditionata. Seculo sexto abusui excommunicationis intolerabili mederi tentarunt non modo Concilia & Patres, sed etiam Imperatores: unde de auctoritate laicorum in materia excommunicationis prolixius disceptat. Producit exemplum Theodelindæ; leges Justiniani; Concilii Toletani XII decretum, de Imperatorum potestate excommunicationes impediendi & tollendi: ipsique tandem in favorem. Principum tanquam Episcoporum ad extra decidit. Seculo septimo Episcopi Galliæ, Ebrodunensis & Vapincensis, arma contra Principes sumserunt: dejecti vero in Concilio Lugdunensi & Catalaunensi. Movebatur quæstio hoc tempore, an cum excommunicatis communicari liceat; ad quam affirmative respondetur. Seculo octavo Metropolitani eandem, quam alias Concilia, auctoritatem sibi vindicarunt. Excommunicatus est Imperator Leo Isauricus, ut prolixe narratur: Rex Chilpericus depositus, quamvis absque ratione: successor ejus Pipinus agnoscebatur, interveniente Papa. Orta tum est opinio, Pontifices habere jus liberandi subditos a fidelitatis juramento. Verum huic Gallia masculè restitit. Seculo nono Clerus potestatæ accepta abutebatur in Ludovico Pio Imperatore, restituto tamen postea a Magnatibus. In Gallia etiam in civilibus imperium prætendebat. Notat præterea Rhotaldi ab Hincmaro, quem Baronius ex nimio absolutæ Curiæ Romanæ potentiæ amore vituperat..., excommunicati appellationem ad Papam, & hac occasione de appellationibus a censuris ecclesiasticis speciatim agit, varias de iis sententias adducit, eas ut legibus primitivæ Ecclesiæ contrarias primum rejicit, dein vero ob tot annorum usum & leges Ecclesiasticas ita jubentes non amplius dubias reddi debere concludit. Seculo decimo & sequentibus, barbaries tanta invasit clericos, ut gladios contra excommunicatos strinxerint, & bella sacra excitaverint: iidem circa matrimonialia autoritatem omnem sibi arrogarunt, eamque, contra Leonem VI, Ottonem M. Imperatores, & Robertum II Regem Franciæ exercuerunt. Seculo undecimo Henricus IV Imperator excommunicatus est, Pontifices que cum Imperatoribus de investitura Episcoporum litigarunt. Berengarii hæresis eodem tempore turbas dedit gravissimas: damnata hoc fulmine est hæresis incestuosorum, & excommunicationes argento redimi cœperunt. Seculo duodecimo præter excommunicationem Philippi I Regis Franciæ, & Alphonsi Regis Arragoniæ, controversia erat maxima inter Henricum Angliæ Regem, & Thomam Archiepiscopum Cantuariensem, de sacerdote homicida, cujus pœnam uterque sui esse fori asseverabat. Episcopi Franciæ & clerici Regibus juramento fidelitatis obstringebantur. Seculum decimum tertium nihil circa excommunicationes innovavit. Hinc Autor digressione facta de criminibus excommunicationis reos facientibus: de excommunicatione eorum, qui clericum vel injuria vel contumelia laedunt: de processu in excommunicationibus triplici, per accusationem, per inquisitionem, & per denunciationem: de sententia duplici, Canonis & Juris: de excommunicationibus ipso facto: de sententiis in criminibus notoriis seu declaratoriis: de excommunicationum effectibus: de excommunicationibus minoribus, irregularitatibus & interdictis, tam localibus quam personalibus: & denique de absolutionibus earumque speciebus variis, copiose non minus quam erudite disserit. Dein confert se ad seculum decimum quartum, & quomodo magis magisque Clerici omne imperium civile eripere tentarint Principibus, demonstrat. Laudat vero illos, qui scriptis & factis, iniquis his prætensionibus præsertim in Gallia se opposuerunt. Ex seculo decimo quinto, quæ in Conciliis Basileensi & Constantiensi de excommunicationibus disceptata sunt, enarrat. Damnatos memorat Wiclefum, Johannem Hussi, & Hieronymum Pragensem, tanquam quam rigidos nimis excommunicationis censores, licet cum Johanne Gersone eodem tempore approbato convenirent. Clerus Galliæ moderationis amans, immoderatos excommunicationum usus per certa decreta Concilio Basileensi inserta temperavit. Seculum præsens cum antecedente pauciſſimis attingit, novo volumine, quia excommunicationum fertiliſſimum fuerit utrumque, varias Doctorum sententias methodice propositurus; duabus saltim in anteceſſum considerationibus circa hæc secula postrema commendatis, quarum prior censuras, quæ Principes invaserunt, & bono publico obfuerunt, altera constitutiones circa censuras receptas attendit.

Lunæ, & Stellæ in medio corpore Leonis infimæ Tychoni, alias in ventre Australioris

Anno 1683, die Saturni, 13 Novemb. st. n. mane observ. GEDANI

JOHANNE HEVELIO.

QUi Rerum Cœlestium penitiora indagare studeant, satis superque exploratum habent, quantum Occultationes, nec non Transitus Fixarum & Lunæ contribuere valeant, tam ad motum Lunarem (qui abunde adhuc sæpius a vero aberrat) magis magisque corrigendum, quam ad differentias Meridianorum explorandas ac confirmandas. Sed dolendum, adeo pauciſſimos inveniri his rebus invigilantes, inprimis ad minores Fixas attendentes. Mihi profecto nihil unquam exoptatius obtingit, quam si tales observationes deprehendere liceat, easque accurate determinare. Proinde etiam ad hanc Conjunctionem, Lunæ videlicet & dictæ Stellæ in Leone vigiles direxi oculos, cum perspicerem posse minimum arctum contingere transitum. Oriente igitur Luna, atque stella in oculos incurrente, protinus deprehendi dictam stellam Cornui superiori Lunæ lunatæ decrescentis (phasi bene notabili, in cujus confinio luminis & umbræ, Mons Ætna præ aliis maculis eminebat) satis arcte adhærere; sed Conjunctionem ipsam jam transiisse, paullo ante, quam Stella cum Luna sub adspectum nobis veniret. Nihilominus tamen arrepto Telescopio & Micrometro dimensus primum sum, & quidem singulari ratione, quanta fuerit genuina distantia hujus Stellæ a superiori Cornu Lunæ, tempore scilicet Conjunctionis (quod bene notandum) etiamsi jam præterita esset; atque ita reperi eam non nisi 6′,5″ extitisse, in ipsa Conjunctione, tempore scilicet correcto, hora 12,9′,& Lunam arctissimum celebrasse transitum. Deinde majoris certitudinis gratia etiam diversas distantias cepi hujus stellæ, non a limbo Lunæ, ut fieri plerumque solet, sed a linea illa perpendiculari, quæ per cornua & centrum Lunæ ducitur, ut eo certior essem, de ipso momento Conjunctionis Lunæ & hujus Stellæ. Nam ex omnibus illis Observationibus, sive distantiis, idem tempus Conjunctionis prodire oportet, si accurate omnes illæ distantiæ sint captæ: prout quilibet curiosus harum rerum facile experiri poterit. Diameter Lunæ hoc tempore extitit 31′,56″. Ex quibus observationibus non dubito, quin quilibet Rerum Uranicarum cultor locum Lunæ tam ex Rudolphinis, quam aliorum Auctorum Tabulis, dummodo hujus stellæ verum locum possideat, rite examinare possit.

DE

DE NUMISMATIBUS QUIBUSDAM abstrusis Imp. Neronis disquisitio per epistolas inter V. Cl. Carolum Patinum D. M. P. & Johannem Henricum Eggelingium, Reipubl. Brem. Secretarium, harum editorem.

Bremæ apud Hermannum Brauerum 1681 in 4.

INter eos, qui præclarissime meriti de re nummaria eruditaque antiquitate fuerunt hactenus, celebre nomen indeptus jamdudum est vir illustris laudatusque a nobis alias, CAROLUS PATINUS, medicus antehac Parisiensis, nunc Patavinus. Is enim, uti suismet sumtibus ingentem numismatum vetustorum sibi comparavit suppellectilem, ita longe plurima illorum luci exposuit publicæ, luculentasque illis explicationes atque interpretationes pro ea, qua pollet, abstrusæ antiquitatis notitia subjunxit. Et primum quidem antiqua numismata familiarum Romanarum, quæ ab Urbe condita ad tempora usque Augusti floruere, ex bibliotheca Fulvii Ursini cum adjunctis Antonii Augustini, episcopi Ilerdensis, recognita atque aucta Parisiis anno 1663 in fol. edidit. Dein Imp. Romanorum numismata ex ære media & minima forma descripsit atque enarravit, quæ Argentinæ A. 1661 in fol. prodierunt. Cui operi anno subsequente 1672, submisit Thesaurum numismatum, Amstelodami in 4 evulgatum. Horum cum aurea nonnulla, alia argentea, plurima sint ænea, ea secundum materiæ dignitatem dispositi, sicque dispositis interpretationis aliquid ex vasto eruditionis suæ thesauro subdidit. Inter ænea, & tria illa, quæ tabella nostra repræsentat, cap. V. p. 100 & 101 conspiciuntur. Horum autem tantum abest, ut interpretem agere instituat Patinus, ut alium potius Oedipum, qui id ænigmatum solvat, sibi dari exoptet. Nam & suo loco expertus est non semel, quod magnus ille Musarum Hercules Scaliger in Scaligerianis p. 222 professus est, multa in nummis & inscriptionibus antiquis latere, quæ nos fugiant. Ita autem de prioribus duobus nummis: Prospere, inquit, adveniet, qui horuncce nummorum solvat ænigmata.--Nostrum in conjectando agnoscimus tenuitatem, cum præsertim idem ipse typus & monstrosis Diis, nimirum Ægyptiis conjunctus sit, & capiti Alexandri M.

Tanta iſtius expoſitionis aviditate tenemur, ut libenter rem pro umbra deſereremus, explicationemq; nummorum ipſis nummis antiquis, quamvis maximi pretii, compenſaremus. De tertio nummo id ſaltem conjicit, eum in Græcia, quod Latinis inſignitus ſit characteribus, non eſſe cuſum; cæterum autem non conſtare ſibi dicit. Oedipi igitur partes in his nummis explicandis ſuſcipere voluit Vir Clariſſimus reique nummariæ peritiſſimus Joh. Henricus Eggelingius, Reipubl. Bremenſis Secretarius, perſuaſusque apud animum ſuum, hæc tria numiſmata non alius Imperatoris, quam Neronis eſſe, perſcripta ad Patinum epiſtola, ſuas illi de iisdem tribus numiſmatis divinationes expoſuit. Eſt autem ei, ut ad rem veniamus, quæ turrito capite in primo nummo conſpicitur perſona, Imperator Nero, habitu Apollinis tanquam tutelaris Græciæ Deus. (Occaſionem ipſi ſic ſentiendi dedit ſignum Ⱶ, quod in Neronis ſolius, non item aliorum Imperatorum nummis reperiri ait.) Quæ turrita & ipſa Imperatori coronam imponit, urbs Olympia, ob partam a Nerone in Olympico aliisque certaminibus victoriam; quæ ab altero Imperatoris ſtat latere, Idæus Hercules, autor Olympici certaminis. Quatuor Sphinges alatæ, Apollinis oraculis & ænigmatica ſapientia involuti ſymbola; & denique figuræ ſub ſolio decumbentes Eggelingio non minus, quam Patino, duo videntur eſſe fluvii. Quod alterum nummi latus attinet, quo larvæ duæ diductiſſimi rictus exhibentur, has ad Tragœdias, quas Nero perſonatus cantitavit, atque adeo ad Herculis forte inſani, vel Amphitritis Neptunique, vel alius cujusdam perſonæ argumentum ſpectare conjectat; quanquam trepide id admodum ac titubanter. Reliquos autem duos nummos, in quibus Alexandri M ſignata eſt facies, absque omni dubitationis nubilo, Neronianos agnoſcit. Alexander enim Eggelingio Nero eſt, qui Alexandrum uti forma, ſic ſtudiis quoque exæquare voluerit, legionem etiam ex Italicis ſenumpedum tyronibus conſcriptam, Magni Alexandri phalangem, teſte Suetonio, appellaverit, concubinasque in expeditione Gallica tonderi ad virilem modum, ſecuribusque ac peltis Macedonicis inſtrui, eo quod coiiſſe cum Alexandro M. Amazones acceperat, curaverit. Sabinas, quæ in tertii nummi facie altera viſuntur, ad ludos Circenſes, in quibus Nero ſæpe aurigavit coronatusque eſt, referendas eſſe audacter aſſeverat Eggelingius, loco Maronis quodam, Æneidos l. v. 53 & seqq. inductus. Respondit Patinus ad has Eggelingii litteras Bremæ V Idus Julii anno 1673 scriptas, ostenditque has ejus suspiciones, quam speciosæ etiam prima fronte videantur, magnis admodum difficultatibus obnoxias deprehendi. Nam primo signum illud Ⱬ non in Neronis tantum, sed & in Trajani, Caracallæ, & Alexandri Severi nummis conspici attestatur. Deinde non Imperatorem agnoscit in primo & secundo nummo turrito capite sedentem, sed Deam, toga muliebri indutam; quam opinionem & in Thesauro supra laudato jam exposuerat; & quamvis Sphinges adesse fateatur Apollini sacras, tamen alium cujuscunque urbis, quam Olympiæ Genium esse, qui Deæ sedenti coronam imponit, existimat. Figuram illam, quæ a dextro Deæ adsistit latere, non Herculem Idæum, sed Smyrnam urbem, quæ & aliis in nummis bipenni insigniatur, designari suspicatur; additque sub finem, non Neronem tantum, sed & alios Imperatores, Caligulam inprimis & Alexandrum Severum, Alexandri M. acta & mores fuisse imitatos. Et ista quidem Basileæ d. 27 Septembris anno 1673 Patinus reposuit. Quanquam autem Eggelingius in literis alteris d. 30 Decemb. anno 1674 exaratis profiteatur, se labellum compescere potius, quam obstinate defendere assertasua velle, iisdem tamen notulas apologeticas pro stabilienda sententia sua subnexuit; in quibus præter alia illud potissimum regerit, non tam signum illud Ⱬ conjecturæ sibi suæ dedisse fundamentum, quam nummum tertium, qui Sabinarum raptum præfert; quippe qui nummis aliis, quibus Neronis appositus est titulus, quoad exaturam & typum exacte conveniat. Patinus autem iterum iterumque Deam sedentem agnoscit in primo secundoque nummo, non citharœdum, in literis videlicet d. 18 Januarii anno 1675 ad Eggelingium datis. Sed & Eggelingius dimoveri a sententia se sua non fuit passus. Contendit quippe ulterius, hos nummos ad Imperatoris Neronis immodicum aurigandi studium, ac ludos Circenses Theatralesve esse referendos, & quia citharœdum sedere non concedat Patinus, Cybelem ipsam sedentem spectari ait, ludorum Circensium, secundum Eusebium scriptoresque alios autorem, hancque a civitate ludorum aliorum æditua, duos forte inter fluvios, quos binæ figuræ infra thronum cubantes exprimunt, sita coronari. Sphingibus merito ornari thronum, tanquam fortitudinis & industriæ symbolis;

bolis; geminas vero larvas ad ſatyricam ſaltationem, vel ad ea potius, quæ in prima dixerat epiſtola, referri poſſe. Alexandri denique M. equorum domitoris faciem eſſe additam, ob innatum Neronis equitandi ſtudium. Repoſuit iſthæc Eggelingius ipſis Calendis Auguſti anno 1675, & anno demum 1681 tam ſuas, quam Patini his de nummis epiſtolas exſcribi typis publicis fecit, ſerius ad nos, nec niſi ipſius Clariſſimi Editoris beneficio perlatas.

Nos vero, quanquam & ipſi ſingulare rei nummariæ & antiquariæ ſtudium in Eggelingio demiremur, induci tamen argumentis illius nondum potuimus, ut tres nummos illos, quos Neronianos publice venditat, Neronianos eſſe crederemus. Et vero ſi ſimilitudo illa qualiscunque Neronis cum Alexandro M. dare anſam Eggelingio ſic conjectandi potuit, ecquid obſtat, quo minus nos eosdem nummos Caracallæ potius, vel Alexandri Severi, quam Neronis eſſe exiſtimemus; præſertim cum ſignum illud, quod ſolis Neronis nummis tribuit Eggelingius, etiam in Caracallæ & Alexandri Severi nummis expreſſum, referente Patino, conſpiciatur. Ita autem de Caracalla Xiphilinus, Dionis epitomator, Guilielmo Blanco interprete: Erga Alexandrum ita erat affectus, ut armis poculisque ſimilibus, quibus ille uſus fuerat, uteretur; eique complures ſtatuas in caſtris, atque adeo in urbe collocavit; comparavitque phalangem ex ſolis Macedonibus, in qua erant hominum ſedecim millia, eamque phalangem Alexandri cognominavit. Hi utebantur eodem armorum genere, quo vivo Alexandro armati fuerant.-- Quibus rebus minime contentus, ſeſe Alexandrum Orientalem Auguſtum appellavit, ſcripſitque aliquando ad Senatum, animam Alexandri in corpus Auguſti introiiſſe, ut quoniam illi fuerat vita brevis, in hoc viveret diutius. Herodianus de eodem lib. IV hiſtoriæ ſui temporis, vertente Angelo Politiano: Ubi milites apud Danubium ordinavit, atque in Thraciam Macedonibus conterminam diſceſſit, continuo alter Alexander evaſit. Nam & memoriam Regis ejus omnibus modis renovavit, ſtatuis, imaginibusque nulla non urbe poni juſſis, Romamque ipſam Capitoliumque & templa univerſa referſit Alexandri ſimulacris.--Ipſe prodibat Macedonico habitu, cauſiam ſupra caput geſtans, & crepidas indutus, ac lectiſſimam manum in exercitu, phalangem Macedonicam appellabat, juſſis ducibus nomina ſibi

dictum Alexandri imponere; & denique Ælius Spartianus in vita Caracallæ: egressus puer etiam, seu patrii monitis, seu calliditate ingenii, sive quod se Alexandro Magno Macedoni aquandum putabat, restrictior, gravior, vultu etiam truculentior factus est, prorsus ut eum quem puerum fuerant, multi esse non crederent. Alexandrum M. ejusque gesta semper in ore habuit. Accedit, quod cum urbem Alexandriam ab Alexandro structam sciret, ad illam quoque accesserit, cumque eo pervenisset, ad Alexandri M. monimentum se contulerit, & quod Herodianus refert, paludamentum purpureum, & claris speciosisque gemmis conspicuos annulos balteumque, & quæcunque alia elegantiora sibi dempta tumulo illius imposuerit. Quemadmodum autem Imperator seculi III Romanus, qui Severus est cognominatus, Alexandri gaudebat & nomine & omine (natus enim est eodem die, quo Alexander functus vita erat, & quidem in æde Alexandro M. consecrata, nutricem etiam Olympiadem, quo nomine mater Alexandri appellata est, Philippumque nutritorem unum aliquem ex rusticis, quod nomen patris Alexandri M. fuit, fortitus fuerat) ita nemo inter Imperatores Romanos omnes studiosior sollicitiorque Alexandri M. fuit imitator, quemadmodum & inter alia id quoque in illo reprehensum scribit Lampridius, quod se Alexandrum M. videri volebat; Legit enim, teste eodem Lampridio, vitam Alexandri, quam præsique imitatus est, etsi in eo comdemnabat ebrietatem & crudelitatem in amicos. Neminem etiam magis quam Alexandrum M. honoravit. Alexandrum enim M., ut idem commemorat Lampridius, inter divos & optimos in lari rio majore (in quo & Christum cum Abrahamo habuit) conservavit; agoni etiam præsedit, & maxime Herculeo in honorem Magni Alexandri; cumq; Trajanus morem potandi post secundam mensam usque ad quinq; pocula amicis militaribus concessisset, unum tantum poculum amicis exhibuit in honorem Alexandri Magni. Elaborabat denique (verba sunt ejusdem Lampridii) ut dignus illo nomine videretur, imo ut Macedonem illum vinceret, dicebatque inter Romanum Alexandrum & Macedonem multum interesse debere. Quæ omnia dum paulo accuratius habemus pensi, non difficulter in id opinionis trahi nos patimur, nummos tres illos, quos Neronianos credit Eggelingius, vel Caracallæ, vel Alexandro Severo tribuendos esse. Alexandræi certe videntur esse, cum duo Alexandrum M. præ se ferant, Lampridiusq; diſerte atteſtetur, quod Alexander Severus (NB) Alexandri figura nummos plurimos figuraverit, & quidem electreos aliquantos, plurimos vero aureos. Sed quid vobis, inquiat quispiam, eſt turrita atque haſtata primi nummi figura? Ea nihil minus nobis eſt, quam Apollo vel Nero citharœdus. Neronem equidem inſignem fuiſſe citharœdum, & tanquam citharœdum vel Apollinem repræſentari in nummis aliis, non neſcimus. Sed ubi hic cithara, vel arcus cum telo? Hæc enim Apollinis in nummis, non haſta, ſunt inſignia. Nos cum Patino & ipſi haſtatam Deam quandam agnoſcimus, & quidem vel Romam, victricem atque orbis Dominam, quæ & ipſa turrita (eſt enim turris, dicente Patino, ſolenne urbium ornamentum) in nummis cernitur; vel Pallada aut fortitudinem bellicam. Nam & hæc, uti in aliis Imperatorum nummis, ita in Alexandri quoque Severi, haſtata cum victoriola exhibetur; quod obſervare nobis licuit in Viri perquam reverendi clariſſimique, M. HENRICI MEYERI, Eccleſiaſtæ hic olim Nicolaitani, rariſſimæ antiquitatis numiſmatis, quorum ingens adhuc numerus ab hæredibus ejus in hac urbe aſſervatur. Virtutem autem ipſam pro Alexandro Severo, ſeu, quem imitatur, Alexandro Magno hic exprimi, mirum nemini videri poteſt, in nummis antiquorum Romanorum pauliſper volutato. Nam ut probe obſervavit incomparabilis nummorum veterum judex ac vindex Spanhemius in diſſert. II p. 94 de præſtantia & uſu numiſmatum: Romani optimo & arcano quodam conſilio non divinos ſolum actus Principum, ſed ipſam agendorum normam promiſcuis & quotidianis Nummorum uſibus teſtatam conſignatamque voluere. Hoc enim abunde tot præſtantiſſimarum virtutum effigies paſſim in iis traditæ oſtendunt, quæ nihil aliud, quam pictura loquens (ut poeſin vocavit nonnemo) veram optimi ſtatus ac vitæ laudabiliter actæ imaginem continuo ante oculos ponit.-- Et mox: Appoſite illæ virtutes, quæ maxime Principes decent, & quibus publica ſalus potiſſimum incumbit, frequentius etiam traditæ; ita ut qui juſtitiam, æquitatem, clementiam, conſtantiam, fidem, indulgentiam, libenlitatem, munificentiam, providentiam, & bellicæ virtutis argumenta crebro in nummis Cæſarum legit, ſpeculum quoddam in iis Principum, & grævisſimi muneris requiſita, eadem opera agnoſcere ſeſe fateatur. Aut igitur Roma nobis eſt Dea illa, vel Virtus aut fortitudo bellica; isque adeo, qui ad dextrum ejus latus

est constitutus, Mars Romæ Deus tutelaris & bellorum præses, quæ ad sinistrum coronam imponit Deæ, vel Bostra, Colonia Alexandrina, ab Alexandro quippe Severo deducta, vel Alexandria Troas, quæ & in aliis Alexandri Severi nummis apud Patinum & Tristanum repræsentatur. Insignem enim victoriam de Persis ac Parthis reportaverat Alexander Severus, unde & Persicus Parthicusque a Populo Romano fuit salutatus; & quamvis trucidatus postea a Maximino esset, Senatus tamen, referente Lampridio, eum in Deos retulit, atque uti cenotaphium in Gallia, ita Romæ sepulcrum ampliſſimum meruit; imo & dati sodales, qui Alexandrini appellati sunt; addita & festivitas matris nomine, atque ipsius, quæ Romæ religiosissime natali ejus die, Lampridii adhuc tempore fuit celebrata. Sphinges alatæ sapientiam Alexandri Severi designant, quæ non minus, quam fortitudo & fortuna ad perficiendum belli aliquem ducem requiritur; vel fortitudinem & industriam simul, juxta Plutarchum & Clementem. Vid. Spanhem. lib. cit. p. 217. Figuræ infra thronum cubantes sunt & nobis fluvii, sed non alii, quam Euphrates & Tigris, quippe celeberrima illa Alexandri Severi in Persas expeditione in potestatem Romanorum redacti, quorum & mentionem fieri abs Herodiano in vita Alexandri Severi videas. Sed quid duo Mormones illi sibi volunt, in altera nummi primi facie exhibiti? Si divinare & hic nobis licet, dixerimus, illos ad invidiam a tanto Imperatore averruncandam fuisse additos. Mos enim olim erat, ridicula quædam appendere vel illinere ad invidiæ eversionem, quæ βασκάνια Græce appellabantur. Turpia quippe quæ erant, contra fascinum valere credebantur, ut cranium asinæ, satyrica signa, veretra. V. Turneb. in var. de LL. p. 118. & lib. Advers. 9. c. 28. Sed forte & hoc aliquid Alexandrinum est. Sane in alio quodam Alexandri Severi nummo Satyrus, vel Silenus cernitur, nec absurde conjicit Patinus, eum in Numismatis Romanorum Imp. f. 349 exhibens, eodem Alexandro Severo honores, quos Alexander M. sibi paraverat, in nummo isto tribui. Ita autem Plutarchus in Alexandro Macedone, sic transferente verba ejus Xylandro: Aliud visum Alexandro per quietem est. Satyrus ei conspectus est eminus alludere, deinde volenti eum capere fuga elabi, tandem multa omnium & circumcursitantis in manus venire. Conjectores nomen Satyri dividentes haud absurde pronunciarunt: Sa Tyros, h. e. tua erit Tyrus.

In ultimo nummo raptum Sabinarum non aliam ob cauſam ſiſti opinamur, quam quod a priſcis Romanis ortus videri omnino volebat Alexander Severus. Neque enim in Neronianis tantum, ſed in aliis quoque Imperatorum Romanorum, ut teſtis nobis Patinus eſt, numiſmatis obſervatur. Vero autem ſimilem opinionem noſtram, & hic facit Lampridius, in vita Alexandri Severi id quoque memorans: Volebat videri originem de Romanorum gente trahere, quia eum pudebat Syrum dici, maxime quod quodam tempore feſto, ut ſolent, Antiochenſes, Ægyptii, Alexandrini, laceſſiverant eum convitiis, Syrum archiſynagogum eum vocantes & archierea. Et iterum: Syrum ſe dici noluit, ſed a majoribus Romanum. Et ſtemma generis depinxerat, quo oſtendebatur, genus a Metellis deſcendere; quam originem ſuam, ut hic per Sabinarum raptum, ita in alio nummo per Romulum & Remum a lupa lactatos, quem Triſtanus excudi fecit, ſubinnuere Alexander Severus voluit. Alexandræi igitur nobis hi nummi ſunt, qui Neroniani videntur Cl. Eggelingio. Submittimus autem & has conjecturas celeberrimi Patini, aliorumque Polyhiſtorum judicio, facile mutaturi ſententiam noſtram, ſi meliora ac certiora edocti ab illis de numiſmatis hiſce fuerimus.

Bellini fœtum exhibemus, Scriptoris a pluribus jam annis, per Renum inprimis & Linguæ accuratiorem evolutionem, Anatomicis & Phyſiologis notiſſimi, magnique ab his ſemper æſtimati. Is arti Medicæ opem nunc laturus, talia huic ſcripto argumenta conſecravit, quæ theoriam praxi neceſſario combinandam eſſe, nec alteram harum ab altera avelli poſſe, ſatis ſuperque teſtabuntur: quæque methodo, omnibus ſcientiis & artibus phyſicis congrua, per principia ſcilicet mechanica, declaravit, ac ſublimium pulcherrimarumque obſervationum ubertate ſic exornavit, ut nemo non ex hoc ungue leonem poſſit dignoſcere.

Sextu-

Sextuplici illius ſubjecto, quo cuncta a Lectore facilius apprehendi queant, hypotheſeos, quam de Oeconomia animali fovet, propediem divulgandæ, ſumma capita, præfationis loco præmittit, motum præprimis ſanguinis, Liquidi per nervos, Muſculorum, Reſpirationem ac Cor concernentia.

Urinæ contemplationem dum aggreditur, quoniam exactum de morboſorum Urinis judicium ferri non poſſit, niſi 1. Urinæ ejusdem ſubjecti naturalis habitudo innoteſcat, 2. conſtet, quo pacto illius particularis urinæ ſtatus naturalis, in hoc vel illo morbo vitiari queat: de Naturalis conditionibus quædam præfatur, ſingulareque illius ejusque contentorum examen, per evaporationem aquoſæ ſubſtantiæ, ac novæ humiditatis affuſionem adornandum, ſuggerit. De iisdem contentis naturalibus ubi differit, diſquirit, cur non quævis ſanorum urinæ illis gaudeant? ſedimentum vero reliquis duobus frequentius exiſtat? unde hujus figura pyramidalis? Potulenta ſolaqueam urinæ portionem conſtituere negat: urinam nec primæ, nec ſecundæ tantum, ſed omnium coctionum excrementum probat, coloremque ejus, non a bile, ſecundum Galenicos, eſſe evincit. Quo facto, quid & quotuplex urina præternaturalis, (quam nonnaturalem vocat) hujusque ſpecies exponit, inter alia de urinæ oleaginoſæ ratione & formalitate ſolicitus. Pilorum in illa exiſtentiam realem negat; coronam quoddam prorſus inane, a varia luminis fractione emergens pronunciat, nihilque ſolidi exinde judicari vel prædici poſſe. Indicia vero Autoris ex Urinis de morborum ſtatu & eventu egregia ſunt, quæ Hippocratis oraculis multis confirmat, adeoque hujus autoritate totam ſuam de hac materia hypotheſin illuſtrat.

De Pulſibus acturus, ſanguinem ad ſummas quasvis arteriolas per impetum a corde impreſſum, neutiquam harum tractione, ferri, experimento, ſeu ſectione Arteriæ transverſali, demonſtrat, ſimulque pulſuum neceſſitatem & rationem declarat. Ex pulſu ſolo formatum judicium fallax proclamat, i.e. a Medico dignoſci haud poſſe, ſit ne aliquando nonnaturalis (præternaturalis) in hoc illove ſubjecto pulſus, niſi ejusdem naturalem cognoverit: quod cum pariter, ac in Urina, difficillimum, ita in pulſu dignoſcendo eadem eſſe incommoda. Hinc pulſuum præternaturalium differentias cum harum cauſis explicat, Hippocratem contra illos, qui eum pulſuum nullam rationem

Doctrinam mittendi ſanguinem circulationi hujus ſuperſtruit, duo tamen potiſſimum ſupponit, ex quibus illorum neceſſitas, quæ ab eductione ejus pendent, deducitur. Sc. primo, ſanguinis tam in ſyſtole, quam in diaſtole, impetum atque fluxum menſurari ab impetu, quem concipit a facultatibus, arterias circumprimentibus, & ab exceſſu velocitatis, quam ſupra vim reſiſtentiarum, quales ſunt ſanguinis præcedentis & arteriarum, a corde habeat: deinde, ſanguinem arterioſum niti in venoſum. Hincque varia infert, v. g. quando aliqua vena ſecatur, cum ſanguine hujus effluente reſiſtentiam illam tolli, quæ ſanguinis arterioſi impetum morabatur, adeoque poſthac per illi comitem arteriam ſanguinem velocius fluere, hancque velocitatem etiam poſt V. S. manere, quamvis illa minorem, qua fluit, dum actu educitur. Item per ſanguinis miſſionem eo ipſo, quo celebratur, momento ſanguinis maſſam ad bonos æque ac pravos effectus diſponi poſſe, i.e. illam intime dimoveri, rareſcere, ferveſcere, fermenteſcere, ita ut, quicquid eſt morborum, & in his admirabile, atque inexpectatum, ſtatim contingat; imo etiam ſine illa intima commotione humoris alicujus ſeparationem aut in canales ſuos excretorios derivationem ſupprimi, alterius cujusdam augeri, qualitates vitiari, pulſum autem antea ſuppreſſum, intermittentem &c. per ſolam M. S. mox excitari aut ad naturalem, e contra naturalem ad ſtatum præternaturalem redigi; adeoque deliquium animi, in venæ ſectione aut ſtatim poſt ſuperveniens, male ſemper ſanguinis profuſi nimiæ copiæ, aut meticuloſitati adſcribi, cui phænomeno aliam, eamque quintuplicem, cauſam decernit. Præterea tamen V. S., licet velocitatem ſanguinis motus intendat, refrigerare & humectare, docet: quatenus calor ſanguinis ab hujus niſu ac preſſione ſit, qui per V. S. frangatur; imminuto vero calore, qui corpus exſiccet, idem humectetur. Simul quoque ſanguinis miſſionem obſtructionibus vaſorum mederi, demendo ſanguinem venoſum, arterioſo contranitentem, per conſequens juvando, ut arterioſus niſum ſuum cum majore vehementia exerat, ſicque cauſam obſtruentem protrudat. Hac occaſione dum Balnea certis morbis appropriata remedia judicat, modum eorum operandi a gravitate derivat, canales non tantum vaſorum ſanguiferorum

rum ſed fibrarum quoque obſtructos aere plus comprimente, hinc ad organa excretoria materiam morbificam exprimente: quam balnei preſſionem experimentis manifeſtiſſimis confirmat, eamque ab inſtantiis atque dubiis variis vindicat. Vicarias ſanguinis miſſionis dum diætam & medicamenta quælibet alterantia atque evacuantia ait, quorum quædam aut per ſtimulum, aut non ſine hoc, agant, primo de ſtimulis, hinc de medicamentis ipſis, præprimis evacuantibus, agit: utrobique ardua maxime proponens & exponens, v. g. de hydatidum & callorum ætiologia; ſtimulos operari in diſtans, i. e. remotiſſimarum quoque partium materiam peccantem ad ſtimulorum emiſſaria derivari; digitorum intorſiones vehementiores & velociores, quas ſtimulis pariter accenſet, apoplecticos excitare; cur a cantharidibus urinariæ ſaltem viæ excorientur, ideo nimirum quod acre eorum maſſam ſanguineam ſubiens ſali urinæ combinatum intendatur. DISSERTATION SVR L' ANTIMOINE par Mr. Lamy Docteur en Medecine de la Faculté de Paris.

Dissertatio de Antimonio, Autore Dn. Lamy Med. Doct. Facultatis Parisiensis. Parisiis 1682 in 12.

ANtimonium vix ullibi unquam, quam Parisiis, infestos adeo, Medicos inter, habuit inimicos. Nondum quinque lapsa sunt lustra, ex quo Facultas ibi Medica intestinis motibus Antimonii causa varie, ac diu agitata est; quibus demum sedatis, quomodo novas denuo turbas Dn. Blondel, & Dn. Doute Fratres uterini binis abhinc annis excitaverint, in Præfatione Dissertationis præsentis videre licet. Etenim hanc Autor non nisi provocatus a Collegis hisce suis prænominatis, natis, ut aliquid in Antimonii favorem literis confignaret, compositi: cujus alias nomen etiam post mortem, (quam non diu ab obitu antagonistæ sui Dni. Blondel oppetiit) nemini obscurum esse poterit, qui vel Gallorum Ephemeridibus, vel ipsius scriptis oculum admovit, qualia habentur Discursus Anatomici, liber de Principiis Rerum, Explicatio Mechanica & Physica Functionum Animæ sensitivæ, singula ante Dissertationem præsentem idiomate nativo, unico libello de Principiis Rerum excepto, quem Latine conscripsit, edita. Duas autem hujus Dissertationis constituit partes. In priori naturam Antimonii, tanquam Mineralis cujusdam compositi, e duplici principio sensibili, sulphureo altero, altero metallico, evolvit; metallicam ejus substantiam, qua nec ipsum sulphur antimonii auratum destituatur, pro principali basi operationum quarumvis, quas in corpus nostrum Antimonium, sive crudum, sive diversimode præparatum exerit, agnoscens; inductione potissimum confuetarum Antimonii præparationum, quibus singulis sulphurea ejus pars destruatur, ad id persuasus. Nihilominus cum metalla extra salium connubium (præter unicum Mercurium), eumque effectum, quem ponderositatis suæ ratione alias producere solent) penitus observentur inertia; quo metallica pariter hæc antimonii substantia agere possit, salis prius cujusdam combinationem summe ostendit necessariam. Crudi Antimonii decoctum cum aqua sola, fidorem non magis movere, quam aquam simplicem pronunciat; ex acidi tamen cujusdam additione, emeticum idem evadere posse, per infusionem ejusdem antimonii crudi cum vino evincit, ceu cujus medio, per superiora notabiliter evacuantis, febrim tertianam dupliciem novem jam mensium durationis, sustulerit felicissime. Adeoque diversitatem effectuum, quæ diversa Antimonii præparata insequitur, non nisi a sale diverso per artem combinato derivat, monstrando Antimonium diaphoreticum, ac Bezoarticum Minerale, quod per fudorem, non autem per superius, nec per inferius, guttur evacuent, habere id ab adjuncto nitro fixo; hoc v. si temporis tractu ab aere humido in Antimonio diaphoretico solvatur, Emeticum hoc exsurgere posse. Invehitur ex hoc fonte in ordinarium Antimonii diaphoretici edulcorationem, cum sic nitro fixo spoliatum nil nisi calx quædam mortua sit, loco cujus Antimonium diaphoreticum non totum norabilem cum acidis effervescentiam moveat: eaque propter vim quoque Bezoartici Mineralis diaphoreticam non tantam, ac vulgo creditur, autumat. Emeticam hinc ac Catharcticam antimonii virtutem acido potius addito tribuit, rationem formalem, qua ejusmodi purgationes perficiuntur, annectens, usumque Vomitoriorum multis in morbis proficuum insinuans, caute quamvis semper propinandorum. In parte vero posteriori, ubi Antimonium e venenorum numero eximere satagit, prælibato prius, quid venena sint, quam diversa, & qua ratione vitæ animali insidias struant: scrutatur porro, an ad aliquam venenorum recensitorum classem Antimonium queat referri, sed concludit tandem, bonum remedium, venenum nequaquam, esse Antimonium.

Compendium Chymicum.

Lugduni Batav. apud F. Lopez, 1682. in 12.

QUemadmodum experientia multifaria prudensque, ac Ratio illi innitens, optimam methodum, Chymicas operationes accurate & succincte exponendi suppeditant: sic binis illis Manuductoribus in hoc Chymiæ compendio usum fuisse præsentem Scriptorem, ex toto illius contextu patescit. Præter Prolegomena siquidem quadruplicem Pyrotechniæ finem exponentia, primo occasione ejus specierum, solutionis & coagulationis, de principiis Chymicis vulgaribus agit, eaque ex duplici, Fluiditatis ac Firmitatis, radice exurgere docet. Hinc solutionis & coagulationis species recenset; Furnorum illorum, qui ad operationes perficiendas commodiores, constructionem tradit, simul animadvertendo, gradus ignis minus recte in horum summitate, more solenni, sed in cinerario potius, adeoque non per egressum, sed ingressum aeris, esse moderandos; quibus quædam de vasis, quæ ipsi in frequentiore usu sunt, item de Lutis, subjungit. Præparata tandem chymica, Aquas nempe, Olea, Spiritus per fermentationem, Salia volatilia, Salia fixa, Spiritus acidos mineralium &c. ubi explicat, horum non tantum texturam evolvit, sed singulorum quoque parandorum modos per exempla specialiora & ita declarat, ut præmisso semper, ut ajunt, processu, hujus ætiologiam ex hypothesi mechanica, in Notis certis atque ingeniosis suggerat, simulque præparati vires describat.

Quippe qui non ignorat, nec ullo negotio efficere possit Cantabrigiensis Academiæ Alumnus, (quam cum Aqua cultissimarum artium Alumnarum nutrix olim celebrata fuit) vel hodie, vel cras, vel quovis tempore quantumvis alio, tam hanc definitionem meam, & si quæ alia ejusmodi ipsi videbitur, libenter, qui eorum vim genusve per se non intelligat, tali evidentia oleoso tradere: Systema eodem nimirum modo, quo Cosmographi sphæram terræ, ex quarum & quinque axiomatibus duos Apex Rerum & Aper Regius ad Junium & Augustum nullius non momenti proponit, diverse habitudines definire. Jusserant enim eum Ordines, ut post missionem in civitate Franequerana domicilium suum constitueret, ibique scriptis suis Jus Civile, Jus publicum atque Frisiorum illustraret, Studiosisque, cum rogatu singulorum, tum aliquando universis aditum apud se præberet ita, quemadmodum utilitati ipsorum, gloriæque Academicæ potissimum convenire visum fuerit. Quid autem per has Positiones intenderit celeberrimus Autor, & ex modo dictis patere potest, & ipse prolixe exposuit in Auspicio domestico sequenti mense referendis, Orat. 3, 4, & 9. Scilicet principia Juris Romani initio secundum ordinem Institutionum brevissimis accuratissimisque positionibus inclusit, annotatis simul morum hodiernorum ab antiquis recessibus. Idem postea secundum seriem Pandectarum præstitit, isto tamen laudabili instituto observato, ut in titulis Pandectarum, qui Institutionibus paralleli sunt, Auditores remittat ad partem primam, subinde & specilegium ibidem omissorum addat, reliquos vero positionibus ejusmodi brevibus & perspicuis includat, quo utrobique rationes magis e nexu rerum quam diffusis verbis pateant, legesque potissimæ ac difficiliores succinctæ exponantur, & in ipsis thesibus semina quæstionum præcipuarum, ac inter Doctores maxime controversarum occultentur, quæ istis principiis bene notatis non difficulter poterunt definiri, & ita Jurisprudentia Justinianea brevi temporis spatio jucunde magis quam tædiose addisci; quod quantam utilitatem doctrinæ hinc afferat, ex gitari magis potest, quam ut pro dignitate id deprædicare valeamus.

Venetiis 1682. in 12.

NOn male illi operam ſuam collocant, qui poſt peragratas Orientis regiones, patriæ reddiți, de rebus Turcicis exponere, ac iſtius Imperii faciem, qualis ipſis viſa fuit, depingere ſuſcipiunt. Quamvis enim idem antehac plures proſpero felicique ſucceſſu tentaverint, ipſorumque ſcripta ſat accuratam Turciæ cognitionem dare videantur, tamen quia Ottomannicæ Dominationis inprimis crebræ ſunt fatalesque mutationes, ſi quis nobis de iſtis referat, tanto magis laudem meretur, quanto parcius Germaniæ eſt cum ea gente commercium. Suo igitur merito hic commemoratur Cornelius Magnus, Parmenſis, qui cum iter in Aſiam an. 1672 ſuſcepiſſet, miſſis inde ad amicos in Italia viventes literis obſervare voluit, quicquid notatu dignius, ac in [illegible] ſcriptoribus minus obvium occurrit. Exacto quadriennio in patriam redux, eam literarum partem, qua res ad Turcici Regni Statum pertinentes complexus fuerat, collegit, ac 1682 demum anno publici juris fecit; alteram quoque, quæ Terram Sanctam, & remotiores magis provincias deſcribat, brevi editurus. Conſtat autem totum opus ſeptem omnino epiſtolis, quarum Prima abitum Autoris ex Italia, & quæ ſub itineris auſpicium obtigerint, refert. Batavorum hic nautarum induſtria, & operæ in navi apto ordine diſtributæ notantur: prolixius vero commemoratur, quicquid Meſſina, priſcis Zancle dicta, Zacynthus, ac Smirna habent, quod hominis exteri, iter illuc facientis, oculos & animum abripiat. Epiſtolarum altera Conſtantinopolin, & loca duo vicina Chriſtianis inhabitata, Peram & Galatam deſcribit; miniſtros Europæos, qui & Legatorum munere, & Judicum ſimul, ſuæ quisque Nationis, funguntur, enumerat, ac denique calculum init monaſteriorum ac templorum, quæ illic Romani tenent. Tertia magnificentiam ædium publicarum depfædicat; quo loco mentio fit mercatus, in quo ſervi barba-patum rationem non habet, quo quidem in Anno haber, duplicis fere generis. Alter enim Anno Veteris vocari, alter Integrum, quem dicunt, Lunare seu cyclicum: ille ex solo cursu solis definitur, hic ex numero aureo & epacta cyclo, ad mutandos & veteres instituto, quibus vti Ecclesia Romana. Hinc explicationem annorum Regiminis Anno, ad ritus Sinen Anno cum aliis ac ceremonias anno. Etc. quibus magis Imperium Christianorum Mundi & Turcicum distinguitur. Forte enim tale id adhibuerunt, quum publica quadam festa celebrarent, quibus primo loco habebatur Solstitium. Et certum, Solstitium magnum in Polonos explicationem annalem Imperatori, quem principem Cinensium, Annos exercitus ordinem, quemadmodum, partitionem, de quo pollicebat Imperium Romanum, de proximo, ut autem, qui exercitus Victarum Solstitium, quod servantur quique, Jam cum in tabernaculum ignominiae dignationem, non in Solstitium regnum solare Veteres. Solstitii Anni Solstitium IV, qui sunt principium tenet, virtute libertas, cum Imperii Proconsulatus, in regione dissidentium Magni Consulis defectus. Eodem tamen Anno elegantem delineationem annuli interiores campestris partes, & quae palati primarios, ordines, quae in Imperio quidem Solstitium Imperium Polonorum Solstitium, Solstitium Solstitium, Solstitium Imperium, Solstitium Solstitium, Solstitium Solstitium, Solstitium Solstit

INdefeſſos, quibus per omne vitæ ſuæ tempus aſſuetus fuerat, in ſtudiis labores, Vir maxime Reverendus ne in adverſa quidem valetudine prorſus intermiſit. Lecto enim affixus alteram hanc Collegii ſui Anti-Sociniani editionem, cui apologetica contra nonnullas Chriſtophori Sandii cavillationes præfatio acceſſit, correctiorem & auctiorem prodire procuravit, cum eam avidis multorum votis expeti intelligeret. Sed contra vota accidit, ut morbi pertinacia conſummatiſſimo huic Theologo ſextum & quinquageſimum ætatis annum agenti lethalis evaderet. E cujus obitu quantum damni & Academia noſtra, & univerſa res literaria ſacris maxime ſtudiis addicta ſentiat, nemo non intelligit, qui elaboratiſſimas has lucubrationes, quibus Sociniana ſophiſmata expugnatum & debellatum ivit, attentis oculis perluſtraverit; ut Syſtema Theologicum, Anti Bellarminum, Tractatum de Catholico, plurimaque alia tam Philoſophica & Philologica (ſi ad argumentum reſpicias,) quam Theologica ingenii monumenta in lucem publicam emiſſa taceamus, non tam mole, quam diffuſa exquiſitæ eruditionis amplitudine, nervoſo judicandi acumine, & ſolido perſuadendi robore immenſa, ac quovis pretio majora. Quibus commendandis immorari nolumus, ne Viri πολλῶν ἀνταξίως ἄλλων laudes omnem eloquentiam ſuperantes deterere potius quam deprædicare videamur. Speramus autem, quod unicum levando noſtro dolori ſolatium ſupereſt, eos, ad quos hereditatis vel affinitatis & amicitiæ jure hæc cura pertinet, Exegeſin Breviarii Hulſemanni, Collegium Anti-Calvinianum, Lectiones Anti-Syncretiſticas, & cætera, quæ prælo jam parata Vir incomparabilis reliquit, bono publico non inviſuros, ſed propediem e ſcriniis ſuis protracturos eſſe, ut novis ſubinde Scherzeri ſcriptis prodeuntibus, quem immatura nobis mors eripuit, perpetuo inter nos vivere videatur.

ACTA ERUDITORUM

publicata Lipsiæ

Calendis Februarii Anno M DC LXXXIV.

NICANDRI E HOHENEGG, VIRI S. JESV., Historia Papatus, novissimo Historiæ Lutheranismi & Calvinismi fabro κατὰ βίαιον reposita &c. Accedit Francisci Guicciardini historia Papatus ex autographo Florentino restituta.

Amstelodami, anno 1684. in 4.

VIx labore excerpendi historiam parallelam Maimburgio oppositam defuncti eramus, cum Tractatus iste ad manus nostras pervenit, ab Autore copiosæ lectionis, & magni adversus Papatum zeli Viro, tum ut ex epigrammate, præloquio subjuncto, apparet, celsa stirpe locoque fato, compositus. Nomen quidem libro præscriptum est, sed, ut ipse Autor in præfatione commemorat, sub cujus obscuritate involutus lubenter latitare vellet. Reformatorum partibus addictum esse, non obscure colligitur. Sed de dogmatibus nihil aut parum tradens, id potissimum agit, ut per modum retorsionis, scriptorem Historiæ tam Lutheranæ quam Calvinianæ, Ludovicum nempe Maimburgium, (quem tacito licet nomine, evidenter in præfatione describit,) retundat, & qui ejus aculeatis in Protestantes contumeliis aures præbuerunt, ad Pontificiæ & Romanæ Ecclesiæ corruptionem, & jus ac necessitatem reformationis agnoscendam deducat. Universalis itaque hæc est historia quædam Romanæ Ecclesiæ & successionis Pontificiæ, in septem Periodos distincta, qua ad Mornæi fere methodum, origo & progressus Hierarchiæ Romanæ, tum oppositio per omnia secula ad præsens usque tempus ostenditur. Priores sex Periodi breviores sunt, ab initio prædicationis Evangelicæ, ad annum usque 1563. Hæc in privatum usum collegisse se ex scriptoribus ait Autor, at quæ inde usque ad præsens tempus gesta sunt, & majorem operis partem occupant, ideo fusius & accuratius edisserenda se sumsisse, quod hucusque neminem dedita opera id fecisse sciret.

In Periodo Prima, ab Apostolorum tempore ad A.C. 314, incertum esse, nec nisi futili & infirmo testimonio niti scribit (allegans in eandem sententiam Mantuanum, Marsilium Patavinum, Carol. Molineum & alios) quod Petrus Apostolus Romæ fuerit, aut Episcoparum gesserit: omnium minime vero, licet id detur, sequi, quod jus universalis in Ecclesiam Pontificatus vel habuerit, vel ad successores transmiserit. Priores quidem Romæ Episcopos sanctos, sed mox cessantibus persecutionibus, dominandi in alias Ecclesias cupidos factos, eoque nomine a Cypriano, Hieronymo, aliisque Asiæ & Africæ Episcopis taxatos & repressos fuisse tradit; Decretalium vero Pseudo-Isidori, ex quibus primis illis Episcopis superstitiosæ Constitutiones tribuuntur; falsitatem, Sirmondi, Petavii & aliorum ex Romanensibus autoritate arguit. In Periodo Secunda progressum ambitionis Episcoporum, Romanorum, absentibus Urbe Imperatoribus, & debilitata per Barbaros eorum potentia, ad Annum usque Chr. 607 describit, & simultates cum Episcopis Constantinopolitanis, ob affectatos etiam ab his Patriarchatus Oecumenici titulos enarrat. Laudat tamen Gregorium I, quod universalis Episcopi nomen nonnisi ab Anti-Christi præcursore geri posse statuerit. Periodo Tertia, quam ad A. C. 1073 producit, habentur, quæ ad Bonifacii III impetratum a Phoca Imperatore pro Primatu, (neglecto scil. Gregorii monito,) decretum pertinent: dein Honorii Papæ lapsus in hæresin, certamina de imaginibus & de præsentia corporali in S. cœna, neglectus Theologiæ & bonarum literarum, turpissimi plerorumque Pontificum mores, eorundem fastus, diminuta Imperii majestas, origo Cardinalium, & alia ex illorum infelicium temporum historia. Periodus Quarta a Gregorio VII, qui Pontificum dominatum in immensum evexit, incipit, ejusque & successorum historiam ad annum usque 1294 pertexit. In hac rixæ & bella cum Imperatoribus: expeditiones in Palæstinam, rei Christianæ exitiosæ: plurimæ de corruptione Ecclesiæ querelæ: ortus Theologiæ Scholasticæ, religioni & pietati noxiæ, instituti in Pontificiæ potestatis stabilimentum Monachorum, mendicantium præsertim, ordines, eorumque tumultus & hæreses: veritatis in Waldenibus persecutio, & multa alia per compendium exposita reperiuntur, untur. Periodi Quinta initium facit Bonifacii VIII, quem fatigii Papalis consummatorem vocat, historia: memorantur, qui vitia Pontificum & errores doctrinæ libere taxarunt, dein Wiclefi, Hussi & aliorum, qui pro hæreticis habiti sunt, gesta & fata; certamina Paparum cum Imperatoribus; Acta cum Græcis; concilia plurima, sed turbata aut neglecta; renascentes, ad detegendos errores postmodum profuturæ, bonæ literæ, atque reformationis fecutæ præludia quædam, usque ad exitum Julii II & An. 1517. Periodus Sexta a Leone X Pontificatu inchoatur, & in promulgatione decretorum in Concilio Tridentino finitur. In hanc incidunt Reformationes Religionis, earumque causa in Europa gesta, a plurimis tradita: origo Jesuitarum & Capucinorum, quorum artibus ruens Papatus adjutus esse dicitur, addita gravi censura, §. 170. Laudatur scriptor nuperus Julius Clemens Placentinus ex Comitum Scotorum familia, ob editum de potestate Pontificis in Societatem Jesu librum, Venetiis (quanquam titulus Lutetiam præ se ferat,) impressum. His ita breviter per §§. 189. recensitis, auctorumque testimonio firmatis, subjungitur. & ad §. usque 350. atque Annum 1682 continuatur Periodus Septima. Est autem hæc tot rerum maxime memorabilium succincta narratione adeo referta, ut compendii modus plane excedendus foret, si quis præcipua saltem, nedum omnia indicare vellet. Quædam itaque veluti digito monstrabimus.

Historia Concilii Tridentini, Fr. Pauli Sarpii, Theologi Sereniss. Reipubl. Venetæ, Gallice versa a Dn. de la Mothe Josseval, olim Legationis Gallicæ ad Venetos Secretario; cum Notis Historicis, Politicis & Moralibus.

Amstelodami apud Blavios. Anno 1683 in 4.

HOnorificus fuit annus proxime elapsus memoriæ Pauli Sarpii, historiæ Concilii Tridentini autoris celeberrimi. Is enim duos diversæ sectæ viros nactus est, Epitomatorem unum, Interpretem alterum, utrumque animosum adversus infensissimum Pauli hostem Cardinalem Pallavicinum defensorem. Produximus mense Septembri nupero Petri Jurii Theologi Reformati Epitomen, cum præmissa Pauli Apologia. Hunc Romano-Catholicum nunc damus, idem Apologistæ officium non minori zelo nec pondere, in Præfatione, versioni Gallicæ præfixa, præstantem, licet aliud agere, & monasticæ turbæ, ut ait, contradictiones vereri videatur. Putat tamen, ante omnes, Pauli tutelam Reipubl. Venetæ incumbere, civis scilicet sui, & Consiliarii Ecclesiastici. Refert etiam, ut ea jam documentum dederit, quo

quod non meminerim Nundini illius fuit habitus, cum habitum Palliorum, & Cappellanorum, Episcoporum item publicus, & ordinatus a Pontifice, & Cardinalibus Patribus imposito denique Praepositum accipiat, & Cappellanos Pontificios, & quod Mense Aprilis ejusdem anni proximi habendum Concilium, quem Supremum decernunt, imperata in eum locum deferat, ut maximo cum ejus clero ab extremis Regionibus suis finibus ad Concilium se recipiat. Quibus omnia, & quidquid hinc in Anglia fuit, Regique decretum, & latum, ac Pontificiae Religioni restitutum, quod ultimum fuit, ita indubita-ta evidentia patefecerunt, quam quidquid objectum, citra ullam Controversiam, illorum & Commissariorum fidem habuit. Quod Pontificium Regium Nuntium Commissum etiam nihilominus probet, nec ei obstet, quod ex quibus dictum Petri pro ejus vicario nata, nullo quidem modo interpretata sint, in eam quoque Paulo propius spectantem sententiam, quam Petro a Papalibus, ut dictum, tribuitur, quam qui contendunt, Pontificiae Ordinationem negotium, in dogmatibus fundatum consistere. Quod literarum Petri contextus, cum dictis & monitis ab Oracula sua emanatis, Religione fretus, aliquot post quibus Pontificiis Patribus ab eo Spiritum sanctum, ut Ecclesiae Romanae ordinem, quo haec pro magistro parte fiat eliminatus est manifestissime ostendunt, quae Ante Nicenam Synodum fidelium compulsi, bodie quoque ejusdem sunt Sectatores praefitentes, ut omnipotui Deo ad Missae Sacrificium precantia peregrinantes, & clamantes Ad Patronum Apostolorum, qui fuerit visibile visionem. Fidelium Deus, quod ad Petrum Legem, quod Vocem attinet ei impingunt, quod Sacrorum Eloquiorum Scriptores, qui Petrum pro Anti-Christo habent, Petro-rem ita pronos esse norunt, & tanto impotentius gnari, cum impotet exiliens, tum quod Apostolo, Vexatum, quo, vel Pallavicino teste, fit Religionis Romanae in Anglia antecessorale & in Graecia gestationem-nem, Pontificiarum nostris Pontificum vita Pontificum; sed parentis ac salutem, quam servarunt profecto, laudare tamen eodem, cum invocantes, ac Sanctorum VII. quorum nomen Pallavicinus, me non spernet Paulo dicitur, parvi facio. Neque a Paulo con-tendo Sanctos Ecclesiae Patronos esse, ubi id fare fieri potuerit.
Defendo dictum magnificum Petri Sancti Epistola Primogeniti, a Pontificiis negatum, adscribo Pallavicino longissimum. Cum verbis
Paulo

Paulo reprehendatur, quod nihil aliud, quàm hoc Beatus Rhenanus, Erasmi amicus, dixerit, ut ostendat, Erasmum Cardinalem non fuisse? Esto, adsit credat, quod adhibitorum testium & auctorum nimia paucitas, & quorundam eorum propensio ergà Erasmum fidei, Cardinem minime suppeditet: ut autem, ea ipsius Paulini historiæ fuerit ratio, quæ fuisse, non tantum dicitur, sed & probatum, & in ea, quæ ad Cardinalatum pertinent, nihil non ex illius mente gestum, ex ipsius Epistolis, ex Erasmi Operibus, ex Beati Rhenani ad *Beatum ribus, ducentos adeo leves esse exiſtimat, ut numerari non meruerint: lapſum eſſe in nominum & temporum notatione, ſed id multis & præclaris autoribus accidiſſe. Melius itaque conſultum fuiſſe Terentium Alciatum iisdem Jeſuitam, qui pluribus annis omnia ad refutandum Paulum conquirens, a ſcriptione tamen abſtinere maluerit, quam friyola nec ſolida prodere. Culpandum vero Pallavicinum, quod perniciosiſſima adverſus Regum & Principum majeſtatem dogmata, & omnipotentiæ Pontificiæ aſſertiones, libro ſuo inſuxerit, ita ut compendium contineat, & revelationem omnis aulicæ, quæ Romæ ſovetur, doctrinæ, quamque accurate ex illo excerpſerit autor tractatus, cui titulus: Evangelium novum Carolinalis Pallavicini. Celebrat Pauli prudentiam, qui jus Principum & ſalutem populorum affectationibus Pontificiis prætulerit. Unionem quidem in religione optandam, ſed concordiam in Republ. abſolute tenendam eſſe; vitio itaque verti Paulo non debere, quod Caroli V conſilia, Pontificum fervori non ſemper reſpondentia probaverit, nec diſſentientes in religione, ubi prudenter egerunt, promiſcue culpaverit, multo minus ſeveritam in illos exercitam laudaverit; id enim ei cum multis Catholicis ſcriptoribus commune eſſe, & eventu comprobari. Allegat Pauli IV Pontificis exemplum, qui bellum cum Hiſpanis habens, non dubitaverit, legionem ex Rhætis, utut Lutheranis, conſcribere, eamque ringentibus Cardinalibus, tanquam cœlo demiſſam æſtimare. Pace cum Proteſtantibus inita ſervatam fuiſſe Galliam: at intempeſtive eos perſequendi zelo, noſtra memoria peſſundatam cum religionis Romano-Catholicæ detrimento Germaniam. Summum Pauli Sarpii crimen & hæreſin Romæ haberi, quod omnipotentiam & infallibilitatem Papæ, falſo ab adulatoribus jactatam, & majeſtati Chriſti impie æquiparatam impugnaverit: ſed factum id eſſe non ſine legitimo fundamento, & exemplo magnorum & nihilominus Catholicorum virorum. Quodſi aliquando acrius juſto ſcripſerit, tolerabilius peccaſſe, quam ſi vera reticuiſſet, aut adulandi ſtudio falſa commentus eſſet. Hæc autem vita non immerito ab Aquilino in Pallavicinum retorqueri, nec ab hujus amicis negari poſſe. Improbat tamen in Paulo ſuo Interpres ipſe, dicteria & facetias frequentes & acerbas, autoris gravitate indignas; easque in verſione hac ſua ſubſaturum ſe fuiſſe memorat, ni amici id deſſuaſiſſent; temperaſſe tamen alicubi verba, retento sensu. Posthæc alium, sed levioris armaturæ Pauli adversarium Scipionem Honricum, Doctorem Siculum aggreditur, & reprimit; eaque occasione denuo fontes indicat & defendit, unde Paulus historiam Concilii hauserit; nec mirum esse dicit, multa non vulgaria innotuisse viro, cui secreta omnia Venetorum scrinia patuerint, & qui oratorum Reipubl. relationes inspexerit, nec non Cardinalium Venetorum, v. g. Contareni, ad Senatum patrium scripta. Quæ vero ad elevandam Pauli fidem maxima & plurima tela ex archivo Vaticano Pallavicinus depromit, eorum vis vehementer retunditur ab hoc Interprete, dum narrat, & ex dissentientium etiam confessione probat, duplicia mandata Roma Tridentum ad Legatos missa fuisse: una, quæ oratoribus Principum & Episcopis monstrari potuerint; altera, characteribus ex composito exarata, quibus interiora & seria consilia & jussa Pontificum explicarentur; facile vero judicari posse, quæ ex illis Pallavicinus allegaverit. Sic defenso, & ob navatam omnibus Principibus, in tradendis solidis adversus summam aulæ Pontificiæ ambitionem principiis, operam utilissimam laudibus mactato Sarpio, de versione sua quædam monet. Ait enim, istum stylo plane simplici & qui plebejus videretur, usum, qui tamen nec ob ambiguitatem ubique intelligi, nec ad literam verti posset; inde factum, ut qui primus librum in linguam Gallicam transtulit, Diodatus, homo Italus, utriusque tamen linguæ non satis peritus, sæpe erraverit. Se vero, ut verba non semper sequi potuerit, de sensu fideliter expresso spondere: indulsisse sibi tamen, ut defectus aliquot manifestos corrigeret, bis dicta contraheret, trajecta reponeret, periodos justo longiores distingueret, & planiores faceret; omisisse etiam quæ Paulus ex decretis Latinis Italice verterit, eaque ex authenticis inserere maluisse: Scholasticæ Theologiæ scabra & spinosa ut leniret, & quam perspicacissime exponeret, allaborasse, idque Pauli imitatione, cujus summum hac in re artificium lib. II, sicut lib. I consummati Politici specimen appareat.

Quod attinet Notas margini adscriptas, continent illæ loca S. Scripturæ, quæ Paulus omisso plerumque libro, unde desumta sunt, in opere suo, nec servatis semper textus verbis, allegavit; deinde explicationes quasdam sive supplementa historica, ex ipsius Pauli aliis libris, variisque seculi istius autoribus, Gallicarum etiam Legationum actis actis excerpta; sententias denique politicas ex Tacito plerasque opportunis locis applicatas. Ita, quantum nobis judicare licet, operam suam bene collocavit autor, nec lectoris spem frustraturus est; optandum imo foret, ut versio hujus historiæ Latina, quæ dudum prodiit, eadem diligentia revisa & illustrata, denuo ederetur. Paucula tamen in notis marginalibus, circa nomina hominum & locorum errata, quæ in rebus Germanicis potissimum animadvertimus, subjungere visum est; ipso autore, ut speramus, non invito: cum nec operi laudem detrahant, & secunda cura facile corrigi possint. Lib. I. p. 45. inter Principes quinque, qui decreto Spirensi Anno 1529 contradixerunt, nominatur Georgius Elector Brandenburgicus; sed is non fuit Elector, sed Marchio ratus Onolsbacensis, vulgo Anspach, in Franconia dominus. Lib. II. p. 112. non bene corrigitur Paulus, quod Michaelem Suffraganeum five Chorepiscopum Moguntinum, Episcopum Sidonium nominavit, & male substituitur pro Sidone, Segnia five Signia Dalmatiæ. Nam Michael iste omnino Sidonii Episcopi titulum gessit, estque idem qui Lib. III. p. 269. Sidonius nominatur, Episcopus postea Martisburgensis. p. 119. Hermanni Archiep. Colonienfis familia non de Wenden, sed de Wida cognominatur, & superstiti ex ea Comites de Wida, in tractu Rhenano. Lib. VI. p. 491. pro Lauenmunz ponì fortitan debet Lavantium, quod Episcopali titulo, in Archiepiscopatu Salisburgensi insignitur, sicuti Gurck & Chiemsee in eadem diœcesi. p. 531. Bruntrutum arx & oppidum Episcopi Basileensis, in Sundgovia seu Pfirtensi districtu situm est, non in Burgundiæ comitatu.

Lutetiæ, apud viduam Ludovici Billaine, 1682 in 8.

NOnus jam annus agitur, cum Autor hic erudito orbi nonissimus, a gravi morbo convalescens, Seculi suis Benedictinis paulisper sepositis, animi gratia instructissimos schedarum suarum forulos excussit, & e plurimis antiquitatis ecclesiasticæ monumentis, quæ partim ab amicis transmissa, partim propria industria ex optimis quibusque Francicarum & Belgicarum bibliothecarum codicibus descripta collegerat, breviora maxime selegit, quæ observationibus suis & dissimilitudinibus expolita sub Veterum Analectorum nomine in lucem publicam emisit. Cum enim has epistolarum, præfationum, supplementorum, fragmentorum, versuum, & similes minutias, aliis circa majora & potiora fercula occupatis, vel excidisse vel superfuisse animadverteret, operæ se pretium facturum existimavit, si neglectas ab aliis reliquias, quæ historiæ ecclesiasticæ studiosis non ingratæ & secundis saltem mensis non indignæ videri possent, posteritati reservaret. Cujus consilii tantum abest ut ipsum pœniteuerit, ut potius firmata paulatim valetudine, a minoribus ad ampliora variorum scriptorum rudera colligenda accessum faceret, & altero fere jam anno secundum Analectorum tomum typis impressum evulgaret. Quo absoluto, etsi ad majus illud opus, quod illustrando suo Ordini impendit, redire, & insigne insuper de re diplomatica volumen, quod Cal. Maji anni 1681 commendavimus, elucubravit, Analecta tamen sua continuare minime cessavit, sed duobus prioribus tomis tertium adjunxit, cujus apparatum hic paucis recensemus.

Primum locum occupat Leidradi Lugdunensis Episcopi de Sacramento baptismi ejusque ceremoniis libellus, & ejusdem Antistitis ad Carolum M. epistola, in qua ea, quæ de abrenunciatione Satanæ in baptismo fieri solita differuerat, religiosissimo Imperatori id desideranti plenius & uberius exponit. Sequuntur acta Cenomanensium Episcoporum, cum variis Regum etiam primæ stirpis diplomatibus, & aliarum illustrium personarum instrumentis, ex archivo Cenomanensis ecclesiæ deprompta, de quorum fide dispiciant, quorum id magis quam nostra interest. Certe quæ de Juliano primo Cenomanensis ecclesiæ Præsule, qui a Clemente Petri discipulo in Gallias ablegatus, Domitiano, Nerva, & Trajano imperante floruisse perhibetur, referuntur; quod in Mariæ & Petri honorem ecclesiam exstruxerit, reliquias Romæ secum delatas in sancto altari deposuerit, census olei & cereæ vicinis ecclesiis ad luminarium impensas exegerit, aliaque his similia, a primitivæ ecclesiæ simplicitate & illorum temporum statu perquam sunt aliena. Nec ipse doctissimus Editor, quamvis hæc Cenomanensium episcoporum gesta, inter pretiosa Francicæ historiæ cimelia

ses, eminentiæ, ad Sanctum Apollinarem cantorem, & cappam admo-

Una ad Galeſium Abbatem de anno mortis Dagoberti I, & Clodovei junioris agit, & inſcriptionem quandam e MSCto Foſſatenſis eccleſiæ codice octingentos annos ſuperante ſiſtit; ex qua omnem circa Dagoberti annos difficultatem, quæ Valeſium, Cointium, Chiffletium, Henſchenium aliosque eruditos viros hactenus exercuit, tolli poſſe arbitratur: cum præſertim hanc de Dagoberti epocha ſententiam etiam altera de Deſiderii Cadurcenſis ordinatione & obitu diſſertatio confirmet.

Quorum tamen induſtria cum intra Romanorum Græcorumque mores & ritus inveſtigandos ferme ſubſiterit, Hebræorum calceos & pedum indumenta immundiſſimamque tutelam, ut Tertullianus appellat, ſingulari cura dignatus, commentario peculiari peculiari explicavit doctiſſimus Antonius Byneus; multa ſacrarum litterarum, quæ calceorum mentionem faciunt, loca nondum ſatis explicata illuſtrans, & ex Hebræorum aliarumque gentium antiquis monumentis, quicquid tenebris involverat longinqua ætas & remota longe hominum memoria, reddens clariſſimum.

Exorſus igitur ab origine calceorum, non ſatis exploratum eſſe docet, cui hoc inventum debeamus, etſi conſtet, mortales hac pedum tutela, quam optima magiſtra neceſſitas ſuppeditaverit, haud diu caruiſſe; cum omni animantium generi id a natura tributum ſit, ut ſe ſuumque corpus tueatur, nec ſacer Codex nos dubitare ſinat, jam Abrahami ævo calceorum uſum vulgarem ac cognitum fuiſſe. Balduini vero conjecturam, cui probabile viſum fuerat, Deum haud parca manu ſua hominibus bona elargiri ſolitum, cum primos noſtros parentes ad velandam verendorum turpitudinem pelliceis veſtivit tunicis, ſimul etiam calceos e pellibus conſutos, quorum ope teneras & molles pedum plantas a ſpinarum injuriis incolumes præſtarent, iisdem adaptaſſe, ingenioſam potius quam ſolidam arbitratur. Neque minus a Samuelis Bocharti ſententia diſcedit, qui in admirando opere, quod Hierozoicon inſcripſit, ἀνυποδησίαν inter veteres Hebræos non minus quam alias nonnullas gentes uſitatam fuiſſe ſtatuit: exempla enim nudipedum Hebræorum, a doctiſſimo viro allegata, non ad vulgarem illius gentis conſuetudinem, ſed ad religionem & alios quosdam peculiares ritus pertinere contendit, & plurimis ſacræ Scripturæ teſtimoniis evincit, jam ab antiquiſſimis temporibus calceatos Hebræos inceſſiſſe. Ex quo colligit, Chriſtum etiam, quem in veſtitu nihil ſingulare affectaſſe legimus, ex vulgari Judæorum more calceos geſtaſſe, nec diſcalceatum, quod quidam arbitrantur, in terris obambulaſſe.

Hinc ad calceorum variam materiam, quam præbuere diverſorum animantium pelles & corium, ſpartum item, lignum, papyrus, æs, & ſimilia; multiplicemque formam, diſtinctos colores, & diverſa genera ſolearum, ſandaliorum, phæcaſiorum, peronum, zancharum, compagorum, corrigiarum, τροχάδων, ἀγναχίδων, ὑποδημάτων, &c. (quorum calceamentorum quasdam figuras æri inſculptas, ex ſtatuis veteribus nummisque depromptas repræſentat) progreſſus, id potiſſimum agit, ut multa ſacræ Scripturæ loca a plerisque

Ad varios poſtea ritus, eorumque origines cauſſasque, & alia circa calceos ſingularia, quæ in ſacris voluminibus leguntur, accedit: diſquirens, cur Deus Iſraelitis, ut paſcha calceati comederent, injunxerit, Chriſto & Apoſtolis nihilominus diſcalceatis iſtud celebrantibus; unde religio manaverit, qua Judæi nefas duxerunt cum calceis loca ſacra intrare; quis ſacerdotum ſacra peragentium apud Hebræos habitus fuerit; quid in expiationis feſto, nec non in jejuniis ac votis, a Judæis obſervatum fuerit circa calceos, in luctu item & ingenti calamitate; quæ fuerit ratio legis, uxorem fratris ſine liberis defuncti ducere recuſantibus calceum extrahi jubentis; & num ad hanc legem de leviratu pertineat antiquiſſima illa calcei exuendi ceremonia, quæ in libro Ruth refertur, ceu Joſephus exiſtimat, an vero traditionis ſeu acquirendi dominii formulæ, quæ apud Judæos calceo fiebat, iſte actus tribuendus ſit; quid David innuat, cum ſe calceum ſuum ſuper Edom projecturum lætabundus gloriatur; an Hebræorum calcei in deſerto per quadraginta annos integri ſervati fuerint; qualia denique trium virorum veſtimenta, quæ in ardenti fornace illæſa permanſerunt? Quibus abunde & erudite pertractatis, tandem cur de myſtico calceo, quod Balduinus fecerat, agere & allegorias venari nolit, cauſſas breviter exponit: de univerſa autem re veſtiaria Hebræorum, jam a Braunio diffuſe & perquam erudite tradita, commentarium p. 30. & 217

& 217 pollicetur, auctiorem etiam hujus de calceis eruditi commentarii editionem sub finem præfationis promittit: quorum præstantissimorum operum non minori desiderio, usquedum prodeant, ac amore, ubi prodierint, tenebimur.

Ad calcem libelli adjectum est satyræ in modum lepide concinnatum, & novem quasi abhinc annis primum proditum Somnium de Laudibus critices: quo politiorum litterarum & veræ ac solidæ eruditionis studia adversus obtrectatores defenduntur, prava autem & sordida studiorum ratio, & inculta Scholasticorum barbaries festive exagitatur. Mercurium enim in somno sibi narrasse fingit, Apollinem speculum suum, quo quidquid usquam contigisset aut extitisset in litteris, uno obtutu cerneretur, Criticis dedisse; quod satis æque Theologis, Jureconsultis & Medicis ferentibus, soli ægerrime tulerint Philosophi. Severo ad cœlum interea, Mercurio monstrante viam, delatum, augustissimum templum, in eoque Philosophorum ac Criticorum turbam conspexisse, acriter concertantem, utri parti doctrinæ speculum Apollineum cedere debeat: ad tribunal Divæ Sophiæ e Philosophis causam dicente quodam Febriculano; Criticorum causam orante Josepho Scaligero; cui Dea assurgens, speculum, quod Apollo commiserat Criticis, iis relinquendum esse pronunciarit. Hunc festivum ingenii lusum, secundis curis recognitum, & viro celeberrimo, quem doctorem suum passim prædicat, Joanni Georgio Grævio dicatum, Auctor denuo edidit. Scribendi autem hoc genus adversus iniquum Censorem, qui vigilantem somniare perinde haberi ac suaviter delirare dixerat, exemplo Lipsii, Nannii, Cunæi, & Ferrarii tuetur: quorum somnia obscuris aliorum præstent vigiliis.

THE ANATOMY OF PLANTS, With an Idea of a Philosophical History of Plants, and several other Lectures. By Nehemiah Grew M. D. Fellow of the Royal Society, and of the College of Physicians.

hoc est:

Anatomia Plantarum, cum Idea Philosophicæ Historiæ de Plantis, & variis Lectionibus aliis. Autore Nehemia Grevv M. D. Regiæ Societatis, & Collegii Physicorum Socio.

Londini, 1682, in fol.

QUæ fuerit Clarissimo Autori occasio scribendi, & quo successu ipse susceptum opus perfecerit, de eo in præfatione, quam Libri principium offert, prolixe legi potest. Hanc enim apparet inprimis scriptam esse, ut pateat, numquid Malpighio, cujus in eodem argumento occupata fuit industria, ab Autore debeatur; & ideireo succincta quædam historia totius Operis texitur, ut constet, quo ordine illius partes conscriptæ sint, & quo postea in lucem venerint. Nimirum Anatomia Plantarum ante hos duodecim annos, & amplius, primum prodiit, ac eodem die Regiæ Societati oblata fuit, quo Malpighius libros suos, nondum adhuc typis excusos, sed manuscriptos de eadem materia, Londinum miserat. Idea vero Historiæ Plantarum, & Anatomia Radicum ac Truncorum, cum duabus lectionibus de mixtione, aliquot annis post lucem adspexerunt. Et hæ quidem partes omnes suos nactæ sunt interpretes, cum Gallos tum Germanos, de quibus tamen non æque benignum Autor judicium tulit. Ultimo Pars quarta Anatomiæ Vegetabilium conscripta fuit, annis videlicet 76 & 77, quæ nunc prioribus opusculis eodem volumine juncta invenitur. De ea dum referre hic paramus, rogandus est Lector, ne inique ferat, si nos capitum sectiones ac numeros, eadem methodo, qua Autor usus est, sequi viderit. Divisa vero iterum est in partes quatuor, quarum prima de Foliis inscribitur, & sex omnino capitibus de protectione & plicatura foliorum nascentium, quibus, naturæ beneficio, a frigoris & Solis injuriis defenduntur, agit; de iis item, quæ in externa superficie foliorum apparent; de ipsorum figura, ac fibrarum extrinseca dispositione; de partibus & textura; de duratione ac tempore generationis; & denique de modo, quo folia in plantis atque arboribus producuntur. Et quia Autor de his fere omnibus superius L. 1. Anat. Plant. c 4. quædam dixit, ideo hic plerumque alias tantum observationes appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for the term of six years, and shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. adjiciuntur, ac initio de sepimento florum inprimis locatur, quem natura sit studiosa justarum proportionum observatrix, quippe quæ foliis floris, foliorum sepimenti numerum vel æqualem, vel duplum constanter subjiciat. De foliatione floris sequuntur postmodum, quæcunque vel ad plicaturam, vel ad numerum foliorum, quæ in flore sunt, vel ad partes florem constituentes, vel denique ad usum & figuram floris pertinent, nec antea fuerunt plene pertractata. De coma etiam duplici florum quædam afferuntur, ubi monet Autor, non esse omnes floris partes a se nominatas in quibusvis plantis quærendas, sed deficere modo has, modo illas. Deinde generationem plantarum, cum generatione animalium confert, & primum quidem sexus differentiam in plantis dari negat, sed unamquamque ἀφρόδιτον esse statuit, ac eas partes conjunctas habere, quæ alias sexum unum ab altero distinguunt; mox quomodo plantæ quasi concipiant ac fœtum alant, edisserit, donec is, ubi ad maturitatem venerit, prodeat, & nova fœcunditate plantam aliam progeneret. Appendicis loco subjicit methodum, qua quis possit quascunque plantas ex foliis & floribus expedite, non adhibito vitro, nec facta incisione aut resolutione partium, cognoscere, ac pronunciare, ad quod unaquæque genus referenda sit, ut postmodum apud Rei Herbariæ Scriptores eo facilius ac promtius inveniatur.

Sectio tertia de fructibus agit, quos Autor ad quatuor genera refert, ita ut omnes omnino sub pomis, piris, prunis, & uvis complectatur. Deinde capsulam seminum cum fructu confert, ob similitudinem, quam hic cum illa habet. In eo tamen ista duo a se invicem differre fatetur, quod fructus, instar uteri carnosi, quo semen ad maturitatem propius accedit, hoc humidior fiat ac succulentior, sed capsula, quasi membranaceus quidam uterus, tanto durior & siccior reddatur, quanto majora incrementa semen capit. Ultimo partium, e quibus quemvis fructum componi certum est, quasque communiter tres, rarius plures esse constat, usum, quem ipse cum seminis tum fructui præstant, exponit. Atque hic vasorum conformationem, succique sulphurei & oleosi per ligneas, quas vocat, fibras advecti, diversas qualitates uberius declarat.

Sectio quarta Semina pertractat, & eorum ante omnia varias figuras colligit, quarum diversitas juxta Autorem oritur partim a situ,

Mr. Speaker: I am grateful to the hon. Member for Bolton, West (Mr. Hilton) for giving me notice of his question. I have had a word with the Minister of Transport (Mr. Marples) and I understand that the Government are considering the matter. I am sure that the Minister will be able to make a statement very soon.

Mr. Hilton: Is it not a fact that the Government have had this matter under consideration for a very long time? Is it not a fact that the Government have had this matter under consideration for a very long time? Is it not a fact that the Government have had this matter under consideration for a very long time?

Sed hæc facile condonari poſſunt de rebus externis ſcribentibus.

HISTOIRE GENEALOGIQUE ET CHRONOLOgique des Dauphins de Viennois &c.

Hiſtoria Genealogico-Chronologica Delphinorum Viennenſium, a Guiguone Iusque ad Ludovicum V Ludovici Magni filium, Tabulis genealogicis Principumque inſignibus exornata; auctore Domino de Caya.

Pariſiis apud Steph. Michaletum, 1683. in 12.

VIennenſium in Gallia Comitum, qui Delphini jam ab antiquo ſalutantur, Hiſtoriam adornaturus præſentis libelli auctor, in Prolegomenis de origine primum Comitatus illius diſſerit, eamque in ſeculum a nato Chriſto undecimum conjicit, quo Arelatenſe Regnum poſt Rudolphi ignavi ultimi Regis obitum, Germanico coaluit imperio. Nam ut alii tum in eo regno Principatus ſurrexerunt, proceribus ditiones, quibus regendis præfecti a Germaniæ Regibus erant, inter turbas bellicas paulatim patrimonio ſuo vindicantibus: ita eodem tempore eademque occaſione Viennenſem quoque Comitatum natum Auctor exiſtimat, modicam Regni illius partem complexum; Delphinatus vero titulum a Comitiſſæ cujusdam Viennenſis, Delphinæ dictæ, nomine proprio Comitatui illi acceſſiſſe memorans. Inde brevem ditionis hujus, quæ verſus meridiem Provincia, verſus occaſum Vivarienſi tractu, Septentrionem verſus Breſſia & Lugdunenſi agro, verſus ortum Sabaudia & Pedemontio terminatur, deſcriptionem exhibet, urbesque recenſet, quarum præcipuæ Gratianopolis (Grenoble) princeps totius Delphinatus ſedesque Parlamenti,

Ebro-

Ebrodunum (Ambrun) & Vienna Allobrogum, quarum illa ſuperioris, hæc inferioris Delphinatus caput, utraque vero Archiepiſcopatus ſede illuſtris eſt. Denique qua ratione Delphinatui ſeculo decimo quinto Comitatus Valentinus acceſſerit, Carolo Delphino nimirum, qui VII ejus nominis inter Galliæ poſtea Reges fuit, a Ludovico Pictavienſi, Comite Valentino, hærede inſtituto, commemorat.

Opus ipſum quatuor Familiis, penes quas a prima origine usque ad hæc tempora Comitatus Viennenſis ſeu Delphinatus poſſeſſio fuit, diſtinguitur. E prima, quam a Carolo M. derivare Auctor nititur, ordine ſibi invicem ſucceſſiſſe perhibentur Guigo I, II, III, & IV: quorum Primus tamen non Viennæ, ſed provinciæ Gratianopolitanæ (de Graiſivaudan) Comitem ſe dixit, Alter Comitis d' Albon titulum paterno adjunxit, Tertius Delphini cognomen primus geſſit, & Quartus demum Viennenſis Comitis titulum uſurpavit, jure a Bertholdo Zeringenſi acquiſito. Nec prætereunda hic Delphinatus Arvernia (quem hoc tempore Sereniſſima virgo, Anna Maria Ludovica Aurelianenſis, Madamoiſelle de Montpenſier communiter dicta, poſſidet) origo. Nimirum Guiguonis III filia Beatrix, Roberto VI Arverniæ Comiti nupta fuit, ex quo conjugio natus filius, Delphinus ſalutatus eſt, ac ea Comitatus Arverniæ pars, quæ ex paterna ad eum hæreditate pervenit, Delphinatus titulo armisque inſignita; eo tamen ſervato diſcriminine ut Viennenſes Delphini delphinum vivum cum auribus rubentibus, Arverniæ vero mortuum cum auribus ſubalbidis in inſignibus exhiberent.

Altera Delphinorum Viennenſium (hos enim a Delphinis Arverniæ diſtinguendos eſſe, ex jam dictis patet) familia Burgundica fuit. Filia enim Guiguonis IV, qui a. 1163, non relicta maſcula ſobole deceſſit, Beatrix Hugoni III Burgundiæ Duci nupta, in filium Andream ex eo ſuſceptum jus in Comitatum paternum tranſtulit. Huic vero ex Burgundica Domo in Delphinatu filius Guigo V, & illi pariter filius Johannes I ſucceſſit; quo a. 1282. defuncto, quod liberos non reliquiſſet, ad aliam iterum familiã Delphinatus connubii jure tranſiit.

Nam Guiguonis V filia Anna, ſoror Johannis, Humberto Domino de la Tour du Pin in matrimonium collocata, Turriæ familiæ, quæ proinde tertia eſt, Delphinatum intulit, ex qua poſt Humbertum hunc I, filius ejus Johannes II, & nepotes Guigo VI, & Humbertus II

tus II, Delphinatum ordine tenuerunt. Humbertus vero hic II, vir alioquin magni animi, ut Regiam etiam dignitatem ambiviſſe dicatur, cum unicum filium triſti fato amiſiſſet, præcipiti ex feneſtra lapſu exſtinctum, ac graviſſimis præterea bellis a Sabaudiæ Comite affligeretur, ditionem ſuam potentiori cuidam Principi, a quo Sabaudi validius retunderentur, permittere decrevit. Ac primum quidem ad Clementem VI Papam, qui Avenione ſedem habebat, adjecit animum, ſed obnitente, nec Papam dominum patiente Equeſtri in Delphinatu ordine, ad Philippum Valeſium Galliæ Regem ſe convertit, eique a. 1343 Delphinatum conceſſit, ſummam ſibi 40000 Imperialium, ac annuam 2000 florenorum penſionem pactus, ea inter alias lege adjecta, ut primogeniti deinceps Galliæ Regum filii, ſimulac lucem aſpexiſſent, titulum nomenque Delphini gererent, ac Franciæ inſignibus, tribus nempe liliis in area cærulea, arma Delphinatus, delphinum ſcilicet cæruleum cum criſtis & auribus rubeis in campo aureo, quadripartitim jungerent.

Sicque ad quartam familiam, Regiam nempe Gallorum, Delphinatus tranſiit. Tametſi enim Hubertus poſt mortem uxoris ſuæ mutaſſe ſententiam viſus eſt, animumque ad ſecundas nuptias ſpe prolis ſuſcipiendæ adjecit, ab hoc tamen inſtituto dimotus, a. 1349 novis pactis ditionem omnem Carolo Johannis Normanniæ Ducis filio, Philippi Valeſii Galliæ Regis nepoti, ejus poſtea inter Galliæ Reges nominis V, traditis Delphinatus inſignibus, gladio Delphinali & vexillo S. Georgii cum ſceptro & annulo, conceſſit; filio tamen ſuo naturali Amedeo Viennenſi (cujus poſteri hodieque ſupereſſe dicuntur, Domini de Viſan dicti) annua penſione aſſignata. Ipſe vero monaſterium ingreſſus, ac in presbyterorum ordinem, ne relinquere vitam monaſticam poſſet, receptus, & a Papa Patriarchatu Alexandriæ, nec non adminiſtratione Archiepiſcopatus Rhemenſis donatus, a. 1355 diem obiit. Hincque porro Auctor a Carolo V Galliæ Rege, primo ex hac familia Delphino, ad hæc noſtra usque tempora Hiſtoriam Gallicam juxta Delphinorum ſeriem pertexit.

id eſt,

Pariſiis 1683. in 8.

MEmorabilem Germaniæ, noſtræque Saxoniæ, annum proxime elapſum, inter alias cauſas merito facere debet, Vienna ab infeſtiſſima Turcorum obſidione, auſpiciis Auguſtiſſimi Imperatoris, nec ſine Heroico auxilio Sereniſſimi, Potentiſſimique Electoris Saxonici, Domini noſtri Clementiſſimi, maxime vero per ſingularem Divini numinis gratiam liberata. Tantarum rerum deſcriptio ut ſine dubio multorum calamum occupabit, ita quæ merito metuitur, belli cum immaniſſimo hoſte continuatio, ad diligenter conſiderandas res Turcicas, incitamento omnibus eſſe debet. De his inſignem librum exhibemus, viri docti & eloquentis, qui pleraque a ſe relata ſuæ debet experientiæ, cum per annos bene multos legatis Britannicis ad aulam Turcicam miſſis, a ſecretis fuerit. Ejusdem eſt Tractatus de præſenti Imperii Ottomannici ſtatu, qui Germanice ex Gallico verſus, Diarii Europæi continuationi XXI, anno 1671 inſertus eſt, & alius Latine & erudite ſcriptus, de ſeptem Eccleſiis in Apocalypſi memoratis, quarum rudera miſeranda autor inſpexit & deſcripſit. In hac vero hiſtoria, quam excerptam damus, narrationem orditur ab anno 1623, cum Amurathes IV quatuordecim annorum puer, depoſito a Prætorianis patruo Muſtaphæ ſucceſſit; tyrannus poſtea, ſuis quoque fere intolerabilis factus; qui tamen patrui lenitati & profuſioni, qua imperium potentiſſimum pene deſtruxerat, contrarium vitium opponens, ſervati auctique dominatus cauſa fuit, dum ſtricto & plusquam herili imperandi modo, diſciplinam & gloriam militarem reſtituit, & ærarium quod vacuum invenerat, quindecim auri millionibus impletum reliquit. Interemit eum, multis præliis ſervatum, & ætate florentem, immodicus vini uſus, cui contra ſectæ ſuæ præcepta, a transfuga Perſa, quem ad intimam familiaritatem admiſerat, incitatus indulſit, ita ut crapula anno 1640 ſuffocaretur. Hujus hiſtoria primam libri partem eamque breviſſimam conſtituit. Altera Ibrahimi primum geſta, aut potius obſcœnum otium, quo Sardanapali tupitudines æquavit quavit aut vicit, paucis proponit. Frater is Amurathis erat, ex vinculis, in quibus mortem expectabat, & contra anteceſſoris teſtamentum, quo Tartarorum Principem fratri ſocordi prætulerat, in ſolium evectus; ſed poſt annos octo, anno 1648, cum filiam ſummi ſacerdotis, (Muphtin vocant.) vi rapuiſſet, in carcerem reductus, & quia id impatienter ferebat, ſtrangulatus. Deinde initia filii & ſucceſſoris ejus Mahometis IV, qui hucusque regnavit, usque ad annum 1662 referuntur. Pars tertia quinque annorum geſta a Mahomete usque ad annum 1666 completum, continet. Quarta usque ad annum 1677 incipientem progreditur. Opus, non minus quam de hiſtoria ſua Tacitus profitetur, opimum caſibus, atrox præliis, diſcors ſeditionibus, ipſa quoq; pace ſævum: ut adeo legentibus propter rerum magnitudinem & varietatem, tum narrandi brevitatem & perſpicuitatem, non poſſit non eſſe gratum & jucundum. Nec operam perdet, qui librum, hoc præſertim tempore utiliſſimum, Latine vel Germanice verſum publico donaverit. Ut autem ſtimulus ad talem laborem accedat, & judicii noſtri ratio appareat, pauca quædam, quæ præ aliis memoratu digna, aut ad capienda Chriſtianis populis documenta, proficere viſa ſunt, hinc inde excerpta, non invito ut ſperamus lectore conſignabimus.

Notum eſt, Tartaros Cherſoneſi Tauricæ incolas, ſive Præcopenſes vel Crimæos, maximum Turcicæ potentiæ adminiculum præſtare, dum auxilia equeſtria, quo militiæ genere gentes alias longe antecellunt, quoties jubentur, ſubmittunt. Hos tamen non ita, ut vulgo creditur, Turcis fidos, deditosque eſſe, apparet ex iis, quæ autor Tom. I. p. 35. & ſeqq. aliisque locis, de diſcordiis & aperta etiam hoſtilitate inter utrosque orta narrat, ut adeo deſperandum non ſit, Tartaros, ſi Chriſtiani Principes induſtriam adhibeant, ſeparari a Turcis, aut funditus everti poſſe; quod a Polonis Anno 1629 fieri potuiſſe memoratur, ſi victoria tunc parta uti ſciviſſent.

Sæpe ſed fruſtra deploratum fuit, diſcordia noſtra Turcorum imperium, plus quam omni prudentia aut potentia illorum, ſtare & augeri. Id luculenter autor demonſtrat. Legi poſſunt quæ T. I. p. 55. de amiſſa occaſione debellandi Turcos anno 1630 obſervavit, cum ex cauſis nunquam probandis, Principes Chriſtiani arma tunc in ſe verterent, totamque inde Europam diuturno & exitiali bello implicarent.

Quicquid olim de fide Turcorum ab aliquibus jactatum est, experientia destruitur, ita quidem, ut quanto speciosius promittunt, tanto minus fidendum sit. Notabile est, ut Veneti quantumcunque cauti, ante bellum Creticum non blandis tantum verbis, & profunda dissimulatione decepti fuerint, sed & Legato sive Consuli, (Bailum vocant) omnis armorum suspicio exemta; missis ad eum monachis Turcicis, celeberrimæ sanctitatis, qui juramentis & diris execrationibus asseverarent, nihil Venetis metuendum esse, quos tamen statim terra marique aggressi sunt, Tom. II. p. 202. Ita gens pessima fidem & religionem utilitati & nocendi nobis occasionibus omnino postponit. Eadem fraude usos esse tradit, cum ab anno 1661, usque ad annum 1663, per pacis tractatus Hungaros & Germanos deluderent, & cum conclusum pacis negotium esse videretur, copiæque Imperatoriæ vel exauctoratæ, vel aliorsum missæ essent, tum demum præcipitanter abrupta tractatione improvisi irruerent. Tom. III. p. 3. & seqq.

Cæterum in narratione belli, ante annos hos viginti in Hungaria gesti, autor non sine acrimonia, de lentitudine consiliorum & auxiliorum, & de erroribus Cæsarei exercitus, ejusque ducum judicat, solum fere Nicolaum Serinium, ex quo Principem supremum facit, ultra modum laudans, (vid. Tom. II. p. 288. Tom. III. p. 61 11 7.) Victoriam ad Rabam flumen anno 1664 reportatam majorem fuisse scribit, Tom. III. p. 100, quam in Germania creditum fuit; periisse enim exemplo raro audito una illa pugna Turcorum decem & septem millia, tantamque consternationem inter Turcos fuisse, ut bellum, nisi intempestiva pax interveniisset, egregio cum successu continuari potuisset. Inter pacis vero conditiones hanc quoque recenset & improbat, quod Cæsar sexcenta aureorum millia, quæ Michael Abaffi Transylvaniæ Princeps, velandæ ignominæ causa, a se solvenda receperit, dependere Turcis debuerit, d. l. p 112. sq. Hoc cum inter publicatas pacis leges, quod sciamus, non reperiatur, fide stat autoris, cui forte a Turcis, vanis & mendacibus, impositum est. Male etiam stetisse pactis illis Turcos notat, excursiones maximas continuantes, easque conquerentibus ministris Cæsareis ita excusantes, quod pax non rumpatur, si agmen per quod prædæ aguntur, non sit supra numerum quinque millium, aut tormenta bellica non adhibeantur, d. l. p. 146.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners, or any two of them, shall have power to administer oaths to witnesses, and to take their depositions touching the matters aforesaid, and to require the production of books, papers, and writings, which may be necessary for the purpose of ascertaining the boundaries of the said lands, and to do all other acts which may be necessary for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act.

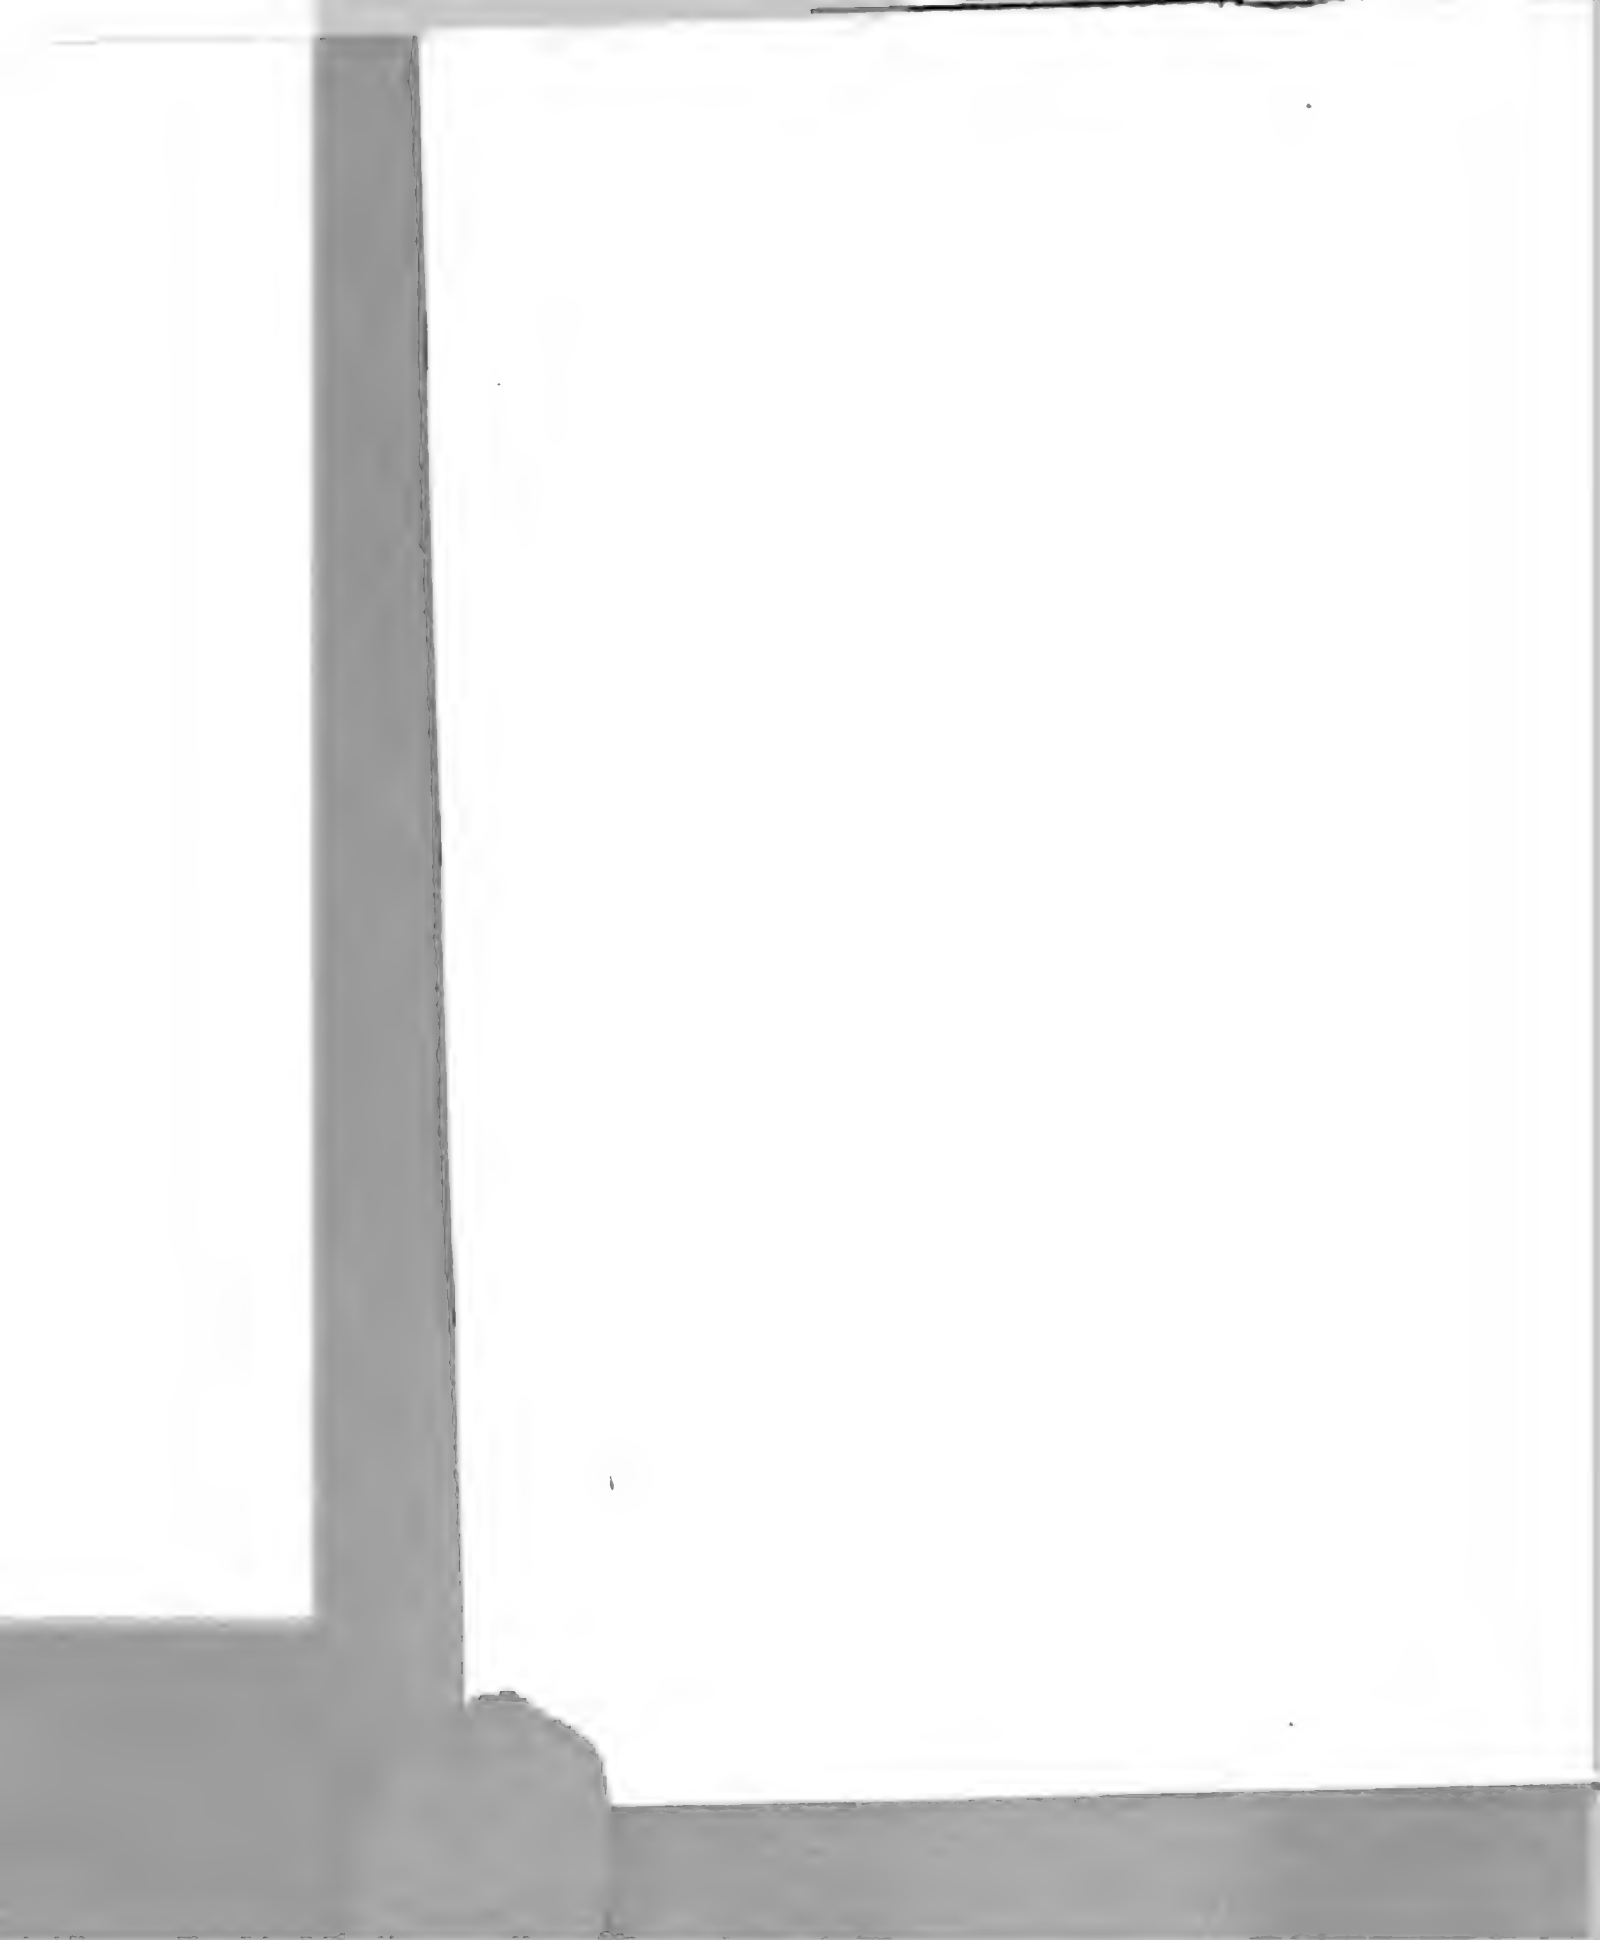
SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, before they enter upon the duties of their appointment, take an oath or affirmation, before some person authorized to administer oaths, faithfully and impartially to perform the duties required of them by this act, to the best of their skill and judgment; which oath or affirmation shall be certified by the person before whom the same shall be taken, and returned to the office of the Secretary of State.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, before they enter upon the duties of their appointment, enter into bond, with two sufficient sureties, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties required of them by this act, which bond shall be taken by the Secretary of State, and filed in his office.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall be allowed and paid, out of the treasury of the United States, the sum of three dollars per day, during the time they shall be employed in the service aforesaid, and the actual expenses of surveying, and other necessary expenses, to be certified by the said Commissioners, and allowed by the President of the United States.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, as soon as may be after the completion of the duties required of them by this act, make report thereof to the President of the United States, who shall cause the same to be laid before Congress.

APPROVED, March 3, 1791.



pius accedentibus, nec illos tamen limites ſupergredi unquam valentibus; ſecure tandem inferre licebit, eſſe parallelogrammum ABCD ad triangulum ABC, ut linea AB ad AC; h. e. ut 2 ad 1. Quæ quidem veritas, tametſi multo facilius ac brevius demonſtrari a nobis poſſit, imo ex trianguli quadam geneſi tanquam conſectarium fluat, hoc modo tamen demonſtrata facem quodammodo præferre poteſt ſequentibus.

Secundo igitur ut ſimiliter demonſtrem, parallelepipedum BF ad pyramidem ABCDE (Fig. II) ſe habere ut 3 ad 1, diviſa communi altitudine CE in 3 partes æquales, & pro illa ponendo a, pro longitudine baſeos b, pro latitudine c, ut ſoliditas totius parallelepipedi ſit abc, reperio circumſcripta pyramidi tria parallelepipeda BX, bx, $\beta\xi$, ſuper tribus baſibus ABCD, abcd, $\alpha\beta\gamma\delta$, æqualia $\frac{9}{27}$ abc, $\frac{4}{27}$ abc, & $\frac{1}{27}$ abc, ad ſummam $\frac{14}{27}$ abc; ita ut totum parallel. BF ad partialium horum ſummam ſe habeat, ut 27 ad 14, ſive (utrinque dividendo per 9) ut 3 ad $1\frac{5}{9}$ h. e. ut AB ad AC + CD in linea ad Fig. II. ſpectante. Biſecando vero porro altitudines tres priores, produco parallelepipeda pyramidi circumſcripta ſex, eorundemque capacitates ſingulas (obſervans nimirum, has exprimi totidem fractionibus, quarum numeratores ab 1 per numeros quadratos ordine aſcendunt, denominator autem communis eſt cubus numeri partium in altitudine CE) reperio $\frac{36}{216}$, $\frac{25}{216}$, $\frac{16}{216}$, $\frac{9}{216}$, $\frac{4}{216}$, $\frac{1}{216}$ abc, ad ſummam $\frac{91}{216}$ abc, cum totum parallelepipedum ſit $\frac{216}{216}$ abc, adeoque hoc ad illorum ſummam ſe habeat ut 216 ad 91, h. e. (utrinque dividendo per 72) ut 3 ad $1\frac{19}{72}$, ſive ut AB ad AC + CE; dum ſuperior proportio fuerat, ut 3 ad $1\frac{50}{72}$, adeoque exceſſus prior CD hac vice decrevit $\frac{31}{72}$ plus quam dimidio. Similiter igitur ulterius biſecando, cum parallelepipedum totum ad omnia circumſcripta reperiam eſſe ut 3 ad $1\frac{37}{288}$ h. e. ut AB ad AC + CF, dum ſuperior proportio fuerit ut 3 ad $1\frac{76}{288}$ exceſſum priorem CE hac vice decruiſſe video $\frac{39}{288}$ plusquam dimidio, adeoque decrementum poſterius ultra dimidium eſſe prioris $\frac{3}{4}$ &c. Quamobrem & hæc decrementa ultra dimidium infinito progreſſu in ipſa dimidia, & dimidiorum dimidia tandem in ipſum punctum C (quod ſupergredi certe non poſſunt) terminari evidenter cognoſco, indeque concludo: parallelepipedum eſſe ad pyramidem, ut AB ad AC, h. e. ut 3 ad 1.

Tertio ut evincam id quoque, quod eſt principale meum propoſitum,

Ἐπὶ τῷ τέλει τῆς ἀναφορᾶς ἐπιλέγει ὁ ἱερεύς· Καὶ δὸς ἡμῖν μετὰ παρρησίας ἀδεῶς προσκαλεῖσθαί σε τὸν ἐπουράνιον θεὸν καὶ πατέρα ἐν πάσῃ καιρῷ καὶ τόπῳ, καὶ εἰσακουσθῆναι ἡμᾶς ὡς ὁ μονογενὴς σου υἱὸς καὶ θεὸς ἡμῶν ἐπὶ τῆς ἐσχάτης ἡμέρας ἐν τῇ μελλούσῃ παρουσίᾳ αὐτοῦ, ἐν ᾗ ἔρχεται κρῖναι ζῶντας καὶ νεκρούς, καὶ ἀποδοῦναι ἑκάστῳ κατὰ τὰ ἔργα αὐτοῦ· καὶ μὴ ἐπιλάθῃ ἡμῶν εἰς τέλος διὰ τὰς ἁμαρτίας ἡμῶν· ἀλλὰ ἐπιμνήσθητι ἡμῶν, κύριε, ὡς ἀγαθὸς καὶ φιλάνθρωπος θεός, καὶ ἀξίωσον ἡμᾶς μετὰ τῶν ἁγίων σου ἀπολαῦσαι τῶν ἐπηγγελμένων ἀγαθῶν, ἃ ὀφθαλμὸς οὐκ εἶδεν καὶ οὖς οὐκ ἤκουσεν καὶ ἐπὶ καρδίαν ἀνθρώπου οὐκ ἀνέβη, ἃ ἡτοίμασας, ὁ θεός, τοῖς ἀγαπῶσί σε καὶ ἐν ἀληθείᾳ δουλεύουσί σοι· καὶ ἐπὶ πᾶσιν ἐπιμνήσθητι, κύριε, τῆς ἁγίας σου ἐκκλησίας, ἣν ἐκτήσω ἀπὸ περάτων τῆς γῆς, καὶ ἀξίωσον αὐτὴν τῆς τελειώσεως ἐν τῇ βασιλείᾳ σου· καὶ ἁγίασον αὐτὴν καὶ τοὺς ἐν αὐτῇ ἁγιαζομένους, καὶ ἀξίωσον ἡμᾶς ἐν τῇ ἁγίᾳ σου ἐκκλησίᾳ ἐν τῇ ἐπουρανίῳ ἀνακραθῆναι ὑμνοῦντας καὶ αἰνοῦντας καὶ δοξολογοῦντας σε διὰ τοῦ παιδός σου Ἰησοῦ Χριστοῦ· καὶ ἐν τῇ ἐπιφανείᾳ τοῦ μονογενοῦς σου υἱοῦ καὶ θεοῦ ἡμῶν ἀξίωσον ἡμᾶς

ORDONNANCE DES CINQ ESPECES DE COlonnes, selon la methode des anciens, par M. Perrault de l' Academie Roayle de sciences.

hoc est,

Claudii Perraltii Ordinatio quinque specierum Columnarum, juxta methodum Veterum.

Parisiis apud Joannem Bapt. Coignardum, 1683 in fol.

PRodiere ante hos decem annos, auspiciis Illustrissimi Colberti, magni nuper regis Galliarum ministri, Marci Vitruvii, Scriptoris Romani clarissimi, sex de Architectura libri, Gallico idiomate tersissime descripti, & notis adjectis, figurisque elegantisimis exornati, opera Claudii Perraltii, e Regia scientiarum Academia, & Facultatis Medicæ Doctoris. Quibus cum ad plenam omnibusque partibus absolutam tractationem quinque ordinum Columnarum, deesse multa doctissimus Vir deprehenderet; recens hoc Opus velut in supplementum adjecit eorum, quæ in libris Vitruvianis circa hoc argumentum poterant desiderari. Depulsis enim ab autore isto, quibus hinc inde profundisime condebatur, tenebris, lucique suæ restitutis principiis & præceptis Architectonicæ, miraculisque temporum lapsorum inibi descriptis: supereese adhuc censuit Perraltius, ut remedium etiam quæreret tollendis difficultatibus & confusioni, in quibus scriptores recentiores maximam partem eorum, quæ ad doctrinam Columnarum spectant, ita reliquerant, ut nulla fere iis ordinandis restaret constans regula; commisis inter se varie autoribus, de proportione bellis his partibus constituenda, a quibus splendor & majestas pendet operum magnificorum.

Reconcinnandis autem proportionibus ipsarum Columnarum, earundemque partium, sub Architectorum dissidio hucusque tantopere laborantium, fundamenti loco insigne Paradoxon, in Præfatione Operis, præstruit Autor: quo utut omnem proportionum structuram convellere videatur (has quippe plerasque a solo arbitrio derivat Architectorum; lubricas proinde & mutationibus obnoxias) nihilominus tamen rationes earum ita munit, ut constantiæ legum architectonicarum optime censendus sit consuluisse.

Has

Has enim, ait, creditas antiquitus fuiſſe, regulas ſuas in Architectura a corporis humani proportionibus accepiſſe; quæ pro diverſo corporum habitu diverſæ, diverſas etiam in ædificiis, non uni uſui deſtinatis, ſervandas eſſe rationes præmonſtrarint. Uſu venire ædificiis idem, quod corporibus venuſtis; quæ non tam certæ proportionis menſura conſtent, quam gratia formæ, in differentium etiam proportionum faciebus conſpicua. Quanquam autem nulla certa proportio abſolute neceſſaria ſit, ad conciliandam ſive faciei, ſive ædificio gratiam: eſſe tamen utrobique aliquas, a quibus citra jacturam illius non nimis liceat recedere. Has vero in Architectura eam habere latitudinem, ut artificibus ſat amplam relinquant libertatem, augendi partes diminuendive, prout exigunt neceſſitates obviæ; cujus licentiæ privilegio factum ſit, ut nec bina, quæ ex antiquitate ſuperſint, Opera, nec bini inter ſe conveniant Scriptores, easdemque regulas ſequantur.

Conſtare inde porro putat Autor, quam parum firmo talo nitatur opinio eorum, qui proportiones Architecturæ Muſicis proportionibus geminas eſſe contendunt. Has enim ab ipſa natura tanta præciſione impreſſas eſſe atque ſtabilitas, ut migrari nequeant citra offenſam aurium vel mediocriter delicatarum; proindeque ne minimum quidem a ſe invicem diſſentire Muſicos, circa juſtam harmoniarum proportionem; cum Architecti, in determinanda v. c. capituli Dorici projectura, bis mille annorum indagine, inter $2\frac{1}{8}$ & 17 minuta varie hærentes, tanto (videlicet ſeptuplo ipſius minimæ quantitatis) divortio, & a proportione, ſi qua foret, debita & naturali diſceſſu, nihil quicquam ſint offenſi.

Quod tamen proportiones regulis architecturæ conformes ſæpius mentem in conſenſum trahant, ignaram unde ille affectus ſit, rationem aliquam ejus ſubeſſe debere; ſive ea ſemper fundetur ſuper aliquo poſitivo, quemadmodum conſonantiæ muſicæ; ſive ſuper conſuetudine aliqua, illi forte ſimili, ob quam veſtitus ad morem præſentem compoſiti proportio ſe commendat; qui quanquam nihil immutatus, antiquato more mutatisque rationibus, ob quas ante placuit, deſinat eſſe in pretio.

Quæſtioni huic decidendæ, Autor duo elegantiarum in Architectura ſancit genera: quorum primum fundetur ſuper rationibus manifeſtis, quod menſuris irregularibus, quæ circa Opera antiqua occurrunt, accommodare eam non potuerint; cum perſuaſi forent, ne tantillum quidem addi demive poſſe partibus illorum, citra jacturam omnis elegantiæ.

Concipi enim non poſſe, quousque proceſſerit Architectorum reverentia erga Opera Antiquitatis, in quibus præprimis proportionũ myſterium profundo reſpectu admirati ſint, nullo conatu in earum rationes penetrandi, quas præſumendum ſit nec ipſis earum autoribus aliquas fuiſſe.

Condonandam autem fuiſſe Architectis hanc venerationem, ſi æque in confeſſo foret, aut proportiones in Operibus nobis conſpicuas nihil differre ab iis, quas primi inventores Architecturæ ſtatuminarunt; aut vera eſſet Villalpandi aſſertio, ab Architectis Templi Salomonei, peculiari inſpiratione divina de omnibus ejus proportionibus edoctis, easdem Græcos, pro primis Inventoribus vulgo habitos, accepiſſe: ac certum eſt, nimium hunc cultum antiquitatis ab illo, quem rebus ſacris debemus, ortum trahere.

Barbariem enim lapſorum ſeculorum, quæ bello ſcientiis indicto, eas in exilium miſerit, nulli præterquam Theologiæ peperciſſe: unde exiguum quod reſtabat literaturæ, compulſum ſit in clauſtra monachorum, bonæque mentes adactæ, præter cæteras & artem ratiocinandi ibi quærere. Hanc artem adeo longo tempore nonniſi a Theologis tractatam, quorum ſenſa miſſa ſint ſub jugum veterum deciſionũ, amiſiſſe uſum libertatis ſuæ, qua in indaginibus curioſis opus habet; ut eruditi pluribus ſeculis ſolam inquiſitionem opinionum Veterum curæ habuerint (plus ſcilicet honoris indeptos ſe rati, ſenſu textus Ariſtotelici evoluto, quam veritatis inventione) nec ſatis diſtinxerint inter reverentiam rebus ſacris debitam, & æſtimationem earum, quas examinare & cenſere nobis integrum eſt.

Inconveniens autem non eſſe credere, res quarum pulchritudinis ratio reddi nulla poſſit, eadem revera deſtitui, ſoloque impetu & idio-idiognome ſuſceptas operariorum, quibus penſi non fuerit, ex ratione aliqua agere, ubi accuratio operis non eſſet alicujus momenti.

Paradoxo hactenus explicato, plurimisque qui cœco amore tenentur Operum antiquorum, bilem moturo, Autor veniam propoſito ſuo parare inſtituit, quod eſt, proportiones cujusque membri Columnarum, ideis Architectorum, quas circa easdem formarunt illaſis, reducere ad menſuras facile commenſurabiles & veroſimiles: inſigni indicio, primos proportionum in unoquoque Ordine inventores, has non conſtituiſſe tales, quales Opera Antiqua præ ſe ferunt, quæ ſuis veroſimilibus ſolum propinquæ ſint, ſed exacte juſtas: defectumq; adeo illarum uni negligentiæ operariorum transcribentium, cum nulla in promptu ſit ratio, quæ Architectos induxiſſe credi poſſit, ſectari præter omnem neceſſitatem proportiones ruptas & impeditas, miſſis Veterum facilibus, utpote numerorum integrorum. Quo intuitu, quicquid eſt novi profectus ſui in hac arte, Autor non tam correctionem eſſe vult Antiquitatis, quam conatum eidem reſtituendi priſcam perfectionem. Atq; hoc omne ſe non evincere pronunciat propriæ autoritatis præſumtione, nec domeſticis argumentis, ſed perpetuo exemplorum ex Operibus antiquis depromtorum ſuffragio; rariſſime in ſubſidium vocatis conjecturis aut rationibus, quas tamen Eruditorum examini decentiſſime ſubmittat.

Hanc enim ſibi eſſe ſententiam, ſi Opera Antiquitatis ſint veluti libri, e quibus proportiones Architecturæ petendæ ſint; eadem non eſſe autographa primorum & verorum autorum, ſed ſolummodo exempla inter ſe differentia, quorum hæc ſida ſint & correcta in hac, alia in alia parte: ita ut reſtituendo veluti ſano ſenſui in Architectura, neceſſe ſit ex differentibus exemplis operum probatorum, ſelectum inſtituere earum rerum, quæ fundantur in ordinata & commoda, nec temere interrupta diviſione, quales perpetuo ſint Vitruvianæ.

Quod porro attinet mutationes illas, quas in unoquoque Ordine circa characteres ejusdem ſuſcepit, exemplo omnium Scriptorum poſt Vitruvium ſe tuetur Perraltius: quorum videlicet nullus non addiderit aliquid, aut emendaverit earum rerum, quæ tanquam leges inviolabiles a Veteribus ſancitæ credantur; idque vel ipſo Antiquorũ, qui monumenta ſua vice librorum nobis reliquerint, exemplo. terit induſtria anteceſſorum. Has vero mutationes ſibi propoſitum eſſe aliquanto longius extendere, ac hactenus factum ſit: ut hortatu ſuo ad operas ſocias incitatis, qui plus ingenio & ſcientia polleant, Architecturæ regulæ eam perfectionem, præciſionem & facilitatem nanciſcantur, quæ ipſis deeſt.

Partes ipſius Operis ſunt duæ, quarum prima circa principales totius columnæ partes, Stylobatam, Columnam ſpeciatim ſic nuncupatam, & Trabeationem occupatur. Hanc poſtremam per omnes Ordines æqualem facit ſex modulorum (eſt vero modulus ſive menſura, ad quam magnitudines partium Columnæ exiguntur, Autori ob commodum uſum tertia pars imi ſcapi Columnæ;) reliquas æquali incremento (in Stylobata unius moduli; in Columnæ duorum) a Tuſcano ad Ordinem Compoſitum producit; Tuſcano Stylobata æqualis cum Trabeatione altitudinis; Columna vero ejusdem Ordinis viginti duorum modulorum. Singularum harum partium, in tres alias ſubdiviſarum (Stylobatæ, in Baſin, Truncum & Coronicen; Columnæ in Baſin, Scapum & Capitulum; Trabeationis, in Epiſtylium, Zophorum & Coronicen) altitudines, projecturas, ſcapique diminutionem ita determinat, ut expoſitis ubique in Tabula menſuris famoſiorum Operum antiquorum & Autorum, utplurimum inter ſe longius, nulloque certæ alicujus rationis indicio, diſſidentium, mediam concinna proportione commendabilem ſeligat: geminum eſſe judicium ſuum cupiens illi, quod Conſulti Juris ruſticum appellare ſoleant, in cauſis tantopere implicatis, ut nec oculatiores judices cognoſcendis earum momentis pares ſint, adhiberi ſolito, differentia partium (intereſſe litis) æqualiter inter ipſas diviſa.

Conſtitutis ita generatim partium principaliorum proportionibus, ſecunda parte, per ſingula Ordinum genera eundo, partes ſupradictas ſpecialius, per ſuas iterum partes & proprios characteres diſtinguit, & proportiones cum altitudinis, tum projecturæ, dicta modo ratione, numeris & diviſionibus memoratu facillimis aptatas, definit. Ut quemadmodum, exempli cauſa, Stylobatæ altitudini Autor a primo ad extremum Ordinem unum continue modulum ſupra adjecerat; ſic numerum membrorum ipſius Baſis & Coronicis ejusdem Stylobatæ per ſingulos ordines unitate augeat, ita ut Stylobatæ Tuſcani Baſi duo, Coronici tria; Compoſiti baſi ſex, Coronici ſeptem obtingant: ſimili compendio adhibito in dividenda altitudine

harum partium pro commode assignanda altitudine singulis membris earundem ; Tusca Basi Stylobatæ in sex, Dorica in septem ; Coronice Tusca in octo, Dorica in novem, & sic deinceps, æquales partes distributis. Sic eodem fine porro altitudinem Dorici Capituli in ratione subtripla; Corinthiacæ Baseos subquadrupla continue subdividit; Doricam vero Basin in partes tres, quatuor & sex (numerorum harmonice proportionalium) æqualiter partitur. Singulas autem Columnæ species cum partibus suis partiumque proportionibus & characteribus, elegantissimis iconismis exhibet, adjunctis hinc inde etiam delineationibus, celebriorum Autorum placitis, & Operibus Veterum convenientibus.

Coronidem Autor Operi imponit, altero Paradoxo adstructo, quo proportionum semel sancitarum & receptarum immutationes in differentibus ædificiis ex optica aliqua ratione, & ob diversitatem aspectus, contra unanimem Autorum consensum (quos tamen ipsos observat in structuris suis morem hunc minime tenuisse) strenue impugnat. Creditum enim est vulgo, quando imagines rerum remotarum in oculo minores pingantur, minusque distincte, quam propinquarum, intuituque directo res aliter compareant atque obliquo, defectui huic remedium ex arte afferri debere : quo v. c. Columnæ (quæ ordinarie sursum versus contrahuntur) altiores minus diminuerentur, quam curtæ ; Trabeationes grandium columnarum constituerentur solito majores, quod elevatio major easdem utrinque ab oculo longius removens, minores apparere faceret.

At vero medelam hanc Perraltius, nec in his, nec aliis casibus, in quibus necessaria esse prætenditur, adhibitam, exemplis Operum probatissimorum ostendit, & sicubi ea inveniatur, temere factam credi debere pronunciat : cum tantum absit, ut ædificia optimæ notæ & valoris mutationem ejusmodi passa sint, ut sæpius contrario plane modo se habere deprehendantur.

Non distitendum quidem esse, exempla ejus tam ex Antiquitate, quam recenti ævo extare ; sed præterquam quod rara sint, esse ea etiam effectus pessimi, visumque maxime offendere : quippe cui nihil magis suetum sit, quam judicio suo errorem supplere aut corrigere, qui ex differente situ aut majori distantia provenire posset ; ipso hoc judicio per longi temporis experientiam pene infinitam, exami-nandi, jungendi, comparandi res obvias, tantæ promtitudinis & perfectionis, ut in discernendis magnitudinibus, figuris, distantiis, coloribus, aliisque accidentibus objecti disiti, pene sit infallibile.

Unde facile inferre liceat, visu circa res longius distantes non aberrante, non solum inutilem esse proportionum mutationem, sed & vitiosam: quod oculus spectatoris de justa e. c. Trabeationis mensura debite instructi, statim apprehendat, si illa super altiori columna major statuatur, quam super minori, non obstante altitudine; non secus ac quivis promte dignoscat naturæ vitium, in despiciente ex editiori fenestra, capite solito grandiori: atque hoc ipso, Trabeatio (quæ ad Columnam eam rationem habere debet, quam moles aliqua ad momentum eandem sustinens) majoris mensuræ, ac convenit Columnæ eam portanti, visum necessario sit offensura.

Ut autem vel maxime certum non esset, judicium visus in cognoscenda exacta magnitudine objectorum remotiorum non falli; remedium tamen hoc minime sufficiens futurum, cum nonnisi ad certam aliquam distantiam, effectum optatum præstare possit, oculoque situm suum non mutante: gemina plane ratione, ac figuræ opticæ, quarum proportiones ita comparatæ sunt, ut ex certo loco visæ gratum oculo præbeant spectaculum, statim ac iste loco motus fuerit, difformes comparere incipiant.

Brevibus, re bene pensitata, manifestum fore arbitratur, nullam esse rationem vitiandi proportiones, ut ne videantur vitiosæ: nec æque certum esse, easdem, intercedente distantia majori, alias videri ac sunt; ac certum est, mutationem earundem, esse revera ipsarum destructionem, quodque plus periculi sit, ne proportio aliqua vitiosa videatur, quando revera corrupta est, quam quando non est.

Hanc interim opinionem, a se damnatam, unanimi Architectorum consensu receptam, & a Vitruvio limitibus certis circumscriptam, per annos bis mille ideo invaluisse, quod ii, qui quæstionem hanc definire potuissent, Vitruvii, a quo deciſam existimarint, autoritate præoccupati, eandem neglexerint; quodque mutationem proportionum statarum hinc inde locum quodammodo habere posse animadverterent.

Ambitionem denique, qua quisque laborat, provehendæ existimationi artis ejus quam profitetur, imposuisse Architectis, ut in mera mysteri-

myſteria res converterent, quarum rationem reddere nequibant. Advocata enim in auxilium valida illa opinione, quam vulgo de rebus lapſi temporis fovemus: cum antiquius fere nihil habeamus ruderibus ædificiorum Græcorum & Romanorum; pro fundamento immobili anniſos eſſe obtrudere, nihil ſupereſſe admirabilium illarum reliquiarum, quod non grandi ratione conſtet. Et quando illis objectæ ſint diverſitates proportionum in monumentis æqualiter comprobatis, rejeciſſe id Architectos in diverſitatem adſpectus; quem cauſam voluerint mutationis proportionum, quæ pro diverſo ſitu, differentibus regulis ſubjectæ eſſe deberent. Recenſet vero Autor caſus quatuor, in quibus mutatio proportionum locum habere poſſit, citra ullum tamen ad opticam cauſam reſpectum: præter quos ejusmodi mutationes abuſibus accenſet, in Architecturam modernam invectis, quos ultimo Tractatus ſecundi capite perſequitur.

Pariſiis apud Girardum Audran, in via S. Jacobi. 1683. fol.

JUngimus hunc libellum mole exiguum (conſtat enim præfatione modica, & foliis omnino triginta, ſtatuarum iconiſmos exhibentibus) ob materiæ quandam cognationem antecedenti; diverſiſſimo licet utriusque inſtituto. Hujus enim præſentis Autor nihil aliud agit, quam quod Scriptores Architectonicos primi generis apud Perraltium feciſſe modo indicavimus, quibus ſatis fuit exempla Operum egregiorum propoſuiſſe: nullo ſuo judicio ſuper iisdem lato: quanquam eum ſibi delectum habitum aſſeveret, ut ex pluribus potiora tantum Antiquitatis Opera, & quæ famoſioribus Delineatoribus ita admirationi ſint, ut ab iis menſuram conficiendis aliis capiendam putent, modulo ſuo ſubjecerit. Conſulto autem exhibet effigies diverſorum characterum, & plerasque a fronte, tergo, ut & lateribus conſpicuas, diverſasque eapropter in Tabulas, cum menſuris partium pro ſitu unoquoque relatas: ut vel hinc, vel inde Lector, Picturæ Sculpturæve deditus, in commodum proprium aliquid poſſit derivare. Sunt vero, Laocoontis (cujus ſimulacri meminit Plin. l. 36. hiſt. nat. cap. 5.) ejusq; filiorum; Herculis, Gliconis manu facta; Antinoi & Apollinis Pythii, in hortis Vaticani; Pirami & Mirmillonis moribundi, in Ludoviſianis, aſſervatarum; Veneris Aphrodiſiæ, Mediceorum; Pacis & puellæ paſtoralis, Operis Græci; aliaque pauca anonyma.

In harum aliquibus cum advertiſſet Autor, quod autoribus eorum vitio verti, opinionique de perfectione Operum iſtorum officere poſſet, inæqualem nempe pedum longitudinem: rationem ejus refert in diverſum ſitum, altitudinem, & diſtantiam, membrorumque attractionem, quatenus apparentem magnitudinem varient, locumque dederint huic artificio, a Veteribus uſurpato. An autem Veterum felicitas & ſagacitas hoc nomine, ut viſum eſt Autori, deprædicanda ſit, judicet Perraltius, qui paradoxo ſupra pag. 135 memorato, calamum acriter in eos ſtringit, qui corruptelis ejusmodi, quas oculis conciliare ſtudent, nativas rerum formas peſſime deturpant.

ſtructa linguam læderet, neve hæc in actione ſua turbaretur, quam Charas in capiendis muſcis ſimilibusque inſectis, Joh. Baptiſta Hodierna apud Severinum in Vipera Pythica, in exturbando luto e naribus propriis, collocant. Linguæ ſuperincumbebat larynx, (fig. 5. f.) non adeo variis cartilaginibus, ut in aliis animalibus, exſtructa, ſed rima tantum ſimplici, pro in- & expiratione aeris, ſibilatione iis ſolenni, inſtructa: quæ nulla epiglottide, propter arctiorem ſui clauſuram indigebat.

Dentium duo genera alebat, minorum ſc. (fig 5. cc h) utriq; maxillæ infixorum, pro capiendis ac retinendis alimentis: & venenatorum hamorum (fig. 5. dd fig. 6. g h, & fig. 7.) quibus interficiunt, qui omnes canini ſeu apprehenſores ſunt, & extra maxillam ſuperiorem collocati: cum prædam integram & ſine maſticatione deglutientes, molaribus dentibus haud indigeant. Priorum dentium in maxilla inferiore duæ obſervabantur in utroque latere ſeries, & in harum ſingulis quinque dentes, interiores vero exterioribus minores, in univerſum viginti; cum ſuperior maxilla eorum ſedecim tantum contineret, quorum quinque a quolibet latere ſiti retrorſum, 6 reliqui antrorſum ſpectabant; qui cuncti nihil mali morſu ſuo inferunt. Aſt alterius generis dentes ſeu unci venenoſi magis incurvati (fig 7.) numero 6 aut ſeptem, extra maxillam ſuperiorem hujusque os, ſecus ac reliqui dentes in anteriore oris parte locabantur; horum anteriores & majores (fig. 6. g) in illo oſſe (fig. 6. f) quod pro auris oſſe haberi poſſet, minores & poſteriores muſculis ac tendinibus vicinis duntaxat adhæreſcebant. Nullus tamen horum ad primum oris hiatum conſpiciebatur: ſub craſſiore enim membrana ſeu vagina eousq; latitant, donec pro lubitu illos, ſimili ratione ac leo & felis ungues, exerant. Meatu gaudebant manifeſto, & in radice amplo ſatis foramine conſpicuo, qui ad apicem eorum tendens in fiſſuram ſenſibilem abibat, & per quem virus ad exteriora, compreſſis gingivis, ferebatur, coloris dilute lutei; qui forſan ſuſpicioni illi occaſionem dedit, qua illud per peculiarem canalem ex veſicula fellis huc derivari quidam ſcriptores aſſeruerunt. In quo venenum hoc conſiſtat, & quæ ejus ſit operandi ratio, ſecundum Charæ æque ac Redi hypotheſin, Autor explicat; poſteriorem tamen priori præfert, petito præprimis ex fabrica dentium argumento.

Tandem

Tandem Sceleti deſcriptionem tradit, ubi cranium integrum & ſine ſuturis exhibet, (fig. 6.a) niſi ubi alia oſſa ipſi junguntur, quemadmodum narium oſſicula, (c.c.) quibus cartilagines aut potius oſſa naſum diſſepientia (d) adhæreſcunt. Reliqua capitis oſſa ſingularem, pro dilatatione majore, qualis ad corporum non maſticatorum deglutitionem in capite exiliore neceſſaria, conformationem acceperunt, quatenus maxilla ſuperior jungitur oſſi, quod dentes venenoſos recipit, & ingenti cavitate gaudet, quæ pro meatu auditorio (fig. 5.b) habita, aperta tamen intrinſecus foramine, quod nervum auditorium admitteret, carebat, quem forſan recipit ſub oſſe fig.e.e.) quod illud cranio connectit. Quæ quidem articulatio tam dentibus venenoſis, quam ipſi maxillæ, inſervit. Aſt pro deglutiendis grandioribus corporibus, maxime facit articulatio maxillarum (fig.6.m) poſtica, quam ipſi duo oſſa præſtant, a Tyſone Maxillarum dilatatores dicta, & cum duobus brevioribus oſſibus, quibus illa cranio combinantur, in fig 6.n.o, delineata. Cum enim maxilla inferior mento hic, ut in aliis animalibus, haud continua, ſed ſeparata ſatis ab eodem obſervetur, quando faucibus majora corpora capit, quemadmodum membrana, maxillam mento connectens, facile extenditur; ita dum maxilla attollitur, & oſſa illa duo ad rectam magis lineam reducuntur, rictum oris neceſſario valde dilatare poteſt. Inferior utriusque lateris maxilla duobus conſtabat oſſibus, quorum anterius minores fovebat dentes, poſticum vero lateſcebat; quemadmodum ſuperior pariter in duo oſſa ſecedebat, quorum unum oſſi, quod venenoſos dentes capiebat, exterius, alterum, cui minores dentes impacti, eidem interius connectebatur.

Vertebrarum ſpinæ a cervice ad anum usque totidem erant, quot ventris ſquamæ, ſc. 168, aſt ab ano usque ad crepitaculi adaptationem, præter ſquamarum numerum, adhuc 29. Priores vertebræ ſpinam planam recta (fig. 8. a) verſus dorſum, aliamque tenuiorem ac teretem oblique ad interiora demittebant: (fig 8. b) quibus duo accedebant proceſſus laterales (c.d.) pro coſtarum & vertebrarum invicem articulatione, & globulus (e) in inferiore ſuperioris vertebræ parte, quem ſinus vertebræ inferioris excipiebat, ſimili modo ac oſſis femoris caput ab acetabulo oſſis iſchii excipitur; & quidem pro articulatione illa, ratione cujus Caudiſonæ corpus ſuum adeo libere in quævis latera torquere & volvere possunt. Costæ cervicis minores, circa medium corpus majores, id est duos digitos transversos longæ erant, ast circa caudam tenuiores ac breviores denuo evadebant; omnes vero in principio squamarum ventris terminabantur. In vertebris caudæ duo comparebant processus spinosi, (fig 9. bb) quamvis reliquis unus tantum contigerat; duo item processus transversi minores, (cc) costis analogi. Ultimæ caudæ vertebræ annectebantur interveniente musculo quodam crassiore (fig 10. b.) & membranis cuti continuis, crepitacula (fig. 11. & 12) quæ in hoc nostro subjecto numero tantum quinque erant, sed videbantur quædam esse abrupta: sunt ea nihil aliud quam concava, tenuia, dura & sicca, hincque fragilia & sonora valde ossicula, ejusdem fere magnitudinis & figuræ, ac os sacrum humanum. Cuncta rigida gaudent epiphysi, ita ut extremitas superioris osiculi bina inferiora subeat: per quam conformationem articulatione non saltem egregia pollent, sed multiplicatum magis sonum edunt, quo ex mente Guilhelmi Pisonis admoniti homines æque ac bruta tempestive sibi cavere possint a tam pernicioso colubro. Idem Piso, Nirembergius & alii asserunt, singulis annis novum horum ossium accedere, unde Grevv in Musæo regio viperæ hujus ætatem sedecim annorum suspicatur, cum totidem utplurimum in illa observentur junctura, quamvis nonnulli earum ultra 20 se vidisse perhibeant.

EPITOME ALIUS DISCURSUS EJUSDEM EDWARDI TYSONIS de lumbrico lato.

Ex Transactionibus philoſophicis Anglic.

Menſis April. 1683. no. 146.

EDvvardus Tyſon, quum lumbricum latum, qualis in brutorum animalium perinde ac hominum inteſtinis naſcitur, aliquoties cum cura, adhibito etiam vitro, contemplatus eſſet, ſtructuram ejus prorſus ſingularem ac a communi vermium fabrica ita alienam invenit, ut inde novas peti rationes poſſe exiſtimet, quibus univoca generatio, hactenus tam bene a Franciſco Redi & aliis defenſa, oppugnetur. Dignæ proinde nobis viſæ ſunt obſervationes, quarum Latinam epitomen Actis noſtris inſereremus, ad excitandum aliorum ſtudium, quibus Tranſactiones Anglicanas legere integrum non eſt, ut hanc veritatem porro inveſtigent. Annotavit vero Autor ſeptem lumbrici lati proprietates, quibus ipſe potiſſimum a cujuscunque generis vermibus aliis differat. Harum prima eſt ejus latitudo, cui ſimilem in vermium extra animalium ventrem nullo reperire licet. Definiri tamen ipſa non adeo certo poteſt, quoniam nec lumbrici plures inter ſe, nec

TAB. V. Fig. 13. 14. 15.

ſe, nec unius partes diverſæ hic ſatis conveniunt. Altera ſunt juncturæ, quibus lumbrici membra ita ſibi committuntur, ut extrema prioris ſuperficies, ſequens tegat, & unum ex altero veluti prodeat. Habent & alia inſecta hujusmodi inciſuras corporis, veruntamen nec tot ac tantas (autor enim earum 507 in lumbrico quodam numeravit,) nec adeo aſperas ac inæquales, nec denique tantum inter ſe diſſimiles.
Tertiam lumbrici lati a vermibus in terra degentibus differentiam ſuppeditat duorum ejus extremorum diſparitas. Horum enim unum & latius eſt altero, & juncturas habet reliquis longiores. Ple-rumque illud extremum, cui appoſitum eſt caput (ſi modo tale quid lumbrico tribuendum,) cauda eſt exilius, & vix octavam latitudinis quam verſus caudam vermis obtinet, partem æquat. Annuli ſeu commiſſuræ itidem, quæ verſus caudam ſunt, fere quinquies longitudinem aliarum ſuperant. Diſparem tamen hic lumbricorum con-ditionem eſſe, diſſimulari non debet. Quarto loco occurrit vaſta vermis iſtius longitudo, quam nonnulli ducentorum pedum invenerunt. Autor quosdam in canibus quinque pedes, nonnullos unicum longos reperit: in hominibus ſibi viſos ſcribit, qui octo ulnarum Anglicarum, hoc eſt 12 Lipſienſium fuerint. Quum vero experientia teſtetur, medicamentorum purgantium ope lumbrici lati partes aliquas a reliquo corpore divelli, ut iſtæ ſolæ e ventre humano exeant, trunco autem in inteſtinis remanenti novæ juncturæ adnaſcantur, hinc certo affirmari nequit, in quam uſque longitudinem lumbrici creſcant, ac videtur hoc inſectorum genus ſuppeditare, unde impugnetur regula, quæ certos magnitudinis limites naturæ præſcribit.
Quinto lumbrici lati caput obſervari meretur, quod ſcriptores medici, Spigelius, Brillus, Rondeletius, Foreſtus, Velſchius, Tulpius, Rhodius, Fehr, & alii vel male deſcripſerunt, vel prorſus ſibi viſum non eſ-ſe confeſſi ſunt. Autor noſter, quum in diſſecti canis cujusdam viſceribus tres lumbricos inveniſſet, illico capitis ſtructuram inveſtigan-dam ſumſit, reperitque extremam ejus ſuperficiem crinium ſeu ſpina-rum duobus ordinibus conſitam, quorum major ex centro ſurgebat & ultra circumferentiæ fines ſpargebatur, minor ex media a centro parte prodibat, uti ex figura 13. & 14. apparet. Foramen, quod oris loco fuerit, Autor nullum, quantumvis adhibita ſumma diligentia, hic animadvertit. Vidit autem caput in extremo lumbrici tenuiore, & monet

monet in latiori nunquam quærendum esse, quod junctura sibi ita inserantur, ut prima a capite secundam contineat, & ex hac reliquæ eodem ordine quasi fluant. Crines istos seu spinas, quas observabat, scribit non ad faciliorem suctionem alimenti lumbrico datas esse (cum e chylo ad venas lacteas eunte vivat, ad quem intercipiendum non tantum non opus, sed & inutile sit, caput intestinorum tunicæ adeo infigere,) sed hunc usum animali præstare, ut isto adminiculo caveat, ne adstringentibus se intestinis simul cum fæcibus ejiciatur. Sexta proprietatis loco sunt ora, quorum in lumbrico major est, referente Autore, numerus, quam oculorum in Argo, aut manuum in Briareo. Nimirum quævis junctura lumbrici os suum peculiare habet, idque communiter in medio, ut ait Autor, ad latus alternatim, modo dextrum, modo sinistrum. Extuberant autem orificia ista instar papillarum, ac in medio foramen ejus latitudinis habent, ut setam suillam commode admittant; confer figuram 15. Momenta rationum, quibus lumbrico tot ora, quot foramina in juncturis, esse probat Autor, huc redeunt. Arguit 1. a magna chyli quantitate, qua ista foramina plerumq; turgent. 2. ab appetitu, siti, & macie quam lumbrici in homine aut quovis animali alio faciunt. 3. quod præter foramina illa in juncturis, nullum in lumbrico os aliud inveniatur. 4. quod hisce cavitatibus alius usus assignari commode non possit. Proprietatum ultima in eo consistit, quod quævis lumbrici pars a reliquo corpore sejuncta vivere pergat, imo crescat; quod quidem toties experientia comprobatum est, ut a nemine in dubium vocari debeat. Equidem Autor in refutandis aliorum erroribus passim, inprimis circa ultimum hoc caput, plurimum occupatus est: sufficere tamen poterunt, quæ hactenus ex ipso allata fuere. Ea enim cum aliis scriptoribus, quicunque profundius rem scrutari cupit, conferet.

EXPERIMENTORUM MEDICO - CHYMICORUM Decades tres in annum 1679. 80. 81. quæ Lectori communicant arcanissimas medicaminum præparationes; edente Daniele Menone Matthia, U. M. Ddo &c.

Francofurti 1683. in 12, apud I. I. Erythropylum.

EXperimenta Medico-Chymica, quemadmodum in Decades tres hic exhibentur distributa, ita non minus ad triplicem quoque finem seu usum collimare deprehenduntur. Nonnulla namque eorum circa morbos tantum non omnes, instar remediorum universalium, ex mente Autoris versantur, v. g. Panacæa catholica seu Aroth Paracelsi, item Antidotum pretiosum Angeli Salæ &c. Alia vero & pleraque ad certorum saltem morborum remotionem, tanquam appropriata interna pariter atque externa tendunt; sicut Balsamum minerale volatile contra lepram, spiritus æruginis volatilis adversus epilepsiam &c. interne, ad pustulas autem inveteratas putridas oleum de ulmaria &c. externe, efficacissima deprædicantur auxilia. Alia tandem velut menstrua circa extrahendas Tincturas occupantur, v. gr. spiritus vini alcalisatus, item Alcali tartarisatum sive acetum dictum alcoholisatum philosophorum, quod certissimum & verissimum circulatum Paracelsi minus esse, Autor sæpissime compertus testatur. Quod observationes autem attinet peregrinandum inter ab Autore collectas, & nunc experimentis modo nominatis adjunctas, earum decimam tertiam censoria non immerito notamus virgula, utpote ab ipso Dn. D. Schultzio, Medico Practico p. t. Roterodamensium famigeratissimo, edocti, quod nullam unquam virginem Delphis curaverit, quæ calculos istos ab Autore nostro delineatos ejecisset. Sine dubio autem Autori imposuit relatio alterius casus de virgine quadam Delphensi, Catharina Svvanshals nominata, quæ primum a Dn. D. Schulzio, post Batavo quodam tractata Medico, plurimum calculorum ejusdem coloris, sed magnitudinis diversæ, excretionem summo cum cruciatu perquam dolose simulavit, eum tantum in finem, ut famæ Clariss. D. Schultzii, qui calculos præsentes semper negaverat, maculam inureret. Voto tamen malitiosæ hujus puellæ minus respondit eventus; quamprimum enim calculorum istorum nonnulli ad manus industrii hujus viri pervenerunt, ex colore statim, & examine per ignem instituto, veros eos esse lateres, ab ædium pavimento desumtos cognovit; fraude hinc feliciter detecta, & una cum calculis quibusdam suppositiis Facultati Medicæ Lugdunensi communicata, præclarum ab hac industriæ suæ reportavit testimonium.

INTRODUCTIO AD LATINAM BLASONIAM.

An Eſſay to a more correct Blaſon in latine then formerly hath been uſed.

Autore Johanne Gibbono, Armorum Servulo, quem a Mantelio dicunt cæruleo.

Londini ſumptibus Autoris, 1682. in 8.

NObiliſſima armorum ſcientia, poſteaquam diu jacuerat, cumprimis inter Gallos cultores ſtrenuos ac felicisſimos invenit; nec ulla eſt natio, quæ æqualem induſtriam amœnisſimo ſtudio attulerit, quamvis Germanis noſtris exteri haud inviti hanc laudem concedant, quod omnium primi artis heraldicæ inventores fuerint. Factum autem hinc eſt, ut quibus Latine de rebus ad teſſeras gentilitias ſpectantibus agere viſum fuit; quorum quidem plures, cum inter ipſos Gallos, tum inter Anglos, Germanos & Italos extiterunt; terminos Gallicos plerumque adhibuerint, ac barbariſmis frequentisſimis optimam linguam contaminarint. Quod cum animadvertiſſet Johannes Gibbon, fecialis Anglus, hanc ſibi operam ſumpſit, ut e variis Autoribus Latinas voces, quibus ipſi artis heraldicæ inſtrumenta exprimere voluerunt, colligeret, ac ſicubi aliorum induſtria defuit, defectum ſuppleret. Conſtat autem tractatus duabus quaſi partibus. Initio ordine alphabetico Termini Gallic- angli diſponuntur, ipſisque ſubjiciuntur explicationes diverſorum ſcriptorum, e quibus ſubinde quæ puriorem latinitatem redolent, ſeliguntur, rejectis plerumque ſatis feliciter barbariſmis. Neque enim diffitendum eſt, Autorem, quod ſibi propoſuit, diligentisſime urgere, ac Latinam illam Blaſoniam, quam vocat, pro virili corrigere. Si qui autem termini heraldici forte in hoc catalogo omiſſi videbuntur, ſatisfaciet reſponſio, quam libri proœmium ſuppeditat. Videlicet tales erunt illi, ut aut quam rariſsime occurrant, aut non habeant in arte heraldica ſignificationem peculiarem, a nativa declinantem. Altera pars gloſſas ac obſervationes quasdam Camdeni, Chiffletii, ac Vredi explicationibus gentilitiorum ſcutorum addit; ut adeo præcepta prioris partis hic per exempla illuſtrentur.

THE ANCIENT USAGE IN BEARING OF ARMS, with a Catalogue of the present Nobility of England, by Sir William Dugdale Knt. Garter Principal King of Arms.

Hoc est,

Usus antiquus gerendi Arma, cum Catalogo hodiernæ Nobilitatis Anglicanæ, Autore Wilhelmo Dugdale, Equite Aurato, Primario Rege Armorum, cognomento Garterii.

Oxonii 1682 in Theatro. in 8.

QUæ hodie virtutis præmia & rerum præclare gestarum decora sunt Tesseræ gentilitiæ, eas quondam ab exercituum ducibus hunc potissimum in finem assumtas fuisse statuit Autor, ut quos non liceret in acie ex vultu aut reliqui corporis habitu, quæ plerumque eodem armorum genere, galea & lorica, tegebantur, distinguere, hos ex istiusmodi figuris vexillo ac paludamento intextis milites agnoscerent. Postquam autem novas bellandi machinas humana indoles excogitavit, abolito pristino insignium usu, hunc scribit invaluisse, ut distinguendis familiis, ac in eadem familia fratribus destinarentur. Quod cum nunc a plurimis perperam negligatur, & frequentissimum inter nobiles Anglos sit, arma aliena geri, aut discernicula, quæ adjici a postnatis debebant, omitti, (quemadmodum inprimis sub libelli auspicium literis dedicatoriis conqueritur,) id occasionem sibi ministrasse testatur, ut ex heraldicæ artis scriptoribus colligeret, quæ sui quemque officii commonefacere possent. Nimirum ut aliorum quorundam regnorum: sic Angliæ consuetudo fert, ut ad solum primogenitum dignitas & bona paterna deveniant, liberorum reliqui & inferiorem honoris gradum, & exiguam portionem hæreditatis sortiantur. Atque hinc est, quod illic soli etiam natu majori jus arma familiæ plana sive pura gerendi competat, alii fratres discerniculis, vel sectionibus quibusdam adscititiis utantur. Jam quales has sectiones esse oporteat, & imprimis quo ordine ab ejusdem familiæ pluribus lineis debeant adhiberi, Autor ex Wilhelmo Wyrlæo, Roberto Glovero, Camdeno, Spelmanno, Carolo Segoigne & aliis ita ostendit, ut horū viro-virorum verba ex ipſorum libris transſcribat, adeoque aliena potius autoritate quam proprio arbitrio rem agat. Subjungit deinde Catalogum nobilitatis Anglicanæ, juxta ſeriem temporis, quo quisque huic ordini adſcriptus fuit, una cum accurata relatione, quot ex unoquoq; comitatu, oppido, aut vico perſonæ ad generalia comitia regni ſoleant ablegari. His duobus opuſculis mole ſua perparvis, adjecit Typographus indicem nobilium Scotorum ac Hibernorum, ab alio Autore perfectum.

HISTOIRE DES CONQUESTES DE MOULEY ARchy connu ſous le nom de Roy de Tafilet; & de Mouley Iſmael, ou Semein ſon frere, & ſon ſucceſſeur a preſent regnant, par le Sieur G. Mouette.

hoc eſt,

Hiſtoria acquiſitorum per Muley Archy cognitum ſub nomine regis Tafilettæ, & per Muley Iſmael ſive Semein ipſius fratrem ac ſucceſſorem hodie imperantem. Autore Dn. Georgio Muetio.

Pariſiis Anno 1683. apud E. Couterot.

QUatuor fere luſtra ſunt, cum magna celebritate famæ Europæis gentibus innotuit Muley Archy, Tafilettæ Rex e familia Scheriffiorum, quæ ad Muhammedem, Muſelmannicæ religionis autorem, ſuam originem refert, ac inde ab anno 1519, ut in præfatione libri recenſiti traditur, & latius apud Thuanum, regnum hoc, miris artibus occupatum, poſſedit. Ei ante hos duodecim annos vita functo ſucceſſit frater Muley Iſmael in regno Feſſæ, & poſt bellum diu varia fortuna cum fratre ac nepote geſtum, etiam in regnis duobus aliis, Tafilettæ & Marocci. Fuit autem illa fere tempeſtate Georgius Muetius, natione Gallus, per undecim annos Feſſæ inter captivos Chriſtianos, ubi cum de his motibus accuratius cognoſcere præſenti licuiſſet, hiſtoriam duorum fratrum ſibi ſuccedentium ſcribere ſuſcepit, quam poſtmodum ex Africa in patriam reverſus publici juris fecit, brevi ſuæ captivitatis etiam narrationem daturus, in qua plurima nec injucunda lectu nec inutilia pollicetur. In præfatione hujus Hiſtoriæ exponit, nit, quomodo ad cognitionem earum rerum, quarum memoriam complectitur, pervenerit, & cujus opera in colligendis utriusque monarchæ rebus gestis fuerit usus. Nominat inprimis Arabum quendam Doctorem Bugimannum, qui imperante Muley Archy fuerat gubernatori cujusdam provinciæ, magnæ apud regem autoritatis viro, a secretis. Postea vero, cum ex insidiis, quas regni optimates struxerant, Cidan (id erat gubernatori nominis,) periisset, Bugiman e Fessa antiqua ejectus novam petiit, ac quam juvenis didicerat, pictoriam artem ibi exercuit, cujus & Muetius peritus hac occasione homine, rerũ politicarum scientissimo, familiariter admodum per plures annos usus fuit. Ei acceptam quoque fert tabulam Geographicam regnorum Fessæ, Tafilettæ, & Marocci, quam Historiæ præfixã invenimus. Opus ipsum in tres libros dividitur, quorũ primus imperium Muley Archy describit, cujus hæc fere summa est. Muley Scherif Tafilettæ rex octoginta quatuor filios, & ex his natu primum Muley Muhammed successorem, quum moreretur, populo consentiente reliquit. Sed Muley Archy, unus e fratribus, ferocis ingenii ac parere nescius, haud multo post patris obitum res novas molitus, ex aula cum quibusdam conscis fugit. Quem rex, ut securitati suæ consuleret, apprehensum Tafilettæ custodiri appositio præsidio jussit; verum ipse corruptis custodibus ter e carcere elapsus, postremo Quivianam petiit, ac ejus regionis principi dissimulata conditione serviens, paulatim plebis animos ita sibi conciliavit, ut tandem, quum data occasione quis esset aperuisset, favore populari, rejecto legitimo domino, Quivianæ princeps salutaretur. Muley Muhammed tam prosperos fratris successus indignatus, copias, qua potuit, celeritate collegit, ut nascentes hostis vires mature opprimeret: cui hic parva, sed selecta manu occurrens, nullo pene negotio regium exercitum profligavit, ac paucis interpositis mensibus, novo ad Tafilettam prælio, & vitam fratri & regnum abstulit. Ex eo tempore incredibile est, quanta felicitate victor in vicinas provincias penetraverit. Hebron, and said, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over 3 Israel. So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.

4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he 5 reigned forty years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years 6 over all Israel and Judah. And the king and his men went to Jerusalem unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in 7 hither. Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: the same 8 is the city of David. And David said on that day, Whosoever getteth up to the gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul, he shall be chief and captain. Wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come 9 into the house. So David dwelt in the fort, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from Millo and inward.
10 And David went on, and grew great, and the LORD God of hosts was 11 with him. And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, and carpenters, and masons: and they built David 12 an house. And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people 13 Israel's sake. And David took him more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron: and there were yet 14 sons and daughters born to David. And these be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, 15 Nathan, and Solomon, Ibhar also, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and 16 Japhia, Elishama also, and Eliada, and Eliphalet. And when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David; and David heard of it, 17 and went down to the hold. The Philistines also came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. And David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: 18 for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hand. And David came to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said,
The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the 19 breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim. And they left their images there, and David and his men 20 burned them. And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread 21 themselves in the valley of Rephaim. And when they left their gods there, David and his men took them away.

22 And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves 23 in the valley of Rephaim. And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up; but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees. And let it be, when thou hearest the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then shall the LORD go 24 out before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines. And David did 25 so, as the LORD had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from Geba until thou come to Gazer.

6 Again, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel,
2 thirty thousand. And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from Baale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, whose name is called by the name of the LORD of 3 hosts that dwelleth between the cherubims. And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, 4 drave the new cart. And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab which was at Gibeah, accompanying the ark of God: and Ahio 5 went before the ark. And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, 6 and on cymbals. And when they came to Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it;
7 for the oxen shook it. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and there he 8 died by the ark of God. And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah to this day. And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to 10 me? So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of 11 Obed-edom the Gittite. And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

12 And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertain unto him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.
13 And it was so, that when they that bare the ark of the LORD had 14 gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings. And David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded with a 15 linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.
16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her 17 heart. And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it:
and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the 18 LORD. And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of 19 the LORD of hosts. And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.
So all the people departed every one to his house.

20 Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows 21 shamelessly uncovereth himself! And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, 22 over Israel: therefore will I play before the LORD. And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and of 23 the maidservants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour. Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

7 And it came to pass, when the king sat in his house, and the LORD had given him rest round about from all his enemies;
2 That the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in an house of cedar, but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains.
3 And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in thine heart; for 4 the LORD is with thee. And it came to pass that night, that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying, 5 Go and tell my servant David, Thus saith the LORD, Shalt thou 6 build me an house for me to dwell in? Whereas I have not dwelt in any house since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a 7 tabernacle. In all the places wherein I have walked with all the children of Israel spake I a word with any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye 8 not me an house of cedar? Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, from following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, 9 over Israel: And I was with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are in the 10 earth. Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any 11 more, as beforetime, And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee that he will make thee 12 an house. And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed 13 out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build an house for my name, and I will stablish the throne of his kingdom 14 for ever. I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will even chasten him with the rod of men, and with the 15 stripes of the children of men: But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.
16 And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for ever.

17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

18 Then went king David in, and sat before the LORD, and he said,
Who am I, O Lord GOD? and what is my house, that thou hast 19 brought me hitherto? And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord GOD; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the manner of man, O Lord GOD?
20 And what can David say more unto thee? for thou, Lord GOD, 21 knowest thy servant. For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy ser-22 vant know them. Wherefore thou art great, O LORD God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to 23 all that we have heard with our ears. And what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their 24 gods? For thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever: and thou, LORD, art become their God.
25 And now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning 26 thy servant, and concerning his house, establish it for ever, and do as thou hast said. And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying,
The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy 27 servant David be established before thee. For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart 28 to pray this prayer unto thee. And now, O Lord GOD, thou art that God, and thy words be true, and thou hast promised this goodness 29 unto thy servant: Therefore now let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord GOD, hast spoken it: and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.

8 And after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took Methegammah out of the hand 2 of the Philistines. And he smote Moab, and measured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he to put to death, and with one full line to keep alive. And so the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 David smote also Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, 4 as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates. And David took from him a thousand and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer 6 king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men. Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts. And the LORD 7 preserved David whithersoever he went. And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them 8 to Jerusalem. And from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Had-adezer, king David took exceeding much brass.

9 When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the 10 host of Hadadezer, Toi sent Joram his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Had-adezer, and smitten him: for Hadadezer had wars with Toi. And Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and 11 vessels of brass: Which also king David did dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued;

12 Of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of 13 Rehob, king of Zobah. And David got him a name when he returned from smiting of the Syrians in the valley of salt, being eighteen 14 thousand men. And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Idumea put he garrisons, and all they of Edom became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

15 And David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and 16 justice unto all his people. And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, recorder; 17 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and Seraiah was the scribe; 18 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over both the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief rulers.

9 And David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?
2 And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba, and when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant is he.
3 And the king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan yet hath a son, which is lame on his feet.
4 And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, in 5 Lodebar. Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lodebar.
6 Now when Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant!
7 And David said unto him, Fear not: for I will surely show thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.
8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou should look upon such a dead dog as I am?
9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all 10 his house. Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread always at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and 11 twenty servants. Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he eateth at my table, as 12 one of the king's sons. And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Micha. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth.
13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

10 And it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.
2 Then said David, I will show kindness unto Hanun, the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.
3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?
4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their 5 buttocks, and sent them away. When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.
6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.
7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, 8 and came to battle. And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.
9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering of the gate: and the Syrians of Zobah, and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.
10 When Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against 11 the Syrians. And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the chil-12 dren of Ammon. And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong 13 for thee, then I will help thee. Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the 14 LORD do that which seemeth him good. And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.
15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.
16 And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river: and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before 17 them. And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.
18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew the men of seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there.
19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

11 And it came to pass after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and 2 besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem. And it came to pass in an evening tide, that David arose from his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman 3 washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.
And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?
4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her, for she was purified from her uncleanness: and 5 she returned unto her house. And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.
6 And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab 7 sent Uriah to David. And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him how Joab did, and how the people did, and how 8 the war prospered. And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there followed after him a mess of meat from the king.
9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants
10 of his lord, and went not down to his house. And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not 11 go down unto thine house? And Uriah said unto David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.
12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry here to day also, and to morrow I will 13 let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow. And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.
14 And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, 15 and sent it by the hand of Uriah. And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle, and retire ye from him, that he may be smitten, and die.
16 And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.
17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite 18 died also. Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning 19 the war; And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king, 20 And if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not 21 that they would shoot from the wall? Who smote Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.
22 So the messenger went, and came and showed David all that Joab had 23 sent him for. And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate.
24 The shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants; and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.
25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing displease thine eyes, for the sword devoureth one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it: and encourage thou him.
26 And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, 27 she mourned for her husband. And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

12 And the LORD sent Nathan unto David. And he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, 2 and the other poor. The rich man had exceeding many flocks and 3 herds: But the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.
4 And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed 5 it for the man that was come to him. And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD liveth, 6 the man that hath done this thing shall surely die: And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.
7 And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD
God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee 8 out of the hand of Saul; And I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given 9 unto thee such and such things. Wherefore hast thou despised the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? thou hast killed Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.
10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite 11 to be thy wife. Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with 12 thy wives in the sight of this sun. For thou didst it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.
13 And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath put away thy sin; thou 14 shalt not die. Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme, the child also that 15 is born unto thee shall surely die. And Nathan departed unto his house. And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto 16 David, and it was very sick. David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night upon the 17 earth. And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread 18 with them. And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?
19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.
20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the LORD, and worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.
21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done?
thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.
22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said,
Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may 23 live? But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.
24 And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon. And the LORD loved him.
25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah, because of the LORD.
26 And Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took 27 the royal city. And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters.
28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and it be called after my 29 name. And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.
30 And he took their king's crown from off his head, the weight whereof was a talent of gold with the precious stones: and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance.
31 And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and made them pass through the brickkiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon.
So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

13 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David 2 loved her. And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and Amnon thought it hard for him to 3 do any thing to her. But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtil 4 man. And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.
5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.
6 So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat 7 at her hand. Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.
8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid. And she took flour, and did knead it, and made cakes in his sight, and did 9 bake the cakes. And she took a pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all men from me.
And they went out every man from him.
10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.
11 And she brought them unto him to eat, and he took hold of her, and said 12 unto her, Come lie with me, my sister. And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me; for no such thing ought to be done in 13 Israel: do not thou this folly. And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel.
Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not with-14 hold me from thee. Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice:
but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her.
15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone.
16 And she said unto him, There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not 17 hearken unto her. Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.
18 And she had a garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.
19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.
20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's 21 house. But when king David heard of all these things, he was very 22 wroth. And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited 24 all the king's sons. And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and 25 his servants go with thy servant. And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.
26 Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?
27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him. Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: have not I commanded you?
be courageous, and be valiant.
28 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up 29 upon his mule, and fled. And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left.
30 Then the king arose, and tare his garments, and lay on the earth; and 31 all his servants stood by with their clothes rent. And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the appointment of Absalom this hath been determined 32 from the day that he forced his sister Tamar. Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead: for Amnon only is dead.
33 But Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the 34 hill side behind him. And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold the king's sons come: according to the word of thy servant, so it is.
35 And it came to pass, as he made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice and wept: and the king also 36 and all his servants wept very sore. And David mourned for his son every day.
37 So Absalom fled, and went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son, even all the days.
38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.
39 And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Absalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

14 Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was 2 toward Absalom. And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead:
3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab put 4 the words in her mouth. And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, 5 Help, O king. And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead.
6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two fought together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, 7 and slew him. And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon 8 the earth. And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and 9 I will give charge concerning thee. And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house: and the king and his throne be guiltless.
10 And the king said, Whosoever saith aught unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more. Then said she, Let the king, I pray thee, remember the LORD thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son.
And he said, As the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son 11 fall to the earth. Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on.
12 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished.
13 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; neither doth God respect any person:
yet doth he devise means, that his banished be not expelled from him.
14 Now I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request 15 of his handmaid. For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together 16 out of the inheritance of God. For the king will hear to deliver every man his handmaid out of the hand of him that would destroy me and my son together from the inheritance of God.
17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be comfortable: for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee.
18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask you. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.
19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all 20 these words in the mouth of thine handmaid: To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.
21 And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, this thing have I done: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again.
22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the 23 request of his servant. So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought 24 Absalom to Jerusalem. And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.
25 But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there 26 was no blemish in him. And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred 27 shekels after the king's weight. And unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar: she was a 28 woman of a fair countenance. So Absalom dwelt two full years in 29 Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face. Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him:
and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.
30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants 31 set the field on fire. Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on 32 fire? And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still:
now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be any iniquity 33 in me, let him kill me. So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kissed Absalom.

15 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared him chariots
2 and horses, and fifty men to run before him. And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he 3 said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel. And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee.
4 Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I 5 would do him justice! And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and 6 kissed him. And in this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.
7 And it came to pass after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king,
I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the 8 LORD, in Hebron. For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.
9 And the king said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to 10 Hebron. But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.
11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went in their simplicity, and knew not any thing.
12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom.
13 And there came a messenger to David, saying, The hearts of the men of 14 Israel are after Absalom. And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of 15 the sword. And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.
16 And the king went forth, and all his household after him. And the king left ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house.
17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a 18 place that was far off. And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the 19 king. Then said the king to Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a 20 stranger, and also an exile. Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be 21 with thee. And Ittai answered the king, and said, As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be.
22 And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.
23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.
24 And lo Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God: and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up,

de Arboribus Malabaricis parti annotationes adjecerat, hic Comelinus inceptum persecutus est opus, vestigiisque illius insistens, plantas illas, ad quas nihil habuit dicere, silentio fuit prætervectus, reliquas vero, quarum certa ipsi notitia erat, ad primos reduxit autores, easque Pinaci Baubini adjunxit; quasdam etiam cum descriptionibus recentium quorundam botanicorum v. g. Prosperi Albini, Jacobi Cornuti, Guilelmi Pisonis, Jacobi Bontii, Jacobi Breynii aliorumque, qui post Baubinum scripsere, contulit. Laus autem princeps palmariaque tribuenda semper hoc in opere est nobilissimo Dn. van Reede. Hic enim in terra Malabarica degens medicos non unos tam Brachmanes, quam alius generis adhibuit, qui celeberrimarum plantarum indices idiomate suo conficerent, easque pro ratione tempestatis, qua vel foliis, vel floribus, vel fructibus ornatæ conspiciebantur, dividerent. Ablegavit etiam in prata ac sylvas, pro ratione temporum anni, certos homines plantarum peritos, qui plantas cum foliis, floribus ac fructibus undecunque conquirerent, etiam conscensis altissimis montium fastigiis; tres quoque quatuorve semper penes se habuit pictores, ut e vestigio vivas plantas accurate depingerent abs conquisitoribus illis allatas, omnesque præterea principes Malabaricos quam humanissime rogavit, ut secum amice communicarent plantas & forma & usu celebriores; quemadmodum & nullus regum principumque illorum extitit, quin in horto hoc Malabarico aliquid florum severit. Quid? quod ipse nobilissimus van Reede quotiescunque aliud quid agens in itinere florentissimas sylvas camposque amœnisimos observavit, comitatum illico omnem, qui ducentorum subinde fuit capitum, navi exscendere, et omne genus plantarum, quæ floribus ac fructu ornatæ cernerentur, hinc inde legere atque perferre ad se jussit. Plantas tandem sic undique conquisitas, per pictores depictas, per idoneos homines descriptas examini medicorum ac botanicorum eum in finem convocatorum (quod collegium quindecim aut sedecim nonnunquam doctis constitit) subjecit. Atque hoc ordine absoluti sunt duo hi tomi in publicum dati, quorum primus Arbores, alter Frutices persequitur. Sed cum laudatissimus van Reede in ulteriori Horti Malabarici sui cultura esset defixissimus, diligentissimo ejus rigatore laborisque socio Casearo, quippe vita functo, destituebatur; quanquam jacturam illam nonnonnihil allevabat Christianus Hermannus de Donep, ut qui adversaria collectaneaque Dn. Reede pro virili sua digerebat; &, quem ob excellentem in medicina peritiam imperator Japonicus sibi mitti abs illustri societate Indica petierat, Guilelmus then Rhinen, qui vires plantarum ac usum in adversariis jam dictis annotatum Latine subjiciebat, totum etiam opus vacantiori tempore recensiturus, errores correcturus, & plurima, quæ deficiebant, suppleturus. Recensione autem ista vix cœpta nobilissimus van Reede ex India in Hollandiam revocabatur. Plantarum itaque picturas depingi denuo, ac descriptiones etiam eousque perfectas describi mox curavit, clarissimoque doctori then Rhinen reliquit, ut, si vel naufragium, vel casus alius iter suum conturbaret, denuo aliud Horti Malabarici exemplum transmitti ad Europæos posset. Sed is salvus incolumisque patriis laribus est redditus. Hic primam Arborum partem editam apud Amstelodamenses conspiciens, eam longe aliter, atque ipse editionem adornandam ex Indiis transmissam voluerat, non sine animi perturbatione quadam deprehendit. Ex uno enim tomo duos typographus contra institutum suum fecerat, fruticibusque, qui supplementi tantummodo loco annecti debebant, secundum tribuerat, falso cum aliis persuasus, nihil Horti Malabarici restare amplius, omniaque ad umbilicum jam esse perducta. Redux vero ex India Dn. van Reede longe plures arborum, fruticum ac plantarum imagines attulit. Ordiendum itaque denuo fuit ab arboribus, quanquam ordine disturbato, cum error ille semel admissus corrigi emendarique haut potuerit. Atque hinc pars tertia, æque ac prima, de Arboribus Regni Malabarici inscripta est, adornata itidem per nunquam satis deprædicandum Dn. van Reede, jam non regni amplius Malabarici gubernatorem, & summum consessus apud Indos Belgas extraordinarium senatorem, sed equestris ordinis nomine illustribus ac præpotentibus provinciæ Ultrajectinæ proceribus adscriptum, nec non per Johannem Municks, M. D. inque eadem facultate anatomes ac botanices in academia Ultrajectina professorem. Hic enim rogatus a Dn. van Reede, ut hortum hunc tarde succrescentem sua opera juvaret, hominemque transferendis Belgicis suis descriptionibus inquireret, non facilem tantum se illi ad id officii obtulit, sed & omnes descriptionum, omnemque, quæ eas spectabat, curam in se suscepit.

Excusa' autem fuit tertia Horti Malabarici pars Amstelodami anno 1682, & quod tacendum h. l. non est, primario in Malabar Nobili, potentissimo inquam principi Noeta Vile-virola Regi a Pedinbodappe-Sourovvan, Couroun, Peratevide, Ellerta-Sourovvan, Cochin &c. qui ab adversa parte in exilium expulsus Belgarum ope ad regiæ dignitatis solium ascenderat, abs nobilissimo van Reede, qui per XVII annos ei servierat, quarto decimo ætatis anno extra patrios fines peregrinatus, & pæne maximam orbis partem continuo itinere permensus, dedicata. Subsecuta hanc fuit pars Horti Indici Malabarici IV, Amstelodami anno 1683 cum titulo supra posito evulgata; cui & commentaria sua non minus, quam secundæ & tertiæ partibus, Johannes Commelinus, rei herbariæ callentissimus, adjecit.

Parisiis apud Dionysium Thierrium, 1683 in 4.

SAtyra qua Cæsares, qui ante se Romanis imperitaverant, Julianus litteris excultissimus Imperator ingeniose sugillavit, vitamque ac mores cujusque perstrinxit, omnium eruditorum consensu in hoc litterarum genere primas tenet; nec inter veterum scriptorum monumenta ullum extat hodie, quod præferri huic scripto facundia rotunda, prudentia summa, ingenioque facili & ad notanda regnantium vitia promto queat. Eum libellum, ne in hoc quoque genere careret singulari ornamento Gallici sermonis late diffusa dignitas, primus e Græco in Gallicum habitum induit Germanus, exquisita doctrina & splendore muneris insignis vir Ezechiel Spanhemius, eundemque demque Heidelbergæ, ubi consiliarii Palatini dignitate antea fulgebat, anno M DC LX evulgavit. Utrum Julianeæ dictionis venustas, an interpretationis doctissimæ suavitas, & accurata Græcæ rotundi tatis expressio, eruditionisque in notis libello subjectis varietas & elegantia majorem merita fuerit laudem, ambiguum est; nihil sane præstantissimo studio, quod satyræ isti doctus interpres impenderat, addi posse videbatur. Vicit tamen seipsam Spanhemiana industria, & qui absolutissimus credebatur labor, viginti quatuor abhinc annis editus, exactior longe augustiorque, majori eruditionis inexhaustæ & elegantiorum litterarum apparatu instructus ac expolitus nuper prodiit in ipsa Lutetiarum augusta, ubi in aula maximi regis exquisita prudentia principis sui, potentissimi Electoris Brandenburgici (cui egregium hoc opus dicavit) negotia auctor administrat.

Præmisit eruditam & prolixam præfationem, in qua de satyricis veterum libris scriptisve, ac satyræ Græcæ & Latinæ differentiis, diffuse ac erudite disserit, Juliani virtutes & vitia candide recenset, hujus vero satyræ dignitatem, veritatem, libertatem, amœnitatem & jocandi festivitatem, sed & impietatem adversus sacra & religionem Christianorum vere ostendit, rationem denique instauratæ editionis hujus late exponit. In versione Gallica Græco textui religiose inhæsisse, nec Cantoclari, Cunæi, aut Petavii interpretationes Latinas ubique secutum se esse profitetur; Græcum autem textum non solum qualis in editis libris extat, sed sicut in manuscriptis optimis antiquissimisque Isaaci Vossii & aliis eum reperisset, constitutum sibi affirmat, ad quem versionem hanc suam adornaret: in qua veras interpretandi leges, ab Huetio omnium optime traditas, accurate servatas quivis deprehendet. Notas textui substravit copiosas, & iis quæ in priori editione extabant, plures longe prolixioresque; in quibus obscura auctoris loca illustravit, ingentemque a Juliano in exiguum isthoc scriptum reconditam eruditionem ex poetis, oratoribus, historicis & philosophis depromtam explicavit, sensum ejusdem paucis verbis inclusum investigavit & explanavit, priorum interpretum Latinorum errores notavit, textum Græcum emendavit, ipsius etiam Juliani adversus Constantinum Magnum & sacra religionis Christianæ improbe dicta confutavit. Cumque amplioris hæc res esset laboris, ac majus spatium requireret, quam quod singulæ textus pagellæ præberent, quibus bus ſubſterni tam copioſa materia omnis non poterat, partem earum, ſi prolixæ nimis eſſent, decerpſit & integro operi Notarum illuſtrationes ſeu aſſertiones ſubjecit, quæ a critico potiſſimum ſtudio (in quo eruditiſſimus auctor hodie primas tenet) exactiori profectæ, Græca Juliani loca emendata & ex aliis antiquis ſcriptoribus illuſtrata, explanata, ac profundiori eruditione explicata exhibent.

In omni autem hiſtoria quum facem nummi præferant veteres, eximia conſignatæ in iis vetuſtatis veſtigia exhibentes, hunc potiſſimum induſtriæ ſuæ campum delegit, in quo decurreret doctiſſimus notarum auctor. Expreſſas enim juxta & coarctatas imagines varias, cumprimis imperatorias, ſingulari cum voluptate & induſtriæ non vulgaris commendatione, periti hujus ſtudii arbitri & æſtimatores paſſim hic contemplantur, omnemque eruditionem priſcis numiſmatibus illuſtratam advertunt; ut dubium relinquatur, an laudabilius ſuſceptum, an abſolutum felicius doctiusque iſthoc inſtitutum fuerit. Cujus etſi abſolutam tractationem in eruditiſſimis diſſertationibus de præſtantia & uſu numismatum antiquorum ad Octavium Falconerium editis perfeciſſe omnibus elegantiarum præſidiis inſtructiſſimus Spanhemius ſit creditus, tamen inſignis iſtius & incomparabilis operis novam eamque locupletiorem auguſtioremque & majori elegantiarum apparatu (cui accedere nil poſſe eruditi hactenus exiſtimaverunt) inſtructam editionem promiſit, quam non minori admiratione excipiemus, ac deſiderio exſpectamus, ætatem ac otium perficiendo præſtantiſſimo operi neceſſarium illuſtri viro, in potentiſſimi regis aulæ luce iſtud emolienti, & negotiis arduis pluribus occupato voventes.

Auctoribus in Gallia nitidiſſime hactenus adornatis, quos ſuperioris anni menſe Martio p. 83. recenſuimus, (ſed quibus tum addere C. Ju-

C. Julium Cæſarem, a Ioanne Goduino, anno 1678 notis & indice locupletatum, neglexeramus] iterum inſignis facta eſt acceſſio doctiſſimæ feminæ Annæ Fabri filiæ ſtudio: quæ poſtquam Florum, Dictyn Cretenſem, & Sextum Aurelium Victorem in Delphini uſum concinnatos dediſſet, Eutropium iſtis præſtantiorem, &, quod ait, teneræ puerorum ætati convenientiorem notis & emendationibus illuſtratum publici juris fecit. Quod ſtudium tanto majori opera ſibi conſtitiſſe affirmat, quanto paucioribus ad emoliendum iſtud niti licuerit præſidiis: quia cum in aliis ſcriptoribus viam muniverint eo jam labore defuncti doctiſſimi viri, in hoc qui induſtriam exercuiſſet, neminem ſibi videre contigerit. Haud obſcura tamen ſunt indicia, clariſſimi viri Chriſtophori Cellarii editionem cum Pæanii Græca metaphraſi anno 1678 accuratam, conſpectum ipſius neutiquam ſubterfugiſſe; ut de Vineti ſtudiis taceamus, in auctorem hunc, poſtquam codicem Burdigalenſem nactus eſſet, collatis: cujus editio Pictavienſis, anno tertio & quinquageſimo ſuperioris ſæculi adornata, ac dein repetita, quin doctiſſimæ feminæ viſa fuerit, dubitare nos non permittit teſtimonium ex ea depromptum, quod præfixum legitur.

Cizæ, anno 1684, in 4.

EBræam linguam viginti quatuor horis perdiſcendi methodum clariſſimus Cellarius magno juventutis commodo ante hos tres annos primum evulgavit. Ejus hanc editionem, in pluribus locis correctam varieque auctam, nunc adornare voluit, ipſique novam Rabbiniſmi inſtitutionem adjungere, quæ tanto magis omnium applauſum meretur, quanto rarior fuit aliorum induſtria in excolendo argumento maximæ utilitatis. Dixerunt ſane antehac nonnulli de Rabbinorum loquendi modo, ejusque cum qua formam grammaticam, tum qua dictionem ab Ebraiſmo & Chaldaiſmo differentia; ſed ea omnia illis vix ſufficiunt, qui primum his ſtudiis cupiunt initiari. Noſter autor, obſervato conveniente ordine, initio ad lectionem manuducit, nuducit,inq; cum finem & characteres,& abbreviaturas communiores, quibus Judæorum doctores in ſcriptis frequentiſſime utuntur,exhibet. Poſtea, in quarum partium grammatica formatione peculiare quid Rabbinicus dicendi character habeat, oſtendit, cumque ipſe non raro Chaldaicas vocum flexiones cum Ebræis miſceat, de hoc inprimis monendos eſſe,qui his literis operam navant, duxit,ne qua ipſos confuſio morari poſſet. Ultimo particulas quasdam Rabbinicas, & vocabula, quæ, quia ſæpius occurrunt, præ aliis diſci merentur, proponit. Sub finem opuſculi excerpta nonnulla de Meſſia e GemaraSanhedrin, Echa Rabbeti, & Aukad Rochel, de PſeudoMeſſia quodam e libro Juchaſin,de alio e Schebet Jehuda, una cum verſione Latina accurata & perſpicua,annectit, ut, qui ſcriptis Rabbinicis deſtituuntur, habeant nihilominus occaſionem, præcepta exemplis illuſtrandi. Quin & Commentariorum Judaicorum uſum, & rationem, cum fructu eos legendi docet, dum ſpeciminis loco Pſalmum ſecundum e pluribus interpretibus invicem collatis exponit.

GILBERTI CLARK OUGHTREDUS EXPLICATUS, ſive Commentarius in ejus Clavem Mathematicam.

Londini ap.Rich. Davis Bibl. Oxonienſem,1682. in 8.

EDidit ante annos bene multos Gulielmus Oughtredus Æconenſis, Collegii regalisCantabrigiæ quondam ſocius, poſt Eccleſiæ Aldeburienſis in agro Surrienſi rector, clariſſimus Angliæ mathematicus, (extant enim paſſim ejus elogia, ut nec dubitarit celeberrimus Walliſius,eundem medium jungere Vietæ & Carteſio,luculentumque ipſi Opus ſuum Arithmeticæ infinitorum dedicare) libellum ſub titulo Clavis mathematicæ: in quo,præter communia præcepta arithmetica, elementa cumprimis tradidit Analyticæ hodiernæ; magiſtrum ſuum in iis preſſe ſecutus, magnum illum geometram Franciſcum Vietam. Illo autem ordine eundem contexuit, qui ad pandenda myſteria mathematica ſibi videbatur appoſitiſſimus, ut futuri Analyſtæ, qui ipſum ſecuturus eſſet, animum ſcientiis mathematicis non leviter & ſuperficie tenus tingeret: quoque velut Ariadnes filo ad adita earum deducerentur, & ad optimos antiquiſſimosque autores, Euclidem, Archimedem, Apollonium, Diophantum reliquosque penitius intelligendos gendos dirigerentur ſtudioſi, perciperentque, qua ſolertia quibusque moliminibus priſci illi heroes ſcientiam hanc pulcherrimam invenerint, ornaverintque.

Hujus opuſculi, pluries recuſi, & ut ex præfatione ipſius autoris, tertiæ & quartæ editioni præfixa comparet, publicæ etiam in academiis Anglicis doctrinæ conſecrati, interpretem in hoc commentario jam ante viginti duos annos typis deſtinato agit Gilbertus Clarck, ejusque veſtigia ubique κατὰ πόδα premens, continua ἐξηγήσει promtisque exemplis explanat, quæ Ougthredus ſtrictius, nec ſine obſcuritatis aliquando nota, perſequitur. Deſtinato tamen conſilio ſparſim inſerit, quæ non modo Oughtredo intelligendo inſerviunt, ſed & facem præferunt Geometriæ Carteſianæ.

Subnexa eſt libro Appendix ſpeciminum aſtronomicorum, ad obſervationes planetarum faciendas, in quibus autor obſervatorem inſtruit de inſtrumentis ad obſervandum neceſſariis, & modo, iisdem commode & citra fallaciam utendi, obſervationesque inſtituendi: adjuncta propria circa Jovem obſervatione, aliisque circa Cometam anni 1680 & 1681 habitis; deductis inde quibusdam poriſmatibus Theoriam Cometarum ſpectantibus, aſſertaque Keplери hypotheſi caudæ cometicæ. Excipit hæc deſcriptio Horologii Horizontalis, & problema catholicum ope Horologii Horizontalis quodvis Horologium conſtruendi, duoque alia circa Horologium cujus nullæ, niſi lucente Sole, appareant lineæ, & cylindraceum ſive baculi ambulatorii.

MONUMENTA VVESTMONASTERIENSIA: or an hiſtorical account of the original, increaſe, and preſent State of St. Peters, or the Abby Church of Weſtminſter, vvith all the Epitaphs, inſcriptions, coats of arms &c.

By H. K. of the inner Temple, Gent.

Londini 1682, in 8.

QUæ nominis rerumque geſtarum immortali memoriæ deſtinata ſunt, ærea lapideaque monumenta, temporum injuriis & ipſa ſubjacent, ac tandem omnino pereunt, niſi literis ſcriptisve quodammodo ab interitu vindicentur. Hanc proinde operam ſibi non inutiliter ſumſit Interioris Templi Londinenſis Socius, Henricus Keepe (ita enim Autoris nomen, quòd titulus libri ſolis initialibus literis exhibet, dedicatoriæ ſubjunctum eſt,) ut celebre Mauſoleum Regum ac

PrincipumAngliæ deſcriberet,& ex veteri hiſtoria,in illorum cumprimis gratiam,qui ejus videndi cauſa ad urbem veniunt, illuſtraret. Initio originem ac incrementa Templi Petrini Weſtmonaſterienſis inquirit, paucisque probat,quod ejus fundamenta non quidem Apoſtolorum temporibus a S. Petro, (prout aliqui, ſed nulla probabili ratione ducti, ſtatuerunt,) attamen haud multo poſt,anno videlicet 183,auſpiciis Lucii Britannorum primi reguli Chriſtiani, in fidei propagationem jacta fuerint. Inde quoties veræ religionis hoſtes ſtructuram ſacram dejecerint,ac quoties eam piiMonarchæ iterum inſtauraverint, enarrat. Hoc facto conventus illius formam ac regimen delineat, & mutationes exponit,quas a prima Templi ædificatione uſque ad hæc tempora ſubiit, quibus a Decano & duodecim Canonicis regularibus gubernatur.Poſtea templi ſuperficiem cum exteriorem tum interiorem dimetitur,totamque fabricam ſcribit formam crucis obtiuere, cui parva quædam ſacella ab iis partibus, quæ ſeptentrionem ac meridiem reſpiciunt, adjuncta ſunt, numero omnino quatuordecim. Dehinc omnia ſepulchrorum monumenta accurate, e quo lapide excitata, quibus tectoriis operibus ornata ſint, aut quas hermas impoſitas gerant deſcribit, breviter quoque genealogiam, ortum, ac res geſtas illuſtrium perſonarum, quarum ibi corpora quieſcunt, commemorat. Quo loco non raro eorum errores corrigit, qui ante ipſum in hoc argumento verſati ſunt. Poſtremo epitaphia, inſcriptiones ac tabulas, ſingulari diligentia collectas adjungit, quem quidem laborem jamolim aliqui ſubierunt, ſed parum feliciter, quippe qui nimium alienæ fidei tribuentes, ſæpiſſime ficta pro genuinis, falſa pro veris venditarunt. Addidit inſuper ſcutorum ac inſignium gentilitiorum, quæ cuivis epitaphio annexa ſunt,explicationem,id quod nec a Camdeno, nec a Wævero, nec a Stovio aut quopiam alio antehac factum eſſe obſervatur.

A Short view of the ancient and modern ſtate of Great Britain. The Firſt part.

Prima

PRima hæc eſt pars operis, quod omnium principatuum ac dominiorum ad Auguſtiſſimum Angliæ Regem ſpectantium, deſcriptionem cum mathematicam, tum civilem exhibebit. Complectitur autem in genere Britanniam magnam, ejusque mutationes, quas cum in eccleſia tum in ſtatu civili ſubiit. Autori nomen reticere viſum eſt, hoc, ut ſuſpicari licet, conſilio, ne dum de regiminis forma, ac ſucceſſionis jure contra Monarchomachos liberius ſcribit, & Pontificiorum partibus nonnihil favet, quos a proditionis crimine in Anglia abſolvere videtur, populare odium in ſe convertat. Priora capita ſoli fertilitatem, aeris temperiem, & quæ ad cujusque regionis deſcriptionem geographicam pertinent, exponunt. Deinde de veterum Britannorum inſtitutis, religione, legibus, lingua, navigandi peritia, & computandi ratione, aliisque ſimilibus tractatur. Quarto capite integro autor de Principatu, ejusque origine ac excellentia agit, eamque digreſſionem excuſat, quod non potuerit non eorum aſſertis data occaſione ſe opponere, qui formam monarchicam regiminis, quam a veteribus Britannis ſemper approbatam fuiſſe conſtet, e ſola quadam humana conventione, cui pro lubitu renunciari a populo poſſit, dependere pronunciant. Poſtea quo ſucceſſu Cæſar Britanniam primum invaſerit, eique tandem ſervile jugum injecerit, prolixe exponit, ac oſtendit, quod peculiari ratione, aliter ac reliquæ Romano Imperio ſubjectæ provinciæ fuerit gubernata. Inde ſequitur narratio, quo tempore illæ inſulæ fidem Chriſtianam ſuſceperint, quo pacto Diocletianus Britannos, qui Chriſto nomen dederant, perſecutus fuerit, & quibus modis Conſtantinus veram religionem inſtaurarit. Caput octavum novam Britanniæ periodum exhibet, qua ipſa a Romanis deſerta, per duo fere ſecula cum dimidio ſuos reges habuit, quos iterum ſucceſſu temporis Saxones in auxilium contra Barbaros evocati ſubegerunt. Caput nonum de Britannicæ Monarchiæ reſtauratione per Jacobum VI agit, ac ejus a Cadvvalladar, quem Saxones regno exutum in Walliam ultra Sabrinæ fluvium rejecerant, progeniem derivat. Inde ad hodiernum Britanniæ magnæ ſtatum devenitur, ubi primo generatim Monarchæ Britannici poteſtas ac prærogativæ declarantur, & deinde totum Regium ſtemma accurate enumeratur. Inprimis celſiſſimus Eboracenſium Dux a malevolorum injuriis vindicatur, deprædicatis illis virtutibus, quibus inter alios principes coruſcat. Circa reliquam Regiam familiam miliam ex illo tempore, quod addi autoris relationi mereatur, nihil accidit, si ſereniſſ. principis Ruperti mortem quæ ſuperiori anno ſucceſſit, & nuptias Regii Fratris Danici cum filia Eboracenſium Ducis excipias.

Lutetiæ Pariſiorum A. 1683.

POſtquam Confeſſio auricularis in eccleſia, ſacerdotum Romanenſium artibus, in carnificinam degeneraſſet conſcientiarum, Lutherus noſter eam primum ſeculo ſuperiori non quidem abrogandam, ſed abuſum ejus, quo enumeratio omnium delictorum requiritur, tollendum cenſuit. Quod ex Aug. Confeſſ. art. XI. & de abuſibus c. VII. manifeſtum eſt. At Reformati qui vocantur, cum Calvino ulterius progreſſi, etiam ejus uſum in eccleſia improbare auſi ſunt: quia ejus nec præceptum, nec exemplum in S. literis extet. Atque horum ſententiam contra ſcriptores Pontificios, inprimis Bellarminum, propugnare inſtituerat Joannes Dallæus, Charentonienſis eccleſiæ Miniſter, vir doctiſſimus, edito Genevæ anno MDCLXI libro de Sacramentali ſive Auriculari Latinorum confeſſione: quo tum theologica tum hiſtorica Romanenſium argumenta erudite diſcutit atque reſolvit. Hoc vero cum ſacerdotes R. ægre ferrent, quippe non neſcientes magnam imperii conſcientiarum affectati partem ſic minui poſſe, Autor ſupra nominatus in gratiam horum, opus de confeſſione auriculari novum quanta potuit diligentia compoſuit, ut illam inde ab Apoſtolicis temporibus in eccleſia receptam fuiſſe perſuaderet. Quod, ne temere ſuſcepiſſe videatur, primo libri capite, conſilium ſuum exponit: ſcilicet integram inſtituti operis ſui rationem hanc eſſe, ut ex eo quotquot ſint homines docti atque prudentes intelligant, ab origine rerum Chriſtianarum, fideles nunquam remiſſionem ſibi, poſt baptiſmum lapſos comparaſſe, prætermiſſa peccatorum ſuorum declaratione ſeu confeſſione apud miniſtros eccleſiæ. Itaque prætermiſſis duobus prioribus Dallæi læi, queis ſcholaſtica Pontificiorum argumenta confutaverat, hiſtorica ejus argumenta in duobus libris poſterioribus propoſita potiſſimum convellere nititur. Ferre enim nequit, quod Dallæus anno M CC XV ab Innocentio III pontifice R. in concil. IV Lateranenſi can. XXI omnis utriusque ſexus, primum inſtitutam fuiſſe confeſſionem auricularem contendit. Quapropter contra Dallæum in hoc libro concilii Trid. Seſſ. XIV. c. 5. decretum ex hiſtoria eccleſiaſtica & Patrum teſtimoniis probare annititur: inſtitutam eſſe a Domino integram peccatorum confeſſionem, & omnibus poſt baptiſmum lapſis jure divino neceſſariam exiſtere. Quod qua felicitate præſtitum ſit, eruditus lector ex collatione libri memorati Dallæi judicare poteſt. Cæterum ſumma tractationis ejusque connexio, e præmiſſo libri capitum XXX indice cognoſci poteſt.

STEPHANI BALUZII MISCELLANEORUM liber IV. hoc eſt, collectio veterum monumentorum, quæ hactenus latuerunt in variis codicibus ac bibliothecis.

Pariſiis excudebat Franciſcus Muguet. 1683 in 8.

DUm eruditorum Acta publicamus, fieri non poteſt, quin eruditiſſimi Baluzii mentionem tanto ſæpius faciamus, quanto plura ejus in rem literariam merita exiſtunt. Impræſentiarum nobis ejus Miſcellanea occurrunt, ſeu varia antiquitatis eccleſiaſticæ inprimis monumenta, qualia etiam Henricus Caniſius in lectionibus antiquis, Petrus Stevartius in tomo ſingulari, Leo Allatius in συμμίκτοις, Lucas Dachery in ſpicilegio, Philippus Labbe in bibliotheca manuſcriptorum, Johannes Mabillon in analectis veterum, & alii clariſimi viri ſub aliis titulorum involucris e variis codicibus & biliothecis in unum ſyntagma collegerunt.

Quatuor autem ejusmodi miſcellaneorum libros Baluzius hactenus in publicum emiſit, quorum primus anno 1678, ſecundus 1679, tertius 1680, & quartus anno proxime elapſo 1683 prodiit. Verum cum tria priora volumina temporis, intra quod ſe Acta noſtra continent, ſpatium antevertant, de quarto ſolum pauca referemus.

Maximam ejus partem occupant Hugonis Floriacenſis de regia poteſtate

potestate & sacerdotali dignitate tractatus Henrico Angliæ regi dicatus; Stephani Obazinensis Abbatis vita ab ejusdem discipulo & individuo comite tribus libris comprehensa; & narratio visitationis provinciarum Burdegalensis & Bituricensis a Simone de Bello-loco archiepiscopo Bituricensi & Aquitaniæ primate facta, e cujus actis Jacobus Sirmondus in notis ad capitula Caroli Calvi, & Johannes Mabillon in suis analectis nonnulla delibarunt.

Reliqua quæ hoc volumine continentur opuscula numero pæne septuaginta breviora sunt, ut epistola Tajonis Cæsaraugustani ad Eugenium Toletanum, Gregorii M. & operum ab eo relictorum laudibus referta; epistola Alcuini ad Carolum M. cum septem libros adversus Felicem composuisset, perscripta; literæ Sigismundi Pandulfi Malatestæ principis Ariminensis nomine ad Mahometem II, cum ei opus quoddam rerum castrensium, & insignem pingendi fingendique artificem Matthæum Pastum Viennensem transmitteret, exaratæ; tres Lucii Colutii Salutati Florentini cancellarii, septem Anselmi Cantuariensis, & duæ ad Anselmum epistolæ; item testamenta a Wolfaudo comite, & Raymundo Cornilio Cadurcensi episcopo condita; Landulphi episcopi Taurinensis charta de parte capitis S. Johannis, & alia nec unius ætatis, nec unius generis & argumenti scripta. Quædam enim ad Theologiam pertinent, ut duo Theodoriti fragmenta; quædam ad philologiam, ut incerti autoris, quem Baluzius Caroli M. ævo vixisse suspicatur, de ceromate epistolica dissertatio; quædam ad poesin, ut nonnulla Alcuini, Walfridi Strabi, & Rabani Mauri poematia, Flodoardi Remensis presbyteri, Theoderici Metensis episcopi, Adalberonis iidem Metensis episcopi, Gauzlini archiepiscopi Bituricensis, Vitalis & Cononis epitaphia, & duo carmina in laudem Anselmi Cantuariensis archiepiscopi elaborata; quædam ad genealogiam, ut Gulielmi Bastardi Angliæ Regis & Normanniæ Ducis generatio; quædam ad notitiam publicarum dignitatum, ut Hugonis de Cleeriu commentarius de Majoratu & Senescalcia Franciæ jam olim a Sirmondo editus, & nunc a plurimis mendis repurgatus; quædam ad politiam ecclesiasticam, ut variæ relationes de electionibus episcoporum quorundam, abbatum & cardinalium, & plurima privilegia certis ecclesiis & monasteriis concessa; quædam ad certamina & controversias scholasticorum, ut articuli Ludovico XI a Nominalibus oblati, cum M. Johannis Bracardi & Thomistarum miſtarum impulſu Ockami & Nominalium doctrinam in univerſitate Pariſienſi publice doceri prohibuiſſet.

In his articulis, præmiſſa Nominalium commendatione, eorundem perſecutiones recenſentur. Refertur enim Johannis XXII odium adverſus Gulielmum Occam inde excitatum, quod Pſychopannychitarum hæreſin, cui iſte Pontifex favebat, & alios ejus errores ſcriptis refutaſſet, & in dialogo ſuo reges Papæ non ſubjectos eſſe, Scripturæ, Patrum & conciliorum generalium autoritate demonſtraſſet, unde prima Nominalium perſecutio exorta fuerit. Alteram libelli hujus autores in Bohemia contigiſſe narrant, quæ cauſa fuerit, ut Nominales relicta Praga Lipſiam ſe contulerint, & ſolenniſſimam ibi univerſitatem erexerint. Tertiam poſt cædem Ducis Aurelianenſis accidiſſe ſcribunt, doctiſſimis viris ob bella inde enata in diverſas regiones & provincias diſperſis, donec pace reddita res Nominalium dilapſæ in Galliis refloreſcerent. Et quartam denique anno 1473 non aliam ob cauſam eveniſſe referunt, quam quod hæc Nominalium ſecta Thomiſtas gloria & diſputandi ſolertia ſuperaſſet, & Lovanienſis Theologi Petri de Rivo tractatum, in quo abſolutam futurorum contingentium incertitudinem aſſeruit, approbare noluiſſet. Subjiciuntur his articulis 24 Pariſienſium Theologorum ſignaturæ ſeu opiniones, quas Lovanienſis ille Theologus, a Magiſtro Henrico de Zomeren Romæ accuſatus, ad defenſionem ſui ſecum attulit. Deſcripſit autem hæc Baluzius ex antiquis codicibus Bibliothecæ Colbertinæ, in quibus etiam libros Petri de Rivo, & propoſitiones Henrici de Zomeren, & Franciſci Cardinalis S. Petri ad vincula, qui poſtea Sixtus IV dictus eſt, tractatum de futuris contingentibus, & alia ad hanc materiam ſpectantia contineri, lectorem ſuum monere voluit.

Antverpiæ apud Nicolaum le Feure 1682 in 21.

ANtequam adverſus Reformatas in Gallia Eccleſias dura illa Romano-Catholicorum molimina erumperent, de quibus nunc acerbæ querelæ longe lateque audiuntur, Jo. Benignus Boſſuetus, ſæpe nobis pro dignitate & eruditione ſua memoratus, tunc Condomenſis nunc Meldenſis Epiſcopus, edito libro Expoſitionis Fidei Catholicæ, oſtendere conatus eſt, non tantum eſſe diſſidiorum inter utramque religionem hiatum, quantus vulgo habeatur, neque adeo tam difficilem, ut creditur, ex Reformata ad Rom. Catholicam tranſitum. Huic a docto & eloquenti inter Reformatos viro, oppoſitus eſt liber, ſub titulo Præſervativi, in quo non tam de dogmatibus ipſis, aut eorum veritate, quam de maxima differentia inter utramque religionem agitur. Utrumque ſcriptum laudatores ſuos invenit, nec, quod ſciatur, hucuſque fuit, qui Præſervativum refutaret. Sed anno 1682 Antonius Arnaldus, Theologus Sorbonicus celeberrimus, e Gallia, ob cauſam Janſeniſmi rigide defenſam exul, Reflexiones has compoſuit, diſſimulato quidem nomine, ſed ſtylo & allegatis libris ſuis ita ſe prodens, ut nec ſerio voluiſſe latere videatur. Cum vero paulo poſt ad has animadverſiones Reformatus quidam reſponderit, & Præſervativi apologiam fecerit, quæ una cum Arnaldi libello ad nos pervenit, ne bis idem dicamus, ſubjuncta apologia, utriusque libri capita ſimul referre viſum eſt. Amſtelodami apud Henricum Desbordes A. 1683 in 12.

In

IN præfatione & apparatu libri hujus apologetici non diffitetur acrimoniam ſtyli ſui autor, & cauſas adfert, cur homini reformatis infenſiſſimo, ſed cujus libri Amſtelodami componantur & typis mandentur, tandem maſcule & acriter reſpondeatur, quippe qui exilii ſui vel ſolatia vel remedia quærere videatur, omne in afflictas reformatorum Gallicorum eccleſias virus effundendo. Taxat etiam titulum, ſive lemma, quo Præſervativi autori defectus judicii tribuitur, qui longe maximus in Arnaldo appareat, inſtitutum epiſcopi Condomenſis pervertente: hunc enim vulnera ſchiſmatis mulcere & tegere, at iſtum refricare & lethalia facere. Impertinenter etiam de dogmatibus & inprimis de imputatione idololatriæ digladiari Arnaldum, qui meminiſſe debuerit, Autorem Præſervativi de dogmatibus agere noluiſſe, ſed tantum diſcrimen dogmatum, a Condomenſi diſſimulatum, aut juſto anguſtius expoſitum, in apertum producere. Impudentiam, quam primo Animadverſionum capite reformatis Arnaldus objicit, in ipſum retorquet, qui ob unicum dogma, de inamiſſibilitate gratiæ, tragœdias excitet, & vel ob hoc unum abominabilem eccleſiæ reformatæ faciem effingat, cum domi habeat, quæ de ſua eccleſia meliori jure queri poſſit. Laudari ab Arnaldo Pontificem, qui nunc regnat, forte quod Janſeniſmo faveat, Moliniſmum averſetur. Nam quæ pro emendanda eccleſia meditari dicatur, aut conſtituerit, effectu carere. Et quod a moribus melioribus celebretur, indicio eſſe, quam raro illi in pontificibus reperiantur. Irridet perpetuum circulum, cum eccleſia Romana de ſeipſa magnifice teſtans ad traditiones, & ab his iterum ad ſuum provocet teſtimonium. Quanto vero melior facies eccleſiæ (ait) oſtenditur, vel ſolum Novum Teſtamentum (librum non magnum) legentibus? nihil enim ex illo apparet de proſtrato ad adorandas ligneas & marmoreas ſtatuas & ad panem euchariſticum populo, de quotidie ſacrificato filio Dei, de indulgentiis per myriades annorum ad peccandi impunitatem inventis, de purgatorii fabulis, de uſu linguæ barbaræ in cultu publico. Hæc fere tribus apologiæ hujus articulis ſeu capitibus prioribus contenta, Reflexioni primæ Arnaldi opponuntur. Ad ſecundam, (Articulo 4) conciliantur, quæ pugnare dixerat Arnaldus, quod liber Condomenſis modo ut nullius, modo ut magni effectus adverſus reformatos accuſetur. Nihil enim, ait, effeciſſe apud eos, qui debilitatē cauſæ vel ex eo perſpexerint, quod tanto labore excuſationes dogmatum Romanenſium conquiſitæ fuerint, nævique eo ipſi agniti: multum vero apud eos, qui mundi ſpiritu pleni prætextum quemcunque apoſtaſiæ arripuerint, & licet vera & genuina Eccleſiæ membra non fuerint, defectione tamen ſua ſcandalum & incommoda fidelibus præbeant: at maximum pondus libro acceſſiſſe ab exactionibus & vexationibus militaribus. Reflexione III negat Arnaldus, Condomenſis libri ſcopum eſſe unionem religionum; concedit hoc Apologia Articulo 5. monetque ſub molli illo vocabulo nil aliud, quam reditum ad ſacra Romana quæſitum fuiſſe. Percurriſſe tamen Galliam hominem a Turenio mareſcallo, ad Romanenſes converſo miſſum, qui formulam unionis reformatis quibusdam paſtoribus obtulerit, eisque ſubſcriptionem perſuaſerit; quos etiam contra cenſuram ſynodalem Regia edicta defenderint. Dogma de inamiſſibilitate gratiæ non prius, quam ſub initium hujus ſeculi diſputari cœptum aſſerit, interque ea habendum, quæ fundamentum fidei non convellant, ſicut inter Lutheranos quosdam & Reformatos Rinthelii anno 1661 convenerit. Renunciari quidem veritati, etiam ad fundamentum non pertinenti, non poſſe, at tolerari per Chriſtianam charitatem debere, qui eam non capiant. Articulo 6. ad Reflexionem IV, ideo non credi dicit Expoſitioni Condomenſi, licet approbationibus munitæ, quod ea non conveniat cum ſententia Rom. Catholicorum indiſputabili, nec cum praxi eccleſiæ Romanæ. Quod exemplo cultus Sanctorum oſtendit, quem Condomenſis ita extenuat, quaſi non alius ſit, quam qui vivis fidelibus, preces eorum ad Deum pro nobis deſiderando, præſtatur; neque enim his templa ſtrui, vota fieri, ſacrificium Miſſæ honoris cauſa exhiberi: & ipſius Miſſæ, ex qua commemorationem ſacrificii faciat Condomenſis, ſed quæ uno ore pro propitiatorio quotidie venditetur. Totam nempe expoſitionem Condomenſem tantum ad ineſcandos reformatos eſſe compoſitam, eaque ſola ſpe, poſt multas cunctationes & correctiones, ab epiſcopis quibusdam, dein etiam Romæ impetratas fuiſſe approbationes: multis vero R. Catholicis diſplicuiſſe, & a Craſſeto Jeſuita in Articulo de Invocatione Sanctorum, aperte fuiſſe refutatam. Narrat, ut Ludovicus Blancus, profeſſor Sedanenſis, qui dogmata quædam Scholaſtica v. g. de libero arbitrio & de prædeſtinatione, tanti momenti ad ſchiſma non eſſe, quam vulgo haberentur, ſcripſerat, ab emiſſario illo Turenii tentatus fuerit, (Arnaldo etiam eo nomine laudatus) ſed perſpecto ſpecto præjudicio diſſertationem anno 1673 ediderit, qua ſatis oſtenderit, in illis, quæ cum cultu connexa ſunt, veluti circa invocationem ſanctorum, miſſam, purgatorium &c. cum Romana eccleſia temperamenta non admitti. Eſſe quidem ait Apologiſta inter Rom. Catholicos, quibus tertiarum partium nomen tribui invitus ferat Arnaldus, quos eccleſiæ ſuæ errorum pœniteat, talibusque probari librum Condomenſem, ſed absq; fructu; & Romæ probari improbariq; conſilia & libros ex mera utilitate politica, quod patere ait ex cauſa Janſeniſtica. Hunc ipſum Pontificem, qui Condomenſi libro applauſerit, ferre & probare Raymundi Capiſucchi Mag. Sac. Palat. novum pro cultu Sanctorum librum, ultra omnes, ut fertur, limites exaggerato: probari & Malleti ſcriptum contra lectionem S. Scripturæ. Dura nunc fulmina in clerum Gallicanum vibrari, propter infallibilitatem & poteſtatem Papæ in temporalibus limitatam aut negatam, quam tamen problematicam fecerit Condomenſis, approbante Pontifice. Articulo 7. ſpeciatim agitur de libro Craſſeti, Jeſuitæ, quem licet Arnaldus, Jeſuitarum in univerſum hoſtis, deſpiciat, hujus tamen judicii nullum eſſe pondus, cum Craſſetus Provincialis ſui approbationem habeat, & faventem praxin, a nemine etiam condemnetur: adeo ut nec quidquam effecerint anonymus in Belgio, & epiſcopi Tornacenſis & Caſtorienſis, moderationem cultus Deiparæ poſcentes. Art. 8. refutantur, quæ pro pallianda Sanctorum invocatione ex Curcellæo objecerat Arnaldus, & autorem hunc reformatarum partium non eſſe, ſed Socinianiſmo infectum dicitur, neque tamen quidquam pro Arnaldo facere, quod ſcripſerit, non eundem eſſe Romanenſium cultum erga Sanctos, qui paganorum fuerit erga idola; nec valere ad excuſationem, quod Sancti ob Deum colantur, & preces noſtras ex divina revelatione percipiant, cum omnia iſta careant præcepto divino, imo contra id pugnent. Articulo 9 Reflexio VI ventilatur, de Dailleo, qui articulos fidei fundamentales retineri in Romana eccleſia ſcripſerat. Hoc enim non obſtante, ob aſſutos erroneos, corruptam & vitandam eſſe eccleſiam illam, neque aliam eſſe Daillæi mentem, quanquam ejus opiniones omnes tueri non poſſint reformati, quas cum Camerone aliisque Salmurienſibus communes habuerit. Ad VII, VIII, IX Reflexiones Arnaldi reſpondetur Articulis, 10, 11, 12. 13, 14, tractaturq; prolixè de differentia Pontificiæ & Lutheranæ ſententiæ circa transſubſtantiationem, & præſentiam realem, & hæc tolerabilis habeatur, improbatis quæ reformati quidam fervide in contrarium ſcripſerunt. Omnem certe idololatricæ adorationis culpam a Lutheranis abſtergit Apologiſta, laudatis Martino Chemnitio & Joh. Gerhardo, quem inter doctiſſimos ſeculi noſtri Theologos refert. Imo reformatos eodem modo Chriſtum in S. cœna adorare dicit, quo Lutherani, genuflexione etiam in Anglia admiſſa: nihil enim, ne ſic quidem, idololatrici fieri, nec ad elementa externa reſpici. Occaſionem nactus ex hac materia & aliis, Arnaldum (Meinerio Jeſuitæ aſſentiens) Deiſmi ſuſpectum facit, & ex Philoſophiæ ſuæ Carteſianæ principiis nullam præſentiam realem credentem, verſatilem, denique & inconſtantem. Articulus 15. opponitur Reflexioni X, & diſputatur de regimine eccleſiæ, quod jure divino ariſtocraticum, non monarchicum eſſe debere contendit Apologiſta, neque tamen ideo quæſtionem de paritate epiſcoporum & presbyterorum in Anglia ventilatam, huc recte ab Arnaldo tractam eſſe; de hac enim ſalva fide disquiri poſſe, ſtante in utroque caſu regimine ariſtocratico. Articulo 16. contra Reflexionem XI diſſeritur de poteſtate pontificis, quam Arnaldus ita efformare vult, ut reformatis non tam hiſpida & horribilis videatur; ſed fruſtra, ut pluribus oſtendit Anonymus, dum Spanhemii & Blondelli ſententiam explicat, & ne conſenſu quidem eccleſiæ ſive jure humano & eccleſiaſtico, talem poteſtatem pontifici tribui poſſe ſtatuit, qualem ſibi arrogat.

Has animadverſiones undecim Arnaldus compoſuiſſe ſe profeſſus eſt, cum liber Præſervativi prodiret, editione autem ob impedimenta dilata, addidiſſe reliquas quinque. Itaque Reflexione XII falſum eſſe ſcribit, quod crudeles perſecutiones contra reformatos in Callia fiant; ſervari enim edictum Nannetenſe, nec ullum templum, quod eo nitatur, dirutum eſſe: ſed Articulo XIIX ſumma hoc cum impudentia & contra conſcientiam dici, regerit Apologiſta, & capita indicat, jam ſatis nota, in quibus contra edictum reformati graventur, prohibita præſertim libertate, quæ Romano-Catholicis, etiam clericis, per edictum conceditur ad amplectendam religionem Reformatam, ſublatis tribunalibus ſemipartitis, & collegiis ac ſcholis, plerisque etiam academiis; tum dirutis tanto numero templis, ut in Pictonibus ex 60 vel 80 tantum quatuor, in Aquitania ex 123 non niſi

ſeptem ſuperſint. Crudelitatis vero a Marillaco in Pictonibus exercitæ exempla teſtibus 25000 comprobari poſſe tradit. Summam etiam calumniam eſſe, quod reformati ſynodo Anno 1659 habita cum Angliæ protectore Cromvvello fœdus inire voluerint. Reflexione XIII Arnaldus conditionem Rom. Catholicorum in Batavis conſiderandam exponit, quod contra pacta unionis Provinciarum anni 1579 exercitio publico & bonis eccleſiaſticis careant. Hoc acriter improbatur eodem articulo 18, & pro claſſico ad ſeditionem habetur: nec quicquam enim juvare Rom. Catholicos allegatam unionem, quæ ſecutis temporibus & pactis in alium plane ſtatum devenerit. Reflexione XIV edictum Regis de liberis reformatorum ab obſtetricibus Rom. Catholicis baptizandis, defendit Arnaldus, & Reflexione XV conqueritur, quod Rom. Catholici in quadam Belgii provincia cogantur liberorum ſuorum baptiſmum differre, ad dies a paſtoribus reformatis deſtinatos. Poſtremum hoc negat Apoſtologiſta; ad illa vero multa regerit, & reſponſionem aliam uberiorem ab autore Præſervativi contra baptiſmum a fœminis adminiſtrandum, & violentam obſtetricum obtruſionem, ſperandam indicat, & ita futurum eſſe ait, ut & Reflexioni XVI ſatisfiat, in qua Arnaldus vehementer expoſtulavit de apologia contra librum ſuum (Renverſement de la Morale des Calviniſtes) quo ſummæ impietatis reformatos accuſavit, improbantibus quidem, ut dicitur, omnibus cordatis, etiam inter Rom. Catholicos, alioque ſcripto convitia reiteravit. Interim cum dicta Reflexio XVI ſerio provocet Reformatos, ut vel unam paginam Tractatus ſui monſtrent, in qua mala fide & per impoſturam aliquid illis imputaverit, gratificaturus apologiſta viginti plus minus propoſitiones falſas & mendaces, ut ait, excerpſit, quibus calumniæ & cavillationis adverſus reformatos reus peragi Arnaldus poſſit.

JOHANNIS Eiſenhards/ PHILOSOPH. & J. V. D. & in Academia Julia P. P. Inſtitutionum Jurisprudentiæ doctrina generalis &c.

Helmſtadii 1683. apud Georg. Wolfg. Hammium in 4.

LEgitimæ ſcientiæ primis elementis juventam imbuturus Sacratiſſimus Princeps, cum in proœmio ſuarum Inſtitutionum, tum in duobus

duobus titulis libri I prioribus, παιδείαν quandam præmittit, generalia universæ Jurisprudentiæ Romanæ axiomata continentem. In illa vero tradenda citra dubium levi brachio & per transennam quasi ex hac ratione versatus est, quod juvenes eo tempore ad discendum juris studium e philosophorum scholis limatiori longe ingenio accederent, ac plerumque hodiernis moribus fieri solet, quibus plurimi, ne salutatis quidem activæ Philosophiæ liminibus, in ipsa hujus divæ sacraria præposteto prorsus ausu irrumpere non erubescunt, non JCti, sed circumforanei clamatores olim ac omnino tales futuri, quales in oratione adversus Callimachum Isocrates depingit in Xenotimo quodam, qui & leges adulteraverit, & judicia corruperit, & magistratus vexaverit, malorum denique omnium causa fuerit. Hanc igitur introductionem in usum cupidæ legum juventutis majori lumine dignam ratus CL. Eisenhardus, vestigia Imperatoris κ̓ωνστάντα pressit, ac in procœmio omnia Jura, quæ in Germania actionibus civilibus normam præscribunt, recensuit, adeoque non modo historiam Νομοθεσίας Romanæ, quomodo ante, circa & post Justiniani tempora se illa habuerit, sed consuetudinum quoque Feudalium, Canonici item & Germanici Juris tam generalis quam specialis originem atque auctoritatem succincte delineavit. In sequentibus autem septem capitibus præcipue in eo totus est, ut ostendat, omnem validitatem negotiorum civilium, partim ex voluntate & facultate personarum agentium, partim ex forma & modo istis a Legislatore præscripto suspensam esse: hinc fine & primis Jurisprudentiæ præceptis pro instituti ratione expositis, de variis Jurium speciebus & interpretandi ratione agit; mox ad personarum æque ac rerum differentias descendit; tandemque de negotiorum civilium solennitatibus, forma & cautionibus, ut & defectu pariter ac effectu docet: hæcque omnia ex principiis Aristotelicis vere φιλοσόφως, ut nullo opere hæc generalia singulis causarum vel actionum civilium, si quæ emergant, figuris, non sine insigni profectuum in doctrina juris augmento, possint applicari. Accessit in calce index rerum memorabilium, in quo, præter ea, quæ ad generalem Jurisprudentiæ doctrinam pertinent, generaliores quoque differentiæ modorum acquirendi, conventionum, contractuum, titulorum seu causarum acquisitionis & traditionis declarantur.

TRA-

TRACTATVS DE PODAGRA & HYDROPE. PER THO. Sydenham, M. D.

Londini, apud Gualt. Kettilby, anno 1683 in 8.

VIx recuſa Amſtelodami anno ſuperiore clariſſimi hujus Medici opuſcula fuerant, uno volumine comprehenſa, cum novum hoc in Anglia opus ab eodem publicatum eſt. Bina vero hoc ſcriptum complectitur pathemata, ſi non diuturnitate aut lethalitate, certe medendi difficultate paria, i. e. in quibus non raro omne medici conſilium atque auxilium ceſſat. Primo Podagra (cujus nomine reliquas pariter Arthritidis ſpecies exprimit) hiſtoriam & affligendi rationem, tam regularem quamque in principio morbi experiuntur miſeri, quam irregularem, quæ conſummati magis morbi idea, & qualem non tantum diuturna praxi in multis aliis, ſed in propriis articulis per triginta quatuor annos ipſe obſervavit, tradit: illius vero cauſam antecedentem indigeſtiones per diætæ errores varios, inprimis circa victum, & in ſpecie vini aliorumque liquorum ſpirituoſorum potum, ac Venerem commiſſos pronunciat. Hinc cum in morbo hoc naturæ prærogativa ſit, materiam ſuo modo exterminare & ad articulos deponere, per inſenſibilem tranſpirationem difflandam, ſanguinis miſſionem æque ac catharſin & ſudoriferorum uſum, paradoxe ſatis damnat. Sanguinis eductionem equidem, quod cum indicatione illa pugnet, quam indigeſtio, a ſpirituum defectu ac depravatione orta, ut cauſa antecedens, ſibi vendicat, quæque per hoc remedii genus potius augeatur: niſi juvenis forſan adhuc æger fuerit. Catharctica, ſive ſub paroxyſmi invaſione, ſive declinatione, ſive extra hunc, ideo ſuſpecta reddit, quod materiam peccantem, ad extrema jamdum relegatam, ex his denuo ad maſſam ſanguineam revocent, & quamvis aliquid cruditatum productarum ac cauſæ continentis educant, coctiones tamen haud roborent, ſpiritus debilitent, paroxyſmum equidem præſentem abbrevient, ſed ita ut pœnas inpoſterum pendat diriſſimas æger ab ataxia, in quam illa humorum per purgans exagitatio naturam præcipitem egit. Denique ſudoriferorum mala, non niſi ſummis cruciatibus, imo vitæ interdum periculo, expianda recenſet, quamvis ſpontaneum & matutinum madorem aliquid levaminis adferre, & cujuslibet paroxyſmi quaſi criſin eſſe, concedat.

Aliam proin Methodum ſuppeditaturus Sydenham, duobus potiſſimum in hujus morbi curatione obviam iri debere, oſtendit, humorum ſc. indigeſtioni, ut cauſæ antecedenti, eorumque exæſtuationi, ut continenti: quæ tamen duæ cauſæ cum adeo differant, ut quæ huic proſint remedia, alteri obſint, hinc affectum hunc curatu ita difficilem exiſtere ait. Primo interim ſcopo ſatisfacere contendit per medicamenta digeſtiva acriora, & amaricantia, eaque compoſita magis, quam ſimplicia, v. g. Electuaria, quorum duo tradit exemplaria ſibi frequentiora, inter ſimplicia vero cortici Peruviano primas tradit. Atque hæc quidem ſimiliaque ſanguinis digeſtiva ſeu ſanguinem corroborantia in omnibus affectibus chronicis commendat, hac occaſione de morborum acutorum & chronicorum diſcrimine agens, hosque poſteriores omnes ab humorum indigeſtione, tanquam communi ſcaturigine, derivans. In podagra tamen ſimiliter ac in illis, diuturnum atque aſſiduum maxime illorum uſum præcipit, pro habitualibus ejusmodi malis eradicandis neceſſarium, convenientiorem tamen in paroxyſmorum intervallis, quam ſub illorum exacerbationibus. His adæquatum & ſtrictius annectit ſex rerum non naturalium regimen; ubi inter alia γαλακτοποσίαν, niſi quis per omnem vitam in ea ſe perſtiturum confidat, temporarium & breve tantum auxilium pronunciat, nihilominus fugacis illius emolumenti rationes explicans. Vinum de facto officere, uti experimentis confirmatiſſimum exiſtat, ita ex adverſo liquores nimis refrigerantes minus tuto, cereviſiam vero tenuiorem ſimiliave mediocris naturæ potulenta, v. g. decoctum ex ſarſaparilla, ſaſſafras, China & liquiritia, cum maximo ægrorum emolumento in uſum vocari aſſerit. Hyberno tempore maturius lectum petere & ſomnum capere jubet; cæteris vero omnibus, quæ humorum indigeſtiones impediant, ſanguinique & partibus ſolidis robur concilient, exercitia corporis moderata quotidiana facile palmam præripere docet, & inter hæc equitationem ac frequentem in curru vectionem. Quæ cuncta tamen ita commendat, ut quamvis, ſi religioſe obſerventur, ab enormioribus morbi inſultibus podagræ obnoxios præſervare queant, nihilominus vix efficiant, quin poſt quædam intervalla, maxime circa hyemis finem, podagra quandoque illi tententur. In paroxyſmo interim nihil plane tentandum monet, cum quo plus dolores leniantur, tanto magis humorum morum coctio ſufflaminetur, id eſt, cauſa antecedens augeatur; præter diætam tenuem, a carnibus abſtinentiam, &, quantum dolores concedunt, corporis exercitationem, aut per aliquot dies in lecto quietem. Denique ſymptomatum Podagræ illorum, a quibus in paroxyſmo de vita periclitatur æger, curam ſubnectit, topica cuncta damnat, ac Specificorum, tam antiarthriticorum, quam aliorum morborum, virtutes dubias reddit.

Dimiſſa ſic Podagra Hydropem contemplatur; hujusque ſubjectum, ſigna, ſymptomata, cauſas & therapiam exponit. Quod dum agit, fœminas morbo huic magis obnoxias aſſerit viris, & quidem propter teſticulorum ſaburram ſeu obſtructionem, quamvis in his duas inſuper tumorum abdominis ſpecies hydropem non raro mentiri, concedat. Foveas a digitorum impreſſione in ſuris relictas haud adæquatum hydropis ſignum credit, niſi dyſpnœa ſimul juncta fuerit, utpote quæ, ut & urinæ paucitas, ſitisque intenſior, morbi illius ſolenniora ſymptomata exiſtunt, accedente demum indies pro rata, qua æger in partibus hydropicis mole augetur, in reliquis marcore. Cauſam hujus morbi in genere ſanguinis debilitatem pronunciat, qualem vel ſanguinis excretiones atque eductiones nimiæ, vel morbus diuturnus, vel liquorum ſpirituoſorum ingurgitatio inducant: ita tamen ut in fœminis modo indigitata inſimul cauſa concurrat. Indicationum curativarum duos format ſcopos, nimirum ut cauſa continens, ſeu aqua extravaſata, educatur, & ut ſanguini robur priſtinum reſtituatur. Illud per purgantia præprimis faciendum, eaque fortiora potius &c. Elaterium & crocum metallorum, item decoct. corticis interiorum ſambuci, quam leniora; cum hæc ut plurimum plus damni, quam levaminis adferant: quamvis certas quoque aſcitis ſpecies excipiat, quibus catharſis nihil profit, & ubi omnis curationis cardo in ſanguine & viſceribus roborandis vertatur. Nihilominus quosdam quoque caſus determinat, ubi aquarum eductio ſolis potius diureticis committenda foret, præprimis quæ ex ſalibus lixivialibus, v. g. geniſtæ, tartara. Sicut vero aquis eductis non niſi ad dimidiam curationis partem perventum ſit, ita ſanguinis etiam debilitati, tanquam primæ morbi origini, medicamentorum calefacientium & corroborantium, ſeu ſplanchnicorum uſu, pro novo aquarum proventu præcavendo, occurrendum eſſe monet, hac occaſione vini aliorumve liquorum generoſiorum potum ordinarium valde extollens, ſpirituum vero deſtillatorum vim ſuſpectam reddens. Hinc vina & cereviſias medicatas ex antiſcorbuticis, abſinthio, centaurio, & geniſta confectas, electuarium digeſtivum antipodagricum, quod pag. 54 deſcripſerat, & in principio morbi chalybem atque allium, commendat: imo hæc ſola cum diureticis lixivialibus, ſine emeticis & catharcticis, tunc eundem pellere docet. Præterea non omnem hydropem æque ſanabilem eſſe oſtendit, purgantia externa cum veſicatoriis, tibiis adplicatis, damnat, una cum paracenteſi & acupuncturis. Denique dum occaſione ejusmodi externorum remediorum in curationem Podagræ per Moxam (quam muſcum quendam Indicum pronunciat) inquirit, inuſtiones in morbis articularibus antiquioris ævi per Hippocratis præprimis effata comprobat, & uſtulationem hanc a veterum uſtionibus vix differre, & aliquid equidem pro doloris mitigatione beneficii, brevioris tamen atque fugacis admodum, polliceri oſtendit.

ΧΟΛΗΛΟΓΙΑ, SIVE THEMATA PARADOXA de Bile ſana & ægra: illa ſanitatis, hac morborum cauſa &c. Authore Joh. Georgio Greulichio,

M. Doctore ejusque Practico Moguntiæ.

Francofurti, apud Herm. a Sande 1682 in 8.

QUi Scriptor anno 1681 Hydropis curandi veram Methodum (id eſt, non tam per evacuantia, quam deobſtruentia) una cum Diſſertatione de Bile, fœcunda morborum parente, hujusque productis nonnullis morboſis ediderat; præſenti tractatu prolixiorem de Bilis natura, officiis atque pathematis, tanquam cauſarum morbificarum magna parte, exponit theoriam, in capita duo digeſtam, quorum altero de fluido illo ſecundum naturam ſe habente, ejusque actionibus, altero de hujus ſtatu præternaturali, & paſſionibus agit. Primo nimirum Bilem inſtrumentum plurium evacuationum, ſc. inteſtinalis, diureſeos, narium hæmorrhagiæ, menſium, ac diaphoreſeos, aſſerit; eam imaginationi famulari, per terroris iræq; effectus evincit; eandem Archæi valetudinem curantis organum, humorum reliquorum condimentum, ac totius corporis balſamum pronunciat; imo felli cum ſperma-te atque organis genitalibus non leve intercedere commercium, illamque lamque alios forſan adhuc in natura uſus habere, iſti Helmontii, Fel eſt viſcus præpotens in natura, liquoris primigenii apprime vitale & ſumme neceſſarium, innixus ſuſpicatur. In altera parte Bilis in Epate ſecretionem læſam, ſcabiem producere; ejus congeſtionem nimiam partim propter organorum diſpoſitionem, partim luxum atque otium, contingere; ex hac vero & illius corruptione hæmorrhoides, dyſenteriam, icterum, dyſpnœam, palpitationem cordis, convulſiones, epilepſiam, apoplexiam, melancholiam, uno verbo totam morborum phalangem, per aliorum æque Scriptorum claſſicorum & Medicorum, ac proprias obſervationes educere conatur. Hinc modos, quibus bili in obeundis ſuis muniis velut compedes injiciantur, recenſet; contingere nimirum hoc per tartari & fœculentiarum terrearum ac ſalium peregrinorum, unde ſcorbutus, admiſcelam; ſi in diureſi ac diaphoreſi obſtacula inveniat, ab alimentis & medicamentis acrioribus ac volatilioribus, item venenis, præter modum alteretur. Tandem eandem Bilem in morbis epidemicis, adeoque peſte etiam ipſa, affici dum aſſerit, multa hujus ſimiliumque malignorum morborum phænomena exponit.

EPISTOLA ASTRONOMI CLARISSIMI
Dn. Edmundi Halleji, Theoriam motus Satellitis Saturnii corrigens.
Exhibita in Philoſophicis Transactionibus Anglicanis menſe Martio ſuperioris anni, n. 145.

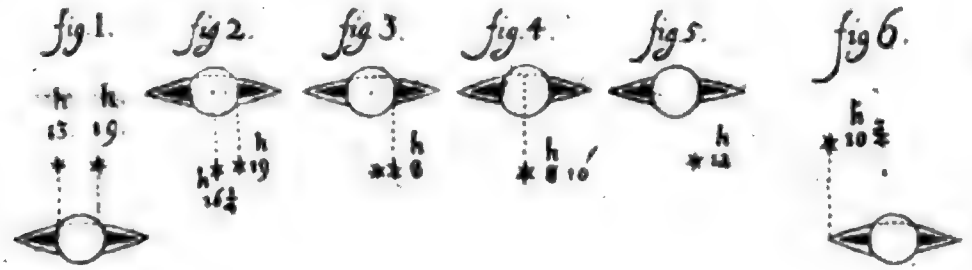
Domine.

MItto Tibi aſtronomicam relationem de remotiſſimo omnium Planetarum noſtri Vorticis, qui minimi eſt inter ipſo[illegible]nomenti. Satellitem Saturni intelligo, anno 1655. detectum a Dn. Chriſtiano Hugenio de Zulichem, qui in accurato Tractatu ſui Syſtematis Saturnii a pagina 25 ad 34 Theoriam motus ipſius nobis exhibet, qualem per brevia temporum ſpatia, quæ inter obſervationes interceſſerunt, colligere licuit. Poſt eum nemo, quod ſciam, Theoriam illam corrigere, aut perfectiorem reddere laboravit.

Ultimæ conjunctiones Jovis & Saturni cum mihi occaſionem utrumque Planetam frequentius per Teleſcopium, quod 24 pedes longum

longum,& pro ea longitudine ſatis bonum poſſideo, conſiderandi ſuppeditaſſent, haut difficulter Saturni Comitem etiam obſervavi,inventoque ipſo in ſtatu ſat conveniente ad determinandum ejus locum, animadverti numeros Hugenii parum accuratos eſſe, & intra viginti annos quindecim fere gradibus juſto majores. Id me movit, ut diligentius in ejus periodum inquirere conſtituerim, quod nunc faciam, poſtquam ſufficientem numerum obſervationum collegi, e quibus ſequentes ſunt inſigniores.



A. 1682, Novembr. 13, H. 13. 00′ p. m. Satelles ad latus Saturni ſeptentrionale erat, & perpendiculum ab ipſo ad transverſum diametrum annuli (Saturnii) demiſſum in medium ſpatii tenebricoſi anſularum incidebat. Eadem nocte H. 19. 00′ finita conjunctione, perpendiculum exacte occidentalem globi Saturnii partem contingebat, uti oſtendit figura 1. Septentrionalis latitudo & motus retrogradus, probabant Satellitem eſſe in Perigæo.

Viciſſim Novembris die 21, H. 16. 15′ Satelles ad latus meridionale Saturni apparebat, perpendicularis ad lineam anſularum ducta, in medium ſpatii obſcuri anſæ occidentalis cadebat, ſed eadem nocte H. 19 00′. in centrum Saturni exacte ferebatur; Diſtantia minor erat diametro annuli (figura 2), & inde conſtabat ſatellitem eſſe in Apogæo.

Iterum in Apogæo eum obſervabam 24. die Januarii 1683, H. 8-00′ p. m. Perpendiculum ad anſas demiſſum partem Saturni occidentalem contingebat; hora vero nona 30′ p. m. idem perpendiculum intra globum cadebat proxime ad centrum. Diſtantia a linea anſarum verſus meridiem æquabat fere diametrum annuli, (figura 3)

Tandem

Tandem Februarii die 9, 1683, H. 8. 10′ p. m. denuo erat Satelles in Apogæo, nec poteram ullo modo diſcernere, ad quam potiſſimum plagam inclinaret, nec utrum transverſa diameter annuli, an diſtantia Satellitis major eſſet, (Figura 4) ut hinc ipſum hoc tempore δοτυγαιότατον fuiſſe colligam.

Duas obſervationes Dn. Hugenii, quas cum meis comparem, reliquis accuratiores ſeligo. Earum prima facta fuit Hagæ Comitis anno 1659 die 14 Mart. ſt. n. H. 12. 00′ quo tempore Satelles infra Saturnum diſtantia unius diametri annuli conſtitit. Proceſſerat vero tunc verſus occidentem adeo, ut concluderet Hugenius, 4 fere horis ante, quod eſt H. 7. 40′ Londini, fuiſſe Satellitem in Perigæo. (Fig. 5.)

Rurſus 22 Martii 1659, H. 10. 45′ Satelles integra diametro diſtabat a linea anſarum, & perpendicularis ad eam ducta fere extremitati anſarum orientalium inſiſtebat. (Fig. 6)

Optarem equidem eſſe nobis intermedias quasdam obſervationes, ſed quoniam nullas extare novi, ideoque ad inquirendam periodum progredior. Ex obſervatione mea prima conſtat, Satellitem in Perigæo fuiſſe 1682 Novembr. 13. H. 17. 00′ circiter, quo tempore Saturnus Sign. 3. 21.° 39′ a prima ſtella arietis in Ecliptica aberat, ſed Terra ad Æquatorem Saturni reducta, & Satelles diſtabant Sign. 9. 23°. 46′ a pr. * ♈. Die 4. Martii 1659 H. 7. 40′ Saturni locus in Ecliptica erat Sign. 6. 0°. 41′; Terra autem reducta, & conſequenter Satelles Sign. 11. 28°. 18′ a pr. * ♈. Intervallum temporis eſt 8655 dierum, 9 horarum cum 20′, quo Satelles certum numerum revolutionum ad ſtellas fixas perfecit, & præterea Sign. 9. 25°. 28′ quod eſt 295 gradus cum 28 minutis, cujus complementum ad Circulum 64°. 32′ dat duos dies, H. 20. 36′ motus Satellitis, juxta mentem Hugenii. Ut adeo 8658 dies, H. 5. 56′, ſive 12467876 minuta conſtituant tempus numeri cujusdam integrarum Revolutionum. Jam ſi dividatur hoc intervallum per 15 dies, 22 horas, 39 minuta, ſive per 22959 minuta, (quæ eſt Hugenii periodus,) quotiens 543 patefacit numerum Revolutionum; atque iterum dividendo illa 12467876 minuta per 543, verum tempus motus Satellitis elicitur eſſe 22961 $\frac{1}{10}$ minutorum, ſive 15 dierum, H. 22. 41′. 6″. Hinc motus diurnus 22° 34′ 38″. 18‴ erit, & annuus præter 22 Revolutiones, Sign. 10. 20°. 43′. Confectis pro hac periodo tabulis inveni quod in obſerva-ſervatione Apogæi ab Hugenio facta, Satelles tribus gradibus fuerit celerior, quam erat juxta meum calculum, & quod in tribus meis obſervationibus reliquis, in quibus ſimiliter in ſuperiori parte videbatur, fere 2 gradibus cum dimidio tardius proceſſerit, quam ſecundum calculum Hugenii. Jam vero clarum eſt, has differentias oriri ab aliqua Eccentricitate orbis, qui ſatellitem circumfert, & Apocronion, (ut ita dicere liceat,) menſe Martio 1659 in orientali ſemicirculo fuiſſe, menſe vero Novembri 1682 in occidentali. Supponendo autem Apocronion fixum, oportet illud eſſe intra Sign. 9. 23°. 46′, & Sign. 11. 28°. 18′ a prim. * ♈, quoniam iſta eſt pars communis inter duos ſemicirculos. Et quoniam differentia in obſervatione Hugenii major eſt, quam in mea, hinc colligo, lineam Apſidum ſive Apocronion propius abeſſe a Sign. 9. 23°. 46′, quam a Sign. 11. 28°. 18′. Quapropter aſſumam Sign. 10. 22°. 00′ a prima * ♈ (qui etiam locus eſt Saturni Æquinoctialis) & maximam æquationem ſtatuam $2\frac{1}{2}$ graduum. Ratione hujus inæqualitatis medius Satellitis motus invenietur fere 2°. 45′ tardior in $23\frac{1}{2}$ annis, ſive quovis anno 7. min. unde annuum motum definio Sign. 10. 20°. 36′ ultra 22 Revolutiones, & Epocham correctam pro meridie ultimæ diei Decembris 1682 ad meridianum Londinenſem, Sign. 9. 10°. 15′ a prima * ♈. E quibus Elementis Tabulam confeci ſequente pagina exhibendam.

Lineam Apſidum ſuppono fixam; neque enim ſuppetunt argumenta ex obſervationibus pro contraria parte: quamvis probabile ſit, ſicuti Apogæon Lunæ circa terram movetur ſingulis fere novem annis, ita Satellitis Apocronium ferri circa Saturnum, ſed periodo longe majori, quam poterunt futuræ obſervationes definire.

Diſtantia Satellitis a centro Saturni videtur quatuor diametrorum annuli, vel novem globi ſive diſci eſſe. Planum, in quo movetur, parum vel nihil a plano annuli differt, h. e. orbem Saturni Sign. 4. 22° & Sign. 10. 22° a prima * ♈ interſecat angulo 23 graduum & dimidii, ita ut proxime ſit parallelum Æquatori Terræ. Quapropter latitudo ſemicirculi Apogæi, a Signo 4. 22° ad Signum 10. 22° longitudinis Saturni, erit ſeptentrionalis, reliqui ſemicirculi auſtralis: & contra in altero dimidio longitudinis Saturni, videlicet a Signo 10. 22° ad ſignum 4. 22° ejus diſtantiæ a prima * ♈. Sequitur, ut ope harum Tabularum doceamus invenire locum Satellitis ad quodvis tempus datum.

Initio habenda eſt vera longitudo Saturni a Terra, & numerata a prima * ♈ (vel potius locus Terræ e Saturno viſæ, una cum eius latitudine ab orbe Saturni, quam tamen, utpote nunquam ad $\frac{1}{3}$ gradus adſcendentem negligimus;) inde ſubtrahi debent Sign. 10. 22°, & remanebit diſtantia Saturni a puncto æquinoctiali; cum hac diſtantia, tanquam cum longitudine Solis, accipiatur Recta adſcenſio reſpondens, & declinatio, ($23\frac{1}{2}$ gradus dant obliquitatem utrique communem,) rectæque adſcenſioni addantur Sign. 10. 22°, unde ſumma prodibit, quæ patefaciet Longitudinem Apogæi Satellitis. Tum dicito: Ut radius ad ſinum declinationis, ſic 8 ad maximam latitudinem in Apogæo aut Perigæo, in partibus ſemidiametri ipſius annuli.

Poſtea collige medium motum Satellitis, & ab eo ſubtrahe Sign. 10. 22°, quod remanet, eſt anomalia media, cui in tabb. primariæ æquationis Lunæ quære æquationem reſpondentem; ejus dimidium additum vel demtum medio motui, pro tabularum titulo, dat verum motum Satellitis, a quo ſubtrahendum eſt Apogæon, & ſi quod remanet ſex ſigna excedit, Satelles erit occidentalis; ſin reſiduum ad ſex ſigna non adſcendit, Satelles erit orientalis. Atque ut Radius ad ſinum reſidui, ſic 8 ad ſemidiametrum annuli, vel 18 ad ſemidiametrum globi; ita ut ſatelles ſit verſus orientem vel occidentem reſpectu centri Saturni, juxta præcepta, quæ antea dedimus. Tandem ut Radius ad ſinum complementi reſidui, ſic maxima latitudo a linea anſarum ad latitudinem quæſitam. Nota hic, me ſtudio neglexiſſe inæqualitatem diſtantiæ, quæ ab Eccentricitate provenit, quoniam ipſa adeo eſt exigua, ut nullo modo poſſit obſervari.

Ad tollendas denique omnes difficultates, quæ illis, qui parum in hac numerandi ratione ſe exercuerunt, ſuboriri poſſunt, duo exempla ſubjicio, ut præcepta mea, ſi cubi obſcura ſunt, illuſtrentur.

Anno 1657, Maji d. 19 ſt. n. Hugenius obſervavit Satellitem Saturno proximum ad latus occidentale, & parum a linea anſarum diſtantem; credo id fuiſſe hora 10. p. m. Anno 1658 Mart. 11, H. 10 ſt. n. iterum obſervavit eundem Satellitem, ac de ipſo ita ſcripſit: difficile conſpiciebatur, quippe propinquus admodum Saturno, Orientem ſpectabat, eratque Anſarum linea aliquanto inferior & ſub Saturno quaſi tranſiturus. Jam hæc duo tempora modo præſcripto calculemus.

hinc provenit $1\frac{77}{100}$ ſemid. ann. ad ortum, & $1\frac{38}{100}$ ad auſtrum ſive infra.

Per omnia exacte cum deſcriptione & figura Dn. Hugenii convenit.

Voco hic planum orbis Satellitis, quod hactenus habeo pro eodem cum plano annuli, Saturni Æquinoctialem. Non quod ulla obſervatio probare potuerit, axem hujus globi ad rectos angulos ipſi eſſe, ſed quia viſum fuit Dn. Hugenio ipſum ita appellare, & ſimiliter, quoniam proxime parallelum eſt noſtri globi æquinoctiali. Interim ut quod ſentio dicam, credo, axem eſſe haud parum inclinatum ad planum annuli. Nam ſicuti Reflexio luminis Solaris ab annulo plurimum juvat illud Hemiſphærium Saturni, quod illuminatam ejus partem reſpicit; ſic alteri Hemiſphærio maxime officit umbra annuli; atque id per aliquot menſes; imo in nonnullis parallelis per aliquot annos continuam noctem per interceptionem radiorum Solarium efficit, quæ eſt conſequentia demonſtrative deducta a poſitu annuli in plano æquatoris Saturni. Jam hoc incommodum aliqua ratione tolletur per obliquam poſitionem axis. Sic enim dum Paralleli Latitudinis interſecant annuli planum, multi ex ipſis, & non raro omnes, per aliquod tempus in quavis revolutione diurna globi ab hac eclipſi ſe defendent, quæ alias poſſet Saturni globum inhabitabilem reddere. Hanc interim meram conjecturam eſſe lubenter agnoſco.

Reliquos duos Saturni Satellites, detectos a Dn. Caſſini Pariſiis An. 1672 & 1673, fateor me hactenus non potuiſſe obſervare. Intellexi ipſos evaneſcere per ¾ revolutionis Saturni, & tunc ſolum videri, quum anſæ ſunt exiguæ, quoniam ſupponitur lumen ab anſis veniens, ſi fuerit clarius, hos ſatellites poſſe abſcondere. Anno 1685, quando anſæ prorſus evaneſcent, commodum tempus erit, eos inquirendi, ut ita ipſorum motus regulis includantur, & ſciatur, ubi inveniri poſſint, cujus notitiæ defectu impræſentiarum fortaſſe inveſtigari nequeunt.

liber eſt, ut dignus Anglis pariter ac Germanis viſus fuerit, quem e Gallico idiomate in linguas vernaculas traducerent. Aſt editiones priores tertia, quam hic damus, multum antecellit, utpote novo multarum rerum memorabilium auctario locupletata ac exornata. Etenim ne obſervationes plurimas egregias hinc inde interſperſas, quæ in antegreſſis editionibus non leguntur, attingamus, neque tribus capitibus integris, quæ crurum puerperarum inflationem, paſſionem hyſtericam, & fluorem muliebrem explicant, ac libro tertio nunc inſerta ſunt, recenſendis immoremur: unicum nobis ſufficiat indigitaſſe inſtrumentum, quod a ſe pro fœtu mortuo, cujus caput in vagina uteri hæret, educendo inventum, ac Tire-teſte, quaſi capitis-traham, ſeu inſtrumentum protrahendo capiti inſerviens appellatum, noviſſime Auctor cap. 32, l. 2. delineavit, rationibus additis haud levibus, cur illud uncis, qui alias his in anguſtiis ordinarie adhiberi ſolent, præferri mereatur. Nos operæ viſi nobis ſumus facturi pretium, ſi auctoris verba, quibus modum inſtrumentum illud applicandi, figurasque adjectas declarat, Latine reddita, benevoli lectoris conſpectui ſiſteremus.

B Corpus inſtrumenti ſine cannula ſua (lit. D) & vertebra (lit. F) in cujus extremitate lamina eſt figuræ orbicularis, eademque, ut tanto facilius capiti infantis mortui intromitti poſſit, mobilis. Ab utroque etiam illius lamellæ latere parva quædam eminentia eſt, in morem adamantis acuminata; quarum una reſpondere debet exiguæ cuidam cavitati, in plana inſtrumenti parte expreſſæ, ut in ipſa excipi poſſit, quoties lamella mobilis demiſſa planæ ſuperficiei imponitur, ſeu planæ iſti parti parallelo ſitu incumbit.

C adhuc ſiſtit idem corpus ejusdem hujus inſtrumenti, cujus lamina ſita eſt eo, quo decet, modo, dum in caput infantis introducitur, quo facto poſtmodum hæc lamina priſtino ſitui reſtitui debet, prout in figura præcedenti per literam B notata exhibita fuit.

D Cannula, in quam immitti truncus inſtrumenti debet, usque dum lamina, quæ ad extremitatem cannulæ hujus eſt, proxima ſit alteri, quæ extremitati inſtrumenti inſiſtit, ut hoc pacto exacte capillata cutis & oſſa cranii, quæ inter utramque laminam interjacent, prout e figura (lit. I.) apparet, comprimantur. Hæc cannula fiſſuram aliquam prope laminam obtinet eo fine factam, ut in ipſa recipiatur plana inſtrumenti pars, & parvam alam ab utroque latere alterius extremitatis oppoſitæ, ut hac ratione firma permaneat, nec movere ſe poſſit, dum vertebra inſtrumenti clauditur, quæ litera F notata eſt.

E Eadem cannula alio modo viſui ſe offerens, ut duas parvulas cavitates oſtendat, quæ in lamella ſunt, ad latera majoris foraminis. Eæ ſerviunt recipiendis duabus eminentiis ad adamantis modum acuminatis, quæ in lamella corporis inſtrumenti ſunt, notati litera B. Hæ exiguæ eminentiæ hunc habent uſum, ut, dum oſſibus capitis infiguntur, lamina inſtrumenti magis firmetur, caveaturque, ne, quod ipſa prehendit, rurſus elabatur.

F Vertebra, cui immitti cochlea inſtrumenti debet, ut cannula per hanc vertebram compreſſa, duæ lamellæ ſibi invicem arctiſſime committantur.

G Cultellus ab uno ſolum latere acutus, idoneus aperiendo capiti mortui infantis, quo intromittatur inſtrumentum.

H Caput infantis, ubi facta eſt inciſio ſecundum longitudinem inter duo oſſa parietalia, eo modo, quo inſtitui debet, ut inſtrumentum introduci poſſit, cujus duæ laminæ omnem illam capitis partem prehendent, quæ linea circulari, quam notatam videre licet, comprehenditur.

I Inſtrumentum cum omnibus ſuis partibus infantis capiti adhærentibus, ut ipſe ex utero extrahi poſſit, fortiter manibus comprimendo inſtrumentum in vertebræ manubrio, quo tanto firmius teneatur.

Ephemerides Gallicæ exhibent, ſuccincte expoſuit, nactus occaſionem ex antiquis aliquot nummis, quos Bibliotheca Genovefæ Pariſienſis aſſervat. Orditur ab Ebræorum ſententia, qui ſcripturam ac literarum elementa mundo coæva faciunt, eaque ſepoſita, Ioſephi autoritatem ſufficere pronunciat, quæ inducere nos poſſit, ut credamus, literas ante diluvium extitiſſe. Poſtea oſtendit, quomodo hæ ad Chaldæos & Iſraelitas propagatæ, ac ab ipſis, quum duriſſimam ſervitutem in Ægypto ſervirent, Græcis traditæ, & denique per Janum e Græcia ad Latinorum vel Aboriginum gentem delatæ fuerint. Cumque Saturnus regno a Jove filio pulſus in urbem a Jano ædificatam ſe recepiſſet, ac populum cum aliis multis monetæ cudendæ rationem docuiſſet, factum ſcribit, ut Jani Saturnique junctos vultus æri incidi curarint, quales num. I. exhibentur in nummo, quem Molinettus ejus ætatis eſſe credit. Ubi literæ in altera facie expreſſæ ad Græcas plurimum accedunt, inprimis Δ & Λ; legendum enim Odicela. Evaneſcente poſtmodum pecuniæ ſignatæ uſu, æs grave usque ad Servium Tullum invaluiſſe ſcribit, quem putat iterum Jani Saturnique capita metallis impreſſiſſe, in altera vero nummorum facie proram navigii notaſſe, vel bovem aut aliud quodvis animal, unde pecuniæ nomen venerit, conf. n. 2. Alium nummum exhibet n. 3, circa annum 485 ab U.C. conſule Fabio Pictore ſignatum, qui literas ſatis belle formatas oſtendit EX.A.PV. quod eſt, Ex argento publico. Ab illo tempore usque ad Auguſti imperium, contendentibus ad ſummam perfectionem omnium artium ſtudiis, data imprimis opera fuit, ut moneta elegantiſime cuderetur, quod nummi hujus Imperatoris effigiem gerentes probant, e quibus metallinum aliquem Molinettus n. 4 excudi curavit, ubi leguntur hæc verba literis juſtiſſima proportione efformatis, DIVUS AUGUSTUS. Sicuti autem vix ſeculum inde effluxit, quin bonæ artes ab illo, quod attigerant, culmine rurſus paulatim declinarint; ita n. 5. in nummo Alexandri Severi, literæ de priſtino nitore jam haud parum perdidiſſe, plus æquo graciles & coarctatæ obſervantur. In ſequentibus annis Maximi ac Diocletiani, Juſtini itidem ac Juſtiniani nummi literis penitus depravatis ſignati ſunt, donec ſub Conſtantino Græci, ſub Honorio Gothi ſua elementa Romanis miſcentes plenam barbariem induxerunt. Quam quidem literarum corruptionem Molinettus in ipſas quoque Gallias penetraſſe argumento mento cujusdam Psalterii & lapidis sepulcralis probat. Licet vero sub auspicato Caroli M. imperio reviviscere nitide scribendi studium cœperit, (quod MStus codex Evangeliorum, quem bibliotheca Genovefæ habet, testatur,) Normannorum tamen crebræ in Galliam excursiones illa halcyonia parum diuturna esse permiserunt. Nec ante inventam Typographicam artem literæ squalorem ac sordes, quas multorum seculorum cursu contraxerant, deposuerunt. Hanc Molinettus inventam Moguntiæ a Guttembergio memorat, ac e præfatione Epistolarum Hieronymi, Romæ anno 1467 impressarum, nonnulla adducit, unde constet, non Hollandiam, sed Germaniam utilissimæ arti originem dedisse. Verba ita habent: Hoc est, quod semper gloriosa illa ac cœlo digna anima Nicolai Cusensis Cardinalis peroptabat, ut hæc sancta ars, quæ oriri tunc videbatur in Germania, Romam deduceretur. Cæterum habuere sub initium & ipsi typi characteres quosdam Gothicos Romanis permixtos, successu temporis vero adhibita cura emendati ac paulatim illi, quo nunc fulgent, nitori restituti sunt. Nam quum in Italia cœpissent artes pictoria, sculptoria, ac statuaria excoli, benignior quoque fortuna scripturam ac literas respexit. In cujus rei fidem allegatur a Molinetto nummus Alphonsi Regis Siculi, anno 1440 elegantissimis notis signatus.

GRAMMATICA GRÆCA HARMONICA GOLIO-VVELLERIANA, cum atq; studio M. Joh. Friderici Kœberi, in illustri Rutheneo Rectoris.

Lipsiæ apud Joh. Frid. Gleditschium 1684. in 8.

CUm inter libellos Grammaticos Græcæ linguæ studio inservientes, non ultimo in scholis loco a multis censeatur Theophili Golii Grammatica, in diversis locis subinde cum novis additamentis impressa; non operam se lusurum existimavit Cl. Joh. Frid. Kœberus, vir de juventute scholastica & bonis litteris præclare meritus, si ubi illa deficit, aut etiam a norma bonæ methodi nonnihil recedit, suppleret atque meliori ordine digereret. Ideo enim hinc inde ex optimis Grammaticis, quos indicat in notis, eandem auxit; Syntaxin ex Postelio, Glasio & aliis locupletavit; Prosodiam paucis Langianis retentis ad regulas & observationes Crusio-Cellarianas non ineruditas emendavit; quæ non satis accurata videbantur, rescidit; ex iis, quæ de Dialectis ab Amerotio tradebantur, suo quidvis loco, in consilium quoq; adhibito libello Erasmi Schmidii, reposuit; inprimis autem cum Welleriana Grammatica conciliavit, & quid vel pugnent vel conspirent invicem, annotavit. In appendice doctrinam de dialectis in genere, de figuris Grammaticis, & quod ab aliis omissum erat, de compositione dictionum Græcarum, luculenter tractavit; adeo ut nihil, quod ad notitiam in lingua Græca Grammaticam facere potest, videatur prætermissum esse.

Calendis Maji, Anno M DC LXXXIV.

IMPERATORUM ROMANORUM NUMISMATA a Pompejo Magno ad Heraclium, ab Adolpho Occone olim congeſta, nunc Auguſtorum Iconibus, perpetuis Hiſtorico-Chronologicis notis, pluribusque additamentis illuſtrata & aucta ſtudio & cura Franciſci Mediobarbi Biragi, S. R. I. Comitis & Regiæ Civitatis Papiæ Decurionis.

Mediolani apud Ludovicum Montiam, 1683. in fol.

QUantum in rem literariam utilitatis ex antiquis redundet numiſmatis, nos alibi ex Duumviris celeberrimis, & rei nummariæ conſultiſſimis Carolo Patino & Ezechiele Spanhemio jam indicavimus. Nihil itaque hic præfati, ne crambem jam coctam apponere velle videamur, Adolphi ſtatim Occonis mentionem facimus. Is enim inter eos, qui de re nummaria paulo copioſius ſunt commentati, præclarum ſibi nomen jam dudum comparavit, congeſtis Imperatorum Romanorum a Pompejo Magno ad Heraclium usque numiſmatis, iisque in lucem editis. Quanquam autem liber hic ejus cæteris gemini argumenti operibus longe uberior ſit ac priſca eruditione refertior, plurima tamen ſuppleri in eo poſſe Scriptores poſt eum rei nummariæ alii, Gorleus puta, Hulſius, Triſtanus, Hugellonus, Patinus, Vaillantius, Seguinus, Sponius, Aſcanius, Hemellarius, Oiſelius, Bellorius, Paruta, Auguſtinus, Spanhemius, aliique plures ſat abunde oſtenderunt. Supplementum itaque Occonis laudati aggreſſus eſt Biragus illuſtriſſimus, utque tanto præclarius de ſtudio Hiſtorico ac bonis literis mereretur, non additamentis tantum pluribus, tum ex Autoribus Occonem ſubſecutis, tum ex amicorum ſcriptis ac ſcriniis, ſed & notis perpetuis Chronologico-hiſtoricis id libri illuſtravit, virorum celeberrimorum, Abbatis Raphaelis Fabretti, & Francisci Camelli, cum Romæ anno 1679 mense Aprili degeret, celeusmatis multum instigatus. Videns autem Vir summus, susceptum a se opus in immanem admodum molem excrescere, in duas illud partes dispertiendum sibi esse censuit, quorum prima Latina Numismata cum Fastis Imperialibus, altera Græca & Coloniarum, cumque illis Geographiam antiquam (nam pauca illorum annos Imperii designant) exhiberet. Neque enim deesse poterant, quæ alteram etiam partem completam non minus, quam primam deinceps redderent, cum & Johannes Vaillantius, & Carolus Patinus Coloniarum & Græca numismata, quorum uterque ditissimam habet penum, emissuros sese in publicum receperint. Posteaquam vero a Magno hodie Hetruriæ Duce COSMO III, incomparabili Literatorum Mæcenate, Coloniarum nummos ex Hispania missos, & per clarissimum P. Noris descriptos accepisset, eosdem Latinis statim in prima hac parte subtexuit, ut vel sic, quem ordinem in digerendis Græcis servaturus sit, lectorem edoceret; & ne vultus forte Imperatorum ac Tyrannorum desiderarentur, etiam illos a Simone Durello satis accurate sculptos ubique veluti præfloravit. Cæterum cum in Chronologicis ac Fastis Imperialibus a Panvinii, Golzii, Baronii, aliorumque placitis sæpenumero recesserit Mediobarbus illustrissimus, se Fastos ad Nummorum, non Nummos ad Fastorum fidem accommodasse in præfatione innuit, seque opere inposterum peculiari Fastos antiquos omnes Nummorum atque Inscriptionum beneficio, ut & R. P. Noris opitulatu se restituturum spondet. Quod primam hanc partem attinet, quæ Latina repræsentat Numismata, augmenta ubique stellulis adnotantur, auctorum etiam nomina apponuntur, singulisque annis character aliquis historicus subjicitur; & quia libro inter Typographorum manus sudante plura abs amicis Autor acceperat, etiam Catalogus addendorum ab eo, ne quid cimeliorum id genus memoria forte excideret, subjungitur. Nec deesse Indices necessarios huic operi is voluit. Primo autem loco ei postponitur partium Nummorum adversarum, quibus Magistratus describuntur, Index ordine alphabetico dispositus. Hunc excipit Index Familiarum & Virorum illustrium in adversis nummorum partibus occurrentium; succedit illi Index Coloniarum ac Municipiorum, & extremum tandem locum claudit Index tum Auctorum, tum Museorum eruditorum, illustriumque

amicorum, qui ſubſidiariam ipſi ad Oeconem ſupplendum navarunt operam. Operi ipſi præmittitur Index corrigendorum a R. P. Noris confectus, ut in limine is ſtatim lecturientium oculis ſeſe offerat. De cætero, cum Autor non Græcorum tantum Numiſmatum volumen concinnare, ſed & hoc Latinorum ac Coloniarum augere apud animum conſtituerit, in præfatione erratorum veniam deprecatus, Lectorem eruditum quemque rogat, ut, ſi quid Nummorum vel Græcorum vel Latinorum hoc opere non deſcriptorum habeat, transmittere ad ſe ne intermittat, auctarii id nomine cum Græcorum Numiſmatum volumine ſe editurum conſpondens.

LA PROSPETTIVA PRATTICA DI BERNARDO CONTINO.

hoc eſt:

Perſpectiva Practica Bernhardi Contini. Venetiis apud Jacobum Herz, 1684. fol.

Affirmat Autor, hanc ſibi præfixam eſſe metam, ut jucundiſſimæ artis principia, quanta poſſit, perſpicuitate tradat, & illas difficultates auferat, quæ plurimorum animos ab ipſius cultura avertunt. Hinc miſſis, quæ ſolent a contemplantibus prolixe diſputari, illico ad opus manuducit, facilique methodo, qua ratione quæcunque problemata promte ſolvi poſſint, oſtendit. Capite primo poſt expoſitam Practicæ Perſpectivæ deſmitionem, in quarumvis rerum repræſentatione tria neceſſario concurrere obſervat, (locum, e quo quid conſpiciatur, ſive ſitum oculi, diſtantiam quæ inter oculum & rem viſam ſit, ac tertio altitudinem,) quæ ſi bene cognita ſint, neminem aberrare a tramite patiantur. Monet etiam duos a Mathematicis modos proponi, quibus quodcunque planum tranſcribi in tabulam poſſit; alterum per linearum interſectionem, alterum per quadratum: ac ita utrumque a ſe exhibitum iri promittit, ut illius modi perſpicuitas, cum hujus veritate ac rectitudine jungatur. Exinde ergo eo ordine, quo Scriptores communiter Perſpectivam tradunt, initio plana cum rectilinea, tum curvilinea repræſentare docet, ad caput usque duodecimum, quo oſtendit rationem, absque diſtantiæ puncto, quod alias dirigere linearum ductus debet, plana depingendi.

Capitibus ſequentibus de corporum quorundam regularium projectione agit. A vigeſimo uſque ad finem regulas ſuppeditat, quarum beneficio poſſit aliquis facillime porticus, puteos, ſcalas cochleares & quæ ſimilia ſunt, delineare.

THEODORI JANSSONII ab ALME'LOVEEN, M.D. de vitis STEPHANORUM, celebrium Typographorum, diſſertatio epiſtolica ad Virum Cl. Joh. Georgium Grævium.

Amſtelodami apud Janſſonio-Waasbergios 1683 in 8.

QUanquam ex eo tempore, quo Caſſiterographia ſeu ars libros typis exſcribendi adinventa a Germanis fuit, Typographorum larga hinc inde ſeges ſuppullulavit, facile tamen numerari præter cæteros poſſunt, qui emendatiores ac nitidiores editiones procurarunt. Ex hiſce longe celebratiſſimi ſunt tres Manutii, Aldus, Paulus, & Aldus Pauli filius, ut & Daniel Bombergius, Typographi Veneti; Jodocus Badius Aſcenſius, Adrianus Turnebus, Mamertus Patiſſonius, Fredericus & Claudius Morelli, Michael Vaſcoſanus, Chriſtianus Wechelius, Pariſienſes Typographi; Joh. Oporinus, Johannes Frobenius, & Joh. Amorbachius Baſileenſes; Sebaſtianus & Antonius Gryphii, nec non Stephanus Doletus (qui 3 Auguſti anno 1545 combuſtus eſt) Lugdunenſes; Arnoldus Mylius, Godefridus Hittorpius, & Garvvinus Calenius, Colonienſes; Chriſtophorus Plantinus & duo Moreti, Johannes & Balthaſar, Antvverpienſes; Hubertus Golzius, Brugenſis; Franciſcus Raphelengius, Lugduno Batavus &c.

Sed palmam & στέφανον famæ ἀμάραντον his omnibus facile præripiunt STEPHANI, Pariſienſes partim, partim Genevenſes Typographi; quippe qui copia & præſtantia librorum typis ſuis exſcriptorū cæteros, quos diximus, omnes longiſſimo poſt ſe intervallo reliquerunt. Horum ſtemma cum ob infinita in rem literariam merita peculiari libro explicari, dignisque laudum elogiis ad ſeram uſquè poſteritatē transmitti mereatur, impetrare ab ſe non potuit Φιλοστέφανος Theodorus Janſſonius ab Almeloveen, M.D. isque Johannis Janſſonii, Typographi Amſtelodamenſis filius, & Joh. Janſſonii, quem Rex Sueciæ ſuum Typographum eſſe juſſerat, nepos, quin Stephanorum genealogiam a capite capite uſque arceſſeret, vitas illorum, quantum pote, percenſeret, & quot quibusque ſcriptis in lucem editis literarium ſibi orbem devinxerint, exponeret; præſertim cum ne inter Gallos quidem, quibus innatum alioquin ſuis nobilibus ac doctis gloriari, extiterit hucusque quisquam, qui ſtemma illorum ab origine prima ad ultimum uſque ſurculum deduxerit. Expoſuit autem Vitas Stephanorum per modum Epiſtolæ ad virum celeberrimum, Joh. Georgium Grævium, Profeſſorem Ultrajectinum, & ſuum antehac præceptorem perſcriptæ, & multa hinc inde ſcitu oppido quam jucunda interſperſit.

Autorem conditoremque Stephanorum facit Henricum, Roberti Stephani patrem, qui Pariſiis e regione ſchole decretorum habitavit, & anno 1507 Hiſtoriam Aſiæ & Europæ a Papa Pio II. conſcriptam, ut & quintuplex Pſalterium latinum Jacobi Fabri Stapulenſis, & anno 1514 Dioſcoridem typis publicis exſcripſit, viduamque reliquit, Simoni Colinæo, qui & ipſe in calce Elucidatorii Eccleſiaſtici Clichtoveani ſucceſſorem Henrici Stephani ſe vocat, multosque in eadem domo e regione Scholæ Decretorum libros impreſſit, poſt deinceps nuptam; nec non tres filios, Robertum, Franciſcum, & Carolum, eosque & ipſos Typographos. Ex his Franciſcus cum vitrico Colinæo libris imprimendis dedit operam, & Carolus, uti doctiſſimus diligentiſſimusque fuit Typographus, ita Theſaurum Ciceronianum operaque alia non pauca a Janſonio p. 23 & ſeqq. recitata ſcripſit atque edidit, filiamque reliquit Nicolainam Johanni Libaut Medicinæ Doctori maritatam. Robertus autem Typographeo vitrici ſui Colinæi aliquantiſper, uti frater Franciſcus, præfuit, ſed poſt annos aliquot officinam extruxit ipſe, & tam aliorum, quam ſuosmet doctiſſimos labores, inter quos Theſaurus Latinæ linguæ longe operoſiſſimus eſt, tam Pariſiis, quam Genevæ, quorſum ob Sorboniſtarum odium, ſummumque vitæ periculum, cum familia ſe contulerat, elegantiſſime atque correctiſſime impreſſit. Gener alias erat Jodoci Badii, valde quoque celebris Typographi, & qui liberorum non minus, quam librorum plurimorum fuit pater. Obiit autem Robertus Genevæ annis LVI expletis VII Idus Septembr. anno 1559. Ex Roberto hoc nati tres alii Stephani, Robertus, Franciſcus, & celeberrimi nominis ille Henricus, ut & Catharina, quæ Latine fuit docta. Robertus hic II Pontificiam religionem amplexus (nam pater cum fratribus reformatæ religioni addicti erant) Typographus Regius factus libros post annum seculi superioris LX cœpit imprimere, reliquitque filium Robertum III, Typographum & ipsum doctissimum, ad quem libri post annum 1588 sub nomine Roberti Stephani exscripti sunt referendi. De Francisco nihil referre habuit Janssonius, nisi quod Genevæ anno 1582 adhuc libros impresserit. De Henrico autem longe plurima. Et hic quidem (ut potissima saltem decerpamus) jactis sub Petro Danesio & Jacobo Tusano, Lutetiæ Professoribus, solidissimis fundamentis, familiariter usus est Adriano Turnebo Professore pariter ac Typographo regio. (Neque enim indecorum id temporis habebatur, Typographicum juxtim ac Professorium subire munus; quemadmodum & Johannes Oporinus apud Basileenses, & Franciscus Raphelengius apud Lugduno-Batavos, Professores pariter atque Typographi extitere.) Totam deinceps Europam peragravit, & doctos ubique invisit, imo cum principibus quoque ac regibus fuit collocutus. Fuit enim per XV menses in aula Regis Henrici Gallo-Poloni, & Venetiis apud Odettum Selvium Henrici II Gallorum Regis legatum hærens cum Carolo Sigonio, Bessarione, Arlenio, doctissimisque Patritiis, Patavii cum Francisco Robortello, & Dionysio Lambino, Romæ cum Guilielmo Sirleto fuit conversatus. Venaticam etiam per omnes Italiæ Bibliothecas exercuit, per Romanam maxime ac Medicæam, e qua & veterum poetarum in Homerum epitaphia descripsit. Nec publicas tantum, sed privatas etiam Bibliothecas fuit pervagatus, & manuscripta exemplaria, quæ accipere gratis non potuit, labore multo multaque pecunia hinc inde sibi comparavit. Perlustrata Italia in Angliam se contulit, ubi Oxonienſem haut dubie Bibliothecam non reliquit insalutatam, domumque exinde tendens Lovanium direxit iter, ubi amicitiam cum Petro Nannio junxit, & codicem Anthologiæ Græcæ consuluit. Domum reversus libris excudendis aliquot annos impendit in typographeo illustrissimi viri Hulrici Fuggeri. Dein cursum flexit in Germaniam & Austriam. In hoc itinere Francofurti Bonaventuram Vulcanium, Argentorati Philippum Sidneium (quem & alibi convenit) Viennæ Johannem Cratonem a Crafftheim, Joh. Sambucum, doctissimosque alios viros visitavit, cumque ex Austria in Hungariam quoque excurrisset, domum redux factus totum se curis laboribusq; typographicis dedit, omnesque propemodum scriptores veteres venustissimis typis non sine eruditissimis animadversionibus, excusos orbi exhibuit, dumque dumque id egit, literarum commercium cum doctissimis ubique terrarum viris, Joachimo Camerario Carolo Sigonio, Oberto Giphanio, Joh. Leunclavio, Joh. Sambuco, Paulo Melisso aliisque pluribus exercuit. Quod proprios ejus labores attinet, mirificam de se famam admodum juvenis excitavit, cum ex Italia reversus Anacreontem Poetam Græcum anno 1554 primus evulgasset. Nam Græcis Musis se totum consecraverat, ut indifferens ipsi esset, Græcene aliquid an Latine conscriberet. Inter Græca autem opera palmarium est Thesaurus Linguæ Græcæ. Nam uti patruus ejus Carolus Ciceronianum Thesaurum, & pater Thesaurum Latinæ linguæ, ita Henricus Thesaurum Græcæ linguæ eruit, facemque longe illustrissimam in Cimmeriis quasi tenebris accendit; quanquam per hunc ipsum Thesaurum ab infidelissimo famulo Johanne Scapula deinceps compilatum, pauper admodum fuit redditus. Quid præterea librorum scripserit ediderit que, quos item autores vel præfationibus vel notis exornarit, quidque editurum se postidea promiserit, speciatim atque ordine refert Janssonius. Cæterum uti pater Robertus Parisiis cedere post editos in Evangelium secundum Matthæum, Marcum & Lucam Commentarios ex Ecclesiasticis Scriptoribus collectos, metu vivi comburii, coactabatur: ita Henricus quoque, cum Poematium, cujus versus intercalaris est, Cavete vobis Principes, cum Dialogo edidisset, fuga sibi consuluit. flammis alias & ipse ustulandus, si credendum quidem Cornelio Tollio in appendice ad Pierium Valerianum de Infelicitate literatorum. Quæ omnia dum commemorat Janssonius, nec mores indolemque Henrici Stephani dissimulat, quin arroganti, rixoso, moroso ac mordaci eum ingenio fuisse, ex Isaaci Casauboni literis luculenter ostendit. In matrimonium enim filiam Henrici Stephani Florentiam duxerat Casaubonus; qua occasione & universa Casauboni vita hic loci a Janssonio inseritur. Si Tollium jam dictum audias, Henricus Stephanus post varia per Germaniam itinera Lugduni Gallorum in nosocomio publico, si Sammarthanum & alios, ibidem in summa quidem egestate, sed extra nosocomium, anno 1598 fere septuagenarius mortem obiit. Præter Florentiam jam dictam, Dionysiam, aliosque liberos, reliquit celeberrimum & ipsum Typographum Paulum Stephanum. Nam & hic vestigiis paternis insistens nobiliorem orbis terrarum partem pervolitavit, clarissimosque ubique locorum viros, & Lipsium quidem Lugduni Batavorum, tavorum, Heidelbergæ Comelinum, Lugduni Gallorum Tornæſium, Argentorati Ruberium, Londini affinem ſuum Caſaubonum inviſit, nec aliorum duntaxat, ſed & propria deinceps ſcripta eleganter procudit. Habuit filium Antonium, & ipſum Typographum, qui ad paupertatem tandem redactus Pariſiis in noſocomio deceſſit, filiamque reliquit, quæ Pariſiis hoc ipſo adhuc tempore manibus victum amictumque quæritare dicitur. Hæc & alia poſtquam de Stephanis in diſſertatione epiſtolica ſua expoſuit Janſſonius, tum Cl. Grævium, tum Φιλοσε-Φάνες quosque perquam humaniter rogat, ut ſi vel icones Stephanorum (unicam enim Roberti habuit, quam & libello præfixit) vel aliud quid memorabile de Stephanis habeant, communicare ſecum ne intermittant. Addit poſtmodum Antonii Borremanſii, ut & Cornelii à Beughem apud Embricenſes Tribuni plebis & Bibliopolæ per Bibliothecam Iuridicam & Phyſicam aliaque ſcripta jam notiſſimi, (qui & Janſſonio, quæ de Stephanis ſibi conſtabant, liberaliter donavit) ad ſe ſcriptas literas una cum metricis aliorum ob libellum hunc editum gratulationibus. Subjungit etiam Henrici Stephani Querimoniam Artis Typographicæ, de illiteratis quibusdam Typographis, propter quos in contemtum veniat, & epiſtolam ejusdem, qua ad multas multorum Amicorum reſpondet tum de Typographiæ ſuæ ſtatu, tum de ſuo Theſauro Græcæ linguæ. Adjicit tandem & librorum omnium, quos unquam celeberrimæ decem præclariſſimorum Stephanorum officinæ exhibuerunt, Catalogum, eumque a ſeipſo accurate confectum.

Lipſiæ apud Joh. Groſſium, 1684 in 4.

DIu eſt, quod operi huic elaborando manum clariſſimus Auctor admovit. Nam eo jam tempore, cum in Gymnaſio Lubecenſi Philologiæ ſtudiis adoleſcens incumberet, moliri illud cœpit, & partem ejus jam ante hos duodecim annos typis exſcribi curavit, aliis ſuper alia occupationibus, quo minus telam non interrupto ordine pertexeret, impeditus. Quapropter ipſe in Præfatione, quomodo labor hic ſuus cœperit, ut creverit, ſuccreverit, & poſt varia intervalla tandem quid obſervans. Cæterum cum multis in oraculis reſponſa per ſortes fuerint reddita, etiam ſortes Ethnicorum divinatorias, de quibus & in prima diſſertatione multa attulerat, examinat, & fraudes circa hoc quoque Oraculorum genus manifeſtat. Examinat autem 1. κληδομαντείαν ſeu ſortem per talos aut teſſeras, 2. βελομαντείαν ſeu ſortem per ſagittas aut virgas; 3 στιχομαντείαν ac ῥαψωδομαντείαν ſeu ſortem per verſus eosque ex Orpheo, Muſæo, Euripide, ac carminibus Sibyllinis, Homero maxime ac Virgilio, depromtos. Has autem ſtultas Ethnicorum ſuperſtitiones dum perſequitur, etiam illud oſtendit inſimul, eas per multa etiam ſecula obtinuiſſe in populo Chriſtiano, iisque addictos fuiſſe non aliquos tantum hinc inde e fece vulgi, ſed plures ex primariis Chriſtianiſmi Antiſtibus, Iſidorum puta, Gregorium Turonenſem, Petrum Bleſenſem, imo ipſum patrum Latinorum auguſtiſſimum Auguſtinum; ſed merito Sortes illas Sanctorum, ut vocarunt, damnatas eſſe in Conciliis Ancyrano, Laodiceno, Aurelianenſi atque Antiſiodorenſi. Poſtremo illa quoque duo antiquiſſima Reſponſa, quorum alterum Cræſo, alterum Athenienſibus fuit datum, diſcutit, & fraudes illorum quoque luci meridianæ exponit. Pretio enim ſæpius corrupta fuiſſe oracula, ex Herodoto, Athenæo, Plutarcho, atque Æſchine clare condocefacit; atque hinc a magnatibus jam conſulta, jam neglecta æq; ac auguria, fuiſſe, prout ea videlicet rebus ſuis plus minusve inſervire exiſtimaſſent. Documento huic rei ſunt tria nova oracula, ut ita loquamur, Statiſtica, oraculum Hephæſtionis ab Alexandro, oraculum Antinoi ab Hadriano, & oraculum Auguſti a Tiberio vel Auguſto ipſo, uti Autor ex Prudentii loco quodam colligit, inſtitutum. Quo minus autem Sacerdotum circa oracula fraudes plebeculæ ſuperſtitioſæ innotuerint, in cauſa initiationes atque myſteria fuiſſe Autor innuit. Per hæc enim initiati quique obligabantur, nihil quicquam arcanorum illorum propalare, niſi tanquam nefarii atque athei in ſummum vitæ periculum ſeſe ipſos velint perducere. Initiati autem non ſacerdotes tantum, ſed & populi circumjacentes, ne & hi aliquid myſteriorum horum eliminarent. Quanquam ne iſtæ quidem artes prohibere tandem potuerunt, quominus omnis oraculorum Ethnicorum autoritas corrueret. Neque paucæ hujus rei allegari poſſunt cauſæ. Septem affert autor, & 1 mendacia eorum frequentia, ac nullos, ut contrarios plane prædictis eventus; 2. corruptos pecunia Antistites, eorumque imposturas ac scelera, postinde manifestata; 3. fraudes ac fallacias artesque per antra, machinas & cætera præstigiarum instrumenta perpetrata, tandemque a consultoribus aliisve detecta; 4. adulteria quandoque & ejusmodi plura horrenda crimina sub prætextu Religionis a Prophetis Antistitibusque commissa; 5. Philosophos, Peripateticos maxime, Cynicos & Epicureos, qui impostores hosce summo studio pudefaciebant; 6. Christianos, eorumque religionem quocunque terrarum se diffundentem, & 7. jocularia ac ridicula responsa per Prophetas subinde consultoribus data. De cætero ut in prima dissertatione multa interspersérat Autor, directe atque indirecte ad scopum suum facientia, ita huic quoque alteri non pauca infibulavit quasi poetarum more episodia, v.gr. de Deo Socratis, & sapientia ejus falso ab oraculo Delphico celebrata, de muliere in Endor, quam & ipsam impostura usam ad decipiendum Saulem fuisse existimat, de sacris veterum Christianorum subterraneis, de perversis veterum monachorum moribus, de libris Sibyllinis &c. cumque in utraque dissertatione consecrationum Ethnicarum plus simplici vice facta fuerit mentio, Schediasma de Consecrationibus Ararum, Statuarum, Templorum, Terminorum aliorumque Diis dedicatorum annexuit.

Hanc suam Commentationem in officiis suis arduis consti-constitutus, horis subsecivis consulendo optimos Interpretes, inprimis luculentas Annotationes Anti-Grotianas Dn. D. Calovii, ita perfecit, ut nunc justum Commentarium Orbi erudito dederit.

Procœmii loco est exercitatio de Jesu Christo posito in signum cui contradicitur. Contradicentibus per seculorum seriem numeratis additur Hugo Grotius, cujus vita, religio monstrosa, confessio fidei in articulo mortis ambigua narratur.

In Commentario verba S. Johannis juxta textum originalem, & Annotata Grotii integra repetuntur: Sensus genuinus eruitur, probatur, Patrum dictis stabilitur: ψευδερμηνεῖαι Grotianæ omnes, nec non aliorum depravationes rejiciuntur.

Adjunguntur in usum Verbi Divini ministrorum, tum Loci Communes practici, tum Auctores, qui vel commentariis vel meditationibus aut integrum Johanneum Evangelium, aut capita ejus aliquot, aut versus illustrarunt.

Ægyptiaca, & Δεκάφυλον. Sive de Ægyptiacorum Sacrorum cum Hebraicis collatione libri tres, & de decem Tribubus Israelis liber singularis. Accessit diatribe de Legione fulminatrice Christianorum sub Imp. M. A. Antonino.

Amstelodami apud Gerh. Borstium, 1683. in 4.

TRes diversi argumenti Tractatus uno hoc volumine complecti vir doctissimus voluit, de quibus distincte etiam dicendum nobis erit, & de primo quidem, qui præcipuus est, ac summo ab auctore studio elaboratus limatusque, paulo uberius.

Duodecim jam anni lapsi sunt, ex quo Vir nobilissimus Johannes Marshamus, Eques auratus, librum in Anglia edidit, CANON CHRONICVS ÆGYPTIACVS, EBRAICVS, GRÆCVS, ET DISQVISITIONES, inscriptum; quo id magno ingenio studioque egit, ut priorum octodecim seculorum, quæ a diluvio fluxerunt, Chronologiam, impeditissimam sane & obscurissimam, explicaret ac luci suæ restitueret, eademque opera veteres Ægyptiorum, Ebræorum, Græcorumque ritus ac instituta ex optimis Scriptoribus illustraret. ſine applauſu a doctis exceptus hic liber eſt, vaſtam & reconditam, quam ubiq; ſpirat, eruditionem non immerito veneratis; ſed ita tamen, ut nec nævi pulcherrimo operi paſſim adſperſi lectorum oculos ſubterfugerint, & quædam nimio novitatis ſtudio profanius ab auctore, quam par erat & Chriſtiano forſan homine dignum, dicta ac tradita piis mentibus fuerint improbata. Utique qui eundem Marshami librum a. 1676 Lipſiæ recudi, ac ampliſſimis indicibus, qui Londinenſi editioni deerant, exornari curavit, de cautione in legendo libro cætera doctiſſimo adhibenda, qualicunque præfatione admonendum Lectorem cenſuit. Poſtquam enim juſto opus ipſum encomio decoraſſet, mox non diſſimulandum ait, contigiſſe illuſtri ejus auctori, quod contingere iis aſſolet, qui ſupra vulgus ſapiunt, ut novas ſubinde ac ſingulares opiniones ſectaretur, iisque fulciendis ſacræ etiam Scripturæ loca quædam in novum ſenſum inflecteret; ac ſpeciatim inde notat, Theologisque uberius excutienda ac refellenda commendat paradoxa duo; quorum altero Ebræorum ſacra, quæ a Deo ipſo non ſine typica Meſſiæ ejusque officiorum atque beneficiorum adumbratione inſtituta novimus, ex Ægyptiorum ritibus derivare: altero ſeptuaginta Danielis hebdomades nova quadam ratione ſic computare, ut non ad Chriſtum, ſed Antiochum Epiphanem viderentur pertinere, ac validiſſimum adeo argumentum, quo adverſus Judæos Chriſtiana ſemper Eccleſia uſa fuit, evertere conatus Marshamus fuerat.

Quemadmodum vero jam ante de Eccleſia Chriſti egregie meritus eſt vir Clariſſimus, Johannes Chriſtophorus Wagenſeilius, quando in Mantiſſa Telis igneis Satanæ anno 1681 editis, & a nobis Actorum menſe Majo an. 1682. pag. 61. ſqq. recenſitis, adjuncta, poſterius illūd Marshami dogma maſcule refutavit, vindicavitque deprompti ex Spiritus S. illo apud Danielem vaticinio argumenti vim ac robur: ita non minori apparatu, eloquentia, ac zelo prius Marshami paradoxum examinandum ac refellendum Theologus Academiæ Ultrajectinæ celeberrimus, Hermannus, Witſius, ſuperiore anno ſumpſit, de Ægyptiacorum ſacrorum cum Hebraicis collatione libris tribus in lucem editis. Nimirum cum vir clariſſimus animo reputaret, illam Marshami hypotheſin, graviſſimis, ut ipſe in Dedicatoria epiſtola loquitur, laborare ſequelis, quæ in Deum Deique populum atque in ſanctiſſima Numinis inſtituta perquam ſint injurioſæ; verendumque eſſe, quod eo com- dem finitus sit, uberius commemorat. Divisum Opus in tres partes est, quarum prima explicantur ea, quæ passionem Christi proxime antecesserunt, & vel ab inimicis ejus ad capiendum tollendumque eum se præparantibus, vel a Christo ipso discipulos suos ut scandalum caveant prænonente, semet ad passionem ferendam muniente, aut alias gesta fuerunt: altera ipsa sacrosanctæ passionis Historia enarratur, singulæque ejus circumstantiæ diligenti studio expenduntur: tertia de iis, quæ passionem Christi secuta sunt, ejusque sepultura agitur. Universus vero operis contextus seriem temporis exacte servat, methodo non multum absimili illi, quam in sua Harmonia Gerhardus Johannes Vossius olim secutus est. Evangelistarum consensus ubique asseritur, conciliatis quæ pugnare inter se videri possint. Antiquitates Judaicæ ac Romanæ, quarum in Historia passionis fit mentio, erudite illustrantur. Diversæ auctorum tum veterum, tum recentiorum, in explicandis ac conciliandis Evangelistis sententiæ, conferuntur ac examinantur. Verbo, ita elaboratum opus est, ut justi in Historiam passionis Christi commentarii loco habendum, eoque Auctor non Polyhistorem minus ac Philologum, quam Theologum gravissimum se Lectori probaverit. Adjecti sunt 1. locorum Scripturæ S. quæ passim explicantur aut illustrantur; 2. Auctorum citatorum, quorum magnus auctori apparatus fuit; 3. Hebraicarum, & Græcarum vocum, quarum genuinus sensus eruitur; 4. rerum ac verborum utilissimi indices.

Amstelodami apud Henricum & viduam Theodori Boom, 1682. in 8.

DUæ potissimum quæstiones de Oraculis Ethnicorum ventilatæ fuerunt hactenus; & altera quidem, utrum illa cum adventu Servatoris nostri JESU CHRISTI cesserint penitus, an vero per aliquot adhuc secula ulterius, etiam post Imperatores quosdam Christianam Religionem amplexos, perdurarint? Altera, utrum Cacodæmon, simia illa DEI, oraculorum Ethnicorum autor sit solus, an impoſturæ etiam humanæ aliquid adhibitum in proferendis illis fuerit. Quod primam attinet, gravisſimi ſunt Autores e priſcis pariter atque recentioribus, qui omnia cum nato CHRISTO, vel poſt paulo conticuiſſe oracula confidenter aſſerunt; quod alteram, omnes ferme Eccleſiæ primitivæ, cumque illis non pauci hactenus e primæ caveæ eruditis, non alium oraculorum præſidem dictatoremque, quam Diabolum, agnoſcunt. Verum ab his omnibus ſegregem ſe facit doctisſimus hujus libri ſcriptor, & quemadmodum duæ de Oraculis agitantur controverſiæ jamjam memoratæ, ita duas quoq; diſſertationes concinnavit; quarum in prima perquam luculenter oſtendit, non ante Nativitatem CHRISTI vel paulo poſt eandem deſiſſe oracula Ethnicorum, ſed ad Imperatores Chriſtianos, imo ad Theodoſii usq; M. filios Arcadium atque Honorium duraſſe; in altera, non ulla vi ſupernaturali, dæmonumve præternaturalibus artibus, ſed meris præſtigiis Pythiarum, Prophetarum atque Antiſtitum Ethnicorum, qui templis fatidicis, aliisque oraculis aut ſortibus olim præfuerunt, reſponſa illa fuiſſe reddita. Id autem dum agit Autor, in priſcis Scriptoribus mire volutatus, occaſione data in alios atque alios diſcurſus de rebus jucundis juxtim atque utilibus, iisque materiæ ſibi propoſitæ non abſinibus, exſpatiatur. Ac in prima quidem diſſertatione, dum oracula poſt CHRISTUM natum obmutuiſſe pernegat, etiam alia inficiatur pariter a celeberrimis Viris, quos nominat, conſtanter aſſerta, v.gr. narrationem Plutarchi de magno Pane mortuo eſſe veram, mactationem infantum apud Ethnicos tempore CHRISTI fuiſſe ſublatam, Tiberium conſecrare CHRISTUM voluiſſe, oraculum de puero Hebræo datum, Aramque DEI primogeniti ab Auguſto fuiſſe erectam, oraculum Delphicum imperante Juliano deſtructum; ut alia id genus plura hic taceamus. Sed ne dicis, quod ajunt, gratia opinari ſic videri poſſet, oracula celebriora quæque per aliquot a CHRISTO nato ſecula reſpondiſſe conſultoribus, ex optimæ notæ Hiſtoricis demonſtrat; Delphicum puta, Dodonæum, Ammonium, Didymæum, Colophonium, Carmeli in Judæa, Paphiæ Veneris, Tireſiæ, Mopſi, Amphilochi, Malli, Jovis Nicephori, Æſculapii, Amphiarai, Sarpedonis, Trophonii, Hermionæ, Paſiphaes, Gerionis, Veneris Aphacitidis, Beſæ DEI in oppido Thebarum Abydo &c. ubi & multa de ſortibus Ethnicorum, Homericis inprimis ac Vir-ac Virgilianis, referri ab eo videas. Quamvis enim Constantino M. imperante Christianismus quam maxime efflоruerit, idololatris in pagos, unde & pagani sunt dicti, secedere tum coactis, cultus tamen idolorum, ne Valentis quidem ac Valentiniani tempore plane desiit; quin & multa (loquimur ex mente Autoris) retenta a Christianis Ethnicismum redolentia, v g. balnea, Pontificatus Cæsarum, adoratio sacræ purpuræ, & Divorum appellatio. Neque id citra rationem status quandam. Connivendum enim erat Imperatoribus ad tempus, ob tot Magnates Romani Imperii in Oriente & Occidente sacris Ethnicis adhuc mordicus inhærentes, ne Imperium aut sumerent sibi ipsi, aut ad alios translatum irent. His expositis, nec inconcinne declaratis, discursum de sacris Tauropoliis annectit, docens sacra ista Hierophantas Solis atque Hecates aut solos aut cum uxoribus suscepisse, idque eos in regenerationem æternam quandam factitasse; ubi & Baronium refellit pariter, qui locum Prudentii in Martyre Romano de Tauropoliis agentem obtorto velut collo ad consecrationem Pontificis maximi pertraxerat, Inscriptionibus qua Græcis, qua Latinis in sententiam suam allatis.

In secunda dissertatione sub initium statim adversus siniſtros interpretes censoresque sese obmunit hic Autor. Neque enim is videri vult, qui Dæmonum vel Diabolorum tollere existentiam, atque adeo a latere quasi vulnus aliquod Christianæ Religioni, Scripturæque sacræ infligere meditetur; quin asserit esse Dæmonas, qui non oraculorum tantum respondentium tempore, sed & ante ortum defectumque illorum perdere humanum genus tentaverint. Patribus autem primitivæ Ecclesiæ, qui oraculorum omnium Ethnicorum præsidem solum atque unicum faciunt Diabolum, adstipulari non sustinet, utpote hac quoque in doctrina, uti in aliis, mirum quantum Platonizantibus. Id igitur tantum negat, Dæmones ad sacrificia advolasse, horumque cruore ac nidore se satiasse, aut oraculis Delphico, Dodonæo, cæterisque præsedisse; id quod non Plato tantum ejusque asseclæ, Porphyrius, Jamblichus ac cæteri, sed & hos secuti primitivæ Ecclesiæ patres Athenagoras, Tertullianus, Minucius Felix, Origenes, Eusebius, Firmicus aliique crediderunt. Ansa id negandi, impostusque Antistitum responsa id genus tribuendi suppeditata Autori fuit tum a Cicerone, qui in lib. 2. de Divinatione cum Epicureis, Academicis demicis, Peripateticis, Cynicis aliisq; ſapientioribus Oracula eorumque reſponſa lepide ac falſe explodit, tum ex Oenomao, cujus fragmenta de oraculis Euſebius refert (hic enim ex profeſſo de fraudibus Oraculorum ſcripſit) & ex Luciani Dialogo, qui Pſeudomantis inſcribitur, autoribusq; præterea tam priſcis, quam recentibus aliis; quanquam ea modeſtia dexteritateque eſt Autor, ut, quicquid hoc ſuæ de oraculis Gentilium eſt ſententiæ, nemini cuiquam velit obtrudere, ſuum potius cuique de rationibus citationibusque ſuis judicium relinquens. Ordine autem aliquo in aſſertione cauſæ ſuæ ut procederet, conſideravit primo, in quibus qualibusve regionibus conſtituta fuerint præcipua oracula. 2. quomodo templa ipſa ſive oraculorum ſepta fabrefacta aut arte aut natura, aut ambabus fuerint, & quibus modis adornata. 3. qualiter & quam diverſimode oracula fuerint reddita. 4. per quas perſonas adminiſtrata. 5. quibus artificiis Antiſtites ac Prophetæ in illis uſi. 6. quanti a Principibus Magnatibusque fuerint æſtimata, & 7. quibus de cauſis oracula hæc talia penitus tandem deſierint. Et primum quidem commode obſervat, oracula in montanis potiſſimum regionibus, & quæ ſpeluncis cryptisq; ſubterraneis abundabant, fuiſſe adornata, ut adminiculo ſcilicet ſacerdotibus ad decipiendos homines eſſe potuerint. (Antro enim ſuperſtructum erat oraculum Delphicum, Trophonii, Sarpedonis apud Alexandriam, Apollinis Clarii ad Colophonem, Saturnii in æde Alexandrina, Fortunæ Prænestinæ prope Romam, Sibyllæ Cumanæ circa Bajas &c.) Fuiſſe etiam in templis adyta, ad quæ nemini, præter Sacerdotes, aditus erat permiſſus. His ita præſtructis artes præſtigiasque ſacerdotum illorum vel potius impoſtorum circa oraculum Delphicum, Trophonianum, Dodonæum, Statuam Memnonis, Oraculum Ammonium aliaque plura detegit, verbis ipſorum Hiſtoricorum antiquorum adductis.

Agit etiam de oraculis per codicillos, item de oraculis per inſomnia (qualia in Antro Charonæo, in fano Paſiphaæ, in templo Æſculapii Pergameno, Calchantis in Daunia, Amphiarai in Attica, Thebis in Bœotia aliisque in locis ſub Deorum nomine reddebantur) & quid technarum atque fraudum circa illa abs Prophetis ac Prophetiſſis fuerit adhibitum, condocet; de oraculo quoque Heliopolitano, & Veneris Aphacitidis, item oraculo Apidis, bovis Memphitici ſimile eo comparata ſint omnia, ut omiſſo myſteriorum ſub involucris iſtis latentium ſcrutinio, in frigidis ineptientium Ægyptiorum antiquitatibus, ſi modo antiquitatibus, defixæ ſtudioſorum hominum mentes hæreant totaq; Iſraelitarum religio Politici magis alicujus vaframenti ſpeciem habere videatur, quo ſive Deus ſive Moſes regnum ſibi in eo populo firmavit, quam umbrarum ſuarum integumentis ad Chriſtum ducere; a ſuo, Theologi, officio minime alienum cenſuit, ſi juſto dogma illud ſtudio excuteret, & quam parum ſolidis ſuperſtruatur fundamentis demonſtraret. Cum itaq; in epiſtola dedicatoria, ſacrarum literarum auctoritatem aſſerturus, calamum adverſus eos, qui Criticæ ſuæ tribunali ſanctiſſimum illum codicem temere ſubjiciunt, ſtrinxiſſet, propoſitiq; ſui indicaſſet rationem; in opere ipſo primum Marshami de ſacrorum Ebræorum origine ſententiam, quam jam ante illum Johannes Spencerus in Diſſertatione de Urim & Thummim Cantabrigiæ a. 1668 edita propoſuerat, prolixe exponit, collectis in unum, quæ Spencerus & Marshamus ſparſim tradiderant, & ita exponit candide, ut illi ipſi cauſam, quam aſſerendam ſuſceperunt, clarius explicare, aut ſubtilius tueri ac exornare non potuiſſent. Summa doctrinæ eorum hæc eſt: Ebræos olim, cum in Ægypto utramque experti fortunam degerent, oblivioni ſenſim tradito ſimplici ſanctoque, quem a Patriarchis acceperant, divini numinis cultu, in Ægyptiorum mores paulatim tranſiiſſe, eorumque ritus idololatricos ſuſcepiſſe. Poſtquam vero Deus eductis ex Egypto Iſraelitis, regnum ſibi in eo populo conſtituere legibusque firmare decreviſſet, noſſetque inſulſæ pervicacisque ac receptorum ſemel rituum tenaciſſimæ gentis infantiam ablactari velut e veſtigio non poſſe; rationem eum iniviſſe, quæ ad cultum vere novum, ſed per umbratiles quasdam veteris reliquias populum illum deduceret. Itaque ritus non paucos, ineptos eos quidem, at utcunque tolerabiles, quadam velut συγκαταβάσει, ſed paulum emendatos, in ſacrorum ſuorum album transſcripſiſſe Deum. Sic enim Tabernaculi Templique magnificentiam, Sacerdotum ordinem ſplendidumque apparatum, & decoras Pontificis veſtes, nec non Urim ac Thummim; ferias & feſta, ac hebdomaticum dierum orbem; ſacrificia, inque iis hyſſopi uſum, & vaccæ rufæ, hircique emiſſarii ceremonias, lucernarum accenſionem & frontalia; amyletum ſerpentis anei; lotiones crebras, imo circumciſionem ipſam, pluraque alia ex Ægyptiacis ſacris in Moſaicum cultum fuiſſe transſumpta. Eam vero ſententiam ſic expo-lit Witsius, ut primum magnã & admirandam plane veteres inter Ægyptios & Hebræos in religionis negotio convenientiam, ex mente Spenceri & Marshami, per partes singulas distincteque expendat; ac deinde in medium proferat argumenta, quibus evinci videatur posse, ea in quibus consensus est, Hebræos ab Ægyptiis, non Ægyptios ab Hebræis accepisse; Cyrilli etiam Alexandrini, Chrysostomi, aliorumque tum patrum, tum recentiorum scriptorum testimoniis adductis. Ita integro libro I exposita adversariorum sententia, suam Witsius exhibet, uberiusque libro II & III comprobat, sequentibus septem thesibus (quidni enim & hic legantur?) comprehensam.

I. Ex pravis Ægyptiorum moribus, superstitione atque idololatria multa quidem Israelitæ sumpserunt: sed & similia ab aliis vicinis populis mutuati sunt; neque ab Ægyptiis ea omnia, quæ nonnulli iis uti primis inventoribus adscripserunt. II. In dogmatibus, institutis, ritibus, a Deo approbatis, non est tanta inter Ægyptios & Hebræos convenientia, quantam viri eruditi prædicant, non caute semper, quandoque nec caste satis aut sancte. III. Ubi conveniunt, Ægyptii atque Hebræi ea cum aliis moratioribus populis communia habuerunt, hausta ex communi fonte vel rationis, vel traditionis: quarum utraque apud Hebræos purior atque incorruptior fuit. IV. Quæ a jure naturæ remotiora, Ægyptiis tamen atque Hebræis communia fuerunt, ea probari non potest apud Ægyptios quam apud Hebræos antiquiora fuisse; quum illi qui laudantur scriptores omnes Mose non paullo recentiores sint. V. Ex adverso probabile est, Ægyptios ab Abrahamo, Josepho, Mose, Salomone multa accepisse. VI. Ex eodem fonte Græci hauserunt, sive ἀμέσως, sive ἐμμέσως. VII. Nequaquam fuit ea Dei mens in institutis ceremonialibus, quam viri docti fingunt; ut nimirum pervicaci populi ingenio sese attemperaret, ea in cultum suum transsumendo, sed paululum purgata, quibus peregrinas superstitiones æmulando prave adsueverant: sed potius 1, ut laboriosis istis exercitiis, veluti jugo difficillimo, indomitam populi ferociam subigeret. 2. ut veluti pariete intergerino, a cæteris gentibus, & potissimum Ægyptiis, a quibus, & Cananæis, ad quos veniebant, sejungeret. 3. & maxime, ut rerum spiritualium figuræ atque umbræ essent. Tametsi vero nihil hoc in argumento intactum reliquit doctissimus Auctor, & inprimis contra Johannem Spencerum, qui pro Ægyptiorum Teraphim data Israelitis Urim statuerat, prolixe disseruit, nondum tamen omni labore defunctus functus videtur. Cum enim in Anglia sub prælo jam sit Spenceri justum de Legibus Mosaicis opus, quo suam illam hypothesin majori argumentorum apparatu firmasse dicitur, novæ utique industriæ materia clarissimo Witsio, cum ad manus ejus Spencerianum illud opus pervenerit, præbebitur: quemadmodum & nobis de hoc argumento plura dicendi, non poterit non suo tempore redire occasio.

Alter voluminis Tractatus Δεκάφυλον, sive de decem Tribubus Israelis inscribitur, eorumq; complectitur historiam, quatuor in periodos distributam. Prima initium a Jeroboamo est, cujus auspiciis decem tribus a regno Judæ secesserunt, separatamque & Ecclesiam & rempublicam cœperunt constituere; tametsi non tam universalis ea fuit defectio, quin multi domui Davidis sacrisque pristinis adhæserint. Altera ab eversione Regni X tribuum incipit, cujus primus gradus in cæde Jeroboami secundi aut filii ejus Zachariæ, alter in victoria Tiglat Pilesaris, tertius in expeditione Salmanassaris spectatur, qui regnum decem tribuum, postquam annis 235 stetisset, omnino destruxit, quibusdam quidem e plebe in terra sua relictis, qui Samaritanorum successu temporis sectam condiderunt, plerisque vero in Assyriam Mediamque deportatis. Tertia post solutam captivitatem Babylonicam cœpit, quando una cum Judæis nonnulli etiam ex X tribubus in Judæam reversi sunt, ac cum tribu Juda coaluerunt, plurimi vero nova patria antiquæ prælata in exilii sedibus remanserunt; quorum quidam mixti profanis gentibus inque iis paulatim absorpti sunt, alii avitæ religionis retinentiores communionem cum fratribus suis coluerunt. Quarta a novissimo Politiæ Israeliticæ per Romanos excidio ducta, ad optatam totius Israelis restitutionem fluit. Eam enim clarissimus auctor, postquam hucusq; X tribuum Historiam perduxisset, illustratis Scripturæ locis quam plurimis iisq; difficillimis, hypothesin comprobare nititur, & expectandam aliquando esse efficacem totius Israelis, sine tribuum discrimine, ad communionem Christi vocationem; nec desperandum iis de reditu in patriam. Utrumque enim ex solenni illo fœdere, quod cum Abrahamo & semine ejus Deus pepigit Gen. XVII. 7. 8, arbitratur fluere; argumentis insuper ex Levit. XXVI, a commate 16 ad finem usque capitis, ac Deuteron. XXX, versibus decem prioribus, Esaiæ XI, v. 11. 12. 13. Hoseæ III. 3. 4. 5. Jerem. XXXI, 1. Ezech. XVI, 53. XX, 40. 44. OPus hoc in Tomos quinque & in libros decem diſtributum eſt: Figuras habet & tabulas 674. Tomo I. Lib. I. & II. tractantur Spharica & Coſmographica in genere, ſatisque perſpicue & populariter. Libro III. ſpecialis deſcriptionis initium fit a terris Arcticis. Tomus II. liber IV. Aſiam exhibet. Tom. III. lib. V. Africam. Tomus IV. lib. VI. Europæ partem, in qua ſunt Regna Sveciæ & Daniæ, Moſcovia, Sarmatia, Polonia, Hungaria, Illyricum, Græcia, Italia, Hiſpania, Luſitania. Tomo V. libro VII. reliquæ Europæ regiones deſcribuntur, i. e. Britannia, Germania, Gallia, Sabaudia, Belgium, Lotharingia, Burgundia. Sequitur libro VIII. Terra Auſtralis. Libro IX. America Septentrionalis. Lib. X America Meridionalis. Laudanda eſt utique Autoris concinnitas, brevitas, tum modeſtiæ & veritatis ſtudium, & elegantia tabularum: nec dubitandum, quin induſtriam adhibere voluerit maximam, ut non niſi correcta & emendata traderet. Sed diſſimulari nequit, accidiſſe illi, quod aliis, tantam rerum farraginem congerentibus, & aliorum fide nitentibus, ut nimirum in rebus extra patriam ſuam, experientia & linguarum notitia deſtituti, ſæpiſſime hallucinentur. Magnum igitur operæ pretium reportarent viri docti & periti, qui tot hujusmodi librorum, variis locis, linguisque editorum, volumina, in ea quisque parte, quam optime perſpectam & cognitam habet, ſerio examinarent, & quæ emendanda invenerint, cum Autoribus iſtiusmodi Syſtematum communicarent. Id dum negligitur, & alieno labori nimium tribuitur, aliusque ex alio liber exſcribitur, fieri non poteſt, quin veteres errores non retineantur tantum, ſed & novis cumulentur, ut hucusque factum eſt. Monuimus aliquid hac de re in Actis noſtris anni præteriti p. 30, cum Pontierii Bibliothecam Magnatum recenſeremus. Nec mirum eſt, in hoc quoque Malleti opere, longe ampliori, plurima reperiri emendationem deſiderantia. Exempla pauca ex rebus Germanicis, quamvis in iis breviſſimus & ſterilis eſt, ſubjungemus. Tomo V, pag. 76, Eichsfeldiæ Principatus (qui male Eſchfeld ſcribitur) ſub ditione Ducum Luneburgicorum eſſe dicitur, ſed male; quanquam enim in finibus eorum ſita ſit hæc regio, ad Archiepiſcopum & Electorem Moguntinum tamen indubitato jure ſpectat, neque Principatus titulum gerit. Ibidem cum directorum circuli inferioris Saxoniæ mentio fit, verba hæc: Le Duc de Brunswick & de Lunebourg, comme Archevéque ou Adminiſtrateur de Magdebourg, eſt Directeur

de ce cercle; mais a preſent il en partage la Direction avec le Duc de Breme, ſans prejudice du droit du Duc de Brunſvvick, qui eſt toujours Codirecteur; ſenſum non admittunt congruum. Inter Magdeburgenſem, qui Brandeburgicus hoc tempore Elector eſt, & Bremenſem Ducem, qui eſt Rex Sueciæ, directorium circuli inferioris Saxoniæ alternari, ſalvo tamen Ducum Brunſvicenſium & Luneburgenſium condirectorii jure, publice conſtat. Sed hunc ſenſum ex Malleti verbis, ut jacent, nemo forte exſculpſerit. In Saxoniæ ſuperioris deſcriptione p. 78, 80, ut & alibi paſſim, de Epiſcopatibus, Abbatiis, Comitatibus, Civitatibus, ex Matriculis, quas vocant, Imperii obſoletis, Autor non pauca hauſit, quæ erronea ſunt; tum in nominibus multipliciter lapſus eſt: nihili enim ſunt voces Widerfeld, Rugenſtein, Bluchlingen: nec unquam fuit Burggraviatus Tautenbergenſis, ſed Baronatus, Equeſtri Thuringorum Ordini olim annumeratus, nunc Præfectura Ducalis. Neque, ut de aliis taceamus, ſupereſt hodie antiqua forma Comitatus Beichlingenſis, ſed exſtinctæ illius ſtirpis prædia & pagi ab equeſtribus familiis in Thuringia poſſidentur, maxime a ſplendidiſſima Wertherorum gente, præclaris in patriam meritis olim & nunc illuſtri & conſpicua. Pag. 78, ditiones Ruſſorum ſive Ruthenorum de Plavia (qui Comitum titulum nuper gerere cœperunt, Dynaſtæ illuſtriſſimi & vetuſtiſſimi, olim Advocati dicti) graviſſimo errore in Mechlenburgenſi Ducatu ſitæ dicuntur, quas longiſſime inde diſſitas, in Miſniæ & Voigtlandiæ finibus jacere palam eſt. Martisburgum ſive Mersburg, & Naumburgum, Ducatus minus recte ſalutantur; non enim Ducatus titulum habent, ſed Epiſcopatus nomen retinent, quanquam a Ducibus Saxoniæ Electoralis lineæ regantur. Tertius etiam clientelæ Saxonicæ Epiſcopatus Miſnenſis, (primo olim loco gaviſus, & inter eos qui Exemti dicuntur) male Ducatus Saxe Meiſſein dicitur. Miſnia enim vel Epiſcopatus, vel Marchionatus nomen eſt, non Ducatus: & Miſna urbs arces habuit tum Epiſcopi, tum Marchionis; uterque etiam ſeparatas poſſedit provincias, ſicut & olim Burggravius ejusdem loci. Nunc omnia pleno jure ad POTENTISS. ELECTOREM SAXONIÆ ſpectant. Pag. 92 Hennebergicus Comitatus ita inter Saxoniæ Duces diviſus dicitur, ut Electorali lineæ ſeptem, Vinarienſi quinque unciæ ceſſerint. SELECTA HISTORIÆ ECCLESIASTICÆ CAPITA & in loca ejusdem inſignia diſſertationes hiſtoricæ, chronologicæ, criticæ, dogmaticæ, Autore R.P.F. Natali Alexandro Ord. F.F. Præd. &c. Sec. XI. & XII. Pars prima.

Pariſiis apud Antonium Dezallier, 1683. in 8.

HIſtoriam eccleſiaſticam continuaturus P. Alexander, de cujus inſtituto & methodo in Actis anni 1682, menſe Julio diximus, ad undecimum & duodecimum ſeculum procedit, & utrumque conjunctim pertractatum tribus voluminibus abſolvit, e quibus jam primum tantum, reliquis duobus ad alia tempora dilatis exhibemus.

Auſpicatur illud autor a Pontificibus Romanis Iohanne XVII ejuſque ſucceſſoribus, uſque ad Cæleſtinum III, quorum vitas dum ex ipſorum epiſtolis aliiſque monumentis in ordinem redactas breviter enarrat, concilia quoque ſummorum iſtorum pontificum auſpiciis ſive Romæ ſive aliis in locis habita rebus eorum geſtis intertexit.

Hinc ad cætera undecimi & duodecimi ſeculi concilia progreditur, & quid in ſingulis circa diſciplinam eccleſiaſticam ſancitum decretumque fuerit, exponit. Tria vero Lateranenſia, quæ œcumenicis annumerare ſolent Romanæ curiæ addicti, item ea, quæ in cauſa Berengarii, Abælardi, Thomæ Cantuarienſis, & inveſtiturarum coacta ſunt, multaque alia partim Hæreſiologiæ, quæ inter ſelecta Synopſeos hujus capita proxime ſequitur, partim Diſſertationibus, quas ſecundum & tertium volumen exhibet, reſervat.

Inter hæreticos primum locum occupant novi Manichæi, quorum errores a muliere quadam Itala in Galliam invectos, & ab Arefaſto viro nobili callide exploratos & proditos, a. 1017. concilium Aurelianenſe, cujus acta tomo ſecundo Spicilegii ſui Lucas Dacherius produxit

duxit, combustis eorum autoribus & assectis anathemati subjecit. Novis his Manichæis, eorumque promachis Stephano & Lisojo, subjungitur Gandulfus quidam Italus, cujus hæresin a. 1025 Atrebatensis Synodus a Gerardo Cameracensi & Atrebatensi episcopo congregata, cujus acta prædictus Dacherius tomo Spicilegii sui decimo tertio inseruit, editis singulis adversus singulos errores capitulis damnavit. Sequuntur Berengarius, de quo in Dissertationibus uberius agitur; Michael Cerularius, in cujus schismate enarrando, quousque Latinæ & Græcæ ecclesiæ dissensio tum temporis progressa fuerit, disquirit, Roscelinus in hæresin, quam coram Suessionensi synodo ejuraverat, relapsus; Basilius cum sua Bogomilorum secta; Tanchelinus, qui Antverpiensium animos in tantum sibi devinxerat, ut qua corpus laverat, aquam biberent, donec S. Norberti opera a flagitiosissimi hominis consortio in meliorem viam reducerentur; Petrus de Bruis, & qui Petrobusianorum sectam propagavit Henricus, de quo ex actis Cenomanensium episcoporum, a Mabillonio tomo 3. Anal. vet. publicatis, haud pauca referuntur; Arnaldus Brixiensis, ejusque præceptor Petrus Abælardus, de quo in tertio volumine copiosius differitur; Gilbertus Porretanus; Eudo sive Eon; Apostolici ab Evervino in epistola ad Bernhardum Clarævallensem in Mabillonianis analectis edita, & ipso Bernhardo serm. 64 & 66 in Canticum descripti; Folmarus Trieffensteinensis in Franconia infra Herbipolin Præpositus, qui Gerochum Reicherspergensem in Bavaria Præpositum adversarium nactus est; & ultimo loco Waldenses, de quibus hoc ordine agit, ut primum sectæ autorem & varia nomina, deinde errores circa ecclesiam, sacramenta & cætera dogmata, tum varias eorũ sectas, item mores & disciplinam, eorumq; impugnationem & condemnationem, & tandem Waldensium Bohemorum postremam confessionem, & hæreticorum, quibus etiam Lutherum accenset, de iis judicia referat. Inter alia observat libros Ebrardi de Bethunia, Bernardi Abbatis Fontis Calidi, & Ermengardi, qui contra Waldenses inscribuntur, titulum hunc non a suis autoribus, sed ex Gretseri ingenio accepisse; & multa passim Waldensibus tribui ab ipsorum doctrina & moribus aliena. Quod ut recte monet: ita perperam cum aliis Pontificiis multa inter Waldensium aliorumque hactenus enumeratorum errores & hæreses recenset, ob quæ inter veritatis testes potius & confessores numerari meruerunt.

Scriptores eccleſiaſtici quos enumerat, ſunt circiter centum & triginta. In his Anſelmus Cantuarienſis, cujus genuina ſcripta a ſuppoſititiis diſcernit, ad pſeudepigrapha etiam librum de immaculata B. Virgtnis conceptione & epiſtolam ejusdem argumenti referens, cum Anſelmus in libris, Cur Deus homo, B. Virginem ab originalis peccati labe immunem non fuiſſe diſerte doceat. Guiberti Novigentini ſcripta dum recenſet, ex ejus libro de pignoribus ſanctorum, quo Sammedardenſes monachos dentem a Chriſto novenni emiſſum ſe poſſidere gloriantes Scriptor ille confutavit, nonnulla de fraudibus & impoſturis circa ſacras reliquias excerpit. Ad Rupertum Tuitienſem ubi pervenit, quæ ejus circa Euchariſtiam opinio fuerit, & an unionem hypoſtaticam panis & vini euchariſtici cum Verbo ſtatuerit, cujus erroris a Bellarmino aliisque arguitur, inquirit. Bernhardi Clarævallenſis elogiis criticum de ejus operibus judicium ſubnectit, & quæ ejus de ſtatu animæ ſeparatæ ſententia fuerit, exponit. Cæteros fere omnes breviſſimis dimittit.

Poſtremum primi hujus voluminis caput circa politiam eccleſiaſticam occupatur, initio ducto a ſumma Pontificum Romanorum in univerſa eccleſia autoritate & poteſtatis plenitudine, cui graviſſima Yvonis, Bernhardi, Petri Cluniacenſis, Goffridi Vindocinenſis, Arnulphi Lexovienſis, & Hildeberti Turonenſis de diſpenſationum & appellationum abuſu judicia minime repugnare autor exiſtimat, qui deinde ad Cardinales tranſit, quorum dignitatem ob præcipuas in ſummi pontificis electione partes ipſis demandatas undecimo ſeculo novis radiis effulſiſſe notat. Eminentiſſimas quoque virtutes, quibus eminentiſſima hæc dignitas ornari debeat, Petri Damiani, Bernhardi, & Thomæ Cantuarienſis verbis exprimit. Hinc ad primatum Lugdunenſem, Viennenſem, Toletanum, & Cantuarienſem, & certamina inde nata progreſſus, ulterius de jure novas metropoles condendi, & Metropolitanorum officio ac autoritate, de novis epiſcopatibus undecimo & duodecimo ſeculo fundatis, deque epiſcoporum electione, confirmatione, juramento, reſignationibus, translationibus, beneficiis, reſidentia, ut vocant, ejusque diſpenſatione, jurisdictione cæterisque ad epiſcopalem dignitatem ſpectantibus diſſerit, & ab epiſcopis ad inferiores clericos deſcendit, ubi titulorum patrimonialium initium, ordinandorum ætatem, conſuetudines circa beneficiorum collationes & jus patronatus uſurpatas, aliaque his affinia recenſet.

Clericos excipit Ordo Canonicus, quem cum ab obſervantia regulari cecidiſſet, undecimo ſeculo inſtauratum & propagatum refert, autoribus Petro de Honeſtis, qui ſibi Peccatoris cognomen indidit, S. Ubaldo, qui regulam Portuenſem a Petro de Honeſtis conſtitutam & miraculo, ut fertur, approbatam in Eugubinam eccleſiam intulit, S. Oldegario, qui Canonicorum regularium inſtitutum in Hiſpaniam provexit, Gilberto Sempringhamenſi, a quo Ordo ille Gilbertinus & Sempringhamenſis in Anglia nuncupatus eſt, Yvone Carnotenſi, cujus opera Ordo hic in Gallicana eccleſia refloruit, & S. Norberto, qui in loco Laudunenſis diœceſeos, qui Præmonſtratus dicitur, novum Canonicorum regularium ordinem condidit, quem brevi tempore ex maxima paupertate ditiſſimum evaſiſſe & usque adeo creviſſe narrat, ut trigeſimo poſt anno, non ſolum ex Francia & Burgundia, ſed Alemannia quoque & Saxonia, centum pæne Abbates convenerint. Neque hic ſilentio prætermittitur Ludovici VI. munificentia, qui monaſterium Canonicorum regularium ad muros Pariſienſes, cui S. Victor nomen dedit, excitavit, cujus regalis abbatiæ filia fuit abbatia S. Genovefæ, ſiquidem Eugenii III. juſſu ſecularibus canonicis rejectis, regulares ex cœnobio S. Victoris in eccleſiam illam introducti ſunt.

Hiſtoriæ Canonicorum regularium ſubjicit progreſſus & incrementa Ordinis Benedictini, congregatione Vallis umbroſæ, congregatione S. Crucis Fontis Avellani, congregatione Tironienſi aliisque novis congregationibus & abbatiis multiplicati; item origines & inſtituta Ordinis Camaldulenſis a Romualdo conditi, Grandimontenſis, qui Stephanum de Tierno fundatorem habuit, & Carthuſienſis a Brunone in rupe quadam aſperrima Gratianopolitanæ diœceſeos, cui Carthuſiæ nomen eſt, inſtituti. Atque hic famoſam illam narrationem de Doctore quodam Pariſienſi, qui jam vita defunctus, in ipſis exequiarum ſolennibus e feretro ſe coram Tribunali Divino accuſatum, judicatum & condemnatum proclamaſſe, & eo ipſo facto Brunoni in eremum ſecedendi occaſionem præbuiſſe perhibetur, ad examen revocat, in negativam Johannis Launoji ſententiam proclivior, cujus argumenta ex libello de vera cauſa ſeceſſus S. Brunonis in eremum in medium producit. Accedunt ad novos undecimi & duodecimi ſeculi ordines ordo Ciſtercienſis, ordo Fontis Ebraldi, & ordines quidam equeſtres, S. Johannis Hieroſolymitani, militum templi, S. Mariæ Teutonicorum & de

Tandem ubi de bonis eccleſiaſticis eorumque adminiſtratione, nec non de eccleſiarum immunitatibus ac oneribus diſſeruit, finem primo huic undecimi & duodecimi ſeculi volumini imponit.

NOUVELLE MANIERE DE FORTIFIER les places, par Monſieur Blondel, Mareſchall de Camp aux armées du Roy &c.

hoc eſt,

Dn. Blóndelli, regiorum exercituum Campimareſchalli &c. Nova Methodus muniendi loca.

Pariſiis apud autorem, in via Jacobea ſuburbii San-Germaniani 1683, in 4. & Amſtelodami 1684, in 12.

QUanquam præſens ſeculum, bellorum bellicarumque artium admodum ferax, inde a primordiis ſuis hucusque quamplurimos tulit, qui Architectonicæ, in debite muniendis contra quantamcunque hoſtium vim locis laboranti, ſuppetias ingenii ſui ferre contenderunt; inter illos tamen vix reperias, qui ſuam in hoc argumento operam tot tamque ſpecioſis titulis Arti huic commendet, ac præſentem tractatum ejusdem Autor. Hic enim toto vitæ ſuæ decurſu ſtudiis Architecturæ militaris deditus, univerſo pæne terrarum orbe peragrato, quicquid uſpiam eſt celebriorũ munimentorum non oculis tantum uſurpavit propriis; ſed & robur eorũ & defectus ſolicita indagine perquiſivit: tum per omnes militiæ gradus in bello exercitus, Architecti etiam militaris (Ingeniarios hodie nuncupant) munere tam expugnandis, quam contra obſidentium inſultus defendendis munitionibus pluries perfunctus, proprio periculo, atque ſic omnium opti-me addidicit, quam distent lineæ per otium super charta descriptæ, a sulcis in conspectu hostium per objectam terram ducendis: dignus ob hæc, aliasque virtutes, hodierno Galliarum Monarchæ visus, quem studiis Sereniſſimi Delphini mathematicis, interque ea architectonicis, hodegum præficeret & magistrum.

His subnixus præsidiis, & longo cumprimis armorum usu edoctus Blondellus, in defendendis non æque ac oppugnandis locis Architectonicen hactenus profeciſſe, novam hanc muniendi adornavit methodum: non frustra scil. se futurum ratus, tali genere munitionum excogitato, quod obsidentium vires diminueret; obsessis vero facultatem locumque concederet, majorem tormentorum militumque copiam hostium violentiæ opponendi. Pensatis autem defectibus, quibus, cum Italica Gallicaque muniendi methodo, Batava præcipue conflictatur, cujus imbecillitas per nupera maxime regis Galliarum in Belgiis bella se prodidit, persuasus est Autor munitiones nonnisi vitio brevitatis alarum (tanquam brachiorum) defendentium, admotæ vi succumbere: has ergo cum collo propugnaculorum sic extendendas censuit, ut constructis pluribus suggestibus tormentariis sufficerent, qui cum fossam ob omni parte obnoxiam haberent, & hostium molimina in erigendis ex adverso valli aggeribus everterent; tum præstructa opera pari, ac fossam ipsius munimenti, virtute tuerentur; nec tamen lineam defensionis nimium producerent.

Id instituti sui duobus Autor discursibus persequitur, quorum prior historiolam complectitur eorum, quæ inter ipsum aliosque Ingeniarios acta & disceptata sunt, tunc cum demandata Autori regio jussu præfectura operum publicorum, Parisiis anno 1669. & sequentibus, commodo civium & urbis ornamento excitatorum, frequens ipsi cum ejusmodi artificibus, aliisque architecturæ militaris peritis commercium intercederet. Commemorat hic recensum, rogatu illorum a se institutum, eorum omnium, quæ circa celebriora munimenta, sibi toto fere terrarum orbe visa, diversasque illorum rationes, notatu digna compererit: non dissimulata misera conditione fortalitiorum Turcicorum, & robore eorum minime formidando.

gantur, juſtum volumen confecturos pronunciat: materiam tamen eorum in peculiari Opere architectonico, Sereniſſimi Delphini uſibus conſcripto, & propediem cum reliquo Curſu mathematico regis auſpiciis lucem viſuro, non perfunctorie a ſe tractatam profitetur. Ex præcipuis interim capitibus praxeos hercotectonicæ, de quibus tunc inter ipſos unanimiter convenerit, ſequentia, veluti ſpeciminis loco, annexis ubique fere pronunciatorum ſingulorum rationibus, profert: angulum propugnaculi citra neceſſitatem numquam obtuſum, nec rectũ, niſi in propugnaculis rectæ lineæ impoſitis, eſſe debere: opera munitionum muro veſtienda, non ex terra vel humo aggerenda: alas retractas ſupernas infernasque (flancs retirées, places hautes & baſſes) alarum etiam auriculas (oreillons) adhibendas: ſuccinctum valli (fauſſe braye) tam facici quam alæ propugnaculi præſtrui, ex utilitate loci eſſe: præſtare ſiccam foſſam aquariæ, eamq; verſus angulum propugnaculi contrahendam, & in medio depreſſiori foſſula (cunette) inciaiendam; deniq; declivitatem ejus exteriorem muro fornicato inſtruendam: viæ tectæ latitudinem ad ſeptem octove perticas Gallicas, ſeu hexapedas extendendam: grandia opera cornuta & coronata pernicioſa eſſe &c. His alia non minoris momenti ſubnectit, de foſſis prætenturarum; terræ copia hoſti ſubtrahenda; occultis foſſæ receptibus (caponieres & Logements cachées;) lorica ex cæmento paranda, & interius humo ſuffulcienda; duplicandis propugnaculorum faciebus, ex conſulto Comitis Pagani; defenſionis obliquæ vitiis; ſecundarum alarum exigua utilitate &c.

Refert deinde, ut memoratis collocutoribus novæ ſuæ methodi aliquam rationem expoſuerit: in ea, videlicet, ex alis certorum polygonorum trajectum foſſæ plus centum tormentis, bis mille vero præſidiariis, minimum vero (nimirum in Quadrato) triginta in tormentis & quingentis militibus impediri, hoſtem a dejiciendis alis prohiberi, Operaque munitioni præſtructa longe vehementiori ignis vi defendi poſſe, ac ipſum corpus muniti loci optima quævis muniendi rationes tueri hactenus valuerint. Hæc applauſu protinus excepta præſentium, ſeque ab iis compulſum, aliquam ejus delineationem adornare, illamque ipſam eſſe, quam diſcurſu altero hujus tractatus exhibeat.

Quam varia porro judicia, ubi ad plures rumor hujus inventi dimanare cœpit, ſubſecuta ſint, & quo fato ad ipſum deniq; Galliarum regem penetraverit; quæ regis ipſius de eodem ſententia, & cum auto-re concertationes fuerint; & ut editionem Tractatus hujus (alteriusque ejusdem Autoris, de arte jaciendorum globorum ignitorum, quem sub prælo esse Diaria Gallica superioris anni memorant) tantisper, ne durante bello, quod per Belgium & in Germaniæ finibus Rex tum temporis gerebat, aliqua ad inimicos suos ex eo redundaret utilitas, inhibuerit, ultima primi discursus folia Lectori pluribus exponunt.

Ipsam construendi munitiones rationem altero discursu tradit Autor. Et primo quidem angulum imminutum (linea faciei & latere polygoni exterioris comprehensum) ita determinat, ut demto quadrante de angulo polygoni, residui tertiam partem & quindecim insuper gradus eidem tribuat. Pro crure vero hujus anguli altero, hoc est linea defensionis stringente, septem decimas accipit ipsius lateris polygoni exterioris: quodque illius lineæ est inter angulum propugnaculi & forcipulæ (tenaille,) hoc est ipsum latus forcipulæ, bisecat, semissemque ejus faciem constituit propugnaculi. Connexis deinde duabus lineis defensionis invicem, & cum facie unicuique illarum opposita, cortinam & alas describit propugnaculorum.

Porro cum Autori videatur, lineam defensionis in regiis munitionibus intra 140 & 120 omnino hexapedas consistere debere, duos construendi modos tradit: Majorem, in quo latus polygoni exterioris 200. linea defensionis 140; & Minorem, in quo illud 170, hæc fere 120 perpetuo sunt hexapedarum. Atque intra hos limites omne genus munitionum coercet: quod longior extensio lateris exterioris, ob nimiam alarum distantiam, defensionem reddat frustraneam; brevior longitudinem imminuat alarum, & inutiliter multiplicet cum impensis numerum propugnaculorum. Ex dictis autem ratio iniri facile potest quantitatis angulorum & linearum principalium, quam Autor in hoc discursu, subnexisque cumprimis operi binis Tabulis, pro singulis ferme polygonorū speciebus intra Quadratum & Icosagonum consistentibus, adjunctis item mensuris propugnaculorū planorum, sive super recta linea constitutorum, distincte ob oculos ponit.

Angulus propugnaculi Autori in Quadrato est 600, ut in Batavis: augmen-

Augmentum tamen ejus in ſuccedentibus polygonis lentius increſcit, ut demum in planis propugnaculis fiat rectus; quod in Batavis Dodecagono jam obtingit, ubi Autori tantum eſt 800. Atque ſic Autor non alienus eſt ab acutis propugnaculorum angulis, licet horum amplitudinem aliquantum contrahant: cum differentia arearum ab angulo 600 & 900 ſit octavæ tantum partis (differunt enim ut 48 & 8;) ex adverſo vero pro iis militent argumenta longe prægnantiora.

Alæ cum linea defenſionis ad angulum obtuſum concurrunt: in Quadrato 1070. 47, & inde ſenſim decreſcentem, ad uſque plana propugnacula, in quibus rectus eſt. Tantillam autem eſſe hanc a recto differentiam pronunciat, ut inde plane contemnenda defenſioni obliquitas; at contra tantum collo augmentum accedat, ut in Quadrato tribus ſuggeſtibus ſit locus, in Hexageno & ſequentibus etiam quarto ſive aggeri propugnaculi (cavalier.) Sic vero conſtitutas alas hoſtibus nimis expoſitas objicientibus, Pagani rationes opponit: hac tamen ſuarum prærogativa, ut loco 12 aut 13 tormentorum, quæ Comitis Pagani alæ ad ſummum capiunt, nusquam minus 20 aut 25, alicubi vero 100. aut 120 hoſti obvertant.

Auriculæ alarum octo decemve ſunt hexapedarum: reliquum cedit alis opertis in uſum ſuggeſtuum, diſponendisque præſidiariis. Suggeſtibus tanto melius tegendis in Pentagono & ſequentibus infimum eorum intra collum ſex ſeptemve hexapedas retrahit; quo ipſo & cortinam in Polygonis plurium laterum indipiſcitur porrectiorem. Planorum autem propugnaculorum alas 10 vel 12 hexapedas ſubducit, ut cortinæ (quam alias nullam habitura eſſent) relinquantur 14 aut 15 hexapedæ.

Suggeſtus alarum interiores latius diducuntur exterioribus: quo ipſo locus eſt quinque aut ſex tormentis ita intra auriculæ humerum recondendis, ut quamvis ea totam faciem oppoſitam & interiora ruinarum ibidem detegant, neutiquam tamen ex declivitate foſſæ exteriori conſpici, aut pilis tormentorum hoſtilium queant exarmari.

A facie propugnaculi unius ad alterius contigui faciem aliquis eſt proſpectus, qui mutuam ipſis præſtat defenſionem, dorſumque ruinæ, ſi qua in facie una facta eſt, ictibus exponit adverſæ faciei.

Propugnaculis exterius vallum (contregarde) faciebus parallelum prætendit Autor; ex ſolido cæmento, ſed area (terrain) deſtitutum tum, & cuniculis undique ſuffoſſum: alarum præſidio, ne ab aggeribus hoſtium dejiciantur.

Cortinæ etiam parmulam præcingit, alarum auriculas exacte tegentem: ejusque foſſæ defendendæ propugnaculorum vicinorum facies, qua parte foſſam proſpectant, ſuggeſto inferiori (batterie baſſe,) ejusdem cum ſuggeſtu alarum medio altitudinis, & quinque aut ſex tormentorũ capaci inſtruit; alioque magis adhuc intra propugnaculum retracto, ad loricæ ipſius propugnaculi altitudinem. Inſervit autem hæc parmula etiam defenſioni foſſæ, vallum exterius ambientis, ejusque facies ob hanc cauſam paribus, ac propugnaculorum ipſorum, ſuggeſtibus armatæ ſunt: area vero, niſi quatenus retrocedentibus tormentis ſolidam humum ſubſternere oportet, vacua relinquitur, ut vallum cuniculis tanto commodius ſubrui, & hoſtis a poſſeſſione expugnatæ parmulæ poſſit prohiberi.

Angulo valli exterioris & parmulæ Lunulam, ejusdem cum dicto vallo ſtructuræ præponit: ne ullatenus extrorſum oculo ad alas propugnaculorum patent aditus.

Foſſæ latitudinem alarum longitudini æquat, ut ſpatium ſit reponendo vallo exteriori, ejusque foſſæ: & ut ea usquequaque alarum defenſioni ſubjaceat, angulum parmulæ interius procurrentem recta determinat, ab humero ad angulum oppoſiti propugnaculi producta.

Foſſam munitionis ut & operum præſtructorum, alia minori incidit, & angulos earum quosque receptibus munit; defendendis foſſarum frontibus, & arcendo hoſti tranſitum ſub terra molienti. Hoc modo inſtructæ munitionis nullam eſſe partem Blondellus aſſerit, cui non minimum a tribus quatuorve aliis ſubveniri poſſit: eamque ita comparatam eſſe, ut adjunctis pluribus Operibus externis, & in uſum deductis, quæ ex ſinu ſuo ultro præbet compendiis, in infinitum augeri; irregularibus æque ac regularibus figuris facillime applicari; locus jam dum quocunque alio modo munitus, modo ſecundas alas habeat, ad ejus formam nullo negotio, citraque immutationem ullam vel faciendum, vel foſſæ aut operum externorum reduci queat.

Annexæ ſunt Operi Tabulæ Duodecim: referuntque earum 1. Praxin muniendi angelum quemcunque datum, præmiſſis breviter præceptis: 2, 3, 4 & 5, diverſa polygona cum operibus præſtructis: 6. ichnoichnographiam Plani Forcipulæ munitæ : 7 ſcenographiam ejusdem forcipulæ : 8 & 9 primariorum angulorum & linearum menſuras : 10 reductionem munitionis aliter inſtructæ, ad Autoris formam : 11 & 12 Caſtrum Dunkerkanum & Trajectum ad Moſam, cum ſuis utrumque munitionibus ; applicata tamen iisdem nova Autoris, ut ex comparatione hujus illarumque, de præſtantia Blondellianæ tanto luculentius conſtet.

DE DIMENSIONIBUS FIGURARUM inveniendis.

SIgnum eſt perfectæ Analyſeos , quando aut ſolvi problema poteſt, aut oſtendi ejus impoſſibilitas : quod cum nemo hactenus præſtiterit circa transmutationes curvilineorum in rectilinea , patet in hac parte imperfectio Geometriæ & ipſius Algebræ , quæ uti hactenus tractata eſt , ad talia problemata non porrigitur. Excogitavi tamen jam a multis annis ſubſidium Analyticum, & amicis oſtendi,quod huc redit : notum eſt interioris Geometriæ peritis data (figur. 1) qualibet curva A F C (ex illarum numero , quarum natura ſeu relatio inter ordinatam & abſciſſam per æquationem Algebraicam ſeu certi gradus exprimi poteſt , quas Carteſius appellat Geometricas , ego ob graves rationes potius Algebraicas appellare ſoleo) poſſe aliam inveniri curvam A G D etiam Algebraicam , cujus figura ope prioris poſſit quadrari: idque fieri poteſt multis modis , exempli cauſa data curva AFC, poteſt inveniri curva AGD talis naturæ , ut rectangulum ſub FE ordinata prioris curvæ,& recta conſtante H,ſemper æquetur trilineo curvæ poſterioris ſeu figuræ A E G A; vel ut rectangulum ſub F E ordinata curvæ prioris, & abſciſſa ejus A F, æquetur eidem trilineo; vel aliis modis infinitis. Priorem curram A F C voco Quadratricem poſteriorem A G D Quadrandam. Sed hoc opus hic labor eſt, data Quadranda Figura, invenire Quadratricem ejus aliquam; præſertim cum aliquando quadratricem invenire (Algebraice quidem exprimendam) ſit impoſſibile. Ut ergo præſtarem quicquid in hoc genere fieri poteſt, talem methodum excogitavi, antea quod ſciam non uſurpatam; ſed quæ maximum & in aliis uſum habere poteſt. Adhibeo æquationes Curvarum Generales, quarum unaquæque omnes curvas ejusdem gradus exprimit. Et talis curvæ generalis, conſideratæ tanquam quadratricis, quæro quadrandam generalem, ſecundum aliquem ex modis ſupra dictis, quem ſemper eundem ſervo. Quia demonſtrare poſſum, ſi non datur quadratrix ſecundum unum modum, nec eam ſecundum alium dari. Oblatæ jam quadrantæ ſpecialis æquatio comparanda eſt cum aliqua ex formulis generalibus, quadrandarum naturam exprimentibus; ſed ſi nulli comparari poſſit, manifeſtum eſt, eam ſub ipſis non comprehendi, adeoque nullam habere quadratricem, ſcilicet Algebraicam. Eadem methodo invenire poſſum, quam habeat quadratricem, ſi non Algebraicam, ſaltem transſcendentem, hoc eſt Circuli, aut Hyperbolæ, aut alterius figuræ quadraturam ſupponentem, ut ſcilicet ſaltem dimenſiones reliquas ad has ſimpliciores reducamus. Multa hujusmodi habeo, quibus Geometria in immenſum ultra Terminos a Vieta & Carteſio poſitos promovetur. Nam veteres nolebant uti lineis altiorum graduum, & ſolutiones quæ earum ope fiebant Mechanicas: Carteſius id reprehendit, & omnes curvas in Geometriam recipit, quarum natura æquatione aliqua Algebraica ſeu certi alicujus gradus exprimi poſſit. Recte quidem, ſed in eo peccavit non minus quam veteres, quod alias infinitas, quæ tamen etiam accurate deſcribi poſſunt, ex Geometria excluſit & Mechanicas vocavit, quia ſcilicet eas ad æquationes revocare, & ſecundum ſuas regulas tractare non poterat. Verum ſciendum eſt iſtas ipſas quoque ut Cycloidem, Logarithmicam aliasque id genus, quæ maximos habent uſus, poſſe calculo & æquationibus etiam finitis exprimi, at non Algebraicis ſeu certi gradus, ſed gradus indefiniti, ſive tranſcendentis.

dentis. Et ita eodem modo posse calculo subjici ac reliquas : licet ille calculus sit alterius naturæ quam qui vulgo usurpatur. Hujusmodi cogitationum mearum, quas alibi non observavi, participem feci amicum ingeniosissimum, qui etiam eas multis de suo inventis auxit, & suo tempore præclara dabit ; idem calculum inveniendi quadratrices algebraicas supra dicto methodo aggressus aliquot theoremata dedit. Unum tamen cogit me monere amor veritatis ; hanc ipsam methodum meam quærendi quadratrices, insignes quidem usus habere, sed non sufficere ad inveniendas quadraturas quascunque, neque ex ea probari posse impossibilitatem Quadraturæ circuli aut hyperbolæ. Fieri enim potest, ut aliqua certa portio quadrantis circuli, vel etiam totus quadrans A B D G A, quadrari possit, licet non detur quadratura indefinita & generalis cujuslibet portionis datæ, secundum unam aliquam legem communem seu calculum algebraicum generalem, qui exprimat relationem inter spatium A E G A & rectang. A E F ; unde nec dari poterit semper æquatio quædam algebraica exprimens relationem inter A E & E F, abscissam & ordinatam quadratricis A F C ; ac proinde quadratrix non erit Algebraica seu certi gradus, seu transcendens. Et quidem circulum esse incapacem quadraturæ indefinitæ facile multis modis demonstrari potest, sed nulla hactenus extat demonstratio, a paralogismo libera, quæ ostendat impossibilitatem specialis quadraturæ circuli totius. Placet autem ascribere exemplum figuræ, ubi succedit quadratura specialis sine generali. Sit in quadrato A E B Z (figur. 2.) trilineum orthogonium A E N M A, jam secentur latera quadrati opposita A E, Z B in punctis G, R, curva vero in puncto M, per rectas G R, reliquis quadrati lateribus A Z, E B parallelas. Abscissa B R appelletur v, & ordinata R M, appelletur y, & latus quadrati h, & æquatio naturam curvæ exprimens sit $y^4 - 6\,hhyy + 4\,yy\,vv + h^4 = 0$. G M appelletur Z, & A G appelletur X, fiet $y = h - x$ & $v = h - z$, quos valores substituendo in æquatione præcedenti fiet :

$h^4 - 4h^3x + 6\,hh\,xx - 4hx^3 + x^4 - 6h^4 + 12h^3x - 6hhxx + 4h^4 = 8h^3z + 4hhzz - 8h^3x + 16hhxz - 8hxzz + 4hhxx - 8hxxz + 4xxzz + h^4 = 0$ seu destructis destruendis :

$4hhzz - 8hxzz + 4xxzz - 8h^3z + 16hhxz - 8hxxz + 4hhxx - 4hx^3 + x^4 =$ equam æquationem dividendo per $hh - zhx + xx$ habebitur.

$$4zz - 8hz + \frac{4hh - 4hx + xx \text{ multiplicatum in } xx}{hh - 2hx + xx} = 0.$$

itaque si figura nostra est quadrabilis methodo supradicta, deberet hæc æquatio secundum alibi proposita conferri posse cum ista:

$$0 = bzz + caz + eaa + 2dxz + zfax + \frac{ddc + ccg + bff - cdf - 4beg \text{ multiplic. in } aa + xx}{4beaa + 4bfax + 4bgxx - ccaa - 2cdax - ddxx.} + 4gxx$$

Sed manifestum est, collationem non procedere, si vel solus numerator fractionis utrobique existens comparetur, deberet enim $4hh - 4hx + xx$ coincidere cum aa, in $ddc + ccg + bff - cdf - 4beg$; indeterminatum cum determinato: ut taceam ex reliquis comparationibus literas d,e,f,g fieri æquales nihilo: unde in æquatione quæsita ad curvam quadratricem quæ est $byy + cay + eaa + dxy + fax + gxx = 0$ restaret tantum $byy + cay = 0$, quæ est æquivocatio non ad lineam sed ad punctum. Itaque linea curva Quadratrix habere hoc modo non potest. Et tamen aliunde scimus, trilineum propositum esse quadrabile: itaque ista methodus, licet maximi sit momenti, tamen ad omnes quadraturas inveniendas non sufficit, sed opus est alias adhuc artes adhiberi, quas quidem alias exponam, res enim omnino in potestate est.

De veris & falsis ideis, contra id, quod docet Autor libri de inquirenda Veritate, per Dn. Antonium Arnaldum Doctorem Sorbonicum.

Decem

DEcem fere anni ſunt, cum ingenioſiſſimus Malbranchius, Pater Oratorii Pariſienſis, opuſcula quædam Gallica de inquirenda veritate divulgavit, in quibus naturam animi humani plane ac perſpicue declarat, præſcriptisque regulis dirigere intellectum conatur, ut errorum ſcopulos in quarumvis artium ac ſcientiarum ſtudiis evitet. Primus tomus, (in tres enim tractatum digeſſit autor) detegendis erroribus ſenſuum, imaginationis, & intellectus conſecratus eſt; alter errores inclinationum & paſſionum manifeſtat, ac poſtremo generalem methodum tradit, qua ſe gerere in inveſtiganda veritate Philoſophus debeat; tertius difficultates nonnullas removet, ac quæ in præcedentibus libris obſcurius dicta videbantur, exponit. Sicuti autem non omnes illæ partes ſimul lucem adſpexerunt; ita prior vix prodierat, cum ſuos cenſores nacta eſt, e quibus uni, qui Criticam Tractatus de inquirenda veritate Gallice ſcripſerat, in præfatione ſecundi tomi ſatisfit, nec teſtium alio conſilio Malbranchius operi jam perfecto adjunxiſſe videtur, quam ut partim amicorum petitis, partim adverſariorum cavillationibus reſponderet.

Poſt illud tempus, cum ſæpius priorum tomorum impreſſio ſit binde auctior iterata eſſet, emiſit Vir doctiſſimus Tractatum de Natura & Gratia (de la nature & de la Grace) ante hos fere quatuor annos, quem confutaturus Janſenii celebris ſectator Arnaldus, eam partem tomi primi de inquirenda Veritate, quæ de idearum natura eſt, ſibi prius examinandam ſumſit, quod illi haud parum inniti recentius ſcriptum Malbranchius fateatur. Ut vero magis, quid Arnaldus impugnaverit, & quo ſucceſſu, conſtet, neceſſe eſt, nos de Malbranchii mente pauciſſimis cognoſcere.

Is ergo ſub tomi primi finem idearum naturam explanaturus initio probat, quicqnid ab anima hominis percipiatur, id omne vel intra animam eſſe vel extra ipſam ſubſiſtere. Illuc quidem pertinere animæ cogitationes, quod nomen quascunque ipſius modificationes complectatur, ſive videlicet ſentiat, ſive imaginetur, ſive intelligat, ſive patiatur aut in rem aliquam naturali affectu propendeat. His enim cognoſcendis non opus eſſe ulla idea, quoniam in anima velut hæreant, imo ipſa anima ſint, prout illa ſub alia atque alia ratione conſideretur. Quod ad res extra intellectum ſubſiſtentes attinet, eas, niſi poſſint animæ intime jungi, atque ita ſe contemplandas immediate mediate ſiſtere, per ideas, quod eſt imagines quasdam repræſentativas ab objectis & actu percipiendi diſtinctas, ut Malbranchius diſputat, cognoſci neceſſe eſt. Unde vero hujusmodi ideæ nobis obtingant, & qua via ad intellectum ferantur, jam olim inter philoſophos nonnullos quæſtio fuit, & quinque omnino modis id contingere poſſe Malbranchius obſervavit. Statuendum enim eſt, vel ab objectis imagines quasdam emanare,& ad intellectum transmitti; vel animam ipſam ex virtute quadam connata ideas producere; vel tertio DEUM hujusmodi repræſentationes & velut icunculas cum anima creaſſe, aut hodie ipſi eas ſuggerere; vel quarto animam ſe intuendo rerum materialium naturas cognoſcere; vel denique ipſam unitam eſſe eſſentiæ cuidam infinitæ ac ſumme potenti,in qua entium creatorum quascunque perfectiones videat. Ex his quinque modis objecta per ideas cognoſcendi rejicit Malbranchius quatuor priores, ac quintum aliquot rationibus ſtabilire c. 6. s. 2. l. 3. t. l. annititur, quas ſtrictim enarrabimus. Supponenda initio ſunt duo: DEUM & rerum creatarum perfectiones in ſe continere,& intime unitum eſſe animabus noſtris per ſuam præſentiam, vi cujus ſe habeat inter loci ſpirituum, quemadmodum ſpatiis, tanquam locis, corpora continentur. His ita præmiſſis primo cerium eſt, faciliori ratione in DEO infinitam extenſionem omnibus ſpiritibus creatis cognoſcendam ſiſti, quam ſi infinitus numerus idearum a DEO in inſtanti creationis illorū ſingulis tribuendus ſit. Sapientiæ autem divinæ haud congruum eſt, difficulter ac operoſe exequi, quod breviori via mediisque ſimplicioribus præſtari poterat. Secundo ea ſententia, quæ in DEO res materiales cognoſci aſſerit, ſpirituum creatorum dependentiam ab increato amplificat, clariusque proponit. Tertio certum eſt, nos generalem quandam notitiam de omnibus entibus creatis poſſidere, antequam ſingulorum cognitionem acquiramus. Apparet autem omnia entia non poſſe alio modo ita abſtracte a nobis cognoſci, quam in DEO. Quarto impoſſibile eſt, DEO alium finem principalem ſuarum actionum propoſitum eſſe, quam ſeipſum. Quod ſi ſpiritui cuidam creato DEUS ſolem ideæ ſive objecti cognitionis immediati loco dediſſet, videretur ipſe hunc ſpiritum, ejusque ideam ſolis cauſa, non ſui, feciſſe. Poſt propoſita hæc argumenta explicat Malbranchius diſtincte, quo quidvis modo ab intellectu humano percipiatur. DEUM animus noſter immediate & ſine imane imagine videt; corpora & res omnes materiales per ideas apprehendit, & quidem, ut hactenus dictum fuit, in DEO; seipsum cognoscit per conscientiam, sive sensum internum, quem de actionibus suis habet; alios autem spiritus & aliorum hominum animas tantum conjectura assequitur. Hæc omnia quomodo & recte intelligi, & probe defendi contra quosvis adversarios debeant, latius ad tractatus finem usque traditur. Merentur autem conferri, quæ tomo III exhibentur, difficultatum quarundam solutiones. Illic enim Malbranchius diserte pronunciat, quod omnium corporum ideæ in extensione intelligibili infinita, qua in DEO rerum materialium perfectiones continentur, veluti lateant, quodque non sint in DEO particularium quorumcunque corporum imagines, sed quod eas DEUS animabus nostris exhibeat per extensionem illam intelligibilem infinitam, prout variis formis figurisque affecta est. Sic igitur in DEO non est equus, arbor, aut sol intelligibilis, vel alia quæcunque idea corporis cujusdam particularis, sed tota extensio intelligibilis quum possit concipi circularis, aut habere figuram equi vel arboris intelligibilis, inservit repræsentando soli, equo, arbori, ac per consequens est sol, arbor, equus mundi intelligibilis, imo fit sol, arbor, equus visibilis, quoties anima occasione hujusmodi corporum, (extrinsecus oculis observantium,) sensum aliquem habet, ut illis ideis sit intenta. Hæc & similia Autor tomo III subjungit, e quibus, quæ ejus mens sit, sufficienter apparet.

Videamus nunc paucis, quid Arnaldus ipsi opponat. Principio ostendit, quod Malbranchius, dum præjudicia ponenda esse aliquoties monet, ipse totam doctrinæ suæ de ideis summam præjudiciis quibusdam infantiæ inædificet. Postmodum observat Malbranchium sibi parum constare, sæpenumero quæ semel affirmaverat, alibi rejicere, ac pugnantia non raro loqui. Capite quinto sententiam illam explicat, quæ res materiales in seipsis immediate absque ideis ab intellectu humano cognosci, & ipsum actum percipiendi statuit objectum essentialiter repræsentare. In sequentibus quinque argumentis demonstrat falsum esse ac absurdum, dari ideas, si per ipsas esse quoddam repræsentativum, ab objecto & actu intellectus realiter distinctum, intelligatur. Capite duodecimo modum cognoscendi res omnes in DEO sub examen revocat, ac ostendit, fieri non posse, ut extensio illa intelligibilis infinita, qualem Malbranchius fingat, quodcunque corpus in specie nobis intuentibus ſiſtat, ſed omnino neceſſarium eſſe, particulares in Deo ideas admittere, ſi quis ſtatuat, nos in ipſo res materiales cognoſcere. Similem eſſe, juxta Malbranchii expoſitionem, intelligibilem illam extenſionem maſſæ alicui lapideæ aut ligneæ, quæ omni forma carens, quam ſtatuarius voluerit, recipiat; quam inepte vero id dicatur, hac hiſtoriola Arnaldus declarat. Pictor quidam, artifex optimus, tanto amore Auguſtinum proſequebatur, ut aliquando cuidam familiari ſuo diceret, ſe ardentiſſime cupere ſanctiſſimi hominis veram effigiem noſſe, ut eam digne exhiberet. Quæ vota ille alter collaudans, pictori promittebat, ſe daturum operam, ut ipſi quam primum ſatisfaceret. Altero igitur mane fragmento marmoris, malla cerea, & linteo expanſo in tabula diſpoſitis, vocari pictorem jubebat, qui deſiderio veram Auguſtini faciem cognoſcendi flagrans, amicum magnopere rogabat, ut ſecum rem gratiſſimam communicaret. Is ergo pictori oſtenſis, quæ tabulam occupabant, dicebat, S. Auguſtini faciem revera cum in marmore, tum in cera latere, nec quicquam ſupereſſe, quam ut pictor, ſtatuariæ quoque artis ſcientiſſimus, ſuperflua tolleret, ac poſtmodum applicatis decenter coloribus caput ſancti patris in tabulam referret. Pictor indignatus reſpondebat, ſe quidem facile admittere, Auguſtini faciem in marmore & cera latere, ſed eodem modo, quo mille alias. Itaque ſe tam facile alius cujusvis hominis, quam Auguſtini formam exſculpturum; & ſi vel maxime ita contingat, ut patris hujus forma emergat, ſe tamen de rei veritate certum eſſe non poſſe, quum nunquam oculis ſuis Auguſtinum viderit. Alter, qui hisce ſermonibus pictoris ad ſilentium redactus credebatur, accepto in manus libro de inquirenda veritate, regerebat, ſe Malbranchium ſequi, cujus ſenteutiam ſi quis approbet, non poſſe eum in extenſione intelligibili infinita aliter figuras, quas nunquam a ſe cognitas ſaltem nominari audiverit, invenire, quam ſi ſuperflua tollat, ac ita extenſionem prout par eſt, terminet, ac poſtremo applicatis rite coloribus illi parti extenſionis, corpus ſenſibile efficiat. His fere, quæ Malbranchius dixerat, Arnaldus refellere, ac riſui exponere laborat. Sequuntur capite decimo octavo tria præjudicia, quæ poſſint impedire, quo minus quis Malbranchii ſententiam ſemel cognitam abjiciat, quæque adeo removenda eſſe Arnaldus monet. Sub libri finem examinat, an recte dictum ſit, nos alios ſpiritus conjectura, animam noſtram conſcientia, DEUM in ſe ipſo ac per ſe ipſum apprehendere. Quo ordine iſta diſcutiantur, clarius e ſyllabo capitum octo & viginti, qui ſub initium tractatus exhibetur, apparet. Reſpondit autem hoc ipſo anno Malbranchius ad ſingula, quæ ab Arnaldo objiciuntur, libro peculiari cui hunc titulum fecit:

RESPONSE DE L' AUTEUR DE LA RECHERche de la Verite au livre de Mr. Arnaud des vrayes & de fauſſes Idées.

Roterodami apud Leerium 1684 in 8.

HUjus Tractatus bona pars in eo inſumitur, ut appareat, Arnaldum & pravis affectibus duci, & quum ſe librum de natura & gratia refutaturum pollicitus eſſet, intempeſtive nunc doctrinam de ideis aggredi, quæ nullam vel certe perexiguam cum hoc ſcripto connexionem habeat. Inde Arnaldi ſententiam, quam de modo cognoſcendi defendit, examinat, & perceptiones ſive modificationes animæ noſtræ omnino ab ideis res materiales repræſentantibus diſtinctas eſſe oſtendit, repetiris fere illis argumentis, quæ in libro de inquirenda veritate jam expoſita fuerant. Duo requiri docet, ut objectum aliquod ſenſibile, arbor, ſol, domus, &c. videatur: modalitatem colorum, quæ ſit, fatente ipſo Arnaldo, animæ quædam affectio, & ideam puram de extenſione. Nam quando quis vivum ſeuſum luminis habet, fixum ſive comparatum ad circulum intelligibilem a certo ſpatio intelligibili diſtantem, quique per diverſos colores ſenſibilis factus eſt, tunc ſol videri dicitur, non qualis eſt, ſed qualis apparet. Poſtmodum quinque demonſtrationes ab Arnaldo contra idearum naturam & exiſtentiam allatas refellit, oſtenditque, quantum eæ a veræ demonſtrationis ſpecie abeant, quum aliquoties ſupponant, quod eſt in quæſtione. Capite decimo tertio, quo ultimas duas demonſtrationes aggreditur, perſpicue explicare nititur, quomodo DEUS in extenſione intelligibili, tanquam archetypo, res omnes materiales cognoſcat, & quomodo nos per eandem quorumvis corporum particularium ideas acquiramus.

Sicuti vero corporum exiſtentiam Deus ipſe non per extenſionem intelligibilem, ſed per voluntatem ſuam cognoſcit, ita nos quoque, licet per ideas in Deo rerum materialium naturam videamus, tamen de exiſtentia ipſarum certos eſſe non poſſe, antequam Deus per modum revelationis naturalis nos doceat, eſſe ante oculos tale corpus, qualis imaginem in extenſione intelligibili invenimus. Fit autem illud apprehenſione colorum, quæ Deus nos percellit ad hujus aut illius corporis præſentiam, juxta leges generales unionis animæ atque corporis, & cujus efficacia determinata eſt per motum corpuſculorum, quæ cerebrum commovent. Hinc apparet, quousque exemplum a pictore deſumtum Malbranchius admittat. Fatetur ſimilem eſſe extenſionem intelligibilem infinitam in Deo maſſæ cuidam marmoreæ vel cereæ; applicationem vero ac determinationem ejus fieri non ab homine pro lubitu, ſed a Deo per externa objecta muterialia & ſpeciatim per colores visū movente, ut equi e.g. naturam & proprietates poſtea in extenſione intelligibili quærat, quas, antequam corpus hoc vel illo modo coloratum vidiſſet, invenire ita non poterat. Deinde ſingulis Arnaldi capitibus examinandis vacat, & ordine, quicquid opponitur, diluit. Notitiam, quam de ſpiritibus, de animabus noſtris, ut & de Deo habemus, explicat, ac probat. Hunc monet à nobis in hac vita non cognoſci perfecte quoad eſſentiam, clare autem a quovis hominum percipi ejus exiſtentiam, & quamvis in ipſo tanquam in ſpeculo corporum ideas beneficio extenſionis intelligibilis infinitæ modo declarato videamus, nos tamen proprie loquendo Deum ipſumet non intueri, neque ab eo Deum videri, qui illud in ipſo videt, quod ad ejus opera reſpectum involvit, aut qui ipſum videt, quatenus participari a creaturis poteſt. Cæterum plerumque Malbranchius contra Arnaldum e libro de inquirenda veritate diſputat, & quæ illuc obſcurius propoſuerat, evolvit ac enucleat. Hunc enim adverſarium rariſſime mentem ſuam intellexiſſe, nonnunquam verba detorſiſſe in ſenſum alienum ſubinde conqueritur.

Tractatus de Lithotomia, ſive Calculi e Veſica Extractione, cum Figuris, Autore Franciſco Toleto, Magiſtro Chirurgo jurato Pariſienſi, ac Xenodochii, quod Charitatis virorum vocant.

Pariſiis, A. 1682. in 12.

QUantum ad Chirurgicas operationes, potiſſimum eas, quæ periculi plenæ ſunt, feliciter peragendas valeat manus exercitata, vel ſola luculenter teſtatur Lithotomia. Hæc enim, licet ob periculorum multitudinem, cum qua conjuncta ſemper eſt, olim ab Hippocrate in Jurejurando ſancto evitata juramento fuerit, hodie nihilominus a multis magiſtris peritis eo ſæpiſſime ſucceſſu, quem calculis excruciati ſummopere exoptant, i.e. feliciſſimo, ſolet adminiſtrari. Magiſtros autem inter ejusmodi Lithotomos primatum nunc facile gerunt Galli, qui quotannis, verno inprimis tempore, in ſuis Noſotrophiis multos ægros ab ejusmodi ſarcina calculoſa, ipſis moleſtiſſima, fauſto plerumque eventu, liberant: e quorum numero noſter etiam eſt Autor, qui præſenti ſcripto Lithotomiam, velut operationem ſumme neceſſariam, facilem reddere allaborat. Quamvis enim ab aliis jamdum magnæ eruditionis atque experientiæ viris Chirurgia hæc explicata fuerit, quoniam nihilominus & hujus operandi motus, & inſtrumenta multum hodie immutata & emendata obſervantur, & ipſe inſuper plurima in praxi aliorum hac in arte præcellentium virorum, inter quos ſpeciatim Dominum Jonnot ſæpius nominat, ſtudioſe annotavit, talia omnino, quæ ab aliis fuere neglecta, ſe una prolaturum promittit; nec promiſſis ſuis eum cecidiſſe, quilibet, cui libellum præſentem cum aliis de Lithotomia ſcriptis conferte volupe erit, teſtabitur. Nobis impræſentiarum retuliſſe ſaltem ſufficiat, totum hoc Scriptum in viginta tria eſſe diſtributum capita: quorum ſeptem priora mere videntur theoretica, i. e. quid Lithotomia ſit, calculorum cauſas, naturam, ſpecies, differentias, ſigna denique diagnoſtica & prognoſtica, exponunt; reliqua vero cuncta practica, triplicis temporis differentiæ, nempe ante operationem, in operatione, & poſt hanc, accommodata exiſtunt. Sic ante operationem quæ prærequiruntur, accurate exhibentur, qualia præſertim ſunt inſtrumenta, & commoda ægri ſituatio, modus itidem catheterem rite & phimosin æque ac urethræ calculum, si fortassis adsint, prius removendi ratio. In operatione vero ipsum calculum e vesica extrahendi methodi diversæ, secundum apparatus, uti vocatur, vel alti, vel minoris, vel majoris, varietatem, exacte omnibus notatis cautelis instruuntur: e quibus tamen priorem, quæ apparatu alto, sive in pubis regione, celebratur, hodie abrogatam fere esse, etiamsi testes quidam fide digni confirment, Dominum Bonnettum, Chirurgum quondam Parisiensem non incelebrem, eam fuisse secutum. Post operationem tandem, quomodo ægri rite deligandi, symptomatis eorum succurrendum, ac calculi novi genesis præcavenda sit, edocetur: quibus bina capita, unum de ischuria, alterum de peritomæi propter urinam suppressam punctione, mediante instrumento ab Autore invento apte tentanda, immiscetur.

PRodiit in lucem anno 1682 tractatus Anglicus de Sale & Piscatura Johannis Collini, in quo doctissimus Autor de variis generibus salium, modisque ea conficiendi, cum in Angliatum in aliis quibusdam vicinis partibus erudite agit, piscaturam deinde, quam in Islandia, Terra nova (Newfound land vocant) Wallia alibique Angli exercent, describit, & qua arte quicunque pisces sale condiendi sint, ut quam diutissime integri serventur, docet. Passim etiam ac inprimis sub opusculi finem quædam de promovenda mercatura, cujus beneficio Anglia hactenus floret, traduntur. Inter alia quamplurima haud vulgaris notæ refert & affirmat autor, vastam illam molem arenæ, quæ præter salem in omni muria, sive ea fontium sit, sive maris, sive salis dissoluti, inven tur, a coctione esse, nec ante ipsam in liquore contineri; siquidem repetitis experimentis comprobatum sit, salsuginem per lintea Hollandica octuplicata actam, ne minima quidem arenæ vestigia in filtro relinquere. Hujus assertionis veritatem porro inquirendā sibi sumsit Robertus Plot, Medicinæ Doctor Oxoniensis, quum occuparetur in edenda naturali historia Comitatus Staffordii, qui fontibus salsis abundans, magnam salis albi copiam in omnes Angliæ partes transmittit.

transmittit. Uſus autem in hoc negotio fuit duorum amicorum opera, quod ipſe quidem tum temporis lon:ius, horum autem domicilia parum a ſalinis Staffordiacis abeſſent. Illi igitur primum per optima lintea aliquoties plicata muriam colantes, verum eſſe, quod ſcripſerat Collinus, experiebantur; neque enim quicquam præter pauxillum nigricantis pulviſculi in linteis remanſerat, quum tamen poſt muriæ coctionem arena inde proveniens ſalem una ſexta parte excederet. Poſtea vero aſſumto microſcopio, in muria minutiora quædam animalcula, & tranſparentes lamellas figuræ rectangularis oblongæ, nonnullas quadratæ obſervabant, e quorum invicem concretione & ſal & arena fieri videbantur. Erant autem cum lamellæ, tum animalcula vicies fere, (id quod eodem vitro detegebant,) linteorum interſtitiis minora, ut hinc facile appareret ratio, cur poſt percolationem nihil fuerit in linteis relictum. Alio tempore, quum illi aquam e corbibus & vehiculis, quibus ſal recens factus ferebatur, deſtillantem examinarent, oblongas iſtas particulas congregari & in glomos coire ſentientes, hinc concludebant, arenam eodem modo generari, quæ nihil aliud ſit, quam ſal inſipidum, e partibus non æque acuminatis, ut ille alter, conſtans. Tentata deinde fuit cum a Roberto Plot, tum a duobus ejus amicis arenæ ſolutio, per quam ſperabant, ſe obſervationis veritatem confirmaturos. Sed res parum ſucceſſit. Quamvis enim poſt coctionem arena aliquid de gravitate ſua perdidiſſe videretur, erat tamen ſuſpicio, nonnihil ſalis arenæ permixtum fuiſſe, eoque ſoluto, hanc evaſiſſe leviorem. De cætero iſta animalcula anguillulis, quæ in aceto ſunt, ſimilia eſſe doctiſſimus Robertus pronunciat, ac ulteriorem de ipſis diſquiſitionem in naturali hiſtoria Comitatus Staffordii, quæ tum ſub prælo erat, quum primum fieret experimentum, pollicetur.

Tractatus de Phoſphoris cum ſecreta ipſorum compoſitione, Autore Dn. Comierio Doctore Theologo, Præpoſito Ternantii, & Mathematum Profeſſore Pariſienſi; Exhibitus Mercurii Gallici menſ. Junio & Julio, 1683.

CLariſſimus Autor in hoc de Phoſphoris opuſculo, poſt eruditum præfamen de lumine, igne æterno, ac lampadum ſepulcralium uſu, varia phoſphororum artificialium genera, quæ hactenus erudito orbi, maximam partem per Germanos noſtros, innotuerunt, deſcribit, atque ut tam admirabilis inventi gloriam patriæ ſuæ vindicet, jam olim Fernelio, Henrici II Medico famigeratiſſimo cognitum fuiſſe modum parandi Phoſphorum ſiccum fulgurantem, qui nunc communiter Kraftio adſcribitur, & de ejus ſtupendis affectibus ipſum prolixe ac perſpicue lib. 2. de abditis rerum cauſis c 17. egiſſe affirmat. Is etenim lapis Indicus lucidiſſimus, quem Bononiæ Regi oblatum Thuanus memorat, & cujus mentionem Fernelius loc. alleg. facit, juxta Comieriuu Phoſphorus fuit, a Fernelio arte factus, & per hominem ex India venientem in aulam miſſus, ut tanto pluris æſtimaretur, nec, quum ejus compoſitio vulgaris facilisque eſſet, vileſceret. Verum an hæc ita recte dicta ſint, viderint alii. Certe qui Fernelium leget, haud obſcure ſentiet, hiſtoriolam de lapide ex India allato ænigma ignis & flammæ eſſe, quo fortaſſe Fernelius aliquibus ſuæ artis ac ſectæ viris illudere voluit. Adducit præterea quædam alia Comierius, quibus probet, Phoſphororum primos autores Gallos fuiſſe, non Germanos aut Italos, qui poſtremi & ipſi de palma inventionis certant. Quum autem ex omnibus Phoſphoris Kraftianus, quem Comierius Phoſphorum Fernelianum Kraftii vocat, conſiderari mereatur, viſum ipſi eſt, modum, quo præparetur, hactenus paucis perſpectum, exacte & prolixius tradere. Eum nos Latine publico Curioſorum commodo hic exhibemus. Ubi bonam urinæ quantitatem parumper fermentatam evaporare ad mellis conſiſtentiam feceris, immittas in eam terream retortam, & extrahes inde, lento igne ſubjecto, quicquid reliquum eſt phlegmatis una cum ſpiritu, uſque dum oleum guttis rubentibus deſtillare incipiat, quod illico applicato recipiente colligendum eſt.

Augeatur aliquando ignis, ut quicquid ineſt olei, exeat; invenies in fundo caput mortuum, cujus ſuperior pars nigra erit & ſpongioſa. Eam addes alteri prorſus ſimili materiæ, quæ in alio vaſe remanebit, poſtquam lento igne ſeparaveris omne humidum ab urinoſo oleo, quod erat in recipiente. Ex hac duplicis materiæ miſtura tolles libram unam medicam, eamque injicies in retortam fictilem ex optima terra, quæ fere contineat tres congii octavas cum dimidia, ſive ſeptem aquæ libras nummularias; applicabis retortæ magnum vas recipiens vitreum, lutoque probe munitis juncturis, ſubjicies ignem apertum, ſucceſſive eum intendendo, donec retorta rubeſcat; quod ubi factum fuerit, augendus eſt ignis per novem aut decem horas, prodibunt tunc in recipiens nubeculæ albæ, quas ſequetur materia ſubflava, quæ ſublimata formabit phoſphorum ad interiora latera colli recipientis. Is altero mane inde poterit decerpi, ſi recipiens aqua frigida lavatum fuerit. Totam maſſam in vaſe vitreo igni leniſſimo impones, & emerget ex aqua materia oleoſa, & congregabuntur minutæ phoſphori partes. Omnibus bene refrigeratis, colliges maſſam phoſphori, & indes eam lagenæ vitreæ, quæ aqua communi implenda eſt, & exacte vitreo obturamento claudenda. Quod ſi orificium largius ſit, accipies ſubereum operculum, & veſicæ porcinæ particulam in aqua mollitam, quam extenſam chorda ad collum lagenæ adſtringes. Concludit Comierii opuſculum obſervatio quædam curioſa. Sc. addiderat ipſe phoſphori liquidi, materia luminoſa exhauſti, aliquot guttis in poculo certam aquæ tranſparentis quantitatem, quæ & odore & ſapore carens modico ſumtu facillime, ut ait, paratur. Hi liquores juncti fumos & exhalationes ſubtiles, quæ in tenebris lucere videbantur, emittebant, & ſuprema vitri pars lumine repleta erat, quoties poculum palma tegebat. Ejus aquæ nomen 23 literis trium vocabulorum conſtans ſteganographice expreſſit:

Hagæ Com. Anno 1683 in 12.

QUanquam inter solatia & levamina curarum & solicitudinum non immerito referatur, si liceat eas in sinum amicorum effundere, sive sermone id fiat, sive per literas: periculosæ tamen plenum opus id est aleæ. Si quis enim pro amico fido & taciturno, cui ut lapidi loqui se credit, reperiat hominem ad instar cribri perfluentem, qui commissa effutire gestiat, sibique dicta & scripta, omnibus dici scribique putet; næ ille in magnum malum incautus incidit. Qua mente aut ratione publicatæ sint Epistolæ hæ Guid. Patini, insignis non ita pridem in Parisiensi Academia Doctoris Medici, nobis quidem exacte non constat, nisi quod ex Epist. 188 apparet, ipsum, ne id fieret, precatum esse. Honeste tamen præsumimus, editas esse bona mente, eaque cum circumspectione, ne defuncti jam fato suo viri liberis aut posteris libertas illa noceat, qua in literis hisce suis non usus modo, sed fortassis abusus est. Ejus enim infelicitatis exemplum autor hic ipse refert, cum memorat, non alia causa severo judicio animadversum esse ante annos hos quadraginta, in illustrissimi Gallicarum rerum Historici, Jacobi Augusti Thuani nepotem, egregium itidem virum, quam quod avus de Richelii Cardinalis avo, vera quidem, sed illaudabilia, Commentariis suis inseruisset. Vid. Ep. 75 & 170. Nocuit forte vivo etiam Patino libertas linguæ, in Ecclesiasticos præsertim: nam filium ejus Virum Clarissimum & libris de numismatibus celebre nomen adeptum, Carolum Patinum, ex patria expellendi si non alia causa fuit, quam illa a Patre Ep. 162 relata, quod libelli quidam Reformatorum & contra utilitatem Regiam ab exteris scripti, apud eum reperti fuerint; fieri potuit, ut invidia juri prævaluerit. Quicquid sit, nos majori cum securitate literas hasce legimus, quam qua scriptæ vel ditæ sunt. Tanta enim in brevi hoc libello, vix 200 epistolas, easque que parum longas continente, est farrago rerum, de quibus ad amicos scripsit Patinus, ut non possit non lectio earum maxime delectare, in aliquibus etiam juvare. Quia vero ex stylo sermonis & literarum, animi quædam imago repræsentatur, facile assentiri possumus illi, qui præfationem epistolis præmisit, cum characterem Patini proponit; fuisse scilicet eum ingenio promto & præsentissimo, eruditione exquisita, judicio acri, facundia & jocandi industria & facilitate naturali. Certe quod apud Gregorium Nazianzenum legitur, non inepte quadrat ad has epistolas: eo nimirum esse pulchriores, quia tales esse non videntur; sicut ob eam causam aquila in fabula prælata esse dicitur, ob naturalem & modestum decorem, cæteris avibus vario plumarum ornatu superbientibus.

Ut autem in gratiam eorum, qui Gallicæ linguæ periti non sunt, aliquid ex literis hisce excerptum exhibeamus, sciendum est, plurimas ad scientiam artemque medicam pertinere. Servit autem Patinus per omnia sectæ suæ Hippocraticæ & Galenicæ, quam adversus Empiricos & Chimicos acerrime, imo plusquam mordaciter propugnat; convitiis aliquando magis quam rationibus certans. Ita Paracelsum, ita Helmontium, ita collegas etiam suos, Chymiæ operantes, Regios licet Medicos, & in aula potentes, tanquam humani generis hostes & homicidas promiscuos excipit, ut referri id sine dedecore vix possit. Quicquid ex Antimonio paratur, cujusque usus tantopere prædicatur: nec experimentis caret, pro veneno ipsi est, intrepide asserenti, omnes morbos curabiles, sine Antimonio aliisque chymicis medicaminibus, curari posse. Eodem fere loco habet Salia, Tartarum, Bezoar, vinum emeticum (euecticum hoc ironice vocat) confectiones Alkermes, Opium & Laudanum, quæque ex perlis & gemmis fiunt, ad ostentationem, ut ait, & emungendos ære homines. Irridet, quæ dici solent specifica, negatque per ea morbos, qui medicorum scandala dicuntur, depelli, aut plus effici, quam si methodo veterum doctorum, quibus Fernelium, dein Simonem & Nicolaum Petrejos (Pietre) æquiparat, per venæ sectiones, & lenia purgantia ex vegetabilibus procedatur. De Theriaca judicat, in peste illam pro veneno habendam, nec olim adversus hanc, sed ad sanandos morsus a rabidis canibus inventam fuisse. Aquarum mineralium utilitatem elevat, & illis sua, id est, vulgatissima, domestica & parum sumptuosa remedia, Rhabarbari, fol.

ſen. Syrup. roſ. & alia ejusmodi longe præfert. Laudat librum ea commendantem, (le Medecin Charitable) Medicum beneficum, cujus autorem nominat Silvageonem, (Sauvageon) aliumque tractatum, qui dicitur Legenda Antimonii, à Joh. Merlato, collega Patini, ut ſcribit, compoſitum ſæpe allegat. Caſparum Hoffmannum inter Germanos plurimi facit, ejusque pathologiam M.S. ab heredibus 50 Imperialium pretio redemiſſe ſe ſcribit. Sennerti & Rolfincii non ſine honore meminit; ſed ita, ut dubitet, an practici fuerint. Eos vero qui tales non ſunt, ſed intra docendi otium perſiſtunt, ludibrio habet. Minus bene ſentit de Medico Batavo van der Linden, eumque Chymicæ arti obſtinate deditum, neglectaque ſanguinis miſſione occubuiſſe, inſultans narrat. In pharmacopolas lucripetas, eorumque complices medicos, & in chirurgos altum ſapientes, & extra artis fines vagantes, vehementer invehitur. Singularia quædam habet de Epilepſia, quæ Latine leguntur epiſt. 32. item de radice Chin-China, cujus uſum valde extenuat ep. 46. 104, de ſale viperæ, quem parvi facit. ep. 46. nec meliora de Aloe & pilulis Francofurtenſibus tradit ep. 63. 76. Aphoriſmum Hippocratis, quod fluente alvo vena non ſit ſecanda, male intellectum, innumeris hominum millibus necem attuliſſe tradit, epiſt. 133. Morſum canis rabioſi, abſque ſpecificis per venæ ſectiones & purgationes mites ſanatum, experimento probat ep. 130. Anatomiam hominis ſtrangulati, in quo jecur ſiniſtro, lien dextro latere repertum fuerit, refert ep. 30. idque a Riolano collega ſuo, (quem ex merito æſtimat,) inſpectum & notatum eſſe ait, ſectionem faciente Riverio. Lunæ & ſiderum obſervationes in medicinam ab Arabum ſuperſtitione invectam parvi æſtimat. Temperantem ſtudii & lucubrationis uſum, & ſomni utilitatem valde commendat, ſibi ipſi gratulatus, quod praxi medica ab immoderata legendi & ſcribendi cupiditate diſtractus fuerit. Scorbutum plebis morbum eſſe tradit, a victus ratione ortum. De lue Gallica illorum accedit opinioni, qui non novum ſed vetus malum eſſe crediderunt, ſub lepræ nomine olim in Gallia intellectum: allegat Pinedam & Bolducum, qui Jobo a Dæmone illum ipſum morbum inflictum fuiſſe commentati ſunt.

Sed ex aliis etiam diſciplinis ſubjungimus, de quibus Polyhiſtor hic familiaribus ſuis animi ſenſa exponere non eſt veritus. Et Theologica quidem quod attinet, etſi Romanæ Eccleſiæ, ut dubitare nequimus

nequimus, membrum fuerit, aliqua tamen ejus dogmata vix videtur amplexus esse. Purgatorium sane satis aperte pro figmento habet, ejus igne ollas sacerdotum calefieri, & culinam instrui dictitans. De Pontificis potestate, Venetorum eorumque Doctoris Pauli Sarpii axiomata sequitur, cujus historiæ de concilio Tridentino fidem habet, spreto Pallavicino. In Ecclesiasticos, præsertim in Jesuitas omnesque fere Monachos, Papæ, ut ait; dictoque Innocentii X confirmat Prætorianos, mire acerbus aut petulans est. Luxum Episcoporum & Prælatorum notabilibus exemplis demonstrat. Inter alia convivium memorat, post Episcopi cujusdam inaugurationem anno 1652 habitum, in quo 120 convivæ sederint, & unicuique quindecim fercula exhibita fuerint. Decipi sic dicit mundum; in nomine Domine, vel ut ex Val. Max. loquitur, per religionis simulationem, alimenta inertiæ quæri. Aliquando ita loquitur, ut profane de religione, & inprimis de futura vita sentire videatur. In Paradiso sane Ciceronis, Virgilii, Aristotelis, Platonis, Juvenalis, Horatii, Galeni (quibus Fernelium, Morellum & Riolanum addit) societatem exoptat. Fœminarum ad templa & ceremonias cursitantium Divos esse ait, S. Trotet, S. Coquet, & S. Babil; quasi dicas, sanctum Cursorem, sanctum Garrulum, sanctum Nugivendum. De spectris & magis quæ narrantur, cum Naudeo, quo familiarissime usus est, quemque Puritanum Peripateticum vocat, pro fabulis habet; improbat etiam judicia contra magos, & increpat eo nomine Delrium & Bodinum scriptorem notissimum, quem impium & in Judaica superstitione mortuum esse dicit. Gassendum ut Epicureum verum, sed mitigatum, prædicat, ejusque morituri constantiam laudat, cum sibi, ut medico, illum de instantibus extremis monenti, magno animo respondisset, nihil se metuere, versumque allegaret:

Omnia præcepi atque animo mecum ante peregi.

Petrum de Marca maximi nominis virum, ambitionis & avaritiæ incusat, qui solutis Mazarino Cardinali 50 scutatorum millibus, Archiepiscopatum Tholosanum emerit. Refert etiam, illum in juventute Reformatæ religioni addictum & Ecclesiasten fuisse; quod a Baluzio non est traditum. Jansenium, etsi invisum, & censura Pontificia notatum, triumphare tamen ait inter viros bonos: & cum narraret Diarium Ludovici Santamorii (de Saint Amour) in quo Janse-nius ſtrenue defenditur, Pariſiis combuſtum publice eſſe, epicriſin addit: veritatem non comburi. Alios etiam ejus ſectæ magni facit, inprimis Arnaldum. Erga Proteſtantes non male eſt affectus. Doctos inter eos viros, etiam Theologos, & in his Ammyraldum, & Bochartum egregiis mactat elogiis. Mire vero extollit Caſaubonum, Scaligerum, Salmaſium, Grotium, (cujus tamen vacillationes in religione non tacet,) aliosque in Belgio & Galliis illuſtres literatos. Ex veteribus Eraſmum valde æſtimat, ejusque & Jos. Scaligeri effigies, crucifixo quod depictum habuit, adjunxiſſe ſe ad latus teſtatur. Richelium Cardinalem, ſi vitam protuliſſet, conciliaturum fuiſſe ait religionis diſſidia, & jam ære corrupiſſe præcipuos Proteſtantium Doctores, inter quos nominat Ferrium Metenſem, 500. ſcutat. penſione annua honoratum. Itali cujusdam judicium non videtur improbare, qui Genevenſium, quam viderat, diſciplinam & religionem, non malam, ſed præferendam ei Romanam eſſe dixerat, quia cum hac per orbem commodius tranſeatur. Eos qui religionem mutarunt, ſpernit, v.g. Lipſium, Sorbierium: manendum eſſe dicit cum Naudæo unicuique, qualis ſit.

Eadem qua religionem & religioſos taxat libertate, etiam Politicos tractat. Regem quidem ubique laudibus & veneratione proſequitur, ſed aulæ proceribus & vectigalium regiorum procuratoribus non parcit; Mazarino inprimis infenſus, & maledictis inſiſtens. Ita non eſt mirandum, quod in factione illa, quæ a funditoribus (frondeurs) nomen accepit, partes ſenatus contra aulam non obſcure tueatur, ut quos ex eo ordine ira Regia perculit, ultimos Gallorum, ad Cremutii illius Cordi, Tacito memorati dicta alludens, vocare audeat. De publica & univerſali populi Gallici paupertate, cujus cauſas inter alias, gravitatem tributorum & fiſcalium redemtionum verſuras, & venalitatem munerum (la Paulette) facit, ſæpe cum dolore conqueritur. De literatis, eorumque laboribus liberrime judicat, ſtultos potius quam ſapientes ad libros ſcribendos accedere ait. De Baronio Lucæ Hoſtenii dictum refert, aſſerentis, ſe ex Vaticanæ Bibliothecæ cui præfuit libris, 8000 errores in annalibus ejus poſſe oſtendere. Ex Jeſuitis Petavium, Sirmondum & alios quosdam celebrat; at illi mordacitatem & contradicendi libidinem imputat, & ab Arnaldo ſuperatum eum ſcribit libro de frequenti communione. Grammondum mondum miſerum ſcriptorem eſſe dicit, Thuano minime comparandum, & adeo vilis animi, ut quindecim paginas libri ſui jam excuſi mutaverit, Richelii laudandi occaſionem captans, fruſtrata quidem adulatione, ob mortem Cardinalis mox ſecutam. Charronium divinum ſcriptorem eſſe ait; collaudat etiam Launoium, & ex ſuperioris ſeculi viris Montanum (la Montagne) quem tamen dicit de Medicis iniquius, & ſine experientia ſufficienti judicaſſe, cum vitam, per ſuum illum Medicorum contemtum, ultra 60 annos non produxiſſet. Totas etiam nationes ſale Satyrico defricat. Germanis ebrietatem, Alchymiæ & peregrinandi ſtolidum amorem exprobrat. Batavos ſuperbiæ & popularis contumaciæ accuſat. At Italiam proverbiali ſcommate diabolorum patriam nuncupat, plenam Judæis, Atheis, Apoſtatis, Monachiſmo & hypocriſi toto orbe maxima. Hæc atque innumera alia de ingenio viri fidem facere poſſunt. Vixit annos, ut hoc tandem addamus, 71, obiit anno 1672; natus erat prope Bellovacum, parentibus tenuibus, ſed quos ob probitatem, & bene curatam ſui educationem laudat & ditioribus nobilibusque præfert. Horum vitia, impietatem, luxum, avaritiam, crudelitatem & duritiem in pauperes paſſim inſectatur. Ipſe vero tantum vanitatis faſtidium jactat, ut apud amicum excuſaturus, quod ſplendidum Polonicæ legationis ingreſſum ſpectare neglexerit, addat: ſe vix a libris ſuis ſurrecturum, ſi Salomo Rex cum Regina Sabæa, & omni pompa ſua, urbem intrarent. Hæc profecto Stoam ſapiunt, & rerum vulgo æſtimatarum præfractum vilipendium.

INter ſcripta ter ſeptem, in lucem hactenus ab Autore Clariſſimo emiſſa, Lectiones præſentes in Catalogo, calci earum adnexo, ultimum locum occupant. Argumentum earum præ aliis Circularem Sanguinis motum evolvit, non quaſi hic ab aliis nondum ventilatus ſit, ſed quemadmodum in præloquio ediſſerit, ut in ejus cauſas, conditiones & circumſtantias, item rationem mechanicam, de quibus illi nedum cogitarant, accuratius inquireret. Sicut autem ultro fatetur, ſe doctrinæ clarioris gratia demonſtrationes aliquot mechanicas, ex *Joh. Alph. BREVISSIMÆ JURIS CIVILIS INSTITUTIONES PRÆCIpuis illius definitionibus ac diviſionibus contextæ.

Pariſiis apud Viduam Joannis Pocquet. 1683 in 12.

UT juris utriusque & Civilis & Canonici ſtudioſis ſuccurreret præſens Autor, quisquis eſt, e re eſſe putavit, poſtquam anno 82 juris Canonici Inſtitutiones tradidiſſet, in Actis præcedentis anni calendis Auguſti publicatis, jam a nobis commendatas, etiam Inſtitutiones Juris Civilis exhibere, ad quarum laudem, quæ ibidem diximus, huc repetita volumus ſingula. Nam & hic quæ Juſtinianus in Inſtitutionibus ſuis tradiderat, proponuntur perſpicue ſimul atque breviter, ac præterea definitiones terminorum quandoque a Juſtiniano omiſſæ (quarum quidem in Inſtitutionibus fit mentio) eorumque diviſiones ſtudioſa diligentia ſupplentur.

Calendis Junii, Anno M DC LXXXIV.

ACHATES TIBERIANUS, SIVE GEMMA CÆSAREA, antiquitate, argumento, arte, hiſtoria prorſus incomparabilis, D. Auguſti Apotheoſin, Imp. Cæſ. Tiberii, Auguſtæque Juliæ domus ſeriem & icones, gentesque bello captas repraſentans; notis hiſtoricis illuſtrata, auctore Jacobo le Roy, Libero Barone. S. R. I.

Amſtelo[illegible]mi. Sed proſtat Bruxellis apud Franciſc. Foppens 1683, in fol.

MArmor ſub finem ſuperioris anni vetuſtiſſimum, quod Homeri repræſentat Apotheoſin, exhibuimus, prout illud a Giberto Cupero, poſt Athanaſium Kircherum, cum gemma Auguſtæa quadam aliisque numiſmatis antiquiſſimis fuit illuſtratum. Tab. VIII. Apotheoſin nunc aliam ſiſtimus, Auguſti videlicet Imperatoris, quæ in gemma quadam alia, eaque vere auguſta, & cui parem orbis terrarum vix vidit, expreſſa eſt, vel expreſſa eſſe colligitur. Aſſervatur illa hodie in ſacro Regis Chriſtianiſſimi gazophylacio, cui nō aliam ob cauſam illata olim videtur, quam quia Joſephū ſub Rege ſuo regnantem referre fuit credita. Undenam vero & per quos ea gemma ad Reges Francorum pervenerit, ediſſerere citra dubitationem non licet. Perquam autem credibile eſt, Conſtantinum M. cum Byzantium in Romam novam transmutatum iret, non ſtatuas tantum pleraſque eximias, ſed & cimelia Auguſtæ ſuppellectilis ſecum eam in urbem tranſtuliſſe. Nec vero abſimile eſt, hanc gemmam ab Imperatoribus tandem, cum & Turcæ & hoſtes alii Conſtantinopolitanum Imperium adorti eſſent, grandi pretio divenditam, tandemque a Balduino II Flandro Imperatore Conſtantinopolitano, in Galliam fuiſſe transportatam; quippe qui a Palæologis pulſus, non tantum Franciam, Angliam, aliaque regna ad ſuppetias undique conquirendas peragravit, ſed & ablatas ſecum paſſionis Dominicæ reliquias cimeliaque alia, pecuniam ut corrogaret, hoſtesque ſua Byzantio expelleret, vel vendidit regibus vel oppignoravit. Regnabat enim id temporis non fœda tantum barbaries & ſpiſſa quædam antiquitatum Romanarum ignorantia, ſed & ſuperſtitio mirifica, atque idololatrica reliquiarum, quæ Chriſti Sanctorumque aliorum eſſe venditabantur, veneratio. Sacrum igitur quippiam in hac quoque gemma exhiberi cum viſum ſit, ecquid miri eſt, eam magno in pretio habitam, tandemque in Sancta, ut vocant, Capella Pariſ. fuiſſe repoſitam? Nam ut Petrus Gaſſendus in vita Nicolai Fabricii Peireskii lib. III p. 288 atteſtatur, exornata illa circum fuerat Chriſtianis figuris, & epigraphis a Græco quodam Imperatore; adeo, ut cum Balduinus eam oppignoraſſet D. Ludovico, & poſtmodum tandem veniſſet in manus Caroli Regis, nomine quinti, & crederetur ſacram quandam continere hiſtoriam, in gazophylacium ſacelli Baſilicæ, ſeu, ut vulgo indigitant, Sanctæ Capellæ quaſi donarium religioſum fuerit illata. Sed idem Peireskius, uti priſcorum cimeliorum admirator conquiſitorq; fuit & ſolertiſſimus & intelligentiſſimus, ita facile pervidit, non triumphum Joſephi, ut vulgò exiſtimabatur, vel aliam ex ſacro codice hiſtoriam, ſed profanam aliquam, & quantum aſſequi conjecturis potuit, Cæſaris Octaviani Auguſti Apotheoſin, ejusque aulam ac proſapiam in hac gemma repræſentari. Peireskium excepit Johannes Triſtanus, Toparcha Sancti Amandi, vir de re antiquaria & nummaria inſigniter meritus. Nam & hic in Commentariis hiſtoricis Imperatorum Romanorum, anno 1635 Pariſiis Gallice editis, non Gemmam tantum hanc æri inciſam exhibuit, ſed & ſuam explicationem ſubdidit, a Peireskiana multum deflectens. Nam quem Peireskius cenſuit eſſe Auguſtum, radiato ac velato capite conſpicuum, Deæ Romæ ope elatum in cœlum, eum Sanctamantius hic interpretatur Jovem; & quem ille credidit eſſe Marcellum, equorum amantem, quem fata terris tantum oſtendere, hunc eſſe vult Auguſtum. Sic quem Peireskius ſub Marcello exiſtimavit eſſe Druſum, Tiberii filium, manu verſus Jovem extenſa poſtulantem quaſi poſt patrem Imperium, Sanctamantius Numerium Atticum eſſe autumat, qui D. Auguſtum in cœlum aſcendentem vidiſſe ſe juraverat; & quam aſſidentem Druſo Livillam uxorem ille cenſuit, hic cenſet eſſe poſſe Juliam, Auguſti filiam in exilium actam; uti credidit, illum ad dexteram Jovis eſſe Druſum, Tiberii fratrem, quem potius Julium Cæſarem eſſe Peireskius fuit arbitratus. De Germanico, Agrippina, Caligula nihil eſt diſcriminis, imo nec de Tiberio, niſi quod Peireskius veſtem imperialem ſerpentibus circumdatam eſſe duxit Ægidem Jovis, appellavitque lanceam ſine ferro, ſceptrum prælongum. De cætero quam Peireskius exiſtimavit Antoniam Germanici matrem, Sanctamantius Liviam; & quam ille putavit Liviam, Santamantius Antoniam agnoſcit. Poſt Peireskium & Triſtanum eandem gemmam interpretari cœpit Albertus Rubenius, Petri Pauli Rubenii, celeberrimi pictoris, qui & gemmam hanc manu propria excepit, filius, & Philippi IV in ſanctiore Concilio Secretarius, cujus diſſertatio de hac gemma anno 1655 Antverpiæ a Gaſperio Gevartio, cui & dedicata eſt, fuit edita. Hunc ſi audias, (ſequitur autem jam Peireskium, jam Sanctamantium, jam neutrum, ſuismet divinationibus indulgens) Livia in eodem, quo Tiberius, ſolio reſidet, Auguſta quippe & dominationis fere ſocia; Antonia Druſi uxor recta adſtans filium Germanicum amplectitur, qui galea, clypeo & ocreis inſtructus tacto capite ad vitam Reipublicæ & Tiberio patri impendendam ſe obſtringit. Adſiſtit Germanico Cajus Cæſar Caligula manipulario habitu, qui patrem in Syriaca expeditione, teſte Suetonio, fuit comitatus. Marito & filio, Germanico nempe & Caligulæ adjuncta eſt Agrippina, eaque non ſtola, ut Livia & Antonia, ſed chlamyde fibularia, quia in caſtris plerumq; verſabatur, circumvelata. Ab altera parte pone thronum Tiberii ſedet puella in ſubſellio ſphingis imagine exornato, Livilla videlicet Germanici ſoror, ejusque maritus Druſus, juvenis galeatus ac paludatus, ſeipſum quoque dextra ad cœlum elevata paratum innuens ad pericula pro majeſtate Imperii ſubeunda. Liviæ adjacet Armenia, habitu Barbari, qui tiara, tunica manicata & ſarabaris eſt velatus. In ſuperiori gemmæ parte quatuor Divi ſeu Heroes conſpiciuntur. Ex his, qui orbem manibus tenet, Æneas vel Iulus videtur Rubenio; qui ſupra hunc emicat, Auguſtus; qui Pegaſo vehitur, Druſus, Germanici pater; & quia creditum eſt, Druſum ex rogo a Venere ereptum, & in ſtellam Heſperum fuiſſe transmutatum, Pegaſo Veneris velut miniſtro Cupido ductor & moderator habenarum eſt appoſitus. Qui ſupereſt Heros paludatus & laureatus, ac clypeum utraque manu te-nu tenens, Rubenio Tiberius Claudius Nero est, Tiberii Cæsaris pater naturalis, qui uti Alexandrino bello classi præpositus, Ægyptios, teste Dione, navali devicit prælio, ita laurea eam ob victoriam hic est coronatus. Imum gemmæ segmentum refert illustres utriusque sexus captivos, eosque ut Rubenius censet, Germanos a Cæsare Germanico in triumpho traductos, & a Strabone lib. 7. recensitos. Exhibetur nempe ex mente ejus Thusnelda, & in gremio ejus Thumelicus triennis. Assidet frater ejus Segimundus, & qui huic adhæret, patruelis Septhacus, cum adjuncta uxore, parmæ incumbente, barbarus in extremo gemmæ angulo sedens Deudorix Sicamber: ab altera parte captivus alius manu caput sustinens Libys, Cattorum sacerdos. Inter Libyn & Thusneldam, Arpi Principis Cattorum conjux & filia apparent. Atque hæ illæ Rubenii sunt de Achate isthoc Tiberiano, post Peireskium & Sanctamantium, conjecturæ. His superveniens Vir illustris Jacobus le Roy, Liber Baro S.R.I. interpretatione nova eandem gemmam ex priscis numismatis scriptoribusq; elucidavit, elucidatamq; superiore anno Amstelodami publicavit. Hoc judice in segmento superiori Roma Dea, galeata & paludamento succincta orbem terrarum utraq; manu gestat, Divumq; Augustum Cæsarem corona radiata veloq; sacro insignem, ac sceptrum hastamve manu gestantem humeris dorsoq; suo impositum in cœlum evehit; sed Julium Cæsarem laureatum, & clypeum utraque manu tenentem, pede suo ad tibiam ejus adducto, leviter in altum extollit. Qui Pegaso seu equo alato vectus, Drusus Germanicus est, Germanici Cæsaris pater, ob victam Germaniam laurea coronatus. Quod secundum segmentum attinet, augustali solio insidet Tiberius, Jovem habitu repræsentans, eiq; assidet Livia dominationis fere socia; ad sellæ Augustæ pedes qui sedet, Armenius est, vel Armenia ipsa a Tiberio in potestatem P.R. redacta. Retro post Liviam adstat Drusus junior, Tiberii Augusti filius, tropæum ferens ob res in Germania bene gestas, manusque extendens, vel ad Augustum Tiberio propitiandum, vel ad orbem quem Dea Roma portat, successione sibi debitum. Druso assidet Livilla ejus uxor; quæ Julia Augusti filia Sanctamantio videbatur. Ad lævum Tiberii latus adstat Antonia Aug. Drusi uxor, Cæsaris Germanici mater. Retro post Germanicum sedet uxor ejus Agrippina, juxtaque matrem adstat Caligula, militari & ipse habitu ac clypeo, & arma hostium ob

patris victorias pedibus calcans. In tertio segmento captivi Domino le Roy videntur esse Armenii a Tiberio Augusto domiti, non Germani, & quidem non ob tegumenta tantum capitum vestimentaq; cætera, sed & plane diversa armorum genera. Nos enarratis hisce Quatuorvirorum summorum de hac Gemma Augustæa expositionibus, Palæmonis nobis partes non sumimus: minime autem dubitamus fore, ut aliis non minus, quam nobis, Peireskii, Rubenii & Domini le Roy, quam Sanctamantii, divinationes longe plausibiliores videantur.

GUARINI GUARINII MUTINENSIS, CLERICI Regularis, & Ducis Sabaudiæ Mathematici &c. Cœlestis Mathematica.

Mediolani, 1683 in fol.

NOn est, ut operis hujus, cujus editionem Autor fato suo antevertit, justum recensum instituamus: cum argumenta ejusmodi systematum ubique fere sint eadem, & si qua hinc inde peculiaris Auctorum industria novis commentis se profert, lectori fontes indicasse sufficiat, unde, quod sibi profuturum sit, ipse petat. Summa ergo tantum delibabimus capita, ut ordinis ab Autore usurpati constet ratio & Lector ex paucis annotatis judicare queat de reliquis silentio prætermissis. Complectitur autem Cœlestis hæc Mathematica, præter doctrinam de metiendis motibus & magnitudinibus corporum cœlestium, quæque his affinia sunt, geometricas etiam rationes umbrarum solarium, in sciatericis planis exceptarum: unde & Auctori visum est eandem in duas partes dividere.

Prima pars uno & viginti tractatibus, continua Theorematum Problematumq;, & inde aliquando deductorum corollariorum serie constantibus, & in peculiares expensiones ceu capita subdivisis, antiquas & novas temporum & stellarum leges, ex observationibus veteris & recentioris ævi explicat, tabulasque earum novas adornat, plurium observationum consensu, ubique exhibito, subnixas. Ipsorum Tractatuum I & II communia Sphæricæ tradunt: III & IV temporis Astronomici partes & species, ejusque inæqualitates, & æquandi rationes, crepusculorum etiam causas & varietates exponunt; horæq; momenta diversimode definire docent; V Parallaxes; VI Refractiones distinguit & metitur: VII modos varie observandi Meridianum, obliquitatem Ecliptice, azimutha, solstitia & æquinoctia, altitudines poli, Æquatoris & siderum; horum porro diametros, distantias, loca, motuumque irregularitates evolvit: VIII Theorias describit, ab Astronomis hactenus, explicandis Planetarum motibus, introductas, prælata cæteris Ptolemaica: IX & X luminarium motus (ubi bisectionem eccentricitatis, & Tychonicam Lunæ variationem Autor rejicit;) XI, XII & XIII eorundem, ut & Terræ Eclipses, quæque iis accidunt; XIV, XV & XVI Planetarum minorum motus secundum longitudinem & latitudinem, contemplantur: XVII ortus & occasus Errantium, reductionem, curtationem, aspectus, revolutiones, velocitatem; XVIII figuram, illuminationem, numerum, distantiam a Terra, magnitudinem & locum, determinant: reliqui tres, quæ Fixas attinent, deque Asterismis earum & Via Lactea tractant, adjecto Fixarum Catalago & Schematismis asterismorum; sed rudioribus, & ad solam fere longitudinem & latitudinem oculis exhibendam factis.

Altera parte totam Gnomonicen Autor, e Geometricis fundamentis dilucide deductam tradit, aptisque figuris, quomodo arcus cœlestes quicunque, qui horologiis exprimuntur, in planis sciatericis emineant, ob oculos ponit. Absolvunt hæc quatuor Tractatus: quorum primus de Horologiis planis astronomicis cujuscunque generis construendis & collocandis, ac circulis horariis & verticalibus, in iisdem describendis; Secundus de vestigiis Parallelorum tam Horizontis, quam Æquatoris, hoc est conicis sectionibus ibidem delineandis; Tertius de Horologiis Italicis & Babylonicis conficiendis; Quartus de signis Zodiaci ascendentibus & descendentibus sciatherico inscribendis, agunt.

Ut vero diffitendum non est, Autorem ingenii sui acumen non uno in loco ostendisse, operamque Astronomiæ non inutilem præstitisse, ex. gr. in animadvertendis antiquorum & recentiorum etiam nonnullorum, ipsiusque Riccioli circa æquandi temporis doctrinam erroribus; in theorematibus per diagrammata, ad tyronum captum maxime accommodata, exponendis; in ostendenda lubricitate observationum, captandis dichotomiis lunaribus, & inde stabiliendæ Solis a Terra distantiæ institutarum; in figendis & varie determinandis Eclipsium pſium Solarium terminis; in doctrina Eclipſium terreſtrium novis luculentisque theorematis locupletanda; in oſcillatorio Lunæ motu (quod tamen, an phænomenis huc ſpectantibus ſatisfaciat, & an inde ipſum oſcillatorium Lunæ motum recte negaverit Guarinus, aliis judicandum relinquimus) ad perpetuum diſci Lunaris ad axem mundi parallelismum referendo &c. Sic nec diſſimulandum duximus, eſſe alicubi, quæ Autor forte lima adhibita emendaturus fuiſſet, ſi vitæ uſura longior ipſi contigiſſet: quo referimus lapſum p. 83, aliis etiam celeberrimis viris, Copernico, Reinholdo, Magino, Ricciolo communem, in quadruplicatione differentiæ maximæ aſcenſionis rectæ & arcus Eclipticæ, pro determinanda dierum naturalium maximorum & minimorum differentia; cum differentia arcuum iſtorum, quotieslibet ſumta, differentiæ dictorum dierum menſura eſſe nequeat (hanc quippe conſtituunt binæ maximæ differentiæ arcus diurni, Eclipticæ & Æquatoris, una circa punctum æquinoctiale, altera circa ſolſtitiale, junctæ) nec ſi vel maxime adhibeatur ad definiendam temporis medii & apparentis, intra certa duo puncta ſumti, maximam differentiam (ad quam revera adhiberi poteſt) non quadruplicanda ſit, ſed tantum duplicanda; quia, utut maxima hæc differentia per integrum circulum quater occurrat, non ad unam, ſed ad duas inæqualitatis temporum pertinet periodos: ἀβλεψίαν opticam, in ἀναστευῇ doctrinæ Keplerianæ, de cõloribus Lunæ eclipſatæ p. 179, radios Solis in athmoſphæræ ingreſſu refractos rurſumque exeuntes, ad eundem angulum reſtitui, ut radius jam bis refractus parallelus evadat radio nondum refracto (ex quo contra leges catoptricæ ſequeretur, radium e medio denſiori in rarius, ad perpendicularem refringi) pronunciantis: Ricciolo p. 241 imputatam inconſtantiam circa obſervationem Lunæ, relatam in Almageſto & Aſtronomia reformata; & pag. 270 eidem affictam ſententiam de umbra Telluris ab Athmoſphæra ſenſibiliter aucta; cum tamen prioris rationes Ricciolus afferat citato Aſtron. reform. loco; contrariam vero hujus teneat ipſo a Guarino citato cap. 4. l. 5. Alm. in Scholiis & ſeq. capite.

PETRI

PETRI SCHOLIRII, EQUITIS ET SENATORIS Antverpienſis, Sermonum Familiarium libri III, perpetuis & hactenus deſideratis commentariis illuſtrati, opera & ſtudio Alberti le Roy, Fratris Eremita Auguſtiniani.

Hermopoli, typis Baſilicis, anno 1693, in 4.

CUm inter Satyricos priſci ævi Poetas tres potiſſimum ſint commendabiles, Juvenalis, Perſius, atque Horatius; Horatius inter oratoriam Juvenalis dicacitatem, & inter Perſii obſcuram nimis adſtrictamq; brevitatem medius incedit, atque adeo inter Satyricos non minus, quam inter Lyricos Latinos, primum meretur locum. Hunc itaque imitandum ſibi præ cæteris propoſuit Petrus Scholirius Antverpienſis, quaſi ab ipſa natura ad Satyras ſcribendas factus. Scripſit etiam, uti Horatius, Sermones ſive Satyras, inque illis perverſos ſeculi ſui mores aceto ſatis acri perſperſit. Uſus etiam videri voluit dictione Horatiana, h.e. eleganti, feſtiva atque urbana; quanquam neque hoc diſſimulandum, Satyrographum hunc legibus latinitatis haut nimis arcte conſtringi ſemper voluiſſe. Tres ſermonum familiarium libros ipſe Auctor adhuc vivus diverſo edidit tempore; ſed cum plurima in illis loca propter obſcuritatem lucis quid ſibi poſtularent, exorari tandem ſe paſſus eſt Antonius le Roy Frater Eremita, id laboris in ſe ut ſuſciperet. Scripſit itaq; ſcholia ſeu commentarios in Sermones XI Scholirii tribus libris comprehenſos, a Franciſco potiſſimum Diependalio, JCto Antverpienſi, & Macario S. Michaelis, Ordinis Præmonſtratenſis præſule inſtigatus, multumq; a Franciſco Paſchaſio van den Cruyce, qui Scholirii mores & genium pernoverat, ut & duobus Viris Conſularibus Joh. Antonio Tuchoro, & Philippo Schoyte, in illuſtrandis quibusdam locis adjutus, illisque non ſeptem tantum, epiſtolas hactenus ineditas, utut breves illas & extemporaneas, ſed & geminum indicem ſubjunxit; quorum prior omnia, tam res quam verba ac phraſes, poſterior paræmias tantum complectitur. Fuit alias Petrus Scholirius Antverpienſis ex familia equeſtri, quæ tribus haud minus ſeculis apud Noricos cognomine gentilitio, Schuller, apud Belgas Scholier, inclaruit, multisq; honorũ prærogativis a Rudolpho pho II Imp. fuit aucta. Natus autem est anno superioris seculi LXXXII patrem nactus Davidem Scholier, avumque Petrum Schullerum Patritium Noribergensem, qui eodem anno Antverpiæ in æde Cathedrali fuit tumulatus. Ob ingenii poetici scintillas mature se exerentes Musis consecratus, Gymnasioque dein Grudo immissus in Philosophico quoque pulvere fuit versatus, sed exiguo aut plane nullo cum fructu. Valere tandem jussis illecebris Lovanium anno ætatis XXX repetiit, ubi & anno 1612 tam legum sacrarum, quam civilium laurea fuit insignitus. Profectus inde in Italiam, per sex annos continuos mores hominum & antiquitatum studia, situs item & amœnitates urbium attentis oculis observavit, honorarius ducis Arschotani comes. In Belgicam redux factus, ducta conjuge venusta ac nobili Anna Lamberti, sedem sibi delegit Lovanium, celeberrimum literarum emporium, ut Musis vacare liberius, & cum doctis, Erycio inprimis Puteano, conversari posset. Antverpiam postliminio reversus, atque in Senatorium ordinem cooptatus, cultissimorum hominum cœtus frequentavit, fabellasque suas urbano sale condivit, natura ad jocularem censuram propendens, optimisque poetis, Horatio inprimis, Juvenali ac Persio, præter Historicos atque Politicos deditus. Tandem cum valetudinem afflictam, potis Spadanis fontibus uteunque instaurasset, repentina inter sodales apoplexia correptus, XVI Kal. Decembr. anno 1635 mortem obiit non sine magno sui apud doctos desiderio.

CUm multæ veterum Inscriptionum ænigmatici quid præ se ferant, tum illud maxime Bononiense epitaphium, quod Ælia Lælia Crispis inscribitur, obscurissima Sphinx quædam semper fuit visum.

de canabe, alii de alia quadam re interpretantur. Quanquam autem plerorumque omnium, quos diximus, eruditæ admodum, & ſic ſatis plauſibiles videntur eſſe interpretationes, nulla tamen illarum, quam ingenioſe etiam excogitatæ ſint, approbare ſeſe Carolo Cæſari Malvaſiæ JCto apud Bononienſes primicerio, potuit. Novam itaque adinvenit, cumque ſcopum cæteris omnibus propius feriiſſe ſibi ſit viſus, eam clam literarium orbem amplius eſſe noluit. Productis itaque auctoribus, qui Inſcriptionem iſtam aut declararunt, aut memorarunt, exhibitisque duobus illuſtrioribus illius exemplaribus & lectionibus mire variantibus, Epitaphium hoc intellectum eſſe cenſet de filia Lælio naſcitura, eademque ſponſa Agathoni deſignata, ſed neque filia, neque ſponſa, quia concepta, non edita, non orta item, ſed aborta; unde & Agatho dilectus pridem in conjugem, ſed a ſorte eluſus ænigmatica hac Inſcriptione non abs re ludere potuerit. Nimirum Malvaſiæ D.M. eſt Diis manibus, quæ frequentiſſima mortuorum conditorum eſt nota; Ælia Lælia Criſpis ſunt nomina expectato & expetito huic partui, ſi fœmineus apparuiſſet (id quod Agathoni tanquam ſponſo deſignato in votis erat,) imponenda; cumque embryo tum fuerit, nec vir, nec mulier, nec androgyna, nec puella, nec juvenis, nec caſta, nec meretrix, nec pudica fuit, quæ tamen omnia repræſentare olim potuerat, ſi naſci eidem ac vivere contigiſſet; ſed omnia, potentia ſcil. non actu. De cætero uti Lælia vitam aſſecuta non eſt, ita nec mortem experta. Atque hinc Agatho: ſublata neque fame, neque ferro, neque veneno, ſed omnibus, quia nimirum quovis genere fati occumbere aliquando potuiſſet; & quia nullibi reperta, hinc Agathoni nec cælo, nec aquis, nec terris, ſed ubique jacet, potentia nempe non actu, quia ipſa vere non fuerit. Igitur Lucius Agatho Priſcius, quia ducere eam, quæ nata non eſt, diligereque, quæ non vixit, atque adeo & mortuæ ſuccedere non potuit, fuit nec maritus, nec amator, nec neceſſarius, atque hinc neque mœrens, neque gaudens, neque flens. Denique: hanc nec molem, nec pyramidem, nec ſepulcrum, ſed ſimplicem Inſcriptionem tum moli, tum pyramidi, tum ſepulcro apponendam, ſicque omnia; ſcit & neſcit cui poſuerit; quia nomen quidem ſcit, quod a parentibus ductum imponi huic partui debuerat, neſcit tamen, quia nondum impoſitum fuerat. Hanc interpretationem ſuam ut magis probabilem reddat Malvaſia, eam consuetudine gentium variisq; ex historia exemplis suffulcit. Quemadmodum enim stirpes amicitiæ vinculis connexæ per decreta natorum sponsalia devinciri arctius subinde consuevere, ita Lælianæ quoque atque Agathonianæ genti hunc animum fuisse autumat, ut diutina inter genitores mutuæ amicitiæ fides per initum inter liberos conjugium protraheretur & veluti æterna redderetur. De cætero, quæ strictim eo, quo dictum, modo cap. III exposuit Malvasia, cap. IV & V fusius elucidat, magisque confirmat, Inscriptionibus plurimis sententiæ suæ illustrandæ adhibitis. Cap. denique VI Agathonem omnigena rerum scientia fuisse excultum docet. Cap. VII Inscriptionem hanc non recentis, sed vetustioris ævi esse, atque hinc non paucos ad æmulationem provocasse tradit; qua occasione multæ Inscriptiones argutæ, in quibus ὁμοιοτέλευτα tria, afferuntur. Defendit denique cap. VIII puram ac priscam Inscriptionis latinitatem; cumque ostendisset in cap. IX, etiam fœminas antiquitus tria habuisse nomina, ut Ælia Lalia Crispis, cap. X. & ultimo ea omnia, quæ Inscriptioni detrahere aliquid de antiquitate, puritate atque elegantia videntur, feliciter removet, hæc talia (v.g. Æ pro AE) in priscis etiam aurei seculi Inscriptionibus reperiri demonstrans.

INter principes, qui applausum hujus seculi per Germaniam meruere, JCtos, vel maxime caput effert CASPAR ZIEGLERUS, Vir & summis honorum functionibus & amussitata doctrina vere illustris. Certe, quod Tullius de Servio Sulpicio Philippica nona prædicat, ipsum scilicet admirabili quadam & incredibili & pene divina in legibus interpretandis, æquitate explicanda, scientia præditum fuisse, id etiam recte de Zieglero, non Juris magis, quam Justitiæ consulto, dici affirmarique potest. Eam quippe rerum gravitatem, eam interpretandi ἀκρίβειαν spirant ea, quæ publicæ luci exposuit, ut e tabulis suis nullo tempore nomen illius sit expunctura orbis eruditi posteritas. Ejusdem commatis quoque est hæc ipsa dissertatio Justinianea, quæ elegantissimam commentatiunculam ad l. XXXI C. de Episc

Epiſc. & Cler. exhibet. Occaſio ſcribendi eruditiſſimo Viro non fuit alia, quam vocatio ad ſpartam muneris eccleſiaſtici ſupremam, quæ a GEIERO quondam, Theologo conſummatiſſimo τῦν ἐν ἁγίοις, invicto prorſus & renitente animo ſuſcepta fuerat. Huic igitur Gamalieli ſuo, ad cujus pedes ſe conſediſſe olim gratus profitetur, poſt fata parentaturus quaſi, hoc ipſum opuſculum concinnavit, partim ut gratam mentem teſtaturus beatiſſimis GEIERI manibus ære perennius monumentum erigeret, partim ut omnibus ſimul Theologiæ ſtudioſis & miniſterii candidatis exemplum aliquod, qua morum innocentia ac puritate & ipſi aliquando Eccleſiæ claves capeſſere debeant, ob oculos ſiſteret. Exordium dicendi facit de Jure Romano a Juſtiniano compoſito, iſtud vel eo nomine commendans, quod, poſt ſacras paginas, ex hoc potius, quam hodiernis Moraliſtarum libris informatio conſcientiarum peti poſſit. Patefcere id inprimis e doctrina de acquirendis rebus, in qua maxime ſolliciti fuerint Romani, ne quæ injuſtitiæ ſordes vel perſonas acquirentes, vel rem acquirendam, vel titulum & modum acquirendi contaminarent. Enatam inde JCtis multam de bonæ & malæ fidei poſſeſſore diſceptationem: apprime vero Legislatores Romanos non paucis conſtitutionibus hanc in rem promulgatis voluiſſe, ut officia publica tam civilia quam ſacra omni labe vacarent, & pura mente manuque a ſingulis induerentur. In cujus rei argumentum affert Legem XXXI C. de Epiſc. & Cler. a Leone I Romanorum Auguſto ad compeſcendam avaritiam & ambitionem eorum, qui Eccleſiæ dignitates anhelarent, emiſſam. Hanc vero non ab Anthemio, qui A. C. 467 in Occidentem, Romæ imperaturus, miſſus erat, ſed a ſolo Leone Orientis Imperatore publicatam eſſe affirmat, utut Anthemii quoque nomen inſcriptio oſtenderet. Uſu enim tum temporis fuiſſe receptum, ut lex ab alterutro Imperante confecta & promulgata utriusque titulum in fronte præ ſe ferret: probans id inſuper tum ex ſubſcriptione, qua Conſtantinopoli, utpote ſede Leonis, hanc ſanctionem prodiiſſe commemoret, tum ex eo quod iſta ad Armaſium, Præfectum Prætorio Conſtantinopolitanum fuerit exarata. Digreſſus hic in laudes Leonis, pietatem ejus præcipue ex Arianorum perſecutione & zelo conſervandæ diei dominicæ ſanctitatis per l. fin. C. de fer. luculentiſſime prodito, commendat. Pro Armaſio vero, ad quem, uti dictum, hæc imperialis constitutio fuit perscripta, Suidæ autoritatem cum Baronio secutus, mavult legere Armato; hunc enim fuisse Præfectum Prætorio, post, Zenone ad Imperium aspirante, hanc dignitatem cum officio magistri militiæ commutasse; quas functiones cum Præfectura urbis æqualem ea tempestate splendorem habuisse ex l. 1. C. de Præfect. Prætor. f. Urbis demonstrat. His præmissis in occasionem, quæ hanc salutarem legem pepererit, accuratius inquirit, neque aliam fuisse asserit, quam pravos Ecclesiasticorum mores, Simoniaca peste passim infectos. Postquam enim Gennadius, ad summam Constantinopolitanæ vicinarumque Ecclesiarum ephoriam A.C. 458 evectus, non sine maxima indignatione animadvertisset, Chalcedonensis Concilii sanctionem, qua depositionis pœna in eos, qui pretio ordinassent Episcopos, statuta erat, variis variorum fraudibus circumveniri, idque in Galatia maxime, Ponticæ Diœceseos, & subjecta sedi Constantinopolitanæ provincia frequentius fieri, eum operæ pretium duxisse, coacta synodo provinciali, quam A.C. 459 celebratam fuisse conjicit, illam denuo repetere, & insuper anathematis metu transgressuros inposterum coercere. Cum vero hoc decretum synodale extra Asianam, Ponticam & Thracicam, quæ Constantinopolitano Patriarchæ subditæ erant, Diœceses vim suam porrigere nequivisset, adeoq; Gennadius Patriarcha fuisset veritus, ne ex vicinia, eodem maligno sidere afflata, lues iterum in sui distr ctus episcopos transiret, Imperatorem ex suggestione ejus hanc universalem legem condidisse, ut omnes & singulæ Imperii Orientalis Ecclesiæ hujus vinculo adstringerentur. Qua occasione simul de potestate legislatoria in negotiis ecclesiasticis, per id tempus summis Romanorum Principibus adhuc salva, disserit, eamque soli in Republica Majestati vindicat. Ut vero Auctor majus lumen explicationi suæ accenderet, retro quasi legit vestigia, & in statum aliquot Ecclesiarum Patriarchalium, quomodo is ante tempora Gennadii se habuerit, diligentius paulo inquisivit, exemplis pariter ac testimoniis ostendens, Constantinopolitanam, Alexandrinam, & Antiochenam maximis turbis atque seditionibus, præsertim vero Simoniæ morbo immane quantum sideratas fuisse. Quod vitium Ecclesias tum demum infestasse dicit, quum auctis in immensum Ecclesiasticorum reditibus, nemo non gradum istius dignitatis appetierit, ex qua tantæ divitiæ atque emolu-

menta cum honoribus pene divinis & tot hominum devota ſubjectione temporis progreſſu fuiſſent ſuſpenſa. In reliquis, ad ductum textus, Simoniæ crimen enucleatius evolvit, varia ſubinde ex antiquitatibus eccleſiaſticis, e.g. de conſtructione templorum veterum, de occaſione Concilii Chalcedonenſis, nec non iis, qui eccleſiaſtica dignitate oblata noluerint ornari, inſpergens. Damnat poſtremo cavillationes Moraliſtarum, quibus per mentis directionem illicitum in genere licitorum conſtituere ſpeculentur, cum parum proſit, ſi eorum diſtinctiunculæ nos apud homines quidem abſolvant, internus interim animi noſtri præco apud DEUM delicti reos arguat. Hinc concludit, ad tranquillitatem conſcientiis procurandam & conſervandam, ſatius eſſe, circa actum electionis & ordinationis Eccleſiaſticæ omnibus in univerſum largitionibus, quantulæcunque illæ fuerint, abſtinere.

THE LIVES OF SUNDRY EMINENT PERſons in this later age, by Samuel Clark, ſometimes Paſtor of Bennet-Fink, London,

hoc eſt:

Vitæ eminentium quorundam hominum hujus ſeculi, autore Samuele Clerico, quondam Paſtore Londinenſi Parochiæ, quam vocant Bennet-Fink.

Londini, 1683 in fol.

AD virtutem & præclara facinora nihil efficacius excitat, quam autoritas & exemplum magnorum hominum, multoque major ac certior fructus eſt, ſi quis eorum pietatem ac ornamenta, qui principem locum in populo tenent, ad imitandum proponat, quam ſi mille regulis ac præceptis formare mores conetur. Id ſecum animo reputans Samuel Clericus, presbyter Anglus, virorum illuſtrium vitas condere ante hos viginti annos & amplius aggreſſus eſt, earumque in aliquot tomos, teſte librorum ab ipſo ſcriptorum catalogo, qui in vita ejus operi huic præfixa exhibetur, antehac vulgavit. Iis nuper anno 1682 tertium, ut ipſe numerat in præfamine, volumen adjicere incepit, quod ab ejus filiis, quum operi patrem immori contigiſſet, perfe-

perfectum anno proxime elapso in publicam lucem prodiit. Ut pauca quædam de Autore commemoremus, fuit is illi notissimæ Sectæ addictus, cujus asseclas Scotia Puritanos, Anglia Presbyterianos vocat. Et illud quidem satis clare cum ex operis textura, tum ex Autoris cursu vitæ, quem ipse composuit, & præfatione aliqua Richardi Baxteri celebris Presbyterianorum hodie antesignani apparet. Refert enim Clericus, se primum in collegio Emanuelis Cantabrigiæ a Puritanis educatum, postea propter impugnatas Ecclesiæ ceremonias ejusque regimen, indigne plurima passum, & denique cum edictum de ministrorum conformitate ante hos fere viginti annos vulgaretur, de statione dejectum ac expulsum fuisse. Similiter quoque in toto opere, quæ vitæ enarrantur, Presbyterianorum sunt. Prior pars ministros Ecclesiæ ac theologos; posterior viros nobiles, ac in reipublicæ negotiis adhibitos, fœminasque aliquot illustres complectitur. Initium fit ab Hugone Brougthono, qui e Concentu Scripturæ notus est, quem in Latinam linguam Isaac Genius transtulit. Sequuntur Robertus Boid, acutissimus Tvvissus, Thomas Wilsonius, Samuel Boltonus, Richardus Vines, Richardus Blackerbius, Radulphus Robinsonius, Johannes Janawajus, Johannes Machinus, Samuel Winter, Thomas Tregossius, Richardus Matherus, Joseph Allenius, Stantonius, Samuel Terclogius, & Thomas Wadsworthius. Ultimo de Oweno quodam Stoctono, & Thoma Gugio, qui anno 1681 vivere desiit, exponitur. Sub finem primæ hujus partis Scoti aliquot pastores, & providentiæ divinæ circa gregem fidelium exempla nonnulla commemorantur. Altera pars incipit a Philippo Sidneio, qui in aula Elisabethæ haud parum quondam valuit, & eo tempore, quo Hispanus Belgicas provincias invaserat, Reginæ jussu Belgarum libertatem strenue defendit. Postea Carolus Coot, Johannes Lamot, Nathaneel Barnardiston, Johannes Row, & Matthæus Hale, quorum omnium haud obscurum est in Angliæ historia nomen, descripti inveniuntur. Alterius denique sexus novem personæ virtute ac morum integritate illustres, quas nostra memoria vivere contigit, sistuntur. Hasce vitas omnes non tam ipse Clericus scripsit, quam ab aliis scriptas collegit, ac rejectis inde, quæ superflua videbantur, ne interirent, hac forma evulgavit. Quicquid in ipsis dicitur, fere ad virtutes & pietatem cujusvis personæ pertinet. Plerumque illic de conversione agitur, quo tempore tempore & qua occaſione primum quis Deo ſe tradere inceperit; poſtmodum de perſecutionibus, quas Eccleſiæ miniſtros, imperante Carolo I ejusque filio hodierno auguſtiſſimo Monarcha, expertos Autor ait, agitur: ſæpe de raptu afflatuque divino, de donis prophetici differitur, quibus imbuti prædixerint nonnulli pluribus annis ante, fatalem illam Reipublicæ Anglicanæ ſub Caroli I regimine conquaſſationem. Ut adeo Quakerianos fere ſermones in hoc ſcripto legere ſe arbitrari poſſit, qui non ſatis perſpecta habet principia ſectæ illius Presbyterianorum, qui utique ſingularem morum ſanctitatem & emendatiſſimam vitæ rationem profitentur.

Groningæ 1683, in 4. ex officina Dominici Lens.

INter celebres Friſiæ JCtos, ſi non primum, parem certe primo locum meruiſſe Joannem a Sande, ſcripta ejus, non in Belgio tantum, ſed & apud nos jure quodam ſuo magni ſemper æſtimata demonſtrant. Quanta enim autoritate polleant in judiciis noſtris, qua ſuperioribus qua inferioribus, deciſiones ejus Friſicæ, omnigena videlicet ac ſolida refertæ jurisprudentia, quis eſt qui ignoret? Quam plene vero & quam eleganter utiliſſimas de actionum ceſſione & prohibita rerum alienatione materias elaboraverit, cum aliorum laudi aliquid detrahere non ſoleamus, iis judicandum relinquimus, quibus non moleſtum erit, hos ejus tractatus cum aliorum ſcriptis, qui idem ſibi ſumſere ſcribendi argumentum, conferre. Denique commentationes in titulum de Regulis Juris, præterquam quod ſe ipſas commendent ſatis, acutiſſimus Wiſſenbachius in præmiſſa iisdem præfatione digne prædicavit. Quemadmodum vero hæc diverſa Sandii ſcripta diverſis temporibus ſeorſim edita, ac fere ſingulorum editiones aliquoties re-petitæ fuerunt, ita qui opera omnia junctim imprimi curaverit neminem ſcimus, niſi quod anno 1674 Antverpiæ una cum operibus Frederici a Sande a Marcello Pariſio in folio fuerint exhibita. Cæterum cum Frederici a Sande opuſcula ſeorſim in quarto venalia proſtent, eorumque argumenta a Joannis a Sande operibus non parum diſtent, (commentatus quippe fuit ille in Gelriæ & Zutphaniæ conſuetudines feudales, & conſuetudinem Gelriæ de effeſtucatione ſeu modo ſolenni transferendi dominium rerum immobilium) non male, ut arbitramur, is qui præſentem editionem in forma minori paravit, de re literaria fuit meritus, & hac certe de cauſa commendandus, ſi vel maxime augmenta ex Autoris autographo, quæ titulus promittit, quæque nos quidem, hanc editionem cum Antverpienſi conferentes, deregere non potuimus, non acceſſiſſent.

POlypos veros æque ac nothos, quos Kerckringius Pſeudo-polypos appellat, in cordis ventriculis, horum ac pulmonum vaſis majoribus & duræ matris ſinubus frequentius produci, præter autopſiam multifariam & aliorum Scriptorum teſtimonia nos docet M. Malpighius, in tractatulo de Polypi Natura quam eruditiſſime conſcripto. Hinc rarioribus phænomenis annumerandi Polypi in uteri vaſis a Graefio reperti, & ab eodem de Mulier. Organ. cap. 8. pro aliqua menſtruorum ſuppreſſionis cauſa venditati. Aſt extra ſanguinis receptacula polypum generari, paradoxum magis videtur, qualem nihilominus pronunciare cogimur illum, quem ex Nobiliſſimi Viri ſupra nominati benevola communicatione, tibi, L. H. impræſentiarum exponimus. Ita vero ipſius habent verba:

Initio hujus anni 1684 Lugdunenſis mercator locuples & celebris, Dominus Cæſar Saracenus, incidit in dolorem nephriticum renis ſiniſtri, paucas habentem intermiſſiones, cum nauſeis & vomitibus initio ſatis frequentibus, febre aſſidua non tamen vehementi, ſed aliquando pulſus aderat intermittens. Urina non erat ſuppreſſa, ſed tamen ſolita paucior. Vocatus ad eum exiſtimavi ſimilem eſſe morbum, quem ante biennium circiter circiter paſſu erat, nephritidem nempe ex puris calculo renalibus quos tunc excreverat. Procurandæ inflammationi renum & fedandis dolori, qui eorum ſimiliter ex lapidibus nimque, profligendi ſpaſmi cauſſa, quantum ſatis erat, ſi ol. amygd. ſyrup. capill. ven. & aqu. parietariæ exhibeas, ſatis ut experientia aqua applicari, unde paucum emolumentum. Interea tandem certum mitigabant ſatus aquæ frigidæ, ut ex potus haurirabatur. At vero nova morbi die, ſubito natura quo ſolvitur morbus, profuſione urinæ ſanguineæ, poſt vehementem fed breviſſimum progreſſum dolorum: in fundo enim urinæ reperta eſt ſubſtantia longa & rubra, quam pro lumbricis ſtatim habebamus; at exactius conſideratam ſine ſtria circularium, quibus vermes conſtant, cum eſſe animadverimus, planoque ſimilem Polypo cordis. Itaque eam Polypum renis nominavimus dubio, cujus pars craſſior, longitudine & craſſitie digiti circiter minoris latitudinem aquans, ni fallor in renis pelvi hærebat; reliqua propendebat in ureteres usque ad orificia eorumſum. Erat illum pedalis circiter magnitudinis. Sequentes urinæ copioſæ fuerunt & naturalibus ſimiles. Altera die parvum calculum piſi majoris mole ſolus dolore exercui. Inde nunc ſanus omnino vivit.

RELAZIONE DEL RITROVAMENTO DELL' ovva di Chiocciola d. F. M. in una lettera al Sig. Marcello Malpighi.

hoc eſt:

Relatio de inventione ovorum limacum autore A. F. M. in epiſtola ad Do. Marcellum Malpighium.

Bononiæ, 1683. in 4.

POſtquam ejecta e Phyſicorum ſchola ſententia de rebus ſponte ac ſine ſemine naſcentibus, illa opinio invaluit, quod quicquid in hoc orbe fentur, imo quicquid vivere videmus, ex ovo emerſerit, eique aliiſque rarum quæ plurimi ingenio & induſtria præſtantes viri, ut ipſa quoque inſecta, quorum magna pars ad unum illud principium generationis univocæ vix referri poſſe videbantur, ex ovo originem ducere demonſtrarent. Eminet inter omnes Franciſcus Redi, qui tanto operi manum feliciſſime adhibuit, & plurimorum inſectorum, maxime eorum, quæ domeſtica & familiaria nobis ſunt, accuratam descriptionem orbi literario dedit. Sed ostreas & quæcunq; alia testacea, quæ Aristoteles in limo vel cœnoso vel arenoso nasci statuit, ex ovis prodire, primum in Anglia observatum, variisque postmodum scriptis deductum fuit. Quum autem non ita pridem Jesuita quidam Italus Philippus Bonanni in libro Romæ edito, cui titulum fecit: Ricreazione dell' occhio e della mente nell' offervazione delle Chiocciole, veterem Peripateticorum opinionem resuscitasset, limacibusque putredinem ac cœnum seminis loco esse contendisset, operæ pretium se facturum præsentis epistolæ autor Antonius Felix Abbas Marsilius credidit, si, qui fortuitu in horto suburbano laboranti obvenerat acervus limacum ex ovis prodeuntium, de eo ad celeberrimum Malpighium scriberet, ac recenter impugnatam modernorum sententiam novo testimonio ab experientia petito confirmaret. In hac Commentatiuncula primo prolixius historiam de falsitate generationis æquivocæ detecta, deque studiis Francisci Redi, Willisii, & Listeri, pertexit; postea inventionem ovorum, quæ 10 die mensis Julii superioris anni contigerat, exponit, ac quæ ipse observarat, cum aliorum annotatis confert; addito insuper schemate, quo ovorum figuræ, pullorumq; varia incrementa exhibentur. Ultimo Jesuitæ illius Itali quatuor argumenta pauciſſimis refellit, quibus ille Aristotelicam traditionem de testaceis sponte natis confirmat. Neq; vero ipsa tanti sunt momenti, ut prolixiori refutatione indigeant, cum omnia vel ab autoritate Magistri, vel a falsis quibusdam præsuppositis ducantur.

Atque hæc jam scripseramus, cum ad manus nostras pervenit Latina relationis istius Italicæ versio, adornata a clarissimo Johanne Jacobo Hardero, Medico Basileensi, quæ lucem hoc ipso anno Augustæ Vindelicorum aspexit. Ei memoratus Vir doctissimus epistolam ad Abbatem Marsilium de ovis & genitalibus cochlearum perscriptam, cujus Reverendissimus Abbas in hoc opusculo meminit, adjecit, & insuper literas aliquot, in quibus Harderus, & Scröckius Medicus Augustanus clarissimus de insectorum generatione univoca ex ovo invicem non inerudite disputarunt.

Coloniæ 1684, in 12.

QUam laudem ſibi tribuit vel ominatus eſt Ludovicus Maimburgius in hiſtoria Ligæ, a nobis menſe Martio hujus anni p. 100. relata; non exiguæ induſtriæ eſſe ſcribens, ex veteribus autoribus novum quoddam opus concinnare, & inventionis, diſpoſitionis & elocutionis artes oſtendere: eam, ſi quis alius, aſſecutus eſſe videtur autor hujus hiſtoriæ Varillaſius. Incipit eam a menſe Decembri a. 1560, poſt mortem nempe Franciſci II Galliæ Regis, & ad Caroli IX obitum, id eſt ad menſem Majum a. 1574 pertexit. Loco præfationis utiliſſimam operam impendit, dum Acta memorialia & Relationes præſertim manuſcriptas recenſet, ex quibus hiſtoriam hanc compoſuiſſe ſe ſcribit, addito etiam judicio de autoribus, in quo nec acumen nec modeſtia merito deſiderari poteſt. Agit autem, breviter quidem, de ingenio & ſtylo Eliſabethæ Angliæ, & Catharinæ Galliæ Reginarum; item Cardinalium Bellaii, Turnonii, Lotharingi, Borromæi, Eſtenſis, Alexandrini, Caſtilionæi; nec non Epiſcoporum Johannis Montluzii Valentini, Franciſci Noallii Aquenſis, Morvillerii Aurelianenſis; porro Abbatis Delbenii, Hoſpitalii Cancellarii, Caroli & Timoleontis Briſſacorum, Trajani Caraccioli Melphitani Principis, Jacobi Sabaudi Nemoroſii Ducis, Ludovici Gonzagæ Nivernii, Franciſci Vindocini Carnutenſis, Bironii, Gondii ſive Retii, Caroli & Renati Biragiorum, Caſparis Colinii Admiralii, ejusque filiæ Annæ Telignæ, denique Jacobi Spifamæ. Profitetur Varillaſius, ut apparet, religionem Romano-Catholicam, & ex hujus præſcripto pro hæreticis habet Proteſtantes Gallos; ſed præter hoc præjudicium vix habituri ſunt iſti, in quo fidem aut modeſtiam ſcriptoris deſiderent. Nec eſt forte, qui Jac. Auguſti Thuani moderationem & veritatis ſtudium, addimus etiam politicum de conſiliis & eventibus judicium, felicius & accuratius fuerit imitatus. Patebit id iis, qui comparare velint cum hoc alios ejusdem hiſtoriæ ſcriptores, præcipue Maimburgium in Hiſtoria Calviniſmi, a nobis menſe Martio ſuperioris anni pag. Actorum 89 ſqq. recenſita. Specimen unum alterumve dabimus. In narratione actorum colloquii Poſſiaceni Varillaſius in omnibus fere ſequitur Thuanum, & cum ad Manuſcripta provocet, marginique adſcribat, unde hauſerit quæ refert, non parum ſtabilire videtur, quæ Thuanus tradidit. At ab utroque in multis diſcrepat Maimburgius. Hic v. g. cauſam permiſſi colloquii Colinio potiſſimum attribuit, qui Reginam, regni gubernationem tunc tenentem, eo induxerit; at Thuanus (Lib. hiſt. XXVIII) Cardinali Lotharingo: Hunc enim unum, ait, oſtentandi ingenii & popularis auræ captandæ ad vanitatem usque cupidum, tenuiſſe annitente regina, ut colloquium haberetur, cum ſe Patrum teſtimoniis ſectarios confutaturum palam jactaret, & ſuorum animos magnificis pollicitationibus impleret, adeoque triumphum jam ſpe concepiſſet. Pluribus hoc adſtruit Varillaſius, & legi omnino merentur, quæ de ſtudiis Theologiæ Scholaſticæ, qua imbutus erat Lotharingus aliique ex R. Catholicis, & de Proteſtantium eruditione judicat, lib. I. p. 55, 56. Sed Maimburgius Lib. III. Hiſt. Caly. cenſet, malignas conjecturas ſecutos eſſe, qui iſthæc ſcripſerint, Thuanum non obſcure taxans. Omiſit idem, incertum quo fine, quæ de ſermone privato inter Cardinalem & Bezam, & de accitis iſtius opera ad conventum Poſſiacenum theologis Palatinis & Würtenbergenſibus, tum de Auguſtana Confeſſione, quam Lotharingus ſubſcribendam Bezæ & ſociis proponebat, cum Thuano conſentiens refert Varillaſius. In numero etiam Prælatorum non leviter diſcrepat Maimburgius, præter ſex Cardinales viginti circiter adfuiſſe ſcribens; ſed triginta ſex memorat Varillaſius, nec diſſentit Thuanus quadraginta circiter referens. Maimburgius Jacobi Lainii Jeſuitarum Generalis orationem, (quam arrogantiæ & immodeſtiæ arguit Thuanus) mire probat, eaque permotam Reginam eſſe dicit, ut publici Conſeſſus celebritatem, Regisque & procerum præſentiam colloquio iſti adimeret. Sed datum id eſſe Prælatorum honori, & Johann. Montlucii conſiliis, antequam Lainius aut alii Theologi diſceptationes ſuas ordirentur, Varillaſius & Thuanus tradunt. erat, de præſentia corporis Chriſti in S. cœna, & ob hunc articulum abruptus eſt congreſſus. Conceperant formulam Reformati hoc modo: Et quoniam fides verbo Dei innixa, res perceptas facit præſentes, ac per iſtam fidem recipimus re & facto ipſo verum ac naturale corpus & ſanguinem Chriſti, virtute Spiritus Sancti, hac ratione fatemur & agnoſcimus corporis & ſanguinis ipſius in cœna præſentiam. Huic aliam formulam Catholicorum nomine conceptam oppoſuit vir doctus & pacis Eccleſiaſticæ, ut Thuanus ſcribit, ſtudioſus Claudius Eſpencæus, his verbis: Et quoniam verbum & promiſſio Dei, cui fides noſtra innititur, res promiſſas facit præſentes, ac virtute & efficacia verbi recipimus re & facto ipſo verum ac naturale corpus & ſanguinem Chriſti, hac ratione fatemur & agnoſcimus corporis & ſanguinis ipſius in Cœna præſentiam. Iſta cum Thuano conformia refert Varillaſius: ſed Maimburgius moderatam hanc Eſpencæi formulam præterit, & aliam a Sorbonicis Theologis compoſitam, & ad Regem miſſam refert, hoc tenore: Credimus & confitemur, quod in Sacramento Altaris verum ſit corpus, & verus ſanguis Jeſu Chriſti, realiter & tranſſubſtantialiter, ſub ſpeciebus panis & vini, virtute & potentia divini verbi a ſacerdote, ſolo miniſtro ad id ordinato, pronunciati, ſecundum inſtitutionem Domini noſtri Jeſu Chriſti. Eadem reperitur apud Albigneum temporum illorum Hiſtoricum ex Proteſtantibus, ſed nihil de hac commemorant Thuanus & Varillaſius, quamvis etiam illam quam Eſpencæus compoſuerat, rejectam a Proteſtantibus eſſe aſſeverent, ſententiam ſuam ſequenti ſtylo vel emollientibus, vel explicantibus: Etſi nulla locorum diſtantia impediri poſſit, quo minus corpori & ſanguini Chriſti communicemus, quippe cum cœna Domini res Eccleſiæ ſit, & quamvis in terra accipiamus panem & vinum, vera corporis & ſanguinis ſigna, tamen fide & Spiritus S. efficacia mentes noſtras quæ hoc cibo paſcuntur, in cœlum raptas corpore & ſanguine præſenti ſuo, & hac ratione dici, corpus vere pani conjungi, & ſanguinem vino ſed Sacramenti modo, hoc eſt, minime ſecundum locum & poſitum naturalem, ſed quatenus efficaciter ſignificant, Deum illa exhibere fideliter participantibus, illosque vere per fidem ea percipere. His a Thuano latine relatis exacte conveniunt verba Gallica a Varillaſio lib. 2. inſerta; ex quibus ſtatus controverſiæ & tentatæ concordiæ, qui tunc fuit, non paulo aliter, quam a Maimburgio proponuntur. De rebellionis vero crimine, quod hic confidenter

Re-

Reformatis imputat, eumque præcipuum ſcribendæ hiſtoriæ ſuæ ſcopum habuit, caute loquitur Varillaſius, ita ut etiam in præfatione Calvinum a conſcientia conjurationis Amboiſianæ abſolvat; & paſſim inter Calvinianos ſimplices, ſive bonæ fidei, & factioſos diſtinguit, nec omnia quæ illi ad obtinendam libertatem religionis per edicta & promiſſa regia indultam geſſerunt, rebellionis ſimpliciter damnat: imo quod per quadraginta annos Gallia bello civili conflictata eſt, præcipuam cauſam Triumvirali factioni Guiſii, Montmorantii, & Sant-Andreani adſcribit. In Hoſpitalium Cancellarium nulla non occaſione invehitur Maimburgius; ſed meliora de eo paſſim habent Thuanus & Varillaſius. Notabilis tamen eſt hujus obſervatio lib. 6. ubi Hoſpitalio ea tribuit, quæ ſummam contra Reformatos malignitatem ſpirant, & præludia quædam præſentis temporis præbent. Ejus enim prudentia admirabili factum eſſe refert, quod Reformati, pace licet anno 1564 impetrata, & tam potentes, ut directe opprimi nequiverint, per declarationes edicti pacificatorii a Cancellario procuratas indirecte ad incitas pæne fuiſſent redacti. Mandatis enim regiis cautum tunc eſſe d. 6 Aug. dicti anni, ne nobiles ad conciones ſibi permiſſas alios quam ſubditos ſuos admitterent; neſynodi paſtorum amplius haberentur; ne tributa colligerentur; ut matrimonia a religioſis, qui monaſteria deſeruerant, contracta invalida eſſent, utque deſertores illi in clauſtra ſua revocarentur. Sic enim plurimis ex Reformatis periiſſe commoditatem conciones frequentandi, zelumque religionis frigefactum, & ſublata media fuiſſe ærarii communis & ad alendos paſtores: ademtam, prohibitis ſynodis, facultatem abuſus gliſcentes corrigendi; ſupplicio etiam deterritos apoſtatas. Hæc ſi intendit tunc Hoſpitalius, ſatis apparet, quam nullo fundamento illi imputetur, quod religioni reformatæ clanculum addictus fuerit, quanquam uxorem, generum & nepotes haberet, eam profitentes.

Quod attinet loca, editioni huic ex manuſcripto codice inſerta, quæ in Pariſienſi (Pariſiis enim primum anno 1683 opus hoc prodiit) expuncta fuiſſe in titulo libri indicatur, ſunt illa non levis momenti, ut legentibus patebit, & ex ſubjuncto uno alteroque exemplo judicare licebit. Referuntur v. g. Tom. I. p. 10 contenta orationis, quam Nobilitatis nomine in conventu ordinum regni A. 1560 Rupifortius habuit, notaturque abſtinuiſſe eum erga Regem titulo Majeſtatis, quia quia non approbaret hunc honorem, Regibus ſeculis poſterioribus, eadem ratione ac Imperatoribus Romanis olim, exhibitum. Sed horum loco ex M. S. ſequentia ſubſtituuntur: Rupifortius titulo Majeſtatis in compellando Rege nunquam uſus, innuebat, inventum illum ab adulatoribus eſſe, ſequioribus ſeculis, ut mentem Regum, cum quibus ipſi ſolidam potentiam partiebantur, fumo implerent. Neque enim reperiri, quod ſummi Gallorum Monarchæ, etiam Imperatoria dignitate ornati, & maximæ orbis Chriſtiani parti dominantes, hoc titulo uſi fuerint.

P. 106. ejecta ſunt ex ſcripto Proteſtantium Germaniæ, hæc verba: Curia Romana reformet pompam, luxum, avaritiam, ſimoniam, ambitionem & turpitudines ſuas; Concilium Tridentinum non eſt convocatum, neque continuatur, ut doctrina Chriſti ſtabiliatur, aut abuſus corrigantur, ſed ut foveantur intentiones ſpiritus mere humani, doctrinæ illi contrariæ. &c.

P. 390. ex Ferrerii Legati Gallici replica, Tridenti adverſus Hiſpanos exhibita, omiſſa ſunt notatu digna, quæ is adverſus Pontificem dixerat.

Tom. II. p. 20. itidem omiſſæ ſunt graviſſimæ inculpationes a Paſquierio contra Jeſuitas in Parlamento Pariſienſi, A. 1565 pronunciatæ.

Sed hæc, uti diximus, ſpeciminis loco ſufficiant.

AN ACCOUNT OF THE GOVERNMENT OF the Chriſtian Church for the firſt ſix hundred years. By Samuel Parcker D. Arch. Deacon of Canterbury.

hoc eſt:

Relatio de Regimine Chriſtianæ Eccleſiæ ſeculis ſex prioribus. Autore Samuele Parkero Theol. D. & Archidiacono Cantuarienſi.

Londini 1683, in 8.

ANglicana Eccleſia, ex quo Papæ Romani legibus poteſtatique ſe ſubtraxit, quamvis aliorum Reformatorum exemplo plurimos errores depoſuerit, priſtinam tamen adminiſtrationis formam ſemper conſervat, & in hunc usque diem ab Epiſcopis gubernatur, qui cum illa autoritate, qua reliquo clero præſunt, ampliſſimæ dignitatis civilis gradum obtinent. Cui inſtituto ſe validiſſime opponunt Calvinianorum illi, qui in Anglia Presbyterianorum nomen gerentes, negant, ullam inter miniſtros Verbi inæqualitatem eſſe debere; unde habent Epiſcopi, quique ab ipſorum partibus ſunt, domeſticos hoſtes, cum quibus fere quotidie depugnent. Recentius igitur non minori contentione, quam antehac, quum Hallus, Bilſonus, Carletonus viverent, agitata fuit controverſia, an Epiſcopi diſtincto a Presbyteris ordine contineantur, & an Apoſtolorum tempore & proximis inde ſeculis Metropolitanorum autoritas viguerit? Venit etiam in quæſtionem, an Epiſcopi in Parliamento ſedendi jus habeant, & utrum ſalva conſcientia cauſarum civilium ac inprimis capitalium dijudicationi intereſſe poſſint? Noviſſime ſe adverſariis objecit Samuel Parkerus, vir acutiſſimus, & e pluribus ſcriptis notus, cui viſum fuit, recentiores non directo aggredi, ſed illa hominum doctorum ſcripta refutanda ſumere, quibus ipſi tanquam propugnaculis contra quosvis impetus utuntur. Walonem videlicet Meſſalinum, ſcriptorem notiſſimum, Blondellum, & Dallæum invadit, de quibus Triumviris ita ſentit, ut Blondellum reliquis anteferat, ſed cujus rationes ſæpenumero ita ſint jejunæ, ut examinari vix mereantur. Walonem adeo confuſe ac ſine methodo ſcripſiſſe affirmat, ut pauci ſint, qui ipſum legere ac ſequi velint: Dallæum vero teſtatur vix attuliſſe quicquam, quod a Salmaſio, quem ſub Walonis nomine latere neminem fugit, & Blondello dictum non ſit. Itaque Blondellum potiſſimum aggreditur, ejusque argumenta enervare ſatagit. Tria autem in toto hoc opuſculo, ut ipſe titulus docet, oſtendit, quorum primum ac principale eſt Apoſtolica praxis Epiſcopatus Diœceſani & Metropolitici. Hanc ipſe probat, & contra adverſarios modo nominatos defendit ſectionibus quindecim, quas orditur ab Epiſcopatu Hieroſolymitano Jacobi Apoſtoli, negato a Walone Meſſalino, qui abſurdum eſſe ſcripſerat, illud Clementis Alexandrini commentum, qui Jacobum Apoſtolum, ac proinde univerſalem Epiſcopum, in ſpecialem & localem transmutare, & ſic in ordinem cogere cogitaverit. Cui reſpondet Parkerus, Apoſtolos olim nihil aliud fuiſſe, quam Epiſcopos moventes, qui Eccleſias fundandis operam dederint; Epiſcopos vero fuiſſe Apoſtolos fixos, qui eccleſias a ſe fundatas rexerint. Poſtmodum argumenta, quæ a duarum vocum, Epiſcopi ac Presbyteri, promiſcuo in ſacris uſu, æqualitatem miniſtrorum in primiti-mitiva Eccleſia deducunt, ſolvit. Cumque e priſcis patribus Hieronymus ſæpiſſime, & a Calvinianis & a noſtratibus allegetur, dum probant, Epiſcopos non eſſe Presbyteris jure divino ſuperiores; prolixius demonſtrare conatur Parkerus, quo ſenſu Hieronymus Presbyteros Epiſcopis exæquarit, quidque ipſum impulerit, ut ita faceret. Succreverat nimirum Diaconorum potentia & autoritas eo in Eccleſia, ut Presbyteris ſuperiores & proximi eſſe ab Epiſcopis vellent, nec iis ſe legibus ſubjicere, quibus miniſtrare Paſtoribus jubebantur. Quod ubi ad Hieronymum pervenit, acriter is Diaconos objurgavit, atque oſtenſurus, quibus partibus Diaconorum officium circumſcribatur, & quantum ipſi a Presbyteris differant, diviſionem illam antiquam in tres Epiſcoporum, Presbyterorum, & Diaconorum ordines, in dichotomiam commutavit, ita ut Diaconos ordini miniſteriali includeret, Epiſcopos vero ac Presbyteros junctim autoritativo complecteretur. Hoc ſenſu affirmat Parkerus Hieronymum Presbyteros Epiſcopis exæquaſſe, eundem tamen poſtea ordinem autoritativum nova partitione diſtribuiſſe, & ſatis manifeſte Epiſcopos a Presbyteris ſejunxiſſe. Deinde quid ab Apoſtolorum exceſſu in eccleſia factum ſit inquirit, ea Patrum teſtimonia, quæ pro ſe faciunt, pro virili confirmans, ac enervans illa, quæ alteri parti favere videntur. His peractis ſpecialius adminiſtrationis Eccleſiaſticæ modum, qualis tempore Apoſtolorum & prioribus a Chriſto nato ſeculis fuerit, declarat, ac duo ex antiquitatis conſenſu contra Presbyterianos evincit. Unum, in primitiva Eccleſia non fuiſſe unquam peractam miniſtrorum ordinationem, niſi ab Epiſcopo, quamvis peragi potuiſſe non neget. Alterum Chorepiſcopos, quorum primam inſtitutionem contra Blondellum & Walonem in quartum demum ſeculum rejiciendam eſſe probat, veros Epiſcopos fuiſſe, vicarios illorum, qui civitatibus præerant, & habuiſſe intrinſecam miniſtros ordinandi poteſtatem, ſed canonicis quibusdam conſtitutionibus reſtrictam. Cæterum cum Parkerus intelligeret, Presbyterianos in diſputationibus cum Epiſcopis illuc plerumque eniti, ut adverſarios ſuos de Papiſmo ſuſpectos reddant, & odio populari exponant; ipſe verſa vice Presbyterianos oſtendit cum Papiſtis in eo conſpirare, quod per Presbyteros fieri ordinationem poſſe exiſtiment, & poſtquam Apoſtolicam praxin Epiſcopatuum per ſeculorum ternarium evolvit, ſecundo loco Patriarchatum ſola uſurpatione Epi-ſcoporum potentiorum in Eccleſia invaluiſſe, contra Romanenſes deducit. Equidem non dubitat ipſe, quin potuerint Patriarchæ creſcente indies credentium cœtu ab Eccleſia recte inſtitui, quemadmodum civile regimen magiſtratum magiſtratui, vicarios præfecto ſubordinat. Negat tamen ullo Concilii canone introductam fuiſſe Patriarcharum autoritatem, vel ordinatum, ut ipſi Metropolitanis præeſſent. Atque eo nomine Hieronymum, Innocentium primum, & Johannem Scholaſticum refellit, quod Patriarcharum originem ad Concilium Nicænum retulerint. Eodem Innocentio ex arcanis quibusdam conſiliis ſuggerente, titulos ac jura Patriarchalia in Eccleſia orientali primum fuiſſe uſurpata docet, poſtea aliis ſuccedentibus aucta, donec a Concilio Chalcedonenſi confirmarentur. Ita tandem Parkerus ad ultimum tractatus ſui caput defertur, quo bella inter Orientis atq; Occidentis Epiſcopos, ducentos annos pro univerſali autoritate geſta perſequitur. Eorum originem in urbis Conſtantinopolitanæ illuſtria incrementa ac decora, quibus ipſa Romam aliquot Imperatorum munificentia ſuperabat, rejicit, ac e veteris hiſtoriæ monumentis declarat, quibus gradibus ad ſummam in Eccleſia poteſtatem utraque pars adſcendere tentaverit. A nudis enim honorum titulis, ac dignitatum innocuo, ut videbatur, ſplendore auſpicati, jurisdictionem in reliquos Epiſcopos paulatim invaſerunt, plerumque tamen ancipiti ſucceſſu, & æquo velut Marte, donec Bonifacius III titulo ac jure Episcopi Oecumenici, quæ Cyriacus ejusque anteceſſor Johannes, Conſtantinopolitani antiſtites, a Mauritio, fruſtra contradicente Gregorio Magno, obtinuerant, ab Imperatore Phoca honoraretur. Ultimo dum ad ſummam Parkerus, quæ dixerat, reducit, Cardinali Baronio, qui Phocam Romano Epiſcopo titulum decreviſſe & adjudicaſſe, non contuliſſe primum contendit, reſpondet, ac ſpem orbi literario facit, fore, ut pluribus amore ſolius veritatis, quem ubique Vir Clariſſimus profitetur, hoc argumentum inpoſterum evolvat.

Etſi

ETſi Chriſtianis optandum eſſet, æternum latuiſſe Pauli Samoſateni, Arii, Macedonii, Photini, & Pelagii Scoti impia dogmata, quibus SS. Trinitatis myſterium, gloriam Chriſti, hoc eſt, divinam ejus naturam, ac ſumma nobis acquiſita beneficia aut impugnarunt aut abnegarunt: tamen cum ſuperiori ſeculo, Lælius & Fauſtus Socini doctrinam eorum diu damnatam reſuſcitare, ac longe lateque propagare clam palamve moliti ſint; ad hiſtoriam noſtrorum temporum pertinet, iſtius furfuris ſcriptores, horum vitas, libros ac molimina non ignorare. Ea vero præter Theologos, qui Socinianorum hæreſin ex inſtituto confutarunt, in hac bibliotheca Chriſtoph. Sandius Arianus ante hos tres annos fato functus colligere voluit. Quæ ejus collectanea editor hujus bibliothecæ eadem hæreſi imbutus vulgavit, & inſertis ſeptuaginta ſcriptoribus a Sandio prætermiſſis auxit, atque horum vitas, multorumq; inſuper librorum Socinianorum titulos, præſertim vero Mſctorum, ex Germanicis Latine factos addidit. Nam omnes ſcriptores & eorum opera tum edita tum inedita, inde a ſeculi præterlapſi primordiis ad hanc noſtram ætatem, obſervata temporis ſerie, recenſentur, præmiſſo indice alphabetico nominum propriorum, quorum in bibliotheca mentio extat.

Huic ſubjunguntur Joannis Stoinii cœtus Racovienſis paſtoris Epitome hiſtoriæ originis Unitariorum in Polonia: Georgii Schomanni Ratiborienſis Teſtamentum ultimæ voluntatis, continuans vitæ ipſius transactæ hiſtoriam: Relatio de typographiis Unitariorum in Polonia & Lithuania, nec non de Johannis Tyscovicii Martyrio, ut editor vocat, propter blaſphemias ſcilicet rogo impoſiti: Andreæ Wiſſowatii Narratio compendioſa, quomodo in Polonia a Trinitariis Reformatis ſeparati ſint Chriſtiani Unitarii, una cum Appendice hiſtoriam de Spiritu Belga exhibente: & tandem Vindiciæ pro Unitariorum in Polonia religionis libertate, ab equite Polono conſcriptæ, quæ librum finiunt præſentem.

Jenæ, Sumptibus Joh. Bielkii, 1684, in 4.

PUblico & curiosis rerum physicarum scrutatoribus denuo litaturus Vir hic Nobilissimus, postquam medicamenta mineralia, & in specie Mercurialia contra misochymicos defendit, eorumque posteriorum nonnulla rite præparata, eorumque effectus mirabiles tam in Chymia, quam Alchymia indigitavit: illorum noxam a minus recta eorum confectione seu insufficiente fixatione derivat. Hinc medicamina mere Mercurialia quamvis abhorreat, præprimis in corporibus nostris, a labe scorbutica vix immunibus; tutiora nihilominus & mitioris fati ipsi videntur Cinnabarina, de essentia & qualitate Mercurii participantia: Cinnabaris autem Antimonii ac Nativæ vires dum deprædicat, hanc illi anteponit. Ast quoniam sylvestreitas Mercurio solennis, in Cinnabari hac aliquantum equidem, nondum tamen plenarie, extincta esset, per longiorem fixationem & digestionem illam absorptum iri, sibi promittebat, non per separationem partium, sed arctius earum connubium, minerale hoc ad meliorem frugem reduci, diversorum Scriptorum testimoniis, sibique & aliis pyrotechnis perspecta magna digestionis vi confirmatus. Modum ergo, quo in circulanda hactenus Cinnabari Hungarica usus, prolixius exponit Noster, qui in accuratiore potissimum ignis lampadis moderamine & annua fere applicatione consistit. Quo facto fixati hujus medicamenti dosin atque utendi modum, cum ejusdem virtutibus singularibus in morbis gravioribus, imo ipsa pestis virulentia, recenset, subnectendo quædam de illarum ætiologia, sc. quod easdem per idealem illuminationem seu irradiationem, ut Helmontius loquitur, minerale hoc exaltatum exerat.

LA NOUVELLE DECOUVERTE & LES admirables Effets des Fermens dans le Corps humain &c, par le Sieur Iean Pascal, Docteur en Medecine.

Nova Explicatio & mirandi Fermentationis in Corpore Humano effectus &c. auctore Joh. Pascalio, Doctore Medico.

Parisiis, apud Edm. Couterot, 1681, in 12.

Quem-

QUemadmodum Fermentatio inſtrumentum illud catholicum eſt, quo natura in operationibus ſuis quam frequentiſſime utitur, & cujus formalitate ſufficienter cognita infinitorum phænomenorum, in hiſtoria æque naturali ac microcoſmo morboſo occurrentium, ætiologia quam commodiſſime explicari valeat: ſic non minus Philoſopho ac Medico doctrinam de Fermentationis natura & cauſis neceſſariam eſſe, vix ullus, niſi quem fermentum dementiæ exagitat, in dubium vocabit. Hæcque cauſa, cur intra paucos hujus ſeculi annos tot Viri egregii Zymologiam tanto conatu evolvere, ſcriptisque adeo variis declarare allaborarint, v.g. idiomate Germano Zieglerus, Latino Billichius, Schoockius, & Williſius, Anglico vero Simpſon & Henshaw: quibus ingenii haud obtuſioris æſtimari voluit Gallus iſte Doctor, vernacula lingua, ſub epiſtolarum ſchemate, de Fermentatione, (quam veteribus haud ignotam credit,) quatenus præprimis œconomiam animalem in corpore humano moderatur, prolixe ſatis diſſerens. Primo equidem illius directorium univerſale potentiamque in totum macrocoſmum immenſam innuit, productionem ac perfectionem mineralium, generationem, nutritionem & vitalitatem animalium ipſi in acceptis referens, imo meteororum productricem eam pronuncians: in homine tamen dum illius vim majorem obſervat, phænomenis etiam hujus vitalibus mentem magis applicat. Poſtquam itaque, in quo eſſentia Fermentationis conſiſtat, ejusque requiſita explicuit, fermentum duplex, ſc. acidum ſeu activum, alcalicum ſeu paſſivum magis, ſuppoſuit, id eſt, acidum pariter atque alcali omnium effervescentiarum & fermentationum cauſas ſocias exiſtere, diverſis argumentis probavit: Peripateticorum elementa ac Chymicorum principia recenſet, utramque vero hypotheſin taxat, & ſpiritum, ſulphur, atque ſal pro veris & adæquatis rerum principiis venditat, eorum exiſtentiam & energiam in macrocoſmo ac microcoſmo evincendo. Quorum occaſione de diſſolutione, præcipitatione, ac coagulatione, hinc de menſtruorum natura, diſcurrit, illarumq; in Chymicis æq; ac corpore animali effectus varios in ſcenam producit, fermentationi vitali ſanguinis confectionem, circulationem, ejus a putredine præſervationem, ſpirituum animalium præparationem, caloris influxum & corporis nutritionem, ut autori primario, attribuens. Eſſentiam fermentorum in corpore humano dum evolvere ſollicitus eſt, hæc, quamdiu ſub mobilitate & activitate propria exiſtant, volatilia, dum vero alcalicæ partium ſolidarum ſubſtantiæ connubant, fixa pronunciat: quorum poſteriora prioribus ſimili ratione, ac alcalia acidis, ſtimulo exiſtant, ſi forſan in motu ſuo, adeo neceſſario, turbarentur. Humidum proin radicale & calidum innatum veterum nihil aliud, quam fermenta acida & alcalica, in partibus fixata hiſque infixa, ſuſpicatur: calorem autem influum omnem a ſanguine emanare, i. e. a particulis hujus ſulphureis, inter fermentescendum volatiliſatis, concitari. Volatilia fermenta acida exiſtere, blandiſſima tamen, poſtquam comprobavit, recedit ab illis, qui eorum ſcaturiginem in ventriculo, liene, pancreate, corde &c. conſtituerunt, a cerebro & genere nervoſo potius illorum influxum, adeo perpetuum, nec niſi cum vita ceſſantem, derivando: ita ut fermenta hæc, quæ alias ſpiritus animales vocant, nihil aliud, quam pars ſanguinis, non ſulphurea, non ſalina, ſed acidior, per triplex potiſſimum experimentum ipſi videantur. Horum interim ſecretionem atque perfectionem dum exponit, Williſii accenſionem ſanguinis & ſuccum Anglorum nervoſum impugnat, fermenta cordis, ventriculi, lienis ac pancreatis acida deſtruit, tandemque uſum fermenti vitalis declaraturus ſpeciatim & per potiſſimas, ſc. generationis, conceptionis, chylificationis &c. functiones animales, illum demonſtrat.]

HISTORIÆ ECCLESIASTICÆ SECULIANATO Chriſto ſexti decimi ſupplementum, celeberrimorum ex illo ævo Theologorum epiſtolis ad Joannem, Eraſmum, & Philippum Marbachios conſtans, diviſum in octo libros, una cum Apparatu ad totum opus neceſſario, & tabulis chronologico-hiſtoricis, editum a JO. FECHTIO S.S. Theol. Licentiato, Seren. Marchionis Badenſis Conſiliario eccleſiaſtico, Concionatore aulico, Illuſtris Gymnaſii Durlacenſis Inſpectore & Theologiæ Prof. Ordinario.

NOn dubium eſt, quin eruditum orbem inſigni ſibi obſtrinxerit beneficio clariſſimus Editor, dum hunc epiſtolarum ad Marbachios the-theſaurum, hæreditario tandem jure ad ſe delatum, non diutius luctari cum tenebris paſſus eſt, ſed publicæ luci expoſuit. Equidem corpora epiſtolarum pleraque, ac tantum non omnia, ſic prodire ſolent, ut ſingula complectantur unius cujusdam viri celebris ad numeroſam amicorum cohortem epiſtolas: quales e priſcis habemus Ciceronis, Plinii, Symmachi, Sidonii Apollinaris; e recentioribus Bembi, Sadoleti, Eraſmi, Manutii, Mureti, aliorum. Rara vero admodum ſeges earum eſt epiſtolarum, quæ junctim editæ conſpiciantur plurium ad unum aut paucos: quales hæ ſunt ad tres Marbachios, Joannem patrem, & Eraſmum ac Philippum filios; qui omnes in Argentinenſi academia functi ſunt, diverſis quidem temporibus, profeſſione theologica. Itaque vel raritas hæc eas commendare Lectori poteſt. Verum longe majorem illis venerationem conciliat cum auctorum ſplendore conjuncta rerum ſublimitas. Effluxerunt enim e calamis præſtantiſſimorum ſæculi ſuperioris, quadantenus & noſtri, (nam ad annum usque M DC XII illæ extenduntur) Theologorum: Philippi puta Melanchthonis, Davidis Chytræi, Joannis Brentii, Martini Chemnitii, Jacobi Andreæ, Lucæ Oſiandri, Balthaſaris Menzeri, Leonhardi Hutteri, Helvici Garthii, ut alios taceamus. Cumque refertæ ſint memorabilium neque paſſim obviarum, imo alicubi & reconditarum rerum expoſitionibus: quis neget fore, ut earum perluſtrandarum deſiderio accendatur, quisquis talium curioſus eſt?

Neque adeo ſine cauſa placuit Editori titulum ipſis aſſerere Supplementi hiſtoriæ eccleſiaſticæ: nimirum quia, quod ipſe in dedicatoria profitetur, edidit illas eum in finem, ut cognoſcendis ſuperioris ævi rebus in eccleſia geſtis, & dijudicandis iis quæ ab inquietæ mentis ſectariis tum paſſim movebantur, fidei controverſiis inſervirent. Sane vero Eccleſiaſticæ hiſtoriæ ſcribendæ haud parum commodare etiam epiſtolas, docebunt Annalium Evangelii renovati Decades duæ, quas ab anno M D XVI usque ad M D XXXVI progreſſas elucubravit Abrahamus Scultetus: nam in his ille (Calvino quidem quam Luthero addictior) paſſim utitur excerptis epiſtolarum, imo alicubi & integras apponit. Quapropter &, ſi cui libeat alias parturire Annalium eccleſiaſticorum decades, ei certe hic epiſtolicus optimorum Doctorum theſaurus, annorum circiter ſeptuaginta literarium complexus commercium, idq; ab anno ſæculi ſuperioris quaſi quadrageſimo inchoa-tum, adjumenti plurimum ſuppeditabit; præſertim cum juxta ſeriem ſeptem decenniorum totidem in partes digeſtæ compareant hæ ad Marbachios epiſtolæ. Ad Marbachios inquam. Pars enim octava & ultima nullam habet ad quempiam Marbachiorum, (ſi octogeſimam ſeptimam ſeu penultimam, quæ p. 907 inchoatur, excipias) plerasque ad Eraſmum Roterodamum, non paucas ad Laurentium Tuppium, reliquas ad alios quosdam. Neque juxta ſeriem temporum ordinatæ ibi hæ conſpiciuntur epiſtolæ. Quod quidem vel eam ob cauſam excuſatum habebit æquus Lector, quod alias quicquid ibi reperitur epiſtolarum ad Eraſmum Roterodamum, quem conſtat anno 1536 obiiſſe, fuiſſet anteponendum Marbachianis, quarum prima (Lutheri de Doctoratu Joannis Marbachii teſtimonialis) eſt anni 1543. Interim certe prædicandum eſt doctiſſimi Editoris ſtudium, qui nihil e ſuperiore ſeculo ad ſe propagatæ ſupellectilis epiſtolicæ deliteſcere diutius intra privatos parietes voluit. Omnes autem illas octavæ partis epiſtolas, a Melch. Sebizio e ſupellectile librorum Matthiæ Berneggeri fuiſſe ei communicatas, ex autographis manu Roberti Robertini deſcriptas, diſces e pag. 907 & Apparatus cap. 4 p. 164.

Ut redeamus ad eas, quæ partium ſeptem præcedentium terminis circumſcriptæ Marbachiis miſſæ ſunt, ſuppleri ex illis poterunt non modo ſcrinia (ut ſic loquamur) Hiſtoriæ Eccleſiaſticæ, ſed etiam celebrium Theologorum tum vitæ, tum jam antehac editæ ſeorſim epiſtolæ. Planum utrumque faciemus uno alterove exemplo. Tilemanni Heshuſii vitam conciſam admodum & mancam ad nos transmiſit Melchior Adamus Vit. Germ. Theolog. p. 621 ſeq. multo locupletiorem, eamque carmine heroico exaratam, & Heshuſii commentariis in Eſaiam adjectam gener ejus D. Jo. Olearius: ubi & quarti, quod ſuſtinendum illi fuit, mentionem reperies exilii; cujus hiſtoriam illuſtrabunt egregie quæ hic Parte II ſub anno 1565 p. 182 ſeqq. tum in ipſius Heshuſii, tum in aliorum epiſtolis leguntur. Exilio non uno exploratam quoque novimus conſtantiam Theologi ævo ſuperiore de eccleſia Chriſti meritiſſimi Jeremiæ Hombergeri. Hujus vitam qui contexuerit, compertum nobis nominare poſſumus neminem. Licebit interim illius conſtruendæ qualiacunque rudera colligere partim ex ſcriptis ejus, illo maxime quod Germanicum de juſtificatione edidit, ubi f. 341 ſeqq. (edit. Jenenſis anni 1592) ipſe avum, aviam, parentes,

ſtudiorum & eccleſiaſticarum functionum ſuarum principia memorat; partim ex opere præſenti, quod epiſtolas ab eo ad Marbachios exaratas exhibet bene multas. Jam quod diximus, ex hoc eodem opere ſuppleri etiam poſſe celebrium Theologorum ſeorſim editas epiſtolas, id confirmari cumprimis poteſt exemplo epiſtolarum Davidis Chytræi, quæ Hanoviæ prodierunt anno 1614. Niſi enim fallimur, in iſto Hanovienſi corpore comparent Chytræi ad Marbachios epiſtolæ non plures tredecim, cum eas hoc in opere Fechtiano numerare liceat parum abeſt quin centum. Quid quod quædam epiſtolæ Chytræi, quæ utrobique leguntur, uberiores nobis hic repræſentat Durlacenſis typographus, quam illic Hanovienſis? id quod clare animadvertet, qui comparabit epiſtolas quæ hic inchoantur p. 227 ſub n. CVIII, 281, 567 cum iisdem, quales illic p. 817. 482. 1060. exhibentur. Porro in harum trium ultima (quæ quidem Chytræi eſt ad Petrum Patientem) typus Hanovienſis p. 1061 hæc ſiſtet: Docet autem in Academia N. vir gravis, prudens & doctus quem meo periculo commendare non vererer, N.N. Aperte eum prodit typus Durlacenſis, ubi palam p. 569 memoratur in Academia Julia docens Daniel Hofmannus. Similem in modum N. ille, quem epiſtola Chytræi ad Philippum Marbachium p. 1087. ed. Hanov. occultat, D. Celeſtinus propalatur p. 592. ed. Durlac. Viciſſim tamen Chytræi epiſtolam, cujus initium: Βαρδίῳ μακαρίῳ (ea vero Joach. Morlino eſt inſcripta) lineis bene multis refertiorem deprehendimus in Chytræanis p. 363 ſeq. quam Marbachianis p. 293 ſeq. Quin & integras tres Chytræi epiſtolas, unam anni 1581 ad Philippum Marbachium de obitu parentis p. 374. Divinitus inſita &c. duas ad Eraſmum anni 1587 & 1593, quarum initia p. 588. Intelligo collega mei, & p. 808. Cum facile ſit &c. fruſtra quæſivimus in Marbachianis; ut adeo ſubiiſſe ipſas appareat fatum earum, quas e bibliotheca Marbachiana periiſſe editor p. 3. Apparatus ſignificat. Veruntamen ex his ultimam veroſimile eſt ne quidem unquam ædibus Eraſmi illatam fuiſſe, eam ob cauſam, quod paulo poſt ſcriptam illam nuncius de obitu ejus ad Chytræum pervenerit. Verbis enim epiſtolam finientibus: *bene & feliciter vale. D. XX. Febr. JOHANNIS a LENT, Lingu. Orient. & Hiſtor. Sac. Prof. Illuſtris Lycei Naſſovici Bibliothecarii, Shediaſma Hiſtorico-Philologicum de Judæorum Pſeudo-Meſſiis.

Herbornæ, a. 1683, in 4.

Quod verus Meſſias Joh. 5. v. 47. dixerat: Ego veni in nomine patris mei, & non accipitis me; Si alius veniat in nomine proprio, illum accipietis: id experientia ſubſequentium ſeculorum ad hoc usque ad finem jam vergens comprobat. Neque enim ullum propemodum poſt Chriſti Servatoris unici effluxit ſeculum, quin unus itemque alter Pſeudo-Meſſias exſurrexerit, perniciemque recutito populo ingentem attulerit. Eos itaque poſt Chriſtianum Chriſtiani & Johannem Hottingerum (nam & hi, ut alios taceamus, diſſertationes de Pſeudo-Meſſiis edidere) percenſere auctor Schediasmate iſthoc Hiſtorico-Philologico voluit. Ac principe quidem inter eos loco conſtituitur Bar Cochab ſeu ſtellarum filius, quem imperante Hadriano, qui Æliam urbem in Judæa condiderat, Judæorum gentes penitus ex illa amoturus, contra Romanos arma ſumpſiſſe, Bitteramque regiam ſedem conſtituiſſe conſtat. Judæi autem, cum a Stella hac ſeductos miſere turpiterque deluſos ſe viderent, Meſſiam hunc falſum a tempore iſto ad hoc usque præſens Bar Coſabh vel Bar Coſibha h. e. filium mendacii, vocitarunt. Ipſe quoque Bar Coſibha occupata abs Hadriano urbe Bittera occiſus; quique armiger ipſius erat Akiba graviſſimo ſupplicio fuit enectus; quin & reliqui Judæi, poſt tot millia mactata extorres patria per orbem ſunt diſperſi, & in hunc usque diem ſine rege, ſine duce, palabundi ludibrius mortalium omnium ſunt expoſiti.

Anno poſt C.N. 434 tempore Theodoſii junioris alius Pſeudo-Meſſias natione Judæus, Moſes Cretenſis dictus, in Creta Inſula, quæ Candia hodie vocatur, Bar Coſibhæ non multum inferior ortus eſt. Hic Moſen ſe eſſe finxit, ſeque miſſum a cœlo, ut Judæos Cretam incolentes per mare deduceret, aſſeveravit. Sed qui ad juſſum ejus in mare se præcipitarant, partim scopulis illisi, partim aquis sunt submersi; ipse vero jamjam comprehendendus ex oculis evanuit.

A.C. 520 sub Imperatore Romanorum Justino Seniore quidam nomine Dunaan Homerita, Mosis filium se professus, Negramque Arabiæ felicis urbem ingressus Christianos vi oppressit; sed flagitiosæ crudelitatis mox pœnas dedit, ab Elesbano piissimo Æthiopum duce captus ac ferro cæsus.

A.C. 529 Judæi cum Samaritanis in Palæstina rebellarunt, jugoque Romanorum excusso Julianum quendam Regem sibi præfecerunt, proque Messia habuerunt. Sed brevi post oppugnarunt eos Romani sub Imperatore Justiniano, innumerique ex illis una cum duce sunt interfecti.

Posthæc Muhammed, in Arabia deserta a. 571 natus, partim ex vero & falso Christianismo, partim ex Gentilismo, partim ex Judaismo novam conflavit religionem, ac primum apud Arabes Judæosque pro Messia, quem hi expectarent, se venditavit; sed hæc consilia non procedere subolfaciens, revocato Cerinthianorum, Marcionitarum & Manichæorum dogmate, Christum non verum corpus, sed φάντασμα aliquod assumsisse, se autem verum DEI prophetam, eumque Christo majorem esse affirmavit.

A C. 721 Syrus quidam sub Leone Isauro Imp. insignis veterator Christum se esse simulavit, Judæisque illusit.

A.C. 1137 in Gallia pessimus nebulo sub Messiæ nomine iisdem imposuit; verum & hic meritas impietatis pœnas dedit; plurimi etiam Judæorum in Gallia occisi, præsertim quod singulis annis in festo Paschatos mactare puerum Christianum dicerentur.

A.C. 1138 in regno Persico extitit Judæus quispiam, qui se Messiam fuit professus, magnamque Judæorum coegit manum. Verum & hic impostor apprehensus & a Rege Persarum fuit capite plexus.

A.C. 1157 in Hispania Bætica, urbe Corduba, impostor alius Judæos in spem novam erexit, sed & decepit pariter, ut omnes fere Judæi per Hispaniam universam internecioni darentur.

A.C. 1167 alius in regno Fessano Pseudo-Messias prodiit. Eodem anno in Arabia veterator insignis, se prodromum Messiæ jactitavit, seque, si decollaretur, revicturum gloriatus est. Sed jussu Regis decollatus, permansit mortuus. Non multo post Vir Judæus ultra Euphraphratem hoc ſolo ſigno Meſſiam ſe eſſe dixit, quod in ſomno nocte leproſus, mane vero & per diem formoſus integerque eſſet. Verum & hic dignum moribus ſuis invenit exitum.

A.C. 1174 Magus quidam novus ſeu falſus Meſſias conſpectus in Perſia, qui pertinaciter prætendit, ſe eſſe illum diu quæſitum expectatumq; Meſſiam, unde Judæi in maximas redacti fuere anguſtias.

A. C. 1176 In Moravia, regione Germaniæ, David Almuſſer Pſeudo-Meſſias comparuit, qui & artis magicæ beneficio inviſibilem ſe reddere potuit. Verum & hic captus trucidatusque eſt, & Judæi magna pecuniæ ſumma mulctati. Eodem ſeculo XII alius Pſeudo-Meſſias fuit exortus, ſed quo anno, & qua in provincia moratus fuerit, Autori non conſtat.

A.C. 1199, aut potius ex Auctoris mente circa a. 1160, David El David, alias David Alroi in Perſia non ſuis tantum, ſed & Perſarum Regi aperte dixit, ſe Meſſiam eſſe a Deo miſſum, prodigiisque atque incantationibus ſuis multos ſuorum in admirationem pertraxit. At enim, cum debellare Regem illum cum exercitu tentaret, captus, eumque fuga elapſus eſſet, opera Regis Turcici Perſæ ſubjecti capite truncatus eſt, quod Regi Perſarum fuit miſſum.

A.C. 1497 ſub Ferdinando Catholico, Hiſpaniarum Rege, ſpe Pſeudo-Meſſiæ novi, Iſmaelis Sophi, iterum turpiter deluſi fuere Judæi.

A.C. 1500 pro Meſſia ſe venditavit Rabbi Lemlem, Judæus Germanus, Vindobonæ, urbe Auſtriæ primaria, qui fornacem domus ſuæ deſtruxit, ſe proximo anno in terra ſancta cocturum popularibus ſuis placentas paſchales perſuadens; ſed & hic ſpe vana lactavit ſuos & periit.

A.C. 1534 novus in Hiſpania exortus Judæus Pſeudo-Meſſias, Rabbi Salomo Malcho, ſed a Carolo V combuſtus.

A.C. 1615 alius Judæus Pſeudo-Meſſias in India Orientali fuit viſus, quem & Judæi in Luſitania ſunt ſecuti.

A.C. 1666 Sabetbai Zevi Smirnenſis patria, Judæus natione, & Doctor ob ſummam in Hebraica literatura, Philoſophia & Theologia eruditionem inſignitus, ſe eſſe Meſſiam Ben-David vel filium Davidis aperte profeſſus eſt. Miſſus in exilium, quod nomen tetragrammaton pronunciaſſet, Nathanem Levi Judæum doctiſſimum invenit, qui ſe Meſſiæ hujus præcurſorem & magnum Prophetam Eliam pro-

fiteretur. Sed cum Messias a magna Judæorum multitudine esse crederetur, nec humanis tantum, sed & divinis honoribus oneraretur, Constantinopoli in vincula fuit conjectus, cumque evaginato gladio sagittisque, ut, num inviolabilis Messias foret, appareret, petendus jam esset, sacris Turcarum cum uxore initiari, quam id periculi subire maluit.

A. C. 1682 Rabbi Mardochai Judæus, natione Germanus ex urbe Eysenstadt, Messiam se profiteri cœpit, nec salutari tantum se cum, sed & adorari jussit. Ex Italia, ubi summo cum honore ab omnibus fere Judæis fuit exceptus, in Germaniam reversus iter suscepit in Poloniam. Et nunc Pragæ hærere dicitur, cujus tamen obscura est fama, nec magna apud Judæos ejus habebitur ratio, toties a planis istiusmodi deceptos. Atque hi isti sunt Pseudo-Messiæ Judæorum, quos clarissimus Lentius in Schediasmate hoc breviter recensuit, majus opus de iisdem, uti p. 72 pollicetur, editurus.

Jenæ, 1684, in 4' apud Matthæum Bircknerum.

QUod hactenus per partes salivam orbis literati movit eruditum opus, id nunc omnibus absolutum numeris prodit in publicum. Quemadmodum vero intentionem & scopum, ad quem utroque oculo excellentissimus Auctor collineat, jam mense Martio superioris anni exhibuimus lectori: ita is instituti ubique memor & sui semper similis, in conferendis cum Jure Romano legibus Germanorum aliarumque gentium, nec non variorum responsis & monitis practicis passim inferendis, eam industriam adhibuit, ut aspectu nunc longe augustiori sanctissimum Justitiæ templum, (quo nomine Pandecten ornat Imperator,) effulgeat. Hoc interim votis omnibus optamus, ut nova, quam clarissimus Schilterus moliri videtur, Alemannici & Saxonici Juris, ad fidem vetustissimorum Codicum MSS. Ambrasianorum correcti editio omnium doctorum propediem expleat desideria.

publicata Lipſiæ
Calendis Julii A. M DC LXXXIV.

PRÆSTANTIVM AC ERVDITORVM virorum Epiſtolæ Eccleſiaſticæ & Theologicæ, quarum longe maior pars ſcripta eſt a JAC. ARMINIO, JOAN. UYTENBOGARDO, CONR. VORSTIO, GERH. JOAN. VOSSIO, HVG. GROTIO, SIM. EPISCOPIO, CASP. BARLÆO.*

Editio ſecunda, ab innumeris mendis repurgata, & altera parte auctior.
Amſtelædami, apud Henr. Wetſtein, 1684, in fol.

QUantas in Fœderato Belgio turbas dederint, natæ ſub exitum ſuperioris ſeculi inter Theologos quosdam de prædeſtinatione ac gratia meritoque Chriſti controverſiæ, non Reformata tantum Eccleſia in Remonſtrantes & Contra-Remonſtrantes ſciſſa, ſed & Republica ipſa in atroces factiones diſtracta; multi meminerunt adhuc, neminem vero ignorare Scripta utriusq; partis, quæ publice extant, eriſtica patiuntur. Quemadmodum vero de ipſis fidei articulis, circa quos diſſenſio orta fuerat, magna animorum contentione fuit diſceptatum: ita non minus partium ſtudium in condenda motuum illorum hiſtoria fuit deprehenſum. Hinc enim, ut Wilh. Baudartii, Gerh. Brandtii, aliorumque lucubrationes ſilentio nunc prætereamus, ingentia illa Johannis Uytenbogardi & Jacobi Triglandi nata ſunt volumina, Belgico ſermone corſcripta, quibus uterque, ille Remonſtrantium, hic Contra-Remonſtrantium partibus addicti, magno id egerunt ſtudio, ut diſſidiorum, profectorumque inde in Eccleſiam & Rempublicam malorum invidiam a ſe amolirentur, ac in partem derivarent adverſam. Inprimis vero Remonſtrantes, quo magis preſſi ab adverſariis fuere; damnati ſcilicet in Synodo Dordracena, pulſi in exilium, omnique calamitatis genere afflictati, donec refrigeſcente paulatim odio cathedris pulpitisque ſuis conniventia magiſtratuum reſtituti ſunt: eo magis allaborandum ſibi cenſuerunt, ut innocentiam ſuam cauſæque æquitatem omni ratione aſſererent. Atque hæc ipſa cauſa fuit, ob quam anno 1660 Chriſtianus Hartſoecker & Philippus a Limborg, clariſſima inter Remonſtrantes nomina, Eccleſiaſticas Theologicasque epiſtolas a diverſis ſuarum partium hominibus diverſo tempore exaratas, publici juris fecerunt; univerſo nempe orbi vel ita probaturi, quanta pietate ac religione cauſam egerint Remonſtrantiſmi, ſi loqui fic licet, auctores. Ita enim perſuaſum habuere, non aliunde rerum geſtarum hiſtoriam hauriri ſincerius poſſe, quam ex familiarium litteris, quibus in amici ſinum libere quisque deſtinata ſua ac cogitata omnia, affectusque & animi motus effundit; nec ulla monumenta alia minus, quam hæc, debere eſſe ſuſpecta, cum in ſubita illa & ſæpe calida ſcriptione ſimulationi locus eſſe vix poſſit. Itaque & fiduciam cauſæ ſuæ manifeſtaturos ſe arbitrati ſunt, ſi totius orbis oculis non dubitarent ſubjicere, quæ per epiſtolas familiares actitata ac diſceptata inter Remonſtrantium principes fuerunt; (tametſi non diſſimulandum, interſeri ſubinde epiſtolas etiam alias, non a Remonſtrantibus, ſed ab aliis, Remonſtrantium tamen plerumque cauſa, ſcriptas) & lectorem ſperarunt de Remonſtrantiſmi auctorum ac promotorum indole, ſtudio, moribus, æquius ex epiſtolis hiſce, quibus ſe ipſi candide ac ingenue absque fuco expreſſerunt, quam ex adverſariorum illorum ſcriptis, laturum eſſe judicium. Eo vero magis gratum epiſtolarum illud volumen eruditis accidit, quod non tantum momenti plurimum adferrent ad hiſtoriam motuum illorum, quibus Fœderatum Belgium ſuperioribus temporibus graviſſime concuſſum fuit, illuſtrandam, ſed & de difficillimis fidei Chriſtianæ articulis doctiſſimorum virorum meditationes exhiberent, Politicis etiam ac philoſophicis diſcurſibus hic illic interſperſis. Eam enim circumſpectionem adhibuerunt epiſtolarum editores, ut non quascunque promiſcue & ſine delectu, ut ab aliis fieri aſſolet, ſed eas tantum, quæ fructum allaturæ lectori eſſent indubitato, publici juris facerent; ordine etiam, qui conveniens maxime erat, temporis ſcilicet, licet, quo quæque exaratæ ſunt, ſervato, ut rerum hoc geſtarum ſeculo hiſtorica quædam connexio lectori pateret.

Cæterum cum prior illa Operis hujus editio diſtracta duduu eſſet, & epiſtolæ tamen illæ a quamplurimis avide deſiderarentur, id ſibi laboris imponi facile paſſus eſt, qui primam cum Hartſoeckero curaverat, Philippus a Limborg, ut novam editionem, & eam quidem tum emendatiorem, tum altera parte auctiorem adornaret. Itaque & tollendis mendis, quæ priori editioni irrepſerant, epiſtolas ſingulas cum autographis ſtudioſe contulit; & ultra trecentas easque maximi momenti prioribus adjecit, quas inter novæ Hugonis Grotii quadraginta quinque, Gerh. Joh. Voſſii quadraginta & una, Conradi Vorſtii quatuordecim, Jacobi Arminii ſedecim, totidem Wilhelmi Laudi Cantuarienſis quondam ArchiEpiſcopi, undecim C. Niellii, quadraginta octo Joh. Uytenbogardi, pluresque diverſorum auctorum aliæ leguntur. Nec diffitendum tamen, plurimum decoris editioni huic conciliare, & Remonſtrantium cauſæ admodum favere, Anglorum duorum, qui Synodo Dordracenæ interfuerunt, Gualteri Balcanquali, & Johannis Haleſii epiſtolas, Anglico quo conſcriptæ fuerant idiomate, a doctiſſimo Anglorum Johanne Pearſonio, Ceſtrienſi hodie Epiſcopo, pridem editas, ſed nunc in Latinum ſermonem Limborgii cura translatas. Iis enim non pauca luci exponuntur publicæ, quæ in Synodo ſecreto & quaſi poſt ſiparium geſta fuerunt, ut vel ex illis apparaturum Limborgius cenſeat, Synodi ſcribas non tam veritati ingenue litaſſe, quam ſerviiſſe tempori.

Hiſtoria Germaniæ Antiquæ & Novæ: continens origines, mores, opes, conſuetudines, bella & religiones gentis; fundationem & deſcriptionem urbium Imperialium; politiam, regimen & utilitates Principum & Electorum; vitam etiam omnium Imperatorum usque ad LEOPOLDUM Auguſtum nunc regnantem, eorumque icones. Autore Dn. de Prade.

Lutetiæ apud Auguſtinum Beſoigne, 1683, in 8. Liber

Liber hic, pro tanta materiæ amplitudine ſat brevis, partes habet duas. In prima per capita decem Autor ab hiſtoria Imperii Romani & Francorum, ad deſcriptionem veteris Germaniæ ejusque gubernationem progreditur, & hanc in Romanam & Auſtraſianam diſtinguit, formamque ejus ſub Merovingiis, Carolovingiis, & Teutonicis Regibus aut Imperatoribus variantem explicat. De Prælatorum Eccleſiaſticorum priſtino ſtatu, auctisque dignitatibus & opibus, per improvidam, ut notat, Principum liberalitatem, ſatis libere judicat. Urbium initia & politiam pluribus perſequitur; ſpeciatim de Argentorati & Norimberga regimine agens, ut & de fœdere Anſeatico, de tribunalibus & judiciis, de comitiis & conventibus, de litibus per duella olim finitis, de hominibus propriis, ſive mancipiis: quarum materiarum quædam parte ſecunda reiterantur. In hac per alia decem capita hodierni Germaniæ fines, diviſiones, & mores breviter memorantur. Agitur deinde de Imperatore, ejusque electione, coronatione, poteſtate: tum de potentia domus Auſtriacæ, itemque de Rege Romanorum: porro de Electoribus, Principibus eccleſiaſticis & ſecularibus, de Comitibus & Baronibus, de liberis civitatibus, de nobilibus ſive equitibus immediatis. Additur epicriſis de forma & defectibus regiminis, ſatisque ampla de tribunalibus Imperii diſſertatio. Inſeruntur multa de Genealogia Principum, itemque ſucceſſiones Epiſcoporum, & denique catalogus Imperatorum a Rudolpho Habsburgenſi ad noſtra usque tempora: nam priores ad Alfonſum usque Caſtellæ Regem, parte prima exhibiti fuerant: expreſſis ubique ex numismatibus fere iconibus. Eruditionem & induſtriam Autoris, qua plurima & diverſiſſima in compendium redegit, nemo improbabit; ſed quæ in Actis menſis Maji nuperi p. 219, ad Malleti Deſcriptionem orbis annotavimus, non poſſumus non huc repetere; ne quæ peregrinus autor ex aliis erronea hauſit, novoque huic libro intulit, per incuriam transmiſſa, aut agnita videantur. Omnia illa adnotare, refutare, corrigere, diſputare licebit, cui ad id lubitus & otium eſt: nos nulla alienos labores taxandi impetigine, ſed ad commonefaciendos lectores, & ab errore præmuniendos aliqua ſaltem indicabimus.

Omittimus autem, quæ parte prima ex Gallorum ſive Franco-Gallorum rebus, Germanis tribuuntur. Nota enim eſt autorum utriusque gentis diſſenſio, dum noſtrates originem gentis Francicæ, ejusque

Supremum fuisse: erat enim collegiorum Iurecultorum, qualia nunc apud nos hic sunt, & Halæ Saxonicæ, & Wittebergæ, & Jenæ, veteri Scabinorum vocabulum tenuissimum, nulla sui confundendi & redpendendi de pare potestate. Et à non recte dicitur Marchio Brandenburgicus, qui Comitis titulum præferebant Marchionibus apud Germanos. Pag. 203 Comitatus Oberfurstenthal ad Systema nigrum situs dicitur, qui non tantum plus quam decem dierum itinere ab illa, quæ hodie sola hoc nomen in Saxonia obtinet, sed & ab Herrenberg, Arnoldi ceuse tat amplo abest spatio, in Thuringiæ tribus jacens, iisque immixtus. At quanto major eſt pars secunda rerum sartago & copia, tanto plura abortiri potuerunt errores, Insuper reducimus & alia expendenda, quæ de Majestate & officio Imperatoris & Principum, tum de ceremoniis publicis, de tribunalibus ecumenæ procedit, & alia quæmodi confidentur diffusa, autorum, quos inquirit, fere ad fua opinione haud satis tutus: quedam tamen ex maniestis erroribus adnotabimus. Commendatores Ordinis Teutonici in Saxonia, supra Pretatus in Comitiis principalibus locum suum sedili p. 194 quitarunt, men in calle nobilium sedent, a præcedentibus Prælatorum cœtu diverſo. Pag. 16 malæ ex hoc capite præferit, principem Anhaltgeorgium & Wertzbergium eatenus, quod illi habeant fupremum principatum, reliqui Comites Superiores habeantur; nam & illi, & comites Principes hunc in casibus legitimis agnoscunt judicem, nec ideo minus gaudent jure fupremitatis. Pag. 30 Johannis Georgii I. Sax. Electoris genus, non filii Serenisi, tertium & quartum Christianum & Maurinum tantopere hinc Marinburgum, illi Naumburgum assignans, quod inverti debuit; omnes etiam secundogenitum Serenissimum quendam Anhaltinum, Magdeburgicum Administratorem, Pag. 130 Saxonia Regio in circulo Saxon. inferiori locum inter Magdeburgensem & Bremensem Archiepiscopatus tribual, cum ipſe Rex Brunonis Apostolorum, sub Ducatus nomine habeat, Pag. 147, incompetum eſt, quod Haſſiæ Superioris Landgravium Comitem vocet Darmstatinum; nec rectius p. 151, quod Brunsvicenses Duces inter alios referr, qui jus primogeniturae inter Principes alteros à vicibus exercent, quas tamen sine controversia præcedunt. Nec p. 157 Eutinum Hollatiæ familiæ sedem recte facit, cum sit Episcopatus Lubecensis, P. 159 omissi est tertia

The Preface.

Although the Author of this Booke, be not ignorant, that many haue written of the Art of Warre, both Ancient and Moderne, and that the Bookes of the Ancients are not onely in the hands of the Learned, but also translated into the vulgar tongues of most Nations: yet he hath thought it not vnprofitable, to write of the same Argument, and to publish the same in the English tongue, for the vse of his Countrey men, and for the benefite of his Prince and Nation. For he hath obserued, that the Bookes of the Ancients, are for the most part written in the Greeke and Latine tongues, which are not vnderstanded of many: and that the Bookes of the Moderne Writers, are written in the Italian, Spanish, French, and Dutch tongues, which are not vnderstanded of the Common people of this Realme. Wherefore he hath thought it good, to write of this Argument in the English tongue, that the Common people of this Realme, may be thereby the more apt, to serue their Prince and Countrey, when they shall be thereunto called. For he hath obserued, that the Common people of this Realme, are for the most part, more apt to serue their Prince and Countrey, when they shall be thereunto called, then the Common people of any other Nation: and that they are more apt to learne the Feates of Warre, then any other Common people whatsoeuer Collectio scriptorum quorundam curiosorum, concernentium Philosophiam Cartesianam.

Amstelodami apud Henr. Desbordes, 1684, in 12.

EX quo Cartesianæ doctrinæ semina in aliquot Parisiensium scholis se prodiderunt, data inprimis opera a Jesuitis fuit, ut pro ea, quæ hodie in regno pollent, autoritate nascentem herbam mature opprimerent. Metuebant enim, ut est in præfatione huic opusculo præfixa, Patres, tum ne fidei Romanæ capita detrimenti quid per hos Philosophos paterentur; tum potissimum, ne juventus, quam hactenus semper numerosissimam docuerant, relictis posthac suis Seminariis, illuc se novitatis cupida reciperet, ubi Cartesii recentibus principiis initiaretur. Quid eo nomine sex aut septem abhinc annis actum fuerit, cognoscere ex his opusculis licet, quorum aliqua antehac quidem in Gallia typis excusa sunt, ita tamen superiorum jussu latuerunt, quasi lucem nunquã adspexissent. Bonam igitur eruditorum gratiam se initurum confisus Editor doctissimus, si ita e tenebris scripta illa protraheret, recudi ipsa junctis aliis, quæ antehac visa publice non sunt, curavit. Addidit præfationem, quæ historiam rei gestæ complectitur, & notitia necessaria lectorem, antequam legendis opusculis operam navet, initiat. Ea igitur & nos, ficubi opus fuerit, in hac relatione utemur.

Primum opusculum acta continet, quibus inter Jesuitas & Patres Oratorii Parisiensis de abolendo Jansenismo, & exterminandis Cartesii dogmatibus convenit. Speciatim illic exprimitur, quid legi docerique, cum a Theologis, tum a Philosophis debeat. Annotationes ad hæc acta secundum occupant locum. Illarum autor libere quantum Jesuitæ in regno præter meritum possint, & quantum Patres Oratorii, qui, quod doctrina atque ingenio palmam eripere Jesuitis velle, nec iisdem semper opinionibus duci viderentur, odium capitale incurrerant, injuste ab ipsis passi sint, exponit. Quæ inde sequuntur, opposita sunt Jesuitæ cuidam Cadomensi, qui ficto nomine anno 1680. peculiari scripto ostenderat, Cartesii sententiam de essentia corporis oppugnare doctrinam Ecclesiæ Romanæ, & conformem esse erroribus Calvini in articulo de Eucharistia. Hortatus eo nomine fuerat Regem Galliæ, omnemque clerum, ut malo quotidie latius serpenti mederentur, tur ac edicto caveretur, ne exinde amplius scholarum moderatores Cartesii dogmata juventuti proponerent. Reponderunt igitur Jesuitæ tertio in ordine scripto Dn. Electori, celsitudini Gallorum explicatius, in Actorum superioris anni mense Novembri p. 471 sqq. mentionem fecimus, Atque ut docent, Cartesii doctrinam Transubstantiationis mysterium minime everti, fidei articulos in re, verum & apparentem distinctione, fatuit, in S. Coena panis apparentem remanere existimem, aut potuerit realiter corpora autem Christi verum ibi esse, non in formam panis insertus. Ne vero negent integrum, nos hac ratione fidei ipsi DEO autore, cui tamen omnem tendacium & abominationis, deducit. Bernenses verba D. Thomæ, licet sensum nobis fallentur, nos tamen ipsos fallit non posse, quam de re ipsa in verba ista hæc est corpus meum, adnotaverint. Quarto opusculo clarissimus Malbranchius a criminæ erroneæ in Ide Romana doctrina, quod Jesuita ipsi objectas, se purgat; simul & Cartesianæ de proprietatibus corporis doctrinæ mentem tantum tunc cum dectis Tridentinis conciliare nititur. Annectit defensioni suæ chartam quam sibi ab amico millam simulat, de possibilitate Transubstantiationis. In ea demonstratur quidem DEO eandem extensionem, adequate idem corpus, in pluribus locis produci, & præsentem eandem extensionem ad punctum aliquod minimum redigi, inque eo conservari. Quintum opusculum Sedunensis cujusdam Professoris est in suo Lucerna de la Foi (id est filium Jesuitæ nomen) & principue Philosophiæ refellitur, & differentia, quam inter corpus & spatium Cartesiani ponunt, prolixe declaratur. Accedunt eiudem Auctoris initia eiusdem philosophiæ, de difficultibus variarum disciplinarum controversiis, Ultimum opusculum meditationes decem continet, quæ veluti datum ad Cartesianarum meditationum obscurum volumen probe intelligendum parent. Nomen Wheling Wodenfis fictum esse doctissimus Editor fuspicatur, latereque sub eo quendam Malbranchii discipulum, qui passim magistri sui silicta propugnando, hand obscure se prodat.

KABBALÆ DENUDATÆ
Tomus secundus,

Biblioteca Comenio

id est,

Liber Sohar Restitutus.

Francofurti ap. Joh. Davidem Zunnerum, 1684, in 4.

QUum inter Judæos summa sit libri Sohar autoritas, quippe quo solo abstrusa fidei suæ mysteria contineri arbitrantur, haud sane frustra laborem Vir Perillustris insumsit, qui spissum ac difficillimum opus intelligere, quibus ab aulæ negotiis vacare licebat, horis sedulo annisus est, jamque ad communem omnium usum integram libri illius versionem in se suscepit. Neque enim posthac misera gens habebit, cur jactet, religionis cultusque sui rationem Christianos latere, cum viderit, e nostris esse, qui illuc penetraverint, quo paucis admodum ex ipsis pervenire contingit. Septem anni sunt, quum Apparatus ad studium Cabbalæ Ebræorum prodiit, qui ea complectitur, quæ ad elementa illius doctrinæ imbibenda faciunt, & quæ nosse necesse est, ut quis absque impedimento progrediatur. Eum hoc anno Tomus alter operis excepit, de quo pauca hic commemorare instituimus. Præmittitur erudita præfatio, quæ de Simeone Jochaide, quem composuisse librum Sohar fama est, de materia, forma ac fine libri quamplurima egregie disserit, nonnulla de consilio Autoris addit; quibus jungi merentur, quæ Apparatus parte secunda de utilitate Cabbalæ ex epistola quadam excerpta sunt, & postremo Judæos tolerari omnino in Republica Christiana posse, aliquot argumentis evincit. Tomus ipse in tres partes divisus est, quarum prima duos tractatus Ebraicos Latinitate donatos exhibet, illis viam sternentes, qui palatium Arcanorum ingredi cupiunt, Dixerat alicubi Autor, librum Sohar dogmata quædam vulgaria sublimioribus miscere, ac cum quamplurima ænigmatibus involuta tradat, nonnulla vicissim planissime enunciare. Duorum igitur Tractatuum illorum alter ad acroamatica, alter ad exoterica introducit. Pars secunda primum tres libellos sistit, totius Cabbalæ compendia, quæ in opere Soharistico continentur, ac reliquis tractatibus præponi tanquam generales debent. Conjunxit vero Autor cum textu Ebraico non accurate quidem, ut fatetur, sed Judæorum more punctato, versionem perspicuam, & quoties opus visum fuit, interpretationem. Sequuntur deinde duo Commentarii, alter in librum Zeniutha e manuscripto cujusjusdam Vitalis, alter generalior, quo & Zeniutha, & Idra Rabba, & Idra Suta R. Naphthali Hirz explicare aggressus est. Denique tres discursus brevissimi, qui ad præfationem libri Sohar pertinent, exhibentur. Illis & Commentarius Lorienſis, & annotationes quædam e Sohare Chammah annexæ sunt. Tertia parte appendicis loco, Ebræorum doctrinam de spiritibus creatis e libro, cui nomen Beth Elohim, & manuscripto ad opera Lorienſia pertinente, Autor proponit, quoniam, ut ipse ait, hæc ignorari non possunt ab iis, qui quomodocunq; de conversione Judæorum cogitant. De cætero quum perillustris Vir in versione Sohariſtici textus se perrecturum, & publici juris facturū Manuscripta quædam a Judæis æstimatissima promittat, par est equidem, ut omnes, quos horum studiorum amor tenet, vires ipsi, firmamque sanitatem, in cujus discrimen se hoc labore adductum inquit, apprecentur.

TRAITÉ DE LA CIRCULATION DES ESPRITS animaux, par un Religieux de la Congregation de S. Maur.

De Circulatione Spirituum animalium Tractatus, auctore Religioso quodam Congregationis S. Mauri.

Pariſ. apud viduam Ludov. Billaine, 1682, in 12.

QVemadmodum hypotheſin de circulari sanguinis motu ab omnibus sanioris mentis Philoſophis ac Medicis receptam, & infinitis experimentis atque ratiociniis confirmatam novimus: ſic Religioſus præſens anonymus Circulationem ſpirituum animalium, quam Segerus v. gr. & Sylvius quaſi per transennam jamdum conſpexerant, asserere & explicare contendit, i. e. moveri eos a Cerebro per Nervos ad partes, ab his per vaſa Lymphatica ad Venam Subclaviam & Cor, hinc per arterias Carotides & Plexum Choroideum ad Glandulam Pinealem & ad Ventriculos Cerebri anteriores tres, per poroſitatem vero hujus denuo ad Nervos.

Quod dum præstat, ſupponit in Plexibus Choroidibus cerebri produci, & in Glandula Pineali depurari fluidum quoddam aereum, ſimulque flammeum, quod ad Nervos delatum, nomine Spirituum Animalium, ſenſuum & motuum cunctorum in corpore noſtro exiſtat autor. Hoc vero fluidum ſi, ſpiritus animales neceſſario circulari debere, 2. ad propoſitum ſue ordinem reverti, probat: 1. a continuo & nunquam interrupto ſanguinis ad ἐγκεφαλον appulſu, quo ſtante illorum plures intra horam generentur, quam toti nervorum ſyſtemati ineſſitant, adeoque neceſſario ad principium redeant, cum haec alias in quem fecedant, is concedatur nullus. 2. a calore totius corporis, quem non minus ſpiritus animales ac ſanguis permeant reddere: quod tamen fieri haud poſſet, nſi partes, ac ſanguis effluxus in corde, hi in cerebro novo lumine & calore impregnarentur. Quoniam vero Th. Bartholinus hanc doctrinam duobus praeprimis argumentis conuutere videbatur, 1. quod nervi a ſanguine non intumeſcant, nec in illa tactu ſyſtolen aut diaſtolen obſervare liceat: haec per texturam ſolidiorem atque compactiorem declinare fatagit, pointum cum motus ſpirituum per nervos, ſanguinis arterioſi appulſu ſtrangulatim ſinge, ſimilique venoſi undulationi ſit. Hinc Lycopham ab extremitatibus corporis ad Cor recedere probat, & contra. H. Regium prolixius defendit; quod quidem cum ſumpſit & vim quoque intervalle contingat, Lycopham patiter excutiunt conclusio, tandemque infert, continuum inter fluidum Nervorum & Lymphatiorum valorum motum eſſe, i.e. ſpiritus animales per nervos & Lymphatica vaſa circulari. Quod 1. horum ſibiſtantia aeres in aquam, circa nervorum extrema capillaria facile converti poſſit ac conveniat. 2. aqua haec ſea aer condenſatus a Lymphaticis vaſis excipiatur, quatenus nulla alia patere hac in corpore obſervetur, ab omnibus corporis extremitatibus eadem exeriantur, hinc gutulis ſeu roribi excipiendo maxime adaequata exiſtant. 3. Nervi minores exiſtant, quod fluidum non rapoſorum, ſed condenſatum magis reſultet. 4. horum Lymphaticorum pediſtimos omnino, coloris aqui, odoris expers, acidulus tamen, obſervatur; 5. nulla alia ipſius quae demonſtrari ſcarurigo, quatenus non ſit reſiduum nutrimenti partium, ut Bartholinus ſuſpicatus ſuit, nec a Veniis, nec ab Arteriis, nec Muſculis prodeat. Ut reliqua taceamus phanomena animalia, quibus eundem ſpirituum animalium per Nervos & vaſa Lymphatica Circuitu ſtruminare autumtur, hinc inde interſerido paſſolo 22 v. g. quod Vaſa inteſtinorum Lacſea ni nſi Lymphatica ſint in ventriculo ex alimentis duplex chyli genus, a duplici ſeu quadruplici portu, diſſolvente preparetur, quorum ſubtilius ex eodem partim per vaſa lac-judicii fonte, Alexander noster plurimos errores in illa Gregorii VII ad Herimannum Metensem epistola divos derivat, quibus deinde recentiùs paucos admodum fuisse notat, qui Gregorio VII factum quoque defectionem approbaverint, & hos quidem non inexplorato rationibus, quam ipsum Gregorium pugnare judicat: eos autem, qui Henricum tuendum susceperunt, etsi ultimatis contagio pollutos, vel eo tamen nomine laude dignos censet, quod Domini sui majestatem & jura rationibus ac argumentis Sacræ Scripturæ, traditioni, communique ante Gregorium VII Pontificum exemplo confentaneis vindicaverint, quorum ponderi ne Gregorius quoque silentio fenserint, humani ingenii tenebræ, præconceptum opinionem, & Hæresi synonimiæ & flagitia obfuisse arbitratur. Refert præterea novum illud, & tot a Christo nato feculis inauditum facinus, totum fere orbem Christianum pro irrito ac invalido habuisse, & Henricum insuper habito Gregorii consutu pro Imperatore agnitum fuisse, quod quantum ejus rei momentum comprobat. Cumque Autor noster, ut ex dictis abunde patet, ab opinione illa, quæ Pontifici Romano potestatem in temporalia regna tribuit, tantum abhorruat, haud mirum videri debet, quod Thomæ Iuli, Angelicorum illi, ut vulgo dicitur, Doctori invidiosum hanc sententiam a Petronio alioque præter meritum tribui, jam pridem in epistola ad Franciscum Archesium de variis Lamoji contra Summam S. Thomæ objectionibus propalare nisus est, eamque casibus nunc denuo agere, nec inutile nec fastidiosum existimavit. Ac ne quis contra Henricum Gregorii VII sententiam in Romano martyrologio celebratam objiciat, respondet eam ejus humanæ infirmitatis conditionem, ut sanctis quoque viri quandoque in errores impingant, & zelo immodico abrepti ab æquitatis tramite deflectant. Tandem igitur remotis modis eam ob causam declarationem Facultatis Parisiensis, 1663, editam, & data occasione semper propugnatam & vindicatam, quam fe cernere que Facultatis locios non tolum arbitrantur, sed etiam profitis, & opus foret, fanguine fubfcribere paratos profiteur.

In tertia Differtatione, cum Iohanne Launoio in epistola ad Antonium Pagium, articulos illos septem & vigenti, qui declaratum comprehendunt, Gregorio VII fupponi, contra Christianum Lupum, Baronium, & alios, qui dictatus illos hos Dictatore non indignos, nec ab ejus ingenio alienos agnoverant, evincere conatur, non aliam, qua ut videatur, DEMONSTRATIONES NOVAE DE RESISTENTIA Solidorum, autore G. G. L.

Tab IX.

Scientia Mechanica duas videtur habere partes, unam de potentia agendi seu movendi, alteram de potentia patiendi seu resistendi, sive de corporum firmitate. Harum posterior a paucis admodum tractata est. Archimedes, qui prope solus veterum Geometram in Mechanicen ejus, hanc partem non attigit. Inde ab Archimede nihil fere actum est in Geometria Mechanica usque ad Galilaeum, qui exacto judicio magnaque interiori Geometriae nostra instructus, pomoerii scientiae protulit primus, idemque solidorum resistentiam ad Geometriae leges revocare coepit. Et quanquam neque hic, neque circa motum proiectorum rem acu tetigerit, alius hypothesibus nonnullis certis, ex fundamentis tamen petitis vere ratiocinatus est. Sic ergo ille fenit de resistentia trabium, quae muris vel parietibus infigun-

tur. In figuris 1 & 2 Trabs ABC normaliter infixa sit muro vel sustentaculo DE. Sit AC æqualis ipsi AB, &in *fig.*1 sit in C appensum pondus F, quod trabem horizontalem præcise avellere possit a muro erecto; & in fig. 2. pondus G, quod trabem verticaliter avellere præcise possit a sustentaculo horizontali (quorum prius vocabo transverse abrumpere, posterius directe evellere) erit secundum Galilæum pondus F dimidium ponderis G, posito solidum esse perfecte rigidum seu nullius flexionis capax, & pondus ipsius trabis negligi, vel in pondus appensum jam computari. Nam quia AB & AC æquales, ideo pondus F in fig. 1. eandem inveniet resistentiam in puncto B, ac si perpendiculariter traheret, ut in fig. 2. Resistentia ergo puncti B in utraque figura repræsentetur per BK, itaque resistentia puncti H in fig. 2. repræsentabitur per HL, æqualem ipsi BK; quia in fig. 2. omnium punctorum resistentia eadem. At resistentia ejusdem puncti H in fig. 1. repræsentabitur per HM ordinatim applicatam trianguli ABK, quia est ad resistentiam ipsius B, ut AH ad AB, ex natura vectis. Idemque quod in puncto H fecimus, faciendo in puncto alio inter A & B quocunque, complebitur pro repræsentanda resistentia in fig. 2. quadratum BC, & pro resistentia in fig. 1, triangulum ABK, illius quadrati dimidium. Itaque pondus F si ponatur huic resistentiæ in fig. 1. præcise par, ita ut quantulocunque pondere adjecto eam vincat, etiam ponderis G (illi resistentiæ in fig. 2. præcise paris) dimidium erit. Seu potentia abrumpendi transverse erit dimidia (ostendemus mox revera non esse dimidiam, sed tertiam partem) potentiæ evellendi directe. Unde jam multæ conclusiones practicæ deduci possunt.

Has autem aliasque id genus Galilæi sententias Paulus Wurzius, summis militiæ honoribus rebusque gestis non ita pridem clarus, idemque horum studiorum valde intelligens, experimentis compluribus sumtis examinare olim aggressus est, successu quibusdam conclusionibus parum respondente: quemadmodum habeo a Cl. Blondello in his aliisque studiis eximio, Serenissimi Delphini nuper in Mathematicis Magistro, & Academiæ Architectonicæ directore, qui idem argumentum excoluit, & Wurzio familiaris fuit; sed & Cl. Mariottus ex Academia Regia, de rebus opticis & mechanicis præclare meritus, experimentis factis comperit, pondus F multo minus quam voluit Galilæus, ad abrumpendam trabem sufficere. Cujus causa nulla alia esse

poteſt, quam quod is trabem conſideravit ut perfecte rigidam, quæ uno momento tota abrumpatur, ubi reſiſtentia ejus ſuperata eſt, cum tamen omnia corpora, quæ nobis tractare datum eſt, nonnihil cedant, antequam divelli poſſint. Unde Cl. Mariottus hoc obſervans ingenioſo calculo collegit, pondus F eſſe circiter quartam partem ponderis G. ſed cum inde data mihi eſſet occaſio rem conſiderandi profundius, & ad leges Geometrarum exigendi, veras tandem proportiones erui, demonſtravique inter alia pondus F fore tertiam partem ponderis G, & proinde firmitatem corporum rupturæ reſiſtentium in ſeſquialtera proportione minorem eſſe, quam voluit Galilæus,

Quod ut intelligatur, ante omnia ſciendum eſt, corpora duo cohærentia non ſtatim uno momento a ſe invicem tota divelli; quod judicari poteſt exemplo baculi, qui flectitur antequam frangatur, & exemplo chordæ, quæ extenditur, antequam rumpatur; & ipſa flexio baculi eſt quædam extenſio in convexa ejus ſuperficie. Nihilque tam rigidum eſſe, quin levi etiam impulſu flectatur nonnihil, ex natura ſoni ſequitur, qui tremor eſt quidam, ſive flexio reciprocata partium corporis ſonantis, licet eo promtior atque inſenſibilior ſit reſtitutio acutiorque ſonus, quo partes tremulæ ſunt breviores & magis tenſæ, corpusq; durius conſtituunt. Vitrum ipſum flexile eſſe probant filamenta ejus longa & tenuia; quomodo vitrum ſatis craſſum frigore contrahatur, experimenta Florentina oſtendunt. Partes quidem plantarum & animalium quodammodo textiles eſſe, & ex filamentis varie implicatis conſtare, ſenſu ipſo docemur. Mineralia quoque & metalla cum fluida eſſent, poſtea congelata ſunt, & eadem nunc quoque habere tenacitatem & in fila duci, malleoque extendi, atque in fuſione adhæreſcere patet. Conſideremus ergo velut fibras quasdam quæ partes corporum connectant, & intelligamus trabem B C parieti vel ſuſtentaculo DE plurimis fibrarum plexibus alligari in punctis A, H, B, & aliis intermediis innumeris. Appenſo jam pondere F, movebitur nonnihil trabs circa fulcrum A, in fig. 3. & punctum trabis B a pariete diſcedens a puncto parietis 1 B, veniet ad punctum a pariete diſtans 2 B, ſecumq; trahens fibram qua parieti annectitur, eam tendet inſtar chordæ, ſive ultra naturalem ſuum ſtatum extendet in lineam 1 B 2 B: eodemque modo punctum H fibram ſuam tendet in 1 H 2 H, quæ lineæ licet revera ſint inſenſibiles, tamen docendi cauſa viſibiliter exhi-bentur, & quidem fibris 1 H 2 H minus reſiſtet trahenti, quam fibra 1 B 2 B, idque in duplicata ratione diſtantiæ ab A, ſeu ex duplici capite a diſtantia ſumto. Nam primo pondus in C, quo opus eſſet ad tendendam fibram 1 H 2 H tantundem, quantum fibram 1 B 2 B, foret minus pondere requiſito ad tendendam fibram 1 B 2 B, in ratione A H ad A B: verbi gratia ſi A H ſit tertia pars ipſius A B, tunc & pondus in C, quod ſolam fibram 1 H 2 H ita extendere poteſt, ut fiat æqualis ipſi 1 B 2 B, erit tertia pars ponderis tendentis ſolam fibram 1 B 2 B. Verum nunc ſecundo cum ambæ ſimul tenduntur a pondere appenſo in C, utiq; fibra 1 H 2 H non eſt tantum tenſa quantum fibra 1 B 2 B, ſed multo minus, idque rurſus in ratione AH ad AB. nam ſi AH ſit tertia pars ipſius AB, erit 1 H 2 H tertia pars ipſius 1 B 2 B. Itaque (ex hypotheſi alibi confirmata, quod extenſiones ſint viribus tendentibus proportionales) ad eam ita tendendam tertia tantum ponderis parte opus erit, qua ad eam, tantundem quantum 1 B 2 B, tendendam opus fuiſſet; id eſt tertia parte tertiæ partis ponderis ipſam 1 B 2 B tendentis ſeu parte ejus nona. Itaque generaliter in hac ſimultanea tenſione omnium fibrarum ad quævis puncta exiſtentium, reſiſtentiæ in quolibet puncto erunt in duplicata ratione diſtantiarum a fulcro imo, ſeu centro vel axe librationis, ſumtarum; id eſt reſiſtentia in H erit ad reſiſtentiam in B, ut quadratum ipſius AH ad quadratum ipſius AB. Itaque ſi jam pondus F in fig. 3. ſit corpus parabolicum NRSQN, libere ſuſpenſum ex C, in quo altitudo NR ſit æqualis baſi RS (uti AB æqualis eſt ipſi AC) & ſint ordinatim applicatæ quadratis altitudinum proportionales, ſeu PQ ad RS, ut quadratum N P ad quadratum N R: tunc poſito baſin RS repræſentare reſiſtentiam in B, ordinata PQ repræſentabit reſiſtentiam in H; ſi ſcilicet altitudines NP, NR, ſint altitudinibus reſpondentibus AH, AB, proportionales; totum vero trilineum parabolicum concavum N R S Q N repræſentabit reſiſtentiam totius lineæ AB; ſi ſcilicet trabs ABC transverſim ſeu per modum vectis a pondere appenſo F deprimatur. At quadratum RNTS huic trilineo parabolico circumſcriptum, repræſentaret reſiſtentiam ejusdem lineæ A B directam, ſi ſcilicet trabs directe ex pariete eſſet evellenda, ut in fig. 2. Nam quia AB & AC æquales, reſiſtentia puncti B transverſa eadem erit quæ directa, nempe repræſentata per RS in fig. 3: jam ſi directe evellatur trabs (ut in fig. 2.) reſiſtentia omnium punctorum eadem eſt, ergo reſiſtentia

directa pondus H erit ad V, æqualis ipsi B S: & ita procedendo ad reliquas complendoque quadratum RT, quod cum sit regulare trilinei parabolici concavi inscripti, nempe NRSQN, ideoq; erit & trilinei allcujus linex (ut AB) resistentia directa resistentiæ transversæ tripli. Quod demonstrandum erat.

Hinc porro quantacunque sit longitudo trabis, aut ponderis appensi distantia a pariete (quam hactenus fumsimus altitudini trabis æqualem), facile determinari poterit pondus ad abrumpendam trabem sufficiens: ut si pondus G trabem directe evellere posset in fig. 4. erit quidem pondus I tertia pars ipsius G (modo fit AC æqualis AB.) Verò pondus I appendituc ex R, supra AK quadrupla ipsius AB vel AC, erit pondus I quarta pars ipsius F, & duodecima ipsius G. Generaliter ergo pondus trabem parallelepipedam directe evellens, erit ad pondus abrumpens transverse feu per nodum trabis, ut longitudo vectis ubi ad trabem partem crassitiei trabis. Consideravimus autem hactenus ipsam trabem ut pondere carentem, quod si pondus ipsius trabis in rationem venire debeat, petinde erit ut si pondus trabi æquale ipsamque eller ex K, centro gravitatis ipsius trabis. Fieri etiam potuit, ut trabs ponderi suo frangatur in loco aliquovis G in figura 3. inter partem A B & extremitatem trabis C, quando scilicet gravitatis portionis FGCF, librata ex puncto quinis G, majorem habet momentum ad resistentiam in F G, quam gravitatio totius trabis BAC ex puncto quietis AD, ad resistentiam in AB. Quæritur autem, quale sit debeat linea B F C, ut resistentiæ fint gravitationibus respondentibus proportionales, & trabs ubique æqualiter resistat: hanc ergo invenietur esse Parabolicam. Efto enim resistantia in FG ad resistantiam in BA ut trilineum parabolicum concavum FGHF ad aliud BAEB, (cujus trilinei ftatim quidnam eiusdem æquale) (ut patet ex præcedentibus) seu ut quadratum FG ad quadratum BA (quæ tralineum tale eft tertia pars quadrati circumscripti.) Sed momentum feu gravitatio portionis FGCF conjunctæque ei G librate, eft ad momentum totius trabis BACB ex A librate, etiam ut quadratum FG ad quadratum BA, quatenus admodum ex natura parabolæ facile demonstratur (nam portiones CGFC & CABC funt ut cubi à CG, CA. Porro G & A fimo quarta parte à linea, CG & CA, eruntque distantiæ centrorum gravitatis portionum CGFC & CABC a puncto quieto feu centro librationis

G & A, & momenta dictarum portionum sunt ut facta ex portionibus in distantias, seu in composita ratione portionum sive cuborum a CG & CA, & distantiarum, quæ sunt ut ipsæ CG & CA: ergo in ratione quadrato-quadratorum a CG, CA, id est in ratione quadratorum ab FG & BA.) Ergo resistentiæ sunt momentis seu viribus proportionales, seu ubique eadem momenti cujusque ad suam resistentiam proportio, atque adeo æquabilis erit firmitas, qua trabs ponderi proprio ubique resistit: & proinde in quantamcunq; longitudinem procurrat trabs ita figurata, si prope murum pondere suo non frangatur, nec alibi frangetur. Præterea cum trabs Prismatica parabolica CABC sit tertia tantum pars plenæ CDBA, hinc tertia ponderis parte detracta & distantia centri gravitatis ab AG ad ejus dimidiam A 2 retracta, trabs parabolica sextuplo plena firmior erit. Sed si neglecto pondere trabis intelligatur vis aquæ aut venti, aut alia quædam æqualiter distributa per totam trabis longitudinem, ut si in fig. 6. tignum ABD ex muro procurrens, onus terræ ingestæ vel frumenti alteriusve materiæ ferre debeat, poterit esse triangulare, lineaq; AD recta, & tignum ubique æqualiter resistet ponderi impositio, ut si in muro non frangatur, nec alibi frangi possit: nam ex notis mechanicæ legibus, momentum ponderis incumbentis ipsi GD, est ad momentum ponderis incumbentis ipsi BD, ut quadratum GD ad quadratum BD, seu ut quadratum GF ad quadratum BA; id est ut resistentia in GF ad resistentiam in BA: quod si partim pondus impositum, partim figura trabis consideretur, nihilominus figuram æqualiter resistentem dare possum.

Hactenus autem consideravimus tantum trabem, cujus superficies, qua muro vel sustentaculo adhæret, ubique æque alta est, unde sufficit assumere rectam BA, sed quia superficies communis trabi & parieti, varia esse potest, demus regulam generalem pro resistentia ejus Geometrice determinanda, cujus speciales casus si cui pertractare vacabit, is multa perelegantia theoremata deprehendet. In genere autem, sit trabs A B H C, fig. 7, cujus sectio ad sustentaculum DE sit planum ABH figuræ cujuscunque. Dimittatur illud in horizontem, seu in plano horizontis describatur aliud ei æquale, simile, & similiter positum A G H. Ex puncto G ab AH horizontalium infima maxime remoto (quod respondet puncto B) ducatur ad AH perpendicularis GF (ipsi BF æqualis) & fiat corpus cylindricum, cujus basis aut sectio quæquæcunque parallela horizonti ſit ſimilis & æqualis ipſi AGH, eſtendo autem parpendiculatis ſit GI, æqualis FG vel BF; quod corpus ſolare appellat cylindrum, ſeu à diuidatur tangens incidentia KH, parallela ipſi AH. Tandem planum tranſeat per AH & KL, quod ad horizontem faciet angulum ſemirectum & corpus cylindricum ſecabit in duas partes, quarum illa in quam cadit GI, quæ in figura eſt ſtylus planum ſecans, a Geometris dicitur Ungula. Dico hanc Ungulam a cylindro reſectam facientem officium veltis, cujus fulcrum ſit in AH, reparæ vel repræſentare reſiſtentiam trahis ABHC tranſverſim in AHB tranſpendæ, ſi pondus ipſius cylindri ad eandem directe ex muro evellendam ſufficiat. Sed ne opus ſit pondum conſiderari ad medium vectis, & ut pondus reſiſtentiam reparationis abſoluta habeamus, ſuſpendatur ungula ex puncto M, ſeu ex EM diſtantia centri gravitatis ungulæ a pariete; & ita exacte reſiſtentiam transverſalem æquabit, ſi cylindrus totus æquat directam. Itaque cum quæratur an, & ob ſolidum aliquod frangi debeat, Geometræ non erit difficilis æſtimatio; id enim aut non aut ibi potiſſimum fiet; ubi momentum ungulæ, ſeu fulcrum ungulæ ductæ in diſtantiam ſui centri gravitatis, a puncto vectitui in quo eſt axis librationis omnium minimum habebit rationem ad potentiam ibi abrumpere tentantem: ut proinde hic pauca conſideratu tota hac materia reducta ſit ad puram Geometriam, quod in phyſica & mechanicis unice deſideratur.

Addatur: Si quis contendeat aliquod quærat, æqualis reſiſtentia, hanc ſatisfacere Tubæ parabolicæ. Sit in fig. 2. parabolica linea ABC cujus vertex A, tangens vertici A B, circa quam tanquam axem, rotetur linea parabolica, & fiet Tuba AEGDFA. Summa jam adhuc alia Tuba portionis AEHFA, cujus reſiſtentiæ baſium ſeu circulorum EGD EHF ſint ut cubi diametrorum CD, EF, reperietur, momenta ipſarum portionum AEGDFA & AEHFA ex natura parabolæ eſſe etiam ut cubos CD, FF.

Judicium verbale, Tribunalium Judicibus Adjunctum, & Advocatum Fiscalem, Ordinarium, Appellationum, Causarum, Mandatorum, Supplicationum, Querelarum, Revisionum, Arrestorum, Actorum, Regiminis, Ordinationum & Decretorum Camerae Imperialis.

SECTIO II.

De Actionibus in genere, & de Actionibus Personalibus.

§. 1. Actionum nomina, quibus quotidie utimur, ex Romanis Legibus, Edictis Praetorum, & Responsis Prudentum, ortum habent. Quare ad illa recurrendum, ut ex fontibus, quae sint, quae esse debeant, quae non esse debeant, intelligamus.

§. 2. Ergo ut Actio dicatur, ita definiri potest: Jus persequendi in Judicio, quod alicui debetur.

§. 3. Actionum quaedam sunt Civiles, quaedam Honorariae. Civiles sunt, quae ex Legibus, Plebiscitis, Senatusconsultis, Constitutionibus Principum, Responsis Prudentum, Edictis Magistratuum, quae Jus Civile constituunt, originem habent. Honorariae sunt, quae ex Edictis Praetorum, quae Jus Honorarium constituunt, originem habent.

§. 4. Actionum quaedam sunt Rei persecutoriae, quaedam Poenales, quaedam Mixtae. Rei persecutoriae sunt, quae tendunt ad rem, quae nostra fuit, vel esse debuit, persequendam. Poenales sunt, quae tendunt ad poenam persequendam. Mixtae sunt, quae tendunt ad rem persequendam & poenam.

§. 5. Actionum quaedam sunt Personales, quaedam Reales, quaedam Mixtae. Personales sunt, quae competunt adversus eum, qui ex contractu vel delicto nobis obligatus est. Reales sunt, quae competunt adversus quemcunque possessorem rei nostrae. Mixtae sunt, quae competunt adversus eum, qui ex contractu vel delicto nobis obligatus est, & adversus quemcunque possessorem rei nostrae.

§. 6. Actionum quaedam sunt Perpetuae, quaedam Temporales. Perpetuae sunt, quae non finiuntur certo tempore. Temporales sunt, quae certo tempore finiuntur.

§. 7. Actionum quaedam sunt Directae, quaedam Utiles. Directae sunt, quae ex Jure Civili originem habent. Utiles sunt, quae ex Jure Honorario originem habent.

§. 8. Actionum quaedam sunt Rei persecutoriae, quaedam Poenales, quaedam Mixtae. Rei persecutoriae sunt, quae tendunt ad rem, quae nostra fuit, vel esse debuit, persequendam. Poenales sunt, quae tendunt ad poenam persequendam. Mixtae sunt, quae tendunt ad rem persequendam & poenam.

§. 9. Actionum quaedam sunt Personales, quaedam Reales, quaedam Mixtae. Personales sunt, quae competunt adversus eum, qui ex contractu vel delicto nobis obligatus est. Reales sunt, quae competunt adversus quemcunque possessorem rei nostrae. Mixtae sunt, quae competunt adversus eum, qui ex contractu vel delicto nobis obligatus est, & adversus quemcunque possessorem rei nostrae.

ſtatim commovet, alacritatem nihilominus & robur ſingulare inde percipiant, hinc ipſius accolæ vix unquam morbi cujusdam patiantur inſultum, ſed longævi valde, ut plurimum ad 100 & 150 annos, evadant. Longius transvehi, & ſine ulla corruptione diu ſatis conſervari poteſt; evaporata bituminis nigricantis ſpeciem exhibet, ulceribus recentioribus ac vetuſtis valde ſalutarem. Nullo intra natales hyemis congelaſcit frigore, imo, quod mirabile, a face propius admota inſtar ſubtiliſſimi ſpiritus vini exardeſcit, ut flamma ſuper aquæ ſuperficiem inſtar bullarum agitetur & ſubſultet, ideoque fons hic Ignis fatuus audiat. Atque hic quidem ignis ſponte ſua nunquam extinguitur, niſi ſcopis percutiatur; quemadmodum ante annos circiter 35, cum accolæ accenſum reſtinguere negligerent, per cataractas ſubterraneas ſenſim progrediendo radices arborum, & cum his totam vicinam ſylvam in cineres redegit, per tres fere annos durans, antequã perfecte ſuffocari poſſet: a quo tempore publicæ etiam excubiæ conſtitutæ ſunt, quæ frivolas ejusmodi accenſiones impediant. Dum autem aliquantulum flagrat hæc aqua, multum ſui impetus deponit, intra 14 dies vix recuperandi. De cætero quamvis ligna admota brevi comburat hæc flamma, adeo tamen ſubtilis eſt, ut aquam non calefaciat, ſed hauſta hæc, perinde ac Lucretii fons, frigida percipiatur; imo nec ipſa extra ſuam ſcaturiginem exardeſcit, utut in vaſis exactiſſime clauſis aſſervetur. Inflammabilitatem hujus fontis, cunctis ſuperioribus ſeculis ignotam, fulmen manifeſtavit, quod caſu eum feriens eundem accendit. Hinc lignatores ex ſylva vicina accurrentes, virgultis ex cæſis arboribus aquæ ſummitatem verberando ignem reſtinxerunt, a quo tempore aliquoties poſtmodum, experimenti cauſa, mediante face ardente illa denuo accenſa & virgultorum ſuccuſſione quoque extincta fuit. Unde factum, ut provinciæ illius incolæ cœca credulitate ſibi perſuaſerint, fulmen ſeu tonitru a prima illa accenſione in profundo fontis remanſiſſe, quod dum egredi conetur, aquam adeo exagitet, & flammam hanc ad ejus ſuperficiem erumpere faciat.

Rogatus ergo ſupra nominatus Dn. DIONYSIUS, Theoriam circa Fontis hujus recenſitas proprietates ſequenti ratione exponit.

Sc. quod motui Lunæ motus & agitatio illius reſpondeat, fieri per communicationem, quæ ipſi cum mari, cujus fluxum & reflu-xum a diverſis Lunæ phaſibus dependere ſupponit, intercedat: quatenus cataracta ſubterranea mari & fonti huic intermedia ad certam tantum altitudinem aqua, reliquum ejus vero, ideo quod æquilibrium maris tranſcendat, aere repleatur. Hinc quando maris circa plenilunium elevatio maxima canalem hunc irruat, adeoque aerem & vapores incluſos verſus ſcaturiginem urgeat, neceſſario hanc aquis exuberare: contra, ſi mare Luna decreſcente ſubſideat, aquam marinam cum aere & vaporibus, in aquam coagulabilibus, recedentem fonti huic multum lymphæ ſubtrahere.

Virtutes Medicas a ſulphure copioſiore, tanquam inſigni morborum panacea, quo venæ hujus montis ſcatent, derivat: cujus pariter vapores, particulis aqueis leviores, niſu atque tendentia ſua ſtrepitum & ebullitionem hujus fontis, ſimulq; ſuaveolentiam præſtent, dum ejus craſſiores moleculæ in limum, qui fundum petit, coeant. Bitumen, quod poſt aquæ hujus evaporationem remanet, balſamum quaſi ſulphuris naturale ait, per frequentiorem agitationem ſulphuris & aquæ invicem productum. Inflammabilitatem pariter ſulphuri hujusq; exhalationibus, ex aqua prorumpentibus, in acceptis refert, ac ideo flammam aquæ ſupernatare, percuſſionibus vero illis, cum virgultis factis, extingui & ſuffocari; quatenus hac ratione ſpiritus ſeu miaſmata illa ſulphurea aqueis particulis, a quibus recedere conabantur, denuo involvantur: ita quidem, ut his per deflagrationem conſumptis, multum virium medicarum perdat aqua eadem. Ideo vero illam, extra ſcaturiginem ſuam transportatam, minime accendi, quod paucæ ipſi inſint particulæ ſulphureæ, æque aquis involutæ, & impetu atque impulſu fontis deſtitutæ: quibus nihilominus præſentibus, aqua intra fontem omnem frigoris rigorem, perinde ac ſpiritus vini potentior, eludat.

Pariſiis, apud Jo. Cuſſon, 1683, in 8.

QUo loco ſit hodie apud Gallos, literarum ſtudiis excultiſſimam Gentem, carminis Latini dignitas, & quis honos ejus majeſtati habeatur beatur a principibus etiam viris, nemo nisi harum elegantiarum prorsus expers ignorat. Exstat autem Mæcenatum in illustrandis eruditorum favor præstantiora quævis ingenia, ut ad Maronis exemplum adiperit, & tanquam auctoramenta Regis sui & virorum illustrium, earumque ad priscorum modos exactis studiis curadare: quibus publicatis famam rerum præclare gestarum commendare, clarorumque virorum laudes magnifice decantare studeat. In iisdorum voluminum modum coalescere cubilinea præstantissimorum ibus genius nostra ætas reperitorum poëmata, Dionysii Peravii, Joannis Simonedi, Francisci Vavassoris, Gabrielis Cossartii, Renati Rapini, Caroli Ruzi, Joannis Commirii, Joannis Ludovici Guezii Balzaci, & Ægidii Menagii. Quibus accentis integris philosophiæ licentia & medicæ artis peritia excellentissimus Petrus Petitus i qui feveriora ftudia amœnioribus his Musis cum crebro mutuitur, & præstantissimus ingenii forum complures edidiffet, fpatio hinc inde in unum corpus revocandos & superiori anno evulgandos duxit. Nihil in iis humile aut plebejum, nihil affectatum, otiofum ac accerfitum, fed ingenium felix, mens fublimis, atque os magna fonans; quibus poetam Aforbvi Horatius cenfet) talia fuggerebat defertiffimo doctiffimoque homini, ut inter primos hujus fæculi poetas locum merito teneat.

Fuerint autem animo excitato (quod Petronius ait) fimilem effe artem poeticam intelligens, de furore poetico elegantiffimam dodtiffimamque differtationem poematibus præmifit: in qua ortum & causas poeticæ furoris eruditus, & quod philofophorum decretis accurate fcrutatus eft — Cumque alii cum Platone, (qui quadruplicem deo- mar- μανίαν ftatuit) fatidicum a Phœbo, myfticum a Bacche, amatorium a Venere, & poeticum a Mufis ortum ;) a Numinis influxibus & affluxu eum provenire, & aliquem ex genio poetarum animis illabi exiftimant: (p. 9. & feq.) alii cum Ariftotele in folius humani ingenii vigore ac indole, ufitatæ adeo hominis naturæ, quæ cuivis, uti in quibufdam alio optete utique eugenio, fic in eximiubus quoque ac litterarum ftudiis Deus fit, facultatem poeticam conditore cenfeant ; (p. 32 & feqq.) ipfe duas has fententias eruditæ examinat, rationum momenta expendit, de ortu eorum reliquis cæterum datis, fcantibus, memoribus & fpeluncis poetarum ingenio aptis, fomnis item eorundem, tum naturali temperie & acrimonia melancholici humoris, mirabiles interdum

SPECIMEN VNIVERSÆ REI NVMMARIÆ Antiquæ, quod Litteratorum reipublicæ proponit Andreas Morellius Helvetus.

Pariſiis, apud Thomam Moette, 1683, in 8.

QVi rem litterariam venerandæ vetuſtatis reliquiarum, quæ in nummis ſuperſunt, ſtudio excoluerunt, patrum noſtrorum memoria & hoc ſæculo extiterunt complures, omnia ſtudioſe ac diligenter ſcrutati, quibus ſplendor aliquis, hoc etiam eruditionis haud infimo genere, bonis literis conciliaretur. Ac incubuerunt laudabili huic operæ præ cæteris præſtanti ingenio & exquiſita doctrina homines, Fulvius Vrſinus, Wolfgangus Lazius, Jacobus & Octavius Stradæ, Æneas Vicus, Adolphus Occo, Hubertus Goltzius, Sebaſtianus Erizzus, Joannes Triſtan Sanctamantius, Petrus Seguinus, Joannes Vaillantius, Ezechiel Spanhemius, Carolus Patinus, & nonnulli alii, qui ſummo ſtudio multa numismata hinc inde reperta congeſſerunt, & magna cura in publicum evulgarunt. Quorum induſtria cum certis quaſi carceribus contineatur, incenſus laudabili ſtudio Andreas Morellius, eruditus Helvetus, abſolutum omnibus numeris opus conficere aggreſſus eſt, & quantum fieri poteſt, omnes qui in Europæ magnatum aut antiquariorum cimeliarchis recluſi ſervantur, ſive antehac publici juris factos, ſive nondum ab alio evulgatos, nummos delineatos ac æri inciſos certisq; voluminibus coarctatos exhibere, omnemq; hanc nummariam veterum memoriam uno operi incluſam, orbi erudito tradere ſuſcepit.

Præclari hujus & ardui ſui inſtituti rationes Specimine iſthoc expoſuit; ubi & qua occaſione hoc opus ſit aggreſſus, & qua fortuna, quibusque copiis ad elaborandum iſtud fuerit uſus enarrat, conſiliumque & adjumenta omnes, qui amore hujus ſtudii tenentur, quique nummos poſſident, rogat. JOH. MELCHIORIS, SS. THEOL. D. ET P. DE SANguine Christi Eucharistico Commentatio, contra Bossueti Tractatum de Communione sub utraque specie.

Herbornæ, A. 1684, in 4.

Jacobus Benignus Bossuetus, hodie Meldensis Episcopus, cum Lutheranos & Reformatos unire Romanæ Ecclesiæ, aut potius subjicere opera, quanta potest, maxima tentaverit hactenus, ut ad scopum hunc suum eo facilius perveniret, non una jecessit via. In Expositione fidei Catholicæ, quam edidit primum anno 1671, doctrinas Pontificiorum, ut a Protestantibus diutius ne respuerentur, interpretatione illa sua in speciem benigna emollire studuit. Postquam autem parum se hac arte profeciisse vidit, quippe quod a Spanhemio, Jurio aliisque fraus detecta esset omnis, rem novo aggressus est modo, quodque exponendo dogmata sua speciose obtinere non potuisset, disputando acrius se consequi posse putavit. Hinc anno 1682 Parisiis in lucem publicam emisit Tractatum de Communione sub utraque specie, in quo totus est in defendenda & propugnanda Ecclesiæ R. παπροκλεψίᾳ; qua de re plenius in Actis nostris mens. Jun. 1683. pag. 230. Enim vero & hoc bellum sæpius militatum, & victoria penes veritatem semper fuit, ut hac non magis quam illa priori via Bossuetus ad scopum suum sit perventurus. Nihilominus cum error vetus novas ab autoritate Assertoris vires accipiat, facileque decipiat incautos, non quid, sed a quo dicatur, imprudenter attendentes; examen Tractatus illius haud temere in se suscepit clarissimus doctissimusq; scripti hujus Autor, inque tribus dissertationibus illud erudite placideque instituit, & postquam in prima thesin de necessitate calicis ejusque usu e S. Scriptura & veterum observationibus probasset, mox in secunda & tertia in Pontificiorum antithesin, & quæ ad eam e S. Scriptura & antiquitate palliandam a Bossueto conquisita, aut hac occasione ſione inſperſa ſunt, inquiſivit, non absque aculeo finiens, monito hoc Adverſario ſuo, cogitaret, cum palmarium Doctrinæ caput de gratia ſalvifica, tum & alia, multis aliis rectius intelligat, quid reſponſurus ſit imminenti vivorum atque mortuorum judici, ſi ſcriptis atque conſiliis ſuis autor exiſtat perſecutoribus, opprimendi innocentes homines, quorum affligendæ conſcientiæ, diſturbandis fortunis, diſſipandis familiis, eripiendæ proli, imo fundendo quoq; ſanguini, non aliud crimen prætenditur, quam quod non audent conſcientiæ ſuæ vim facere, & veritatem ab ipſomet agnitam & probatam, erroribus & cultui illis vitiis, quæ nec ipſemet poteſt diffiteri, contaminare.

NOVARVM DISSERTATIONVM DE MORBIS abſtruſioribus Tractatus primus, de Febribus intermittentibus, in quo obiter Febris continuæ natura explicatur. Autore Johanne Jones, LL. D. & Medico.

Londini apud Gualterum Kettilby 1683. & Hagæ Com. apud Arn. Leers, 1684. in 8.

SIcut febres inter myriades morborum, qui ægros æque excruciant, ac ſcholas Medicorum exagitant, omnium frequentiſſimæ obſervantur, ut nemo fere ſine febre ægrotet, nemo fere ſine eadem moriatur, plurimis vero inſimul difficultatibus ſcateat earum ætiologia ac therapeia; ita utraque hæc ſtimulavit ac ſtimulat infinita ingenia ad ſui evolutionem. Tentavit eandem circa febres intermittentes Noſter, tribus partibus meditationes ſuas exponens.

Prima de Febribus his & earum cauſis in genere agit, quarum poſtquam procatarcticas recenſuit, has cunctas chylificationem & ſanguificationem lædendo, in febribus ejusmodi producendis concurrere demonſtrat, adeoque cruditates ex chyli & ſanguinis disproportione ortas, ſeu chylum indigeſtum, febrium intermittentium pabulum & præcipuam cauſam exiſtere, evincit. A chylo ſiquidem hoc crudiore omnem ſymptomatum, tam paroxiſmum imminentem præſagientium, quam conſtituentium, phalangem, periodos, typos horumque phænomena varia derivat, aciditati ejus modo coagulanti & conſtringenti, modo ſulphureas ſanguinis particulas diſſolventi, cuncta hæc in acceptis referens. Nempe oſtendit, cruditates tes haſce lege circulationis ſanguinis per totum corpus cum ſanguine diſtribui, ob craſſitiem tamen ſuam cum arctiora & anguſtiora vaſorum extrema ſubire haud queant, in his ſtagnare & lactis inſtar acorem contrahere; quemadmodum vero ille partibus nervoſis, hinc membranis quoque ac nervis, ſumme non tantum ſenſibilibus, ſed per totum inſuper corpus cohærentibus & conſentientibus, eſt hoſtilis, ita fieri haud poſſe, quin moleſta quædam ſenſatio primum ex illarum vellicatione oriatur, poſtmodum vero pallor, oſcitationes, pandiculationes, cutis anſerina, lachrymarum involuntarium profluvium, mingendi conatus frequens, horror & quæ ſunt alia exhorreſcentiæ febrilis ſymptomata, ex conſtrictione pariter ac frigore aeris ambientis, ſequantur. Cujus poſtmodum irritationis pertæſæ fibræ ſe firmiter contrahant, & acidum hunc lentorem hoſpitio ſuo cum ſpiritibus inhabitantibus exturbent, unde horror febrilis ceſſet: ita tamen ut ad maſſam ſanguineam ſe denuo recipiens acidus chylus non ceſſet novas concitare turbas, ejus ſupra commemoratas particulas oleoſas ſeu ſulphureas dividendo, commovendo & reſerando, donec hæ ſui juris factæ rareſcant & ignearum molecularum more, cum impetu & furore irregulari atque extraordinario, quaquaverſum per omnes arterias ferantur, hinc æſtum, faciei ruborem, pulſum frequentem, dolorem capitis, ſitim, difficultatem ſpirandi, inquietudinem cæteraque deſpumeſcentiæ ſympromata forment. Qui orgaſmus & tumultus non finiatur, niſi poſtquam particulis ſulphureis aliquantum diſſipatis & conſumtis, acidi ſpicula hebetata aut ab oleoſis inviſcata, iterum ad anguſtias & extremitates vaſorum proſcribantur; hoc enim dum fit, calorem ſenſim remittere, ſanguinemque a multa exagitatione attritum, non ſolum ſponte ſua conſiſtentiam priſtinam induere, ſed a vaſculis denuo coarctatis ad eam cogi, unde particulæ ejus ſeroſæ eodem modo, ac ex ſpongia compreſſa, per potos cutis ſub ſudoris, paroxiſmorum declinationis individui ſemper comitis, forma eliminentur.

In altera parte ſpeciatim magis omnium intermittentium cauſas typorumque rationes excutit Autor, ſpecies earum ſecundum anni tempora, quibus frequentiora exiſtunt, cum aliis Neotericis, determinans. Cauſas tamen omnium, ſi quotidianam, cujus ætiologiam a ſola cruditatum abundantia deducit, excipias, cruditatem acescentem seu acidam pronunciat: Typos varios a cruditatum accescentia, nunc celeriore nunc tardiore, cujus causa lentor & spissitudo major, aut minor, emanare suspicatur. Duplicationes vero & triplicationes paroxysmorum in quantitate earundem cruditatum varia ponit; symptomatum denique differentiam, gradus & multitudinem diversam, qualitati illarum, sulphurearum partium in sanguine vel defectui, vel abundantiæ, ac cruditatis ad varias corporis partes translationi, attribuens, & cunctarum prognosin annectens.

Tertia Therapeuticam tradit, theoriæ maxime accommodatam, & primo quidem a febribus his præservantem, quæ partim cruditatum ejusmodi productionem & collectionem inhibet, partim impedit, quominus collectæ vasorum angustias infarciant: quorum illud per diætam strictam usumq; aromatum ac amaricantium frequentem; hoc per vomitoria & laxantia blanda (quibus, ne massam sanguineam nimis exagitent spiritusque imminuant, tantillum laudani opiati semper admiscere, eaq; sub forma solida decubitus tempore exhibere jubet) pollicetur. Addit huic secundo palliativam, seu quæ materia morbifica non sublata paroxismum saltem inhibet, per duplicis generis remedia; quorum alia cruditates coalitas atterant, v.g. salia lixiviosa; alia sanguinem compescant ejusq; compagem condensent, sc. terrea; utrique vero scopo satisfaciant terreo-salina, v.g. alumen & vitriolum Martis & cortex Peruvianus, quem infinitis laudibus extollit, ejusque operandi ac administrandi modum exhibet, narcotica tamen & paregorica his interdum subservire addit. Tertio consummatam seu radicalem therapeiam exponit, quæ in penitiore cruditatum comminutione aut coctione consistat, partim a calore, partim terreo salinorum similiumq; dissolventium, v.g. lixiviosorum, amaricantium, antimonialium & Saturninorum, applicatione expectanda: ita quidem ut denique, qua ratione Febrilis diathesis emendanda, & damna a febribus ejusmodi introducta resarcienda sint, epilogi locum teneant.

Lipſiæ anno 1684. in 12. apud Joh. Frid. Gleditſchium.

OPeris Bodiniani MSCti de abditis rerum ſublimium arcanis, quod hactenus in quibusdam biliotheeis, ceu κειμήλιον quoddam rariſſimum, aſſervatum eſt, duplex exemplar in media Germania, ſingulari magnorum virorum beneficio nactus Autor doctiſſimus, anſam ſibi datam componendi hoc de Naturaliſmo ſchediaſma ſcribit. In quo præmiſſa ſcripti hujus hiſtoria, & expoſitis diverſis naturaliſmi ſpeciebus demonſtrat, religionem quam naturalem vocant, haud quaquam ſufficere homini ad ſalutem æternam conſequendam. Deinde vero Bodinum aggreſſus, Judaiſmum & Naturaliſmum præcipue incruſtare auſum, docet, ſacrificia olim non hominum arbitrio, ſed ex divina revelatione fuiſſe inſtituta, ut Meſſiam pro peccatis mundi immolandum præfigurarent. Et quia Bodini Dialogiſtæ, quorum ſeptem de religione confabulantes invicem introducit, duo religionis Chriſtianæ capita rationi naturali incognita, de peccato originis quo totum genus humanum infectum eſt, & de Chriſti pro peccatis mundi totius præſtita ſatisfactione impugnant, Autor clariſſimus dogmatum horum vindicias promittit peculiares, quas ut vindicandæ gloriæ divinæ feliciter abſolvat, ipſi vires ex animo precamur.

Lipſiæ apud Joh. Frid. Gleditſchium in 8.

AThenagoræ Apologia quum adprime pia, erudita ac admodum arguta viris doctis videretur, Conradus Geſnerus primum ſuperiori ſeculo eam, cum interpretatione & annotationibus ſuis edidit. Sed H. Stephanus, qui Romæ a Guilielmo Sirleto viro doctiſſimo, ejus exemplum acceperat, & libelli ejusdem de Resurrectione in Regis Gallorum bibliotheca, quæ erat in pago Calliroe Parisiis vicino offenderat, anno MDLVII novam τῶν σωζομένων Athenagoræ editionem adornavit; additis ad libellū περὶ ἀναστάσεως τῶν νεκρῶν, Petri Nannii interpretatione & annotationibus in utrumque scriptum Athenagoræ. Hunc, cum ante eodem etiam anno Tiguri impressus esset Athenagoras, secutus est Suffridus Petri Leovardiensis; qui cum deprehendisset Gesnerum, ob corruptum quod habuit exemplar, non ubique Autoris mentem recte vel assequi vel exprimere potuisse, suū codicem castigatum ad Gesnerum transmittere constituerat, ut Athenagoræ Apologiam inde emendaret. Enim vero de obitu Gesneri mox certior factus, ipse amore rei literariæ juvandæ, textum Græcum ex suo codice & castigavit, & versionem novam eamque satis luculentam fecit, quam Coloniæ M DLXVII cum commentario in lucem emisit publicam. Nostri autem seculi anno XXXVI Athenagoras, cum Justini M. operibus, Theophili ad Autolycum libris, Tatiani Assyrii contra Græcos oratione, Parisiis in fol. prodiit. Ante biennium Oxonii adspersis quibusdam notis impressus est. Clarissimus Collega noster, qui novam hanc editionem adornavit, Græcum H. Stephani exemplar variis parenthesibus propter hyperbata notatum retinuit, adposita Suffridi Petri interpretatione, & notis variorum autorum textui substratis: puta Conr. Gesneri, H. Stephani, Suffridi Petri, Editoris Oxonienſis, & D. Kortholti, Theologi Kilonienſis primarii. Quas insperſis hinc inde suis auxit, ut melioribus literis consecrata juventus ansam haberet, ulterius inquirendi, quæ ad antiquitatis tum profanæ tum Ecclesiasticæ studium faciunt. Quam operam si illi ut utilem, ita non ingratam fuisse intellexerit, alterum Athenagoræ libellum nervosissimum de Resurrectione publicare non pigrabitur.

WILHELMI TEN RHYNE M. D.

Dissertatio de Arthritide: Mantissa schematica: de acupunctura: & Orationes tres &c.

Londini, apud R. Chiswel, 1683, in 8.

FAsciculum hunc diversi subjecti tractatuum Experientissimus ten Rhyne, Medicus & Anatomicus Societatis, quam in Indiis Orientalibus

libus Batavi colunt, apud Jacatrenſes, per Meditationes in Hipp. text. 24. de Veter. Medic. per deſcriptionem fruticis herbæ Thee, Hortum Malabaricum primum ab ipſo confectum, & Therapeuticen Indicam, quam a Matthæo S. Joſephi collectam ſuo ſtylo, ut ipſe de arthrit. p. 102. perhibet, pertexuit & auxit, clariſſimus, primitias eſſe voluit obſervationum ſuarum Indicarum, reliquas, magnæ expectationis, alii tempori reſervans.

Inter opuſcula nunc junctim edita mole reliqua ſuperat diſſertatio de Arthritide, cui objectiones extemporaneas, a ſe Bushovii definitioni Arthritidis oggeſtas, cum reſponſione ab illo regeſta, item ſummam cujusdam epiſtolæ, inuſtionem Arthriticorum concernentis, una cum annotatis quibusdam ad Boshovii de Podagra tractatum, Poſtſcriptorum nomine, præmittit. Ipſam diſſertationem in partes tres dividit, quarum prior ætiologiam arthritidis exponens, antiquiſſimum illud de morborum cauſis ex flatibus dogma, abſonum hactenus Europæis ſcholis viſum, in ſcenam producit; hinc Arthritidem deſcribit præternaturalem perioſtei, parvum, plerumque inviſibilem atq; intrinſece deliteſcentem tumorem, ex ſicco, frigido & maligno ortum flatu, qui per arterias ſanguine ſubvectus ad artus eorumque præprimis articulos expellitur, & ab oſſibus perioſtea vi divellit, cui interſtitio vi impactus flatus dictam tenerrimi ſenſus membranam diſtendendo acerbi adeo doloris autor exiſtit, ut & ipſum membrum in ſuo motu quandoque impediat.

Parvum & intrinſecum vocat hunc tumorem, ut hunc, tanquam morbum, a ſuo ſymptomate, tumore ſc. externo, ſeroſo ac illi ſuperveniente diſcriminet: & ſicut unam morborum omnium cauſam, flatum, ex Hippocrate ſtatuminare conatur, ita arthriticum quoque tumorem reconditum eundum producere, prolixius & per argumenta æque varia ac autoritates Hippocratis aliorumque Medicorum, item Japonum praxin & monumenta Sinenſium, aſſerit, ſimulq; illorum dubio, qui articulorum cruciatus longe pertinaciores ac alios a flatibus oriundos morbos, adeoque nullam inter cauſam & effectum proportionem eſſe, contendunt, ſatisfacit. Frigidum pronunciat hunc flatum, quod ſui contrario, ſc. igne expedite ſolvatur, quod ſub principium paroxysmi æger horrore ſuccutiatur &c. Sicut autem cuncta viſcera focum & fomitem flatibus his producendis ſubminiſtrent, ita, ſi contingat, eosdem cum ſanguine cor percellere, hoc illos averruncare & de-bellare contendens eos ad artus mittere, ut vel ex sola arthriticorum pulsus vehementia colligere foret: & quidem per arterias, quemadmodum harum pulsus major & crebrior, distensio, flatus ab arteriotoma frequens eruptio, ac repellentium damna evincant.

In parte semiotica seu altera, signa pathognomonica morbi articularis ubi exponere contendit, non secundum Barbette aliosque, tumorem, calorem, inflammationem, & febrem, sed motus impotentiam ac dolorem lancinantem, distendentem, pulsatilem, profundum, assiduum atque acerbum, cum venarum intumescentia & intensiore arteriarum pulsu, eadem pronunciat, ita ut dolor reliquis hujus affectus symptomatis occasionem suggerat, adeoque hæc accidentium demum accidentia & quidem separabilia, existant. Imo distinctionem inter tumorem morbi articularis internum & externum ex pathologia sua repetens, hunc, tanquam ab humorum affluxu exurgentem, ab illo inductum dolorem potius mitigare, simul tamen immedicabile nodorum tophorumque malum præter topicorum inconcinnam applicationem, ciere contendit. Partem tertiam seu therapeuticam ubi aggreditur, duo præprimis hactenus arthritidis medelæ obstitisse edocet, audaciam sc. nonnullorum impostorum atque imperitorum, aliorum vero quos vera morbi causa latebat, timiditatem desperationi maxime analogam: illam nihilominus ab igne, & quidem solo sperare, jubet autoritati veterum nisus, qui usum ustionis in aliis æque morbis ac in arthritide quam proficuum observarunt & commendarunt. Quamvis enim mollities ac teneritudo hujus seculi, quo cuti magis indulsere homines, pyrotechnica remedia ex Chirurgia & Medicina proscripserit: horum tamen administrandi rationem singularemque in multis affectibus efficaciam M. A. Severinum velut ex orco tempestive satis revocasse ait, ita quidem, ut quum crudelitas candentis ferri Hippocrati, Celso, Aquapendenti, ac nominato Severino jamdum de materia ignis aptiore, fungis sc. stupa linea aut ex cotone confecta, cogitandi occasionem dederit, herbaceam Sinarum stupam i. e. Moxam a Bushovio primo inventam ac autori suggestam, quæque causam morbi continentem, nempe flatum, tollat, hic reliquis omnibus anteferat, confirmatus In hoc præprimis a Japonibus & Sinis, qui, inprimis priores, in quovis sexu, ætate, morbo, anni tempore, regione, summo cum emolumento hoc, Moxæ comburio, cum acuū punctura utantur. Moxam autem nihil aliud, aliud, quam artemisiam latifoliam exsiccatam, seu hujus lanuginem, qua integra fere Japoniæ tellus industrio quasi labore consita, quanquam Jomongi & Nophouts alias vocant, esse ait, inustionem arthriticorum ex Hippocratis documentis aliorumque Autorum scriptis comprobat, tandemque modum lanuginem hanc parandi ejusque applicandi rationem, cum omnibus atque singulis circumstantiis & quibusdam prohibentibus exponit.

Addit huic dissertationi, pro pathologia flatuosa hujusque remedio adæquato, nempe inustione cum Moxa, confirmando, appendicis loco Febris Cardiacæ & Cordis Palpitationis ex Flatibus a se ipso passæ descriptionem, cum enarratione symptomatum ejus satis molestorum, & tantum non lethalium, cui præter Clysmata, abdominis inustiuncula, per moxam adornata, unicum & verum extiterint remedium.

Excipit hæc Mantissa Schematica icones exponens quatuor, quarum binæ secundum Sinenses, binæ secundum Japones, cuncta in diversis affectibus Moxa adurenda & acu perforanda loca, in anterioribus, posterioribus, & lateralibus partibus, determinant: & quidem secundum sanguinis circulationis tractum, in quo discendo docendoq; a multis etiam seculis plus forte studii, quam cuncti Europæi impenderunt, totius Medicinæ stabilimen ex illius præceptis desumentes.

Sequitur Opusculũ de Acupunctura, quam cum inustionibus utramque fere apud Sinenses & Japones in praxi Medica partem absolvere superius dixerat, & nunc repetit, ita quidem ut peculiares acus administratores, artistæ, Sinensibus Xinxieu & Japonensibus Farriatte appellentur. Hujus acus tradit delineationem, insimulque applicandi rationem ac usum in diversis affectibus singularem declarat.

Restant Orationes Autoris tres, quarum priorem de Chimia ac Botania antiquitate & dignitate habuit, cum apud Jacatrenses Batavos Anatomicas prælectiones publice auspicaretur; Altera Physiognomia vim atque nobilitatem, Tertia vero Monstrorum causas & fiendi rationem exponit idem, præmittens his descriptionem Morbi maritimi & maligni, qui in navigatione ad Indias orientales eum cum comitibus atrociter afflixerat, una cum remediorum eidem appropriatorum commemoratione.

CHRISTI-

Kilonl, literis Joachimi Reumanni, anno 1683, in 4.

CUm veterum Christianorum vitam, mores ac calamitatem nosse, multum in vita Christiana utilitatis habeat; nil a munere Theologi alienum se facturum putavit Autor celeberrimus, si evolutis antiquorum scriptorum ecclesiasticorum monumentis, tum illorum pietatem ac vitæ innocentiam, tum gentilium calumnias, quies Christianismum maxime invisum aut exosum reddere studuerunt, paulo uberius exponeret. Ejus rei quidem jam ante specimen eruditum dederat, publicato Kilonii anno 1668 tractatu, de calumniis Paganorum in Christianos veteres sparsis: sed quia illo non omnia, quæ ad hoc argumentum faciunt, perstrinxerat, præsenti libro ea quasi supplere voluit. Ac primum quidem Celsi & Juliani calumniam diluit, qui Christianos ideo improbitatis arguebant, quod malos ac improbos homines in suos reciperent cœtus. Deinde ostendit, perperam toti Ecclesiæ vitia quorundam malorum Christianorum fuisse imputata. Inde singulatim crimina aut vitia Christianis per calumniam objecta recenset: ut sunt impostura, magia, clanculurii & nocturni conventus, factiones & conspirationes, crimen læsæ majestatis, odium generis humani, Thyesteæ epulæ, Oedipodeæ mixtiones, contumacia pervicax, affectatio inanis gloriæ, inertia & ἀχρηστία. Præterea etiam Christianis miseriam & calamitosam sortem exprobrarunt, calamitatum publicarum causas in ipsos conferentes. Quamobrem Augustinus eruditum de Civitate DEI opus, & Cyprianus librum contra Demetrium scripserunt, quibus ἐγκλήματα hæc potissimum confutare annisi sunt. Omnia hæc Autor in antiquitate Ecclesiastica versatissimus, quindecim capitibus complectitur, & testimoniis tam Græcorum quam Latinorum Patrum, inprimis eorum, qui pro Christianis scripta apologetica ediderе, confirmat. Singulis capitibus quoddam quasi breviarium præmissum est, ex quo de argumento lectori facile constare potest.

S. HIERONYMI STRIDONENSIS OPERA OMNIA, cum notis & ſcholiis, variis item lectionibus, Deſiderii Eraſmi Roterodami, Mariani Victorii Reatini, Henrici Gravii, Frontonis Ducæi, Latini Latinii, aliorumque: Autoritate & ſumptibus Sereniſſimi Principis ac Domini, Domini FRIDERICI, Erneſti Pii filii, Ducis Saxoniæ, Juliæ, Cliviæ & Montium, &c. &c.

Francofurti ad Mænum & Lipſiæ, A. 1684. in fol.

PErmagni intereſſe eccleſiæ juxta atque rei literariæ, ut poſt ſacratiſſimum Divini verbi depoſitum, ſanctorum quoque Patrum monumenta integre cuſtodiantur, a nemine in dubium facile vocabitur, quod ſcripta Patrum totius inde ab Apoſtolorum temporibus antiquitatis lumina, imo theſauri habeantur, quibus nihil eſſe poteſt pretioſius, nihil eccleſia Chriſtiana dignius. Nec minima fuiſſe, hæc videtur cauſſa, cur Sereniſſimus Saxoniæ Princeps nulli parcendum ſumtui ſtatuerit, nulli ſuorum operæ, quo quantum fieri nitidiſſime poſſet, in lucem rurſus publicam omnia D. HIERONYMI Opera, nobiliſſimi inter Patres ſyderis, prodirent. Ut enim Parentis glorioſæ recordationis pietatem inclytam, & quam pro divini verbi ac religionis orthodoxæ cuſtodia geſſit, curam & zelum incredibilem, opus Biblicum Gloſſatum, Vinarienſe vel Erneſtinum quod uſurpatur, aperte ſatis loquitur: ſic easdem virtutes Principe digniſſimas oſtendi maxime erudito orbi voluit Filius Sereniſſimus, e Patrum auguſtorum, Hieronymi præprimis voluminibus, ab interitu nunc egregie vindicatis, & incorrupte denuo ad poſteritatem transmiſſis.

Fridericus Ulricus Calixtus, in horum voluminum, quam nuper edidit, idea sic expressit, ut nos facile recensendi negotio in præsenti sublevet. Quæ de vita etiam, de studiis, de Hieronymi scriptis, quænam spuria, quænam genuina; de variis præsertim editionibus, commentatoribusque; de autoritate Hieronymi, quam diversis piorum ille & eruditorum virorum judiciis habeat, & similibus, hoc forte loco commemorari meruissent, occupavit Criticus Hieronymianus, quem publico proxime daturum se promisit de hac Operum editione, ut de ecclesia alias, insigniter meritus D. Adamus Tribbechovius. De tam præclaro tamen instituto, pietatisque pariter atque fructus in ecclesiam redundantis plenissimo, ne fileamus plane, est nova hæc Saxonica editio ex Erasmiano eoque probatissimo codice expressa. Frobenianam siquidem hanc Basileensem, quam Romanam editionem Mariani Victorii Reatini, vel alias ex illa in Germania, & Gallia impressas, sequi autores ejus maluerunt, quod eruditas Erasmi præfationes, censuras item, ac notas, aut plane omiserit Marianus, aut eliserit, aut interpolaverit strenue, manifesto satis partium in religione studio, quove palmam, quæ ex Hieronymi editione manserat Erasmum, prorsus interverteret. Sic vero imaginem illius refert, ut, quod accurate omnino revisionis, collationisque diligentissimæ argumentum est, in cujusvis columnæ margine versuum addat, ex sacris ab Hieronymo passim adductorum, capitumque numeros, in nullis hactenus comparentes, ut & paginas, quibus Gravii, & Victorii annotationes, tomo demum decimo expressæ, reperiuntur. Cumque novem in universum tomis Erasmianum codicem absolvi constet, novus hic δωδεκάμοιρος est, tomorumque adeo triade illum, cujus structuram imitatur, superat.

PRIMUS enim, (ut elegantes D. Tribbechovii præfationes, evolutionem insignium Principis, quam secundum artis Heraldicæ principia adornavit Bernhardus Zechius, Sereniſſimo Principi a Feudalibus Secretis; Erasmi epistolam nuncupatoriam ad Cantuariensem Archiepiscopum; Hieronymi vitam per Erasmum pulcherrime descriptam, cum aliis præmissis omittamus,) exhibet prima sui parte D. Hieronymi Epistolas, seu Libros Epistolares, non omnes quidem, sed eos solum, qui respiciunt mores, & Christianæ institutionem vitæ, prout vetustissimorum codicum collatione ab Erasmo recogniti, scho-

ſcholiis, & artis, quam in qualibet adhibuit autor, annotatione illuſtrati, nec non antidoto calumniæ venenum contra ejusdem opera fuere præmuniti: parte autem reliqua celebrem ſiſtit Scriptorum Eccleſiaſticorum catalogum, Latino idiomate, epiſtolæ in modum ab Hieronymo confectum, & in Græcum a coætaneo ejusdem Sophronio translatum. Cui coronidis vice, ſimilis plane argumenti, illuſtrium nempe virorum catalogus, a Gennadio Maſſileenſis eccleſiæ presbytero, Hieronymum in hoc ſcripti genere imitato compoſitus, cum Eraſmi præfatione jungitur. Atque optamus maxime, ut, quam Hieronymiani catalogi occaſione Idea ante laudata promiſit nobis, Introductio ad Scriptorum Eccleſiaſticorum Notitiam publico conſpectui quamprimum exponatur.

SECUNDUS ſcripta Hieronymi ἐλεγτικὰ, & quæ his finitima ſunt, ἀπολογητικὰ, ſeu quibus diverſæ Helvidii v. g. Joviniani, Vigilantii, Montani, Luciferianorum, & Pelagianorum hæreſes, & maledicorum, Ruffini præſertim calumniæ profligantur, una cum perſpicuis argumentis & eruditiſſimis Roterodami ſcholiis complectitur, ut proinde Defenſor fidei & orthodoxias inſcribi omnino mereatur.

Ad TERTIUM relata ſunt ſcripta ἐξηγηματικὰ, ſeu quæ ad expoſitionem divinarum Scripturarum aliquid momenti afferunt, & præfationum partim, partim epiſtolarum, partim explanationum, partim etiam traditionum Ebraicarum titulo inſigniuntur. Mores enim & animum ut componere primus tomus docet, ſic fidei defenſionem oſtendit proximus, & ſacram eruditionem tertius, qui & ipſe epiſtolarium librorum eſt poſtremus. Iſte Hieronymum eloquentem, ille fulminantem ac tonantem, hic doctorem nobis exhibet.

In QUARTUM ſcripta quæ aliena ſunt, dubiæque ac ſuſpectæ fidei, conjecta ſic fuere, ut primum inter ea locum habeant ψευδεπίγραφα, hoc eſt, falſo quidem tributa Hieronymo, ſed erudita tamen lectuque indigna minime: medium, aliena & illa quidem, ſed quæ titulis non dubiis, a quibus profecta ſint autoribus, teſtantur: ultimum vero, quæ non ſolum falſa, verum etiam impudentiſſima inſcriptione Hieronymum autorem mentiuntur, virum omnium longe cum eruditiſſimum, tum eloquentiſſimum: cum adeo ſint, Eraſmi judicio, & inerudita, & infantia, ut nec umbram ullam Hieronymiani pectoris referant, adjuncta nihilominus, ne quid receptæ editioni ſubtractum videretur. Legi hic tamen duæ Eraſmi ad divinarum literarum ſtudioſos epiſtolæ merentur maxime, altera in tomi fronte catalogum nectens eorum, quæ in quolibet Scriptorum genere ὑποβολιμαῖα reperiuntur: altera in tertia ejusdem ſerie conſpicua, venuſte impoſtorem prodens, inſulſa ſua pro genuinis nunc Hieronymi, nunc Auguſtini, nunc Ambroſii, nunc Cyrilli, nunc Euſebii ſupponentem, hominisque inſcitiam & imprudentiam graviter perſtringens.

QUINTUS, quem non Eraſmo, licet fatis non ante functo, quam perficerentur reliqui, ſed Brunoni, & Baſilio Amorbachiis debemus, quatuor, majores quos vacant, Prophetarũ, Eſaiæ, Jeremiæ, Ezechielis, atque Danielis Vaticinia ſic recitat, ut ubique Hieronymi commentarios, labore Amorbachiorum improbo reſtitutos atque emendatos, ſingulis capitibus ſubnectat.

SEXTUM duodecim, quos vocamus minores, Prophetarum Vaticinia occupant, ex Hebræo pariter, & Græco idiomate translata in Latinum: nec non commentarii Hieronymi, ad autoritatem veterum codicum exacti, priſtinæque integritati reſtituti ab Amorbachiis, eam in rem Johannis Reuchlini etiam, Cononis Norimbergenſis, Gregorii Reiſchii & Conradi Pellicani opem adhibentibus.

In SEPTIMO primus locus commentariis ceſſit in Parabolas Salomonis, proximus commentariis in Eccleſiaſten, homiliis quatuor in Cantica Canticorum tertius, & poſtremus in Jobum commentariis. Et licet unus duntaxat e recenſitis, commentarius nempe præmiſſa gemina verſione textus Eccleſiaſten explicans, indubitatæ habeatur fidei, nec niſi Hieronymum autorem referat, aliis vero tribuendi veniant cæteri; excuſationem tamen editionis hujus Principalis autores non habebunt minus, quam invenerunt eam hactenus Amorbachii, nihil in editione Veneta exiſtens deſiderari in ſua paſſi.

OCTAVO exhibentur commentarii in Pſalterium Davidis, quos divo tamen Hieronymo falſo inſcriptos eſſe, in præfatione monet Bruno Amorbachius, Eraſmi ſubnixus & autoritate, nec levibus argumentis. Appendicis in vicem additur Pſalterium quadruplex: Hebræum punctis vocalibus inſtructum & accentibus; huic e regione veritas Hebraica, Latino videlicet Hieronymi idiomate concepta: Græcum τῶν ſeptuaginta, & huic a latere, quæ vulgo legitur, verſio.

NONI

NONI argumentum inchoant commentarii in Evangelium Matthæi & Marci, nec non in divi Pauli ad Galatas, ad Ephesios, ad Titum, & ad Philemonem Epistolas: continuant alii in omnes Pauli Epistolas, autore sed incerto scripti: absolvunt denique Didymi de Spiritu Sancto libri, quos tanti fecit Hieronymus, e Græco in Latinum ut sermonem verteret. Primi quæ sunt ordinis, commentariis tamen in Marcum exceptis, pro γνησίοις seu legitimis agnoscere non dubitat toties jam citatus Amorbachius, a quo & Lucæ, ac Johannis Evangeliorum contextus eo est adjectus fine, ut Canoni Evangelico, cujus autorem faciunt Eusebium, tanto magis responderet. Secundi vero ordinis commentarios indignos idem censet, qui tribuantur Hieronymo. Sed satis de partibus operum videbimur dixisse, quas cum Erasmiano codice communes habet noster. Sequuntur nonnulla adhuc Volumina, eo quod in aliis editionibus legerentur, commentariorumque vicem Hieronymianis præstarent monumentis, adjuncta. Tomo itaque horum Operum DECIMO quæ porriguntur, post Præfationem ad Pontificem Pium IV, sunt Mariani Victorii Reatini, Episcopi Amerini commentatio de vita Hieronymi, ejusdemque scholia, & annotationes in Hieronymi libros. In his enim cum non pauca reperirentur, quæ eruditorum ferebant calculum, omnia ejus Scriptoris ἐσθλὰ μεμιγμένα λυγροῖς invidere seculo autores hujus editionis noluerunt. Porro eruditæ Henrici Gravii in CII epistolas Hieronymi, nec non Frontonis Ducæi notæ, quæ D. Tribbechovio judice, præ aliis merentur plausum, præsertim ubi Philologica feliciter expediunt: præterea Latini Latinii observationes & conjecturæ in Hieronymi epistolas, quibus aliquot Hieronymi loca emendantur exacte, cum scholiis Mariani sæpius memorati.

UNDECIMO pro argumento dedit Editor, ne Hieronymum truncatum quasi ac mutilum exhibuisse videretur iis, qui Scholasticarum quæstionum habent gustum, & talibus pascuntur forte atque delectantur, Francisci a Messana difficilia sancti Hieronymi loca, & Ferdinandi Vellosilli, Episcopi Lucensis, animadversiones in Hieronymi opera, quas advertentias Theologiæ Scholasticæ inscripsit autor.

POSTREMUM denique tomum quatuor novi absolvunt indices. Unus Biblicus, Scripturæ locorum, cum aliqua videlicet vel explicatione, vel notabili applicatione per opus universum adductorum: secundus, locorum Theologicorum, seu capitum doctrinæ fidei: tertius Miscellaneorum, qui res Theologicas, Philologicas, Morales, & Historicas eum ad modum colligit, ut nec vocabulorum Græcorum atque Hebræorum rationem negligat: quartus materiarum syllogen suppeditat, ad homilias dominicis diebus, festisque cæteris proponendas apprime facientium.

NOVA COLLECTIO CONCILIORUM. STEPHANUS Baluzius in unum collegit, multa notatu dignissima nunc primum edidit, notis illustravit, reliqua emendavit ad vetustissima exemplaria manuscripta.

Parisiis, ex officina Francisci Muguet, 1683.
in fol.

QUod fluviis accidere solet, ut, quo longius a suis fontibus decurrunt, eo ampliora sibi spatia acquirant, idem conciliorum collectioni longo temporis decursu subinde per varias accessiones evenisse deprehendimus. Primum enim Jacobus Merlinus, ecclesiæ Parisiensis Pœnitentiarius, Lutetiæ A.C. 1524 duos conciliorum tomos, a Petro Quentello A. C. 1530 Coloniæ recusos, & A.C. 1535 denuo Parisiis impressos adornavit; uno quidem concilia una cum Romanorum Pontificum epistolis decretalibus ab Isidoro quondam compilata, altero vero acta duorum Constantinopolitanorum, nec non Constantiensis & Basileensis concilii complexus. Cujus diligentiam imitatus Petrus Crabbe Mechlinensis ordinis Franciscani A. C. 1538. itidem duos conciliorum tomos sed longe ampliores edidit, in quibus præter appendices & supplementa concilii Constantiensis & Basileensis, variasque synodos & epistolas, gesta Concilii Chalcedonensis ex recensione Rustici Romanæ ecclesiæ Diaconi, Liberati Carthaginensis breviarium, concilium Lateranense sub Innocentii III. Pontificatu celebratum, gesta concilii Florentini ex interpretatione Bartholomæi Abrami Cretensis, & vitas Romanorum Pontificum adjecit. Cum vero ne sic quidem conciliorum historiæ satisfeciisse sibi videvideretur, anno vulgaris æræ 1551 novum conciliorum opus tribus tomis comprehensum, Niceno II, Lateranensi V, plurimisque aliis conciliis additis, in publicum emisit. Paulo post, anno nempe 1555, Franciscus Joverius Valentinus tripartitum sanctionum ecclesiasticarum opus, quarum prima classis synodos universales, secunda particulares, tertia pontificum decreta continet, cum in finem Parisiis vulgavit, ut singulis sanctionum istarum generibus, quæ hactenus permixta fuerant, seorsim collocatis, conciliorum lectio jucundior & facilior redderetur. Verum cum novi nihil attulerit, sed potius de contrahendo volumine, ne ultra debitam magnitudinem excresceret, solicitus fuerit, æque minus hoc loco rationem ejus aliquam habendam ducimus, quam Bartholomæi Carranzæ & cæterorum, qui conciliorum tomos in summas & compendia redegerunt.

Progredimur ergo ad Laurentium Surium Carthusianum, qui quatuor volumina conciliorum Coloniæ A. C. 1567, Gervini Calenii Juris Licentiati typis impressa divulgavit, in quibus non solum aliquot locorum millia, ad manuscriptorum codicum fidem diligenter collata, emendavit & integritati suæ restituit, verum etiam libris octo constitutionum apostolicarum, quas vocant, codice encyclio seu syntagmate epistolarum synodalium, pro defensione concilii Chalcedonensis ad Leonem Imp. ex diversis provinciis scriptarum, concilio V. generali, plurimisque aliis antiquitatis ecclesiasticæ monumentis, quæ in id usque tempus desiderata fuerant, conciliorum thesaurum locupletavit.

Surianam conciliorum collectionem Veneta excepit, quæ in quinque tomos distributa A. C. 1585. ex Dominici Nicolini officina prodiit, actis concilii Niceni, quæ Alphonsus Pisanus ediderat, nec non actis Ephesini concilii, quæ Theodorus Peltanus Latino idiomate donaverat, & Caroli Borromæi conciliis Mediolanensibus, nonnullisque aliis conciliis & epistolis auctior; ut annotationes breviores margini, & pleniores contextui adjectas taceamus.

Hanc tot Virorum clarissimorum in colligendis conciliis industriam nostro seculo Severinus Binius Canonicus Colonienſis tantum abest, ut non æquasse, ut omnibus potius palmam præripuisse videatur. Is enim A. C. 1606 novam conciliorum collectionem, scholiis & annotationibus ex Baronio maxime depromptis, & ad Curiæ Romanæ placita accommodatis illuſtratam, & duodecimo poſt anno vulgaris æræ 1618 iterum aliam in eruditorum conſpectum hoc diſcrimine prodire juſſit, ut prior editio mere Latina quatuor tomis, tertio in duo volumina diviſo, contineatur, in poſteriore autem, quæ longe amplior & illuſtrior eſt, Græca, quæcunque reperiri potuerunt, acceſſerint, ſingulis tomis in duo vel tria volumina diſtributis; quanquam poſtea Pariſienſes, cum poſteriorem Binii editionem A. C. 1638. iterum prelo ſubjecerunt, totum opus in novem tomos, ſeptimo in duo volumina partito, digeſſerunt. Cæterum e plurimis, quæ Binius partim in prima, partim in ſecunda editione conciliorum tomis primus inſeruit, nominare jam ſufficiat concilia Hiſpanica, quæ A. C. 1593. Madriti apud Petrum Madrigalium, Garſiæ Loaiſæ ſtudio, cum ejusdem ſcholiis & annotationibus edita fuerant, & tomos IV. Græco-Latinos conciliorum generalium, quæ A. C. 1608. Pauli V. auſpiciis Romæ ex Vaticana typographia prodeuntia lucem aſpexerunt.

Verum & voluminum numero, & auguſto chartæ & typorum apparatu, Binianas & omnes reliquas conciliorum collectiones antecellit Regia, quæ in 37 tomos diffuſa A. C. 1644. Pariſiis in publicum exivit, quæ & ipſa novis acceſſionibus minime caruit. In ea enim Jacobi Sirmondi concilia Gallicana, Horatii Juſtiniani concilium Florentinum, quod paulo ante id tempus Romæ excuſum fuerat, Vigilii epiſtola pro confirmatione Synodi V. & appendix ad concilium Claromontanum cum diſſertationibus Petri de Marca, antiqua Angliæ concilia, concilium Lemovicenſe ex manuſcripto Thuanæ bibliothecæ codice ſuppletum, aliaque, quæ Binium & reliquos conciliorum editores latuerant, comparent.

Viginti tomis minor eſt poſtrema conciliorum collectio, quam Philippus Labbeus in ſe ſuſcepit, & operi immortuus Gabrieli Coſſartio perficiendam reliquit, A. C. 1672. Pariſiis abſoluta. Sed quantum Regiæ cedit voluminum numero, typis quippe minutioribus expreſſa, tantum conciliorum & tractatuum ad pleniorem conciliorum hiſtoriam pertinentium copia Regiam ſuperat; ut patet ex ſynopſi ſingulorum 17 tomorum, in qua aſteriſco notantur, quæ in Regia collectione deſiderantur: qualia ſunt Clementis Romani prior ad Corinthios epiſtola cum præfatione & notis Patritii Junii, & poſterioris epiſtolæ fragmentum cum divinatione Godofredi Vendelini, conſtitutiotutiones apoſtolicæ Græce & Latine interprete Franciſco Turriano; Urſini Afri tractatus de baptiſmo hæreticorum, a Rigaltio in notis ad Cyprianum, non expreſſo Autoris nomine vulgatus; Ferdinandi de Mendoza libri tres de confirmando concilio Eliberitano; Canones 84. Niceni, cum aliis ejusdem concilii ſanctionibus & decretis, ex Arabica verſione ab Abrahamo Ecchellenſi Maronita Latine redditi, ejusdemque interpretis diſſertatio & notæ: Concilium Carthaginenſe I. a Luca Holſtenio ex Vaticana bibliotheca emendatum; Marii Mercatoris commonitorium ſuper nomine Celeſtii, Pelagii, & Juliani; Petavii diſſertatio de damnatione Photini; variorum Patrum epiſtolæ, & reſponſa canonica; varia concilia ex libello ſynodico; Albaſpinei ad concilia nonnulla obſervationes; Jacobi Sirmondi ad epiſtolas Pontificum & concilia Gallica notæ poſthumæ, aliaque eccleſiaſtica monumenta ab ipſo edita; ut ipſius Labbei obſervationes paſſim interſperſas, & cætera, quæ partim in primo & ſecundo tomo, ex quibus huc paucula ſpeciminis loco excerpſimus, partim in reliquis voluminibus occurrunt, ſilentio prætermittamus, cum longe plura ſint, quam ut hic ſigillatim recenſeri poſſint aut debeant.

Jamque apud multos perfecta & omnibus numeris abſoluta videri poterat conciliorum collectio, cum vir celeberrimus Stephanus Baluzius, poſtquam & ſuopte ingenio a teneris ad hæc ſtudia propenſus, & Petri de Marca, quem perquam ſibi familiarem habuit, exemplo incitatus, & Colbertina, cui poſtmodo præfectus fuit, bibliotheca aliisque ſubſidiis adjutus, maximam eccleſiaſticæ eruditionis ſupellectilem collegiſſet, plurima in conciliorum collectionibus etiam poſtremis omiſſa, aut negligentius, quam oportuit, tractata deprehendit. Quamobrem, ſi ad emendanda, augenda, & complenda conciliorum acta animum appelleret, operæ ſe pretium facturum exiſtimavit, eoq; conſilio novam conciliorum collectionem ſeu potius reliquarum collectionum ſupplementum apparare cœpit, cujus primus tomus ſuperiore anno Pariſiis editus, ab A. C. 125. ad ſexti usque ſeculi medium pertingit.

Auſpicatur a concilio Siculo contra Heracleonitas Valentini progeniem coacto, cujus memoriam antiquus autor, ſub Prædeſtinati nomine a Sirmondo editus, in libro primo de hæreſibus ad poſteros transmiſit, ex quo etiam concilium Pergamenſe contra Colarbaſianos, Romanum contra Venuſtianos, Carthaginenſe contra Manichæos, Orientale contra Cerdonianos,& duo Achaica contra Valesios & Aetianos,suo quodque loco inserta memorantur. Longum esset referre concilia,quæ a Labbeo & aliis omissa, ex Eusebio,Athanasio,Hilario, Ambrosio, Epiphanio, Hieronymo,Augustino, Mario Mercatore,Victore Tununensi, Photio,aliisque autoribus Baluzius supplevit. Longius ea enumerare, quæ vel a plurimis mendis liberavit,vel loco non suo posita monuit, vel egregiis observationibus illustravit, vel accessionibus non pœnitendis locupletavit. Quocirca unum tantum ac alterum exemplum referemus.

Ad concilium Mediolanense, A. C. 355. in causa Athanasii a trecentis & amplius episcopis habitum,ex vita Eusebii Vercellensis,quam tom. 4. Italiæ sacræ Ferdinandus Ughellus publicavit, prolixam de rebus in eo gestis narrationem addit. Acta Ariminensis concilii ex fragmentis Hilarii, a Nicolao Fabro ex Petri Pithœi bibliotheca editis, & Hieronymo subjectis notis & variis lectionibus recenset. Synodum Seleucienſem,cum eam tanto compendio in concilia relatam animadverteret, ut etiam expositio fidei in illo concilio tradita omissa fuerit, paulo accuratius enarrandam existimavit, ut harum rerum studiosi in unum locum congesta reperire possint, quæ Athanasius,Hilarius,Epiphanius, Severus Sulpitius,Socrates aliique veteres de ista synodo tradiderunt. Concilium Romanum, in quo Damasus publica voce Liberium damnavit,quamvis ejus mentio nullibi quam in vita Eusebii Romani habeatur, non indignum tamen censuit, quod reliquis conciliis adjungeretur. Concilii Cabarsussitani epistolam synodicam ab Augustino servatam cum pluribus codicibus manuscriptis contulit,& varias lectiones annotavit. Ad concilium Carthaginense 4, quod A. C. 398. celebratum est, canonem 105 nunc primum ex Urgellensis ecclesiæ codice adjecit, ex quo etiam ad Regense concilium duos canones addidit, quos in vulgatis editionibus deesse deprehendit. Acta concilii ad Quercum contra Chrysostomum habiti, quæ in postrema conciliorum editione ex Photio relata fuerant,ex Palladii dialogo,quem Emerico Bigotio debemus, memorat. In epistola Vigilii ad Profuturum Episcopum Bracarensem scripta,quæ quondam Eutherio vel Eleutherio inscripta fuerat, eam partem, quæ de Romanæ ecclesiæ primatu agit, omisit, fidem antiquorum codicum, ex quibus hanc epistolam edidit,secutus. Sed his omissis ad ea, quæ majorem hujus tomi partem occupant, transeamus.

Celebris est collatio Augustini ævo inter Catholicos & Donatistas habita, cujus gesta Severini & Juliani impulsu Marcellus Memorialis in compendium contraxit. Eorum unicum, quantum constat, manuscriptum exemplar ab interitu servatum hodie supereſt, quod cum superiore seculo Johannis Tilii Meldensis Episcopi beneficio in Francisci Balduini manus perveniſſet, post ejus mortem primum Papyrii Massoni, ac deinceps Petri Pithœi cura emendatius prodiit. A quo tempore collationis ejus gesta etiam cum Optati Milevitani operibus, & in conciliorum tomis excusa denuo fuerunt. Cum autem Baluzius multa adhuc emendanda restare intelligeret, id operæ in se suscepit, ut codices editos cum manuscripto, quod nunc in Colbertina bibliotheca asservatur, diligenter conferret, errata veteris librarii tolleret, & gesta hæc longe saniora, quam unquam antea prodierant, vulgaret. Adjunxit sermones ab Augustino ante & post collationem habitos, & quæ in gestis tertiæ cognitionis desiderantur, ex Augustini breviculo supplevit. In notis vero, quas addidit, non solum emendationum suarum rationem exposuit, verum etiam plurima obscura & intellectu difficilia solerter explicavit, & inprimis ecclesiæ Africanæ notitiam egregie illustravit.

Antiquam versionem concilii Ephesini ab Antonio Contio quondam editam, & in tomis conciliorum hactenus neglectam, novæ huic conciliorum collectioni inserere non dedignatus est, cum præsertim eam ope trium vetustissimorum codicum longe meliorem fecerit, & eruditis conjecturis suis ubique additis a plurimis mendis & lacunis repurgaverit. Subjuncta est actio 6 concilii Ephesini interprete Mario Mercatore nunc primum edita, cum epistolis quibusdam ad Nestorii causam pertinentibus, quas inter Marii Mercatoris opera Garnerius jam ediderat. Succedunt fragmenta quædam Græca, partim ex codicibus bibliothecæ regiæ nunc primum edita, partim ex monumentis ecclesiæ Græcæ a Cotelerio vulgatis deprompta. Præmissum est actis concilii Ephesini commonitorium Cyrilli Posidonio datum, cum propter Nestorii negotium Romam mitteretur, inter Jacobi Sirmondi schedas haud ita pridem repertum, nec non commonitorium Cælestini Episcopi Romani episcopis & presbyteris ad Ephesinum concilium euntibus datum, quod hactenus ineditum Baluzius asserit, oblitus, quod Christianus Lupus Ord. Fr. Eremit. S. Augustini, post variorum

Totum illud ſyntagma epiſtolarum a Lupo ex codice Caſinenſi Romæ deſcriptum, & poſtea in Belgio vulgatum, & in Actis noſtris menſe Auguſto 1683. memoratum, Baluzius in novam hanc conciliorum collectionem intulit, ægerrime ferens, quod mſ. illum codicem, quo Lupus uſus fuerat, conſulere haud potuerit. Quamvis enim nihil intentatum reliquiſſet, ut ejus compos fieret, tanta tamen fuit monachorum iſtorum pertinacia, ut nulla arte nullisque precibus id impetrare potuerit. Suſpicatur autem Baluzius, autorem iſtius collectionis fuiſſe Africanum & trium capitulorum defenſorem, & poſt Juſtiniani tempora hoc ſynodicum adverſus tragœdiam Irenæi, ſeu adverſus libros, quos Irenæus Neſtorii partibus addictus, tragœdiam vocavit, compilaſſe, quod a Lupo admodum indiligenter emiſſum queritur. Notas, quas Lupus admodum prolixas ad ducenteſimum usque collectionis hujus caput, cui immortuus eſt, adjunxit, Baluzius omiſit, & ipſe breviores animadverſiones ſingulis fere paginis ſubjecit, in quibus haud raro a Lupi ſcholiis diſſentit. Cum enim Lupus in ſcholiis ad cap. 117, ſolum Damaſum damnaſſe Lucium Arianum & Maximum Cynicum aſſerat, id negat Baluzius, eumque vehementer errare minime dubitat, cum Damaſus Lucium non ſolus, ſed cum concilio Italiæ & totius occidentis damnaverit, Maximum autem non damnaverit, ſed potius contra Nectarium partibus ejus addictus fuerit. Quæ Lupus de pactis inter Proclum & Domnum conventis ex epiſtola Theodoreti ad Flavianum in ſcholiis ad c. 192 protulit, Baluzius mera eſſe commenta judicat. Loca, e quibus Lupus evincere conatur, Chriſtianam fidem ſemper tradidiſſe, unicuique fideli præſertim Epiſcopo eſſe proprium cuſtodem Angelum, id minime probare quod debent, Baluzius arbitratur.

Idem antiquam Chalcedonenſis concilii verſionem, quam Ruſticus Diaconus emendandam ſuſcepit, & Petrus Crabbe primus integram edidit, cum antea exiguam ejus partem Merlinus evulgaſſet, a Romanis conciliorum generalium editoribus, quos Binius & reliqui ſecuti ſunt, ſub emendationis ſpecie tantum non obliteratam animadvertens, antiqua Chalcedonenſis concilii exemplaria magno ſtudio conquiſivit, & cum editis tanta diligentia contulit, ut ipſe pæne vereatur, tur, ne in annotatione variarum lectionum, quas huc congeſſit, nimius fuerit. In prolegomenis huic concilio præfixis, ut & hoc addamus, inter alia contra Paſchaſium Queſnelium diſputat, qui Julium Puteolanum Epiſcopum Epheſino concilio non interfuiſſe, & actionem concilii Chalcedonenſis de Domno a Latino quodam impoſtore in gratiam Romani Pontificis confictam cenſuerat.

Poſt appendices concilii Chalcedonenſis, codicem illum encyclium juſſu Caſſiodori Senatoris ab Epiphanio Scholaſtico Latinitate donatum, & primum a Surio vulgatum, cujus jam ſupra mentionem fecimus, eadem methodo, qua Chalcedonenſe concilium tractavit. Cum enim Romana & cæteris Romanam ſecutis conciliorum editionibus multa huic codici perperam inſerta, multa haud exigui momenti intacta & prætermiſſa, ordinem epiſtolarum turbatum ipſumque codicem loco alieno poſitum obſervaſſet, exemplaria manuſcripta & edita antiqua & nova accurate perluſtravit, & quantum inter ſe varient, oſtendit.

Poſtremum hujus tomi concilium eſt generale quintum, cujus emendationem etſi jam Labbeus antiquo Claudii Jolii codice adhibito aggreſſus fuerat, Baluzius tamen eodem codice, quo Labbeus uſus fuerat, penitius inſpecto, deprehendit, multa ab ipſo neglecta & præterita fuiſſe. Quapropter ſe rem nec a propoſito ſuo alienam, nec eruditis ingratam facturum arbitratus eſt, ſi ea, conſulto præterea Bellovacenſi codice, in nova hac conciliorum collectione fideliter ſuppleret. Videas igitur hic fragmentum ex judicato Vigilii, duas Vigilii epiſtolas ad Juſtinianum & Theodoram, jam olim a Monotheletis corruptas, eoque nomine in ſynodo generali 6. falſi poſtulatas, teſtimonium Theodori Cappadocis & Cethegi patricii, de jurejurando, quo ſe Vigilius obſtrinxit, & literas Juſtiniani adverſus Vigilium, ut maximum variarum lectionum apparatum taceamus. Additi ſunt canones concilii V, quos ex veteri manuſcripto bibliothecæ Cæſareæ Petrus Lambecius Græce edidit, quos excipit conſtitutum Vigilii de damnatione trium capitulorum in Colbertino quodam codice inventum, & ab epiſtola Vigilii ad Eutychium, quam in Regiæ bibliothecæ codice repertam Petrus de Marca publici juris fecerat, & erudita diſſertatione illuſtraverat, diverſum.

Poſt finem tomi primi accedunt addenda ad concilium Chalcedonenſe, ab Hieronymo Caſanata ſerius transmiſſa, & alia nonnulla, quæ in diverſis conciliis edenda vel emendanda Cl. Autor obſervavit, qui toto hoc opere monſtravit, longe pleniorem & emendatiorem conciliorum collectionem fieri poſſe, ſi quis pulcherrimi iſtius & utiliſſimi laboris conſilium aliquando capiat. Quamvis vero optandum foret, ut ipſe, qui conſilium dedit, negotio huic, cui nemo aptior, manum admoviſſet, interim tamen maxime ipſi ab hiſtoriæ eccleſiaſticæ ſtudioſis gratiæ debentur, quod ſaltem aliis egregii hujus operis molem in ſe aliquando fortaſſe ſuſcepturis fundamenta præſtruxit, & ut maximum laborum compendium illis faceret, nullis vigiliis atque laboribus pepercit.

Jurium: autore Leone Guitonerio.

Amſtelodami, A. 1684. in 12.

DE tolerantia diſſentientium in Religione problema, quod titulus hujus libri præ ſe fert, non tolerari tantum, ſed & laudari poſſet, ſi eo modo ab autore hoc, quisquis ille eſt, tractaretur, quo ab orthodoxis tractari ſolet. Verum alium animum, diverſumque ſcopum autori fuiſſe deprehendent, qui librum cum judicio legerint. Impugnat is ſub initium partis I. Dn. Jurium, cui librum in Acta noſtra anno præterito p. 530, & præf. p. 15. relatum, Hiſtoriam nempe Calviniſmi & Papiſmi parallelam, ut & Præſervativum adverſus Expoſitionem Condomenſem, aperte tribuit. Diſſenſus & refutationis cauſam inde potiſſimum ſumit, quod Jurius ſtatuerit puniri a magiſtratibus poſſe & debere, qui articulos culos fundamentales ſive præcipuos, aut qui auguſtiſſima, ut loquitur, religionis myſteria infringunt, ſuaque dogmata aliis etiam, licet prohibiti, proponunt: puniri ſcilicet fas eſſe, non ut hæreticos, ſive prava ſentientes & ſibi ſapientes, ſed ut contumaces legum publicarum violatores. Exagitat hæc Autor, quia hac interpretatione admiſſa, nihil facilius ſit aut frequentius fiat, quam ut edicta talia proponantur, & per illa ſub contumaciæ & rebellionis obtentu, vis inferatur conſcientiis, in quas tamen ſoli Deo imperium ſit. Sed disquiri prius debuiſſe contendit, de jure talium edictorum & legum, ut & de qualitate articulorum & myſteriorum, quæ fundamentum religionis & ſalutis infringant. Et hactenus forte nihil ſcripſit, quod non multis aliis ſcriptum dictumve ſit. Longius autem progreditur, & id agere vult, ut fundamenta religionis in arctum comprimat, & quæ Reformati pro myſteriis, ſive magnis articulis habent, extenuet & eludat; nec fas fuiſſe putat, illorum cauſa ab Eccleſia Romana diſceſſionem facere aut continuare. Incipit a decreto reprobationis, quod non religionis ſed iniquitatis myſterium vocat, imo diaboli inventum; defenſum ab Auguſtino, non ſatis ſcilicet ab errore Manichæo purgato; renovatum a Beza, Calvino, Gomaro, & aliis inter Reformatos, tum a Bajo, Sancyrano, Arnaldo, & Janſeniſtis, ſive, ut ait, omnibus ſtultis & pertinacibus gratiæ & redemtionis univerſalis hoſtibus. Nec hic ſiſtit licentiam cenſuræ, ſed nec dogma de Trinitate ejus eſſe ponderis exiſtimat, ut propter id negatum quisquam in periculum venire debeat. Ita ſentientem mirum non eſt, reliquos omnes articulos pro levibus habere, ob quos ſchiſma ſuperiori ſeculo factum eſt. Plerosque igitur, (excepta de conjugio clericorum quæſtione, quam, incertum qua de cauſa, intactam reliquit,) ex mente fere Epiſcopi Condomenſis, nunc Meldenſis ita excuſat & explicat, ut omnino, in Gallia præſertim, concordia iniri poſſit, ubi, ut ait, multisque ob id laudibus Regem extollit, errores indies corrigantur. Quod ſi eodem zelo, qui adverſus infallibilitatem & dominationem Pontificiam exercitus nuper fuit, per prudentiam & autoritatem Regiam progreſſus, (ut optat & hortatur,) fiat, ſublato inprimis ob inevitabilem abuſum imaginum cultu, introducto linguæ popularis in Sacris uſu, & indulta communione ſub utraque, mox futurum eſſe ait, ut extincta Reformatorum ſecta, unitas Eccleſiæ in Gallia reſtituatur, & in eam redituri ſint doctiores & ſagaciores omnes, præsertim Claudii, Pageonii, Wolzogii; nec in partibus mansuri, nisi ignorantes & pertinaces, inter quos habet Pielatum, Jurium, Colvium; sic demum Regem Restauratoris Ecclesiastica unionis & veri cultus titulo mactandum fore, omnibus aliis augustiori & præferendo. Utut vero hæc hominis esse videantur Romanis sacris addicti, aut conciliationis qvaliscunque vel etiam dissimulationis, cum dispendio licet veritatis, suasoris, eaque omnia manifestæ contradictioni ex omni parte subjaceant; crudiora tamen & duriora sunt, quæ ex parte secunda pro thesi sua, de tolerandis omnibus religionibus Christianis stabilienda, apertius & audacius, quam quisquam alius, deducit. Omnes nempe nihil docere autumat, quod fundamentum Christianismi subvertat: non Anabaptistas, non Socinianos, non Quackeros, si Henrici Nicolai sectatores, qui Familistæ vocantur, excipias. Nec hoc asserto contentus, intoleranda & blasphema contra Trinitatem, contraque æternam Deitatem Christi, hujusque satisfactionem commenta, tum quæ adversus resurrectionem corporum, & æternas inferni pœnas Socini schola excogitavit, deinde omnia Fanaticorum somnia & ludibria ita proponere & tueri aggreditur, ut ex sui ipsius demum sententia loqvi videatur, cum Socinianos & Quackeros defendit, quanqum & Arminianos elogiis honoret, solis Lutheranis immaniter infensus. Hos in rigidos & moderatos dispartitur. Illis non veretur ob doctrinam de omnipræsentia impias & diabolicas subtilitates, quibus tota religio Christiana destruaatur, imputare, cum tamen acerrimum hunc, ut videri vult, omnium controversiarum indagatorem latere non potuerit, quomodo & quamdudum Theologi Lutherani calumnias istas, (quas optimo jure diabolicas vocare licet,) egregie repulerint. Sed & in moderatiorum, quos credit vel fingit, classe, paucos pro membris veræ Ecclesiæ admittit. Esse enim inter hos, scribit, qui ad simulachra Christi crucifixi in genua provoluti, idololatriam aperte committant, quod ecclesiis Lutheranis falso affingi omnibus constat, tantoque impudentius & petulantius effutitur, quanto mitior est hic Aristarchus, ad excusandum imaginum in Romana Ecclesia cultum, ut ex parte prima apparet. Sed genuinum autoris luculentius detegunt, quæ in præfatione non ad emollienda, sed exacerbanda, quæ legentes offendere possunt, aculeate & ironice dicta reperiuntur. Inter illa, ut omittamus quæ Arnaldum & alios Jansenii sectatores vehementer lædunt, & alia mini-minime probanda, æstimatissimum Ecclesiæ doctorem Augustinum Hipponensem irreverentissime tractat, & Manè Hæretico irreligiosiorem fuisse pronuntiat, cum ille causam mali in opposito divinæ bonitati principio quæsiverit, hic Deo, ut ait, attribuerit. Nihilominus tanta est scriptoris hujus confidentia, ut roget eos, qui contra se scripturi sint, ne alio quam ipso spiritu, pacis nempe & concordiæ, regi se patiantur. Sed erunt sine dubio, qui elencho severiori utendum esse censebunt in hominem, cui nihil in tota religione Christiana satis sanctum firmumque visum est, quod non convellere, nihilque in tanta sectarum veterum novarumque, (nam & Arii & Pelagii apologiam facit,) copia tam pravum & absurdum, quod non vel excusatione lenire, vel assertione sua stabilire, pacis scilicet causa, tentaverit. Quod profecto non est pacem aut unionem facere, sed omnem religionem & pietatem in fumum aut phantasma redigere, & in pudendam confusionem rem Christianam funditus præcipitare.

con nouva aggiunta, fino l' anno 1682.

hoc est:

Sylva Renovata Petri Messiæ cum nova additione usque ad annum 1682.

Venetiis apud Josephum Prodocimum, 1682. in 4.

PEtri Messiæ, Equitis Hispani, Variarum Lectionum Sylva, quæ anno hujus seculi decimo sexto primum exiit, adeo prosperam experta est fortunam, ut & sæpius iterata fuerit ejus editio, & dignum laborem judicaverint homines Itali doctissimi, quem suis lucubrationibus amplificarent ac perficerent. Quicquid Autoris industria nobis obtulit, id omne tribus operis partibus prioribus, (quæ ante sedecim annos Norimbergæ in vernaculam linguam conversæ prodierunt,) continetur, quibus novem colloquia ab ipso Hispanice conscripta, sed Italice a quodam Alphonso Ulloa reddita annumerari debent. Partem quartam Mambrinus Roseus adjunxit, quæ historias memoratu dignas de totius orbis quibusvis regionibus complectitur. Pars quinta Francisci Sansovini est. Sexta & septima Bartholomæo Dionysio de Fano debetur. Accesserunt porro Hieronymi Brusoni curæ, qui ea fere, quæ noſtra memoria contigerunt, collegit, ac curioſis quibusdam quæſtionibus miſcuit. Hac facie jam ante complures annos Opus hoc varia eruditione refertum in orbe literario comparuit. Quumque id Joſephus Prodocimus anno 1682. recudere animum induxiſſet, ut Sylvæ huic titulum Renovatæ merito tribuiſſe videretur, ſchedas aliquot annectere ipſi voluit, quibus poſt indicem Chronologicum Regum Franciæ, ac enumerationem perfunctoriam Academiarum, Epiſcopatuum, Provinciarum, Pariumque Regni, Ludovici XIV. moderni Monarchæ res geſtæ ac bella ad annum usque 1682, quo Argentoratum Rex cepit, enarrantur. Autor earum celebratur Theodorus Theſſeri, qui ſe aliquot expeditionum ſpectatorem fuiſſe, ac eas carmine Heroico in Regis laudem complexum memorat; unde non mirum, ſi in brevi hac narratiuncula Gallicanis partibus faviſſe inveniatur.

CASTOR MAS

Gedani diſſectus A. 1684, menſe Aprili, ab E. G. H.

CUtis non adeo firmiter cohæret cum Panniculo Carnoſo, qui membranoſus ſaltem & pauca pinguedine, niſi circa inguina, ubi paulo copioſior, munitus.

Abdomen amplisſimum, pectus exiguum, & ſternum brevius.

Pancreas ultra ulnam longum, ſed gracile. Ductus tamen Virſungianus pennam anſerinam amplitudine æquabat circa inſertionem, qua fere $\frac{3}{4}$ partibus ulnæ diſtat ab inſertione Ductus Cholodochi.

Omentum invenimus ſat inſigne, quod nullum obſervavit Schraderus in Caſtore apud Blaſium Anat. Animal. p. 49.

Circa orificium ſuperius Ventriculi primo tunica communis, deinde Muſculoſa, poſtea totum orificium inſtar coronæ cinctum invenimus corpore glanduloſo in varias eminentias fabricato, quarum ſingulæ interius cavæ, ductu quodam ſtylum ſatis craſſum admittebant, a Ventriculi cavitate intruſum, exterius vero convexæ apparebant, niſi quod in centro convexitatis, foveam aliquatenus concavam, quaſi collapſæ quodammodo, ſiſterent, unde Wepferus apud Blaſium anat. animal. p. 45. extremitates illas canaliculorum cœcas appellat. Corpora hæc, qua Ventriculi cavitatem reſpiciunt, pellicula quadam, totam eorum circumferentiam ambiente, dum extenditur ventriculus, claudi videntur, & vera deprehendi, quæ Wepferus apud Blaſium cit. loc. notat. Lien

Lien ſpithamam longus, ſed gracilis, & vix digitum latitudine & craſſitie æquans.

Epididymides admodum Varicoſæ & Vaſis turgidæ.

Capſulas duas ſuperiores, quæ utrinque in unum orificium & rimam hiant, ac in quibus Caſtoreum reperitur. Uterum eſſe credidimus, quia illas Medicus quidam, qui aderat, in Caſtore ſtatim poſt partum diſſecto inſigniter amplas invenit, & cavas inſtar pugni. Accedit, quod animal hoc binos tantum fœtus una vice generet. Ejusmodi vero animalia, quæ duplicem tantum prolem producunt, maſculum gignere & fœmellam ſolent. Duo vero embryones, ex Caſtoris abdomine a venatoe (neſciebat vero, utrum ex his capſulis, an alio ex loco) exciſi, ſexu non diſtincti fuerunt ab eodem medico. Reſtat quod idem in plusquam XV. Caſtoribus a ſe diſſectis & Penem & Teſticulos & Capſulas Caſtorei retentrices, & Corpora Glanduloſa his capſulis ſubjectis ſubjecta, quæ mammas mox nominabimus, repererit; unde animalium hoc genus in hermaphroditarum numero conſtituere tum temporis probabile videbatur.

Capſulis dictis Caſtoreum continentibus duo adjacent, inferiora verſus, corpora extra abdomen, quæ Veſiculas vulgo Auctores vocant. Sed deprehenduntur corpora glanduloſa interius notabiliter cava, in quibus materia ſubflava caſeum putridum redolens, inſtar Lactis coagulat, reperitur. Corpora hæc circa extrema ſua in rimam dictam papilla qvadam terminantur, a qua verſus interiora proceſſus ſtyli non datur ab extra: ſtylus vero a cavitate intruſus per dictam papillam exitum facileu ſorttur: unde mammas hæc corpora eſſe credidimus.

Vaſa Spermatica ad Teſticulos tendebant, quorum Venæ admodum pampinoformes.

Deferentia Vaſa utrinque duplicia, conjunctim quatuor. Quorum duo interiores rami, poſtquam ſub fundo Veſicæ ampliati fuerant longitudine digiti transverſi, ſe conjungebant, doncc abhinc longitudine dimidii digiti transverſi rami duo exteriores etiam huic trunco ſe aſſociarent, & communi tandem papilla diverſis orificiis prædita in Urethram terminarentur.

Ventrieuli ſaccus, quaſi bifidus, in cujus parte priore, quæ cum Gula connectitur, materia fluida, in altera poſteriore, quæ membranaceo circulo a prima diſtincta eſt, multo craſſior apparet.

Renes Succenturiati Corpora ſunt triangularia, intus cava & exilia.

Coſtas animal 12 veras, 3 ſpurias ab uno latere habet.

Muſculos Maxillæ inferioris validos habet, ut Temporalem & Maſſeterem imprimis, quia & alimentum ſolidius, lignum ſcilicet, comminutione validiori opus habet.

Sub Maxilla inferiore & mento in corpus conglomeratæ glandulæ ab una maxillæ parte ad alteram, conſpicuæ ſunt, quarum ductus excretorii in cavitatem oris terminantur, pro commodiore ſiccioris alimenti digeſtione.

Os non nimis extendere & aperire valet animal, ſed rodere ſaltem poſſe inciſoriis quaternis dentibus, ſatis prominentibus videtur. Molaribus vero ſerpentinas admittentibus flexuras, conterit ſarmenta, dum maxillam extrorſum introrſumque movere valet.

Epar ſex lobis conſtat.

Quæ notanda circa Inteſtina occurrunt, ruptura & dilaceratio eorundem a globo plumbeo facta non permittebat.

CASTORIS FOEMELLÆ DISSECTIO, inſtituta ab eodem.

IN alio Caſtore mediocris magnitudinis, Muſculum obſervavi ſub cute ſtatim totum abdomen & pectus cingentem. Oritur ab utroque latere pollicis unius latitudine a linea alba, & Muſculis Rectis ſuperinſternitur, fibrisque transverſis ab uno abdominis latere per tergum decurrit, donec in oppoſito latere pollicis latitudine a linea alba, in membranam exiguam, quæ lineam albam cum aliis muſculorum tendinibus conſtituit, terminatur, atque ita veluti cingulum totum corpus ambit. Muſculus hic in tergo cutiarctiſſime adhæret, & natus videtur eſſe, pro abdomine, quod ampliſſimum eſt, conſtringendo, cum reliqui abdominis muſculi minus valentes & ſatis flaccidi deprehendantur.

Cartilago enſiformis Muſculos accipit a Pectoralibus, qui in eam terminantur, ac in inſpiratione elevant.

Fru-

Fruſtum inſtar muſculi glanduloſum, quod ſub mento anteriorem & laterales colli partes velat, plurimos ductus ſalivales emittit, inprimis ab utroque maxillæ inferioris latere unum grandiorem, qui Maſſeterem tranſcendens, inter hunc & Muſculum, totum animal involventem, decurrit, donec papilla, cujus extremitatem valvula claudit, in bucca prope maxillares dentes inferiores Lympham ſuam exoneret.

Alii duo ductus in medio colli Laryngem tranſcendentes, variis flexuris abſolutis, uno tandem trunco conjuncti ſub Lingua, poſtquam valvulas robuſtiſſimas pro reflexu Salivæ impediendo formarunt, una papilla liquorem ſuum deponunt.

Circa ſitum viſcerum in Abdomine obſervavimus Epar in medio jacens.

Inteſtinum cœcum horrendæ molis in hoc animali, & plusquam ulnam longum, palmam latum, bis abdomen ab uno Epigaſtrio ad alterum emetitur.

Colon longiſſimum non totam modo abdominis regionem a tergo circuli inſtar cingit, ſed in dextro primum latere, varias flexuras admittit, hinc per transverſum abdominis decurrens ad ſiniſtrum latus ſcandit, ubi iterum abſolutis ſerpentinis gyris tandem in Rectum terminatur. Cellulatum valde eſt & ligamenta nervea fortiſſima habet, tam ad Rectum quam Cœcum tendentia.

Ramificationes Vaſorum admodum notabiles erant, inprimis illorum, quæ a Cœliaca arteria ortum trahunt, ut Pancreatica, Gaſtrica, Splenicaque.

Ductus Cholodochus prægrandis pennam minorem anſerinam referebat.

Pancreaticus ductus ulnæ fere longitudine a ductu Cholodocho notabili, qui plurimas Valvulas admittebat, inter tunicas inteſtini decurrens, inſerebatur.

Subjectum noſtrum vere fœmininum fuiſſe conſtat ex præſentia uteri cum 2 cornubus, uti in canibus, ac Ovario adjacente. Uterus ſitum obtinebat naturalem inter Veſicam & Inteſtinum, neque penis aderat. Vaſa ſortitur Uterus ut & Veſica ab Hypogaſtricis. Spermatica Vaſa ad Ovarium tendentia ſe oculis objiciebant.

In Utero nihil occurrebat ſingulare, niſi quod utraque Tuba seu Cornu, cum ad regionem fundi uterini accederet, suo ductu ultra duorum digitorum latitudinem cum semisse sigillatim & seorsim serperet, duplici per substantiam uteri cavitate formata, quam paries membranaceus distinguebat, donec circa orificium Uteri internum, duplici papilla Cartilaginea in Vaginam terminaretur: ita ut nullus in Utero fundus aut cavitas pyriformis in eo observaretur, nisi quod, ubi fundus esse debebat, cornua continuata paulo ampliora deprehenderentur.

G. B. DE SAINT ROMAIN, MEDICINÆ Doctoris Parisiensis, Physica Scholastica tricis liberata.

Lugd.Batav. apud Petrum van der Aa, A.1684. in 12.

DEmocritea, ut a Gassendo stabilita sunt, principia sequitur Auctor. Parte prima de causis & principiis naturæ agens, causæ primæ, id est, Dei existentiam & perfectiones ostendit: plurimorum effectuum naturalium, quos vulgo Sympathiæ & Antipathiæ aut occultis qualitatibus attribuunt, causas manifestas facere conatur; utpote quæ sit ratio eorum, quæ passim traduntur & observantur de magnete & ferro, de pulvere & ligno sympathetico, de virga divinatoria, de amuletis, de auro & argento vivo, de argento & cupro, de visu lethifero basiliski, de medicamentis purgantibus, emeticis, sudoriferis, specificis. Hic causam inquirit, ob quam in confectione Reguli ex Antimonio crudo cum ferro bene præparati, superiore parte magna stella reperiatur cum surgentibus radiis quinque, quasi eidem applicata esset pars illa calcaris versatilis, qua eques equum exstimulat; & si additur Venus Chemistarum cum ferro, appareant in Regulo duæ stellæ; sique Regulus ad ultimum pellatur perfectionis gradum, stella dispareat, ac in ejus loco conspiciatur rete parvum admodum tenue instar retis piscatorii. Meminit etiam pulveris compositi ex spiritu auri & omnium reliquorum metallorum, cujus granum unicum in dimidio vini vitro exhibitum ex toto corpore absque violentia vel alteratione sudorem prolicit. Inde ad venena & toxica pergit, docens, venena esse atomos quasdam a corporibus solutas & emancipatas. Omnia autem ad duo genera revocat.

cat. Prius ait conſiſtere in atomis emancipatis, quæ proprie venena ſint. Ejus rurſum tres ſpecies eligit ad modum, quo venena in humana corpora agunt declarandum. Primum eſt venenum cor immediate invadens, quale peſtis eſt aut viperæ. Venenum peſtis conſiſtere perhibet in atomis aut corpuſculis quibusdam valde acutis, uncis acuminatis & terebellorum ſerrarumque exiguarum inſtar figuratis, quæ partes vitales transfigunt, ſcindunt & dividunt, & hac actione ſpirituum vitam largientium motum interrumpunt. Idem de viperarum veneno dictum vult, quod partem morſam ingreditur. Secundum venenum cerebrum immediate, ac deinde cor aggreditur, quale eſt canis rabidi, opii, ſolani aliorumque narcoticorum & ſomniferorum. Etenim quando canis rabidus quandam corporis partem mordet, cum ſaliva & ſpuma vulnus ingredientes atomi venenatæ emancipatæ & quaſi rabidæ, in ſuo motu violento inſenſibiliter & pedetentim per corporis partes repunt, & non invenientes ullas partes molliores, ideoque diviſu & deſtructu faciliores ſubſtantia cerebri, ejus diſſolutionem producunt. Tertium venenum in hepar irruit, totamque maſſam ſanguineam corrumpit. Tale eſt venenum venereæ luis, cujus atomi a calore & motu excitatæ exhalant & ſe liberant ſanguine corrupto aut ſoluto, & poris corporis humani ac partium naturalium apertos invenientes, ſe inſinuant, repunt, & ſucceſſu temporis penetrant in vaſa ſpermatica, inde in magnas venas ac denique in vaſa grandia, & hepar eorum truncum, quod dividendo alterant, & ſeparando corrumpunt; unde univerſalis ſanguinis corruptio ſequitur. Sub poſteriore venenorum genere comprehendit toxica, in corpuſculis ſolutis conſiſtentia; uti ſublimatum & arſenicum, quæ venena, illud arte, hoc natura tale, agant in corpora particulis ſuis amputantibus, acutis & penetrantibus, quales ſunt particulæ igneæ, quæ urunt, ulcerant & dilacerant partes internas deglutientium. Quibus venenis antidota oppoſita contemplatur, perhibens Theriacam adverſus viperarum venenum eſſe, quod cum ipſa carnem viperinam in ſe contineat, atomi emancipatæ ex ea egreſſæ, ejus carnis particulas iis recipiendis aptas invenientes, annectantur & adhæreant, & hoc pacto motum ſuum amittendo etiam malignitatem deponant, oppignoratæ & quietæ remaneant, non ſecus ac ante emancipationem ſuam erant. Veneno peſtifero Theriacam & Confectio-fectiones cordiales reſiſtere, quarum corpuſcula tali modo diſpoſita & figurata ſunt, ut atomi peſtiferæ omnes partes corporis percurrentes iis annectantur & adhæreant: inprimis autem antidotum peſtis haberi mutationem aeris, aut ejus, in quo verſamur, per bonos odores correctionem, qui intra nos cum aere attracti eum corrigunt & temperant, corpuſculis ſuis atomorum emancipatarum impatientiam & motum nimis liberum ſiſtendo. A cane rabido morſos ſæpe ſanari, ſi pluribus vicibus aquæ marinæ injiciantur, quoniam atomi emancipatæ ex ſaliva canis rabidi egredientes, dum cerebri ſubſtantiam penetrant, aut in ejus plicis circumvolvuntur, ut in cavitates ejus intrent, in motu ſuo interrumpuntur, immo partim foras a ſubſultibus, quos patiens in mare projectus neceſſario ſuffert, ejiciuntur. Inſuper corpuſcula ex maris ſpuma in patientis corpus per poros agitatione apertos intrantia, ſive cum aere inſpirato ſanguini communicata, figuris ſuis cubicis atomos emancipatas, quæ rabiem producunt, figere & ſiſtere poſſe. Simile judicium ferri jubet de remediis morbo Gallico adhibitis, quippe quæ atomos emancipatas & venereas a centro ad circumferentiam pellant, ſive per ſudorem, ſive per inſenſibilem transſpirationem. Sublimato & Arſenico præſentanee lac mederi obſervat, non ſecus ac oleum, quia in ventriculum deſcendens & in tranſitu æſophagum & ventriculi orificium tangens corpuſculorum motum imminuit, eorum acumina hebetat, omnesque illas partes defendit. Ad calcem hujus tractationis Morborum cauſas phyſicas immediatas tradit eſſe venena, id eſt, atomos emancipatas, & toxica, id eſt, corpuſcula ſoluta: Atomos emancipari aut ſolvi in corporum corruptione aut totali aut partiali. Tres in nobis fieri corruptiones, quæ ſunt coctiones ſive digeſtiones, in quarum unaquaque atomi emancipentur & ſolvantur. Itaque ex prima alimentorum in ventriculo digeſtione dolores ſtomachi & infimi ventris, ut & ventos oriri: hos enim ventos alimenti eſſe corrupti partes ſubtiliores, & cum corpuſcula inibi reperiantur ſubtiliora & acutiora, pro ratione alimentorum aſſumtorum, dolores & vellicationes valde moleſtas & periculoſas, quales in dolore colico deprehenduntur, producere; ſique inter hæc corpuſcula atomi quædam ſint emancipatæ ſatis copioſæ, eas ordinario ad cerebrum ſe conferre, unde Apoplexiæ & Lethargi oriantur, aut in mu-in muſculorum & nervorum ſubſtantiam penetrare, unde paralyſes proveniant &c. Ex ſecunda digeſtione in hepate ventos & vapores,& nonnunquam corpuſcula ſoluta, ut & atomos emancipatas exiſtere: ab iis ventis murmura ac flatus excitari circa hepar,lienem,hypochondria & renes: corpuſcula ibidem reperta partes internas pungere, ulcerare ac abſceſſuum cauſas eſſe:præterea atomos emancipatas effugientes aliquando ad cerebrum adſcendere, vertigines, aurium tinnitus, in nervorum principio ſua vellicatione convulſiones generare, unde epilepſia aliique morbi maligni ſequantur. Ex eodem fonte horrores, acceſſus & duplicationes febrium continuarum manare, quemadmodum ex corpuſculis ſolutis & atomis a prima digeſtione in ventriculo emancipatis, febrium intermittentium acceſſus periodici, ob fermentationem, quam excitant, proveniant &c. Subitam nonnunquam mortem ex ſubito motu atomi evadentis, & dum ſanguis ſuum circulum abſolvit, aufugientis, accidere. His morborum cauſis ita explicatis,cauſas ſanitatis ex oppoſito in iis collocat, quæ ventos, corpuſcula,atomos nocentes,extra corpo foras propellere valent. Quem effectum produci aſſerit per actionem & motum corporibus rarefactis,corpuſculis ſolutis ac atomis emancipatis ex unaquaque digeſtione in corporibus hominum ſaniſſimorum oriundis, impreſſum. Iſtum vero motum aut per purgantia, aut emetica, aut denique per ſudorifera imprimi: & quidem per priora duo foras ejici reſidua a prima & ſecunda digeſtione: ſudorifera vero tertiæ coctionis corpuſcula pellere ad extra.Atque hæc medicamenta ſola agere membranarum,nervorũ,& fibrarum vellicatione,producta a corpuſculis acutis ex medicamento egreſſis &c. Præ cæteris remediis commendat vulgare,& ſanitati conſervandæ aut reſtituendæ utiliſſimum, quod & experientia ſalutare deprehenderit, ſuorumque principiorum veritatem manifeſtet,nimirum omnem evacuationem motu & vellicatione corpuſculorum acutorum fieri.Remedium ita habet: *ſingulis temporibus matutinis plumam ſumit anſerinam tenuem,leniter in os intrudit,ac ulterius ad fauces protrudit,aliquandiu detinet,per vices etiam retrahit;ac vellicationem a pluma faucibus,æſophago,laryngi,palato,partibusq; vicinis impreſſam ſentit: poſt hanc vellicationem aquæ,pituita,phlegmata ac humores mucoſi,quantitate non parva decurrunt & effluunt per horæ quadrantem. Subſtantiam aſtrorum explicat per metalla fuſa ; & quidem Solem repræſentat per aurum in magno crucibulo fuſum; ſtellas fixas ſimiliter per aurum in minoribus fuſum crucibulis ; Lunam per argentum in crucibulo fuſum ; Saturnum per plumbum &c. Hinc concludit aſtrorum rotunditatem, quia metallum fuſum ſemper eſt rotundum, niſi a luto cui infunditur, aut crucibulo,in quo funditur,impediatur.Solem in mundi centro cumCopernicanis locat, qui duplici motu, uno rotationis circa proprium axem, altero librationis, terram non minus quam reliquos planetas concutiat moveatque.Motum circumrotationis deducit ex fuſione,quando. quidem inſtar auri in crucibulo fuſi ibique ſcintillantis&purificati,rotariSolem oporteat : fuſionem autem continuam ſervari ab igne,quem ſtellæ fixæ in Solem ejaculentur, atque a corpuſculis peregrinis aliis, undiquaque influentibus : alias futurum, ut Solis materia fixetur ac ſiſtatur in continenti ; quomodo aurum, poſtquam diu in cupella fumavit &circulavit ad omnia corpora peregrina ſub forma fumi expellenda, tandem ſiſtitur, & confeſtim in ejus fundo figitur & condenſatur, nec intenſiſſimo igne denuo funditur aut circulatur,niſi addatur plumbum ſine vel cum alio quodam metallo. Lunæ materiam quoad circumferentiam vero argento ſimilem facit;Saturnum,Jovem,Martem, Venerem & Mercurium ejusdem credit cum Sole naturæ, ſed minus depuratæ, quorum corpuſcula verſus corpus Solis mittantur & propellantur. Cometas generari vult ex fumis & vaporibus ex Sole exhalantibus craſſiſſimis incenſis;motum ipſorum dirigi regulariter a Solis vortice;nihilominus quosdam nobis propinquiores fieri ex exhalationibus terreſtribus. Stellas fixas quas ſuperius auro fuſo comparaverat, nunc mavult dicere totidem foramina aut palas magnis adamantibus aut carbunculis inſtructas, qui pro medio & vehiculo lumini & calori cœli empyrei inſerviant. Pluviam obſervat ſemper ſecum ferre ſalem inſtar ſacchari albi,deſtillatione ſeparabilem,ſive Balſamum aſtrorum Baſilio Valentino nuncupatum, i. e. corpuſcula ſeminalia ex Sole & aſtris emanantia, quæ eadem etiam in rore contineantur.

Parte III. comprehenduntur, quæ infra hominem ſunt, nimirum

rum Terra & res terreſtres, quæ dicuntur inanimatæ. Metallorum cauſam principalem aſſerit Solem, unde indeſinenter fumi egrediantur fulgentes, ex quibus lumen oriatur, quique calorem cum ſpiritibus ſeminalibus vehant, qui terræ poros penetrantes in ejus viſceribus metalla generant, puri penitus aurum, aliorum planetarum effluviis permixti reliqua metalla. Opinatur autem ſpiritus ſeu corpuſcula ex aſtris emanantia, in terræ gremio incraſſari, & in aquam viſcoſam, dulcem, & mercurialem redigi, ex qua deinde metalla fiant. Confirmat id allegando experientiam, quæ habetur cupellando aurum: ſiquidem fumi ex ordinariis cupellis elevati & in alembico collecti in aquam claram, viſcoſam, pulverulentam & conſequenter metallicam condenſentur. In ſtanno tria miranda obſervat, totidem in plumbo. Argentum vivum, cujus tres ſpecies recenſet, continere internum quoddam principium vitæ vegetativæ & ſeminalis, oſtendit ex confectione arboris Dianæ. Salium corpuſcula non ſolum acuta, ſed etiam hamata eſſe, & diverſorum vario motu cieri probat. Commendat ſal polychreſtum ex nitro & ſulphure, optime humores peccantes expellens, quod efficacius reddat ſal additum. Aquæ ſpecies, puta elementarem, deſtillatam, aquam fortem ex ſalibus metallicis extractam, aquam vitæ, aquas minerales enumerans, calidas Borbonias, & frigidas in Paſſy Les Paris laudat.

Parte quarta proponit ea, quæ ſunt in homine. Vita in genere definitur actio & motus compoſiti, & corporis organici, orta a principio interno & ſeminali. Principium hoc ait ſpiritus vitales, i. e. certum numerum atomorum ab omni compoſitione liberarum, taliumque quarum figura & conditio eas captivitati ineptas reddat; nam invicem ſe devincientes deſtinari ad componendas corporum noſtrorum machinas. Vitarum differentias ſtatuit quatuor, metallicam, vegetativam, ſenſitivam, & rationalem, inter quas tamen poſtrema ab anima immateriali & immortali proveniat, cum priores tres ab atomis dependeant. Semina quibus res propagantur, imaginatur ſibi corpora compoſita ex ſubtiliſſimis atomis, optime figuratis, & proportionatis, ut pro typo inſerviant omnibus cudendis exemplis in ſpeciei propagatione. Deinde explicat, quomodo individua multiplicentur per ſolam ſeminum dilatationem, exemplo frumenti ex grano, & infantis in utero formati. Lumen aſſeverat compoſitum ex atomis auri, quæ omnes partes mundi ad ſuum centrum Solem alligant. Hic nonnulla de virtute & efficacia luminis in productione conſervationeque rerum, imo in univerſali medicina paranda ſubjiciuntur. Lumen per ſe proprie loquendo nos videre, ſine transmiſſione accidentium vel corpuſculorum ab objecto; ſimiliter motum corporis per ſe audiri, citra qualitates Ariſtotelis aut corpuſcula Gaſſendi. Cordis motum naturalem adſcribit motui ſpirituum vitalium, i.e. atomorum ignearum & cœleſtium in centrali cordis vacuo incluſarum; hujus motus effectum ſanguinis circulationem agnoſcit: irregularem motum cordis in animalibus & febribus diverſis, ad atomos emancipatas in concoctionibus refert; ſimulque inde differentiam febrium petit, & de remediis pauca addit. Inviſibile vinculum partium cum corpore, a quo proceſſerunt, exemplis adſtruit, inter quæ memoratu dignum eſt, quod, ſi hominis mortui veſtimentum in ciſtam bene clauſam recondatur, primis & ſuccedentibus diebus, quibus corpus ſepultum putreſcere incipit, ſtrepitus in ciſta exiſtant, quos corpuſcula demortui corporis a ſecedentibus attracta motu ſuo per lignum tranſeundo excitent.

Atlas temporum, diviſus in quatuor libros, Periodum ſcilicet Ludovici Magni; novam methodum Chronologicam; Chronologiam Sacram V. T; & Chronologiam novam annorum gratiæ. Autore R.P. Dn. de La Motte &c.

Ambiani; & proſtat Pariſiis apud Nicolaum Padelupum A. 1683. in fol.

TOtum hoc opus, in quo multa ad Genealogicum, Chronologicum, Geographicum, Arithmeticum, & Hiſtoricum ſtudium pertinentia continentur, quatuor libris abſolvitur, quibus tabula materiarum, index rerum notabiliorum, & alia quædam præmiſſa ſunt. Præfationi, quæ circa nomen operi impoſitum præcipue occupatur, duodecim leges & regulæ Chronologicæ ſubnexæ ſunt, quarum ultima tima requirit, ut Chronologiæ ſecundum undecim priores confectæ pro veris habeantur. Harum vero omnium in Atlante ſuo accuratam ſe rationem habuiſſe, & propterea de veritate ejus neminem ambigere poſſe Autor profitetur: Gallici idiomatis ignaris Latinam operis editionem non obſcure pollicitus.

Libro primo capitibus novem, in ſectiones iterum ſubdiviſis, conſtante, temporis partes evolvit; cyclorum, epocharum, & periodorum, Victorianæ & Julianæ, rationes exponit, & inde ad novam ſuam Ludovicianam progreditur. Hanc non improbabili cauſa a Ludovico Galliarum hodie Monarcha cognominatam, ex trium Cyclorum, Solis, Lunæ & Epactarum (hoc eſt 28 in 19, & producti rurſus in 30) multiplicatione, annorum conſtituit 15960; adeoque duplo ac Juliana eſt, ampliorem. In ejus annum 3191 ineuntem Autor conjicit natalem mundi; 7373 completum vero Servatoris noſtri: atque ſic longiſſima annorum ſuorum ſerie ante & poſt Chriſti incarnationem extenſam, habilem facit (quod paulo ante in Juliana deſiderat) exhibendis omnium omnino Autorum epochis. Comparatione porro inter ipſam & Julianam inſtituta, quod hæc duobus naturalibus cyclis, tertium arbitrarium (Indictionum) quique diſcernendo tempori nihil inſerviat, jungat; ſua vero ex tribus naturalibus & aſtronomicis compoſita ſit, qui divelli ob mutuas operas minime debeant; eandem alteri Julianæ longe præſtare contendit: cum cyclus Epactarum in Ludoviciana periodo ſimul indicet Novilunia & Plenilunia, ipſasque Eclipſes Solis & Lunæ, rem tantopere ſemper ab excellentioribus Chronologis, certis figendis Epocharum annis, æſtimatam. Exhibet deinde hoc & quarto libro ſingulos Periodi Ludovicianæ annos, in Tabula ſex columellis diſtincta expreſſos, cum propriis ſuis characteribus cyclorum, Solis, Lunæ, Epactarum, & numero, quem in Periodo Victoriana ſortiuntur: ut cum cæteri Chronologi Periodos ſuas in idea ſaltim reliquerint, Atlas hic ſuam in Theoria ſiſtat; & hoc ipſo perpetuas veluti ſuppeditet Ephemerides, quarum ſolus intuitus, citra calculum, uniuscujusque anni cyclum ſolarem, aureum numerum, & Epactam indicet. Subjungit etiam, quæ ad dextre intelligendam hanc Tabulam, debiteque in ea reponendas Epochas diverſorum Autorum faciunt.

Libro ſecundo de origine & principio mundi agit, eumque non esse æternum, ex revelatione, ratione & cumprimis ex Sabbathi institutione probat, creatum vero non sex momentis, sed totidem diebus integris successivis pronunciat. Tempus etiam anni, & horam diei, quibus mundus creatus sit, quoque Zodiaci gradu Sol & Luna primum repositi sint, aliaque consimilis argumenti plura determinat. Epocham postea conditi mundi ad annum ante Christi nativitatem 4181 collocat, sententiamque suam Astronomiæ & Historiæ stabilit suffragiis. Uberius dehinc ea contemplatur, quæ ad computum annorum, mensium & festorum apud Hebræos usitatorum pertinent. Ab hoc ad Julianam anni formam descendens, ejus defectus indicat, & Gregorianæ reformationis, quam approbat, historiam adornat, novumque ejus Calendarium ab objectionibus vindicat adversariorum. Binas dein Tabulas perpetuas novæ methodi Chronologicæ exponit, quarum subsidio Numerus aureus, Litera Dominicalis, Epacta, Festum Paschatos, & cætera mobilia inveniuntur, harumque usum exemplis ostendit: dictæ autem methodi suæ fundamentum essentiale constituit originem trium cyclorum (Solis, Lunæ & Epactarum) quos cum ipsis mundi natalibus cœpisse supponit: ex quo Chronologias omnes minus justas pronunciat, quæ chronicis tantum nituntur Historicorum: examinatasque ad Lydium cyclorum lapidem Autorum 110 diversas de anno mundi conditi opiniones, falsitatis arguit; suum etiam computum, quo inter mundi & Salvatoris nostri natalem intervallum est 4181 annorum, ex principiis Astronomicis, motu scilicet Lunæ confirmat. Porro Novilunia & Plenilunia, locum Nodorum & inde Eclipses, cujusvis temporis, beneficio certarum Tabularum facile reperire docet.

Tertio libro Chronologiam Sacram V.T. ex Scripturis desumtam complectitur ad Christi usque natales, & profanam quoque historiam temporum illorum, quamvis brevius, seorsim tamen considerat. Ordinis ergo sex mundi ætates in universum numerat, earumque priores quinque libro præsenti explicat, ultima ultimo servata libro. Singulas per certas tabulas declarat, deque singulis tabulis observationes quasdam in lectoris gratiam subjungere non gravatur: difficultates etiam chronologicas hinc inde occurrentes evolvit. Prima ætas ab Adami creatione ordiens in fine diluvii terminatur. Secunda Patriarcharum annos a diluvio ad egressum usque ex Ægypto, h.e. a Noa ad Mosen Moſen computat. Tertia Imperio Judicum abſolvitur, annos a Moſe ad Samuelem comprehendens. In quarta vitas Regum Iſrael & Juda a Saule usque ad Zedechiam, Ariſtocratiæ Iſraeliticæ in Monarchiam converſionem, templum Salomonæum, & quæ ſingulos concernunt Reges, ſedulo ex Scripturis excerpta enarrat, Genealogiam Chriſti, & Catalogum Pontificum producit, Prophetas & Prophetiſſas V. T. Chronologico-Hiſtorice enumerat, & de Sibyllis decem aliqua admiſcet. Quinta per imperia Pontificum omnes annos a captivitate Judæorum usque ad nativitatem Chriſti computat, ordinem in Scripturis ad annos ætatis hujus ſupputandos attendendum ſubinnuit, ſcrupulos de 70 annis captivitatis, de annis a reditu ex captivitate usque ad ſeptimanas Danielis, & de ipſis Danielis hebdomadibus 70, eximit, annis 593 illi ætati tributis.

Libro quarto ſextam mundi ætatem gratiæ, quæ Chriſtiana dicitur, proponit, & poſtquam inſtituti ſui rationes in præfatione fideliter declaraverat, annos a creatione mundi usque ad nativitatem Chriſti in Chronologia ſua legitime computatos eſſe evincit. Annos quidem a mundi creatione ad exitum Ægyptiacum per ſabbatha hebdomadum, ab exitu ad Meſſiam per Sabbatha annorum confirmat, & Jubilæa numerumque ſabbathorum libertatis a prima inſtitutione ad baptiſmum Chriſti producit, videlicet 32 cum quatuor annis ſabbathicis recenſendo. Poſtea de anno & die nativitatis Meſſiæ probabiliorem opinionem eligit; quomodo periodus Ludoviciana inveniendo anno in quo vivitur, inſerviat, oſtendit; novem de vita & morte Chriſti opiniones examinat, illisque ſuffragatur, quæ mortem Meſſiæ ad elapſos annos 34 cum menſibus tribus referunt; Sabbatha per calculum Judaicum a Mundo condito usque ad illud tempus, quo Dominica ſive Solis dies per reſurrectionem Chriſti, Anno ætatis 35 eſt introducta, comprobat, & ex Aſtronomia, beneficio motus Lunaris, & mortis & reſurrectionis Chriſti annum atque tempus demonſtrat; ſucceſſionem Dominicæ Chriſtianorum in locum Sabbathi Judaici declarat, & inde Chriſtum anno ætatis 35 mortuum eſſe evincit. Ultimo tandem capite concludit, rejectis omnibus aliorum Periodis, non poſſe non periodum Ludovicianam ſolam atque unicam aſſumi. Hanc igitur cum omnibus characteribus propriis & eventibus notatu dignioribus, qui vel in Eccleſia, vel in Imperiis, Regnis & Rebuspublicis, a pri-

a primo anno Gratiæ usque ad annum 1680 acciderunt, proponit. Brevior est in recensendis illis, quæ tempore N.T. contigerunt, præsertim si libros præcedentes contuearis. Excusat tamen hoc ipsum tum in præfatione libri quarti, tum in calce horum Annalium N. Test. Chronologico-Historicorum; & Historiographos nominat, ex quibus præsentia depromserit, qui plura expetenti satisfacere possint.

Dein Periodum Ludovicianam ejusque Characteres proprios ab anno 1680 ad annum Gratiæ 8587 inclusive extendit: & quæstione de durationeultimæ mundi ætatis proposita, ast non decisa, institutum suum utrobivis subsistere demonstrat, sive mundus ante, sive post A. C. 8587. intereat, propter ordinem cyclorum, quibus labor ejus Chronologicus sustinetur, nunquam variandum.

RESPONSE AU LIVRE DE MONSIEUR DE MEAUX, intitulé : Conference avec Mr. Claude Ministre de Charenton.

Hagæ Comitum apud Arn. Leers, 1683. in 8.

UT conjecimus, cum mense Junio anni proximi excerpta ex libro Bossueti Episcopi Meldensis, adversus Joh. Claudium Ecclesiasten Charentonensem, Actis nostris p. 231. insereremus; non defuit sibi Claudius suæque Ecclesiæ. Prodit enim nunc ejus responsio, qua dicta scriptaque sua defendere, & Episcopi objectiones refellere aggressus est. Præfatur multa & gravia de disceptationibus, quas Romano-Catholici de forma & autoritate Ecclesiæ eo fine instituere ait, ut asserta illa, aut quod idem est, Pontificis aut conciliorum infallibilitate, Protestantibus omnibus os uno nixu obstruant, & aliorum articulorum examen evitent. Quam nullo vero id fiat jure & fundamento, & quam frivolum sit, Ecclesiam Christi, solo ejus verbo & spiritu ad animarum salutem regendam, ad leges & pompam societatum civilium redigere, satis a se demonstratum esse confidit hac responsione sua. In illius parte prima responsum ad Acta Episcopi cum domina Duraſia, ante antę colloquium cum illo ſuum, forma epiſtolæ a ſe conceptum, publici juris fecit: (antea enim tantum manuſcriptum ad Epiſcopum pervenerat;) illique eorum, quæ Epiſcopus epiſtolæ huic in Reflexionibus, quas vocat, oppoſuit, examen ſubjunxit. Quadrat id ad Reflexionem Boſſueti nonam & quatuor ſequentes. Hunc enim ordinem ſequendum ſibi ſumpſit Claudius, qui ſuis ſcriptis, eorumque tempori conveniret. Sed parte ſecunda edidit relationem a ſe conſcriptam de colloquio, præſente Duraſia, multisque illuſtribus viris fœminisque, cum Epiſcopo habito; teſtatus, nolle ſe, quæ is in ſua relatione alio modo narraſſet, carpere, aut ulla in Virum, cui multum deferat, immodeſtia uti, ſatius habens ut lectores judicium ferant. Cum vero Epiſcopus huic ipſi relationi, quam antequam ederetur nactus eſt, octo reflexiones ſuas priores oppoſuerit, ad has quoque reſpondet Claudius, ſed ita, ut ex tredecim Boſſueti capitibus, quinque poſteriora in parte prima, priora octo in parte altera refutata inveniantur. Dudum inclaruit utriusque autoris ingenium, eruditio, facundia, & quæ inter acriter de rebus graviſſimis diſſentientes rariſſima eſt, eoque majori laude digna, verborum moderatio. Reſponſum Claudii epiſtolicum, tum utriusque relationem excerpere ſuperſedebimus, cum in Actis prioris anni jam de hiſtoria colloquii dixerimus: potiſſimas vero, quas uterque tractavit materias, una opera ex reſponſionibus Claudii per compendium nunc referemus.

Initium itaque, Claudii librum nunc ſequentibus, a reſponſo ejus ad reflexionem nonam, qua primam epiſtolæ Claudianæ quæſtionem Boſſuetus examinavit, eſto. Lis eſt de jure ſingulorum Chriſtianorum, an nimirum liceat, imo & incumbat cuilibet ex cœtu, decreta Eccleſiaſtica examinare, an vero ſimplici obedientia amplecti? Prius Claudio & Reformatis, ac Proteſtantibus in univerſum; poſterius Boſſueto & Romano-Catholicis viſum eſt. Nituntur hi præcipue promiſſo Chriſti notiſſimo, de perpetuitate & victoria Eccleſiæ adverſus corruptionem ſive portas inferorum. Sed Claudius illud ad Eccleſiam vere & proprie ſic dictam pertinere contendit, & fruſtra ad cœtum, aut paſtores & prælatos applicari, inter quos plurimi ſint externæ tantum profeſſionis conſortes, intus hypocritæ, aut aperte etiam mali, hoſtes DEI, adeoque veritatis & infallibilitatis non ita capaces, ut sine examine ad normam Verbi divini admitti eorum decreta debeant. Impugnat itaque Ecclesiæ definitionem & requisita, quæ post Bellarminum & Perronium Cardinales, aliosque, ipse Bossuetus constituit, in professione fidei & in sacramentorum & ministerii publici communione. His enim non respici ad vera & unica Ecclesiæ membra essentialia, fideles nempe & electos, fatente id palam Bellarmino, cujus verba ex Lib. III. de Eccles. cap. 10. refert: non putamus requiri ullam internam virtutem. Item: includuntur omnes alii, etiamsi reprobi, scelesti & impii sint. Emolliverat ista Bossuetus, professus, se adeo non excludere ex cœtu Ecclesiæ electos, ut eos potius nobilissimam & pulcherrimam illius partem statuat. Sed urget Claudius, hoc non sufficere, sed virtutes interiores ad essentiam Ecclesiæ pertinere, & definitionem ejus intrare debere. Urget itaque clarum responsum, an stare velit adversarius definitionibus Bellarmini & Perronii; in hoc enim cardinem negotii versari. Scilicet, si ex solis vere fidelibus constet Ecclesia, non posse non consequi, illam eatenus invisibilem fore; ruere etiam infallibilitatem, cum admixti magno, & plerumque potiori numero, hypocrita & impii suffragiis pios & fideles superare possint. Agnovisse hoc Bellarminum libro allegato c. 10. & ideo tanto molimine pro visibilitate a Romanarum partium scriptoribus pugnari, ne admissa Protestantium opinione, infallibilitatis inventum cadat. Nihilomagis satisfacit Claudio alia Bossueti mitigatio, cum scribit, electos magis essentialem partem Ecclesiæ constituere: nam etiam sic ad partem, minoris licet æstimationis, attamen essentialem referri reprobos, hostes DEI, & membra diaboli, iisque autoritatem in rebus fidei infallibilem absurdissime tribui, & zizania ab hoste seminata (Matth. XIII, 28.) plantis a Patre cœlesti plantatis (Matth. XV, 13.) exæquari.

Pergit post alia huc pertinentia, ad Reflexionem decimam. In hac negaverat Episcopus, Reformatos credere sincera fide articulum Symboli Apostolici, ubi profitemur: Credo in unam sanctam Catholicam seu universalem Ecclesiam. Hic repetit Claudius ex responsione sua Epistolica, quo sensu Reformati universalem credant Ecclesiam, nempe fidelium primo qui fuerunt, & jam in cœlis triumphant; dein eorum, qui nunc sunt; denique eorum, qui futuri sunt: quorum primi & ultimi, pro visibilibus haberi ne a Romanensibus quidem possint.

ſint. At hos illam ſaltem confiteri Eccleſiam, quæ nunc eſt, & quæ in oculos incurrit, malos non minus quam bonos complectens. Objecit autem Boſſuetus Confeſſionem Reform. Gall. Art. 25. quæ de viſibili Eccleſia, utpote corrupta & reformanda agit, & ex actis Synodi Gapenſis ac Rupellanæ deducere voluit, controverſum inter ipſos Reformatos fuiſſe, annon corrigi & explicari articulus ille debeat, ut ad inviſibilem Eccleſiam pertineat: hoc vero rejectum eſſe, atque ita manifeſtatum, confiteri Reformatos eccleſiam viſibilem, & confeſſioni ſuæ contradicere, ſi inviſibilem ſtatuant. Sed repellit hæc Claudius allata diſtinctione, quatenus nempe inviſibilis vel viſibilis dicatur Eccleſia: nec chimæricum eſſe, ut Epiſcopus loquitur, dogma de inviſibilitate, cum id ratione partium, triumphantis nempe & futuræ Eccleſiæ, ne a Pontificiis quidem negari poſſit. Elidit etiam argumentationem, quam decretoriam & internecinam Reformatorum ſententiæ eſſe ſcripſerat Boſſuetus, inferens: quia Confeſſio Reformatorum publica de Eccleſia viſibili loquatur, & vocem Eccleſiæ in illo ſignificatu ſumat, agnoſci etiam debere, quod Scriptura & Symbolum Apoſtolicum eodem ſenſu ſumant idem vocabulum, quia confeſſio cum Scriptura conformis eſſe debet. Reſpondet nempe: Scripturam utrumque ſenſum diverſo reſpectu admittere, & aliquando de viſibili, aliquando de inviſibili cœtu intelligi debere, pro materiæ & ſubjecti ratione. Confeſſores cum de viſibili ſententiam ſuam conciperent, non negaſſe, ſed præſuppoſuiſſe, quæ in Scriptura & Symbolo de inviſibili Eccleſia habentur, eaque de cauſa Rupellanam Synodum, quam Boſſuetus allegat, noluiſſe quidquam in verbis Confeſſionis mutare; acquieſcentibus, qui in Synodo Gapenſi declarationem quandam deſideraverant.

Reflexione undecima acceptaverat Boſſuetus, quod Claudius præter aut contra Reformatorum principia viſibilem Eccleſiam agnoviſſet. Sed regerit Claudius, nihil novi a ſe dictum ſcriptumve eſſe, ſed idem, quod Calvinus, Zuinglius, aliique ſemper ſtatuerint: notionem nempe vocabuli Eccleſiæ duplicem eſſe, indiſtinctam, laxam ſive benignam unam; diſtinctam & reflexivam alteram. Priori modo Eccleſiam intelligi viſibilem, ex viſibili exercitio cultus publici, ſed admixtos eſſe hypocritas; dici tamen poſſe: in hoc cœtu vera eſt Eccleſia Chriſti; quia dubitari non debet, eſſe electos in cœtu, ubi verbum DEI prædicatur, etſi non fiat ſine corruptela, & plurimi adsint hypocritæ. At secundo & accuratiori sensu, quo soli electi intelliguntur, invisibilem esse Ecclesiam, quia eorum personas seu individua solus Deus noverit. Addit, hæc ordinarie sese ita habere, fuisse tamen & esse posse tempora, cum Ecclesia, etiam priori sensu accepta, pene invisibilis fiat, sive eclipsin patiatur, sublato per tyrannos cultu publico, aut corruptis per hypocritas & malos dogmatibus. Etsi vero hoc accidat, & zizania bonam segetem ita superent, ut eam plane opprimere videantur, manere tamen divinæ providentiæ gratia, vi verbi & Spiritus, etiam sub tali statu, & sub ministerio & manibus falsorum quoque doctorum electos, & consequenter veram Ecclesiam, nec infringi promissionem Christi, de illa ad finem mundi conservanda.

Consectanea sunt, quæ ad Reflexionem duodecimam disputantur. Bossuetus enim statuit, respexisse Christum, conservationem Ecclesiæ promittendo, ad totum illud compositum, sive ad cœtum ex bonis & malis mixtum, adeoque promissionem illam ad totam illam mixturam pertinere; argumentatus a comparatione, quod Christus messem conservaturus sit, in qua cum granis paleæ quoque serventur. Summe hæc improbat Claudius: neque enim quadrare comparationem ait, quia paleæ granorum causa a natura producantur, hypocritæ a diabolo ut zizania seminentur; nec recte dici, in promissione servandæ Ecclesiæ etiam conservationem malorum contineri, id est, simul promitti; quum intentio & promissio Dei solos fideles respiciat, mali per accidens, permittente Deo, in cœtum veniant, & divina providentia & gratia præcaveatur, ne illi fidelibus exitio sint. Deinde non perpetuum aut certum mixtionis statum, sed variabilem pro temporum ratione indicari: ita fieri potuisse, & factum esse, ut tanta invehatur corruptionis moles, quæ magna & seria reformatione corrigenda sit; neque tamen minus vera maneat de conservatione Ecclesiæ, sive fidelium, Christi promissio. Queritur in fine hujus capitis de convitio, quod Reformati non majori fide Ecclesiam credere dicantur, quam Ariani & Sociniani Deitatem Christi, aut Macedoniani Spiritum Sanctum: recte enim credi a Reformatis & visibilitatem, & invisibilitatem Ecclesiæ, diverso ut dictum est respectu.

Reflexione decima tertia Bossuetus plurima argumenta congesserat, quibus vult probare, Reformatis nullam salutis copiam, nisi in Eccle-

Ecclesia Romana supersesse. Hæc in XXI. capitula digessit & refutavit Claudius, quæ referre nimis operosum foret. Disputatur hic de professione fidei externa; de successione pastorum, eorumque vocatione; de Concilio Tridentino, an exspectari debuerint ejus decreta, & interim contra conscientiam per tot annos in erroribus persisti; de lapsu Ecclesiæ; de statu Ecclesiæ ante reformationem, ejusque comparatione cum statu Synagogæ adveniente Christo. Refertur dilemma Bossueti: aut mansit ante reformationem Ecclesia, & sufficientia alimenta animabus superfuerunt, quod fatetur Claudius & Reformati; aut non mansit. Si prius, quid opus fuit reformatione, & quomodo excusatur schisma? Si posterius, quomodo consistit promissio Christi de conservanda Ecclesia? Subjungitur responsio Claudii eo tendens, quod incumbat Christianis, non persistere in qualicunque morbido & corrupto, ac fere desperato Ecclesiæ statu, sed teneri optimum quærere, & a fermento doctrinam & mores repurgare: ut factum est tempore Arianismi, qui totam Ecclesiam, paucissimis exceptis, oppresserat. Objecerat porro Episcopus, si salvari potuerint homines ante reformationem, cum nihil doceretur de justificatione ex sententia Lutheri, nec rejiceretur Missa, aut invocatio Sanctorum, salvari etiam posse post invecta hæc dogmata. Sed respondet Claudius: distinguendum esse inter dogmata negativa & positiva. Salutis enim fundamenta retineri positivis articulis, qui ante reformationem non negabantur: invecta quidem & addita fuisse hominum commenta, sed quæ pii tacite potuerint rejicere. Per reformationem vero commentitiis & insititiis illis dogmatibus negativos articulos oppositos fuisse, v. gr. justificationem ex fide, & imputationem justitiæ Christi, opinioni de merito operum, & de justitia inhærenti; dein purgatorium, sacrificium Missæ, invocationem Sanctorum, & alia ejusmodi prorsus negata fuisse, indeque obligatos, qui negarent, ut a communione affirmantium & falsa intrudentium discederent. Frustra itaque objici Reformatis, quod cum Socinianis, qui tamen positiva, id est, Symbolum Apostolicum retinuerint, non communicent; nam hos non retinere articulos illos positivos, sed interpretationibus suis negare & eludere. Alia, licet notatu non indigna, omittimus.

Pergimus ad partem II. In hac, ut diximus, præmittitur Relatio

de colloquio a Claudio conſcripta, dein examen ſubjicitur octo reflexionum, quas ad eam Boſſuetus edidit. In prima agitur de juramento, quo paſtores Reformati obſtringuntur ad recipienda decreta Synodorum nationalium; unde concludere voluit Epiſcopus, Reformatos judicium Eccleſiæ agnoſcere,& mala fide agere, cum id apud Romano-Catholicos impugnent, aut frivole jurare, ſi in juramento illo,ut Claudius dicit,intelligatur conditio, ſi decreta ſint conformia Sacris literis. Hanc tamen interpretationem prolixe tuetur Claudius. Reflexionem ſecundam itidem refellit,in qua Boſſuetus mire exagitavit Reformatos, quod etiam unius hominis aut fœmellæ judicium admittant, ad examinanda ſynodorum & conciliorum decreta,quaſi melius, quam cœtus & Prælatorum conſeſſus,privatus aliquis de religione ſentire poſſit. Ait enim, Dei donum eſſe, etiam ſimpliciſſimis a Chriſto promiſſum, non hominis induſtriam, veritatem agnoſcere ex propoſitis Scripturæ principiis: obligari autem ſingulos, ut ipſi ea gratia fruantur, & judicent, nec aliena autoritate aut fide nitantur. Neminem tamen cum inſolenti præjudicio, quaſi magis aliis ſaperet, ad examinanda decreta Eccleſiaſtica accedere debere, ſed ut agnita veritate Scripturis conformi ſeſe ſubmittat, & lubens ſciensque obediat. Multa hac occaſione diſceptantur de ſtatu Synagogæ tempore Chriſti. Nec dimoveri ſe per objectiones Boſſueti patitur Claudius a ſententia, cum dixit ſcripſitque, ſecundum principia Pontificia nihil imputari poſſe Judæis, qui decreta Synagogæ, Chriſti doctrinæ prætulerint. Nam etſi minime neget, Chriſtum omnis veritatis fontem, in carne præſentem, doctrina & miraculis ſuis fidem præ Synagoga meruiſſe, & apud pios & ſimplices aſſecutum eſſe; ſtante tamen regula, quam Boſſuetus ſemper aſſerit, quod privatis non liceat, neque de doctrina neque de miraculis judicare, non licuiſſe etiam de Chriſto, cujus divinitas in controverſiam vocabatur, judicare, aut ei contra Synagogæ decreta adhærere. Quinque ſequentibus capitibus agitur de Reflexione Epiſcopi III, IV, V, VI, & VII, hoc præcipue argumento, magna cum jactatione, Reformatis oppoſito, quod ſecundum illos tempus detur, in quo Chriſtianus (cum periculo ſcilicet damnationis) dubitare teneatur, de Scriptura, de Deo, omnibusque fidei articulis. Ait enim, neminem certum eſſe poſſe fide divina, ex ſententia Reformatorum, antequam tequam Scripturam legerit; neque dicere posse, licet baptizatus sit, & fidem infusam habeat, ego credo, sicut credo Deum esse, hunc librum esse verbum Dei. Sed in Ecclesia Romana omnes hoc dicere posse, ex autoritate Ecclesiæ, quia S. Scripturam ex manibus sive testimonio Ecclesiæ accipiant. Hunc enim primum fidei esse articulum, Credo Ecclesiam, scilicet cum autoritate infallibili de veritate testantem. Respondet ad hæc operose Claudius, & nihil hac argumentatione evinci posse ostendit: eandem enim Christiano, licet baptizato, (quicquid statuatur de fide infusa) restare difficultatem, quia demonstrandum sit, quid & ubi sit Ecclesia, & cur huic credi debeat; neque enim Biblia ab aliis quam parentibus, pastoribus, aut privatis, catechumeno tali offerri posse, quos pro Ecclesia habere, eorumque aut Ecclesiæ infallibilem autoritatem fide divina credere non teneatur, nisi prævia demonstratione. Negat itaque necesse esse, ut ab articulo de Ecclesia institutio hominis Christiani incipiat, aut fides aliunde, quam ex verbi auditu & operatione Spiritus S. accendatur; neque tamen semper requiri, ut lectio Scripturæ præcedat, sed sufficere, si ejus contenta ad salutem necessaria, per catechesin seu compendia percipiantur: hoc enim modo multa hominum millia, qui librum Scripturæ non viderint, salvari, ex allato Irenæi testimonio concedit. Dubitationem itaque neque vocandam, aut si verbis indulgendum sit, certe non damnabilem esse in homine, qui ad discenda religionis capita accedat: dubitare enim, qui de propositis perceptisque articulis ambigant; ignorare saltem, qui eos nondum perceperint, sed discere parati sint. Nullum certe alium discendi modum ordinarium a Deo præscriptum esse: eum vero, quem Pontificii per cœcam obedientiam exigunt, œconomiæ divinæ omnino adversari, dum hominum autoritatem pro divina supponit. Postremum quod Episcopus Reformatis Reflexione octava opposuit, quod nempe Reformati eodem modo, quo veteres hæretici, Ariani & Macedoniani, ab Ecclesia secesserint, frustra urgeri ait Claudius, nisi puritatem & infallibilitatem Ecclesiæ suæ probaverint. Nihil efficere argumenta, ab autoritate, antiquitate, aliisque externis toties deprompta; eadem enim a Judæis & paganis Christianismo nascenti opposita fuisse. Omnia pendere a reali & interna dogmatum veritate, illique insistendum, & ab erroribus discedendum esse, nulla temporis aut autoritatis præscriſcriptione attenta. Negat etiam, quod Boſſuetus ſtatuit, Apoſtolos in communione cum Synagoga, corrupta licet, perſtitiſſe; id enim ex eo non ſequi, quod in templum aſcenderint docendi populum cauſa, aut aliquando in gratiam infirmorum, ritus quosdam ſervaverint. Nec magis verum eſſe ait, quod quemadmodum ad reformandam Judaicam Synagogam Chriſto præſente opus fuerit, ita ſine ejusdem præſentia, aut extraordinario atque mraculoſo modo, ad reformationem Eccleſiæ Chriſtianæ procedi non potuerit. Præſentia enim Chriſti opus fuiſſe ad finiendam Eccleſiam typicam; ſed quæ ei ſucceſſerit, Chriſtianam, corpus & rem ipſam absque typo habere, & æternam eſſe, eandemque in eſſentialibus manere, etſi externa ejus facies hypocritarum culpa corrumpatur. Ideo ad ejus emendationem, ſive hypocritarum detectionem, nihil niſi regulam verbi divini, & Spiritus S. operationem requiri. Hujus ope jamdudum correcta eſſe veterum quoque Doctorum errata. Nam ut ex teſtimoniis, etiam Romanenſium, probat, primis quoque Eccleſiæ ſeculis multas opiniones irrepſiſſe, quæ poſtea merito emendatæ fuerunt. Quam inique itaque erroneārum ſententiarum correctoribus oppoſita fuiſſet, circa tempora Concilii Niceni, aut poſtea, novitatis exceptio, tam inique etiam nunc opponi Reformatoribus, & qui eos ſecuti ſunt, quod errores tandem eliminaverint, & ſeceſſionem fecerint a cœtibus, qui decreta ſua prætextu infallibilitatis violenter exequebantur.

nis autor hic, Gilbertus Burnetus. Utut enim incredibili fere consiliorum & rerum gestarum mole & varietate reformatio Religionis, seculo superiori in Anglia processerit; reperti tamen, ut Burnetus queritur, non sunt, qui acta cujusque temporis, præsentes ipsi & conscii, qua par erat, industria & fide, in commentarios retulerint, aut quam Sleidanus Germanis, Thuanus Gallis, Paulus Sarpius Italis præstiterunt, patriæ suæ operam impenderint. Nominat aliquos, qui id tentarunt, Foxium, Parkerum, Hallum, Fullerum, Heylinum, alios: non dissimulat tamen neglecta cuique aut errata. Unum laudat Historici officio recte functum Illustrem Herbertum, sed qui Ecclesiastica leviter attigerit. Sibi vero post tot annorum decursum, præter peregrinitatem, (in Scotia enim natus est,) diu obstitisse fatetur actorum authenticorum & sumtuum inopiam. Sed postquam ab illustribus & præstantissimis viris, inter quos nominat Grimstomium, Boilium, Petitum, Cottonum, Stillingfletium, adjumenta acceperit, notitiam scil. legum & consuetudinum Anglicarum & Actorum publicorum, manuscripta plurima, aditum ad scrinia Episcoporum Cantuariensia & Londinensia, liberalem etiam sumtuum suppeditationem: tum vero se opus hoc magna spe aggressum, fidem autem qua tantas res tractaverit, apparituram esse ait ex instrumentis actorum, quæ locis convenientibus allegata, in fasciculum conjecit, & historiæ subjunxit. Neque tamen diffitetur, plenius rectiusque isthæc omnia in tempore, quæ gesta sunt, scribi potuisse; tum quod multa a præsentibus observentur, quæ nemo in acta referat, tum quod hæc ipsa variis casibus subjecta sint. Comperisse certe, dum Archiva perlustraret, quod regnante & jubente Maria, Bonerus Episcopus Londinensis, acerrimus Reformatorum persecutor, cum aliis ejusdem animi hominibus, pessimo exemplo, & indicis purgatorii violentiam superante, scrinia regia pervestigaverit, & quæ rei Pontificiæ nocere putabat, aboleverit: dein quod in magno incendio urbis Londinensis, ante annos octodecim, multa ex Archivis Episcopalibus fuerint consumta, quorum lacunæ, deficientibus nempe actis authenticis, ex nuda autorum relatione non satis tuto repleantur. Hæc in præfatione, memorante Burneto. Non potest non laudari relatum ab ipso, (libro hujus historiæ III. p. 367. & seq.) Henrici Regis consilium, quamvis eventu destitutum. Non ingratum erit Lectoribus id ex Burneti verbis intelligere: Illo tempore (anno 1539, cum de reditibus monasteriorum a Rege abolitorum, bene impendendis deliberaretur,) oblatæ fuerunt Regi multæ propositiones, de novis fundationibus ipso dignis, quas utique fecisset, nisi per inconsultas largitiones reditus illos jam exhausisset. Suadebant inter alia, ut Collegium aliquod erigeretur, in quo juvenes in lingua Latina & Græca, ut & in jurisprudentia civili informarentur. Delegarat Rex curam rei Nicolao Bacono equiti, qui postea ex præcipuis regni ministris fuit, & duobus aliis. Hi collatis consiliis, sententiam suam scripto explicarunt, videri sibi dicentes, ut juvenes in collegium istud recipiendi, scholares Regis appellarentur, & primum declamationibus Græcis & Latinis, causisque dicendis exerciti, ætate jam firmiores in regiones peregrinas mitterentur, Legatorum Regiorum comites; ita negotiorum publicorum, & quæ populorum singulorum utilitates sint, peritos fore, ut aliquando cum excellenti fructu ministeriis status præfici possint. Quibusdam ex illis committendum, ut relationes Legatorum & negotia in scripta redigerent, aliis, ut illustriores in judiciis regiis lites consignarent, præstito ubique juramento de fide & integritate. Sed magnum hoc propositum, pergit Autor, incassum recidit, non sine insigni jactura. Nam si seminarium hoc historicum semel recte constitutum fuisset, non jam multitudine ineptorum & pessimorum scriptorum obrueremur, qui nobis seculi istius gesta tam negligenter & imperfecte tradiderunt, ut continuo ad Acta recurrendum sit. Sed illi liquidius pleraque ad nos transmisissent, quæ nunc post expilata, uti dictum, Archiva Regia & destructa monasteria frusta quæruntur. Erant enim in monasteriis, qui res cujusque temporis in Chronica referrent, homines quidem ut plurimum præjudiciis imbuti, & fabulis vilibusque narratiunculis componendis, quam causis & eventibus rerum commemorandis aptiores, homines præterea invincibili mentiendi studio corrupti, quoties id religionis & ordinis sui commodum exigebat: neque tamen plane carebant monasteria ingeniosis viris, & Abbates, qui in comitiis sive Parlamentis regni locum habebant, & negotiorum publicorum satis gnari erant, suppeditare actorum & rerum copiam scriptoribus poterant. Hæc ille; quæ si excitare summas Potestates possent, ut consilium saluberrimum imitarentur, nec sumtibus in re tam egregia parcerent, tum demum sperare liceret, perventuram ad posteros, majori cum fide & fructu, rerum memo-memoriam, quam ad nos perlata eſt, aut quotidie conſignatur ab iis, quibus nec doctrina, nec integritas adeſt, quæ ad laborem talem requiritur: dum aliis, quibus nec induſtria, nec experientia aut fides deeſſet, otium deeſt & ſumtus. Sed ex digreſſione hac ad autorem noſtrum redimus.

Complexus is eſt parte operis ſui prima Henrici VIII. Regis Angliæ geſta, poſtquam is conjugii cum Catharina Arragonia fratris vidua, ſive ob conſcientiæ ſtimulum, ſive aliis de cauſis pertæſus, divortii indulgentiam apud Romanum Pontificem nullo obſequio aut ære redimere potuit, indeque permotus eſt, ut abrogata Pontifici in regnum Angliæ omni poteſtate, ſeipſum caput Eccleſiæ non minus, quam Politiæ faceret. Ea occaſione, licet veteris religionis ſcita retenturum ſe profiteretur, multa tamen, adjuvantibus miniſtris, qui reformandæ Religioni, diſſimulanter quidem, incumbebant, inprimis Thoma Cromwello & Thoma Cranmero, illo Vices gerente, (ut vocabatur,) hoc Archiepiſcopo Cantuarienſi, molitus eſt, per quæ dogmata Romana plurima correctionem paſſa ſunt, & gubernatio Eccleſiæ mutata, ſecutæque poſtea pleniori reformationi via ſtrata fuit. Quanto vero hæc cum periculo & exitio multorum egregiorum virorum & hominum variæ conditionis, plerumque pro lubitu Regis, modo in hanc, modo in illam partem ſævientis, ab anno 1527 usque in annum 1546 geſta fuerint, ex multis quidem autoribus ſatis notum eſt, ſed concinnius prudentiusque, imo ſi allegata documenta, quæ tertium hujus operis tomum, vel appendicem ſecundi conſtituunt, narratis reſpondent, certiori fide tradita, vix alibi invenientur. Cura tamen fuit Burneto, ut quæ ſcriptores Pontificii odio reformationis contra Henrici Regis acta, & eorum, qui pro puriori religione ſupplicium paſſi ſunt, innocentiam tradiderunt, falſitatis ex Actis convincerentur. Cum vero Sanderus omnium mordaciſſime adverſus Regem & reformatores ſcripſerit, ejusque hiſtoria Italice a Pollino, Gallice a Malacrucio verſa extet, multisque imponat, ſingularem operam Burnetus impendit, ut falſo & maligne a Sandero tradita refutarentur. Ea propter in fine tomi hujus primi index CXXIII capitum, in quibus ille erraſſe & male verſatus eſſe perhibetur, adjectus eſt. Sincerus & liber eſt Burnetus, tam in vitiis, quam in virtutibus Henrici referendis, cum plerique ſcriptores, prout quisque affectus fuit, modum exceſſerint. Eandem moderationem in laude & vituperio miniſtrorum utriusque ordinis & religionis tenuit : Cranmerum tamen ob pietatem & modeſtiam omnibus præferens. Merentur inprimis legi, quæ de martyrio eorum, qui ob religionis a Luthero reformatæ profeſſionem, ſub hoc Rege Henrico, vel eodem fere tempore in Scotia, crudeliter necati fuerunt, recenſentur, inter quos eminent in Anglia Robertus Barneſius, cui Lutherus, edita mortis ejus hiſtoria, additaque epicriſi anno 1540. quodammodo parentavit, ut videre licet Tom. VII. Oper. Altenburg. fol. 422. in Scotia vero Patricius Hamiltonus. Hujus conſtantia permotus Alexander Alexius, ſive Aleſius Edinburgenſis, vir nobilis & doctus, Lutheraniſmum amplexus eſt, variasque perſecutiones paſſus, in Germaniam tandem confugit, atque in Academia hac noſtra Lipſienſi Profeſſoris munus adeptus, eoque magna cum laude, bis etiam Rectoratu functus eſt, atque anno 1565. obiit. De cujus vita peculiaris oratio extat viri clariſſimi & de Academia noſtra meritiſſimi Jacobi Thomaſii, quæ in volumine varii argumenti orationum anno 1683. edito, & a nobis menſe illius anni Aprili pag. Act. 152 memorato, numero decima quarta eſt. Narrat quidem Burnetus, cum Aleſio Lipſiam veniſſe, eodemque profeſſionis munere honoratum fuiſſe civem ejus, Johannem Fife, ſed de hoc nihil hnc uſque in Actis Academicis reperire potuimus. Parum abeſt, ut pro illo habeamus, quem in Memorandis Francofurtanis ad Viadrum Becmannus p. 74. memorat, Johannem Fidelem Scotum, Phil. & Theol. Doctorem & Prof. qui anno 1551 Rectoratum geſſit & anno 1562 deceſſit; quanquam non ſatis apparet, cur Fidelis potius quam Fife, ut a Burneto nominatur, vocari voluerit. Cæterum Henrici tempore, Lutheri potius quam Helveticorum aut Gallorum doctrinam, præſertim in Articulo de præſentia corporis Chriſti in S. cœna, ab Anglis reformatis acceptam fuiſſe, ipſique Cranmero diu probatam, aliunde conſtat, nec a Burneto negatur: qui etiam memorat, primum in Anglia fuiſſe quendam Johannem Frith, qui præſentiam, quæ realis ſive corporalis vocatur, negaverit, ita tamen, ut doceret, quod hodie quoque non pauci ex Reformatis faciunt, non eſſe diſputandum de hac quæſtione, ſed tolerandum diſſenſum in theoria, dummodo in praxi nihil inferat incommodi, & ab adoratione Sacramenti abſtineatur. Hujus Frithii hiſtoria & ſuppliſupplicium anno 1534. legitur lib. II. hujus Operis p. 239. & ſeqq. ejusque ſcripta (Anglica, ut putamus, lingua) edita notantur anno 1573. Sed hæc & alia, quæ ſententiæ aut actionibus Lutheri, quamvis non immodeſte, alicubi in hoc opere opponi videntur, hic non examinamus: optamus potius, ut ſecundus hiſtoriæ Tomus cum adjectis ei documentis propediem ad nos perveniat, ſuccedente, quem interpres Gallus in ſe recepit, labore: de quo notabile eſt, quod verſionem ejus revidiſſe & probaſſe ſe teſtatur ipſe Burnetus, in Epiſtola ad Roſemondum Tomo huic primo præmiſſa. Debet pleraque huic Scriptori, eumque allegat Autor Hiſtoriæ Parallelæ, ubi de reformatione Anglicana agit, quam Actis anno 1683 p. 530. inſeruimus.

Excerpta e Transaction. Angl. n. 148, menſ. Junii 1683.

QUum tantam navigantibus utilitatem exacta notitia variationis Magneticæ (ſive deflexionis acus a vero Meridiano) promittat, ad eam non immerito ſumma opera contendunt eruditi. Sed nemo ex omnibus eo hactenus pervenit, ut generalem regulam formare potuerit, quæ non uni tantum civitati ac regioni, ſed toti univerſo, ac ſingulis ejus partibus quadret. Vicit multorum ſtudium clariſſimi Halleji induſtria, qui collectis per viros fide dignos declinationibus acus, in locis aliquot haud parum a ſe invicem remotis, dare anſam hujus ſeculi Philoſophis voluit, ut vel tandem rem maxime impeditam explicare allaborarent.

1. Quod in omni Europa variatio hoc tempore ſit Occidentalis, & magis quidem in partibus ejus, quæ verſus orientem jacent, quam quæ occidentaliores ſunt; quodque omnino in eam plagam augeri videatur.

2. Quod ad oram Americæ prope Virginiam, novam Angliam & terram noviſſime detectam, variatio itidem ſit in occidentem, & quod ita ſemper augeatur, ſi quis inde in ſeptentrionem eat, ut adeo declinatio 20 graduum ſit in terra noviter inventa, 30 fere graduum in freto Hudſonii, & 57 in ſinu Baffini: quodque navigando ab hoc tractu in orientem variatio minuatur. Harum duarum theſium legitimum eſt corollarium: alicubi inter Europam & ſeptentrionalem Americæ partem, orientalem variationem eſſe, vel ſaltem occidentalem nullam. Id quod ita fieri videtur in orientaliſſima Inſularum Terciarum ſive Azorium.

3. Quod ad oram Braſiliæ ſit variatio in Orientem, quæ ad ſenſum augeatur, ſi quis in Auſtrum pergat; ut ad promontorium Frio ſit omnino graduum 12, & ex adverſo fluminis Plata 20 gr. cum dimidio. Quodque ſi in occidentem hybernum verſus fretum Magellanicum navis eat, decreſcat variatio ad 17, & ad introitum occidentalem freti ad 14 usque gradus.

4. Quod in parte Braſiliæ proprie ſic dictæ orientali, iſta variatio verſus orientem decreſcat, ut minutiſſima ſit in inſula S. Helenæ & Aſcen-

& Aſcenſionis, ac prorſus evaneſcat, punctumque pyxidis exactum ſit, 18 fere gradibus longitudinis in Occidentem a Capite Bonæ Spei.

5. Quod in parte Orientali nominatorum locorum variatio occidentalis incipiat, quæ in toto Mari Indico continuatur, ac ad 18. gradus adſcendit ſub æquatore ipſo prope meridianum ſeptentrionalium partium inſulæ Madagaſcar, ac in eodem meridiano, ſed 39 gradu latitudinis auſtralis, invenitur omnino graduum 27 cum dimidio. Quod inde verſus orientem variatio occidentalis minuatur, ut ad Promontorium Comorinum parum admodum 8 gradus excedat, trium vero ſit ad oram Javæ. Porro quod ad inſulas Moluccas, ut & aliquando verſus occidentalem partem terræ a Batavis anno 1642 detectæ, quam vocant van Diemens, prorſus extinguatur.

6. Quod ad orientem Moluccarum & terræ van Diemens in latitudine Auſtrali alia variatio orientalis exurgat, attamen nec tanta, quanta prior illa, nec adeo longe diffuſa. Ad inſulam enim Roterodamum multo eſt minor, quam ad oram Guineæ novæ orientalem: & pro ratione, qua decreſcit, ſupponi omnino poteſt, quod ad 20 gradus verſus orientem, ſive 125 gradibus longitudinis orient. a Londino in 20 latitudinis Auſtralis gradu variatio occidentalis incipiat.

7. Quod variationes obſervatæ per Honorabilem Dominum Johannem Norborogium in Baldivia & ad occidentalem ingreſſum freti Magellanici clare oſtendant, variationem orientalem, cujus notabili tertio meminimus, ſubito decreſcere, & non poſſe ad plures gradus in Borealem Oceanum ab ora Peruviæ, & Chili extendi, eamque relinquere locum occidentali variationi perexiguæ in eo terræ incognitæ tractu, qui inter Chili ad novam Selandiam, interque inſulam Canum ac Peru interjacet.

8. Quod dum ab inſula S. Helenæ juxta inſulam Adſcenſionis verſus occidentem æſtivum ad æquatorem usque itur, variatio exigua ſit in orientem & quaſi ſemper eadem; ut adeo in iſta mundi parte tractus ille, in quo nulla obſervatur variatio, non ſit meridianus, ſed potius inter boream & occidentem extendatur.

9. Quod cum ingreſſus freti Hudſonii, & os fluminis Plata propemodum ſub eodem ſint Meridiano, in uno tamen loco acus 29½ gradibus in occidentem declinet, in altero 20½ gradibus in orientem variet. Atque hoc clare probat, non posse variationes has cum Theoria Bondi conciliari, quæ duos polos magneticos cum axe ad axem terræ inclinato supponit. Inde enim sequeretur, sub eodem Meridiano variationem ubique in eandem plagam esse.

Hæc omnia fundamenti loco esse Hallejus pronunciat, cui Theoria quædam variationis inædificetur. Postquam igitur aliqua in sententia Gilberti ac nonnulla in Cartesii doctrina de Magnete notavit, hanc generalem omnium observationum regulam statuit: Universum globum Terræ unicum esse magnetem, qui quatuor polos magneticos sive puncta attractiva habeat, duo ad quemvis polum æquatoris; & in illis mundi partibus, quæ parum ab aliquo horum polorum distant, acum ab ipso dirigi, ita, ut, qui proximus est, alterum remotiorem superet. Loca equidem terræ, in quibus siti sunt poli magnetici, non satis accurate definiri posse fatetur, quod nondum habeantur tot data, quot opus sit ad Geometricam operationem. Quantum autem conjectura assequi liceat, polum, qui nunc proximus nobis sit, septem fere gradibus ab Arctico polo, in Meridiano, qui extremam partem terræ firmæ sive continentis Angliæ (quod est promontorium Geographis Bolerium dictum) transit, distare existimat. Ab eo monet acum inflecti in Europa, Tartaria, inque oceano septentrionali, sed ita, ut omnino respectus ad alterum polum habeatur, cujus situatio sit in meridiano, qui mediam Californiam transit, 15 gradibus a polo arctico mundi. Huic polo, juxta ipsum, potissimum in America Septentrionali, & in utroque oceano adjacente, ab Azoribus usque ad Japan acus magnetica paret. Duos polos Meridionales observat longius ab Antarctico mundi polo abesse. Alterum fere 16 gradibus, quem acus sequatur in America meridionali, in mari pacifico, ac magna parte oceani æthiopici: Alterum ad 20 gradus usque, cujus potentia sit omnium maxima, quippe in septentrionali Africa se se exercens, in Arabia, mari rubro, Persia, India, ejusque Insulis, in toto itidem mari Indico a Capite Bonæ Spei, ad medium magni maris meridionalis, quod Asiam ab America divellit. Hanc de quatuor polis terræ Magneticis sententiam Hallejus explicat & confirmat ex observationibus in præmissa tabula notatis, ac difficultates, quæ in aliis aliorum assertis solvi non poterant, removet. Cum polus Europæus septentrionalis juxta suppositionem sit in meridiano, qui extremitatem

terræ continentis Angliæ transit, clarum hinc esse ait, omnes partes, illa Angliæ portione orientaliores polum hunc ad occidentale latus sui meridiani habere, acumque adeo, quæ septentrionali puncto suo ipsum respicit, in occidentem declinare, tanto magis, quanto quis in orientem porro progrediatur, usque dum ad Meridianum Russiæ ventum fuerit, ubi variationem maximam esse pronunciat. Ad occidentale latus extremæ partis terræ continentis Anglicæ acum fatetur in orientem vergere debere, cum tamen levis potius declinatio in occidentem observetur, id quod ex hac ratione ita contingere censet, quoniam Americanus polus septentrionalis propius distet, qui ad latus occidentale meridiani sit, & haud dubie Europæum viribus agendi vincat. Jubet igitur imprimis ad situm polorum respicere, cumque alter altero fortior sit, conferre ipsorum vim, ut inde temperamentum aliquod exurgat. Hinc etiam esse scribit, quod loca sub eodem meridiano jacentia diversas in orientem ac occidentem declinationes acus Magneticæ observent. In zonis proinde temperatis ac frigidis duorum polorum ejusdem naturæ vim ait examinandam esse, & quomodo alter alterum in æquilibrio quasi teneat. In torrida zona ac imprimis sub æquinoctiali ad omnes quatuor vertendos esse oculos docet, ut qui proximus est, semper dominari judicetur, nisi duo remotiores junctis viribus ipsum aut superent, aut saltem æquent. Tandem de motu polorum sub finem scribit, si tabulam observationum quis inspiciat, ac declinationes, quæ in eodem loco, sed diverso tempore contigerunt, invicem conferat, videri polos motu suo in occidentem ferri. Quod si verum sit, rotationem haudquaquam circa terræ axem fieri concludit. Forent enim, ait, variationes in eodem parallelo latitudinis (sola longitudine immutata) eædem pro ratione motus polorum, cujus tamen contrarium experientia probat. In latitudine enim graduum $50\frac{1}{2}$ septentrionali hoc tempore inter Angliam & Americam nullibi acus in orientem 11. grad. declinat, prout id aliquando Londini observatum fuit. Adducitur ergo, ut credat, Europæum polum Arctico hodie propiorem esse, vel certe de sua virtute haud parum perdidisse. Cæterum agnoscit ad construendam Theoriam perfectam aliquot seculorum observationes requiri, optatque, ut ea, quæ ipse paucis dixit, ab aliis prolixe examinentur.

MEDULLA CHYMIÆ, VARIIS EXPERIMENTIS auctа multisque figuris illuſtrata. Autore Joh. Franc. Vigani Veronenſi.

Londini, apud Henr. Faithom & Joh. Kerſey, A. 1683. in 8.

SCriptum hoc, quod Gedani jam ante biennium typis excuſum eſt, nuper vero Londini duplo auctius, & figuris inſtructum prodiit, Lector Benevole, oculis ac judicio tuo exponimus, vix dubitantes, quin hunc libellum, mole equidem parvum, medulla tamen ſcatentem, cum Amico Autoris Londinenſi, qui Epiſtolam commendatoriam ipſi præfixit, pronunciaturus ſis. Poſt Chymiæ etymologiam, antiquitatem & objectum, & poſtquam Chymicorum hactenus recepta principia repudiavit, atomos vero ſub variis modificationibus adſtruxit Noſter, potiſſima & officinis uſualia magis ex tribus Regnis in ſcenam producit concreta, horumque ſimpliciora æque ac decompoſita producta, modos hæc parandi vulgares in multis taxans, alias exquiſitiores horum encheiriſes tradens, ſimulque furnos ſine ferro, ſine luto, fingere docens. Paucis quia multa complectitur, facile horum omnium enarratio ipſius libri compagem tranſcenderet, cum adeo ſuccincte, perſpicue tamen, ejus mentem multiloquam explicare haud liceat: ex uno vel alterro tantum augurabitur Lector ſagax, quid de integro opuſculo, quidque de ejusdem Scriptoris tractatu, de Lapide illius Magnetico lapidi Butleri quoad plurima conformi, aliisque, quæ promittit, ſcriptis ſperandum ſit. Noctilucam parandi duplicem exhibet modum; Petroleum artificiale ex Sale & Oleo communi parat, quod repetita ſuper Sal tartari cohobatione demum in aquam ardentem commutat; ſpiritum quendam perpetuo fumigantem, ſpiritum ſulphuris inſipidum, liquores ex omnibus floribus odoriferis bene olentes per deſtillationem deſcenſoriam, Tincturam tartari peculiarē (ſingulare oleorum ſolvens) Salia vegetabilium alcalica magis eſſentialia, ſal tartari volatile & Tincturam coralliorum, Tincturas itidem diverſorum metallorum & mineralium ſuppeditat. Ubi Sal aromaticum deſcribit, peculiarem & ſine deſtillatione hoc conficiendi rationem tradit, ita quidem, ut hoc vino Rhenano odorem & ſaporem Hiſpanici conciliet: oleum ſuccini craſſius in ſal volatile ac ſpiritum limpidum redigit;

git; ſuccinum ex ſuo Capite mortuo regenerat; pro genuino Elixir proprietatis myrrhæ ſingularem ſolutionem tradit; Cornu cervi ſine igne cum calce viva calcinat, ac Tincturam ex ſale urinæ fixo uſui medico æque ac metallico accommodatam extrahit. De cætero variorum phænomenorum chymicorum ætiologias evolvit, ac controverſias non leves dirimit, v.g. quod alcalia fixa revera differant; Cantharides ſuccum veſicatorium in inteſtinis & ſal volatile in pedibus habeant; unde Aurum a ſpiritu vitrioli philoſophico albeſcat; aliquid Mercurii butyro antimonii & Mercurio vitæ ſubeſſe; ſulphur antimonii vulgare haud eſſe purum ſulphur; cur ponderi antimonii per hujus infuſiones nihil decedat: ut reliquas materias taceamus theoretico non minus ac practico jucundas ac proficuas.

UNiverſa Ciceronis opera limatiora & emendatiora, quam unquam antehac, ut prodirent, exactoque ſtudio exculta ad ſtudioſorum eloquentiæ omnisque elegantiæ captum & uſum accommodarentur, allaborandum ſibi ſtatuit literarum non minus quam Belgii ornamentum Johannes Georgius Cracvius. Diſtinctis igitur tomis ea, quæ conjuncta & uni volumini incluſa prodire temporis ratio & vaſta materiæ moles vetabat, in publicum proferre conſtituit: exorſus ab Epiſtolarum ad diverſos exaratarum, quas vulgo familiares vocant, ſedecim voluminibus, quæ anno 1677. cum animadverſionibus ex ingenio & induſtria domi natis, & integris Petri Victorii, Pauli Manutii, Hieronymi Ragazonii, (ſive Caroli Sigonii) Dionyſii Lambini, Fulvii Urſini, Joh. Fred. Gronovii, aliorumque notis, duobus tomis edidit. Quos hoc anno ſecuta ſunt totidem volumina, eadem elegantia & ſimili cultu apparatuque prodita, quæ ſuperſtites ad Tit. Pomponium Atticum epiſtolas a Cicerone ſcriptas exhibent; nec inferiora doctiſſimo editori exiſtimata ſunt, quin Sereniſſimi Galliarum Delphini ſtudiis conſecrarentur, quod regiam ad doctrinam augendam non parum conferre poſſent. Res enim illorum temporum, quibus imperium orbis terrarum immutatum eſt, & vel everſa, vel certe converſa ea Reſpublica, quæ ita bonis legibus atque inſtitutis fundata erat, ut in perpetuum duratura, nec ulla hominum vi labefactanda videretur, non aliunde melius quam ex his libris cognoſci poſſunt: tum præterea Ciceronis admirabilis prudentia & ſcientia reipublicæ tractandæ nusquam ſe magis quam in his epiſtolis prodit. Sic enim omnia (quod Cornelius Nepos in vita Attici ait) de ſtudiis principum, de vitiis ducum, mutationibus reipublicæ perſcripta ſunt, ut nihil in iis non appareat, & facile exiſtimari poſſit, prudentiam quodammodo eſſe divinationem. Non enim Cicero ea ſolum, quæ vivo ſe acciderunt, futura prædixit, ſed etiam quæ poſtea uſu venerunt vecinit ut vates. Quæ ipſa hujus operis præſtantia eos, qui ſuperiori ſæculo primos in litteris ordines duxerunt, movit, ut quo quisque eorum doctior haberetur, eo plus operæ in his epiſtolis emendandis illuſtrandisque collocaret. In Italia quidem Petrus Victorius (cui omnia Ciceronis opera ſalutem debent & integritatem qua adhuc gaudent) & Paulus Manutius, Fulvius item Urſinus, Leonardus Malaſpina, & Sebaſtianus Corradus; in Gallia Dionyſius Lambinus, Antonius Goveanus, Adrianus Turnebus, Simeo Boſius; in Belgio Franciſcus Junius & Auſonius Popma, præ cæteris ita iis incubuerunt, ut præcipuam ſibi materiem gloriæ in eis integritati reſtituendis & illuſtrandis quæſiviſſe videantur, adhibitis omnibus ingenii, doctrinæ, induſtriæque præſidiis. Quorum cunctorum ſymbolas easque integras, colligendas, & diſtinctis nitidiſſimis formulis excuſos omnium virorum eruditorum commentarios, ipſis ſubjiciendos vel annectendos epiſtolis doctiſſimus Editor duxit. Iſaaci etiam Caſauboni ad priores ſeptendecim libri primi epiſtolas annotationes, a Merico filio per Jacobum Gronovium ſibi conceſſas, ejusdemque beneficio, collatas celeberrimi parentis Jo. Fred. Gronovii animadverſiones & obſervationes paſſim inſeruit; & ab eadem Jacobi Gronovii, ſagaciſſimi eruditiſſimique viri, induſtria obſervatas variantes lectiones veteris codicis Anglicani, quem in Collegio Balliolenſi is contulerat cum editis; ut & alterius Helmſtadienſis, quem Lucas Langermannus perluſtraverat, varias lectiones annotavit; adſperſis paſſim Marci Antonii Mureti notis, quas is ſuo codici adſcripſerat, deſcriptasque clariſſimo editori transmiſerant illuſtres Falconerii fratres. Tam erudito copioſoque apparatu, quem proprii ingenii feliciſſimo proventu mirum in modum auxit Editor, inſtructæ hæ ad Atticum, æque ac antea evulgatæ eundem in modum, ad diverſos exaratæ epiſtolæ, avidos reddunt elegantioris litteraturæ ſtudioſos, omnia Ciceronis reliqua opera eodem habitu exculta apparatuque inſtructa nanciſcendi: cumque ea exſpectare nos juſſerit de litterarum ſalute & gloria optime meritus

Calendis Septembris Anno M DC LXXXIV.

Francofurti ad Mœnum apud Frid. Knochium. 1684. in 4.

HGrotium primum fuiſſe, qui ſeculum ad nobiliſſimam ac utiliſſimam de J. N. & G. diſciplinam excolendam excitavit, in vulgus notum eſt. Sed cum ille in opere ſuo inſigni de J.B.& P. quædam præteriiſſet, quædam levi brachio attigiſſet, quædam denique admiſcuiſſet, quæ ipſum hominem fuiſſe arguunt, multi fuerunt, qui defectibus iſtis medicam quaſi manum adhibere tentarunt. Autor vero ampliſſimus publico egregio magis proficuum judicavit, ſi pro ingenio ſuo ac eruditione, qua pollet exquiſita, totam hanc diſciplinam in novam quaſi formam refingeret, ac materiis a Grotio omiſſis, aut obiter expoſitis, eo ordine pertractaret, quo ante eum alias nemo. Ideo ante hos duodecim annos Londini Scanorum octo libros de J.N. & G. evulgavit. Qui cum non ſine adplauſu excepti eſſent, atque divenditi, eosdem adornata nova hac editione augere, multaque in iis loca illuſtrare magis anniſus eſt. Primus liber περὶ παιδείας quandam ſeu diſciplinæ hujus præcognita continet, quibus, quæ ſit entium & actionum moralium indoles, exponitur. In ſecundo demonſtratur, ſtatui hominum non congruere vitam agere exlegem; itaque opus eſſe legibus, quæ omnibus hominibus certam vivendi normam præſcribant: has vero corrivari in ſocialitatem tanquam in legem naturæ fundamentalem doctiſſimus Autor tradit. Deinde primum præſtationes hominis adverſus ſeipſum, tam circa culturam animi, quam curam corporis & vitæ, eleganter ac fuſius, quam in prima hujus libri editione factum erat, deducere pergit.

Libro III. & IV. juſto ordine proponit officia, quæ homo alteri debet, facta illorum diſtinctione in abſoluta, quæ citra omne antegreſſum humanum inſtitutum omnes homines obligant, & hypothetica, quæ pactum expreſſum aut tacitum præſupponere videntur. Hinc expoſita natura pactorum & obligationum illis innixarum, libro V. de contractibus, qui pretia rerum præſupponunt, diſtincte & accurate agit. Tres ſequentes libri doctrinam politicam complectuntur. Nam Libro VI. de tribus primis ſocietatibus humanis, utpote ſine quibus origo & natura imperii humani nequit recte cognoſci, agit: libro VII. de civitatum cauſis, ſtructura, forma, ſummi imperii natura atque ſummorum imperantium officio exquiſite tractat: VIII. & ultimo potiſſimum jura majeſtatis, & unde mutatio ac interitus civitatum oriatur, exponit. Multas inſuper controverſias illuſtres non ubivis obvias dilucidat atque definit. Sub calcem index capitum & rerum præcipuarum adjectus eſt, qui earum ſummam exhibet.

HISTORIA VENETA DI ALESSANDRO MARIA Vianoli, Nobile Veneto.

hoc eſt,

Hiſtoria Veneta Alexandri Mariæ Vianoli Nobilis Veneti, cujus pars prima prodiit anno 1680, altera hocipſo 1684.

Venetiis apud Joh. Jacobum Herz. in 4.

CUm ad perfectæ Reipublicæ exemplum, omnium illorum judicio, qui civili prudentia valent, illuſtre Venetorum regimen quam proxime accedat, mirum equidem non eſt, quod tot e quavis ætate Scriptores hunc in ſe laborem tam promte ſuſceperint, ut ipſius originem ac incrementa, quibus potiſſimum tertio abhinc ſeculo ad vicinorum invidiam floruit, poſteritatis commodo explicarent. Quæ tamen Commentantium fœcunditas Autorem noſtrum a propoſito Res Venetas a primo urbis conditæ anno repetendi haud quaquam divertit, ſed calcar potius ipſi addidit, ut tanto alacrius cœpto operi inſiſteret, quanto facilius viam veritatis a tot tantisque ducibus monſtratam tenere ſe poſſe confidebat. Uſus autem eſt hac methodo, ut juxta imperantium ſeriem, qui antiquis temporibus Conſulum ac Tribunorum, exinde vero Ducum titulos geſſerunt, quicquid accidit memoria dignum,& eas cumprimis res geſtas, e quibus Veneta prudentia ſagacitasque eluxit,juſto ordine ſervato exponat.Ab ovo,quod ajunt,rem auſpicatus,Venetorum nomen abHenetis eſſe,qui caſtellum Cromnam apud Paphlagoniam a Trojanis oriundi tenebant, ſcribit, cumque illa gens Euganeis ſede pulſis plurima Fori Julii loca, & munitas arces inter Alpes ac mare pridem occupaſſet, ipſas autem poſtea venientibus in Italiam Gothis,Hunnis, & Longobardis relinquere cogeretur, tum complures familias ex terra continenti in inſulas ſe recepiſſe,ac ibidem pro tempore ædificia quædam ſtruxiſſe, quibus ubi alia paulatim acceſſerint,creviſſe Venetias & vicina loca maritima ad eam magnitudinem, ut civitatis & reipublicæ faciem oſtenderent. Regiminis forma, quantum cum ex aliis, tum maxime ex Autore noſtro diſcere licet, quinquies immutata fuit. Initio rerum penes Conſules erat imperium, qui quovis biennio creati id operam dabant, ut parvum adhuc ſubditorum numerum inſtitutis ac legibus paci potius quam bello accommodatis regerent. Eorum decem Autor memorat, non diſſimulans, ab aliis alia ac diverſa ab his quæ ipſe prodit, nomina illis tribui. Poſtquam vero plures in unum inſulæ coire ac ſocietatis vinculo jungi incipiebant,Tribunos eligere videbatur, qui ſingulis Inſulis annua autoritate præeſſent, ac ſi quid gravioris momenti ad publicam rem pertinens decernendum foret, in commune conſulerent. Hæc regiminis forma aliquanto diutius, quam iſta prior viguit. Verum cum Inſulæ nonnullæ Longobardorum Italiam vaſtantium barbariem experirentur,populus Tribunorum pertæſus, quaſi ipſorum crimine, quicquid ſentiebant mali, accidiſſet, Duces creare ſuffragiis, iisdemque ſummam rerum non per aliquot annos, ſed per omne vitæ tempus credere conſtituebat. Vix tamen tres ea dignitate functi erant, cum populus libertati ſuæ metuens Magiſtros Equitum quotannis ad Reipublicæ adminiſtrationem vocaret. Sed ut multitudinis genius mutabilis & ad varietatem ſemper pronus eſt, poſt quinque annos & adeo quinque Magiſtros Equitum, Duces iterum eligi cœperunt, idque demum conſtanti obſervatione ab anno 742 in hunc usque diem continuatum fuit. Interim regiminis nullam ab illo tempore factam fuiſſe mutationem,dici non pot-

eſt. Nam Principum primi & longe majori autoritate, quam ſequentes, (ut agnoſcit Contarenus,) pollebant, & populari voce, non ſuffragiis nobilium fiebant. Sunt, qui Venetos Duces a Theodato Ipatio, vel ut tres illos, qui ante Magiſtros Equitum regnarunt, ſimul complectamur, a Paulutio Anafeſto ad Vitalem uſque Michaelium II ſupremam & prorſus abſolutam in cives poteſtatem obtinuiſſe cenſent, eamque cauſam aſſignant tam frequentium conſpirationum ac tumultuum, qui ipſis regnantibus civitatem conquaſſarunt. Attamen, ſi quæ Autor noſter tradidit, antiquorum monumentorum fide, ut apparet nituntur, certum quidem eſt, aliquos illorum Principum tentaſſe, ut titulum ducalem vel regium familiæ ſuæ vendicarent, & cum hæreditate ad poſteros transmitterent; unde filios in ſocietatem imperii adſciſcere, ſibique ſucceſſores vivi nominare ſubinde ſtuduerunt, teſtibus Participatiis, Badoariis, Urſeolis: verum populus libertatis amans, & vigilantiſſimus cuſtos, fere ſemper duos Tribunos Conſiliariorum nomine Ducibus adjunxit, ne poteſtate abuterentur, ac civibus ſolam parendi gloriam relinquerent. Si quando Ducum ſpectatæ moderationis lateri hos Conſiliarios addere neglexerunt, ut factum Mauritio Galbagio fuiſſe Autor ſcribit, aliis ſuccedentibus, quibus non æque fidebant, eos iterum elegerunt; poſtremo etiam imperante Dominico Flabanico decretum publice fuit, ne ſucceſſores ſibi ipſis conſtituere ex illo tempore Ducibus integrum eſſet. Ad ejusdem Flabanici principatum originem Senatus Veneti, quem nunc vulgo Pregadi vocant, Vianoli refert. Ex quo apparet, & limitatam tunc Principum poteſtatem fuiſſe, & non demum ſub duodecimi ſeculi finem, ſed ſub undecimi medium jacta Ariſtocratiæ fundamenta, cum paulatim a populo ad Optimates res transferretur. De Ducis tamen electione, & Conſilii Magni inſtitutione Vitalis Michaelii II tempore lata lex fuit, & illa uſque ad Petrum Gradonicum ſtetit, qui tandem Reipublicæ formam feliciter immutavit, lege ipſius ſuaſu condita, ut cum antehac quotannis 480 viri e civium vaſta multitudine ad Reipublicæ clavum ſedilſent, exinde nulla amplius electio fieret, ſed quos proximis quatuor annis legi contigiſſet, illis perpetua eſſet hæc dignatio. Conſpiratum equidem idcirco bis in Gradonicum a civibus fuit, ſemper tamen detecti criminis autores pœnas temeritati ſuæ debitas dederunt.

Hactenus, quæ ad Regiminis Veneti modum pertinentia Autor habet. Tomo primo Operis præterea & augmenta potentiæ & decrementa, quas Veneti victorias obtinuerint, quas passi sint clades, sub 72 Ducibus ad Johannem Mocenicum usque, qui anno 1485 decessit, edisserit. Prolixus inprimis est in exponendo bello, quod cum Barbarossa pro Alexandro IIIReſpublica prosperrime sub auspiciis Sebastiani Ciami gessit. Fuerunt enim, qui rem totam in dubium vocare, ac Venetos falsitatis arguere non dubitarunt. Annotat etiam magno studio, quicquid ad Veneti nominis splendorem facere noverat. Sic in divisione Imperii inter Græcum & Francum, Nicephorum & Carolum M. memorat, quod & alii observarunt, lacus Venetos omissos, ac neutrius jurisdictioni assignatos fuisse. Adeoque clarum esse scribit, quod nunquam Imperio subfuerint, sed libertatem suam proprio Marte & arbitrio semper, non alienis viribus ac auspiciis defenderint. Tomus alter 34 Principes exhibet a Marco Barbadico usque ad Aloysium Contarenum, illum qui hoc ipso anno obiit, ac conspirantibus omnium votis successorem habuit Marcum Antonium Justinianum, cujus nomini Autor Operis sui secundam hanc partem dedicavit. Hic & Leonardus Loredanus sistitur, quo imperante maximis bellorum tempestatibus Respublica Veneta parum aberat quin everteretur. Postea Uscocchiorum originem evolvit, & damna vicinis partibus per ipsos illata prolixe enarrat, de quibus anno 1676 prodierunt Minutii & Pauli Sarpii historiæ, non ita pridem ex Italica in Gallicam linguam versæ a Domino Amelot de la Houssaie. Bellum porro cum Turcis pro Candia, imperantibus Francisco Ericio, Stephano Molino, Carolo Contareno, Francisco Cornelio, Bertuccio Valerio, Johanne Pisauro, & Dominico Contareno gestum late explicat, usus opera Baptistæ Nani, qui alteram Historiæ suæ Venetæ partem quinto adhinc anno publico dedit. In toto Opere cum Legatorum, tum belli Ducum, Principum & Consiliariorum orationes subinde Autor refert, officiumque & partes boni Historici satis explet, quantum videlicet potest a cive Reipublicæ Venetæ exspectari.

Pariſiis apud Barbinum, & Amſtelodami apud Wetſteinium 1684. in 12.

REs profecto miraculo ſimillima editione harum Epiſtolarum, & in narratione iis præmiſſa, exponitur: homo ſcil. Mahometanus, per annos quadraginta quinque in regia Lutetiæ urbe, ficta perſona & habitu latitans, & exploratoris operam infenſiſſimis Chriſtiani nominis hoſtibus impune præſtans. Nec minus mirum, quod natus inter Turcos aut Arabes, Latinas literas, dum captivus in Sicilia teneretur, ita didiciſſe dicitur, ut autores non vulgares, Senecam, Tacitum, ſanctum etiam Auguſtinum legere, & dum Pariſiis viveret, pro docto & Clerico haberi potuerit. Stant hæc fide interpretis Maranæ, qui ſe Genuæ natum dicit, & uti videtur, ſuſpicionem ſuppoſitionis, dedicatione opuſculi hujus Regi facta, impetratoque ab ejus Majeſtate privilegio Typographico, elidere voluit, & ad teſtimonium civis Pariſienſis, tacito tamen ejus nomine provocat, ſpecimen vero nunc tantum exhibet triginta Epiſtolarum anno 1637 & 1638 ſcriptarum, cum ultra quingentas ſe habere ſcribat, earumque edendarum ſpem faciat. Inveniſſe autem ſe Volumen illarum refert caſu mere fortuito, cum hoſpitium mutans, in angulo cubiculi chartas pulvere obſitas deprehenderet. Dein poſt cautam & diligentem exploration-nem, ex ædium domino comperiſſe, habitaſſe in domo illa annis octodecim hominem peregrinum, qui ſe Titum Moldavienſem nominaverit, ſtatura parva, facie deformi, habitu Clerici, moribus correctis ctis & pene ſanctis, quamvis non defuerint, qui Judaiſmi & Mahumediſmi ſuſpectum haberent; pecuniam & amicos nunquam ei defuiſſe; ſeptuaginta annos natum fuiſſe, cum narrare ſolitus fuerit, ſe anno 1637 Lutetiam veniſſe, juvenem tunc viginti octo annorum: quisquis vero fuerit, cum aliquando pro more anno 1682 domo egreſſus eſſet, nunquam rediiſſe, neque tamen præmeditatum abiiſſe videri, cum non ſolum chartas illas, ſed & pecuniæ aliquantum reliquerit: in flumen fortaſſe præcipitatum, aut alio inopinato caſu interiiſſe. Scrupulum movere poſſent inter alia, quæ alicubi in laudem Chriſtianæ religionis, & inprimis Romanæ, atq; in vituperium Reformatæ interſeruntur; nec non quod nihil literarum ex Turcia ad eum datarum ſimul repertum memoretur, quas tamen non minori diligentia, quam ſuarum epiſtolarum exempla cuſtodiviſſe virum, ut deſcribitur, callidiſſimum, probabile eſt. Verſionem, quod parum ſapiat ſtylum Arabicum, ita excuſat interpres, ut libertate ſe uſum eſſe dicat, rebus potius quam verbis inſiſtendi, & ineptias, titulorum præſertim & blanditiarum, quibus Orientales indulgent, reſtringendi. Materiam literarum quod attinet, quantum ex ſpecimine hoc judicari poteſt, ſatis fidelem & accuratam rerum in Gallia, & alibi inter Chriſtianos geſtarum notitiam & comparaſſe ſibi Mamutum hunc (hoc enim nomine ad ſuos utitur) & ad aulam Turcicam retuliſſe apparet. Et quamvis ea omnia ex ſcriptoribus noſtris uberius & certius intelligantur, non caret tamen utilitate narrationem illorum ex ore hoſtis & exploratoris cognoſcere. Inſigne vero documentum hinc capere poſſent Principes Chriſtiani de cavenda Turcorum vafritie. Si enim vera ſunt, quæ referuntur, fuerunt eodem tempore Viennæ Carcoa quidam Turcus, Genuæ Adonai Judæus, qui junctis cum hoc literarum commerciis, res in Germania, Italia, Gallia, vicinisque regionibus geſtas indagarent, & hoſtibus enuntiarent. Maximum vero impietatis Turcicæ (utinam non & inter Chriſtianos repertæ) documentum eſt, quod nebulo hic a ſummo Turcorum ſacerdote veniam habuiſſe ſe ſcribit, Chriſtianos ritus ſimulandi, pejerandi, & quicquid ad finem propoſitum expediret ſine peccati metu perpetrandi. Quo vero animo in Chriſtianos fuerit, quam acerbe plerumque eorum ſacra & mores irriſerit, quam lætitiam ex diſſidiis & bellis eorum ceperit, quæque inde incrementa rei Turcicæ auguratus fuerit, ex paucis

literis his prolixe colligitur. Hæ ſive veræ, ſive ingenioſe fictæ ſunt, (quod fortaſſis orbis literati judicium, & temporis mora brevi aperiet) movere tamen merito ſummas orbis Chriſtiani poteſtates ad ſeria aliquando, & perpetuæ inter ſe pacis, & jungendarum contra immaniſſimos hoſtes virium conſilia, poſſent & deberent.

SELECTÆ HISTORIÆ ECCLESIASTICÆ CAPITA, & im loca ejusdem inſignia Diſſertationes Hiſtoricæ, Chronologicæ, Criticæ, Dogmaticæ. Autore R. P. F. Natali Alexandro, Ordinis FF. Prædic. in Sacra Facultate Pariſienſi Doctore Theologo &c. Seculi XI & XII pars tertia.

Pariſ. apud Antonium Dezallier, in vico San-Jacobæo, ad coronam auream, 1683. in 8.

ULtimum hoc undecimi & duodecimi ſeculi volumen a ſeptima diſſertatione incipit, quæ Petri Abælardi variam fortunam, errores, certamina, pœnitentiam, & poſtremo loco opera, a Franciſco Amboeſio præmiſſa Pariſienſium Theologorum cenſura in publicum edita, exponit. In iſtis Abælardi operibus, ut cætera taceamus, variæ occurrunt epiſtolæ, quarum una ad amicum data ſtudiorum ſuorum & variarum calamitatum, & amorum cum Heloiſſa pudendo vulnere multatorum, hiſtoriam ipſe retulit. Heloiſſam vero Petri ſcortum & poſtea uxorem, etiam jam monaſticis ſacris initiatam, priſtini illius flagitii haud ſatis pœnituiſſe vel ex eo conſtat, quod in ſecunda ad Abælardum epiſtola, quam dulce ſibi concubinæ nomen fuerit, haud diſſimulat, & ſe ejus meretricem quam Auguſti Cæſaris uxorem appellari malle profitetur. Errores Abælardi partim ex Bernhardo, Gulielmo Abbate S. Theodorici, Gaufrido Carnotenſi epiſcopo, Ottone Friſingenſi, & anonymo quodam Autore, partim ex ipſis Abælardi ſcriptis commemorantur, cujus mentem, in nonnullis capitibus lingua ſaniorem, S. Bernhardum & cæteros antagoniſtas non ubivis aſſecutos Alexander noſter arbitratur. Idem quid in Sueſſionenſi concilio, quod nec cum Johanne Picardo in not. ad epiſt. Bernh. A. C. 1116, nec cum Binio A. C. 1136. ſed A. C. 1121, coactum exiſtimat, & undevigeſimo poſt poſt anno ſeu A.C.1140 in Senonenſi concilio, nec non Romæ ab Innocentio II contra Abælardum actum fuerit, ex variis autoribus recenſet, Berengarii Pictavienſis apologeticum pro Abælardo effuſis in S. Bernhardum calumniis refertum ad examen revocat, & tandem Abælardum a Petro Venerabili Abbate Cluniacenſi, S. Bernhardo & Innocentio reconciliatum, emendatis erroribus ſancte vixiſſe & pie obiiſſe, ex Chronico Cluniacenſi & Abbatis Venerabilis modo nominati epiſtola ad Heloiſſam, ejusdemque dupliti epitaphio ad Abælardi laudes compoſito commemorat. In fine diſſertationis additur, librum Abælardi vulgo ſic & non appellatum, in cœnobio Pariſienſi S. Germani a Pratis manuſcriptum extare.

Proxima huic diſſertatio numero octava concilii Lateranenſis III, in quo poſt certamina Alexandri III cum Antipapis ſuis Victore IV, ejusque ſucceſſoribus, Pachali III & Calliſto III, quorum partibus Fridericus I Imperator addictus fuerat, & plures ſynodos in Italia, Gallia, Anglia, Germania & ipſa Palæſtina agitatas, pace tandem inter Imperatorem & Pontificem inita, de abolenda contraria factione & mediis prohibendi inpoſterum ſchismatis, nec non de Waldenſibus & Albigenſibus opprimendis & diſciplina eccleſiaſtica inſtauranda actum eſt, geſta & canones, præmiſſis loci, temporis & reliquis circumſtantiis recenſet.

In nona diſſertatione, quæ caſu transpoſita octava eſſe debuit, diſquiritur, utrum judicium in cauſis fidei ad ſolum Romanum Pontificem, an etiam ad alios epiſcopos referri debeat? Occaſionem huic controverſiæ ſuppeditavit concilium Remenſe, in quo Præſules Gallicani adverſus Gilberti Porretani errores, Romano Pontifice & Cardinalibus præſentibus & tamen inconſultis, fidei formulam ſeu ſymbolum ediderunt, de quo facto tanquam illegitimo & Romanæ curiæ minime tolerando, Cardinales adverſus S. Bernhardum & congregatos cum eo Galliæ epiſcopos graviſſime expoſtularunt. Autoris noſtri ſententia eſt, jus fidei cauſas cognoſcendi ac de iis judicium ferendi epiſcopis omnino competere, ſed confirmationem judicii & ſententiam definitivam, & jus generalia decreta de fide Chriſtiana & morum diſciplina ſanciendi, non excluſo tamen eccleſiæ conſenſu, & generalium conciliorum ſuprema ac divina autoritate non neglecta, ad Romani pontificis prærogativas pertinere. Quam in rem poſtquam pluri-

ma e Thoma ſuo aliisque autoribus teſtimonia adduxit, ad Pariſienſes & cæteros Galliæ Theologos accedit, & quid hac de re ſentiant, exponit; nimirum pontificem Romanum, primum & maximum omnium epiſcopum, in tota eccleſia principatum & poteſtatis plenitudinem habere, non tamen abſolutam, cum novos fidei articulos condere & Sacramenta inſtituere vel abrogare nequeat, nec ipſi ſoli determinandi fidei controverſias autoritas conveniat. Hanc Pariſienſium Theologorum ſententiam nonnullis Facultatis Theologicæ decretis confirmat, & Lupum, ſeu quisquis ad Thomæ Cantuarienſis vitam & epiſtolas indicem confecit, falſi arguit, cujus majusculis exarata characteribus hæc eſt ſententia, quod Romani pontificis ſolius perſona ſola ſit controverſiarum judex. Etſi vero in quibusdam capitibus a plerisque cæterarum gentium Theologis Gallicani Doctores diſſentiant, inprimis cum diſceptatur: utrum concilium œcumenicum Romano Pontifice ſit ſuperius? utrum Rom. Pontifex non accedente eccleſiæ conſenſu ſit infallibilis? utrum Pontifex Romanus directam vel ſaltem indirectam in temporalia Regum poteſtatem habeat? nihil tamen detrimenti inde pati Romanæ ſedis majeſtatem aſſerit, cum hæ quæſtiones ad fidem non pertineant, ſed ad humanas opiniones revocentur, & primatus jure Divino Romano Pontifici conveniens ubique ſalvus maneat. Cum enim Theologis permiſſum ſit, varias de Dei potentia in ſcholis quæſtiones agitare, & diſquirere, num Deus abſoluta potentia hæc vel illa poſſit, dummodo omnipotentiam divinam univerſi credant: non inconveniens ipſi videtur, etiam Romanos Pontifices permittere, ut catholici Theologi de poteſtatis ſuæ extenſione, modo, ac uſu modeſte diſputent, dummodo in confeſſione primatus jure divino S. Petro a Chriſto collati & ad ejus ſucceſſores transmiſſi conveniant. Tandem vero & hanc diſſertationem, & quicquid in toto opere ſcripſit, Romanæ eccleſiæ, quam omnium eccleſiarum matrem ac magiſtram profitetur, & Romani Pontificis, quem Petri ſucceſſorem & Chriſti vicarium agnoſcit, judicio ſubmittit.

nec a Thoma unquam impugnatum, nec a quoquam improbatum, ſed ab Henrico II & aliis ævi illius Regibus citra ullam contradictionem uſurpatum fuerit. Hinc ad certaminum illorum inter Regem & Cantuarienſem Pontificem progreſſum delatus autor, quid ante Thomæ exilium, quid in exilio, quid ab ejus reditu ad cædem a quatuor ſicariis peractam, & poſt ejus cædem, quæ vulgo martyrii nomine inſignitur, geſtum fuerit, inprimis ex hiſtoria quadripartita ſeu quatuor ſcriptoribus coævis, qui Thomæ hujus vitam & acta conſignarunt, & farragine epiſtolarum huc ſpectantium a Lupo edita, de qua Acta noſtra Cal. Sept. A. C. 1683. p. 384. videantur, ſic enarrat, ut Thomæ cauſam ubique tueatur, quem in calce diſſertationis ſupplex obſecrat, ut Romanis Pontificibus zelum pro tuenda eccleſiæ libertate & diſciplina, Regi Britanniæ & toti regno communionem cum Romana eccleſia, Gallicanæ eccleſiæ & Francorum regno florentiſſimam tranquillitatem, & præſenti Galliarum Regi Ludovico XIV, quem ab Innocentio XI hæreſeos expugnatorem jure nuncupatum dicit, perpetuam felicitatem jugi apud Deum interceſſione impetrare velit.

Reliquæ diſſertationes ad panopliam adverſus hæreſes, qualem ſingulis ſeculis Autor annectere conſuevit, referuntur, quarum unam Græcis azymorum in S. Euchariſtia uſum impugnantibus, alteram Berengario ejusque aſſeclis realem corporis & ſanguinis Chriſti in S. cœna præſentiam negantibus, & poſtremam Petrobuſianis pædobaptiſmũ improbantibus & cæteris erroris hujus ſucceſſoribus opponit. Undecima igitur diſſertatio azymorum uſum contra Græcos ſchiſmaticos exemplo Chriſti aliisque argumentis defendit, & a Michaelis Cerularii aliorumque Græcorum objectionibus vindicat. Thomæ vero Aquinatis, Alexandri Alenſis, Bonaventuræ aliorumque Scholaſticorum veterum, & recentiorum quorundam Scriptorum ſententiam, qua ſtatuunt, quod Græca pariter & Latina eccleſia poſt euchariſtiæ inſtitutionem usque ad Ebionis tempora azymis uſa, poſtea cum Ebionitæ leges Judaicas ſimul cum Evangelio obſervandas inculcarent, in hæreſeos iſtius execrationem, panem fermentatum adhibuerit, donec illa hæreſi exſtincta, Latina Eccleſia, Græcis uſum fermenti retinentibus, ad azymorum uſum redierit, ob defectum idoneæ probationis & ſummum veterum ſilentium rejicit. Et apud Græcos quidem fermenti uſum perpetuum fuiſſe ex Græcis patribus colligit, de Latina vero eccleſia diverſas eruditorum ſententias inter ſe committit. Cum enim Sirmondus in diſquiſitione de azymo, uſum fermentati octingentis & amplius annis in eccleſia Latina ſolennem fuiſſe contendat, & azyma medio illo intervallo, quod a Photii ſchismate usque ad Cerularii tempora effluxit, recepta aſſerat, a qua ſententia etiam Cardinalis Bona in ſuis Liturgicis haud alienus eſt, niſi quod a primis illis ſeculis azymorum uſum non penitus excludit; ab altera vero parte Joh. Mabillon in præf. ſec. III. Ben. & in diſſertatione ſingulari, nec non Chriſtianus Lupus Tom. III. Schol. in canones & decreta concil. perpetuum in Latina Eccleſia azymorum uſum fuiſſe exiſtiment, utriusque opinionis argumenta recitat, & liberum lectori judicium permittit.

In duodecima diſſertatione, quæ cæteris prolixior & libello fere quam diſſertationi ſimilior eſt, contra Albertinum, adverſus quem etiam a Theologo quodam Jeſuita ingens volumen propediem edendum adornari monet, & alios Calvinianarum partium miniſtros, omiſſis iis, quæ jam in priorum ſeculorum hiſtoria de hoc argumento diſſeruit, realem corporis & ſanguinis Chriſti in cœna præſentiam ex Scriptura Sacra & eccleſia primitiva fuſe & ſatis egregie evincit, niſi quod etiam Joh. VI. de euchariſtiæ myſteriis agi cenſet, & ubique cum reali illa præſentia tranſubſtantiationis figmentum perperam adjungit. Ad adverſariorum objectiones dum reſpondet, inter alia autorem expoſtulationis de epiſtola Chryſoſtomi ad Cæſarium, a Theologis Pariſienſibus ſuppreſſa, de qua in Actis noſtris Cal. Jan. 1683. diximus, refutare conatur. Adjecta eſt ultimo hujus diſſertationis articulo ad fratres Calvinianæ ſeceſſionis adhortatio, ut cum articulum hunc pro fundamentali non habeant, eoque non obſtante pacem cum Lutheranis ambiant, ad Romanam eccleſiam, a qua eos nulla gravi cauſa urgente ſeceſſiſſe arguit, redire non detrectent.

Ultima diſſertatio infantum baptiſmum & Scripturæ Sacræ teſtimoniis, & eccleſiæ orientalis pariter & occidentalis traditioni congruum oſtendit.

TArde ad nos perlatus eſt hic liber, neque tamen indignus viſus, qui vel nunc in Actis noſtris locum inveniat. Materiæ utilitas commendata jam a nobis eſt, cum anno 1683. p. 364. Dyroiſii librum adverſus Atheos enarraremus. Tametſi vero Auctor præſens, dum viveret, ex Labadii ſectatoribus fuiſſe perhibeatur, deprehenſum tamen a nobis non eſt, quod ab inſerendo Actis libro nos deterreret; cum præſertim de neminis orthodoxia reſpondere teneamur, ſed judicium legentibus relinquamus. Audiamus itaque, quæ de ſcopo ſuo in præfatione ipſe autor propoſuit. Primam ait, eamque jucundiſſimam & graviſſimam veritatem eſſe: quod ſit Deus. Ex hac omnes alias derivari, & ſine illa prorſus nullam dari: hominem certe ad imaginem Dei ſui creatum, facile cariturum cognitione eorum, quæ juxta aut infra ſe ſunt, dum magnum Autorem ſuum & adorabilem majeſtatem ejus vivide cognoſcat. Quo vero cum ſolatio animam mundo exituram, cum magnum illud Ens in ſumma gloria & bonitate inveniet, quod tota mente credidit, quod inviſibile licet, non ſecus ac viſum amavit, & ad quod in omnibus rebus & actionibus ſincere reſpexit? Hac ſpe fieri, ut omnes, qui in illum vere credunt, gaudio & divina virtute repleantur, & de neceſſaria perfectiſſimi hujus Entis exiſtentia certo perſuaſi, in tempore hoc cum amore & fiducia ei propinquent, & a bonitate ejus expetant, ut in æternum ei jungantur, & uniantur. Hujus deſiderii excitandi cauſa, & ut animæ eleventur ad contemplandũ Deum, quod ſit, & qui ſit, libro hoc primo oſtendere ſe ſcribit voluiſſe, quomodo creata omnia de Deo teſtentur; ſed quia jejune & indifferenter de Deo non eſt loquendum, indulſiſſe ſanctis meditationibus, mentibus noſtris merito imprimendis, cum veritatem, magni-

CANONES GRÆCI CONCILII LAODICENI CUM verſionibus Gentiani Herveti, Dionyſii Exigui, Iſidori Mercatoris, & obſervationibus Wolfgangi Gundlingii Diac. ad D. Laurentii Norib.

Noribergæ impenſis Johannis Ziegeri, anno 1684. in 8.

QUamvis concilii Laodiceni canones numero 60. jam olim Johannes Zonaras & Theodorus Balſamon ſcholiis ſuis illuſtraverint, nec noſtro & ſuperiore ſeculo defuerint, qui eos obſervationibus ſuis dignos cenſuerunt, ut ex hiſtoria eccleſiaſtica Lucæ Oſiandri, Severini Binii notis ad concilia, Chriſtophori Juſtelli notis ad codicem canonum eccleſiæ univerſæ, Gulielmi Beveregii Synodico, & Johannis Cabaſſutii notitia eccleſiaſtica manifeſtum eſt; non ingratum tamen antiquitatis eccleſiaſticæ ſtudioſis fore Gundlingius exiſtimavit, ſi canones illos antiquitate venerabiles ſeorſim publicaret, & perpetuo commentario planiores redderet. Quod dum facit, uberrimam de digamis, de uſuris, de diverſis miniſterii gradibus, de Presbyterarum & Diaconiſſarum munere, de eulogiis, de ſtationibus catechumenorum & pœnitentium, de agapis, de exorciſmo, de literis formatis ſeu canonicis, de chriſmate, de lectionibus ſacris & hymnis eccleſiaſticis, variisque ceremoniis & diſciplina primitivæ eccleſiæ diſſerendi occaſionem adipiſcitur. Autoritatem hujus concilii vir pl. Reverendus in epiſtola dedicatoria commendat, & Pontificiis ob canones quosdam ſibi adverſos, qualis eſt 35. de damnato angelorum cultu, & ultimus de libris Sacræ Scripturæ canonicis, eandem elevantibus reſpondet. Quos etiam ex canonibus Laodicenis confeſſionem auricularem, ſacramentum confirmationis & alios errores perperam ſtabilire, cum in prædicta epistola, tum in ipsis observationibus ostendit, etsi de cætero Patres Laodicenos non ab omni errore alienos, sed potius humani aliquid passos in ipso limine seu canone primo impegisse, lubens fateatur.

RELATIO DE CONTROVERSIA, QUÆ HACTENUS inter Dn. Hugenium & Dn. Catelanum agitatur de centro Oscillationis, collecta ex Ephemeridibus Gallicis.

CLarissimus Hugenius in illius Tractatus, quem de Pendulo inscripsit, parte IV fundamenti loco, cui totum Systema de centro Oscillationis inædificet, hanc regulam posuit: si pendulum e pluribus ponderibus compositum atque e quiete dimissum partem quamcunque oscillationis integræ confecerit, atque inde porro intelligantur singula ejus pondera relicto communi vinculo celeritates acquisitas sursum convertere ac quousque possunt adscendere; hoc facto centrum gravitatis ex omnibus compositæ ad eandem altitudinem reversum erit, quam ante inceptam oscillationem obtinebat. Eam propositionem anno 1681, in Diario Gallico mense Decembri, aggressus est Dn. Catelanus Mathematicus Parisiensis, atque ut parum firmam probaret, ostendit, cum pendulum e duobus ponderibus compositum descendit, altitudines, e quibus pondera connexa delabuntur, proportionales esse celeritatibus acquisitis; sed cum pondera, occursu plani resistentis separata, iterum adscendunt, altitudines illas, ad quas perveniunt, se habere ut quadrata celeritatum acquisitarum. Quæ duæ summæ sane differentes, ut videntur, si per numerum ponderum divisæ fuerint, altitudinem ad quam centrum gravitatis commune adscendit, differre demonstrabunt ab ea, unde initio descenderat. Cui objectioni Dn. Hugenius in Ephemeridibus itidem Gallicis mense Junio anni 81. breviter respondit, negando, summas illas altitudinum, quas Catelanus differentes esse supposuerat, revera tales inveniri. Neque enim sequi, altitudines duas, quas inter non est ea proportio, quæ inter duas alias, necessario summam ab harum summa differentem efficere. Mense Julio anni 1682 excepit Catelanus, se non ignorare, quod quatuor magnitudines inæquales efficere duas summas æquales valeant, Julii præſentis anni* voluit, ne victas dediſſe manus videretur. Propoſitionem ergo, ad quam ſtatum controverſiæ Catelanus reduxerat, primum terminis Algebraicis pauliſper clarius, ac a Catelano factum fuerat, repetit, deinde Algebra hic opus non eſſe innuens, numeris eandem effert: Ponatur, inquit, aa æquale eſſe 1, & bb æquale 4; ſumma radicum a + b ſunt 3, & partes proportionales hujus ſummæ ſunt $\frac{3}{5}$ & $1\frac{2}{5}$ faciunt enim junctim $1\frac{5}{5}$ quod eſt 3, & ſunt inter ſe ut 1 ad 4. Quadrata earundem partium ſunt $\frac{9}{25}$ & $1\frac{44}{25}$. Hoc igitur ſolum reſtaret demonſtrandum, quod ſcilicet ſumma 1. & 4, non ſit æqualis ſummæ, quæ prodit ex $\frac{9}{25}$ & $1\frac{44}{25}$, ſive quod 5 non ſint æqualia $6\frac{3}{25}$, id quod ſane per ſe clarum eſt. Negat autem Hugenius in hac propositione quadrata ipsarum $\frac{a^3+aab}{aa}$ & $\frac{b^3+abb}{aa+bb}$ sive $\frac{2}{25}$ & $1\frac{44}{25}$ ad repræsentandas altitudines, ad quas pondera sejuncta redierint, recte assumi. Et porro illud falsum esse, quod de celeritate totali penduli Catelanus supposuerat, ostendit e principio Mechanico, vi cujus centrum gravitatis non adscendit altius, quam antea fuerat delapsum. Est & alia Hugenio cum Catelano controversia, circa generalem regulam, quam de centro oscillationis sive agitationis Catelanus proposuerat: sed eam, ne plura cumulemus, impræsentiarum dimittimus. Antequam vero Hugenius ad Catelani exceptionem alteram responderet, suscepit in se Dn. Bernoulli Basileensis, Hugenii causam, eamque contra Catelanum defendendam sumsit. Ejus verba quoniam, quæ hactenus de lite Clarissimorum Virorum diximus, plurimum illustrant, huc integra apponere ex Ephemeridibus Gallicis d. 24. April. 1684. visum fuit: Quicquid Dn. Adeoque si altitudo perpendicularis BI, ex qua descendit corpus B, describendo arcum BG, supponatur esse quatuor pedum, altera, AH, unde corpus A, delabitur, unius pedis sit oportet. Celeritates igitur, quas separatim cadendo acquirunt, quoniam sunt ut radices illarum altitudinum, se habebunt, ut 2. ad 1. Summa 3, quæ totalem penduli celeritatem manifestat, quando cum proportione ad altitudines, sive ad arcus BG & AF dividitur, dat gradus celeritatis, quos obtinent pondera, quando conjunctim in tabulam DG decidunt, videlicet $1\frac{2}{5}$ & $\frac{3}{5}$, quorum quadrata sunt $1\frac{44}{25}$ & $\frac{9}{25}$, unde quæ prodit summa, sane a summa altitudinum, e quibus pondera demittuntur

Veruntamen hæc quadrata proportionem ſolummodo altitudinum OM & NL, ad quas pondera, dum a tabula reſiliunt, adſcendunt, non ipſas altitudines continent, quas inter ratio quidem eſſe poteſt, quæ eſt inter $1\frac{4}{25}$ & $\frac{9}{25}$ hoc eſt inter 16 & 1, ut interim ipſarum ſumma omnino æqualis ſit quinque partibus, quæ eſt ſumma altitudinum BI & AH, unde pondera delapſa ſunt. Nam ſi ponamus altitudinem OM $4\frac{12}{17}$, pedum eſſe, & alteram NL $1\frac{5}{17}$, OM ad NL ſe habebit, ut 16 ad 1, & pars OM + NL erit æqualis parti BI + AH, & per conſequens centrum gravitatis commune ponderum A & B, poſtquam ad LM adſcenderunt, erit in eadem altitudine, quam obtinebat ante motionis initium. Id clare ex inſpectione figuræ apparet. Quoniam enim pondus M tantum ſupra lineam horizontalem BD elevatur, quantum L infra eam deprimitur, videlicet $\frac{12}{17}$ unius pedis, ſequitur hinc in triangulis ſimilibus MPQ, & LQR latera MQ & QL eſſe æqualia, hoc eſt medietatem lineæ ML, quæ duo pondera conjungit, eſſe in interſectione lineæ horizontalis.

EXPERIMENTUM AD CIRCULATIONEM SANguinis pertinens, propoſitum Venetiis in Academia, cujus Dn. Sarroti Secretarius Venetus fundamenta jecit.

Excerptum ex Ephemerid. Gall. Menſis Martii anno 1684. n. VII.

HOc experimentum ope machinæ, quæ aeri e vaſe extrahendo ſervit, capitur; ejus in figura VIII. ſola lamella ſuperior AA de- TAB. XL. ſignata eſt. Lamellæ applicatur magnum orificium vaſis recipientis Fig. VIII. BB, quod ſuperius parvam aperturam oſtendit C, veſica porcina claudendam. Per hujus veſicæ medium tranſit tubulus DD, ita quidem ut altera ejus pars e vaſe recipiente emineat, altera arteriam emulgentem ſubintret renis alicujus, notati EE, & in vaſe BB incluſi. Iſta arteria adeo arcte applicatur & alligatur tubulo DD, ut, cum recipiens B aere vacuum eſt, liquores tubo infuſi potius renem E ſubeant, quam in vacuum recipientis delabantur. Itaque ad probandam circulationem ſanguinis ratione ſat evidenti, tubus FF, ope cæmenti, ſuperiori parti vaſis B conferruminandus, & poſtmodum aqua eousque replendus est, ut minor tubus D ea tegatur. Tum vacuefacto ab aere vasculo B, aqua tubi F per tubulum D & arteriam emulgentem illabitur, & per renem circulatus ex vena GG prodit, ita quidem ut ejus nihil ex uretere destillet. Si autem contra immisso in venam emulgentem tubulo D, arteria ad vas recipiens propendeat, quantumvis aer omnis e recipiente extrahatur, ne guttula aquæ ex arteria emanabit. Id quod luculenter probare videtur, Naturam ita hæc disposuisse, ut sanguis ex arteriis in venas progrediatur, per eandem autem viam reverti nequeat. Quod si obturamentum cannabi cæmentove involutum superiori parti tubuli D ad exactiorem clausuram immittatur, & Ren inflatus in vacuo per unum alterumque diem relinquatur, particulæ aeris magis evolutæ & rarefactæ vascula illius separabunt, ut per apertum postea tubum D, ren magis inflari queat, hincque manifeste appareat, viscus illud nihil esse aliud quam glomum vasorum, quorum subtilitas carnis glanduloſæ speciem ipsis conciliat.

PANTAGONUM SIVE NOVUM INSTRUMENTUM capiendi angulos accessibiles, inventum a Dn. Chapototio, ex Ephemeridibus Gallicis mensis Aprilis anno 1684. n. XI.

INgeniarii quos vocant, angulos accessibiles vulgo instrumento capiunt, quod ipsi Recipiangulum appellant, constans e duabus regulis amplioribus, sibi invicem commissis, ubi clavum divisio semicirculi ambit, cujus gradus indice signantur.

Hoc instrumentum non est omni ex parte accuratum, siquidem gradus inibi non possunt nisi confuse notari in semicirculo, qui ad summum obtinet pollicem unum radii, hoc est dimidiam latitudinem regulæ, quæ latior esse nequit, propter incommoda, quibus angulos acutos externos capere prohiberet; Est enim hoc jam satis impeditum, cum regularum latitudo tantum duarum pollicum statuitur.

Dn. Chapototius, qui & instrumentis Mathematicis jam adinventis, quicquid ad opus bene perficiendum requiritur, addere, & quoquotidie nova efformare annititur, prout ex illis quæ hactenus publico dedit, apparet, huic defectui ſuccurrere voluit, inſtrumento, quod ſemicirculum cujuscunque magnitudinis, qui poſſit non tantum in dimidios gradus, verum etiam in minuta dividi, capiat, & cujus regulæ arctiſſime jungantur, longiſſimæque ſint, ita tamen, ut magnitudo ſemicirculi nullatenus angulos quoscunque capientem impediat, idque propter ſingularem motionem, quam ipſi tribuit. TAB. XI.

Credidit ille, non opus eſſe, ut Inſtrumentum ſuum angulis externis intra decem gradus accommodaret, quoniam hujusmodi angulorum nullus eſt uſus. Satis viſum ipſi fuit, oſtendere, quomodo anguli multo minores capi poſſint, ac vulgaribus illis inſtrumentis capiuntur. Et quoniam veriſſime affirmari poteſt, inſtrumentum hoc eſſe prorſus novum, ideo nomen ipſi indere voluit, quo ab aliis cognitis diſtingueretur, videlicet Pantagoni, quaſi dicat Inſtrumentum pro quibuscunque angulis. Fig. X.

NOVUM SYSTEMA PHAENOMENORUM PLANETARUM, Autore Galletio, Præpoſito S. Symphor. Avenionenſis.

Excerptum ex Ephemeridibus Eruditorum Gallicis, menſis Maji 1684. n. XIV.

QUæ per tubos vitreos Aſtronomorum oculis hoc ſeculo obvenerunt, Planetarum tot diverſæ figuræ ac ſpecies, tantum ipſis hactenus exhibuerunt negotii, ut præter celeberrimum Hugenium pauci nominari poſſint, qui ſatisfacere vel ſolis obſervationibus Saturnianis tentaverint. Ejus tamen exemplo incitatus non ita pridem Dn. Galletius Eccleſiæ Avenionenſis, quæ Sto Symphoriano dicata eſt, Præpoſitus, rem difficillimam inquirere ſuſcepit, cumque Hugenii aſſertionem illam, qua annulum Saturni materialem ac verum eſſe credidit, fundamento parum tuto niti exiſtimaret, ut aliorum planetarum, ſic & Saturni phænomena a ſola radiorum Solarium reflexione dependere pronunciavit. Quæ ipſe de hac ſua ſententia ad Gallicarum Ephemeridum Autorem perſcripſit, ea Latine hic exhibere viſum fuit.

Optica

Optica, inquit, ſcientia docemur, omne corpus capax eſſe reflexionis, & quodvis corpus politum Solaribus radiis expoſitum. duas ſpecies diſtinctas nobis remittere, alteram corporis ſui illuſtrati, quod per plurimas indefinitas reflexiones, quæ in ejus ſuperficie fiunt, undique viſibile evadit; alteram Solis, quam deprehendere non poſſumus, niſi quum viſus noſter lineam reflexionis tangit, directe exeuntem ab imagine Solari, quæ ſuper linea perpendiculari in plano objecti reflectentis formatur.

Prior ſpecies ab altera differt, quod ipſa quidem imminuatur juxta proportionem diſtantiæ & elongationis ab objecto, a quo emittitur per conum, cujus ipſum eſt baſis; hæc vero contraria ratione, quando ab extremitate aliqua convexa reflectitur, quo longius ab origine recedit, hoc major appareat per conum, cujus punctum in ſuperficie eſt. Id quod ex adjuncta figura evidenter liquet.

TAB. XI. Fig. XI.

Sit NCO corpus Saturni viſum per conum NEO. Sit Sol AB. cujus radius AC reflectitur de C in B, radius vero BC de C in A. Evidens eſt, in quocunque puncto lineæ reflexionis B C oculus exiſtat, conſpici ab ipſo punctum lucidum A intra perpendicularem A I ad punctum G. Sed ex linea reflexionis C A detegit oculus punctum B in H, ac ſi imago Solaris AB directe ex GH prodiret. Reflectitur ergo Solis ſpecies per conum luminis, cujus ſummitas eſt in C. Vitell. L. 6. Theor. 9. 11.

Quod ſi iſtæ lineæ reflexionis vitro objectivo DF exceptæ fuerint, altera in D, altera in F; utraque ipſarum ibi refringetur, & linea CF exhibebit punctum Solis B ultra focum vitri in b, quaſi ex h prodiiſſet, linea vero CD oſtendet punctum A in a, quaſi directe ex g deſcendiſſet. Conus viſualis Saturni NEO ſpeciem ſuam defert ad e d, in medium ſpeciei Solaris a b, & ex receptione harum duarum ſpecierum in eodem plano oritur phænomenum annuli Saturnum ambientis. Vitell. L. 10. Theor. 12.

Eædem lineæ reflexionis, ſi propius, (ad diſtantiam Jovis) vitro objectivo excipiantur, in punctis K. I. uniuntur cum lineis Coni viſualis in l. m. Et ſic annulus Solaris æqualis eſt ſpeciei Jovis. Quoties vitrum adhuc propius recipiendis radiis reflexis admovetur, v. g. ad diſtantiam Martis & Veneris, usque in puncto N. O. tum ſpecies planetaria Cono viſuali terminata, major evadit ſpecie Solari, ut hæc in illius medio compareat. Si cor-

Si corpus reflectens inæqualitates habeat, quæ a nobis ſenſu percipi poſſint, fiet ab ipſis mutatio quædam hujus annuli, & nos eas ita clare cognoſcemus, ut tot omnino ſuperficies diſtinctas totque imagines Solares deprehendamus, quot in ſpeculo fracto aut in minuta fruſtula conciſo apparere ſolent. Vitell. L. 5. Theor. 39. Et inde eſt, quod in Luna vaſtam punctorum lucentium multitudinem absque numero videmus, quæ tot ſunt annuli ſive ſpecies Solares, quot hic Planeta ſuperficiebus diſtinguitur.

Obſervandum eſt, vitrum objectivum radios Solares refractos oblique recipiens, huic annulo formam Ellipticam tribuere magis minusque apertam, prout radiorum, a quibus fit, major minorve declinatio eſt ad planum Æquatoris Planetarii.

Experimentum, quod ope vitri cujusdam objectivi, 25 pedum circiter inſtitui, invincibilis eſt (ut credo,) demonſtratio veritatis novi mei Syſtematis. Excipio vitro dicto radios Solares, eosque reflecti facio oblique in planum oppoſitum ultra foci diſtantiam. Hæc reflexio in juſta elongatione exactam Saturni figuram producit. Quod ſi idem planum propius adducitur, donec exterior annulus alteri imagini æqualis fiat, tum reflexio figuram Jovis exhibet. Si adhuc propius aſſumitur, figura Martis ſiſtitur; & ſi oculus in linea reflexionis exiſtat cum vitro colorato, per cujus medium quis ſplendorem radiorum ſuſtinere poſſit, eædem penitus figuræ conſpiciuntur, quæ in plano oppoſito apparent.

SYSTEMA PHÆNOMENORUM SATURNI, AUTORE Galletio, Præpoſito Avenionenſi ad Eccleſiam S. Symphoriani.

Excerptum ex Ephemeridibus Eruditorum Gallicis menſis Junii 1684. n. XVII.

POſtquam de omnium Planetarum figuris generatim Galletius dixit, ad ſingulorum phænomena explicanda nunc progreditur. Agit autem, quam poteſt, breviſſime, uberiorem disquiſitionem cum evidenti ſuppoſitionum quarundam declaratione in opere mox edendo pollicitus. Exordium a planetarum remotiſſimo ducens, ita ſcribit:

Obſervationes quibus anno 1612 Galileo, 1642 Gaſſendo, 1656.

P. Grimaldo Jesuitæ, Hugenio, Hevelio, Bullialdo, & anno 1671 Dn. Cassino, Saturnus absque annulo apparuit, æquinoctiorum ejus loca determinant; Borealis videlicet in 20°. 30′ Virginis, Australis vero in Piscibus. Sed quæ anno 1647 PP. Ricciolo & Grimaldo, anno 1664 mense Aprili Dn. Campano, annulum latissimum exhibuerunt, locum Solstitiorum designant in vigesimo gradu & dimidio Geminorum ac Sagittarii, cum amplissima radiorum Solarium declinatione 23° & 30′ ab Æquatore planetario.

Declinatio horum radiorum in Signis Australibus borealis est, & australis cum Saturnus in borealibus versatur, initium numerandi faciendo ab Æquinoctio proximo. Quando borealis est, annulus corpus Saturni tegere versus extremitatem australem videtur; sed quando australis, borealem versus, ubi ejus umbra deprehenditur. Declinationem istam eadem via, qua declinationem Solis invenies, resolvendo triangulum rectangulum, cujus duo anguli cogniti sunt, cum basi, quæ est distantia ab Æquinoctio proximo. Poteris tabulis declinationum Solarium in hoc negotio uti, excerpendo inde distantiam Saturni ab Æquinoctio, ac si Solis distantia ab Æquinoctio suo capienda esset.

Ratio inter diametrum Saturni & diametrum annuli est subdupla subsesquialtera, h. e. qualis inter 2 & 5, sed cum diameter umbræ isti additur, ratio eadem est, quæ inter 2 & 3, si tubo, cujus longitudo 20 aut 25 pedum sit, utaris.

Nonnunquam corpus Saturni non exacte annuli medium obtinere visum fuit, id quod semper accidit, quoties planeta quadrato adspectui cum Sole proximus est, quoniam tunc parallaxis orbis sensu percipi potest. Hinc evenit, ut quum Planeta orientalis est, centrum ejus extremitati orientali annuli propius videatur, & major pars ob occidentali latere sit, cum ampliori obscuritate; nam visus partem axi coni viciniorem detegit, quæ radiorum reflexione illustrata non est.

Est & latitudo alicujus levis variationis causa. Efficit enim, ut Planeta elatior centro annuli videatur, quoties borealis est, & depressior, quoties australis. Ut hæc contemplatio ad praxin reducatur, & figura Saturni ejusque annuli, qualis vel apparuit, vel posthac apparebit, delineetur; describe ex eodem centro tres circulos, ita ut diameter maximi sit quinque, medii trium, minimi duarum partium.

Duc

Duc diametrum AB, & ejus axem DE. Ex puncto A accipe utrinque declinationem radiorum in H & I, quam nos in hoc exemplo ſupponemus meridionalem ſeptem graduum, qualis menſe Majo anni 83 obſervata fuit. Ab utroque puncto HI duc parallelas Æquatori AB, quæ in axe ad FG deſignabunt diametrum transverſam ellipſeos, per hanc diametrum & illam alteram majorem AB deſcribendæ. Idem fac in circulo medio ad deſignandam Ellipſin interiorem annuli, quæ partem coni obſcuram continet, & habebis exacte figuram Saturni, quem circulus minimus repræſentat. Certum eſt, quod, quum occidentalis quadratoque proximus erit, occidentali extremitati annuli propior videbitur, cum umbra a parte orientali. TAB. XI. Fig. VII.

Ut ne quid in deſcriptione hujus phænomeni deſideretur, duc ex A in L lineam rectam, quæ repræſentet orbitam, quando declinatio radiorum borealis eſt, vel de K in I, quando eſt auſtralis. In hac linea ſinum graduum parallaxeos orbis accipe ex C verſus K, quoniam Saturnus occidentalis eſt; (Si orientalis foret, oporteret illum accipere ex C in I) ſupponendo ſemidiametrum Saturni eſſe ſinum totum. Ab hoc ſinu duc perpendicularem ad orbitam, & in ea accipe ſinum latitudinis ſuperius, quando ipſa ſeptentrionalis eſt, vel inferius, quando eſt in meridiem. Illud punctum erit centrum apparens Saturni. Veruntamen tanta cura in hoc planeta non videtur opus eſſe, & poſſumus ſane ea absque errore notabili ſuperſedere.

Tandem, ut labore ducendi figuras ſubleveris, ſex hic exhibeo, quarum prima Æquinoctiorum eſt, ſexta Solſtitiorum, reliquæ pro declinationibus erunt in quinque gradus variantibus. Suppoſui declinationes eſſe auſtrales. Ut boreales habeantur, ſolum invertenda erit figura. Propono etiam tabulam generalem figurarum, ubi ſupponuntur loca Saturni in ſuo Eccentrico, h.e. viſi e Sole vel e Terra tempore oppoſitionis, ne ad variationem parallaxeos orbis reſpicere cogamur. TAB. XI. Fig. I. II. III. IV. V. VI.

TAmetſi Theologia noſtra non eſt e ſcientiis humanis, quarum propria eſt ἀπόδειξις, ea nimirum, quæ traditur a Philoſopho in Libb. poſter. Analyticorum; peculiarem tamen longeque ſublimiorem ac ſolidiorem poſſidet demonſtrandi vim ex unico illo ſibique proprio & univerſali principio: Αὐτὸς ἔφα, Ipſe (Deus) dixit. Ex hoc enim naſcitur fides divina, omni ſcientiæ, quanquam certiſſimæ, non tam æquiparanda, quam longiſſime præferenda. Hinc titulum Ἀποδείξεως jure meritoque tribuit libro huic ſuo Autor celeberrimus, quippe quod in eo e ſolis Spiritus S. teſtimoniis veritatem Religionis noſtræ clare deducat firmiterque probet. Præſtat id eleganti ordine per ſingulos Articulos, ſententiamque noſtram nervoſe ac perſpicue redigit primum in theſes, easque in diſtinctis paragraphis proponit, mox probationem e ſolis S. Scripturæ locis ſubjicit, & ex eorum contextu, antecedentibus, conſequentibus & parallelis, ſecundum fontes, Ebræos & Græcos, credenda demonſtrat, adeo ut Liber hic (quod in Titulo promittitur,) ideæ inſtar, omnes theſes controverſas e S. literis firmiter decidendi, & veritatem fidei ſolide confirmandi, omnino eſſe poſſit.

D. Alphonſus de Olea JCtus Hiſpanus, Anteceſſor in Academia Pinciana & hodie in ſupremo Caſtellæ Senatu Conſiliarius, jam ante triginta & aliquot annos Tractatum abſolutiſſimum de Ceſſione Jurium & Actionum publici juris fecit, Theoricis & Practicis, ut non ſolum inſcriptio libri fert, ſed etiam res ipſa docet, utiliſſimum. Ita enim illam materiam copioſe & nervoſe expoſuit, ut nihil ferme quod ad eam pertinet, vel in Theoria vel in Praxi occurrens, reliquerit intactum & inexcuſſum. Proinde & Liber iſte talem applauſum meruit, ut variis in locis iterum atque iterum ederetur. Et jam anno 1681 editio ſeptima prodierat Genevæ, ab Auctore Additionibus aliquibus ipſi textui inſertis locupletata. Additiones autem, de quibus in præſenti, ad dictum Tractatum plane novæ ſunt, ab ipſo itidem Auctore adornatæ, verum ſeparatim editæ, ubi 47 Reſolutiones haud vulgares, tum legum, tum aliarum quæſtionum, de quibus controverti ſolet, vel in hac ipſa materia, vel occaſione ejus, continentur, veluti de debitore, an poſt formatum concurſum alibi, quam apud Judicem concurſus agere aut conveniri poſſit : de lege prohibente, ne bona immobilia in Eccleſias vel monaſteria transferantur: de nullitate matrimonii ex defectu conſenſus, ſi in crimine adulterii opponatur, an cauſa indiſtincte prius ad Judicem Eccleſiaſticum remittenda: de renunciatione Regni & Majoratus; an maritis Duciſſarum & Comitiſſarum poſt mortem illarum; item an viduis Ducum & Comitum, ſi viris inferioris conditionis nupſerint, priſtinus honor debeatur: de pecunia data debitori, ut ea dimittat creditorem ſuum, ſi ante moram accipientis pereat vel imminuta ſit, cujus ſit periculum, an dantis an vero accipientis: de mandato ad lites, quod per Judicem declaratum ut ſufficiens, an rurſus de ejus inſufficientia poſſit diſputari: ſolutione facta falſo procuratori an debitor liberetur, maxime ſi paratus ſit actiones ſuas contra falſum procuratorem cedere: Nobiles debitores quando poſſint carcerari ad inſtantiam creditorum ſuorum: compenſatio debiti & crediti quando ipſo jure fiat in præjudicium anterioris creditoris &c. &c. Præter has Reſolutiones & alia nonnulla auctaria ſunt inſperſa. Quemadmodum vero jam ante, ita & in his ſuis Reſolutionibus Auctori negotium fuit cum Franciſco Salgado, JCto itidem Hiſpano, ob librum, cui titulum hic fecit, Labyrinthus Creditorum, maxime famoſum, cum Salgado in hoc ipſo Libro in multis ab Auctore noſtro diſſi-

Lucianum imitatus, mortuorum dialogos, in Actis nostris annô superiori mense Septemb. p. 381. memoratos, scripserat auctor venustissimus: quibus veterum & modernorum colloquia miscens, vanitatem rerum humanarum festive & erudite exposuerat, petitis ex historia veteri ac recentiore differendi argumentis. Hanc rationem insistere, & cœptam telam pertexere idem auctor parte hac secunda instituit, pridem mortuorum inter se; eorundemque cum vita nuper defunctis; ac tandem istorum, quorum recentior adhuc supersest memoria, mutua colloquia narrans. Sed de his quidem Dialogis uberius differendi occasio nobis fortassis præbebitur, cum ad nos pervenerit libellus in Gallia non ita pridem hoc titulo editus: Jugement de Pluton sur les deux parties du Dialogue des Morts.

GAZOPHYLACIVM LINGVÆ PERSARVM triplici linguarum clavi Italica, Latina, Gallica, nec non ſpecialibus præceptis ejusdem linguæ reſeratum. Authore P. Angelo a S. Joſeph, Carmelita Excalceato, Toloſano, Miſſionario Apoſtolico, Superiore Miſſionum ſui Ordinis in Belgio.

Amſtelodami 1684. in fol.

POſtquam Auctor, cujus opera Mouzaffer Elen Mouhamed el Hoſſeni Pharmacopœa Perſica, ex idiomate Perſico in Latinum converſa, tribus abhinc annis Lutetiæ Pariſiorum prodiit, a nobis A. 1682. menſe Junio p. 181. ſqq. memorata, ad Orientales Miſſiones a Pontifice deſtinatus eſſet, hoc ſibi credidit datum eſſe negotii, ut officio ſuo numeris omnibus ſatisfaceret. Hinc cum per annos non paucos Perſica ſcripta ſedulus verſaſſet, literisq; & ſermone Perſarum ita eruditus eſſet, ut non minus quam hi, qui in Perſide erant nati, verba hoc idiomate facere poſſet, ſucceſſoribus etiam exiſtimavit eſſe conſulendũ. Pandere igitur futuris Miſſionariis Gazophylacium voluit præſens, ut eo inſtructi cum Perſis & Muhammedanis nulla mora colloqui & in arenã deſcendere poſſent. Opere propemodum in Perſide abſoluto, ad Europæas terras revocatus, primum Venetiis, dein Lutetiæ Pariſiorum edere illud ſtatuit, ſed re ex voto non ſuccedente, tandem in Belgio feliciter ultimam negotio manum impoſuit, publicæq; librum expoſuit luci.

Poſt approbationes multas præmittit clavem Gazophylacii linguæ Perſarum ſeu Grammaticam, quæ ſeptem capita continet. In his agit de conſonantibus Perſarum ac Arabum convenientibus, aſt ratione punctorum diacriticorum quandoq; diſcrepantibus, ita ut ex hac ratione Perſæ duas & triginta conſonantes, Arabes tantum viginti dam Baſſoræ degentis, cujus diſcipuli ad certum cantum & ſonum tympani energumeni fiant, & prunas candentes in foro publico vorent. Inter Sanctos Perſarum præcipuus eſt Hoſſen filius Ali, cujus martyrii feſtum apud Perſas ſingulare: celebratur primis decem diebus menſis Mohorram, cum luctu ingenti: decima demum die diviſa in duas acies civitate, funeralia publice repræſentantur, ubi capite raſo & multis a novacula vulneribus cruentato comparent. Sectæ Muhammedanorum quatuor recenſentur, per famoſos Interpretes totidem diſtinctæ, qui Maleki, Sciafai, Hanbeli, & Hanifi audiunt. De Alcorano, cum quo ejusdem auctoritatis eſſe apophthegmata duodecim legislatorum Perſicæ ſectæ prætendunt, Perſarum doctiores ſtatuunt, eum non realiter deſcendiſſe de cœlo, ſed a Deo eſſe inſpiratum. Liberum religionis Chriſtianæ exercitium Aspahani, Conſtantinopoli & per Perſidem ac Turciam paſſim concedunt: imo Chriſtianis adeo ſunt amici, ut pueros ægrotantes ad Miſſionarios eorum deferant, Evangeliumque ſuper ipſis legi non modo patiantur, verum etiam expetant: qua occaſione multos in mortis periculo conſtitutos baptizari teſtatur Auctor.

Nec prætermittit, quæ ad notitiam dignitatum illuſtrium, provinciarum, urbium, inſularum, ad conſtitutiones Perſarum & conſuetudines, ad jura tum privata tum publica præ aliis pertinent. Hanc in rem agit de proventu annuo Regis Perſarum & theſauris quos poſſidet: de titulo Padſciahs ſive Imperatoris, quem Turcarum Imperator ſibi tantum & Regi Galliæ tribuit: de Imperatrice regente, quæ prima mulier eſt ex Turcarum Imperatore maſculum enixa, & καθ' ἐξοχὴν mater audit: de more excœcandi fratres Regis Perſarum; ubi adjicit, hodiernum Regem Salomonem ad majorem cautelam juſſiſſe erui pugione oculos fratris ſui Mirza Hamzah: de gubernatoribus provinciarum Perſidis, quorum alii Beklerbek, videlicet ibi dominantes, ubi ſunt militia & arces, alii C-han, qui minoribus provinciis præſunt, alii Vezir, qui urbium imperium obtinent, dicuntur. Præterea coronationem Regis Perſiæ deſcribit, formamq; & figuram coronæ ipſi imponi ſolitæ delineat, eidemque ſimili prope C-han ſeu gubernatores, & antiquos Religioſos aut Soufi uti ſolere annotat. Porro titulum Invincibilis a Rege Perſarum adhiberi ſolitum, quod per periphraſin expreſſus dominatorem conjunctionis ſeu aſtrorum denotet, exponit. Incolas

In fine adjicit inditem duplicem vocabulorum, alterum Latinorum, alterum Gallicorum, tertio, qui tamen non minus si non magis videbatur neceſſarius deficiente, videlicet vocum Perſicarum juxta ſeriem literarum hujus linguæ. Nulli enim uſui Lexicon hoc erit illis, qubus Perſica monumenta veſtigare volupe eſt, quia ſicubi hæſerint, fruſtra ab hoc Gazophylacio vel ignorantiæ vel errori ſubſidium quærent. An vero excuſari poſit Autor per hoc, quod Miſſionariis hæc ſcripſerit, quo notitiam linguæ & ſermonis acquirerent, liberum aliorum eſto judicium.

Tomus I. & II. 1680. Tom. III. 1683. Antverpiæ in fol.

MAgno apud multos in pretio Commentationes has morales eſſe, non ex eo tantũ intelligitur, quod dignæ viſæ ſunt, quibus ex Italico ſermone in Latinum transferendis bonæ horæ, & eæ quidem bene multæ impenderentur, ſed inde etiam manifeſtum eſt, quod bis in Germania intra paucorum annorum ſpatium typis fuerint exſcriptæ. Nec diſſimulandum enim, anno 1672 primum Monachii excuſas eas fuiſſe, quam editionem altera jam Antverpienſis a. 1680 & 1683 excepit. Sane complecti vaſtũ hoc opus meditationes præclaras quamplurimas, quæ magno uſui in flectendis ad pietatem auditorum animis eſſe poſſint verbi divini præconibus, diffitebitur nemo; inprimis cum vel ſolis amplisſimis indicibus, qui velut Loci communes quidam ſingulis tomis ſunt adjecti, inſpectis, cuilibet textum aliquem Biblicum pro concione explicaturo argumenta ſe offerant, quibus exornare materiam, quam præ manibus habet, poſſit. Verum ſegetes inter, ſteriles etiam avenas non nullibi deprehendi, ac loco ſalutarium hiſtoriarum, quarum in ipſo ſacro codice ſat magna copia eſt, commentitias nonnunquam fabellas lectori propinari, ne ipſe quidẽ interpres potuit diſſimulare, cujus hæc proteſtatio Operi præmiſſa legitur: Si nonnulla in hoc opere recenſeantur hiſtoriæ, quæ legentis animum offendere poſſent, rogo ne id vitio mihi vertatur, nec ulla in me detorqueatur culpa, fidelem enim interpretem agere debui; cæterum ne ulli videar præjudicium inferre, ipſi veritati omnia committo. Vtique a veritate maxime alienum eſt, quod Lectione ſtatim prima, qua S. Scripturæ & Aſceticorum librorum neceſſitatem & utilitatem commendat, de B. Luthero traditur: ſceleratum ſcilicet illum virum, cum Germaniam execrabili hæreſi contaminare decreviſſet, profanis eam libris corrupiſſe, curaviſſeque ut lingua Gallica liber quidam donaretur, Amadis dictus, & quidem omni elegantia exornatus per Principum aulas ſpargeretur, ſicq; paulatim ſacrarum paginarum ſpiritualiumque librorum nauſea curioſorum aulicorum animis inſtillaretur. Cujus ineptiſſimæ calumniæ, quæ nobis quidem non indignationem ſed riſum movet, non poterit non cordatiores ex Romano-Catholicis pudere, quos minime fugit, quanto zelo ad ſacræ Scripturæ, quæ ipſi tunc clero tantum non ſordebat, laicorum vero manibus extorta plane erat, frequentiſſimā lectionem, omne hominum genus, ſummos, medioximos, infimos, Lutherus noſter revocaverit, ſacris in eum finem Bibliis (non Amadiſo) in vernaculam linguam incredibili labore atque ſtudio traductis.

Dresdæ apud Mart. Gabr. Hubnerum, A. C. 1684. in 12.

QVi ſe hactenus a pluribus annis & in Academica cathedra, & in templi ſuggeſtu, dexterrimum S. Scripturæ interpretem probavit Autor celeberrimus, nunc aliis, qua ratione in Verbi Divini adyta reſerato genuino ſenſu penetrare poſſint ac debeant, oſtendit. Hermeneuticam enim Sacram tradit, in cujus præceptis explicandis etſi jampridem Matth. Flacius, Joh. Gerhardus, Wolfg Franzius, Sal. Glaſſius, Mich. Waltherus, J. Conr. Danhauerus, Abr. Calovius, aliique inſignes Theologi cum laude verſati fuerint, non dubium tamen eſt, quin ſuccincta hæc & perſpicua Synopſis, ante biennium nonnullis Theologiæ cultoribus intra privatos parietes prælecta, publica luce digniſſima fuerit, in qua Cl. Autor methodo practicis habitibq convenienti, a fine objectivo & formali ad ſubjectum & media progreditur. Primum enim de authentico V. & N. T. textu agit, quem integrum & ne minimo quidem apice corruptum ſupereſſe, confutatis adverſariorum objectionibus, demonſtrat. Hinc ad Sacræ Scripturæ ſenſum accedens, unius dicti unicum tantū ſenſum literalem, ab uno autore hic & nunc per ſe & formaliter intentum, dari aſſerit, & ſenſus illius certitudinem adverſus Gretſerum & alios Pontificios oſtendit. Proximo loco ad idoneum S. Scripturæ interpretem pergit, a quo pietatem, ſolertiam, eruditionem, induſtriam, prudentiam, candorem nullis præjudiciis corruptum, & donum didacticum requirit; qua occaſione, quam neceſſaria ſit Scripturæ interpreti Hebræa & aliarum originaliū linguarum notitia obſtructis μισεβρέων effugiis exponit. Media Hermeneutica diſtinguit in interna ſeu proxima, & externa ſeu ſubſidiaria. Interna duo conſtituit, ἑρμηνέων ſtricte ſic dictam, quæ nativam vocum cum ſignificationem, formationem, conſtructionem & peculiares loquendi modos evolvit, & σύγκρισιν, quæ partim analogiâ & cum parallelis Scripturæ locis, & cum fidei articulis, partim ἀλληλοχίαν ſ. accuratam conſiderationem eorum, quæ textũ explicandum afficiunt, circumſtant, præcedunt, & conſequuntur, reſpicit. Externa autem media, quæ ad commodiorẽ Scripturæ interpretationem extrinſecus afferuntur, vel e variis diſciplinis inſtrumentalibus & realibus, vel e variis Bibliorum verſionibus & exegetarum commentariis depromuntur. De ſingulis pro inſtituti ratione breviter ſed erudite agitur, & poſtremo de mediorum hermeneuticorũ applicatione ac optimo interpretandi genere nonnulla ſubnectuntur. Cæterum plurima quæ huc faciunt, in Dubiis ſuis vexatis & Critica Sacra Vir max. Rever. prolixius tractavit, cujus praxin Hermeneuticam ex hiſtoria hexaemeri, ψ. 19, epiſtola Judæ in præfatione præmiſſam propediem expectamus.

EXAMEN DES RAISONS, QVI ONT DONNÉ lieu à la ſeparation des Proteſtants &c. Par M. Brueys, Avocat de Montpelier.

Examen rationum, quæ Proteſtantes ad ſeparationem moverunt, abſque præoccupatione inſtitutum ex Concilio Tridentino, Confeſſione Eccleſiarum Proteſtantium, & Scriptura Sacra, a Dn. Brueys, Advocato Montiſpeſſulano.

Lutetiæ 1683. in 12.

EX magno Gallorum numero, qui annis proximis, variis de cauſis relicta Proteſtantium Eccleſia, ad Romanam tranſierunt, pauci mutationis ſuæ rationes ſcripto publicarunt. Id faciendum vero ſibi duxit præſentis opuſculi auctor Brueyſius, nonnullius nuper inter Reformatos nominis, nunc Romano-Catholicæ religioni addictus. Scripſerat is, ut refert, & compertum eſt, pro Reformatis, contra Boſſueti Epiſcopi Expoſitionem fidei Catholicæ ſatis notam. Eo labore, vix peracto, ſubortos ſibi ſcrupulos eſſe ait, ex frequenti conſideratione propoſitionũ, ut alium de religione ſenſum conciperet, quam unquam

& de Sacramento Eucharistiæ ab interpretationibus Protestantium vindicet; (3) ut inde concludat, necessario ad Ecclesiam Romanam redeundum esse a Reformatis, si salvari velint. Hæc quomodo præstiterit, facilius, & uno fere labore, ex Refutationibus cognosci possunt, quas Reformati huic libro jam oppoſuerunt, quas subjungimus, & qua fieri potuit brevitate excerptas damus.

SVITE DV PRESERVATIF CONTRE LE changement de Religion, ou Reflexions sur l' addoucissement des dogmes, & des cultes de l' Eglise Romaine, proposé par Mr. Brueys.

hoc est,

Continuatio Præservativi contra mutationem Religionis, sive Reflexiones in tractatum Brueysii, Advocati Montispessulani, quo dogmata & cultum Ecclesiæ Romanæ emollire voluit.

Hagæ Comitum, apud Arn. Leers, 1683, in 12.

AUctorem hujus scripti Typographus Roterodamensis, qui alterum ejusdem argumenti libellum, quem mox enarraturi sumus, edidit, aperte nominat D. Jurium, nec stylus abludit, & brevis, quæ post titulum legitur, admonitio confirmat, ubi Præservativi contra Expositionem Condomensem autorem se non inficiatur præsentis libri scriptor; Præservativum vero a D. Jurio scriptum esse, jam a nemine putamus dubitari. Sed ad tractatum ipsum accedimus. Exorditur Autor a consideratione discedentium a Reformata religione ad Romanam, quos variæ conditionis esse ait, magnos, parvos; divites, pauperes; quosdam, qui alicujus sint existimationis aut scientiæ, sed longe plures, qui nullius; alios aliis causis & affectibus moveri, ut hactenus Ecclesia Romana non absimilis sit reti, quod ex mari pisces, monstra, limum, conchylia, sed pauciſſimas extrahat margaritas. Eo magis itaque gloriari Romano-Catholicos, si aliquem inter plurimos ceperint, cujus ingenium laudari possit, talemque omnino esse Brueysium qui & Autoris titulum acquisiverit, libro contra Expositionem Condomensem, non spernendo edito; sed majoris illum fieri ait ab iis, quibus non nisi ex

libro ſuo innotuit, quam qui ejus vitam moresque propius introſpexerint. Hæc expoſiturus, congreſſum quendam virorum, diverſa, ut dictum, de Brueyſio ſentientium, inducit, & inde in dialogi formam tractatum hunc ſuum componit. Ex collocutoribus illis aliquis agnoſcit, quæ jam diximus de ingenio Brueyſii, illudque magis in libro contra Reformatos, quam in priori, quo eos defenderat, apparere, ironice concedit, ideo ſcilicet, quia ut ipſe profitetur, omnia ex Epiſcopi inſpiratione ſcripſerit. Excipit hunc, qui ſe Brueyſium familiariter noſſe dicit: alius denique, qui literas ex patria hominis producit, de vita ejus ante acta & cauſis mutationis. Summa eſt: ingenio non eſſe infelici, nec ineruditum, ſed qui ſeria neglexerit, & Advocati nudo nomine aſſumto, per otium & luxum profligato patrimonio, magnum æs alienum, centum ſcilicet millium librarum, contraxerit. Inde, ut creditorum perſecutiones evitaret, Genevam conceſſiſſe, & Theologicis ſtudiis operatum, locum inter Eccleſiæ miniſtros quæſiviſſe, edito etiam adverſus Expoſitionem Condomenſem libro nomen adeptum. Sed cum homini delicato & voluptuoſo, ejuſque paupertati levandæ, genus id vitæ non ſatisfaceret, deficiendi conſilium cepiſſe eo ſucceſſu, ut a Boſſueto benigne exceptus, penſionem 1500 librarum & diploma a Rege obtinuerit, quo creditorum actiones ad ſexennium ſiſtuntur. His auditis Dialogiſtæ, quæ in proœmio de converſionis ſuæ cauſis Brueyſius jactaverat, irrident, & qui narrantis perſonam ſumit autor, librum ejus, quo defectionem tueri voluit, refutatione indignum cenſet, cum ut ipſe fatetur, nihil ſcripſerit, quod non hauſerit ex Epiſcopi tractatu, adeoque nihil reſponderi fere poſſit, quod iſti non ſit reſponſum. Hoc ut palam fiat, præcipua libri capita percurruntur, & aliud quaſi agendo nihilominus refelluntur, quæ Brueyſius ex Epiſcopi ſcriptis repetita, ingenioſe & eleganter, ut agnoſcit Antagoniſta, elocutus fuerat. Cum vero de re ipſa tractans, ante omnia primaria fidei capita, in quibus nullus inter partes diſſenſus eſt, enumeraverit, eo fine, ut oſtenderet, ſatis gravem cauſam diſcedendi ab Eccleſia Romana, veritates illas profitenti, non fuiſſe; inverſo argumento contenditur, nec ſatis gravem cauſam eſſe, ad exagitandos & condemnandos Proteſtantes, qui præcipua illa dogmata pariter retinuerint. Ad primum vero Examinis caput, quo articuli ut putantur leviores, qui fundamentum non conſtituant, & pro quibus, ad exemplum Epiſcopi, Brueyſius non tam apologiam quam excusationem, malæ causæ indicem, scripserit; ita respondetur: non convenire inter utramque Ecclesiam, quinam articuli ad fundamentum pertineant, & esse inter eos, quos Examinator pro levibus habeat, qui gravissimi sint, & vel singuli communionem impediant, v.g. de cultu religioso soli Deo præstando, de unico sacrificio Christi satisfactorio, de autoritate sacræ Scripturæ suprema traditioni & potestati Pontificiæ præferenda. Dum enim hæc negent Romano-Catholici, & præterea Reformatis alia credenda & servanda obtrudant, v.g. usum linguæ Latinæ in Sacris, quinque superflua Sacramenta, purgatorium, alia, nequaquam sibi fas esse, cum talia profitentibus, contradicente conscientia, in cœtum coire, licet ita errantes tolerent, tantoque justius petant, se quoque tolerari, magnamque querendi causam habeant, quod id non fiat. Altero Examinis sui capite tres articulos, ut dictum est, incrustandos, & a Reformatorum interpretatione vindicandos sumserat Advocatus. Ad hæc repetuntur olim regesta: frustra concilii Tridentini decretum allegari, quo cultus sanctorum non imperatur, sed permittitur; hoc enim ipsum non recte factum, & in praxi manifesto peccari, nec ad rem pertinere, quod in Gallia a moderatioribus quædam corrigenda censeantur; nihilominus enim publice indulgeri omnibus superstitionibus & abusibus, nulloq; jure Reformatos urgeri, ut ad corruptos ejusmodi cœtus aggregentur, quorum Ecclesia non ex particulari Gallorum quorundam excusatione aut correctione (quæ tamen locum non habeat) sed ex publica praxi & aliarum nationum consensu judicanda sit, ex quibus nulla Gallorum quorundam limitationibus assensum præbeat. Quæ vero de articulo justificationis speciose commentetur Brueysius, & quæ de gratia Dei & spe salutis magnifice disserat, aut non sincera, aut a Tridentinis placitis difformia esse; quod si reipsa non discrepent in hoc capite Catholici a Reformatis, iniquissimum esse quod illi hos quotidie cogant sententiam suam ut hæreticam & detestabilem abjurare. Nec magis probandum, quod tantopere invehantur in doctrinam de certitudine salutis, cum Reformati per hanc nihil aliud intelligant, quam virtutem illam Christianorum tertiam, quæ spes dicitur, & per quam homines fideles & bene mortificati, sibi persuadent impetraturos se gratiam Dei & donum perseverantiæ, atque gloriæ. De præsentia reali & sacra Eucharistia prolixe agit autor, & Lutheranos quidem ferri posse putat, qui Proſelytus deceptus, ſive Paroramata Brueyſii, in examine ſeparationis Proteſtantium.

AUtor, qui loco nominis literas D.L. præfationi ſubſcripſit, juventutem ſuam, & quod ſcribente etiam contra Brueyſium Jurio, in arenam deſcenderit, excuſat, ſibique id potiſſimum propoſitum fuiſſe dicit, ut Boſſueto Epiſcopo, & diſcipulo ejus Brueyſio Bellarminum opponeret, ſperans fore, ut cum hoc religionis ſuæ ſane peritiſſimo commiſſi, & concilium Tridentinum contrario ſenſu explicantes, cauſam perdant, ſententia Eccleſiæ Romanæ in incerto relicta, ad quam tamen amplectendam omnes movere velint, nulloque non artificio & delinimento utantur. Miratur dein quid tam ſubito mutaverit Brueyſium, ut pro Epiſcopi ſententia a. 1683 ſcriberet, quam anno præcedenti tanto ſtudio & zelo refutaverat; & cur oblitus ſit promiſſionis ſuæ, de conſtantia in religione reformata in celebri Reformatorum conſenſu, ſponte, & nemine urgente eoque tempore factæ, quo jam cum Epiſcopo conferre cœperat. Utilitatis ſcilicet reſpectum evidenter apparere, nec aliud nunc quæri a deſertoribus. Dubitat poſtea, an non ipſe Epiſcopus, autor ſit libri Brueyſiani, veriſimilius tamen videri, quod non ſit: itaque ſalvo honore, qui Epiſcopo non immerito deferatur, cum Brueyſio ſibi negotium fore Hujus unum alterumve erratum ſive parorama præliminariter oſtendit, v. g. quod præſupponat, ante Lutherum totam Eccleſiam in Romana communione incluſam fuiſſe: cum tamen vel in Bohemia & alibi ſuperfuerint, qui ſanctum veritatis ſemen a Wiclefo & Huſſo jactum retinuerint. Dein quod ex reformatione juſtitiam ſive iram divinam a Proteſtantibus, clementiam vero a Romanenſibus agnoſci velit, cum invertenda hæc ſint, illis benignitatem Dei ob detectam veritatem laudantibus, his imminutam Pontificis potentiam & tot regna illi ſubtracta deplorantibus; nullum certe in hiſtoria prioris ſeculi veſtigium reperiri, quod Rom. Catholici reformationem pro beneficio divino celebra-

ENARRATIO QUORUNDAM EXPERIMENTORUM in aliquot congregationibus Societatis Regiæ inſtitutorum a Friderico Slario Med. D. cum brevi applicatione ipſorum ad materiam medicam.

Ex Transactionibus Philoſophicis Anglicis n. 150. 10. Aug. 1683.

Experimentum I.

Comparatio Phoſphori cum Fulgure.

1. NE Phoſphorus meus ſolidus paulatim conſumeretur, ſueveram hactenus ipſum ad fundum vitri aqua pleni demittere, cumque nuper complura hujusmodi vaſcula in menſa diſpoſuiſſem, quæ lectum tenentis viſui paterent, frequentes luminis radios ex aqua ſubinde adſcendere obſervavi, quibus ita illuſtrabatur aer ſuperior, ut terrorem incuteret ſpectaculum, cui ſimile quid antea non obvenerat. Igneum iſthoc meteorum per incumbentem aquam aliquanto coarctatum tranſit, ut primum vero inde emerſerit, latiſſime expanditur. Si quis hoc experimentum bene ac feliciter perficere cupiat, vitro utetur profundiori, ac cylindrico, nec ipſum ultra tres quartas aqua replebit.

Comparando has apparentias cum fulgure, inveniemus fulgur, quod ad intervalla erumpit, nubes quascunque ſpiſſiſimas penetrare, ac ne maximis quidem tempeſtatibus & cataractis aquarum extingui vel cohiberi, ſed inſtar radiorum e Sole aut quovis igne alio emanantium libere per vitrum & aquam tranſire.

2. Phoſphorus in hoc ſtatu calida ſolum tempeſtate radios luminis emittit, eſtque, ut iſtiusmodi effectus emergat, certa aeris diſpoſitione opus; hyberno enim tempore nunquam tale quid obſervavi.

Sic æſtivus anni calor fulguri producendo maxime idoneus eſt.

3. Lumen illud e phoſphoro emiſſum, corpus facillime alias ignem concipiens, nec accendit nec cremat. Cujus rei periculum feci, admovendo digitum, quem inde illæſum retraxi. Charta inſuper, ſtupa, aliisque hujus generis uſus ſum, quæ omnia non magis conflagrarunt, quam cum radios lunares ope vitri concavi in corpora combuſtibilia projeci.

Hujusmodi innoxium ignem & fulgur eſſe, vulgariter compertum eſt.

4. Materia Phoſphori, quamdiu in corpore magis condenſato incluſa eſt, calore aeris ſolaribusque radiis facile accenditur, & tunc igne ardentiſſimo flagrat, non niſi ſumma cura adhibita reſtinguendo.

Sic fulgur ſi coarctatum aerique involutum fuerit, ut non facile per ſubtiliorem ætherem diffundatur, ignem ædibus arboribusque immittet, ac damna maxima inferet.

5. Noſtra materia dum ardet, corroſivi cujusdam partes agit, poſtquam deflagravit, in menſtruum abit, quo aurum, ferrum, & alia metalla ſolvuntur.

Sic flamma fulguris aurum, ferrum, plumbum &c. liquefacit. His experimentis maxime naturaliter referri phænomena fulguris nobis viſa ſunt, quæ illis multo ſunt clariora, quibus præparandis nitrum, pulvis pyrius, vel aurum fulminans adhibetur. De aliis quibusdam proprietatibus ejusdem ſplendentis ac comburentis præparationis Chymicæ, conferantur Philoſophicæ Collectiones.

Experimentum II.

Miſcendo duos liquores actu frigidos rutilantia quædam & ignea corpuſcula efficere, quæ non in tenebris tantum, verum etiam tempore meridiano in aere illuminato ſplendeant.

Hoc experimentum admiratione profecto digniſſimum hoc ordine perfeci. Accepi grana decem aut viginti Phoſphori ſolidi, ac tantum aquæ affudi, quantum ipſis obtegendis ſufficiebat, (drachmam fuiſſe exiſtimo,) ut liquefierent. Cum actu frigida eſſet hæc aqua, duabus unciis olei Vitrioli ipſam miſcui, factaque agitatione primum productus eſt calor, deinde ignei quidam globuli emiſſi adſcenderunt, qui ſtellarum inſtar ad latera vitri adhærentes, jucundo adſtantium ſpectaculo aliquandiu flagrarunt.

Experimentum III.

Dictæ mixtioni oleum aliud addendo flammam excitare.

Fit

Fit hoc, ſi pauxillum olei Terebinthinæ immittatur; absque vaſis enim agitatione, mixta corpora ignem concipient ac vehementiſſime flagrabunt. Et fieri quidem hoc experimentum in vaſe aperto, ut aeri liber aditus pateat, debet. Idem ſucceſſit infuſo oleo Petrolei & de lateribus; ſed oleo communi & ſpiritu vini flammam excitare non potui.

Qui hanc flagrantem mixtionem componunt liquores, ſi ſeparatim capiantur, omnes ad tactum frigidi ſunt, nonnulli etiam virtute ac effectu. Sic aqua & oleum Vitrioli natura frigefaciunt; ſed cum confunduntur, fervorem efficiunt, qui agilibus phoſphori particulis ſubito ignem communicat. Atque is ubi materiam, quæ accendi poſſit, invenit, qualis eſt oleum Terebinthinæ & ſimilia, in flammam ſatis conſpicuam erumpit, quemadmodum in oleis, dum coquuntur, ebullientibus uſu venit.

Hæc experimenta omnia inferiori loco haberentur, ſi illud Borrichii, relatum a Bartholino in Actis Hafnienſibus, & allegatum, ut fide dignum, ab eruditiſſimo quodam Societatis noſtræ membro, ſatis ſuccederet. Titulus experimenti hic eſt: efficere, ut duorum liquorum alter alterum accendat, licet ſeorſim uterque actu frigidus ſit. Jam equidem domi aliquoties iterato inutiliter tentamine, noram eventum non reſpondere promiſſis Borrichii, lubens tamen admodum ad capiendum experimentum coram tot teſtibus adducebar; tum quia id ſua ſpecie olim præſentes aliquos fefellerat, tum quia Viri fide digni in Germania ipſo, ut indubitato, ad confirmandas hypotheſes paſſim utebantur. Itaque quodammodo neceſſarium erat, de re tanti momenti decernere.

Experimentum IV.

Quod eſt refutatio experimenti Borrichiani de accenſione.

Accepi, ut juſſerat Borrichius, quatuor uncias ſpiritus Venetæ Terebinth. recentiſſimi, eisque addidi ſex uncias aquæ fortis optimæ. Factam in vaſe vitreo mixtionem radiis ſolaribus expoſui; quo ipſo tamen nos deceptum iri quibusdam adſtantibus prædixi. Poſt dimidiam horam liquores adeo effervescere cœperunt, ut ſpiſſiſſimum fumum emitterent, quem cortice ſubereo vas obturante coarctavi ac de-ni. Nam si ordo inversus fuerit, nulla sequetur ebullitio, id quod Philosophorum rationem haud parum obtundit. In hoc experimento (maxime si ingredientia ad eminentem perfectionis gradum deducta fuerint) Spiritus Vini instar ignei carbonis se habet; uti ignis sursum agit ac per halitus adscendere facit aquam, quæ ipsi infunditur; sic Spiritus Nitri vastam copiam Spiritus Vinosi sursum magna vi tollit, ut tota subito camera odore impleatur. Quo vero accuratius hujus rei veritatem scrutarer, partes æquales in vase vitreo miscui, applicato ipsi alio recipiente capaciori, atque hoc pacto condensato vapore, qui e corporibus commistis adscenderat, Spiritus Vini haud exiguam copiam rursus obtinuit.

Utrumque experimentum impugnandæ notioni Alcali & Acidi inservire potest, siquidem summi conflictus excitari per corpora differentis texturæ videmus, in quibus ista duo principia haud quaquam conspicua sunt. Habemus hic sane acida validissima, sed de nullo Alcali neque volatili neque fixo ulla suspicio est. Nec videtur illud Alcali, quod in Spiritu Nitri latere vulgo creditur, tanti conflictus causa esse; dubium enim est, an tale quid revera existat. Quod si Alcali fuit, perdidit sane jam vim suam, agente in ipsum acido tam forti, in cujus sinu quasi delitescit. Tam bene lignum igni admotum manet illæsum, quam hujusmodi Alcali sub acidi tam vigorosi potentia se tueri potest. Sed hoc obiter. Varii dantur liquores, qui commixti magis minusque effervescunt, facilius aut difficilius inflammantur, & ad diversos gradus caloris perveniunt, ut febrilium ardorum causæ hinc cognosci possint, perque varia experimenta obviæ fiant. Magis arduum est, de frigidis quibusdam affectibus sanguinis, aliorumque succorum corporis rationem reddere. Nam qui hysterica passione laborant, de frigore sanguinis plerumque conqueruntur, durante paroxysmo, quod ignis sat commodus, & cordialia remedia vix fugant. In his pulsus fere tardior est, cum contra in urente febricitantium paroxysmo nunquam non citior sit. Hæc clarius explicabuntur solutione salis Armoniaci, quam Nitri, in aqua.

Experimentum VI.

De frigore absque ebullitione producto, Hystericorum Paroxysmorum rationem reddens.

Quartam partem libræ Salis Armoniaci sextario fere aquæ injectam

Ebionitarum, quæ ad Hebræos scripsit, ita habet. Fuit in diebus Herodis regis Judææ, & Caiphæ pontificis, quidam nomine Joseph, de tribu Benjamin, de civitate Jerusalem, & ipse ex genere Judæorum, qui & ipse fuit discipulus Christi, sed occulte propter metum Judæorum. Et erat in magna diuturnitate, & in tertia parte possessionis suæ. Hic ascendit cum Nicodemo ad Pilatum, & petiit corpus Jesu. Et audito Pilato, quod petisset corpus Jesu, misit ad eum, & interrogavit eum, si scisset quod mortuus esset. Et quia ei dixerat, quod scisset, tradidit ei corpus. Et ille cum accepisset, involvit illud in mundo sindone, & posuit illud in monumento novo, in quo nemo unquam fuerat positus. Et volvit saxum magnum ad ostium monumenti, & abiit. Et ecce Judæi quærebant corpus Jesu, ut projicerent illud in sepulchrum peregrinorum. Et dixerunt: Scimus quia discipulus ejus fuit, qui petiit corpus ejus, & ipse est occultus discipulus, qui timebat Judæos. Et ecce ille sedebat in sepulchro cum uxore sua, & filiis suis, & filiabus suis, & cognatis suis, & omnibus familiis suis. Et ecce Judæi quærebant corpus Jesu, ut projicerent illud in sepulchrum peregrinorum. Et dixerunt: Scimus quia discipulus ejus fuit, qui petiit corpus ejus, & ipse est occultus discipulus, qui timebat Judæos. Et ecce ille sedebat in sepulchro cum uxore sua, & filiis suis, & filiabus suis, & cognatis suis, & omnibus familiis suis. Et ecce unde ſitis exoritur. Porro minima lymphæ quantitas per viam ordinariam ſecernitur, maxima pars a venis abſorbetur, & ſalia, quæ in ſanguinis maſſa ſunt, diluit, ut in ſolutionem & fluorem vertantur, producendo affectui frigido idoneum. Sic ſal Armoniacum poterit cum quibusdam liquoribus miſceri, cum aliis non item, cum Spiritu Vini penitus fere non poteſt, non æque cum vino ac cum aqua, & quo limpidior hæc eſt, eo commodius ac citius reſolvitur, efficitque, in hoc potiſſimum menſtruo, frigidas illas operationes. Conjectura illa haud vana, de extraordinaria tum temporis effuſione lymphæ in maſſam ſanguinis, porro confirmatur per magnam urinæ quantitatem, quam ægroti reddunt, ex qua ratione nonnulli de his caſibus parum inſtructi, diabeten metuere ſolent. Urina enim plerumque lurida ac limpidior eſt. Idem ulterius hinc confirmatur, quod cum glandulæ cuticulares ab officio tranſpirandi arcentur, per quodcunque ambiens frigidum ac fluidum (ut illis accidit, qui in aquam intrant,) major urinæ quantitas in homine fiat, quam pallidiorem & poſt ſecundam aut tertiam evacuationem inſipidam comperi. Sed cavendum mihi eſt, ne tædium lectori creem.

Experimentum VII.

De frigore per inſignem ebullitionem producto, ubi frigidi calidique paroxyſmi febrium liquoribus quibusdam commixtis ſimiles eſſe oſtenduntur.

Quoties in hoc experimento uſi ſumus acido, ſive aceti, ſive omphacii, lujulæ, mali aurantii & limonii, vel mitiore aliquo; immiſſo in hos ſuccos volatili ſale ſanguinis humani, ſemper inſecuta eſt ebullitio conſpicua, quæ tamen calorem ullum præter expectationem nequaquam excitavit, quod alias liquores ebullientes facere ſolent, ſed potius thermometrum bene præparatum ita affecit, ut liquor, manifeſto frigoris ſigno, in ipſo deſcenderit. Inveni, quanto fortius acidum erat, tanto ebullitionem majorem fuiſſe, & frigus intenſius, quod ſane obſervari meretur.

Ex hac ratione aceto fortiſſimo uſus ſum, purificato per congelationem (quem parandi modum Honoratiſſimus Dn. Boyle docuit,) & in hac mixtione fere usque ad punctum congelationis deventum fuit. Quoniam autem moleſta eſt hujus aceti præparatio, nec fieri ni-ſi certo tempore poteſt, ideoque experimentum ope Spiritus Veneris vel æruginis, aceti ſane omnium optimi, utplurimum perfeci. Hoc adhibito frigus tactu percipitur, & in thermometro mutationes maximas efficit. Memini depreſſiſſe hanc mixtionem tempore æſtivo aquam Thermometri, ad ſextum pollicem infra temperamentum frigidioris aquæ fontanæ, ut vix ad dimidium pollicem a nota congelationis diſtaret. Dum hoc accidit, liquor tumeſcit, ampliusque ſpatium, quam antea requirit, nec breviori vaſe continetur.

Sunt circa hoc experimentum, quæ peculiarem curam merentur. Obſervatione dignum eſt, quod magna validaque motio duorum liquorum diverſæ naturæ, calorem adeo non producat, ut potius frigoris intenſioris cauſa ſit, idque inſuper cum manifeſta partium expanſione contingat. Aliam ejusdem rei confirmationem ſuppeditat aptum & æque inexpectatum experimentum, in quo effectus itidem vulgari obſervationi contrarius occurrit. Ita vero ſe habet. Si oleo vitrioli admiſceas quantitatem aquæ, calor ſenſibilis abſque liquorum expanſione fiet, cum alias communiter calor in vino, aqua & pleriſque fluidis corporibus eam efficiat. Hic enim condenſatio & contractio potius accidit, ut ad oculum apparet, ſi experimentum in vitro colli longiuſculi inſtituatur, & nota protinus facta mixtione in exteriori ſuperficie fiat. Utriusque experimenti ratio difficulter ex hypotheſi Carteſiana redditur; non exiſtimo tamen, hanc ab illis prorſus deſtrui ac everti. Sed ut in experimenti enarratione pergam, cum ſpectatoribus meis ſufficienter demonſtraſſem, gradum frigoris producti admodum notabilem eſſe, paucas aliquot guttulas alterius liquoris infudi, quæ illico temperamentum frigidæ mixtionis immutabant, ac duorum triumve minutorum ſpatio ad calorem reducebant illo ambientis aeris (erat autem dies æſtivus Julii, quo Solis calor haud parum urgebat,) intenſiorem.

Jam fiat experimenti applicatio. In frigido paroxyſmo febrium ſæpius fortior ac concitatior eſt pulſus, qui ebullitionem, (effervescentiam nominare non audeo,) ac celerem motum ſanguinis arguit, & capitis aliarumque partium dolores forte ab extenſione inſueta vaſorum proveniunt, quæ expanſionem humorum ebullientium neceſſario comitatur. In hac artificiali, quamvis frigida mixtione, magna commotio, ebullitio, & expanſio liquorum videtur. In ſanguine aliisque ſuccis corporis, ſubinde magnam ſalis volatilis copiam reperimus, ac nonnunquam vel ab aere infecto, vel a mala vivendi ratione & a variis cauſis, ſucci acidi ad ſanguinem deferri poſſunt, qui dum in ſalia volatilia, quibus ſanguis abundat, agunt, frigus ſatis producunt ſenſibile. Non rari ſunt ægroti, qui e ventriculo ac inteſtinis (grandibus illis emunctoriis ſanguinis,) liquores acidos ejecerunt, dentes ipſos ac ſolidiores partes alias corroſuros. Sic in noſtro experimento planum eſt, acidum extraneum, ubi ſal volatile ex ſanguine collectum invenerit, effectum frigidum producere, & ſiquidem nullos liquores novi, qui præter hujus generis mixtionem tale phænomenon frigidum exhibeant, hinc non præter rationem creditur, ſimilem mixtionem frigidorum paroxyſmorum febris cauſam eſſe.

Quod incaleſcentiam attinet, quæ in mixtione noſtra contingit, dixiſſe debueram, ipſam factam fuiſſe nuda quarundam guttularum olei ſulphuris per campanam additione, qui liquor quoniam originem ſuam igni debet, forte calorificam virtutem inde etiam poſſidet, per quam calidum paroxyſmum febrium repræſentat. Obſervavi non obſtante frigidæ mixtionis actione, ipſam craſſiorem magisque viſcoſam, quam antea erat, evaſiſſe, affuſo autem oleo memorato ſive Spiritu ſulphuris factam fuiſſe clariorem magisque fluidam. Similiter agiles humani corporis ſpiritus, qui licet pro igne actuali haberi nequeant, ipſi tamen analogi ſunt, quoties in majori copia turbidam maſſam ſanguinis intrant, primum ſuo calore ſuaque actione craſſiores glomos attenuant, poſtea particulas non bene habentes ſubigunt, ipſasque in rectam texturam reducunt, expellendo heterogeneas per ſudorem, vel urinam, vel utrovis modo; quod ipſum eſt reconvaleſcentiæ victique paroxyſmi ſignum.

Unicum hoc, quod opponi mihi poterit, removebo. Videlicet non videntur acida tam fortia in humano corpore inveniri, qualibus ego in experimentis utor.

Reſpondeo, nec gradu tam ſublimi frigoris opus eſſe, ut febrim ſanguis noſter patiatur. Levis enim declinatio ab uſitata ejus temperie nobis commovendis ſufficit.

Appendix.

FAciam hic obiter mentionem propositionis dignissimi cujusdam membri Societatis nostræ, qua jubebamur experiri, annon Cortex Peruvianus febrim artificialem a liquoribus nostris productam præveniret. Cujus rei factum quidem periculum fuit, sed eventus exspectationi non respondit. Paravimus enim infusionem corticis in aceto communi, ac eidem injecimus quantitatem Salis memorati volatilis, ubi statim liquorum sensibilis commotio insecuta est, cum aliquo gradu frigoris, veruntamen non erat ista adeo vehemens, ut antea, cumque opium cortici admisceretur, nequaquam eo perveniri observavimus, quo prius experimentum ascenderat. Ipsa interim aciditas in hoc casu haud quaquam penitus extinguebatur. Quantum ad corticem attinet, non jam audeo ejus naturam hoc experimento declarare, quippe quod hac solum fini institueramus, ut satisfieret desiderio Viri doctissimi. Neque enim unquam existimavi, febrifuga remedia alcalium, dum operantur, partes agere. Sed si ostendero, alia medicamenta esse ad Alcalium familiam pertinentia, quæ mederi febribus certum sit, hoc ipso evincam, fieri id destructione quorundum acidorum humores & viscera obsidentium, ut ita prohibeant ebullitionem, quam efficere hujusmodi liquores, nbi commixti fuerint, solent. Manifestum est corallia, oculos cancri &alia testacea, quæ alcalibus fixis vulgo annumerantur, imo fixa illa salia Absinthii & Carduibenedicti &c. perinde ut salia quævis volatilia corrigere, & quam maxime immutare acidos humores, ubicunque ipsos inveniunt, ac omnino conservare liquores, qui acescendo alias facile corrumpuntur ac degenerant. Ita lac & sanguis ipse multo diutius servantur, illud ne acescat, hic ne fermentet aut putrefiat, si cum sale volatili misceantur. Quod itidem veritati consonum est, febres quamplurimas istiusmodi remediis fugatas fuisse, sal absinthii & salia volatilia febrifugis componendis maxime adhibentur. Ut ulterius hoc experimentum prosequeremur, dissolvimus tantum calcis, quantum ab aceto optimo fieri poterat, colatumque per filtrum Spiritui rectificato sanguinis injecimus, nullam tamen ebullitionem sequi vidimus, nec frigoris ullum aut caloris sensum percepimus.

Et quia ipſæ ordinatæ v modo creſcunt, modo decreſcunt, erit d v modo affirmativa modo negativa quantitas, & priore caſu 1 V 1 B tangens ducitur verſus A; poſteriore 2 V 2B in partes averſas: neutrum autem fit in medio circa M, quo momento ipſæ v neque creſcunt neque decreſcunt, ſed in ſtatu ſunt, adeoque fit d v æqu. o, ubi nihil refert quantitas ſit ne affirmativa an negativa, nam †o æqu. -o: eoque in loco ipſa v, nempe ordinata L M, eſt maxima (vel ſi convexitatem Axi obverteret, Minima) & tangens curvæ in M neque ſupra X ducitur ad partes A ibique axi propinquat, neque infra X ad partes contrarias, ſed eſt axi parallela. Si d v ſit infinita reſpectu ipſius d x, tunc tangens eſt ad axem recta, ſeu eſt ipſa ordinata. Si d v & d x æquales, tangens facit angulum ſemirectum ad axem. Si creſcentibus ordinatis v, creſcunt etiam ipſa earum incrementa vel differentiæ, d v; (ſeu ſi poſitis d v affirmativis etiam d d v differentiæ differentiarum ſunt affirmativæ, vel negativis negativæ) curva axi obvertit concavitatem; alias convexitatem: ubi vero eſt maximum vel minimum incrementum, vel ubi incrementa ex decreſcentibus fiunt creſcentia aut contra, ibi eſt punctum flexus contrarii, & concavitas atque convexitas inter ſe permutantur, modo non & ordinatæ ibi ex creſcentibus fiant decreſcentes, vel contra, tunc enim concavitas aut convexitas maneret: ut autem crementa continuent creſcere aut decreſcere, ordinatæ vero ex creſcentibus fiant decreſcentes vel contra, fieri non poteſt. Itaque punctum flexus contrarii locum habet, quando neque v neque d v exiſtente o, tamen d d v eſt o. Unde etiam problema flexus contrarii non duas ut problema maximæ, ſed tres habet radices æquales. Atque hæc omnia quidem pendent a recto uſu ſignorum.

Interdum autem adhibenda ſunt Signa Ambigua, ut nuper in diviſione, antequam ſcilicet conſtet quomodo explicari debeant. Et quidem ſi creſcentibus x, creſcunt (decreſcunt) $\frac{v}{y}$ -- debent ſigna ambigua in d $\frac{v}{y}$ ſeu in $\frac{\dagger v dy \overline{\dagger} y dv}{yy}$ ita explicari, ut hæc fractio fiat quantitas affirmativa (negativa.) Significat autem $\overline{\dagger}$ contrarium ipſius †, ut ſi hoc ſit † illud ſit --, vel contra. Poſſunt & in eodem calculo occurrere plures ambiguitates, quas diſtinguo parentheſibus, exempli

COntinet Liber integram doctrinam Phyſicam per theoremata & axiomata, quibus partibus ſingula capita conſtant, explicatam. In Axiomatibus controverſiæ juxta hypotheſes ſcriptorum, non ſolum antiquorum, ſed & recentium breviter proponuntur, & additis limitationibus deciduntur. Eclecticam ergo philoſophandi rationem ſequitur, in qua ſæpe Sperlingii opiniones præ Peripateticis placent, ſæpe etiam recentiſſimorum Philoſophorum inventa approbantur.

GVNTHERI CHRISTOPHORI SCHELHAMMERI, Med. Doct. & Prof. in Academia Julia, de Auditu Liber unus.

Lugd. Batav. apud Petrum de Graaf, anno 1684.

AUditus rationem doctiſſimus Vir ſibi præprimis excolendam ſumſit, quod neminem ſciret accurato ſatis ſtudio in eam inquiſiviſſe. Primam occaſionem meditationis caſus ſuggeſſit. Dum enim cultas Europæ regiones peragrando cum Echo confabulationem non raro inſtitueret, in cogitationem venit, ut montium cavernis variisque anfractibus ſonus capitur, captusque remittitur; ita in aure humana auditionem perfici. Quæ ſecum reputans Romam venit, ibique ex Kircheri Phonurgia, atque ipſius, qui eam ſcripſit, celeberrimi viri colloquio, in ſua ſententia plane confirmatus fuit. Cogitata autem ſua, quæ jam tum in chartam conjicere cœperat, abſolvit redux ex itinere in Academia Helmſtadienſi. Opuſculum in tres partes digeſſit; in prima de organo; in altera de objecto, ſono, agit; in poſtrema ex his tanquam ex duabus præmiſſis concluſiones educit, quibus exponitur, quo pacto in aure ſonus excipiatur, animæ mox inferendus; hoc eſt quomodo fiat auditio.

Ut Parte I. Organum felicius deſcriberet, non ſolum hominum, ſed & multorum brutorum temporalia oſſa diffracta contemplatus eſt atque ut ſtructuræ aurium, tum in hominibus tum in brutis differant, diligenter annotavit, & adjectis iconibus illuſtravit. Quid in aure externa notabile occurrat, proponit cap. 1, & antequam de interna agat, prius id, quod inter utramque intermedium, tanquam via regia ſonum introducit, meatum ſcilicet auditorium conſiderat, quem membrana claudit, inepte tympanum vulgo dicta, rectius menynx: chordam, quam per medium ejus decurrere credant Anatomici, in plerisq; animalibus non reperiri aſſerit, in homine ſe non vidiſſe fatetur; interim Euſtachio aſſentitur, noviſſimum ſcriptorem Gallum L' Amy erraſſe judicans, qui tendinem eſſe chordam hanc muſculi cujusdam perhibuit, cap. 2. Hinc cap. 3. ad internam auris ſtructuram tranſit, in qua præcipuum ſenſus inſtrumentum latet. Ejus primam partem concham, non modo pro generis, ſed & ætatis diverſitate in nonnullis animalibus variare admodum, obſervat; falli VVallisium, qui eandem eſſe ejus cavitatis in ove atque vitulo ſtructuram ſcripſit. Tendinem externi muſculi, quem proceſſui mallei inſertum putavit Cæcilius Folius, Auctor ſemper forti ſed laxo ligamento petroſo oſſi connexum deprehendit: hoc ligamentum pro muſculo male habitum a L' Amy: externum muſculum perperam neglectum a VVilliſio; Riolanum vero de muſculis auris prorſus ineptiiſſe. Monet cavere errorem Bartholini in Anatomia Reformata & Riolani, aquæ ductum Fallopianum cum canali, qui ex auribus in poſtremum palati ſpatium excurrit, rit, confundentium. Cap. 5. os petroſum cum iis quæ continet exponens, notat Aquapendentis, Caſſerii, L'Amy lapſus: imaginem oſſis petroſi a Folio delineatam & paſſim libris illatam, non ſatis fidam agnoſcit: tandem Aquæductum Fallopii, quem præ aliis Anatomicis commendat, ut in homine ſe habet, deſcribit.

Parte altera initio examinat Anatomicorum de auditu ſententias, quorum alii aerem internum (quem ingenitum male venditant,) alii nervum auditorium primarium auditus organum aſſeruerunt, oſtenditque utrosque ſua opinione deceptos. Poſt hoc examen in ſoni proprietates inquirit, quid ſcilicet is patiatur, tum in aere, tum in corporibus ſolidis, in quæ incidit. Quæ omnia mathematicorum more per axiomata & propoſitiones agit. Concluſiones in tertia libri parte inferuntur. Aliqua hic ex Kirchero mutuatus eſt, reliqua de ſuo addidit. Demonſtrat igitur, ſonum in aere productum cum aere ipſo ſimul moto per ejus ſpatia diſcurrere: dari radios ſonoros æque ut radios luminares, per quos auditus fiat: eos radios non eſſe ipſum ſonum, ſed ejus tantum ſpeciem, i.e. ſimulacrum & quaſi imaginem ſoni, qui ex colliſione corporum exſurgebat, perinde ut in viſione eſt ſimulacrum ſeu imago rerum, quæ cum radiis luminis in oculum ingrediuntur: vane ergo VVilliſium comminiſci particulas in aere ſoniferas. Radios ſonoros non citius ferri aere, quod perhibet VVilliſius, ſed cum ipſo æqualiter. Sonum per aerem, ex ingenioſiſſimi Leibnitii Conſiliarii Hannoverani communicato ſibi invento, docet hoc modo propagari: Aer, utpote corpus fluidum, compreſſum, indeque elaſtro præditum, ac in tremorem agi aptum, impreſſam ſemel ſpeciem ſoni, una particula in aliam decurrente, totoq; aere contremente, per ſeipſum propagat, perinde uti ſolida corpora faciunt. Non ſecus enim ac chorda commovetur, ac reciprocis ictibus huc illuc decurrit, aer quoque commoveri totus videtur; hinc una aeris particula alteri impreſſam ſpeciem communicat, donec ob reactionem particularum vis tandem ac motus omnis elangueſcat, & ſonus propagari deſinat. Subjicit paradoxon: ſonum per aerem propagatum a principio ad finem undique ferri pari velocitate, ſed viribus remittere. Quibus de ſono in aere libero inter cætera dictis, ſuſcipit oſtendere illius peculiarem proprietatem, cum ex aliquo receptaculo in aerem illapſus eſt, v.g. ex variis tubis phonicis. Nimirum ſonum, qui ex aliquo canali in aerem liberum profertur, non in orbem æqualiter ferri, ſed potentiſſime in illam partem, verſus quam canalis dirigitur: Sonoros radios ad aurem ſpectatos, non minus quam viſivos ad oculum, coni formam habere; hinc uti viſum, ſic etiam auditum per conum fieri. Conſiderata ita ſoni propagatione per medium, nunc eum deducit ad objectum, & quid patiatur ad obſtaculum alliſus, ulterius ſcrutatur. Quandoquidem enim intra aurem duriſſimis oſſibus eſt excipiendus, extra cartilagine; tum demum, quid ibi fiat, cognoſcitur, ſi quid in ſimilibus ſoleat ipſi accidere, rite perpendatur. Cum autem objecta, in quæ incidit ſonus, varia ſint, tum duritie & transmittendi eum facilitate, tum & figura ipſa ac ſuperficie; primum diſpicit, quid ſono fiat, cum incidit de objecto tenuiore in craſſius, aut in corpus tremulum & laxius concretum: reſolvit quoq; problema, cur tormentum in medio maris tranquilli exploſum, quam elegantiſſime ac perdiu reſonet, non ſecus ac ſi in maximo fornice id factum eſſet; in turbato vero Oceano prorſus ſonus abſorbeatur? Deinde monſtrat, ut ſonus ad ſuperficiem aſperam reflectatur, ad mollem & valde poroſam abſorbeatur. Tertio ſpeculatur affectiones ſoni in corporibus concavis, ex quibus etiam ſolis auris noſtra componitur. Hic legas ex Kirchero tranſumta elegantiſſima; quomodo ſonus per canales, tubos circulares, tubas ſphæricas, per cochleas ſeu tubos conicos ſecundum lineam helicem ſive ſpiralem contortos mirabiliter propagetur, multiplicetur, augeatur.

Parte III. ſonum in aures illapſum proſequitur, & quid in ſingulis ejus partibus pati aptus ſit, ex conſtructis ſupra regulis infert. Præmiſſis cap. 1. quibusdam de perceptione ſoni, cap. 2. tradit, quid in aure externa ſono fiat, ſimulque de auriculæ ſtructura curioſe diſſerit, culpans Europæos formam aurium naturalem haud parum vitiantes, ad oſſa temporum quaſi alligando & admodum repreſſas geſtando. Cap. 3. meatus auditorii uſum, ſubſtantiam, figuram variam & flexuoſam, quidque ipſi præſtet membrana, qua tegitur, expendit. Cap. 4 de Tympano vulgo dicto, eique adhærentibus oſſibus fuſius cogitat, atque rejectis aliorum opinionibus, inter quas vulgata, membranulam eam malleo percuſſam reſonare, uti tympanum militare pulſum; amplectitur eorum ſententiam, qui exiſtimant prætenſam internæ cavitati menyngem, ad arcendum aerem externum & injurias imminentes. Similiter de uſu oſſiculorum docentes Piccolominum, Euſtachium, Aqua-quapendentem, Casserium, Marchettum, Laurentium, Spigelium, Coiterum, Bauhinũ refellit, pronuncians ad soni perceptionem ipsa nihil conferre, interim motus alicujus causa esse facta. Cap. 5. explicat, quid sono accidat, postquam per canalem auditorium, tympanum illæsus pervasit, & nunc in primam eamque maximam auris internæ cavitatem, quam concham appellant, appulit. Conjungit considerationem binarum reliquarum cavitatum altius in osse petroso abditarum, cochleæ & labyrinthi, nervique auditorii, cum hæc omnia in uno osse, quod petrosum appellatum est, reperiantur & inter se cohæreant. Qua ratione totum de soni perceptione negotium absolvit. Cap. 6. & ultimo aliqua intacta hactenus, quæ tamen in aure etiam reperiuntur, tractat; qualia sunt aquæductus Fallopianus, canalis ex aure in os decurrens, ossiculorum officium ac motus membranæ, quæ conchæ prætenditur. Hæc cujus gratia facta sint, decidit, ne si videantur alicui auditus etiam esse gratia, tractatio antegressa imperfecta reputetur. Sententia Auctoris ingeniosa de auditu paucis hæc est. Sonus collisione duorum corporum actus, se per aerem undique, ea tamen conditione diffundit, ut, si impingat in corpus durum, æquale ac læve, reflectatur pro superficiei illius duri corporis conditione ac modo. Hinc in auris externa quatuor excavatas primarias partes allabentis, ac per Helicis gyrum decurrentis radii reflectuntur ac colliguntur ad unum omnes, inque soniferum canalem seu auditorium meatum immittuntur. Ibi igitur satis crescit in ingressu quidem, augetur vero notabiliter etiam dum egreditur, & ubi incidit oblique ad os petrosum, reflectuntur iterum ac colliguntur in unum dispersi radii, & in cochleam ac labyrinthum simul immittuntur, per cujus utriusque gyros decurrens in immensum iterum augetur, & quod per viam ac tot refractiones ac reflexiones radiorum amisit, hic largiter recuperat. Ultimo, cum in cochleæ intima, tum labyrinthi communi cavitate tandem, vel ad nervos vel ad osseam laminam tenuissimam, post quam nervus latet, allidit, ibique terminatur, tuncque sensio fit exactissima. Coronidis loco tria proponit problemata doctis solvenda.

I. Quo pacto aer, ac ipse etiam tabaci herbæ fumus, ore haustus, ex aure per meatum auditorium egreditur, cum tympani menynge is exacte sit clausus, auris vero interna, præter hunc unum auditorium canalem, exitum habeat nullum?

II. Si aer cohibetur intra pectus, clausa laryngis rimula, quomodo, do, dum niſu maximo excrementa ex alvo excludimus, in aurem ex ore irrumpit, aut quæ vis illum tunc adigit?

III. Qui fit, ut cohibito intro aere, eodem niſu, tenſio quædam & ejus impulſio, per totum corpus in omnibus membris percipiatur, uti etiam in vulneribus ſtamina nuper ducta, ſola ſternutatione divellantur, ſæpe vulnera recrudeſcant, & maxima profuſio ſanguinis inde immineat?

L' HVOMO E SVE PARTI FIGVRATO E SIMBOLICO, Anatomico, Rationale, Morale, Miſtico, Politico, e Legale, Opera in due libri diſtinta, di Don Ottavio Scarlatini, Arciprete della Chieſa maggiore di Caſtel S. Pietro &c.

hoc eſt:

Homo cum ſuis partibus Figuratus & Symbolicus, Anatomicus, Rationalis, Moralis, Myſticus, Politicus & Legalis. Opus in duas partes diſtinctum D. Octavii Scarlatini, Archipresbyteri Eccleſiæ Majoris Caſtelli S. Petri &c.

Bononiæ, apud Jac. Monti, 1684, in fol.

QUod argumentum diſertiſſimus Tullius ſibi pertractandum aliquoties ſumſit, & Lactantius Firmianus, cum iſtum nihil prorſus effeciſſe ſentiret, peculiari libro explicare aggreſſus eſt, id Octavio Scarlatinus vir doctiſſimus, aliis omnibus, qui hanc materiam anguſtioribus finibus terminaverant, palmam erepturus, latiſſime ſummoque ſtudio nunc expreſſit. Hominem enim operum DEI nobiliſſimum, cum qua membrorum corporis aptam compoſitionem, quæ ad naturalem Philoſophiam pertinet, tum quatenus variarū artium ac ſcientiarum pars eſt, expendit, diviſo in duos libros opere, quorum prior hominis ſingula membra, poſterior hominem integrum conſiderat. Refert autem inprimis, quicquid hominis cognitio in elegantiori doctrina ſymbolorum, hieroglyphicorum, hiſtoriarum, nūmiſmatum utilitatis habet, &c. & ut de Autoris inſtituto Lectori melius conſtet, exempli loco caput humanum nobis ſerviet, quod ipſe hoc ordine deſcripſit. Primum quascunque cunque illius partes physicas examinat, opera veterum Medicorum Galeni ac Hippocratis, tum Vesalii inprimis & Andreæ Laurentii, Viri Clarissimi, usus. Postea symbola & emblemata, in quibus adhibitum caput humanum fuerit, exponit. Deinde quicquid ad formandos mores capitis consideratio facere potest, colligit. Subjungit proverbia & hieroglyphica veterum Ægyptiorum. Porro prodigia, quæ in capitibus humanis accidisse memorantur, & sacrificiorum aliquos ritus, quibus olim Gentiles caput obtulerunt, ex antiqua Historia enarrat. Tum simulacra, quibus per capitis humani varios positus veteres artifices vitæ nostræ miseriam, ac vicissitudines exhibuerunt, describit. Proxima sunt numismata & monetæ; quas sequuntur capitis signaturæ, e quibus eminet Nux major, exteriore cortice suo caput humanum apprime referens. Hinc quibus Diis, & quo ritu capita olim dedicarint Ethnici, edisserit, & quicquid ad hanc partem corporis humani ex historiarum monumentis peculiariter pertinet, recenset. Tandem Physiognomiæ quasdam regulas, & alias de interpretandis somniis suppeditat. Postremo cum ex Joh. Baptista Porta retulisset, solitos olim aliquos fuisse, membrorum corporis solo tactu aliis loqui, memorat, quoties caput digito contigerint, literam e, eamque vel solam, vel aliis junctam significasse, & idcirco prolixius docet, quid literæ quædam majusculæ vocum, partim initiales, partim mediæ, priscis ex communi usu denotarint. Quod ipsum legendis numismatibus, ac quibusvis inscriptionibus antiquis non parum servit. Absolvunt hanc tractationem capitis epitheta nonnulla, quibus Oratores ac Poetæ nobilissimam humanarum partium maxime significanter descripserunt. Simili fere modo reliqua hominis membra persequitur. Nec alia methodo librum secundum complexus est, qui in duobus solis ab altero differt. Primum enim nulla hic est anatomica tractatio; deinde cum iste liber prior tot omnino capitibus vel sectionibus constet, quot diversis membris homo componitur, hunc unica sectione absolvi invenimus. Adjungitur in calce tomi secundi integra Lactantii commentatio de opificio DEI, quam Autor in vernaculam suam transtulit. Postremo quicquid Cælius Rhodiginus in opere eruditissimo ad hominis structuram pertinens habet, id omne Scarlatinus noster excerpsit, summa quæque ex diffusissimis sermonibus decerpens.

Herbarium Novum Caſtoris Durantis, Medici ac Civis Romani.

Venetiis apud Jacobum Herz 1684. in folio.

PRodiit jam aliquoties hic liber, nec infimum inter eos, qui de hac materia latiſſime patente ſcripti ſunt, locum obtinet. Recudi ipſum nuper, cum nulla prioris impreſſionis exemplaria ſupereſſent, curavit Jacobus Herz, Bibliopola Venetus, atque ut novi titulum quodammodo defenderet, adjungere paucas lineolas voluit, quibus Arabum, & Chinenſium plantæ tres deſcribuntur. Sunt illæ Ribes Arabum, Herba The, & Caffe.

Harum & expreſſa ſunt ſchemata, & explicantur radices, ſemina, folia, flores, cum uſu, quem ſingulæ hominibus præſtant. Addidit quædam de compoſitione illa, quam vulgo Cicolatam vocant, & unde conſtet, breviter ediſſerit.

REFLEXIONS NOVVELLES SVR L' ACIDE & ſur l' alcali, par Mr. Bertrand Docteur en Medecine, Aggregé au College des Medecins de Marſeille.

Contemplationes novæ Acidi & Alcali, factæ per Dn. Bertrand, Doctorem Medicum, Collegio Medicorum Masſilienſium Aggregatum.

Lugduni Gallorum apud Thomam Amaulry. 1683 in 12.

Lord Mansfield, and the rest of the judges, were of opinion, that the plaintiff was entitled to recover; and that the defendant's plea was not sufficient to bar him. Whereupon the defendant's counsel prayed a writ of error, which was granted.

The cause was accordingly argued in the exchequer chamber, before the lord chief baron Parker, and the rest of the barons, on the 23d of November, 1758; when the judgment was affirmed.

BRIEF STATE OF THE ANCIENT AND PRESENT CONSTITUTION OF GREAT BRITAIN.

Britain, in the earliest ages of which we have any account, was divided into a number of petty states, governed by their own kings, and independent of each other. Their manners were rude, their laws few and simple, and their government a mixture of monarchy and democracy. The kings were elected by the people, and the people had a share in the legislature. Their power was limited, and their subjects free. Such was the state of Britain, when it was invaded by Julius Cæsar, and afterwards conquered by the Romans.

The Romans, during their stay in Britain, which was about four hundred years, introduced their own laws, manners, and government, and made the whole island a province of the Roman empire. But when the Roman empire was overrun by the barbarous nations of the north, the Romans were obliged to withdraw their forces from Britain, in order to defend their own country; and the Britons, left to themselves, fell into their former state of anarchy and confusion.

The Picts and Scots, who had never been conquered by the Romans, made frequent incursions into the northern parts of Britain, and the Britons were unable to withstand them. In this distress they applied to the Saxons, a warlike people, who had their settlements on the coast of Germany, for assistance. The Saxons came over in great numbers, and drove the Picts and Scots out of the island. But they soon began to quarrel with the Britons, and to make conquests for themselves. They divided the country among them, and established seven kingdoms, commonly called the Saxon heptarchy.

The Saxons, though they had been originally free, and had a share in the legislature, yet, when they came into Britain, they were a rude and barbarous people, and had no notion of liberty. Their kings were absolute, and their subjects slaves. The Britons, who had been long under the Roman government, were a civilized people, and had a notion of liberty; but they were conquered by the Saxons, and reduced to slavery.

The Saxons, after they had established themselves in Britain, began to civilize, and to improve in the arts of peace. They had a notion of liberty, and a share in the legislature. Their kings were elected by the people, and their power was limited. Their subjects were free. Such was the state of Britain, when it was invaded by the Danes.

The Danes, a warlike people, who had their settlements in the north of Europe, made frequent incursions into Britain, and at last conquered the greatest part of it. They established a kingdom, which lasted about thirty years, when they were driven out by the Saxons.

The Saxons, after they had recovered their kingdom, began to civilize, and to improve in the arts of peace. They had a notion of liberty, and a share in the legislature. Their kings were elected by the people, and their power was limited. Their subjects were free. Such was the state of Britain, when it was invaded by the Normans.

Circa obſervationes ab initio Eclipſis usque ad medium circiter, eas quidem præter unam, aut alteram, omnis erroris expertes eſſe non auſim affirmare; intercurrentibus enim identidem nubibus Solis ſpecies nonnihilo minor,& pallidior reddebatur, unde non omnimoda certitudo promitti poteſt; a medio autem Eclipſis ad finem usque,cum nullis nubibus Sol impediretur, obſervationes certiores ſunt, & diligentius habitæ.

Notabile fuit; cum quantitas Eclipſis fuerit dig.7.10, quod non modicam aeris offuſcationem debebat inducere, ut alias multoties in conſimilibus defectibus obſervatum eſt; nihilominus tamen vix ſenſibiliter conſuetum in Sole libero aeris ſtatum mutatum fuiſſe; unde plurimis Solem non reſpicientibus orta ſuſpicio, aut Solem non defeciſſe, aut minimum quidem. Cujus quidem rei non alia mihi videtur aſſignanda cauſa, quam ingens vis nubium a Sole maxime illuminatarum, quæ non multo ab eo diſtabant; ab his enim Solis radius per reflexionem & refractionem multiplicatus, certe intenſior redditus, deficientem aliunde ſplendorem potuit compenſare: ſic aliquando videmus præſertim occidente Sole, nubes adeo illuminatas eſſe, esse, ut post ejus etiam occasum vividissimam lucem effundant, quin imo etiam umbras non semel projiciant.

Promissas superius meridianas Solis observationes, quæ sunt tangentes distantiarum utriusque limbi Solis a vertice, habitas in Gnomone Vassæo hic habe.

LVCÆ HOLSTENII NOTÆ ET CASTIGATIONES postumæ in Stephani Byzantii Ἐθνικὰ sive de Urbibus : editæ a Theodoro Ryckio.

Lugduni Batavorum, apud Jac. Hackium, 1684 in fol.

IAmpridem clarum est per orbem & illustre LUCÆ HOLSTENII nomen, & immortalia ejusdem habentur in rem litterariam merita, dum eleganti studio rariores auctores expolivit, eorumque memoriam ab oblivione & interitu, integritatemque a corruptelis vindicavit, reconditas quoque antiquitates profanas juxta & sacras recensuit : quarum exacta cura eruditorum omnium admirationem, magnatum amorem, cumprimis autem Romæ Purpuratorum favorem sibi conciliavit, a Francisco Barberino Cardinale doctissimo, quem bibliothecæ & facultatum suarum hæredem ex asse scripserat, anno M DC LXI annos sexaginta quinque natus vita decedens, egregio sepulcrali monumento in Ecclesia Germanorum S. Mariæ de anima, quæ appellatur, posito (quod Lambecius libro I Bibl. Vind. Comment. p. 11. 12. & luculentius libro VI, p. 235. cum auctoris vera effigie ære expressum exhibet) cohonestatus. Plura autem extarent præclara eruditæ ejus industriæ monumenta, si per fata licuisset absolvere & in publicum emittere, quæ affecta habuit, a Lambecio lib. I. commentariorum de Biblioth. Cæs. Vindob. p. 111. & seqq. commemorata ingenii ac doctrinæ opera. Inter quæ haud postremo loco collocandum est Stephano Byzantino Grammatico quod impendit studium; e variis bibliothecis, Palatina, Vaticana, & Anglicana Regia, ut & gazophylaziis & nummariis thecis subsidia mutuatus, & plurimorum etiam ἀνεκδότων auctorum adjumento infinita Stephani loca illustrans. Cujus insignis laboris fructus prorsus intercidisset, publicæ utilitati certe esset subtractus, nisi doctissimum virum Theodorum Ryckium notæ & castigationes, quas tumultuarias conscripserat, & in privatos tantum usus confusaneas congesserat Holstenius, nactæ essent editorem. Hic enim a Cardinale Barberino oblatas sibi anno MDCLXX ex bibliotheca Reginæ Christinæ, ejus cum venia, depromtas has commentationes doctissimas, cum confusæ eæ & quasi ab aliud agente in chartam conjectæ essent, nec ut ederentur dispositæ, publica tamen luce dignissimæ; nemo autem esset inventus, qui immaturo fœtui manum admoveret; ipse in ordinem redegit, expolivit, descripsit & summo cum studio editioni aptas reddidit, tandemque prælo commisit. Unde nuper processerunt, insignibus accessionibus locupletatæ. Nam & Holstenianis notis editor junxit Francisci Guyeti observationes, quas is Xylandrianæ editionis marginibus adscripserat, a doctissimo Ægidio Menagio suppeditatas; & iisdem subjecit Scymni Chii Geographi veteris Græci fragmenta, a Carolo Morono bibliothecæ Barberinæ præfecto subministrata, ab Holstenio Latine reddita; eruditissimique hujus viri quatuor dissertationes annexuit, antea quidem jam editas, sed a paucis visas: quarum prima veterem picturam in Barberinis ædibus conspicuam, quæ Nymphæum refert, illustrat; altera de significatione vocis latino barbaræ pila stallilaris, quæ in veteri instrumento basilicæ Vaticanæ legitur, disquirit; tertia de milliario aureo errorem popularem confutat; quarta boreæ sive aquilonis laudes, brevi oratione, coram aliquot Cardinalibus & in frequentissimo litteratorum auditorio recitata, enumerat.

Quæ singula cum industriæ Cl. Ryckii, has reliquias colligentis & publico bono asservantis debeamus, ejusdem ingenio ac eruditioni accepta referenda est coronidis loco subjecta doctissima de primis Italiæ colonis & Æneæ adventu dissertatio, nec minus erudita de Gigantibus oratio. Dissertationis occasio nata ex Samuelis Bocharti epistola ad Reginaldum Segresium venustissimum Gallum, qui Virgilium vernaculo sermone expressit, Cadomi anno 1663 Gallice scripta, & a Joanne Scheffero anno 1672 Latine edita. In qua cum doctissimus vir post Philippum Cluverium probare instituisset, Æneam nunquam in Ita-

Italiam veniſſe, ſed a Romanis id ita fuiſſe creditum nobilitati & vetuſtati gentis ſuæ adſtruendæ ſtudio, ut nimirum divina humanis miſcendo primordia ſua facerent antiquiora & clariora: Virgilium quoque nec errorem hunc illis eripere, nec gloriam gentis ſuæ intervertere, nec periculum exiſtimationis aut vitæ ſubire voluiſſe, ac propterea potius ab Homero receſſiſſe, & vulgari opinioni poema ſuum accommodaſſe; præſertim cum a poeta hiſtorici fides non exigatur, ſed is commemoret res quæ geri potuerint, & veris ſunt ſimiles, etſi nunquam geſtæ; ipſe etiam primus hanc fabulam non excogitarit, ſed omnes qui hiſtoriam ante ejus tempora compoſuerunt, originem Romanorum ita tradiderint: pro fabula autem habendum illud omne, quod proditum vulgo eſt de itinere Æneæ in Italiam, & progenie ipſius ad Romulum urbis Romæ conditorem: hæc & in hanc rem plura cum eruditis argumentis oſtendiſſet Bochartus, eum Diſſertatione hac adverſus ipſum inſtituta, cumprimis capite XII, Ryckius impugnandum putavit, & fundamenta, quibus innixus fabulam eſſe tradidit quod veram hiſtoriam ipſe putat, convellit, Æneamque cum Trojanis ſuis (quorum expugnationem & urbis excidium a nonnullis in dubium vocatum revera contigiſſe, nec a poetis eſſe confictum, capite IX demonſtrat) patriæ flammis elapſum in Italiam navigaſſe, ibique regnum Albanum condidiſſe probat, & ſeriem temporum ac Regum exhibet. Ut vero ſtatus Italiæ, qui ſub Trojanorum adventum fuit, magis eluceſceret, de primis Italiæ colonis, Aboriginibus, Siculis, Umbris, Liguribus, Auſonibus, Auruncis, Opicis, Oſcis, Læſtrigonibus, Pelasgis, Oenotris, Peucetiis, Chaonibus, Tyrrhenis, Peloponneſiis, Meſſapiis, Japygibus, Salentinis; regno item Albano a Trojanis condito, ex cujus ruinis Imperium Romanum eſt conſtitutum, Jano etiam & Evandro, ex optimis auctoribus depromta haud vulgaria affert, quorum cognitio utilis & longe præſtantiſſima habetur. Oratio de Gigantibus veterem & receptam de iis opinionem & fidem evertit, ac immenſæ molis homines a poetis & hiſtoricis, Judæis etiam & priſcis Eccleſiæ Patribus creditos traditosque, nunquam extitiſſe, ſed ultra ſex ſeptemve pedes cubitosve nunquam homines excreviſſe, quidquid ſupra jacitur fabulis & mythologiis accenſendum eſſe, neque naturam quaſi effœtam ac ſenio defectam viribusque deſtitutam hodie minori ſtatura homines progenerare, evincit.

Francofurti apud Fridericum Arnaldum anno 1684 in 12.

MAlumus conjecturæ Lectoris relinquere, quam ex noſtra definire, an Autor hujus tractatus ſit, qui Cap. II. pag. 58. allegatur, ex hiſtoria Critica Bibliorum notiſſimus, P. Richardus Simon. Quanquam vero ea ſcribat cum libertate, quã non facile ſibi ſumunt Romanam religionem profeſſi, addictum tamen illi ſcriptorem hunc eſſe dubitari vix poteſt, inter alia ob ea, quæ Cap. II. contra Smithum Anglum, & contra Claudium Charentonenſem pro Transſubſtantiatione diſputat, & dogma illud Græcæ Eccleſiæ cum Romana commune eſſe aſſerit. Fecerat idem Arnaldus Sorbonicus, in refutatione Claudii. Sed cum hic allata ab Arnaldo teſtimonia in dubium vocet, ab autore hoc alia in ſubſidium adducuntur. Speciatim vero de nova, & ad Transſubſtantiationis exemplum inventa voce (Μεταποίωσις) adverſus Claudium, (qui neminem ante Gabrielem Philadelphienſem, Latina Theologia Patavii ſuperiori ſeculo imbutum, ea uſum eſſe opinatur,) producit Gennadium, qui poſt captam a Turcis urbem Patriarcha Conſtantinopolitanus fuit, & integro ſeculo ante Gabrielem vixit: dein Gregorium Presbyterum, autorem Synopſis dogmatum Eccleſiæ Græcæ Venetiis anno 1635 editæ, & a Georgio Coreſſio, quem doctiſſimum Græcorum Theologum laudat, probatæ: maxime vero Meletii Syrigi librum, anno 1638. Addit deniq; hiſtoriam Cyrilli Lucaris: ut is in Germania & Dacia doctrinam proteſtantium haurire cœperit, dein per quendam Metrophanem Critopolum, (cujus tractatus de religione Græca Helmſtadii excuſus adducitur,) diligentius explorari fecerit, eandemq; in gratiam Batavorum, quorum ope & pecunia ad Patriarchatum pervenerit, publice profeſſus ſit, & pro Eccleſiæ ſuæ ſententia, inconſultis Epiſcopis & Clero, venditaverit. Narrat etiam, ut infidus Latinorum, inprimis Jeſuitarum, bis terve dignitate dejectus, Batavorum vero induſtria ſubinde reſtitutus, tandem autem juſſu Turcorum ſtrangulatus fuerit, cum ob rigoroſas exactiones pecuniæ, qua ad ſolvendum æs alienum apud Batavos contractum, opus habebat, in odium ſuorum incidiſſet. Cæterum non diffitetur, quosdam ex Clero ſectatores Cyrillo fuiſſe, & nominat Gerganum Epiſcopum Artenſem, qui adverſus Transſubſtantiationem ſcripſerit, ſed ſecundum ſententiam Auguſtanæ Confeſſionis; & memorat, Nathanaelem Cretenſem obtuliſſe Batavis, ſe Calvini Inſtitutiones in Græcam linguam translaturum, ejusq; dogmata genti ſuæ propoſiturum eſſe, ſi pecunia, quam poſcebat, præberetur. Aſt Meletii Metropolitæ Epheſii reſponſum ad quæſita Theologorum Leidenſium, ante annos triginta datum, & a Claudio allegatum, ſuſpectum viſum eſſe P. Simoni (hunc enim expreſſe, ut diximus, nominat pag. 25) notatur, & nunc cum exemplum ejus a Claudio impetratum fuerit, ſatis apparere dicitur, confictum id eſſe a Græco quodam, a Batavis corrupto, & ita judicaturos eſſe Autor confidit eos, qui excerpta ex illo, tractatui huic annexa, legerint. Hæc paulo fusius referre visum est, cum indicium de Autore ejusque religione faciant, & notitiam librorum quorundam non vulgarium afferant. Sed multitudo rerum memorabilium, in tractatu hoc licet admodum brevi congesta, excerpendi laborem fere superat, nec multo majori integer Latine verti posset. Syllabum tamen capitum subjungemus, & quædam insigniora Autoris loca adscribemus.

Cap. I agitur de Religione & ritibus Græcorum hodiernorum. Cap. II asseritur, ut jam prolixe narravimus, a Græcis Transsubstantiationis dogma recipi. Cap. III ostenditur, quomodo Græci Sacramentum Eucharistiæ adorent. Cap. IV tractat de religione Melchitarum. Cap. V & VI de Georgianis sive Iberis, Colchis & Mengrelis. Cap. VII de Nestorianis. Cap. VIII de Indis sive Christianis *S. Adjectæ sunt in fine præter excerpta supra nonata, Notitiæ Ecclesiarum sub Patriarcha CP, una quam Leo Allatius, altera quam Smithus edidit; dein & Ecclesiarum Armeniæ sub Patriarcha Egmiathino dictata Amstelodami ab Ilscamo Episcopo Armenio. Jam quæ notatu digniora duximus, hæc fere sunt. In præfatione scribit: Maxima hæresium pars, perverso Missionariorum studio, operam suam exaggerantium, Orientalibus populis falso tribuitur, quod hoc tractatu ostendetur. Id hoc tempore, quo conciliandis in religione dissidiis plurimum laboris impenditur, non erit inutile. Demonstrabitur enim, quam sæpe fallantur, qui nimis promti sunt ad condemnandas fratrum suorum sententias. Cum voluptate sane a purioribus Catholicis legitur Expositio fidei, sapientissimi Episcopi. Ex ea constat, errores injuste a Protestantibus imputari Ecclesiæ, quos nunquam fovit. Curia Romana librum hunc approbans satis ostendit, sibi multa non placere a Theologis secundi ordinis tradita. Iniquius etiam cum Ecclesiis Orientis actum esse, confirmat testimonio Lucæ Holstenii in Dissert. de Sac. Confirm. ap. Græc. Idem, pergit, spiritus in plerisque Theologis hodie regnat: itaque non ad majorem illorum numerum, sed ad eruditionem & moderationem respiciendum est, & ad hanc normam de Expositione Episcopi judicandum, quamvis Protestantes eam pro parum sincera, & in qua vera Ecclesiæ Romanæ sententia dissimuletur, traducant. Cap. I. pag. 5. Cauci Archiepiscopi quondam Corcyræi relatio relatio ad Gregorium XIII. R.P. de erroribus Græcorum, adversus Leonis Allatii extenuationes ad Urbanum VIII, quibus schisma Græcum palliare voluit, defenditur. Pag. 17 & pag. 87 nimis verum esse scribit, Græcos primatum Papæ, eo qui in Occidenti viget modo, non agnoscere, sed unicum Ecclesiæ caput Christum facere: Patriarchis omnibus æqualem potestatem, nec Romano plus quam sedis prærogativam concedere, iisque qui contra sentiunt, anathema dicere. Confirmatur hoc adversus Allatium ex historia Missionis Hieronymi Dandini Jesuitæ, Italice scripta. Pag. 16. Patriarchæ & Episcopi (ita refert,) cælibes vivunt. sed Presbyteri ante ordinationem uxores ducunt, imo apud Jacobitas, qui uxoribus suis a Sacerdotibus juvenibus mutuunt, ad conjugium adiguntur: qui vero post susceptos ordines uxores ducunt, Sacerdotio quidem abdicantur, sed honorato & separato a Laicis loco, in Ecclesia habentur. Pag 28 Monachi nullo voto vel juramento obstricti, sed ex sola observantia ad regulas suas vivunt, neque tamen illas violant. Pag. 33. 34. Imagines Græci supra modum colunt, sed ita ut neque ad eas procumbant, nec illas alio gestu, quam osculo venerentur: & in Christi quidem imagine pedes, Mariæ manus, Sanctorum aliorum faciem osculantur. Crevit tamen hic cultus, quem προσκύνησιν sive adorare vocant, a tempore Concilii Nicæni secundi, post condemnatos Iconoclastas; indeque historiæ Græcorum narratione miraculorum ab imaginibus editorum repleri cœperunt, & cum apud eos talia miracula observari cessassent, indagare illa Romæ & alibi laborarunt. Pag. 36. Græci multas lectionum & precum formulas quæ Officia in Romana Ecclesia vocantur, sed nulla Breviaria habent, quibus privati utantur: ajunt enim preces illas publice in templis, non vero domi fieri debere. Itaque frustra fuit Franciscus Arcudius, cum breviarium ex Græcorum officiis seu ritualibus compilasset; spretus enim fuit liber iste, præterquam a Monachis S. Basilii prope Romam degentibus. Cap. III pag. 64. 65. Post tempora Berengarii majorem longe cultum Eucharistiæ exhibere cœpimus, sicut Græci post Iconoclastarum furores, imagines impensius venerari cœperunt. Ita quoad cultum Eucharistiæ, Orientales in veteri simplicitate perstiterunt. Si quis igitur illis imputat, quod symbola non adorent, is eo nomine etiam veteres accusat; neque enim quidquam in illorum libris aut Liturgiis reperitur, quod ad cultum externum, qui hodie exercetur, accedat. Cap. V. p. 73. Græci non distinguunt locum inferni & purgatorii, orantque pro omnibus defunctis, defunctis, quorum animas in inferno concludi, quasdam vero precibus Ecclesiæ inde liberari posse putant, & hoc modo purgatorium quoddam agnoscunt. Aliqui tamen, veluti Georgiani, liberari fidelium precibus ante judicium universale, etiam eos posse autumant, qui in mortali peccato & absque pœnitentia decedunt. Pag. 78. scribit: quod nos hodie materiam & formam Sacramentorum vocamus, legem non debet facere aliis nationibus Christianis, quæ illa ignorant. Cap. VII. pag. 83, & seq. pluribus exponitur, conciliationes Orientalium sive uniones cum Ecclesia Romana sinceras non fuisse, sed tantum emolumenti causa initas, & pro temporum statu sublatas, nec majorem constantiam inposterum speari posse. Probatur id exemplo eorum qui Nestoriani sive Chaldæi dicuntur, ex historia Petri Strozæ anno 1617 Romæ edita, & ex Actis Eliæ, Patriarchæ illorum, cum Paulo V. Cap. VIII pag. 98 & seqq. cum ex relatione Bruxellis anno 1609 edita narrasset, quomodo Alexius Meneses Lusitanus, ordinis S. Augustini ArchiEpiscopus & Patriarcha Indiarum sive Goæ, Christianos illarum regionum, qui a S. Thoma cognominantur, & pro Nestorianis habentur, ad sacra Romana perduxerit, pag. 101 ita judicat: Satis apparet, Nestorianis illis magnam vim religionis causa a Lusitanis illatam fuisse, & a Missionariis. Theologiæ Orientalis parum peritis, turbas excitatas, ob cerimonias nullius momenti. Quapropter violenta illa coactio exiguo tempore duravit, & isto modo conversi mox defecerunt, & ad obsequium Patriarchæ sui Babylonii redierunt, dicentes (pag. 103) Pontificem Romanum sicut ipsum S. Petrum particularis Ecclesiæ, suæ videlicet, caput esse, non vero Ecclesiæ S. Thomæ; neutram enim ab altera dependere. Enarratis deinde (pag. 104 & seqq.) erroribus, quos Meneses Christianis illis imputavit, (pag. 108) subdit: si ille, caterique Missionarii antiquæ Theologiæ satis periti fuissent, tantum errorum numerum non invenissent. Sed cum omnia ad regulas Theologiæ, quæ in scholis Europæis docetur, exigerent, mirum non est, quod ad hunc modulum nationes Orientales reformare voluerint. Habebant illi, fateor, abusus correctione dignos, sed non erant ad nostrarum consuetudinum normam corrigendi. Tum [illegible] de cultu imaginum pag. 111. Postquam enim narrasset, [illegible] Nestorianos eandem, quam posterior Græcorum Ecclesia post [illegible] Nicænum II. exercuit, imaginum venerationem non in[illegible] Archiepiscopus potuisset Christianos S. Thomæ in antiquitate quitate priſca relinquere; quicquid enim poſtea circa imagines ſtatutum fuit, tantum ad diſciplinam pertinet. & pag. 112: falluntur Miſſionarii, quando de religione cum Orientalibus tractant; præoccupantur enim dogmatibus, quæ in ſcholis de materia & forma Sacramentorum didicerunt. Si itaq; vident infantes non eo ſtatim momento, quo verba Sacerdotis pronunciantur, ſed paulo poſt baptizari (hic enim in illa gente mos eſt.) baptismum pro nullo habent, nec attendunt ad ritum Orientalium, qui adminiſtrationem Sacramentorum certis quibusdam precum formulis peragi putant, nec Metaphyſicæ tam periti ſunt, quam Latini, magnumq; difficultatum numerum ignorant, quas Theologi noſtri multa cum ſubtilitate tractant. Sed ideo nec minus pura, nec minus antiqua eſt religio illorum Neſtorianorum. Pag. 115. *Mirandum non eſt, quod Chaldæi (Neſtoriani) tot Miſſas, quot Latini, non celebrent, quodq; plurimi Sacerdotes Epiſcopo celebranti aſſiſtant, & communionem ex manibus ejus ſumant. Mos hic in Eccleſia antiquus eſt; is vero valde novus, quo in Eccleſia Latina tantus Miſſarum numerus invaluit. Introduxerunt illum Monachi mendicantes, ut Cardinalis Bona obſervavit. Alius etiam antiquiſſimus ritus eſt, quod qui Miſſæ aſſiſtunt, magnam ejus partem ipſi recitent, ea nempe ratione, quia Liturgia eſt actio publica ad populum æque ac ad Sacerdotem pertinens, ut facile vel ex ipſius Miſſæ Latinæ precationibus probari poteſt.* Pag. 117. Inter errores, ut puto, referri non debuit obſequium, quod Neſtoriani Patriarchæ ſuo præſtant. Nam Orientales non aliter æſtimant Patriarchas omnes, maxime Romanum, quam poteſtates jure poſitivo conſtitutas. Pro errore etiam taxari non debet, quod Curatos & Vicarios non habeant, ſed quod ex Presbyteris natu maximus in conventu præſideat. Eſt hoc e contrario egregia res diſciplinæ, & optandum foret, ut in tota Eccleſia ſtabiliretur, remedio plurimis abuſibus circa ſacerdotia futurum. Cap X. pag. 123. ex Sacchini hiſtoria Societ. exemplum ſimulatæ & infidæ unionis Coptitarum cum Pontifice Romano refertur. Patriarcha enim Gabriel, qui honorificis verbis Papam ut patrem patrum, paſtorem paſtorum, & omnium Eccleſiarum magiſtrum in literis appellaverat, cum urgeretur illi obedientiam promittere, reſpondit: poſt Concilium Chalcedonenſe & ſtabilitos plures Patriarchas, nullum horum ab alio dependere, ſed ſingulos ſuæ Eccleſiæ capita & ſupremos præſules eſſe, & ſi Patriarcha Romanus in errores incideret, illum a reliquis Patriarchis judicari de-que tam laxam esse putat, quam eam, quæ a quibusdam nostri seculi Theologis, quos Casuistas vocant, traditur. Hæc ex plurimis aliis selecta, Autoris eruditionem & candorem ostendunt, & quomodo in multis recedat ab iis, quæ ab Ecclesiæ suæ Doctoribus vulgo tradi solent. Ex actis vero cum Orientalibus, pro eorum cum Ecclesia Romana unione, non pauca observari merentur, ex quibus documentum capi potest, in propaganda religione & tollendo schismate, circumspecte procedendum, & a violentia pariter ac dolis abstinendum & cavendum esse.

Distinctus is in libros & capita non est, ordine tamen commodo materiam prosequitur: ita ut ab initio usque ad pag. 155. exponat statum redituum Ecclesiasticorum in prioribus seculis, & quo usque secundum priscos Ca-

Hieronymus Comm. in Ep. ad Tit. cenſet, Epiſcopos magis conſuetudine quam diſpoſitionis Dominicæ veritate Presbyteris majores factos eſſe. Notat porro, ex politia Græcorum quædam ad externum Eccleſiæ regimen translata fuiſſe: inde diœceſes, ipſumque Eccleſiæ nomen, duplici tamen modo intellectum, ut aliquando conventum ſeniorum & primorum populi, aliquando omnium coitionem ſignificaret, quam Agoraiam vocaverint. Græcorum etiam in fingendis novis vocabulis genio deberi nomina Metropolitarum, Archiepiſcoporum, Patriarcharum, ſequentibus temporibus inventa, ad majorem honoris & exterioris jurisdictionis titulum ſignificandum. Antea enim ignota iſta fuiſſe, & eundem Epiſcopi, & Presbyteri ſive ſenioris, ordinem ex impoſitione manuum dependiſſe, & hunc quoque ritum ab Apoſtolis ex Synagoga retentum. Addit Rabbinos tradere, impoſitionem hanc non a Præſide ſolum, ſed omnibus Presbyteris ſimul peragi ſolitam fuiſſe, & ex Hieronymo refert, Presbyteros Alexandrinos Epiſcopo ex ſuo collegio electo manus ſimul impoſuiſſe.

Ex his conſtare ait, fruſtra de fundationibus redituum Eccleſiaſticorum, iſtorum ſeculorum tempore quæri, & ante Conſtantinum M. nullos fundos in Eccleſiarum dominio fuiſſe; illumque Imperatorem primum omnium permiſiſſe, ut quemadmodum Paganorum templa, ita & Chriſtianorum, legata & donationes capere poſſent. Sed memorabile eſſe Hieronymi judicium, ſcribentis in vita Malchi: Ab eo tempore Eccleſia potentia & divitiis quidem major, ſed virtutibus minor facta eſt: Et Chryſoſtomum (hom. 86. in Matth.) valde queri de Epiſcopis & Clericis, villarum ſuarum & litium cura diſtractis, & tempus conſumentibus. Obſervatus non multo poſt fuit abuſus, cum Epiſcopi fructuum maximam partem, cum damno pauperum, ſuis & numeroſæ familiæ alimentis & commodis impenderent. Huic malo varie proviſum, conſtitutis in oriente Oeconomis, qui Epiſcoporum expenſis moderarentur. In occidenti cautum fuit, ut quarta tantum redituum pars Epiſcopo, tres reliquæ Clero, pauperibus, & fabricæ Eccleſiarum ex æquo aſſignarentur, ut conſtat inter alia ex conſtitutione Gelaſii Papæ Can. Vobis enim 23. C 12. Q. 2. Putat tamen ex hac partitione tantum lites natas fuiſſe, nec præcaveri potuiſſe, quo minus Epiſcopi & Prælati bona Eccleſiaſtica ad privatæ poſſeſſionis titulos & modos redigerent, ſub dominatu præſertim barbarorum Regum, qui Principum privilegia, (chartas libertatis & præcepta regalia vocabant,) per quæ immunitas a tributis concedebatur, in iis præsertim fundis, qui ex regiis donationibus acquirebantur; addita ceremonia baculi vel annuli, qua Abbates, vel sceptri, qua Episcopi, cum possessio iis traderetur, honorabantur, quod Investitura vocabatur. Factum hinc, ut etsi Prælati a sodalibus suis, (Canonicis & Conventualibus,) eligerentur, id tamen, ut ex electionum quarundam actis probatur, non fieret, nisi sciente, & electum ad possessionem fundorum, in clientela sua jacentium lubenter admissuro Principe. Nullas ait illo tempore, & ante discordias & bella cum Imperatoribus, Pontificum Romanorum partes in conferendis Prælaturis earumque bonis fuisse: sed circa Henrici IV & Gregorii VII. tempora, cum Principes aut Episcopi turo adiri non possent, aut ob factionem, ad Pontificem extra ordinem itum, & ab eo confirmationes impetratas fuisse; quæ postea in jus & debitum tractæ fuerint, tantoque majorem Romanæ Sedi autoritatem & potentiam acquisiverint, quanto delibiora semper Principum & Episcoporum jura, non sine ipsorum culpa fiebant. Ad diminuendam vero Episcopalem autoritatem id quoque spectasse, quod Pontifices multum ex illa ad se traherent, & inprimis monasteriorũ patrocinia susciperent, ea que ab Episcoporum jurisdictione eximerent, imo bona, si quando decimas & alios reditus Ecclesiarum ex detentione laicorum subinde recuperassent, fere Monachis tribuerent; hi enim vulgo Clericis ordinariis, (qui seculares vocantur, quia non ut Monachi a seculo scilicet separati, religiose vivunt,) præferebantur, ignorantia & luxuria odiosis. Adeo vero Monachorum gratia valuit, ut maximi Episcopatus iis concrederentur, donec successibus corrupti eandem invidiam incurrerent, & ex hac non parum ad ipsos Pontifices redundaret, quod ex querela Richardi I Angliæ Regis (seculo XII) in Chronicis Gervasii probat. Ploravit is in conspectu Episcoporum, & se miserum non Regem esse dixit, cum plerasque Regni opes in particulas innumeras distractas, Monachi albi & nigri, & ordinis diversi Canonici possiderent. De curia Romana ita vero lamentatur: Romani, propter debilitatem vestram, adeo nobis infesti sunt, ut nobis solummodo videantur imperare; literulas suas nobis vendunt, nec justitiam quærunt sed litigia fovent, multiplicant appellationes, redimunt placitantes; & cum solum pecuniam appetunt, veritatem confundunt, pacemq; subvertunt.

Sed

Sed non tantum in Anglia, verum per totam, qui Christianis Principibus subest, Europam eo ventum est, ut Papæ omnem potestatem in bona Ecclesiastica sibi supremo & proprio jure arrogarent, non ignari maximam eorum partem ex mera Principum liberalitate profectam, quam inprimis Otto I Imperator, & proximi successores profusissime exercuerunt, civitates, pagos, villas cum omni jurisdictione Ecclesiis donantes: quamquam etiam per vim quædam Principibus & Laicis erepta fuerint, ut Paulus Venetus notavit.

Examinat vero autor, quo jure Pontificia illa potestas nitatur. Cum igitur Papæ triplicem personam gerant, nempe Episcopi Romani, Patriarchæ Occidentis, & capitis Ecclesiæ universalis, primam illam nihil ei extra diœcesin tribuere; quoad reliquas, notorium esse ait, si ad probationes de facto respiciatur nullum privilegium extare, per quod collatio omnium beneficiorum & dignitatum Ecclesiæ in toto orbe Christiano Romæ vindicari possit. Omnes enim & singulas provincias de Ministris Ecclesiæ sibi ipsas prospexisse, nec Romam recurrisse, sed difficultates, si quæ nascebantur, in Synodis provincialibus sopitas fuisse. Neminem ante jus novum scripsisse, quod solus Episcopus Romanus, tanquam S. Petri successor, omnem jurisdictionem Ecclesiasticam habeat, & quod cæteri Episcopi tantum sint ejus Vicarii & delegati. Interim tamen hodie Pontifices prætendere, autoritatem suam in reditus & bona Ecclesiæ jure divino fundatam esse: maxime vero Innocentium III ex jure Primatus S. Petro concesso id asseruisse, ita ut huic juri, utpote divino, nec præscriptum fuerit, nec præscribi potuerit, etsi per aliquot secula pro temporis necessitate non exerceatur. Neque tamen ignorasse illum existimat, omne jus antiquum assertioni suæ resistere, & evidens esse, quod electiones, translationes, & depositiones Episcoporum in Synodis provincialibus, sub auroritate Regum, tractatæ & peractæ fuerint, causæ minores vero simpliciter ab arbitrio Episcoporum dependerint. Papas ne cogitaturos quidem unquam de jure hodie stabilito fuisse, nisi incidentibus de validitate electionum litibus, partes Primæ sedi decisionem detulissent. Undecimo etiam seculo exempla adhuc reperiri, quod resignati & translati Episcopatus in Conciliis Provincialibus fuerint, nullo Pontificum interventu; itaque occasione a privatis arrepta, confirmationem, quæ nunc usurpatur, Romam sibi acquisiviſſe. Canonistas quidem, qui Pontificem Collatorem Collatorum, & Patriarcham Patriarcharum vocare, & ex S. Leonis & Gregorii aliorumque etiam Patrum teſtimoniis monſtrare, Patriarchatus Antiochiæ, Alexandriæ, & Romæ a S. Petro fundatos, & inde jus in omnes Eccleſias orbis Pontificibus quæſitum eſſe; ſed non poſſe negari, incognitum fuiſſe hoc jus antiquis, nec niſi in libris Decretalium reperiri, quanquam hodie etiam iſti nonniſi partem novi illius juris, multa etiam obſoleta contineant, & ſummum Curiæ Romanæ principium ſit, Papam magiſtrum legum & Canonum, quibus Eccleſia gubernari debet, eſſe, & pro temporum, locorum & cauſarum ſtatu abolere antiqua, ſtatuere nova poſſe. Quod ſi a Principibus executioni Brevium & Bullarum Papalium reſiſtatur, facile ad transactiones ſive Concordata perveniri: ſed id Romæ pro indulgentia, & ſpontanea atque temporaria juris ſtricti remiſſione haberi, quæ futuris temporibus & caſibus minime præjudicet. Sic elidi, quæ objici ſolent, quaſi jus Pontificium ex pactis illis oriatur; & licet ſpeciatim in Gallia executio Bullarum, cum Libertatibus, quas vocant, contraria ſunt, decretis regiis impediatur, Romæ tamen Bullas integras in acta referri, earumque jus alio forte tempore valiturum, ſaltem hoc modo integrum ſervari.

Pergit inde ad deſcribendum jus illud noviſſime inter Regem & Pontificem diſputatum, quod Regalia vocant (cum nempe reditus vacantium Epiſcopatuum & Abbatiarum, donec ſucceſſori conferantur, Regio fiſco vindicantur) & ab inveſtitura, quæ alias eodem Regalium nomine appellari ſolet, diſtinctum eſt. Statuit autem, ſub prima & ſecunda Regum familia, imo etiam ſub initiũ tertiæ, ignotũ illud fuiſſe, primamque ejus mentionem ſeculo XII ſub Ludovico juniore & Philippo Auguſto fieri; antea vero fructus vacantium beneficiorum, cura Metropolitarum futuris Prælatis ſervatos fuiſſe. In Anglia tamen & Hibernia idem quod in Gallia invaluiſſe, contradicentibus ubique Conciliis & Epiſcopis: ſed in Germania Conſtitutione Friderici II. vetitum. In Concilio Lugdunenſi conventum decretumque eſſe, ut regi maneret, quatenus fuiſſet exercitum, illique regulæ Reges & curias Regni plerunque acquieviſſe. Sed anno 1673 regio edicto jus iſtud uñiverſaliter in omnes diœceſes, quatuor ſolummodo exceptis, aſſertum & introductum eſſe, ut jam fruſtra hac de re diſputetur. Agit poſtea de ſingulari Regum Siciliæ jure, quod Monarchiam vulgo vocant, ſupre-ma nempe potestate Ecclesiastica, quantam & qualem Pontifex sibi attribuit & per Legatum a Latere exercere potest, Regi ejusque vicario & Collegio, quod sacrum vocant, competenti. Hoc possident & exercent, sive concessione Urbani II, sive alio titulo Hispaniæ Reges iidemque Siciliæ Domini; quicquid contradicatur Romæ, aut quondam scripserit Baronius. Fieri itaque posse, ut delata regni successione, uti fas est, ad fœminam, non minus quam in Anglia sub Elisabetha cum summa Pontificum indignatione factum fuit, etiam fœmina caput in Sicilia evadat.

Hæc ex priori tractatus parte, cum generalia sint, magnaque cum libertate scripta, nec probationibus destituta, prolixius cum bona, ut speramus, Lectorum venia excerpsimus. In sequentibus jus novum, quod hodie circa beneficia & reditus Ecclesiarum sub Hierarchia Romana usurpatur, & quomodo in Gallia per Libertates moderationem patiatur, exponitur. Docet enim autor, quo jure Pontifex Romanus in collationibus beneficiorum utatur, sive quid sit Præventio, Devolutio, Vacantia in curia, Menses Papales, Concordata, Commendæ, Uniones: quæ circa hæc Cardinalium & Capitulorum jura quædam singularia; quid personatus sive dignitas sine onere. Agit etiam de juribus Nominationum & Patronatus Ecclesiastici & Laici, & quomodo id exerceatur in Gallia, quando Patronus Laicus Reformatam religionem profitetur: quid sint Prioratus & Obedientiæ; quid observetur in Abbatiis Commendatariis, & quomodo Abbates tales a Regularibus differant, & quæ pacta inter illos & Monachos, aut alia jura intercedere & servari soleant. Licet autem contra ejusmodi Commendas multæ sint querelæ, autor tamen judicat, & adducto ex Trithemio testimonio monstrat, non minores fuisse de Abbatum mala administratione, antequam Commendæ fieri solerent, & nunc quoque minus periculum a Commendatariis esse existimat, quia tertia tantum redituum pars illis tribuatur, altera Monachis, reliqua oneribus Ecclesiæ destinetur. Addit notabilia de Hospitalibus, & qui inde originem habuerunt, Equitum ordinibus; De resignationibus in favorem, quas dubitat, dispensante licet Pontifice, a vitio Simoniæ absolvi posse. Explicat jus Graduatorum quos vocant in Academiis Gallicis, quibus beneficia Ecclesiastica singularibus privilegiis tribuuntur. Quoniam vero quædam Collegia sacra, aut Patroni nonnulli, exemtiones adversus collationes extraordinarias dinarias allegare ſolent, aliquando tamen falſas producunt, hac occaſione notas quasdam ſive χαρακτῆρα ſuppeditat, per quæ vera diplomata a falſis & ſuppoſititiis dignoſci poſſint. Expendit denique, quæ fides habenda ſit Chartulariis, (libri copiales alibi vocantur,) in quibus deſcripta vetera inſtrumenta contineri & oſtendi ſolent.

TRAITE' DE MORALE, PAR L' AVTEVR de la Recherche de la Verite,

id eſt:

Tractatus Moralis, Autoris qui librum de Inquiſitione veritatis edidit. Pars I & II.

Roterodami apud Regnerum Leers, 1684 in 12.

NOn minus conſtat, autorem hujus tractatus eſſe Malebranchium, Presbyterum Oratorii, quam ſi nomen ejus palam præſcriberetur. Nemo enim ignorat, ipſum eſſe qui librum de Inquiſitione veritatis ſcripſerit, quem in titulo, & paſſim in tractatu pro fundamento allegat, ſicut & alia quæ edidit, Meditationes puta Chriſtianas, & Vindicias ſententiæ ſuæ de Ideis, ab Arnaldo impugnatæ, de quibus in Actis hujus anni menſe Majo egimus. In hoc autem Moralis diſciplinæ libro, iisdem principiis innititur, quæ in prioribus ſcriptis ſuis ſtabilivit, eorumque explicandorum occaſionem ſæpe ſumit, ne, ut circa tractatum de Natura & Gratia infeliciter factum queritur, male intellecta axiomata ſua, adverſariis denuo bilem moveant, & ipſe in ſuſpicionem hæreſis, quam omnibus modis a ſe amolitur, & quam deſtruxiſſe ſe potius ſuis principiis confidit, incurrat. An vero etiam hic tractatus examen & cenſuram evitaturus ſit, dies docebit. Interim ingenium viri acutiſſimum, & res graviſſimas ſubtiliſſimasque concinne eloquendi & deſcribendi non vulgaris induſtria, nemini non probabitur. Dogmata ipſa, & terminorum novitatem examinare, non eſt noſtri inſtituti; ſicut nec facile fuit, per compendium ſummam omnium, quæ in tractatu hoc continentur, complecti. Neceſſe enim, ſed nimis operoſum fuiſſet, ad libros Autoris, in quibus principia ſua propoſuit, ſubinde recurrere; neque tamen vel ſic certi fuiſſemus, an ſententiam ejus ſatis percipere, aut vocabula Gallica, quibus notiones ſuas expreſſit, ita Latina reddere potuiſſemus, ut ambiguitas & obſcuritas evitaretur. Planiora forſitan omnia eſſent, ſi materiæ, non uni genti, ſed plurimis uſui futuræ, aut anſam certe disquirendi multiplicem daturæ, lingua literatis communi, & phraſibus atque terminis receptis proponerentur, vel hi ante omnia ab æquivocatione liberarentur: quod poſtremum quidem doctiſſimus autor ipſe animadvertit, & in hoc tractatu bene multos ita explicavit, ut minori nunc difficultate intelligi poſſe videantur.

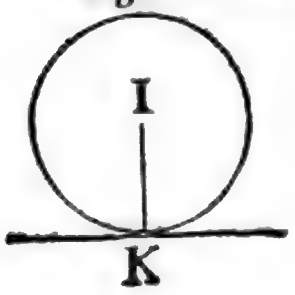
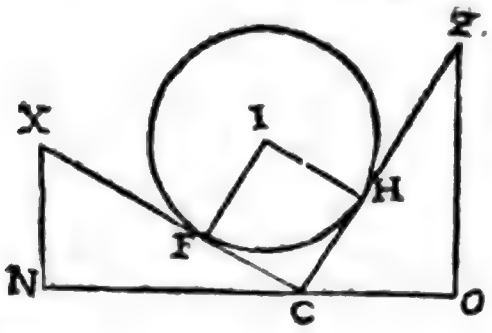
Duæ hujus operis partes ſunt. Prima generalis fundamentum virtutis & adquirendæ media exhibens. Altera ad ſpecialiorem officiorum enumerationem procedit. Nemo hic Ethicam Ariſtotelicam expectet, aut mere Philoſophicam, ſed omnia ex ratione qualem præſupponit, deducta, & ad eam omnino relata. Rationem vero humanam in principio cap. I. ſic definit: Eſſe Verbum aut ipſam Dei ſapientiam. Addit: Rationem eſſe univerſalem, cum omnes creaturæ ſint entia particularia. Per medium rationis ſocietatem homini eſſe cum Deo, omnibusque intelligentiis; omnes enim ſpiritus commune nobiſcum bonum habere, nempe rationem. Societatem hanc ſpiritualem conſiſtere in participatione ejusdem ſubſtantiæ intelligibilis Verbi, ex qua omnes ſpiritus nutriantur. Contemplando hanc divinam ſubſtantiam, videri ex parte poſſe quædam, quæ Deus cogitat, quia Deus videt omnem veritatem, homo quasdam. Poſſe etiam ſciri quædam, quæ Deus vult: Deum enim nihil velle, quam ſecundum ordinem, at ordinem non plane incognitum eſſe homini, & quæ ſequuntur. Quod vero de Verbo ſcribit, alibi & inprimis cap. XXVI. part. 2. ita clarius exprimit: Quis nos ducet ad rationem? quis nos legibus ejus ſubmittet? quis nos veros ejus diſcipulos faciet? Ipſa hoc præſtabit Ratio, ſed incarnata, humilis, viſibilis & ſenſibilis facta, infirmitati noſtræ accommodata. Jeſus Chriſtus videlicet, Patris ſapientia, Lumen naturale & univerſale intelligentiarum. Et poſt pauca: Jeſus Chriſtus, illeque ſolus, ad rationem nos poteſt ducere, & unire perſonæ ſuæ divinæ per miniſterium humanitatis clarificatæ. Noſtra natura in ipſo ſubſiſtit per rationem, & per illum ratio regnabit in ſpiritu & corde noſtro. Nam propter rationem creati ſumus, per hanc ſumus, intelligentiæ: ſecundum eam formati ſumus, & ſecundum eandem reformari debemus. Jeſus Chriſtus crucifixus ſancta noſtra hoſtia eſt, & Sacrificii exemplar, quod nos quoque offerre debemus, amorem nempe proprium longitudo plani declivis ad perpendiculum, cujus contradictoriam ſic demonſtro.

Si graue conformatum in globum, nitatur plano horizontali, radius IK, perpendicularis horizonti, eſt linea directionis, per quam centrum I exigit deſcendere perpendiculariter. Si vero idem globus nitatur duobus planis inæqualiter declinibus XC, ZC (quæ pro hac demonſtratione ſint æqualis longitudinis, & faciant angulum rectum XCZ; cum perpendiculo vero XN, quod ſit æquale rectæ CO parallelæ horizonti, & cum recta NC, horizonti parallela, quæ ſit æqualis perpendiculo ZO, conſtituant triangula rectangula XNC, COZ, inuicem æqualia) radius IH, parallelus plano XC, per quem centrum I exigit deſcendere ſuper XC, eſt linea directionis, reſpectu deſcenſus ſuper XC, ac radius IF, parallelus ad ZC, eſt linea directionis, reſpectu deſcenſus ſuper ZC.





Jam, ſicut planum horizontale, ſuſtinet pondus æquale momento, quo globus exigit deſcendere perpendiculariter; quia globus momentum ſuum totale cenſetur exercere in radio IK, planum vero horizontale, applicatum in K, ac totaliter impediens deſcenſum perpendicularem, reſiſtit illi momento per virtutem æqualem: Ita planum ZC, ſuſtinet pondus æquale momento, quo idem globus exigit deſcendere ſuper XC; quia momentum globi ut deſcendat ſuper XC, cenſetur exerceri in radio IH; & planum ZC, tangens globum in H, ac totaliter impediens ejus deſcenſum ſuper XC, toti illi momento (quod reſpectu totalis eſt ſolum partiale) reſiſtit per virtutem æqualem: Planum XC, ſuſtinet pondus æquale momento, quo globus exigit deſcendere ſuper ZC; quia momentum globi ut deſcendat ſuper ZC, cenſetur exerceri in IF; ac planum XC, tangens globum in F, & impediens deſcenſum ſuper ZC, reſiſtit momento globi per virtutem illi æqualem. DE LEGE, QUA CAVETUR, NE PLURES, QUAM QUINQUE, SIMUL CONVENIANT.

Lib. I. Cap. I.

Quinque personarum numerum, quem Lex Iulia de vi publica & privata, ne plures simul conveniant, statuit, Antonius Augustinus, Archiepiscopus Tarraconensis, ad Legem Cornelium de Sicariis & Veneficis refert. Sed Lex Cornelia de Sicariis & Veneficis, quæ Sylla Dictatore lata est, ut Asconius Pedianus in Oratione pro Milone, & Dio Cassius libro 36. testantur, nullum personarum numerum, quem simul convenire non liceret, statuit. Quare Lex Iulia de vi publica & privata, quæ Augusto Imperatore lata est, ut Dio Cassius libro 52. testatur, quinque personarum numerum, quem simul convenire non liceret, statuisse videtur. Quod ut ostendam, Legem Iuliam de vi publica & privata, quæ ad hunc numerum pertinet, ex Digestis & Codice Iustinianeis, quantum fieri potest, restituam.

ajens, minus otiosus sum, quam cum otiosus, idem Cl. Saldeno convenire judicamus. Nunquam enim minus otiosus fuisse videtur, quam cum post scripta ascetica vernaculo idiomate elaborata, & Concionatorem sacrum sex abhinc annis editum, otia hæc Theologica tractaret. Certe Ultrajectinæ Academiæ Theologi laboriosa hæc Otia ubique acre Viri judicium, indefessum laborem, & multivariam lectionem spirare, publico testimonio censuerunt, eaq; ob gratam argumentorum varietatem, omnigenam eruditionem & criticæ libertatis modestiam, lectoribus in ipso limine commendant.

Universum opus in quatuor libros distributum est, quorum primus novem, secundus decem, tertius undecim, & quartus totidem exercitationes continet, fortuito magis quam exquisito ordine locatas. In primo enim libro de primo scriptore, de autore Pentateuchi, de philavtia, de salvandorum paucitate, de Præadamitis, de potu zelotypiæ, de canis pretio, de calculo albo, & de surculo in carne Pauli agitur.

Quartum denique constituunt lucubrationes de jure zelotarum, de certitudine fidei divinæ, de jejuniis religiosis, de mendicantibus in Israele, de parabolis Evangelicis, de publicanis, de rationis humanæ & Spiritus S. operationibus in rebus spiritualibus, de regenitorum relapsibus, de Felice & Drusilla, de juramenti illegitimi obligatione, & de loco nativitatis Christi.

In his exercitationibus propositas materias non tam operose & diffuse Autor amplificat, quam strictim discutit, & subinde data occasione ad alia digreditur, ut & brevitate & varietate lectoris animum delectet. Quem in finem etiam antiquitates sacras & profanas, sapientum gnomas & argute dicta, exempla, adagia, aliosque oratorum & poëtarum flosculos passim interspergit, & jucunda utilibus permiscet, sive ſive circa textum aliquem Biblicum, ſive circa locum aliquem communem theoreticum aut practicum verſetur. Specimimis loco, cum ſingulas enarrare non liceat, unicam de canis pretio e tanto exercitationum numero ſelectam paucis perluſtraſſe ſufficiat.

Nimirum peculiari lege canis pretium ſanctuario inferri ſapientiſſimus Legislator vetuit, quod edictum Deut. 23. expreſſis verbis conſignatum exercit. 7. lib. 1 explicaturus Autor, multa de canum fidelitate, vigilantia, ſagacitate aliisq; præclaris dotibus præfatur, eamq; in rem haud pauca exempla & teſtimonia e variis Autoribus adducit, eadem occaſione Græcorũ proverbio βλέπε κύνα, & comparationi Paſtorum cum mutis canibus, quæ apud Eſaiam cap. 36. legitur, lucem aliquam affundens. Deinde quantis nonnulli canes ſuos vel in deliciis habuerint vivos, vel honoribus proſecuti fuerint mortuos exponit; ubi inter alia H. Grotii ſententiam vellicat, qui Matth. 15. v. 26 & 27. vocem τῶν κυναρίων ad canes melitæos reſpicere in annotatis ſuis arbitratus eſt. His aliisq; præmiſſis inquirit, cur hoc animalium genus Deo usque adeo inviſum fuerit, ut ne quidem pretium eorum in ſanctuarium inferri permiſerit. Etſi enim circa legis hujus ſenſum variæ ſint interpretum ſententiæ, quæ theſ. 8. recenſentur, & ex his nonnulli, ut Pellicanus, Coccejus, & Fridlibius per canis petium quæſtum qualemcunque ex re impura & turpi redundantem; alii vero ut Junius, Piſcator & Simeon de Muis pueros meritorios intelligant: Saldenus tamen refutatis rationibus pro puero meritorio adductis, ad eorum ſententiam, qui verba Moſaicæ legis proprie accipiunt, accedit, & per canis pretium nihil aliud, quam canis ſive venditi ſive permutati ἀντάλλαγμα indicari cenſent. Quamvis autem hic liberrimum Dei arbitratum ſufficere, nec rationes quæ penes Deum fuerunt, cur iſta ſtatueret, nimis ſcrupuloſe inquirendas exiſtimet, non deeſſe tamen cauſas utcunque probabiles ſtatuit, quarum præcipuas in medium afferens canem animal non ſolum ex lege immundum, ſed vile etiam & contemptum eſſe, ex ritu ignominioſæ κυνοφορίας nobilibus ante capitale ſupplicium injunctæ, cujus exemplum in Guntheri Ligurino & Ottone Friſingenſi legitur, nec non ex talorum infelici jactu, qui apud Propertium & Perſium canis & canicula vocatur, item ex malo canum omine, aliisque argumentis, & ſacris pariter ac profanis teſtimoniis demonſtrat. HISTOIRE DE L' ETHIOPIE ORIENTALE composée en Portugais par le R. Pere Jean Dos Santos &c. & traduite en François par le R. P. Dom Gaetan Charpy &c.

id est,

Historia Æthiopiæ Orientalis, Lusitanice scripta a P. Johanne Dos Santos, Ordinis S. Dominici, Gallice versa a R. P. Dn. Cajetano Charpy, Matisconensi, Clerico Regulari Theatino.

Lutetiæ apud Gu. de Luyne, 1684. in 12.

QUanquam lectu indigna non pronunciamus, quæ in historia hac traduntur, vix tamen talia deprehendentur ab accuratis lectoribus, quæ amplitudini tituli satisfaciant. Ex vastissimo enim terrarum illarum tractu, quem Æthiopiæ Orientalis nomine Autor indicat, a promontorio nempe Africæ famosissimo, quod Bonæ Spei vocant, ad Ægypti usque confinia, pauca describuntur & memorantur: de barbaris puta, ad oram maritimam, quos Cafres nominant, circa Sofalam, & in regnis Mozambicæ & Melindæ; pauciora de insula Madagascar; de interioribus, aliisque longe pluribus & oris & insulis, fere nihil. Temporum etiam rationem obscuram nobis videri fatemur. Meminit enim Autor duorum tantum Regum Lusitaniæ, Emanuelis, qui A. 1521 obiit, & Sebastiani, A. 1578 in Africa misere cæsi: at quæ narrat, neque omnia in horum regum annos incidunt, & pleraque absque temporis annotatione, & neglecto aut inverso aliquando ordine recensentur. Distributus est tractatus in libros tres, admodum breves; singuli etiam in capita. Libro primo (præmissis generalibus quibusdam & fere vulgaribus) de Rege quodam, qui Quiteva, non a regione, sed a dignitate officii dictus fuit, sat multa affert, quæ barbariem & malitiam summam gentis illius indicant: inter alia, quod Rex hic solus incantatoris & titulum & munus gerat, capitis pœna civibus, qui idem jactent aut præstent, statuta. Eundem ait inter laudes numerare, si inter faustas acclamationes latro & sicarius, Ecce in primis, & ultimis versiculis duo verba, quæ ad Ecclesiam pertinent, quorum primum est Ecclesia, secundum Sacramentum. Ecclesia, quia Ecclesia est congregatio fidelium, ut dicit Augustinus, & Sacramentum, quia Ecclesia est Sacramentum, ut dicit Ambrosius.

Ego vero nullius generis Mathematici Problematis, quod ad Geometriam, Analysin, Mechanicam, Artem, quæstiones & Algebram attinet, ignarum esse arbitror. Et profecto, quum ante quinquennium, Problema Isoperimetricum, quod Bernoullianum vocant, publicæ fidei, ultimo Septembris anno 1696 proposuerit, Problema prius, nondum a Mathematicis Mechanicam Artem exercentibus, sed a Geometris, solutum, ut ipse Author testatur Tractatus Chymicus Febrium Continuarum, Petechialium ac Peſtilentialium notitiam veram exhibens, autore Jacobo Morello Doctore Medico Cabilonenſi.

RElíquas inter Febres continuæ ac malignæ quemadmodum periculoſiores corpori, ita & obſcuriores humano exiſtunt intellectui.

Fruſtraneum eorum eſſe conatum, qui febres has per occultas, ſicut reliquos morbos per qualitates primas, dilucidare allaborant, in Præfatione Scripto præſenti præfixa noſter exponit Autor, utpote qui earundem Theoriam hic clariorem e quinque potius principiis Chymicis ipſoque motu naturæ, a generatione ad cruditatem, a cruditate ad maturitatem & ab hac demum ad putredinem progredientis, reddere ſtudet. Tractatum vero omnem e quinque voluit contextum capitibus, in quorum duobus prioribus ea, quæ ad Theoriam, in reliquis autem tribus, quæ ad Praxin Febrium tum continuarum, tum malignarum faciunt, proponit. In primo ſcilicet capite febrium continuarum eſſentiam, ad normam fere Williſianam, a nimia ſanguinis deducit efferveſcentia impetuoſiori, quam ſulphurearum particularum commotioni, velut cauſæ conjunctæ, refert acceptam. Ab harum ſiquidem motu omnem eſſe calorem, experimentis ſatis trivialibus, v. gr. fœno humido exardeſcente, oleo Tartari per deliquium & Spiritu Vitrioli invicem incaleſcentibus &c. comprobat, oſtendendo juxtim, qua ratione ſanguinis efferveſcentia Symptomatis aliis procreandis ſit potis. Quod continuæ autem Febres, licet natura ſua haud malignæ, epidemicæ tamen quandoque evadant, irregularibus anni temporum adſcribit mutationibus; quæ ipſæ nihilominus, æque ac reliquæ cauſæ evidentes, de Febribus iſtam ludere poſſint tragœdiam, præexiſtentem in corpore requirunt aptitudinem; cum ea ſubjecta, quæ ſanguine pariter ſulphureo abundant, ac quæ vitam agunt ſedentariam talem, ut laudabilia una ingerant alimenta, recipiendis febrilibꝰ impreſſionibus omnium videantur aptiſſima. Unde omnes porro cauſas externas, quæ vel ſanguinem ad extremum maturitatis gradum perducere valent, v. gr. alimenta nonnulla, it. regiones calidiores &c.

vel quæ maturum etiam jamdum ſanguinem nimis commovent, quemadmodum exercitia immoderata, febrium continuarum eſſe poſſe procatarcticas, fuſius demonſtrat: quoad prius vero dum naturæ motum in ſubſidium vocat, naturam ſimul nil aliud, quam ipſa quinque mixtorum principia prima eſſe indigitat. Malignitatem denique, in quam Febres ardentes ſæpius abire ſolent, inſequenti ſanguinis putredini ita attribuit, ut ex emergentibus hinc ſanguinis grumulis, iisq; in habitu externo detentis omnem petechiarum & exanthematum purpureorum deducere velit productionem. Ceterum ab eadem ſanguinis totali corruptela ſeu putredine, febrium quoq; malignarum, peſtilentialium, & contagioſarum eſſentiam derivat in capite ſecundo, ceu quarum cauſam fermentum ibidem aſſerit venenoſum ſeu malignum, naturam quod habeat ſalino-ſulphuream, ope cujus ſalinis & ſulphureis mixti moleculis, tanquam reliquorum principiorum vinculis, disrumpendis maxime ſit adæquatum. Et ne hoc rationibus ſolummodo videatur ſupponere, obſervationibus inſuper multis realem ejus exiſtentiam it ſtabilitum, v. gr. fructibus putridis mediante ejusmodi miaſmate ſalino-ſulphureo alios fructus adhuc integros corrumpentibus, gangræna itidem ſimili fermento putrido ac fœtido partem totam, quam occupat, ſubito deſtruente &c. Inſtar ſcintillularum enim magnum incendium excitantium, vel inſtar acidi etiam pauci univerſam maſſam farinaceam fermentantis, fermenta ſeſe habere ediſſerit; rationem, cur humana ſolummodo corpora, neque una vegetabilium ſucci, aut animalia reliqua, a miaſmate contagioſo, ab infectis exhalante inficiantur, annectendo. Salis autem ejusmodi oleoſi, cujus efficaciam ulterius Aquæ Fortis exemplo illuſtrat, natales vel in ipſo corpore, vel extra hoc quærit; quocunque tamen modo ſit genitum, aptum id deprædicat, quod ſanguinis a ſe divellat partes, ſimultaneaque ejus congrumeſcentia varii generis exanthemata, bubones, carbunculos, aliaque generet pathemata. Prælibata ſic Febrium, tum continuarum ſeu ardentium, tum malignarum theoria, utriusque generis Curationem aggreditur in capite quarto & quinto, ubi formatis legitime Indicationibus, in principio febrium continuarum largam ſanguinis commendat miſſionem, e remediis alterantibus acida, inprimis vegetabilia, v. gr. omphacium, ſeligens præ ſalibus fixis, multo velut ſulphure imprægnatis. Cum acidis ejusmodi in ipſo etiam incremento pergere jubet, donec in ſtatu, quando coctionis a ſe enodatæ ſigna apparent in urina, cum ſudoriferis veniant commutanda, talibus tamen, quæ omni ſulphure careant, ſicut v. gr. Spiritus Salis ammoniaci eſt, absque eo, ut venæ reiteretur ſectio, niſi eo ſalem in caſu, ubi in principio ſufficiens ſanguinis intermiſſa fuerit evacuatio. Vice verſa in malignis febribus in primo ſtatim principio eadem adhibet diaphoretica, acidis æque ac purgantibus velut nocivis, tunc repudiatis: neque venæ ibi ſectionem admittit, niſi vel Plethora, vel magna ſulphurearum ſanguinis particularum ubertate præſentibus. Qua vero ratione bubones in ſpecie ac carbunculi medicamentis externis ſint tractandi, in fine capitis quarti exhibet. In quinto ſiquidem & ultimo capite media tandem a febribus malignis ſe præſervandi, triplici e fonte, diætetico nempe, chirurgico & pharmaceutico edocet, ex horum ultimo Elixir potiſſimum Proprietatis univerſalis inſtar Præſervativi adverſus ſanguinis putredinem efferendo encomiis.

IN LIBRVM IVDICVM COMMENTARIVS, IN quo præter diligentem Textus explicationem, præcipuæ quæſtiones & Loci Communes, quos vocant, ad ſingula Capita ac ſub finem appendix Chronologica, adduntur; elaboratus a Sebaſtiano Schmidt, *S. Argentorati 1684 in 4.

QUamvis ex titulo præſentis libri non obſcure intelligatur, quid in eodem præſtiterit venerandus Autor, Theologus & Philologus ſeculi noſtri celeberrimus, prolixius tamen paulo omnia declaranda eſſe judicamus. Abſolvitur totius inſtituti ratio ſequentibus. Poſtquam capitis cujusque Analyſin propoſuit ſatis exactam, adeo ut non tantum ſectiones primariæ & ſecundariæ, verum etiam verſuum ſingulorum argumenta pateſcant, textum ipſum explicat, fontibus & verſione inciſi cujusvis præmiſſis. In qua explicatione ita ſe gerit, ut vo-

ut vocum & phraſium emphaſin ſedulo attendat, parallelismum ſtudioſe conſulat, & quæ rem concernunt, ſive ad explicationem ejus, ſive ad difficultatum circa illam emergentium ſolutionem pertineant, diligenter dilucidet. Præcipuas vero controverſias, quæ in capitibus libri hujus vel moveri poſſunt vel moveri ſolent, in quæſtiones Hiſtoricas, Philologicas, & Theologicas redigit, earumque veritate curatius inquiſita, ſingulas rationibus adjectis decidit. Tandem ut omnibus inſerviat, nec quicquam ſciens prætermittat, quod lector aliquis, cujuscunque fuerit ordinis, a Commentatore bono requirere poſſe videtur, ex unoquoque verſu Locos communes eruit, devincturus ſibi præprimis illos, qui in cathedra Eccleſiaſtica explicando huic libro Biblico operam inſumere ſuam non gravabuntur. Prolegomenorum loco decem propinat quæſtiones, quæ inſtar generalis ſunt Introductionis in librum Judicum. Quædam ex iis excerpta huc apponere liceat. Quærit nimirum de ordine, quem Judicum liber inter libros Biblicos ſibi vendicet, & an medio inter Joſuam & Judices loco Jobi liber ſtare debeat, ſtatuitque conſuetum hactenus poſt Joſuam ei tribuendum eſſe, cum non tantum Apoſtolus Hebr. XI, & initium libri, verum etiam aliæ rationes hoc aſſertum confirment. Autorem libri minus principalem determinari non poſſe adſtruit, conjicit tamen plures eam hiſtoriam congeſſiſſe, congeſtamque in loco ſancto aſſervatam eſſe, donec tandem in unum volumen a Viris ſanctis ſive Hiskiæ ſive aliis ſit redacta, ita ut clauſulæ vice hiſtoriæ ſupplendæ ergo adjecta ſit relatio de Michæ idolo. Statum Reipublicæ Judaicæ ſub Judicibus exponit, eundemque prorſus ſingularem fuiſſe docet, qui ad nullam Rerump. Ariſtotelicarum referri commode poſſit aut debeat, cum Deus ſolus Rex fuerit, eamque cura immediata conſervaverit, correxerit, defenderit, auxerit, uſus ope Judicum ceu Miniſtrorum ſive Vice-Regum, ad bella gerenda & inſpectionem ac viſitationem tribunalium ab ipſo cū auctoritate delegatorum, ita ut ad Moſis & Joſuæ dignitatem acceſſerint proxime, quamvis aliis plus, aliis minus a Deo fuerit commiſſum. Attingit etiam rationem divinam qua cum populo Dei tempore Judicum fuit actum, & cur rigidius illa ætate fuerint habiti Iſraelitæ veſtigat, caſtigationesq; divinas, quibus gentem illam affecit, examinat, Brentium hac de re ſcribentem corrigens. Nec minus cum aliis de ſanctitate & ſalute Judicum ſollicitus eſt, contra Serrarium non omnes fuiſſe ſanctos

Pariſiis apud Guillelmum Deſprez, 1684 in 4.

CUm S. Fulgentii Ruſpenſis Epiſcopi eximium opus contra Fauſtum Rejenſem, genuinam reſponſionem adverſus Pintam, librum altercationis cum Thraſamundo, librum de Spiritu S. ad Abragilam, duos de jejunio & oratione libros ad Probam ſcriptos, epiſtolam ad Carthaginenſes, pluresque epiſtolas & alia ſcripta non amplius ſupereſſe conſtet, quorum recuperandorum ſpes aut nulla aut exigua appareret, præclare de bono publico meruiſſe dubium non eſt, quorum ſtudium & vigilantia, ne & reliqua ſanctiſſimi & ſua ætate doctiſſimi Antiſtitis monumenta intercíderent, præcavit.

In his Bilibaldus Pirckheymerus, qui exemplum operum B. Fulgentii miræ vetuſtatis, ex reliquiis bibliothecæ Trithemianæ ad ſe delatum, & a Johanne Cochlæo pro librariis operis deſcriptum edi curavit; Johannes Ulimmerius, cujus ſtudio Fulgentii opera poſt editionem Moguntinam anni 1515, Noribergenſem anni 1519, Colonienſem anni 1526 & alias, Antverpiæ anno 1574, una cum Johannis Molani prolegomenis ex officina Plantiniana prodierunt; Henricus Juſtus, qui telam a Chriſtiano Urſtiſio cœptam pertexuit, & A. C. 1587 Fulgentii opera, addito Petri Diaconi de incarnatione & gratia libello, Baſileæ, ubi etiam jam anno 1566 Fulgentius excuſus fuerat, Sebaſtiani Henricpetri typis exprimenda dedit; Jacobus Sirmondus, qui A. C. 1612 Fulgentii librum

Tractatus de Ponderibus, Mensuris, Numismatibus, Auctore, & Inventore Christiano Hugenio, Zulichemio, Academiæ Regiæ Scientiarum Parisiensis Socio. Accessit Appendix ejusdem de Formâ Lentium, &c. Quo tempore Fulgentii opera, quæ hîc Sodalis Regius A. C. Gronovius nobis dedit, scripta fuerint, non satis liquet. Ipse Editor primo numero Præfationis ait, Scripsisse Fulgentium Ruspensem Episcopum, qui floruit sub Anastasio Imperatore, Theodorico, Hormisdâ, aut Vigilio Romanis Pontificibus. Post pag. 18 addit, in Africa sub Arianis, hoc tandem tempore collectum esse librum, qui Fulgentii nomine circumferatur. Sed ante, ubi de Fulgentii Ruspensis Episcopi vitâ agit, ait, Ferrandum Diaconum, qui Fulgentii Vitam scripsit, Fulgentium Episcopum Ruspensem fuisse ordinatum ante annum Christi 507. Quæ cum ita sint, Fulgentius Ruspensis Episcopus floruit circa annum Christi 507. Ejus opera hîc recensentur, Libri tres ad Monimum, Libri tres ad Trasimundum Regem Vandalorum Arianæ Sectæ, Liber de Fide ad Petrum, Liber de Incarnatione & Gratia, Liber de Trinitate, Liber de Remissione Peccatorum, Liber de Veritate Prædestinationis & Gratiæ, Liber de Præscientia & Prædestinatione Sanctorum, Liber de Incarnatione & Gratia, Liber de Fide ad Petrum, Liber de Fide, Liber de Spiritu Sancto

Libri tres ad Monimum unum e præcip uis Fulgentii amicis, cui ad quæſtiones de duplici prædeſtinatione, una bonorum ad gloriam, altera malorum ad pœnam, de ſacrificii oblatione, de miſſione Spiritus S. & de ſupererogatione D. Pauli propoſitas, libris duobus prioribus reſpondet, tertio nonnullas Arianorum argutias refellens.

Libri tres ad Traſimundum Vandalorum Regem, quibus ad ea, quæ ex ſubitaria libri bajulo Felice oblati, ſed ſtatim iterum extorti lectione memoriæ inhæſerant, regio mandato compulſus diſcutit.

Epiſtolæ in unum corpus collectæ numero octodecim varii argumenti, quarum poſtremam ad Reginum comitem directam Fulgentius morte præventus Ferrando ſupplendam & abſolvendam reliquit. Accenſetur autem his Fulgentii epiſtolis etiam libellus de fide ad Donatum, quo myſterium Trinitatis & incarnationis a variis hæreticorum erroribus vindicatur. Inſertæ quoque Fulgentii epiſtolis epiſtola Victoris ad Fulgentium ipſius preces enixe flagitantis, & Faſtidioſi Ariani ſermonem, qui Victoris epiſtolæ ſubjicitur, confutandum transmittentis; item epiſtola Scarilæ, qui duas quæſtiones, unam de incarnatione Filii Dei, & alteram de vilium animalium autore, Fulgentio proponit; duæ epiſtolæ Diaconi Ferrandi, quarum una ad duas quæſtiones de baptiſmo & ſalute æthiopis moribundi, altera ad quinque quæſtiones diverſi argumenti a Fulgentio reſponderi deſiderat; Epiſtola Datiani & aliorum in Sardinia exulum epiſcoporum ad Johannem quendam presbyterum & archimandritam, & Venerium diaconum reſponſoria, qua doctrina de gratia & prædeſtinatione explicatur; Petri Diaconi & aliorum, qui in cauſa fidei ex oriente Romam ſe contulerant, de incarnatione & gratia Domini noſtri Jeſu Chriſti ad Fulgentium & alios Africæ epiſcopos libellus, eo tempore ſcriptus quo de phraſi, unus e Trinitate crucifixus eſt, & de Fauſti ſemipelagiani ſcriptis graviſſimæ controverſiæ exortæ fuerant; & Fulgentii cæterorumq; Africæ epiſcoporum exulum de eodem argumento liber, quo ſuum de his controverſiis judicium, approbata Petri Diaconi & ſociorum ſententia, expromunt, Liber de Trinitate, quo Fulgentius Felicem Notarium ad retundendos hæreticorum insultus non satis instructum, ut desideriis ipsius satisfaciat, de hoc mysterio aliisque fidei capitibus fideliter informat.

Liber ad Victorem contra sermonem Fastidiosi, qui desertis orthodoxorum castris ad Arianos defecerat, & ex essentiali Patris, Filii & Spiritus S. unitate, Patris & Spiritus S. incarnationem sequi argutatus fuerat.

De remissione peccatorum libri duo, in quibus nec extra ecclesiam, nec extra vitæ hujus spatium, locum pœnitentiæ relinquit.

Liber ad Scarilam, quo & de incarnatione Christi, & de vilium & noxiorum animalium procreatione Fulgentius disserit, quippe cujus arbitrium elegerant, qui in convivio quodam de utroque capite diversis sententiis concertaverant.

Libri tres de veritate prædestinationis & gratia Dei ad Johannem & Venerium, quorum tertium primus integrum cum Ferrandi operibus Chiffletius edidit.

Liber de fide seu fidei regula Augustini operibus admixtus, sed Fulgentio jam pridem restitutus, ad Petrum, qui in aliis Fulgentii editionibus vulgo Diaconus cognominari solet; quod cognomen expungendum duxerunt, qui novæ huic editioni præfuerunt, cum ex horum sententia Petrus ille neque Diaconus, ut in titulo hujus libri hactenus dictus est, neque monachus fuerit, quod Blondello primum & postea Norisio placuit, sed vir militaris, qui Hierosolymam profecturus, fidei regulam, qua se adversus hæreticæ pravitatis insidias muniret, a Fulgentio flavitaverit.

Liber pro fide catholica adversus Pintam, quem genuinæ Fulgentii adversus Pintam responsioni suppositum, inepta & Fulgentio Græcæ linguæ non imperito indigna Homousii etymologia, & aliæ rationes arguunt.

Decem sermones, de quibus an omnes Fulgentii sint, nondum liquet, etsi plerique Fulgentio non indigni videantur.

Fragmenta XXXIX ex libris Fulgentii adversus Fabianum, item duo fragmenta ex Fulgentii quæstionibus de processione Spiritus Sancti.

Duo Fulgentii sermones, unus de circumcisione Domini, alter de purificatione Virginis Mariæ, quos hactenus ineditos Lucas Holstenius e Va-

e Vaticana bibliotheca quondam descripsit, & Cardinalis Barberinus Lutetiam transmisit. Ex his priorem quidem Fulgentio, posteriorem autem alteri cuipiam autori, qui Fulgentio junior fuerit, in admonitione præmissa Fulgentianæ hujus editionis curatores censuerunt.

Appendix operum S. Fulgentii, quæ complectitur I. Librum de prædestinatione & gratia, in quo Lovanienses Theologi aliique eruditi viri nihil Fulgentio dignum, imo multa Fulgentio contraria deprehenderunt, quamvis Theophilus Raynaudus in Censura inofficiosæ censuræ Lovanienſium, Bellarmini, Possevini & aliorum, ut librum hunc Fulgentio asserat, maximopere contendat. II. Epistolam Fernandi Diaconi ad Eugyppium, quam cum nec a Fulgentio, nec ad Fulgentium scripta sit, ab ejus operibus semotam in appendicem rejicere placuit; & III. Sermones LXXX Fulgentio perperam tributos.

Indices rerum in Fulgentii operibus contentarum, locorum Scripturæ ab ipso explicatorum, codicum ad quos de novo Fulgentii opera recognita sunt, variarum lectionum ex prætermissis selectarum, & postremo erratorum.

Quamvis vero qui huic Fulgentii editioni operam dederunt, nomina sua latere voluerint, de publica utilitate magis quam de fama soliciti & egregii facti conscientia contenti, neminem tamen latere voluerunt, multum se a Jesuita Chiffletio adjutos, qui variantes in omnia fere Fulgentii opera lectiones, quas olim ex variis codicibus bibliothecæ Carthusiæ ad Portas exscripserat, benignissime cum iis communicavit.

TOLERANCE DES RELIGIONS, seu
De tolerandis Religionibus.

Amstelodami 1684 in 12.

BRevissimo quidem hoc, sed erudito & terso libello, proposuit sibi Autor miseram Reformatorum in Gallia conditionem denuo ob oculos ponere, & simul demonstrare, injustum pariter & inutile, imo & pudendum & indignum esse, quidquid vi & astu, ad opprimendas Reformatorum Ecclesias factum huc usque est, aut inposterum metuitur.

tuitur. Fatetur quidem nondum sanguinem fundi, quanquam Cleri ferventissima odia eo tendant, sed Regis Christianissimi benignam mentem ad tantam crudelitatem adigi nondum potuisse. Acerbissima tamen esse & morti comparanda, vel ea quandoq; graviora, quæ quotidie patiantur, licet velo juris & fraternæ charitatis tecta, imo ob hanc ipsam simulationem & cavillationem intolerabiliora. Quæ vero hac occasione contra primarium quendam ex Regni Prælatis, & adversus Jesuitas, persecutionum, ut ait, instigatores, tum etiam contra Arnaldum & socios Jansenistas, acerrimos nunc Reformatorum insectatores, dolore commotus vehementius effundit, non opus est excerpta hic legi, cum pleraque ex aliis scriptis jam innotuerint. Videtur tamen non omnem spem de clementia Regis deposuisse, gloriamq; ejus ex clementia, quam tot myriadibus innoxiorum civium exhibiturus esset, tanto majorem illa fore ominatur, quam ex tot victoriis & trophæis acquisivit, quanto longe vel difficilius vel felicius est Titi Vespasiani elogium mereri, & delitium generis humani appellari, quam ab armorum successu, qui multis etiam malis Principibus contigit, laudari. Neq; justius quidquam a Rege expectari posse, quam ut decreta & pacta Majorum suorum, pro Reformatæ religionis libertate, non sine magnis impetrantium meritis, facta & inita, sancte custodiat, nec per veteratorias Cleri artes infringi sinat: utpote quæ Pothinum aliquem, arcanorum dominationis ministrum potius deceant, qui jus in manu ponat, fidemque pro tempore & statu rerum servandam mutandamque doceat. Vanissimam etiam imputationem esse, & querelam exoletam, de rebellione Reformatorum, quod vel ex collatione librorum Maimburgii de Calvinismo, & de Liga constare possit; cujus scriptoris malam mentem fidemque, uno alteroq; argumento ostensum it. Cum vero inter alia etiam hoc objiciatur Reformatis, ac si ex mera obstinatione reconciliari cum Ecclesia Romana nolint, id omni veri specie destitutum esse dicit. Quis enim honores fortunasque omnes in periculorum missurus esset, nisi insuperabili conscientiæ dictamine permotus? Quod si falsæ & ridiculæ religiones inveniant cultores, (ut ex Mahummedanorum aliorumque exemplo constat,) qui omnia potius quam errores illos deserant, quid mirum si Reformati professionem divinæ veritatis, quam certam & indubitatam agnoscunt, constanter tueantur? Pauli exemplum, impio quidem zelo, sed bona tamen men fide, Chriſtianos acriter perſequentis, omnes terrere debere, ne præjudicio qualicunque & inde nato fervori nimium tribuant. Non ita expoſitam eſſe & evidentem veritatem, ut ſemper & ſtatim omnes ad aſſenſum moveat: quapropter indulgendum eſſe humanæ imbecillitati, & Gamalielis conſilium optimum habendum, ne contra Deum pugnetur, vi agendo, qua Deus ipſe minime utitur, nec eam ad cogendos hominum animos exercendi cuiquam jus dedit: ſatius eſſe, leviusque peccari, ſi Reformati, etſi errent, tolerentur, cum nulla ſit cogendi eos obligatio aut neceſſitas, quam ut injuſtitia & violentia manifeſta contra fidem pactorum & legum agatur. Paſtorum eſſe, voce & exemplo oves regere: lupos fieri, ſi pro pedo arma capiant. Denique non magis fieri poſſe, ut voluntas hominis ſponte & ſerio probet, quæ intellectus reprobat, quam ſi alicui, ſola contradicentium autoritate aut multitudine perſuadere velis, nigrum eſſe, quod is ſuis ipſe oculis album videt & judicat. Deum nempe ipſum ſenſibus vim non inferre. Ubi tamen obiter notamus exemplum, quo aſſertum hoc adſtruere conatur Autor, & quod ſæpe in aliis, forte ejusdem, aut aliorum ſuæ ſectæ Doctorum ſcriptis allegatur, nempe de non credenda præſentia reali corporis & ſanguinis Chriſti in S. cœna, quia ſenſus repugnat, nihil contra orthodoxiam præſentiæ realis operari. Nemo enim ſenſualem & palpabilem ſtatuit, ſed Sacramentalem, ſive myſticam, inviſibilem & ſenſu imperceptibilem, omnipotentia promittentis Dei nixam. Alio ad hominem argumento violentam Reformatorum exſtirpationem diſſuadet, quia Eccleſiæ minime expediat, ut ſine hæreſi & ſchiſmate ſit. Exemplum Hiſpaniæ & Italiæ allegat, quanta ibi Cleri & populi ſit ignorantia; at in Gallia Romano Catholicam religionem, in ſuo genere puriſſimam inveniri, eamque diſputationibus cum Reformatis deberi. His oppreſſis, in veterem ſocordiam, & dominandi, ac ſine diſciplina vivendi libidinem omnes eſſe relapſuros, neque quidquam ex pulpitis populum auditurum, quam fabulas de purgatorio, & adhortationes ad confraternitates, ad ſcapularia, ad peregrinationes, ad indulgentias quærendas, ut externis & vanis adhærentes Laici, ſed ſolida pietate, quæ in ſpiritu & veritate exercenda eſt, carentes, Clerum honoribus & opibus mactent: jam in tanta luce & quotidiana Reformatorum contradictione ſatis prodire ineptiarum. PRAXIS ASTRONOMICA TRIGONICA

Qua ex tribus, vel quatuor Altitudinibus Solis, vel Stellarum, Tempus, Latitudo, & Declinatio Solis, vel Stellæ, ope Trigonometriæ Sphæricæ, inveniuntur.

Auctore JOHANNE TOBIA MAYERO, Professore Publico Ordinario, & Societatis Regiæ Scientiarum Membro.

Quæ Problemata Astronomica, ope Trigonometriæ Sphæricæ, solvi possunt, ea omnia, quæ ad Tempus, Latitudinem, & Declinationem Solis, vel Stellæ, pertinent, ex tribus, vel quatuor Altitudinibus Solis, vel Stellarum, inveniuntur. Ea autem Problemata hactenus à Geometris non tractata fuisse, mihi videtur, quia Trigonometria Sphærica, quæ ad ea solvenda necessaria est, non ita pridem inventa est. Quæ cum ita sint, ea Problemata, quæ ad Praxin Astronomicam pertinent, hic tractare constitui.

Volumen I. London, Oct. 8. 1684.

UT matters for both Advocates or Indifferent Arbitrators, as concern the present Differences amongst several of the Princes and States of the Empire, and the Publick Peace of Christendom, may be the more easily and speedily determined, it is thought fit, that the Emperor, the Elector of Saxony, and the Elector of Brandenburg, should be desired to be Arbitrators in the Controversies depending between the Palatine, Count Palatine of Neuburg, and the Bishop of Munster, and the Duke of Neuburg, and the Duke of Wolfenbuttle, and the Duke of Hanover, and the Duke of Holstein-Gottorp, and the Duke of Mecklenburg, and the Duke of Holstein-Plon, and the Duke of Brunswick-Lunenburg, and the Duke of Wirtemberg, and the Duke of Deux-Ponts, and the Duke of Zell, and the Duke of Saxe-Gotha, and the Duke of Saxe-Eisenach, and the Duke of Saxe-Weimar, and the Duke of Saxe-Meinungen, and the Duke of Saxe-Altenburg, and the Duke of Saxe-Coburg, and the Duke of Saxe-Lawenburg, and the Duke of Anhalt-Bernburg, and the Duke of Anhalt-Dessau, and the Duke of Anhalt-Cothen, and the Duke of Holstein-Beck, and the Duke of Holstein-Augustenburg, and the Duke of Holstein-Norburg, and the Duke of Holstein-Glucksburg, and the Duke of Holstein-Sunderburg, and the Duke of Holstein-Plon, and the Duke of Holstein-Gottorp

MIRACULA ET VITA BEATI ANTONII, Ordinis Minorum Confessoris, Lusitani de Padua.

Auctore Fr. Thoma de Celano, Ordinis Minorum.

Miracula Beati Antonii de Padua.

Lusitani quidem Natione, Patavini vero Habitatione, Ordinis Minorum Professione, Sacerdotii Dignitate, Verbi Dei Prædicatione, Miraculorum Claritate.

Quoniam Deus in Sanctis suis mirabilis, et in Operibus suis admirandus, ipse Sanctos suos, quos ab æterno præscivit, et præelegit, et quos in Tempore vocavit, et justificavit, ipse eos, quos justificavit, glorificavit, et glorificatos in Cœlo, et in Terra mirabiles fecit, ut in Cœlo Gloriosi, in Terra Miraculis claruerint. Unde Ecclesia Sancta, quæ Sanctorum Gaudia in Cœlo, et Miracula in Terra recolit, et celebrat, Festum Beati Antonii Confessoris, Lusitani de Padua, Ordinis Minorum, Sacerdotii Dignitate, Verbi Dei Prædicatione, Miraculorum Claritate, Gloriosi, Festum, inquam, ejus Natalitium, quod est Quinto Decimo Kalendas Julii, Gaudiis celebrat, et Miraculis.

pue Auguſto Imperium æternum promiſerit. Deinde comparationem Autor inter duos Heroas, Achillem nempe Homeri & Æneam Virgilii, inſtituit. Atque hic dicit Homerum non deſcripſiſſe ideam perfecti principis, neque aliam ſuo tempore ante ſe ideam habuiſſe, quam Theſei & Herculis, aut cujusvis alius priorum temporum, propter corporis robur atque audaciam celebrati; Virgilium vero ante oculos ſibi ſtatuiſſe non Heroes tantum abs Homero deſcriptos, ſed & Heroes Græcos ac Romanos ſua tempora antegreſſos, atque ex his ideam longe perfectiorem concepiſſe. Et vero Achilles ab Homero deſcribitur non tantum ut fortis atque animoſus, ſed etiam ut crudelis, vindictæ cupidus, avarus ac levis, ut epitome omnis imperfectionis videri poſſit. Æneas e contrario a Virgilio religioſus, pius erga patrem, amicus erga ſuos, æquus & juſtus erga omnes, audax in ſubeundis periculis, laborum patiens, animoſus ac fortis in armis, in rebus gerendis prudens, bonus ubique, pacificus, liberalis, diſertus, pulcher, popularis, decora majeſtate conſpicuus, & ne quid ad perfectionem deſit, felix repræſentatur; & quamvis Achilles longe fortior ac bellicoſior Ænea videri poſſit, Æneas tamen nihil eorum, quæ fortis ac magnanimi Viri ſunt, id quod fuſe Autor demonſtrat, temere intermiſit. Cæterum cum Fabula naſcatur ex tribus, (1) ex naturali connexione actionis principalis, & juſta partium illam componentium proportione; (2) ex juſto veriſimilium & admirabilium temperamento; (3) ex apta epiſodiorum congruentia cum actione principali: etiam in tribus his omnibus carere vitio Æneida præ Iliade & Odyſſea, oſtendit Obſervator. Iliadis enim & Odyſſeæ actionem eſſe imperfectam (quod & ipſum mox declarat); Homerum præterea parcum eſſe in veriſimilibus, ſed prodigum in admirabilibus, & ſemper Deos, etiam præter neceſſitatem, inducere; epiſodia denique ejus juſto grandiora eſſe, coacta, & nimium frequentia. Æneida vero habere perfectam actionem, partiumque omnium proportionem ac convenientiam; deinde veriſimilia in eo multa, ſed rara Deorum miniſteria, & majore quidem cum judicio, repræſentari; epiſodia etiam omnia cum argumento apprime convenire; quæ omnia clariſſimis ubique exemplis abs Autore evincuntur. Has comparationes ſequitur alia quoad Mores, qui ſecundum Epici carminis locum occupant; intellige moresnon tam poetarum, quam perſonarum, e quibus conſiſtit actio.

Atque hic maxima ſeſe diverſitas exerit inter Heroes ab utroque deſcriptos, quam & ſcite non minus, ac prolixe doctiſſimus Obſervator expoſuit. Mores excipiunt Sententiæ, tertia poematis epici pars. Heic ineptitudinis in multis accuſatur Homerus; Virgilius vero ſemper ſerius, ſemper Heroici characteris ſervantiſſimus, neque unquam ad ineptias deſcendiſſe dicitur; quanquam & hoc non absque ab Autore additur, multa non tam Homeri, quam ſeculi eſſe vitia, ut quod majoris elegantiæ tum capax non fuerit. Reſtat Elocutio ſive dictio, tanquam epici carminis pars ultima. Hic diffiteri non poteſt Autor, Homerum eminere ac triumphare præ Virgilio ob ſublimitatem, elegantiam ac dicendi opulentiam, unde & totius antiquitatis admirationem promeruerit. Subjicit tamen & hoc, in Homero tranſitiones ferme ubique easdem, comparationes plurimas valde frigidas, & deſcriptiones nimis crebras eſſe atque affectatas; & quamvis in epithetis quoque & adverbiis Homerus excellat præ Virgilio, multa tamen nimis ſimplicia eſſe ac vulgaria, v. g. nix alba, ardens ignis, lac dulce, & ſi hæc veluti veſtis vel pompa Homero adimatur, eum reliquo poetarum gregi fore ſimilem. De epithetis dum agit Obſervator, velut in tranſitu, recentes ſcriptores quosdam (quos barbare Inſcriptioniſtas dixeris,) reprehendit, qui non alia venari ſolent epitheta, quam quæ ſimul contradictionem involvunt ejus verbi, cum quo junguntur, ut per hanc oppoſitionem plus ſplendoris ex oratione eluceſcat; longe meliora eſſe innuens epitheta communiſſima, & rerum naturam commodiſſime exprimentia, quam tam longe petita, & quendam myſteriorum horrorem præ ſe ferentia. De cætero uti certi quid ſtatuatur de incomparabili hoc poetarum pari, characterem cuique ſuum tribuit obſervator, dicitque Homerum loquendi eſſe ſtudioſum, ſed Virgilium verborum parcum ac taciturnum, quique nihil dicat, niſi quod dici debeat; quapropter & divinæ ei laudes ab Autore tribuuntur. Concedit tandem idem Autor, Iliada & Odyſſeam, quantum ad unitatem temporis, præferri debere Æneidi (nam actio Odyſſeæ XL dies non excedit, Ilias IIX vel IX ad ſummum menſes; Æneidis vero annum integrum, & quod excurrit) at actionem tamen Æneidis, ſi recte conſideretur, longe perfectiorem eſſe, quam Iliadis, cum poſt mortem Hectoris, quæ actionem finire debebat, duo adhuc libri reſtent, XXIII & XXIV; Æneis vero finiatur in morte Turni, quæ ni, quæ actionem terminet. Deinde & Virgilii expreſſiones multo magis eſſe vivas, quod cum exemplis aliis, tum deſcriptione maxime amoris Æneæ & Didus clarum redditur; Homero interim majorem verborum eſſe copiam, ut & inventiones longe fœcundiores atque opulentiores; quanquam & hoc obſervatur inſimul, Homero non integram inventionis deberi laudem, quin & ei a multis œconomiam & diſpoſitionem utriusque operis eripi, ſed quibus calculum ſuum obſervator non adjicit. His ita diſſertatis tandem Autor exordia poëmatum Homeri ac Virgilii inter ſe comparat, oſtenſoque, hac quoque in parte palmam præ Homero reportare Virgilium, non præter rem eos, qui Homerum unicum, ejusque magnificentiam ævo omni præ Virgilio ſunt admirati, falſe perſtringit, neque idoneos eos agnoſcit judices, ut qui exteriora tantum cum Grammaticis admirati, virtutes carminis epici eſſentiales nunquam cognoverint. Tandem, ut tribus quaſi verbis decidat, quid in toto hoc opuſculo profiteatur, non inconcinne rem ſic dividit; Homerum plus habere ingenii; Virgilium plus judicii ac delectus.

Hagæ Comitum, apud Arnoldum Leers, 1684 in 4.

POſt eximia cætera in orbem literarium merita, quibus hactenus inclaruit, vir celeberrimus Chriſtianus Hugenius, prodit ab ipſo luculentum hoc ſiderum obſervandorum compendium, quod tanto pluris Aſtrorum conſultos æſtimare omnino convenit, quanto, quæ hucusque in hanc rem prodita ſunt ab aliis ſtudii hujus ſubſidia, operæ fuere difficilioris, minusque ad vota & expectationem curioſorum.

Poſtquam enim ab inventis Tuboſpecillis in immenſum crevit, uti viſus in remotiora intentio, ſic & ſtudium proferendi hujus artificii, uſibus oculorum tam proficui; nihilque poſt tot tantasque acceſſiones jam ſupereſſe videbatur excogitandum, quam ratio, qua ſubveniretur moleſtæ verſationi Tuborum longiorum, mole ſua citra machinarum nixum minime, earum vero adjumento difficulter admodum tractabilium, ingratum hunc obicem, unaque ingens illud tædium ex continuo illius objectu obſervatoribus ſubnatum, levi veluti brachio ingenioſiſſimus Autor ſuſtulit, & ne porro intentis ſiderum ſcrutatoribus incommodo eſſet, inventi adeo præclari publicatione efficere anniſus eſt. Ejus autem in eo poſita eſt præſtantia, quod citra tuborum uſum teleſcopiorum quantæcunque magnitudinis lentes ad ſpectacula cœleſtia adhibere facillime, magnoque temporis, operæ, & ſumtuum compendio doceat; eo quem Clariſſimus Autor expoſuit modo, quemque ex edito ſchediaſmate huc tranſcripſimus.

Loco patente & undique aperto malus a b in terram defigitur, ad perpendiculum erectus, nec multo infra teleſcopii, cui lentes quibus utendum eſt, aptandæ alias forent, longitudinem produ&tus. Hujus, priusquam erigatur, latus unum dolabra complanatur, atque ibi regulæ binæ affiguntur inter ſe parallelæ, ac ſeſquipollice diſtantes, itaque canalem efficientes, interius paulo latiorem, qui à ſummo malo ad imum fere pertingat, reliquis tantum pedibus tribus vacuis. Præterea in ipſo mali cacumine, orbiculus c imponitur, circum axem mobilis, inque eum funis gg ducitur dupla mali longitudine, craſſitudine minimi digiti dimidia. Utque eo, ſi forte opus ſit, aſcendi poſſit, triangula lignea æqualibus ſpatiis defiguntur, quibus ſcandentis pedes inſiſtant. Ita demum paratus malus erigitur, parte ea, qua terra tegendus, illita pice, circundátaque arena, quo minus putredine corrumpatur. Uſus mali eſt, ut lens major ejus opera in altum tollatur quousque opus eſt; quod fit hoc modo.

Aſſerculus bipedalis c d uno latere ita inciditur, ut intra canalem, quem diximus, liberrime moveri queat. Hujus medio affigitur brachium e itidem ligneum, pedem unum a malo exſtans, cujus in extremo aliud ſesquipedale ff, media item ſui parte, conjungitur rectis angulis. Utrumque vero horizonti parallelum extenditur. Huic transverſo brachio lens imponitur, ea qua dicemus ratione, atque omnia ſurſum adducuntur, adnexis aſſerculi extremis ad funem ante demonſtratum; qui ab imo malo ad ſummum adſcendens, ac ſuper orbiculum tranſiens, inde deſcendit rurſus, ac priusquam terram attingat, in ſui ipſius caput alterum innectitur. Habet autem funis is adjectum plumbum h, pondere æquali quantum eſt brachii mobilis quæ ratione ducitur, vocat Dialecticam, quæ autem ratione non ducitur, Sophisticam vocat. Sed Dialectica ut una sola est, ita non duplex, quæ ratione ducitur, sed ea sola, quæ ratione ducitur, Dialectica est. Sophistica autem, quæ ratione non ducitur, non est Dialectica.

Cognoscitur hoc ordine: quia affirmatio vera non potest esse contraria veræ negationi, nec negatio vera affirmationi veræ. Quæ autem ratione ducitur, vera est affirmatio, vera est negatio. Ergo quæ ratione ducitur, non potest esse contraria veræ negationi, nec vera negatio veræ affirmationi. Quæ autem ratione non ducitur, vera est affirmatio, vera est negatio. Cap. XII. Monte Triumphante, & Subterraneo.

Ma perche ho promesso di trattare in questo Capitolo del Monte Triumphante, & Subterraneo, non voglio mancare di mantenere la promessa, & dire quello, che ho veduto, & inteso di esso. Dico adunque, che questo Monte è posto nella Provincia di Cumana, & è il più alto, che si trovi in tutta quella Provincia, & anco in tutta la Terra ferma, & è tanto alto, che si vede da più di cento leghe lontano, & è di figura piramidale, & è tutto di pietra viva, & ha la sua cima tutta piana, & è tutta coperta di arbori, & di herbe, & ha molte fonti, & ruscelli d'acqua, & è habitato da molti Indiani, & Indiane, & ha molte Vigne, & Campi di Maiz, & di Yuca, & di altre sorti di Legumi, & di Frutti, & ha molte Miniere d'oro, & di Argento, & di Rame, & di Ferro, & di Piombo, & di Cristallo, & di Sale, & di Solfo, & di Bitume, & di Pietra Bezaar, & di Pietra Hamaca, & di Pietra Lazzaro, & di Pietra Nefritica, & di Pietra Smeraldo, & di Pietra Turchina, & di Pietra Diaspro, & di Pietra Calcedonia, & di Pietra Corniola, & di Pietra Agata, & di Pietra Porfido, & di Pietra Paragone, & di Pietra Alabastro, & di Pietra Marmo, & di Pietra Mischio, & di Pietra Serpentina, & di Pietra Granito, & di Pietra Gesso, & di Pietra Calamita, & di Pietra Selce, & di Pietra Arena, & di Pietra Calce, & di Pietra Tufo, & di Pietra Pomice, & di Pietra Asbesto, & di Pietra Amianto, & di Pietra Talco, & di Pietra Mica, & di Pietra Lapis Lazuli, & di Pietra Lapis Armenio, & di Pietra Lapis Specularis, & di Pietra Lapis Ollaris, & di Pietra Lapis Molaris, & di Pietra Lapis Pumicis, & di Pietra Lapis Asbestinus, & di Pietra Lapis Amiantinus, & di Pietra Lapis Talcosus, & di Pietra Lapis Micaceus, & di Pietra Lapis Lazuli, & di Pietra Lapis Armenius eandem parumper flectendum; ac rursus, ut ante, lucernæ reflexionem tentandam; idque ita repetitis vicibus faciendum, quoad utraque flammulæ imago in unum convenire conspiciatur. Tensione autem fili utendum mediocri, qualem supra definiverit, duarum aut trium librarum vim referente, eique quatenus licet adsuescendum. Hoc modo correctam semel lentis positionem ad omnes observationes valere.

In magnis etiam (puta 200 aut amplius) pedum intervallis, ubi vix tantum luminis lens a lucerna, etiam convexo vitro adjuta, accipere possit, ut ab observatore cernatur; idem lumen amplius intendendum esse, vel aucto lucernæ ellychnio, vel adhibita lente latiori, leniusque convexa, quæ lucem transmissam minus diffundat, longiusque proinde ejaculetur.

Quantum porro ad mali altitudinem attinet, parandæ ejus plures quidem modos suppetere: posse vero statuto uno, alium ejus opera duplo altiorem juxta attolli, ac simul firmiorem reddi, transversis fibulis utrumque conserendo. Ac firmissimam futuram compagem hujusmodi, si duo mali humiliores, cum tertio duplæ altitudinis, binis ternisve pedibus inter se distent, in triangulum dispositi, dictoque modo religati; eaque ratione facile ad centum pedum altitudinem perveniri: ad multo majores vero, vel validiori malorum ac trabium substructione utendo, vel ad turrim aut ædificii altioris angulum inferiora ligna applicando; ita ut nihil tamen obstet, quo minus, ab imo ad summum, lens primaria adducatur, per continuum canaliculum ascendens. Sed & super turri aut domus culmine erigi malum posse, ut ibi adstet is cui funis cura demandata est, ad evehendam demittendamve lentem.

Cæterum ut positum suum servaret ocularis lens, minusque assueti telescopicis observationibus citra difficultatem hoc invento uti possent, auctarii loco Autor machinæ exiguæ descriptionem adjecit, quæ fulcro bipedi supra memorato affixa id operæ præstaret. In ea est bb rhombus plicatilis ex ære, binis lateribus ad duplam longitudinem inferius productis. Hunc rhombum transversarii medio applicitum tenet cochlea ferrea f, supposita æris vel ferri particula g, ac præterea orbiculo ex ære tenui, leniter convexo, cujus pressu lentus æquabilisque efficitur motus rhombi ac diductio. Porro ex angulo ejus

Et ista quidem de autore hujus reprehensionis, & occasione hactenus: de ejus autem veritate & fundamento quid statuat Autor, ex his non obscure intelligitur: Vel itaque concludit, leve aliquid & nugatorium, in quo illa Patavinitas consistit; vel quod potius duxerim, mera aliqua calumnia est, non ex rei veritate, sed a supercilio & invido Pollionis animo profecta. Idiotismos, si qui in Livio occurrunt, ullo nos judice ut a pura latinitate abhorrentes damnare posse negat, quod in ipso Cicerone multa singularia occurrant, non temere, vel eo solum nomine, quod apud alios non legantur, rejicienda. περισσολογίαν & sermonis ubertatem vitio Livianæ orationi ut vertat, tantum abest, ut summam ejus virtutem interpretetur, quod ejus conditionis illa sit atque indolis, ut styli historici virtutibus, brevitati & celeritati, nequaquam deroget. Grande dicendi genus in Livio si fuerit, idipsum & ornari voluisse, & requisivisse augusti majestatem argumenti, in quo labor Livii sit versatus. Difficultate tandem censurarum in hoc argumenti genere demonstrata, brevem eorum, quæ de Patavinitate Livii dicta sunt, ἀνακεφαλαίωσιν instituit, modestiam censoribus Autorum veterum commendat, nec solo Pollione, sed omni etiam reliqua censorum turba superiorem Livii esse gloriam concludit.

Ex Literis Cl. Viri Dn. Ludolphi Kusteri, Amstelodamo 28 Novembris 1674. datis, ad Dn. Secretarium Oldenburgium.

Ad Literas tuas, Vir Clarissime, quas 14 hujus mensis ad me dedisti, respondeo, me Tractatum Dn. Hookii de Microscopio, quem ille Londini edidit, nondum vidisse, nec ullum ejus exemplar hic Amstelodami reperiri. Quare si quid ille de Animalculis, quæ in Semine Animalium observavit, scripsit, id mihi ignotum est. Ego vero, quæ de iis observavi, ea Epistolis meis ad Dn. Regnerum de Graaf, Medicum Delphensem, quæ Anno 1668. & 1669. Londinum ad Societatem Regiam missæ sunt, & in Tomo 4. Philosophicarum Transactionum impressæ, exposui. Quæ ibi scripsi, ea omnia ipse deinceps observavi, & quotidie observo. Quare si quid Dn. Hookius de iis scripsit, id ex meis Epistolis, quæ ad Dn. de Graaf datæ sunt, sumsisse videtur. Quæ autem ipse de Animalculis, quæ in Semine Animalium vivunt, observavi, ea ad Dn. de Graaf scripsi, & ille ea Societati Regiæ communicavit. Quæ vero de Animalculis, quæ in Infusis Herbarum vivunt, observavi, ea ad Dn. Secretarium Oldenburgium scripsi, & ille ea Societati Regiæ communicavit. Quæ de Animalculis, quæ in Aceto vivunt, observavi, ea ad Dn. Secretarium Oldenburgium scripsi, & ille ea Societati Regiæ communicavit. Quæ de Animalculis, quæ in Vino vivunt, observavi, ea ad Dn. NOVA RATIO ACCVRATISSIME INVENIENDI acus magnetica declinationem, expoſita in literis Dn. de Hautèfeuille ad Autorem Ephemer. Gallicarum.

Excerpta ex Ephemeridibus Pariſienſibus d. 23. Aug. 1683.

UT propoſitum Dn. Sturmii, a Te optime (Ephem. XX) explicatum, de invenienda acus magneticæ declinatione, quodammodo adjuvem, mitto Tibi Scriptum, quod 8. Julii 1682, Regiæ Academiæ Scientiarum Collegis exhibui, in quo novam rationem accuratiſſime definiendi hanc declinationem declaravi, imo ipſius quoque inclinationis inveſtigandæ modum docui, quæ hactenus parum obſervata fuit, nec minori tamen ſubeſſe mutationi, quam declinatio, videtur. Scriptum illud his verbis conceptum eſt.

Cum obſervationes, quæ exactius & majori cum diligentia fiunt, certiſſimæ ſint, & ad veritatem proxime accedant, dubium non eſt, inſtrumenta & machinas, quarum beneficio hanc determinationem exactam nanciſcimur, optimas & utiliſſimas eſſe. Acus Magnetica elegantiſſimorum inventorum unum eſt, ſive ad navigationem reſpicias, ſive plurimos uſus, quibus in terra applicatur, conſideres. Hactenus tamen, deficientibus idoneis inſtrumentis, non ſatis accurate obſervata fuit ejus cum declinatio, tum inclinatio.

Cogitavi, ſi acus magnetica teleſcopio ſic inſeratur, ut altera ipſius extremitatum, quam ſubtiliſſimam eſſe, & in mucronem terminari oportet, focum ocularis intret, ubi filum bombycinum immobile ſit, poſſe hac ratione minimas quaſcunque mutationes acus magneticæ commode obſervari. Siquidem certum eſt, teleſcopium in linea declinationis vel inclinationis Magneticæ poſitum, eſſe collineaturum ad objectum quodpiam, quod exacte filo notatum, omnes acus mutationes, etiam minimas, patefaciet. Nam ſi acus variaverit ad craſſitiem fili bombycini, quod communiter centeſima vigeſima pars eſt linioleæ, & tum ex oppoſito fili locetur, objectum notatum non amplius per vitrum apparebit, ſed aliud oculis obveniet, tanto magis a priori diſtans, quanto longius objecta diſtabunt a teleſcopio. Experimentum, quod cum acu utrinque acuminata ſex pollicum feci, ex voto ſuccеſſit.

aliquod qnadratum, ibi forte in medio ſemitæ cujusdam pro viatorum requie poſitum, & poſtquam ita collineaſſem, ut filum bombycinum cum extimo ſaxi angulo præciſe coincideret, acum magneticam obſervavi tantulum a filo declinaſſe dextrorſum occidentem verſus. Converſa itaque teleſcopii parte anteriore leniter in eandem plagam occidentalem, donec acus cuſpide ſua directe in filum protenſa cerneretur, & mox obtutu in aliquod objectum notabile pone hoc idem filum defixo (occurrebat autem frutex lupuleto cuidam proximus, & ſaxum prius viſum e conſpectu ſe penitus proripuerat) obſervabam deinde magnam inter hoc ſignum poſterius & ſaxum illud prius, aut lineas ad utrumque directas, intercapedinem ex tantula acus translatione obortam.

Certum igitur jam erat, ſi teleſcopio ſupra lineam meridianam exactiſſime protenſo, in objecto quodam immobili, v.g. rupe quadam aut muro &c. locus notaretur a filo bombycino præciſe oſtenſus, & poſtmodum, acu interea in hanc aut illam partem declinante, teleſcopium converteretur, donec illius cuſpis filo prædicto immineret, eoque teleſcopii poſitu aliud ſignum immobile ſtatueretur; poſt hæc minimam quamque & in ſe vix ſenſibilem mutationem in acus declinatione contingentem, iterato eodem loco & intuitu priorum illarum notarum experimento, valde ſenſibilem futuram: id quod hoc totum eſt, quod volebat Hautefeuillius. Sed eſſe nunc plus ultra progrediendum ratus, de eo cogitandum putavi, quo pacto laudabilis hujus inventi ope tum variationis ejusmodi, tum ipſius declinationis menſura in gradibus & minutis exacte determinari poſſit. Huic vero rei tentandæ cum ante omnia meridianam lineam prærequiri conſtaret, & quidem in loco patulo deſignatam, amandato in amplam quandam planitiem ſuburbanam ſtudioſo quopiam inſtituti noſtri haud ignaro, ego in obſervatorio noſtro quadrantis Azimuthalis grandioris ope Solis altitudinem meridianam ex Tabulis prius computatam captans, hac obtenta ſignum eminus dabam, ut lineam umbroſam ex perpendiculo ibi ſuſpenſo longiore projectã gemino ſigno ſtatim notaret. Id quod equidem, etſi paulo infelicius, ab ipſo præſtitum fuerat, (cauſabatur enim intervalli magnitudinem, e quo ſignum ex pacto datum ſatis diſtincte certoque percipere non potuerit) ac præterea hunc ipſum modum lineæ meridianæ inveniendæ non adeo accuratum

Anno 1585. Mense Decembri. Die 1. Dominica. Hora 1. Minuta 30. Ego Tycho Brahe, Astronomiæ studiosus, Anno ætatis meæ 39. Mensis 2. Dies 25. Hora 1. Minuta 30. Cum Sole meridianum ingressus, altitudinem ejus meridianam observavi, ut sequitur.

Per Instrumentum Quadrantis 6. pedum, cum Radiis Diametralibus, Sole ad Meridianum accedente, ejus altitudo meridiana observata fuit, ut sequitur.

Per Radium Australem, altitudo Solis meridiana observata fuit 60. gr. 30. m. Per Radium Borealem, altitudo Solis meridiana observata fuit 60. gr. 30. m. Ergo altitudo Solis meridiana vera fuit 60. gr. 30. m. Anno 1585. A quo declinavit magnitudo gradus distantiæ Hiſtoria anatomica Elephantis Dublini caſu incendio perempti, una cum relatione novarum quarundam obſervationum anatomicarum in animalium oculis: Autore A. Moulins Medico Collegii Trinitatis prope Dublinum.

Londini, apud Samuel. Smidt, 1682. in 4.

MUlta in Anatomia quoque adhuc deſiderari, neque dum omnia huc usque in ea inventa fuiſſe, binæ literæ præſentes palam faciunt. In prioribus ſiquidem ad Dn. Guilielmum Petty de Elephante perſcriptis Autor defectum, qui apud alios Zootomos, v. gr. apud Severinum in Zootomia Democritea, item Blaſium in Anatomia Animalium &c. animadvertitur, quodammodo ſupplet; dum commemoratis prius quibusdam impedimentis, quo minus accuratiorem Elephantis hiſtoriam anatomicam potuerit conſignare, potiorum poſtmodum Elephantis partium mirandam ſatis percurrit ſtructuram, hanc ita delineando, prout oculis propriis a ſe fuit uſurpata, quibusdam demum ad Elephantis Oſteologiam pertinentibus finiens, ſimulque figuris integram oſſium compagem, item proboſcidem, linguam, colon, penem, ac cranium in ſpecie exprimens. In poſterioribus vero literis ad Dn. Boyle exaratis, nova plane quædam circa oculos animalium a nemine Anatomicorum ante diſcripta noſter exponit Autor, nova ſcilicet ligamenta in oculo bovino primum caſu a ſe inventa, quæ ex media circiter Sclroticæ parte interna circumcirca prodeant, & maximam partem intra vaginulas quaſi eadem in tunica decurrant, donec in cornea, ubi ciliaris adhæreſcit proceſſus, terminentur. Nullum horum ligamentorum animadvertit uveam ſeu choroiden perforare ullibi, diverſæ licet craſſitiei reperiantur, neque eo in loco, quo ciliari connectitur ligamento: quædam eorum prope inſertionem eſſe diviſa, & tunc contingere hanc oblique, pauciora omnino perpendiculariter terminari, alia vero, poſtquam in via aliquantum lineam rectam deſcripſerint, cum circulari corneæ ambitu formare triangulum. Occaſionem interim ſibi hucusque defuiſſe innuit ligamenta eadem in humano inquirendi oculo, quæ in omnibus rem redderet, non dubitavit Statuta Cambialia Francofurti ad Mœnum recepta, ut & Ordinationem Lipſienſem de Cambiis, quæ anno 1682 prodiit, verbotenus inſerere : utpote quæ quamplurimis utiliſſimis obſervationibus, circa controverſias cambiales, anſam dare poſſe autumat. Denique cum multum interſit ad caute contrahendum, noſſe diſcrepantia diverſarum provinciarum ſtatuta; dum ſæpe, quod hic cautela eſt, alibi noxium eſſe poſſet; ſummopere eam in rem commendat Henrici Gleſeberti Juſtinianum Harmonicum, ut & Pericula Statutorum Harmonica: cujus nempe autoris, in conferendis Germaniæ Statutis, induſtriam neminem unquam exæquaſſe judicat.

ADDITIO AD SHEDAM IN ACTIS PROXIME antecedentis Maji pag. 233 editam, de dimenſionibus Curvilineorum, per G. G. L.

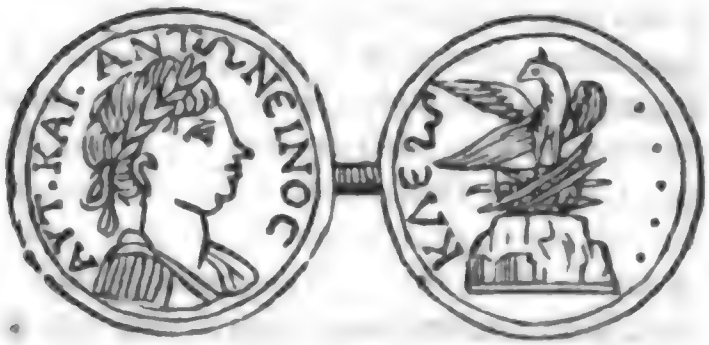
CUm eximiæ eruditionis Mathematicus, Joh. Chriſtophorus Sturmius, in Actis nuperi menſis Martii publicaverit Methodum, qua dimenſiones figurarum ab Euclide, Archimede, aliisque datæ directius & compendioſius, quam vulgo fieri ſolet, demonſtrantur, reducendo ſcilicet ad ſeries infinitas continua abſciſſarum, ſeu partium axis biſectione, & parallelogrammorum ſemper aliorum atque aliorum (pro altitudine partes axis, pro baſi ordinatas habentium) circumſcriptione, ac de ea re meam nominatim aliorumque Geometrarum ſententiam deſideraverit; officii mei putavi, quid ſentiam paucis expromere, etſi ſerius fortaſſe quam facturus eram, ſi illum Actorum locum maturius animadvertiſſem. Et quidem non poſſum non agnoſcere methodum hanc demonſtrandi probam eſſe & laudandam. DE PHOENICE IN NVMISMATE IMP. Antonini Caracallæ expressa, Epistola Gabrielidis Carolæ Patinæ, Parisinæ, Academicæ.

Venetiis apud Joh. Fr. Valvacensem A. 1683 in 4.



QUod libris doctissimis in publicum emissis immortaliter hactenus de orbe litterario meritus sit Carolus Patinus, illustris hodie Academiæ Patavinæ Professor, vel ex Actis nostris, quorum tertium jam annum finimus, sat abunde patet. Sed ecce & per filias doctissimas (ne de Nobilissima conjuge Magdalena Hommez Patina, cujus Reflexiones Morales & Christianæ a. 1680 editæ dudum innotuerunt, jam dicamus) bene mereri de antiquitatis & litteraturæ abstrusioris studio jam incipit. Illarum enim altera, CAROLA CATHARINA, solemni oratione Paduæ LEOPOLDO Imperatori, tanquam felicissimo Turcarum victori, superiore anno gratulata est. Extat ea typis exscripta hoc titulo: Oratio de liberata civitate Vienna, habita Patavii prid. Kal. Nov. M. DC LXXXIII a Carola Catharina Patina, Parisina, Academica, Imperatori Cæsari Leopoldo Augusto, optimo, maximo, triumphatori invictissimo dicata. Altera vero, ut & ipsa eruditionis non protritæ ederet specimen, Gabrielis Carola, epistolam de Phœnice, ut supra indicatum, eodem superiore anno edidit. Occasionem huic scripto dedit numulus æneus viri illustrissimi D. Hieronymi Corrarii,

Figura tertia, centrum Circuli, & Ellipsis, quæ ad Circulum

cis existentia sic satis stabilita tot autorum jam memoratorum testimonio videri possit, Patina tamen non nisi mysticam & fabulosam eam existimat, argumentis partim logicis, partim physicis adducta. Denotari autem per Phœnicem observat, a Chymicis quidem Elixir alchymicum, Basiliscum, aliaque istius artis medicamenta, id quod abs experientissimo Patre se fuisse edoctam profitetur; in nummis vero felicem temporum reparationem vel instaurationem, quod probat ex nummis Constantini M. filiorum, Constantini junioris, Constantii & Constantis (de nummo autem Constantini M. his subjuncto, quem Cardinalis Carpegna habuit, dubie admodum differit) æternitatem item, in nummo Marci Ruzini D. Marci Procuratoris, imo & res alias, ostendentibus id nummis recentioribus, quorum ingeniosæ inscriptiones sub finem annectuntur. Quod si & huic & alteri Patinæ vitam ulteriorem, quam serio ipsis apprecamur, indulserit Divinum Numen, meritissimo suo in Catalogum Eruditarum Fœminarum referentur, qualem immortale hujus Academiæ decus Jac. Thomasius, sed nuper eheu! nobis ereptus (nam inter LXXXVI. dissertationes docte atque eleganter elaboratas, quas in Cathedra Philosophica invicte tuitus est, etiam duæ de Eruditione Fœminarum extant) contexuit.

RICHARDI ZOUCHEI, JURIS CIVILIS PROF. Publ. Oxonienſis, Quæſtionum Juris Civilis Centuria.

Londini, apud Gul. Robinſon, 1682 in 12.

Libellum hunc exiguæ molis, nec fere nisi pro tyronibus scriptum, silentio forte præteriissimus, nisi evidenti testimonio esse posset, Jurisprudentiam nostram Justinianeam in Anglia nondum, ut quidem plerisq; persuasum est, in totum eviluisse: quin potius hodienum ibidem Jus Civile Romanum, si non in judiciis, in Academiis certe, aliquo adhuc in honore haberi; cujus etiam Professionem opusculi hujus Autori publice mandatam, titulus ipse loquitur. In eo vero commemorando vel ideo breviores esse poterimus, quia non nunc primum in publicum prodit, sed altera tantum vice excusum exhibetur; postquam jam anno 1659 in lucem fuerat editum. Quæstiones centum tum Juris Civilis proponit, in decem classes pro diversitate materiarum distributas; eas vero non abstrusas aut rarius occurrentes, sed tritissimas: formatas nempe maxima ex parte e vulgatissimis brocardicis atque regulis Juris. Methodo satis concinna usus est Autor, dum primum quæstionem quamlibet, vel affirmative, vel negative decisam, subjectis legum textibus, ipsisque earum verbis, confirmat; hinc pariter leges obstantes ordine subjungit, subnexa singulis conciliatione brevi, sed accommoda satis; ulterius addit, quid huic aut illi interpreti de qualibet earum quæstionum visum fuerit, & quomodo distinguendo aut limitando easdem solidius enodare sategerint; denique in fine cujusvis quæstionis alios Autores allegat, qui a studiosis lectoribus de qualibet materia latius consuli valeant.

MACVLÆ SOLARIS REDITVS SVB SOlem ter repetitus, Lipsiaque observatus.

INter phænomena cœlestia, quæ annum hunc memorabilem faciunt, forte non extremo loco censendus est Maculæ Solaris (quæ prima apparitione ex geminis veluti conflata, altero etiam reditu, unam pluresve levibus nebulis inter se nexas comites habuit) sub Solem mense Aprili incurrentis, ter iteratus reditus, Lipsiæ per menses vernos & æstivos observatus. Eandem enim fuisse, celebrati justo revolutionis tempore exacto recursus dubitare vix sinunt: & conjecturæ nostræ (præter Ephemerides Gallicas, quæ non tantum pag. 177 primæ periodi observationes, cum prædictione alterius proxime insecutæ, hujusq: delineationem, nobis exhibuerunt; sed & pag. 238 sub faculæ specie mense Junio reversam, & peragrato nondum disco Solari iterum pristinam, inobservata hactenus metamorphosi, maculæ sed jam binæ formam induentem, & harum alteram evoluto circuitu, sub Julii mensis st. n. exordium, denuo observatam prodidere) aliorum etiam clarorum Mathematicorum de phænomeno isthoc sensa suffragari accepimus. Ex quo dignam rem judicavimus, quam curiosis cœlestium spectaculorum sectatoribus strictim recensseremus.

Visa ea primum est die 26 Aprilis stylo veteri, cum nondum digitum a margine Solis orientali abesset; disparuitque, peragrato inferiori Solis hemisphærio, nocte quæ 6 & 7 Maji intercessit. Animadversa iterum
